

THREE SENTENCED FOR FORGERY

Midland Folks to Big Spring by Cars and Plane Today

THE PROPOSED COURT HOUSE

IN THIS ISSUE
BOND ISSUE LIMITED

Editorial

Some confusion has been reported as to the reason for issuing bonds of $150,000 and warrants of $145,000 to pay for a courthouse costing $295,000.

The law limits bond issues for courthouse construction to two per cent of the taxable valuation of the county. Midland county, with actual property values of $30,000,000, takes only a 25-per cent valuation for tax purposes, or a total of $7,500,000. Thus, under the low renditions, the limit of a bond issue for a new courthouse in Midland county is set at $150,000.

However, there is no restriction to prevent the issuance of warrants in the amount of $145,000, so that a building of the size and type needed can be built. The warrants, issued by the commissioners' court, sell in the same manner as the bonds, and are retired by taxes in the same manner.

Future Road Bonds
Some voters are also reported to be confused on how the courthouse bond issue will effect possible road bond issues in the future. The courthouse bonds will not affect other bond issues at all. Bonds for road construction may be voted at any time, insofar as bonded indebtedness is concerned, but since such construction is entirely under the supervision of the state highway department, it is not likely that any immediate action will be possible, county officials say.

Indebtedness Low
Remember this, Midland county's limit of $150,000 in bonds for courthouse construction is not an indication of present heavy bonded indebtedness. A subsequent editorial will show just how little Midland county's debt is in comparison with other counties. It is just $121,000.

Someone has circulated a report that the present courthouse and jail are not fully paid for. This is entirely in error, as the county officials will gladly show by the records.

Low Valuation Best
There is no reason for taking a higher valuation than is taken in Midland county at present. If there were, the commissioners could take property at its full value, giving the county a total valuation of approximately $30,000,000. Under this valuation, court house bonds of $600,000 could be issued, and there would still be plenty of allowance for possible road bonds or other kinds of county bonds.

There is no necessity for taking a higher valuation than the 25 per cent, however, county officials say. More money is retained here for maintenance under the present plan, making possible the construction and improvement of more county roads than would be possible under a higher valuation and a lower rate where more money would go to the state.

Later articles in this column will deal with the advantages to taxpayers of the large increase in property values in the county, showing just how little the courthouse will cost each tax payer.

Woman Prisoner To Write Story

Maud Raines, waiting behind bars for the time when she is to address the jury in conducting her own trial, and of whom there are various hair-raising stories relating to bullet wounds, gun fights and bank robberies, will write her life story for The Reporter-Telegram.

"Sure, I have no objection to doing that; it might make time pass faster up here," the prisoner said when visited by a staff writer of this paper Wednesday.

The story was started today, and will probably be completed for publication Sunday.

OPENING OF AIRPORT IS ATTRACTION

Aerobatics Carred For Afternoon Program

Members of the aeronautics committee of the chamber of commerce, a staff writer of The Reporter-Telegram, the manager and owner of Hotel Scharbauer, and various others went from Midland today to attend the opening of Big Spring's big airport.

Festivities of the opening are scheduled to last through Thursday. Many notables are present for a part on the program, which is made up largely of aerobatics this afternoon.

Famous Girl Attending
BIG SPRING, Tex., Sept. 11.—Elinor Smith, the 18-year-old girl who holds the world's endurance flight record for women, and Bert White, of the Irving Air Chute Company, who flew under Brooklyn Bridge when he was only 15 years old, are making a special flight to Texas to attend the Big Spring airport opening, according to word received here today.

Because of the distance they have to come they will not be able to reach here until the second day of the celebration, it is understood, but they say they will be here Thursday without fail.

These two world-famous fliers are attending the air fete as guests of the Southern Air Transport System, a subsidiary of the Aviation Corporation, which uses the Big Spring airport as its division point and luncheon stop on its Dallas-El Paso passenger line. Southern Air Transport will also use Big Spring as its division point on its Amarillo-San Antonio passenger line when that line is opened next spring or summer.

Other Notables
White is piloting the plane which is bringing him and Miss Smith to the airport opening, according to word telegraphed here today from Fort Worth by the headquarters of the Southern Air Transport System. Miss Smith set her world's endurance flight record for women of 26 hours about a year ago. White, however, made his extraordinary flight in the days before aviation had come into its own, when normal people looked upon all aviators as madmen or fools.

A. P. Barrett, president of the Southern Air Transport System and vice-president of the $200,000,000 Aviation Corporation, will dedicate the airport Wednesday evening with appropriate ceremonies in the light of the flood lamps which make the Big Spring airport the only lighted airport between Fort Worth and El Paso.

The aerocade of thirteen planes due here from Fort Worth at noon Wednesday will bring among others Miss Mildred Gardner, secretary to Tom Hardin, vice-president and the general manager of the Southern Air Transport System, who has been designated as the Duchess of Fort Worth to ride in the Evolution of Transportation Parade Thursday morning. Miss Gardner will be accompanied by Miss Mabel Gouldy, staff correspondent of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, as her official escort.

