Events A Week in Midland Illusions and Plague Oil Well or Football Others at Christmas

Consider Texas cities and draw your own conclusion about whether any of them, in proportion to their size, has had a more profitable week as regards opening of new buildings and providing for the coming holidays.

It isn't every city which opens a $300,000 theatre in a 12-story office building. The Home Furniture company formally opened its new home, the most model and modern between Abilene and El Paso.

First steps in starting the $295,000 court house were taken when the old building was sold and county officials moved into the Petroleum building across the way.

Committees of the chamber of commerce were named to co-operate with the Odessa chamber of commerce in perfecting plans for an oil field road to Hobbs, and a road through Stiles to the Big Lake field.

The big thing of the week to children, however, was the visit of Santa Claus in a plane. And, if you look about, there are many grown-ups who found that the most significant happening of the week. Dad knows Christmas is all too closely associated with his purse; tax matters are not bothering him in December.

The city which amazed all West Texas last Christmas holidays with its tracery of lights in the night is holding forth in its brilliant regalia again this year. National advertising was the least important result attained by Midland last year from this decoration. The satisfaction given little children was much more pertinent to the good accomplished.

Children are the greatest investments in America. It is well to let them have their illusions. But it is pressing necessary to insure them against the ravages of plague. The county health board has found three cases of scarlet fever in Midland. The situation is well in hand, but it is well to take precaution. Have those children inoculated. You would not think of letting them walk on streets frequented by cars with no brakes.

Prosperity everywhere, in spite of the familiar voice of the prejudiced and pessimists. The Andrews county oil field seems practically assured, with a report received last night. (Continued on Page 6)

14 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS THE MANTLE GETS THE STOCKING, AND DAD GETS THE SOCKING.

DELIVERY RATE NOT CHANGED Much Saving Seen In Arrangement, Say Midland Men

A great sum of money will annually be saved Midland freight receivers through the grant of the railroad commission of the T. & F. railroad for a reduction of rates on regular merchandise.

This reduction came about as a result of action taken by George D. McCormick, manager of the Midland Hardware company, who suggested in a letter to the railroad company that more freight would be hauled by the railway if the reduction were made.

Midland freight receivers were paying a delivery charge on freight delivered to their doors, but motor trucks were hauling freight along the highway and delivering it at receivers' doors without charging this delivery charge. Accordingly, merchants were using freight motor lines more and more.

McCormick, who possibly receives more freight than anyone in Midland, was asked by the railroad company what that line could do in order to keep up its hauling volume.

McCormick submitted his suggestion in reply, and action was made immediately. The railroad company will ship freight as far west as Midland, and deliver it to the merchant without any charge over the standard freight rate.

A letter to J. J. Hamlett, station agent in Midland for the T. & F. railroad, explains action taken. "In connection with the matter suggested in the letter from the Midland Hardware company, the T. & P. Motor Transport company's rates will be reduced to the regular merchandise rail rates from Dallas and Fort Worth, which are the same as are being charged by the Class A truck companies, and the service will be more dependable, responsible and safer.

"We had to secure authority from the railroad commission to make the reduction, which the commission gladly granted after a full explanation to them."

Hamlett explained to a newspaper man that the new service will be faster, freight shipped out of Dallas or Fort Worth one afternoon reaching Midland about noon the following day. The service becomes effective December 9.

MORROW SILENT ON REVOLUTION PENDING MEXICO

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Dwight Morrow, ambassador to Mexico, passed through here today en route to New Jersey and to the armament conference in London in January.

He declined to comment on the conference or the rumored Vasconcelos revolt or the New Jersey senatorship vacancy for which he has been mentioned.

Regarding the rumored revolt, George Rublee, legal adviser of the embassy to Mexico City, said the recent Mexican election was the fairest ever held there. Await Vasconcelos SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 7.—(UP)—The arrival of Jose Vasconcelos, defeated candidate for the Mexican presidency, was awaited today to clarify the tense situation which has sprung up over the purported war manifesto issued by Dr. Francisco Del Rio Canedo, former secretary to the defeated candidate. Vasconcelos is due to arrive Sunday. Canedo's statement called supporters of Vasconcelos to rally to his aid in a revolution to prevent President-elect Ortiz from taking office.

Pays With Blow Rather Than $50 A woman is being held in Odessa on a charge of assault upon a man who gave her a "lift." The story goes that the man and his wife picked up the woman in Crane City and drove her to Odessa when she said she was willing to pay $50 for the ride. Arriving in Odessa, the woman is alleged to have struck the man with a wrench, but he overpowered her and saw that she was arrested. A newspaper account says the woman was inebriated.

WTCC MEETING FRIDAY; LUNCH TO BE SERVED Delegates from 12 towns over District 6 of the WTCC are expected in Midland Friday morning, Dec. 13, when a district meeting is held at 10 o'clock in the ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

The chamber of commerce will entertain the visitors from the surrounding towns at a luncheon. Midland members of the chamber may attend the luncheon. They will pay for their tickets.

B. Reagan of Big Spring will preside at the conference, assisted by E. G. Bedford, Midland director of the WTCC. Leon Goodman, mayor of Midland and president of the chamber of commerce, will serve as toastmaster.

Local people who wish to attend the luncheon should notify the chamber of commerce by Thursday night.

ROAD ACTION IS PENDING OUTCOME ODESSA ELECTION After Aubrey S. Legg conferred with the Odessa chamber of commerce recently regarding co-operative action on a road to the north, in difference to Odessa's wish further action has been postponed until the Ector county $200,000 road bond election of Dec. 14.

