As already mentioned, the lucky seventh had passed over as aspiring heads of the Midland valiants. The team was two in the hole. To McMillan forced Taylor at third. La cap the massacre, Angelic hitting Bauve flied to left, and Rawlings and flying added two more in the eighth. Midland fans folded up their cushions and prepared to go for the gate. To make their disappointment greater, it was Pitcher Eubanks who fresh tallies, the long, lank man addressing the ball and slamming out a home run over the left field wall that probably establishes a new record for endurance flight. > Angelo's catcher, Wyley, did some clowning. The young fella has a habit of baa-a-a-a-ing at the stands in the most approved sheep fashion. Being a pleasant sort, he went over with the fans.

And "Skeet," another Angelo player clowned unconsciously when he slid into home when the ball was played to second. Do you recall?

Big Ed is certainly missed. The first baseman was called away because of the illness of his mother. He intended to join the club in Big Spring this afternoon. Midland would feel more assurance if he would. There's a stabilizing influence in seeing the big fellow spread eagle at the plate, cock his bat back and wonder which fence

Eubanks is a man who can fling a baseball to the best of them. He has a deceptive change of pace, and seems to cloak his offerings with And he was right for several innings in Sunday's game.

Gripin', beefin' Cy, he has trouble with every umpire in the league. He likes to call his own strikes and balls. When almost hit on the head by a pitched ball during the afternoon, however, he had the stands warm up to him. Just a touch of boyishness did the trick, the young fellow turning to the ump and grinning as he extravagaintly measured how near the ball came to his head. That sort of thing sometimes changes the whole tenor of a game-as regards the attitude of the faus.

Yessir, that game was turgid for a while but fans do not pay out half a buck to see many such dramatic endings. And that, also, is more or less a truthful statement.

passed twice to get to Harry Taylor, fans as Mgr. King is thrown out by several feet as he attempts to pilfer the second sack in the early stages of the game. It did look had. But the manager came back to steal home later in the game. And many of the fans took time out to remember that he does this W. L. Pct sort of thing quite frequently. At 32 18 .640 any rate, Jawn is winning games, .608 20 is he not? 24 .529 25 25 .500 Flowers got a real break in the 23 27 .460 third inning. Hitting a fast ball with 18 32 .360 the sort of swing that has made him stand out as a run scorer this season, the center fielder trotted down W. L. Pct. 17 .653 to first, expecting to stop there. He 23 .540 was no less surprised than the An-22 .532 gelo right fielder when the fast .528 skimming ball took a hop that 25 cleared the fence. That sort of 24 .520 thing would probably happen about 26 26 .500 25 26 .440 as often as one would draw a royal 13 39 .250 flush. San Angelo ball players impress W. L. Pct the fans as a bunch of business-82 33 .713 like young men. They will re-67 44 .604 proach the umpire when they feel 60 53 .531 they have not been dealt the right .513 59 56 decision; but that is to be expect-54 60 .474 ed. They would probably turn 48 63 .432 their backs together and fight just 45 70 .391 as quickly-but who wouldn't? 38 74 .389 And they're a dangerous crew, apt to hoist the Jolly Roger any time and make off with a fresh game W. L. Pci under hatches. 7 435 .679 66 43 .606 Anyway, Lefty Moore couldn't 62 52 .54 stand the blows of the Buccaneer-.500 56 ing visitors, and had to give up to 50 62 .446 Melton, who in turn eventually gave 48 65 .425 way to Briggs. And Blake was on 45 67 .402 44 66 .400 Fried chicken supper, 60c. Minute Inn Cafe RITZ TODAY and TUESDAY

FAIR WORDS butter no parsnips ... what smokers want in a cigarette is TASTE. And taste is what Chesterfield offers. We have seen to it that the taste is there-mild, fragrant, satisfying flavor that talks more convincingly to smokers than all the fair words in the dictionary:

"TASTE above everything"

AILD ... and yet THEY SATISFY