Jury Completed In Rogers Trial Today

NEW BRAUNFELS, Sept. 11.—(P)—The jury to try Mrs. Rebecca Bradley Rogers for hold-up of the Farmers National Bank at Buda in December, 1926, escaping with $1,000, was completed shortly after noon today, after 132 veniremen had been examined.

Judge Says Crime Runs With Markets

The city police may expect to find a regular morning docket ready for its attention as soon as the cooler weather and crop marketing begins, thinks Police Judge J. M. Gilmore.

"Petty crime and misdemeanors run hand in hand with the stock market, it has been observed," Judge Gilmore says. "When money is being circulated freely, there is more expenditure of it for nefarious purposes. Trouble results from gambling and drinking, and we have a lively court business as a result."

REMINDERS AND RIDES FEATURE RAYBURN REVIVAL

As result of the appointment of two important committees by Chairman W. I. Prait of the Rayburn evangelistic campaign, more people will be reminded to attend the services and those who do not have transportation will be furnished free rides.

The automobile transportation committee, of which Claude Crane is chairman, invites people to phone for rides to the tabernacle for the preaching services. Mr. Crane's business phone is No. 24 and his residence phone is 366-J, and those who desire transportation to the revival will phone him.

Mrs. J. M. White is chairman of the telephone invitation committee, and she will head a group of women who will divide names, telephone them each day and remind them to come out to the meeting.

Although attendance the last two nights was somewhat lighter on account of wet weather, the meeting is progressing.

MAUDE RAINES, CHARGED WITH DIAMOND ROBBERY HERE TO PLEAD OWN CASE; STOUTLY MAINTAINS HER INNOCENCE

"Oh yes, I'll plead my own case. I'm not educated enough to do it, but I'm studying the formalities that must be understood before one goes before the jury to plead a case."

This statement serves to introduce to the reading public a woman who is in the Midland county jail awaiting trial on a charge of having stolen $1,000 in diamonds from a local jeweler.

Maude Raines, who is said to have participated in numerous hair-raising escapades during her 37 years, and who is reported to be carrying in her body many buck shot, told of other days, was reading revised criminal statutes when the reporter was admitted by the sheriff to her cell. It was nearing dusk and she was sitting before a small fire kindled against the brick coolness which carried a hint of mid-autumn behind the thick walls of the jail.

The woman looked up quizzically, evidently with some curiosity as to who her visitor was. She shifted her position slightly from the half light to a place where the last light coming through a barred window fell upon her. She was dressed in khaki knickers, a feminine shirt of some soft material, and wore patent leather pumps. Her hair is bobbed. (One unaccountably feels upon meeting her that she is more than

NEGRO SEVERELY CUT IN FIGHT AT HOTEL YESTERDAY

John M. Spigner, negro, lies in a hospital suffering severely from knife wounds, and Allan Whitley, negro, is in jail with his badly cut hands bandaged, as result of a cutting affray alleged to have occurred in a locker room at the rear of a local hotel Tuesday afternoon.

Spigner's head was almost half severed, the knife wounds barely missing the jugular vein, and he was weak from loss of blood when his neck muscles had been sewed up at the Thomas Hospital.

Whitley's hands were cut, presumably from allowing his own knife to close on his hands, although he is said to have made the statement that he was "stabbed." Whitley said that two negroes attacked him, one hitting him with a beer bottle, but other negroes say that there was only one, Spigner, fighting Whitley. Whitley made his escape to the north part of town, but was picked up by a cab and had himself driven to the jail where he gave himself up. He is held awaiting action of the grand jury.

The trouble is said to have grown out of a $150 debt, and Whitley is reported to have said that the other negroes did not like him because he "beat them shooting craps."

Gilder's Imperials Play Casino Dance

Grady Gilder, director of the popular Imperial orchestra, is signifying his return to Texas after a series of engagements on the west coast by playing a casino dance at Big Spring Friday night.

Gilder has a 10-piece orchestra which is practically the same as that used for engagements at Hotel Scharbauer last year, except that he has augmented it through signing two more musicians.

Announcement is carried in today's Reporter-Telegram of the fall showing of ready-to-wear and other merchandise by Harris'. TWO ARE JAILED IN CONNECTION WITH ROBBERY

After a sweeping search conducted with the reasoning of a Dupin or Sherlock Holmes, Sheriff Audley Francis has arrested and jailed two men, H. E. Farrell and J. W. King, as suspects in connection with the West Texas Dry Goods Co. robbery last week. One thousand dollars in loot has been recovered.

A pair of greasy shoes and a cap were the clues which led to the arrest of the two, one of whom formerly worked at a local restaurant.

Officers at a distance were warned of the robbery and a description of a missing automobile here broadcast. A call came from Sheriff Reeder Webb of Ector county, saying that the automobile had been found in Odessa, with two tires down. Another machine had been taken to replace the stolen car.

When the sheriff of Midland county arrived he found the shoes and cap. Remarking that a mechanic or restaurant worker might have worn shoes with that kind of greasy appearance, the sheriff brought the exhibits back to Midland and at once began a round of inquiries of local restaurants, attempting to find out if any of these had lost an employee within the week.

One restaurant reported that a man had left and the sheriff, knowing that the former owner of the restaurant, for whom the missing man had worked, had established a new house in Arizona, got in his car and started that way.

The men were overtaken enroute, however, and approximately half the loot recovered.

Farrell was brought to Midland and King jailed in Odessa. Each is held without bond for trial.

Drilling Resumed At R. R. Penn Well

Latest reports on the Penn Atlantic No. 1 Bennett in Ward county say the well is being drilled deeper after yesterday morning swabbing it dry at a depth of 2778 feet and no oil filling the hole again.

The first show of oil at this location was Monday when a total of 70 barrels came in five heads at 2369 feet. The well is in section 16, block 34, H. & T. C. survey.

Lily Opens On Coolest Day

The street crowds Tuesday night dressed in their summer-winter deadline coats and wraps as the temperature took a sudden plunge toward the nether calibrations.

Strange to relate, a water lily which grows in a fountain at the courthouse, picked the coolest day of the season for opening one of its buds. Many persons went up the crushed flint walk to take a look at it.

Hopis Search for Wrecked Plane

ASK MIDLAND MEN ATTEND MEETING BREEDER-FEEDERS

Frank P. Holland, Jr., recently elected president of the Texas Breeder-Feeder movement, has written Leon Goodman of Midland and the secretary of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, inviting them to a conference in Dallas next week to make plans for the approaching meeting of breeders and feeders at the State Fair in October.

W. P. Mitchell and G. W. Barnes, vice-president and secretary, respectively of the new organization, are to attend the conference next week.

The manner in which Midland carried out the Breeder-Feeder meeting here last Saturday was complimented highly by Mr. Holland in his letters.

JAMES T. ROBISON

It is seldom that the records of a great commonwealth show such a long term of service in high office as that which has just been ended by the death of James T. Robison, who for 24 years had been Land Commissioner of the State.

Mr. Robison's 24 years as State Land Commissioner was more than a mere record of political success of unusual duration. Year after year he was re-elected without opposition, evidencing not only the fact that he had the friendship of the voters but that his fitness for the office was such and the respect and regard in which he was held was so universal that office-seekers, usually avid for state preferment, eliminated the land office from their plans.

Mr. Robison viewed the land office not as an agency for prosecuting a paying land business for the State but as an instrumentality for furthering a State policy of development through the opening up of dormant lands.

The casual verdict on such an official career as that of Mr. Robison will be that a man is fortunate who can hold on to an office for a quarter of a century in a democracy which habitually shifts officeholders every year or so.

NOT SO WILD, AFTER ALL

Moving pictures and novels in the last few years have delighted in picturing modern college students as a gay, uproarious and somewhat self-indulgent crew.

Good Housekeeping magazine recently decided to investigate. It sent Rita S. Halle out to look into the matter at first hand.

There is far less drinking in the colleges now than there was a decade ago. Not more than a tenth of one per cent of the co-eds of the country are guilty of improper conduct.

You might bear that in mind the next time someone regales you with wild stories of flaming college youth.

OUT OUR WAY

On the World's Airways

By JOSEPH H. BAIRD, United Press Aviation Editor

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—(UP)—Behold the modern airplane! From the standardized biplane of early post-war days, it has blossomed out into an infinite number of varieties comparable with the roadster, touring car, limousine, coupe, speedster, town car and motor truck of the automobile world.

One does not know this already, one would be impressed with the variations the sky ships have taken after viewing some 22 of them now on exhibit at the National Aeronautical Exposition in Cleveland.

Biplanes, monoplanes, open ships, cabin ships, huge transports, light sport planes, elaborately decorated air liners, land planes, flying boats, seaplanes, and within each of these classifications ships embodying various innovations which distinguish them from their brothers.

All the ships placed on view at the Cleveland meet represent types approved by the Department of Commerce as safe and airworthy.

Biplanes, in former years far outnumbering monoplanes, still remain in the lead, but that lead is steadily decreasing. In the Cleveland exhibit 144 biplanes and 68 monoplanes are shown.

Just as automobile buyers five years ago turned from the open to the closed cars, so are airplane purchasers coming to favor warm cabin ships.

Growth of commercial flying is reflected in the number of large ships now being built. On view in Cleveland are 16 different types of planes seating from seven to 14 passengers, 17 seating more than 14.

Aeronautics, like sports, armies, and the underworld, is developing a vocabulary all its own, which to the uninitiated is scarcely intelligible.

The following, published recently in a Wichita dispatch, was designed to show the need of an aviation dictionary of slang, which, incidentally, has been published.

"The ceiling was so low I couldn't even see the 'sock,' so I 'side-slipped' the old 'crate' down through the 'pea-soup,' 'cut the gun' and 'set her down' for as neat a 'three point pancake' as I ever made."

All of which, in plain English, means merely that the pilot, troubled by fog, volplaned easily down to a perfect landing.

Lieut. Apollo Soucek, U.S.N., who temporarily established a world's altitude record for both land and seaplanes last spring, believes eight and one-half miles is the limit to which man may ascend with his present breathing equipment, but that the invention of a helmet, comparable with those worn by deep-sea divers, may enable him to rise much higher.

Soucek, in a recent radio talk, said he and his associates had been studying to develop such a helmet. Their efforts thus far have been balked by the fact the exhaust valves which must be attached to the helmet, freeze in the higher

ITALY ACTIVE IN FIGHT UPON BIRTH CONTROL

ROME, Sept. 9.—(UP)—The Catholic episcopate in Italy has joined hands with the government on the question of the demographic development of the country.

The parish priests have been instructed to warn their parishioners of the evils of birth control and "all practices tending to pervert the true objects of marriage."

Special sermons on matrimony and the married state are to be preached in all the churches of Italy, and the priests are particular to bring to the notice of their flocks the new ordinance of the Sacred Congregation of the Sacrament, whereby Catholics in Italy must marry only according to the religious rite.

Until the Concordant of February 11, a civil ceremony had to be added to the religious marriage, but now the religious rite alone is binding by the laws of the land.

Confessors have received instructions to be especially severe against sins committed in the name of birth control which the church absolutely refuses to admit.

Proposed Changes in WTCC By-Laws Made

Proposed changes in the construction and by-laws of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, worked out in a meeting at Stamford Monday by a committee appointed for that purpose, have been mailed to T. Paul Barron, local director in the organization and he has been asked to read them carefully, make any desired suggestions as to changes or additions, and to send in his opinion of the revised document.

The committee was composed of Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls, O. P. Thrane of Snyder and R. L. Penick of Stamford. These men were appointed for this duty at the executive meeting in Coleman last year, but have just completed their recommendations.

After directors have passed on the proposed changes, the report will be submitted to the fall convention at El Paso next month for adoption or rejection.

Junk Dealer Owes Telephone Debt

AMARILLO, Texas, Sept. 11.—(UP)—Sam Belg, junk dealer, figures he owes a debt to Alexander Graham Bell for participating in the development of the telephone.

Belg was sitting in his junk shop when a man entered and offered to sell some junk. Belg was unwilling to make the purchase until he learned more about the material, its weight, its location. The customer became insistent, Belg demurred. The customer drew a pistol from his pocket, made a few uncomplimentary remarks and demanded a check for $30.

Belg stalled. He glanced longingly at the telephone, but the customer forbade him to use it. Just then the phone rang. The intruder let Belg answer it.

"Come down right away. I want to pay you that money I owe you," Belg said into the mouthpiece. Still stalling for time, Belg seemed relieved when a detective walked into the office. The police department had telephoned to inquire about some pipe it had stored in the junk yard.

The Coolidge apartment was described as consisting of "four and a half rooms." The young couple will pay $78 a month rent for their home which is located in a white brick building of severe colonial design.

If you think that your line of business is the only one that has its ups and downs, you are all wet as is proved by a story taken from an exchange dealing with a newspaper compositor who was given the task of getting up slogans in an advertising column with the names of the product immediately following the slogan.

The compositor knew his onions all right when it came to knowing all of the slogans which appear in national publications regularly, but in writing up the copy he in some manner got the slogans and products somewhat mixed up with the following startling result:

"Eventually, Why Not Now"—National Funeral Directors Association.

"Keep That School Girl Complexion"—Gem Razors.

"Good to the Last Drop"—Haviland China.

"Has the Strength of Gibraltar"—Kraft Cheese.

"The Quality is Remembered Long After the Price is Forgotten"—Pluto Water.

"The Flavor Lasts"—Squibb's Tasteless Castor Oil.

"The Hams What Am"—Chicago Civic Opera.

"The Danger Line"—Santa Fe Railroad.—Alpine Avalanche.

Large Attendance Held During Daily Bible School

An average of 40 students and seven teachers was held during the Daily Bible School recently sponsored by the Christian Woman's Missionary Society. Seventeen of these forty held a perfect attendance and eight missed only one day.

Juniors and intermediates completing the course of work and receiving as a reward a Bible were Jean Dozier, Verlyn and Darrel Cales, Marie Garrett, Tennie and Woodrow Stewart, Marvlyn Cole and Lu Elen Evans. Eight in the primary department completed the memory work and received blue badges.

Directors of the school have expressed their sincere appreciation of all who cooperated with the school which was highly successful.

Mrs. Jared Given Party Before Departure

As a farewell courtesy to Mrs. M. A. Jared, who left yesterday for her new home in Dallas, members of the Leis Class of the Baptist church entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. A. Wall. Mrs. Jared has been teacher of this class for the past six months.

Aside from the social period routine business matters were attended to and officers were elected.

As a token of appreciation for Mrs. Jared's sincere work for the class, members presented her with a lovely remembrance.

During the social hour Mrs. Wall assisted by Mrs. E. C. Girdley served refreshments.

Former Midland Man Married to Slaton Girl

News has reached Midland of the recent marriage of Mr. C. E. Hicks, formerly bookkeeper of the Rockwell Bros. Lumber Company here and now manager of the Panhandle Lumber Company of Lubbock. About a year ago Mr. Hicks left Midland for Big Spring where he was interested in real estate business. He later located in Slaton where he was connected with a lumber company and was recently promoted to his present position. Following is a clipping from the Lubbock Avalanche last Sunday of the Hicks-Sealy marriage:

"C. E. Hicks of this city and Miss Nora Sealy of Slaton were married at 7:30 Thursday evening in Slaton by the Reverend B. G. Holloway, pastor of the First Baptist church, there in his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are now at home at 2306 Tenth street.

Mrs. Hicks was a teacher in the Slaton schools last year and she is the daughter of W. A. Sealy of Slaton.

Guests at the wedding were the groom's sister, Miss Ethel Hicks of this city, and the bride's sister, Miss Cora Sealy of Slaton."

Good Attendance At Rayburn Nursery

The nursery being held at the Baptist church in connection with the Rayburn revival, is having good attendance each evening, according to the women in charge.

Mesdames G. C. Newman and Claude Crane will take care of the children tonight and mothers are asked to leave their children at the nursery. Baby beds, toys and other equipment has been placed in the room for the use of the children.

Oregon Co-Ed to Reign As Queen of Cowboys

Pretty Kathleen McClintock will reign as queen of the cowpunchers at the annual Pendleton (Ore.) round-up to be held soon. She is a skilful horsewoman. Incidentally, Kathleen, who is a prominent Oregon State College co-ed, seems to have all the charm one associates with queens, as you will notice by a glance.

I wonder if a great many mothers are not completely at sea about the new way of disinfection after contagious illnesses.

Not so many years ago we had a serious case of scarlet fever in the family. When the quarantine was lifted, the health board fairly tore the house to pieces in their zeal to disinfect us—with the family as very willing helpers. We wanted that feeling of safety and purity for not only ourselves, but our friends, indeed to make double sure we bought a new set of disinfecting lamps after they were all through, and fumigated the house all over again. Everything that would stand scrubbing with soap and water or an antiseptic solution and everything moveable was sunned in the yard or burned. One whole bookcase was burned because we were not sure which books had been handled when the disease was still incubating.

Changing Times
A few years later, another child had scarlet fever—a very severe case of it, contracted away from home. When the quarantine was lifted and the sign taken down, the health board did not fumigate. We could do it ourselves if we wished to they told us, recommended a good airing and free use of soap and water but that was all.

And I think it would be very wise as well as satisfying to ask your doctor or the head of the health board the best way to purify the house after any contagious illness, and thus keep the rest of the family safe.

The WOMAN'S DAY by ALLENE SUMNER

It seems to me that feminists have failed to capitalize the big thing that came out of the women's air derby.

When interviewed, the winner, Mrs. Louise Thaden, asserted that the women's air derby had revealed a sportsmanship among aviatrixes greater than any displayed heretofore in other races in the air.

Old-fashioned men had thought that because the competition was keen, it would therefore be nasty. They had predicted everything from tears to hair pulling. Their amazement and perhaps consternation deepened when plane after plane settled down and bobbed head after bobbed head came out from under helmets and cockpits smiling and hurrahing the winner.

The sportsmanship was deeper than any demonstration that took place on the field. At several points the big planes waited for the little planes when winds were too strong for the wee ones to fight them. When Amelia Earhart's plane developed trouble with its propeller and delay ensued with spontaneous unanimity the entire derby laid up until she could hop off again with them. When the planes had landed it was discovered that Amelia Earhart had carried the luggage of several of her competitors. With that fine smile of hers, this admirable sportsman explained it away. "They were having a hard time with overload. I had to have some ballast."

Sister Mary's Kitchen

With the opening of school days, breakfast becomes perhaps the most important meal of the day. Children must have a nourishing, unhurried breakfast before they can begin the day. The normal adult should have some type of morning meal even if it's the "lightest" variety.

The adult who is dieting to reduce and decides to eat but two meals a day gives his digestive apparatus a fairer chance if he goes without his luncheon rather than his breakfast. This divides the time between meals more equally.

Breakfast for children should be of the "heartly" type. A morning in school uses up a vast amount of nervous energy as well as physical strength. No child can work mentally who is not nourished. Listlessness, headache or irritability may be the result.

The child who has little appetite for breakfast may not be having the right sort of evening meal. Too much and too rich food at bed-time keep the stomach working over time. Too little ventilation or careless ventilation and wrong bed-covers can make a child indifferent to his breakfast. A draft across the bed can cause a stuffy and uncomfortable feeling in the morning as insufficient fresh air can. Too heavy bed covers weigh a child down and make him feel tired while too light covers tend to make him curl into a ball in the effort to keep warm and he wakens cramped and uncomfortable with no desire for food.

A good meal to start the day is the normal, healthy requirement of children. The breakfast fruit can be varied using the less acid fresh fruits alternately with stewed fruits. Cereals with plenty of rich milk or cream can be of the cooked or ready to serve variety. Crisp toast or bacon to make a child chew is beneficial for the welfare of his teeth as well as his general health. Something hot aids digestion and this can be provided by a cup of hot milk or cocoa made with milk if a ready-to-serve cereal is served. A soft-cooked egg, poached or in the shell, or a creamed meat or vegetable on toast provides a warm dish and adds to the food value of the meal. At least fifteen minutes should elapse between the time a child finishes his breakfast and the time he starts to school.

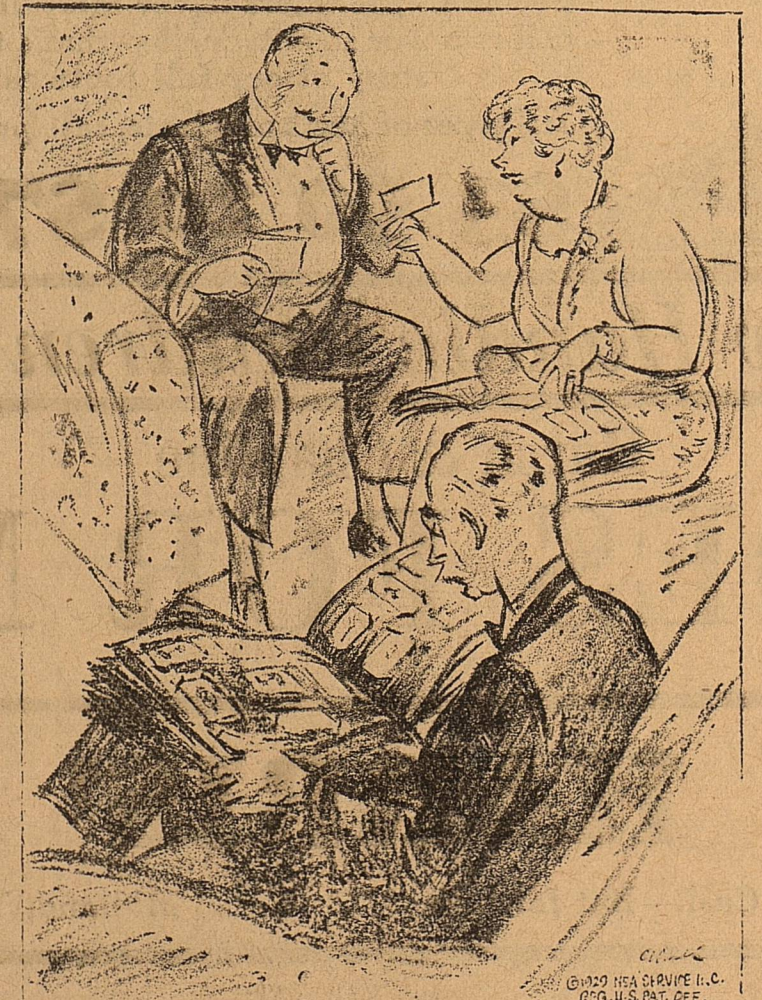

how many big advertising women, manufacturers, owners of businesses and other feminine successes respond. They come, not to get anything out of it for themselves, but to help lesser lights in their very own lines climb a bit higher towards the heights they have reached.

Surely, the age of sportsmanship and cooperation in feminism has arrived.

IT WAS A GRAND SURPRISE TO HER

Ballerina Woman Says She Had Suffered Three Years Before Taking Orgatone

"I have gained daily on my first bottle of Orgatone and feel like a different person already," said Mrs. Horace Atmip, tailor at Armstrongs, and residing at 804 Twelfth Street, Ballinger, Texas, the other day. "I was in a very much run-down condition," she explained, "from stomach disturbances and most everything I would eat gave me trouble. My food would sour on my stomach and form gas that made me miserable for hours. My nerves were all on edge so I got little rest at night, and when morning came I was most as tired as I was when I went to bed. I had terrible spells of palpitation of the heart and felt so wretched and no account I hardly had any life or energy left to do anything."

"I heard so many people telling about the good that Orgatone had done them that I decided to try it. The way it took hold of my troubles was one grand surprise and I hardly know how to begin telling of all the benefits I have derived from using it. I can say though it has made a new person out of me, and as soon as I got home from work instead of moping around like I did, I can now have a good appetite and can sit down to the table and eat a hearty meal as a healthy person should. My kidneys are much better and the bloating has disappeared entirely and I have no more palpitation of the heart. I have no trouble with my digestion and I sleep like a baby. Orgatone has been a fine thing for me, and I certainly am glad to recommend it."

Genuine Orgatone may be bought at Midland, at the Midland Drug Company.—Adv.

Speediest Divorce Mill Proceeding Is Held Valid, and Prospects Are Numerous

MERIDA, Yucatan—Lawyers who operate here in the world's speediest divorce mill are highly elated over a recent decision of New York Supreme Court Justice Faber holding valid a decree granted an American man and woman in proceedings at which neither party was present.

of fraud, both were represented in the Mexican court and therefore the divorce was valid. Spat and others regard the decision as a signal victory for a law that has been used by many Americans. They believe it may increase their American business, now a good one.

seeking separations spend their few days in this pleasant city of 100,000 population, going to Campeche only for the formal registration, which requires only a day usually. Nearly every boat stopping here drop one, two or three American passengers seeking divorce. The prices range from $600 to $1,500 and the operation requires from 24 hours to 20 days.

Publicity From Big Saturday Meeting

A great amount of Midland publicity will result from the Breeder-Feeder meeting held Saturday at the Scharbauer hotel and the Gist show barns, press members present at the meeting declared.

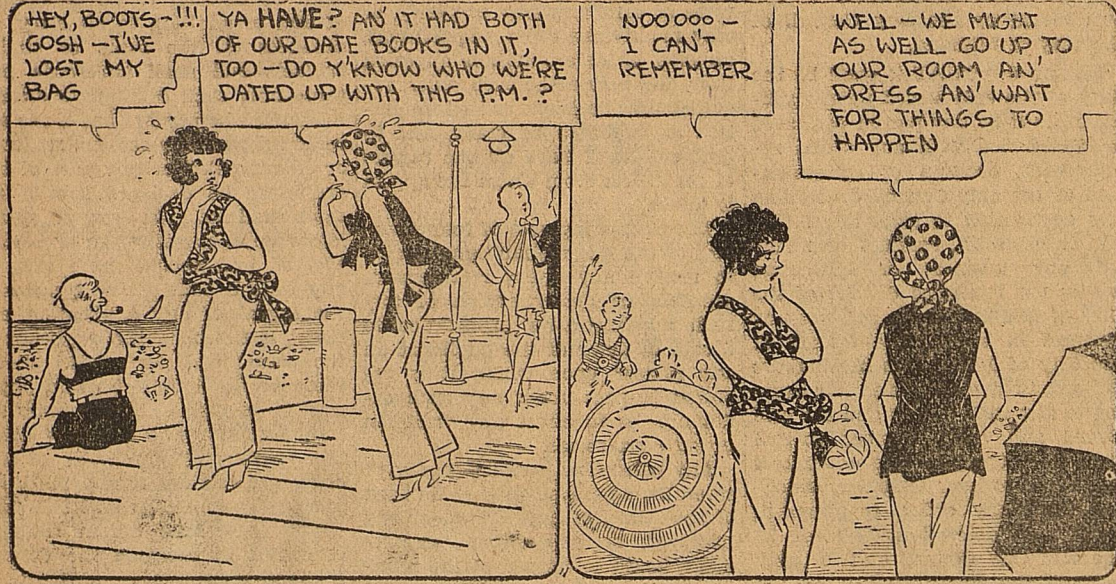

state papers five specially written stories on the future of the Midland area by scientific breeding and feeding. President Holland, editor of Farm and Ranch, was here for special stories, and August Markgraf, staff writer of the Hereford Breeders Journal, took several pictures as well as voluminous notes for an article to be run in that magazine.

"Jumping Bean" Is Threat To "Yo-Yo"

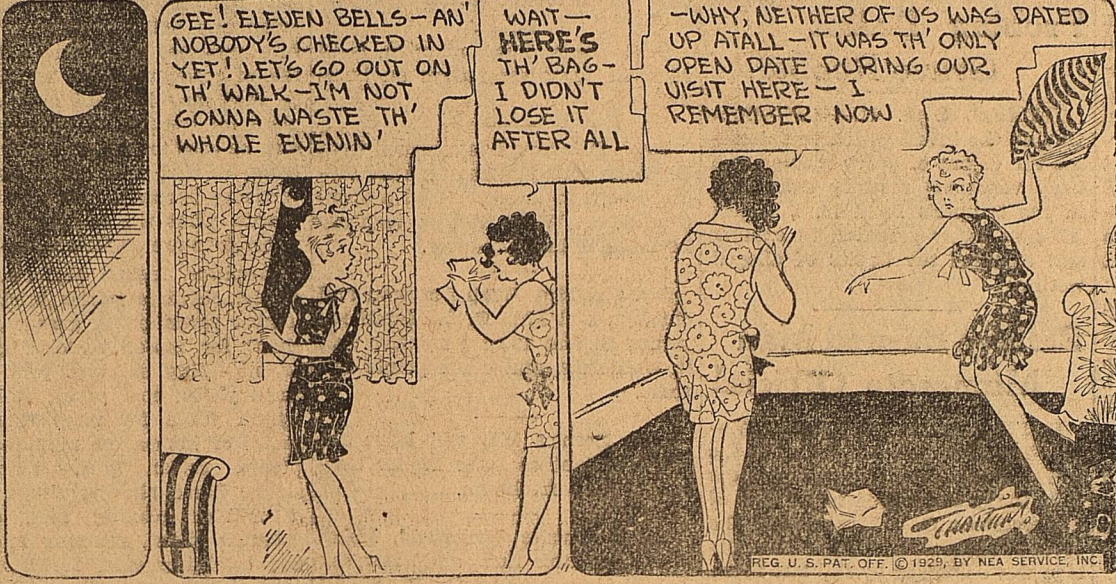

DEL RIO, Tex., Sept. 11.—(P)—The Mexican jumping bean threatens to usurp the throne of popularity assumed several months ago by the yo-yo, just when Del Rio manipulators of the spinning disc were beginning to be clever with the new game.

The principle of the game is to place the jumping beans within a circle and then pick the winner for a race to the outer edge. No end of excitement results and betting on the odd little beans frequently is indulged in. The jumping beans have been quite common along the border. Motive power is furnished by tiny worms coiled inside the shell. The worms cannot jump after the bean is opened—at least it won't.

HOGAN WIRES HIS SUPPORT OF BOND ELECTION HERE

T. S. Hogan, oil man, capitalist and builder of the 12-story Petroleum building and Yuca theatre, this morning wired from New York his support of the movement here to build a new $295,000 courthouse. "It is inconceivable that a people possessed of the progressive spirit heretofore manifest in Midland would fall to overwhelmingly endorse the project of a modern courthouse, especially now that the developments of the last two weeks have doubled the already tremendous known oil reserves of the Permian Basin of West Texas. Midland's opportunity is here, and its future assured."

Sheriff Cannot Be A Good Bartender

When it comes to bar tending, Sheriff Audey Francis is a good traffic officer and information clerk, his friends say in commenting on an incident which, while it happened quite a time back, is just beginning to be aired. The sheriff and his men "shook down" a beer dispensary a scant five miles southeast of Midland. The brew was loaded into trucks and sent to the storehouse at the jail. But the sheriff wanted to know who the principal patrons of the place were.

Women, Child And Man Are Stranded

At the depot was to be seen one of those affairs of the road which will become increasingly noticeable now that cold weather shows inclination of succeeding the summer heat.

Two women, dressed in grimy overalls, a small child, he could not have been more than six or seven, and a man, unkempt and ragged, were stolidly waiting for "another freight." They had just missed one.

The story of the luckless four was one heard before. A visit to Michigan, money running short, an attempt to get back home, in the case to El Paso, and a broken down car. No money. Stranded.

The car had broken down near Big Spring. Attempts at rides had met with little success. The women and child walked through the chill rain which fell in intermittent drizzles that morning. They reached Midland, here to be the focus of all eyes.

Any person, or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Adjustment, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board or bureau of the municipality, may present to a court of record a position, duly verified, setting forth that such decision is illegal, in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within ten days after the filing of the decision in the office of the Board.

Upon the presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the Board of Adjustment to review the decision of the Board of Adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator's attorney, which shall not be less than ten days and may be extended by the court. The Allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the Board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

The Board of Adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

If, upon the hearing, it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made. The court may reserve or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review.

Costs shall not be allowed against the Board unless it appear to the Courts that it acted with gross negligence, or in bad faith, or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

Section 10: THAT in all matters pertaining to an appeal to the Board of Adjustment the persons aggrieved or dissatisfied may have the right to make such appeal, provided the same is made in the manner hereinabove stated, and in addition thereto where any order is made by the City Council which may affect the rights of property owners an appeal may be taken by at least two property owners so aggrieved by any final order made. That appeals shall be allowed from action of the City Council only on final orders made by said Council.

Section 11: THAT wherever the term "person" is used in this ordinance the same shall mean any person or persons, association of persons or corporation or their agents, or any servant or employe of any such person or corporation.

Section 12: THAT any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding $200.00; and each and every day that the provisions of this ordinance are violated shall constitute a separate and distinct offence. That in addition to the said penalty provided for, the right is hereby conferred and extended upon any property owner owning property in any district, where such property owners may be affected or invaded, by a violation of the terms of the ordinance, to bring suit in such court or courts having jurisdiction thereof and obtain such remedies as may be available at law and equity in the protection of the rights of such property owners.

Section 13: THAT wherever any applicant may be refused any permit under the terms of this ordinance nothing herein contained shall prevent any such applicant from resorting to the courts and obtaining by proper remedy in a court of competent jurisdiction such orders by way of mandamus or otherwise, and bringing in review the action of the said City Council of the action of the said Board of Adjustment complained against by the said applicant.

Section 14: THAT for the purpose of preserving a record of hearings given on all applications filed with the Board of Adjustment, the City Council a substantial statement of the evidence heard upon any such hearing shall be reduced to writing and a record kept of the same; that the City Secretary shall safely keep all papers filed and other records made upon the hearings concerning the transactions of the said City Council and the Board of Adjustment; and the same shall be made a part of the archives of his office.

Section 15: THAT this ordinance shall be deemed to be cumulative of and in addition to all other ordinances on the same or similar subjects and shall supercede pro tanto any such ordinances directly in conflict herewith; that if for any reason should any section, sentence, or classification or any part of this ordinance be declared invalid the same shall not affect any other valid sentence, classification or portion thereof, and should there arise at any time a controversy concerning the denial of any application and resort is taken by the applicant to the courts and for reason should the court hold that the said applicant is entitled to said permit applied for, the same shall not affect the terms and provisions of this ordinance relating to any other application not involved in said suit, provided, nothing herein shall be construed to preclude the City of Midland appealing from the judgment or decision rendered by any court, in accordance with the law regulating appeals to higher courts.

Section 17: WHEREAS, on account of the fact that there does not exist any adequate law governing and controlling the issuing of permits and regulating the erection of business buildings or the establishment conducting or maintaining of certain businesses in the residence portions of the City of Midland, and because of the great and widespread harm that is done to the citizens residing in residence sections of the City, due to the absence of any adequate law protecting such citizens in their property rights and enjoyment and comfort of their residences, creates an emergency and urgency in behalf of the immediate preservation of the public health, morals and public safety and comfort that this ordinance become effective upon its passage and it is accordingly so ordained that this ordinance shall be in full effect and force from and after its passage and publication as provided by law.