Afterward, the two counties will get together through committees of the chambers of commerce of Midland and Odessa and map out plans. The two towns are working in complete harmony, recognizing mutual advantage to be received from such a completion as planned.

It is the ambition of the committees to construct a road north through Andrews which would connect with the one to Seminole, which would give a clear route to Hobbs, N. M.

County Offices In Petroleum Building An exception to the rule that tearing down shows lack of progress, is seen in the destruction of the court house here.

There is not a single office that has not moved to the Petroleum building. The sheriff and clerk's offices are on the ground floor and the others on the second floor.

Work on tearing away the old building has started. A $295,000 court house, bond for which was voted recently, will be started about the first of the year.

H. C. Meacham Of Fort Worth Dies FORT WORTH, Dec. 7.—(AP)—H. C. Meacham, Fort Worth's first mayor under the city manager council plan of government, died suddenly at his home here today. Heart failure was the cause of his death. Meacham was a prominent figure in the murder trial a few years ago of J. Frank Norris, as Norris' chief opponent. Meacham flying field of Fort Worth was named for the former mayor.

REPRIMAND PROVOKED TRAGEDY Italy Farm Boy Is Lodged In Jail At Waxahachie

ITALY, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Confronted by blood stains on his clothes, Herman Riley, 19, confessed that he shot and killed his middle aged parents and wounded his brother at their home last night, because of a reprimand given him the night before. He was placed in jail at Waxahachie.

Ace Riley and wife, parents of the youth, were found shot to death, and a grown son was found wounded, by a relative at the farm home.

The relative who made the discovery walked 13 miles to the home of another relative to inform them of the shooting. Riley and the son apparently had retired for the night. Their bodies were found on separate beds. Mrs. Riley's body was found on the floor.

PAVING PROJECT WELL UNDER WAY GUTTERS POURED Pouring of the first curbs and gutters on the $20,000 paving project has started, with work done principally on South Main street.

Paving here is to extend to the north line of Florida avenue. Grading for curbs and gutters on North Colorado street between Texas and Illinois streets, and on Missouri-between Lamar and Colorado streets, has begun.

As fast as the curbs and gutters have hardened grading for street paving will be done, unless the temperature is below 35 degrees Fahrenheit or weather is threatening.

The new paving project will add 36 blocks and four alleys to the 20 blocks already paved. The alleys will extend behind blocks marked by the location of the Llano hotel, Midland Hardware, Barrow Furniture company and beside the Scharbauer hotel.

Petrol. Engineer Joins Texas Co. W. V. Vietti has joined the Texas company in Midland as petroleum engineer, coming from the Continental Oil company of Big Spring.

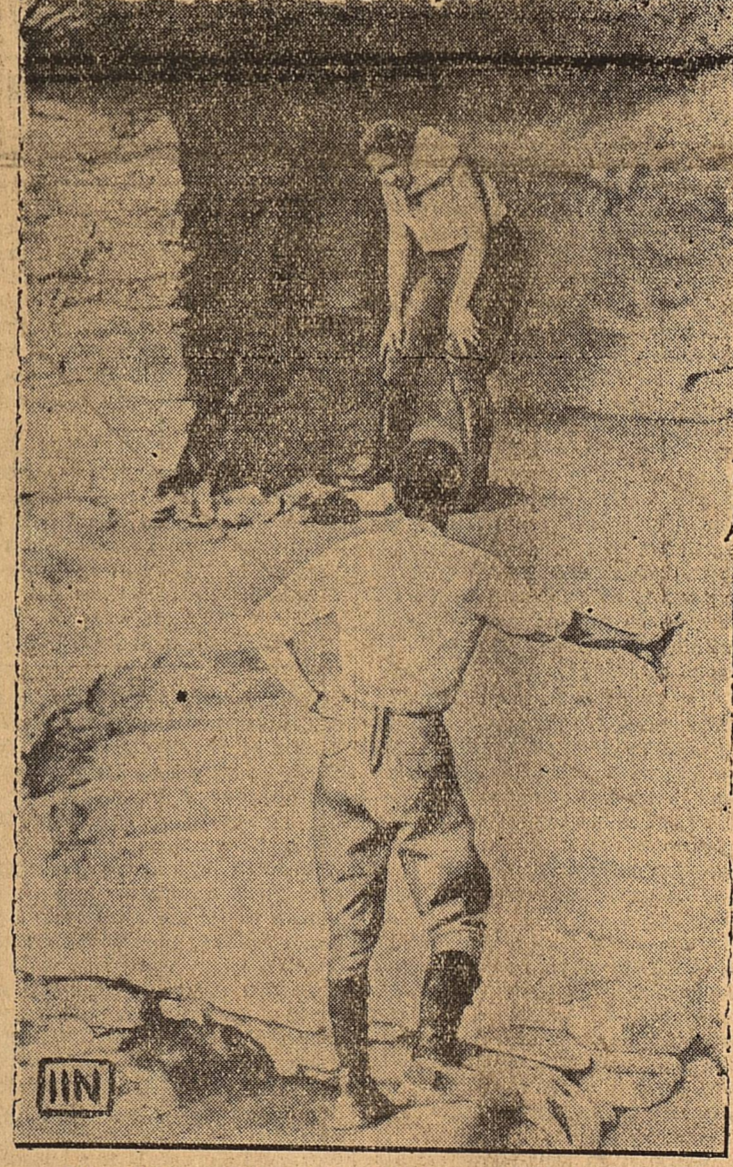

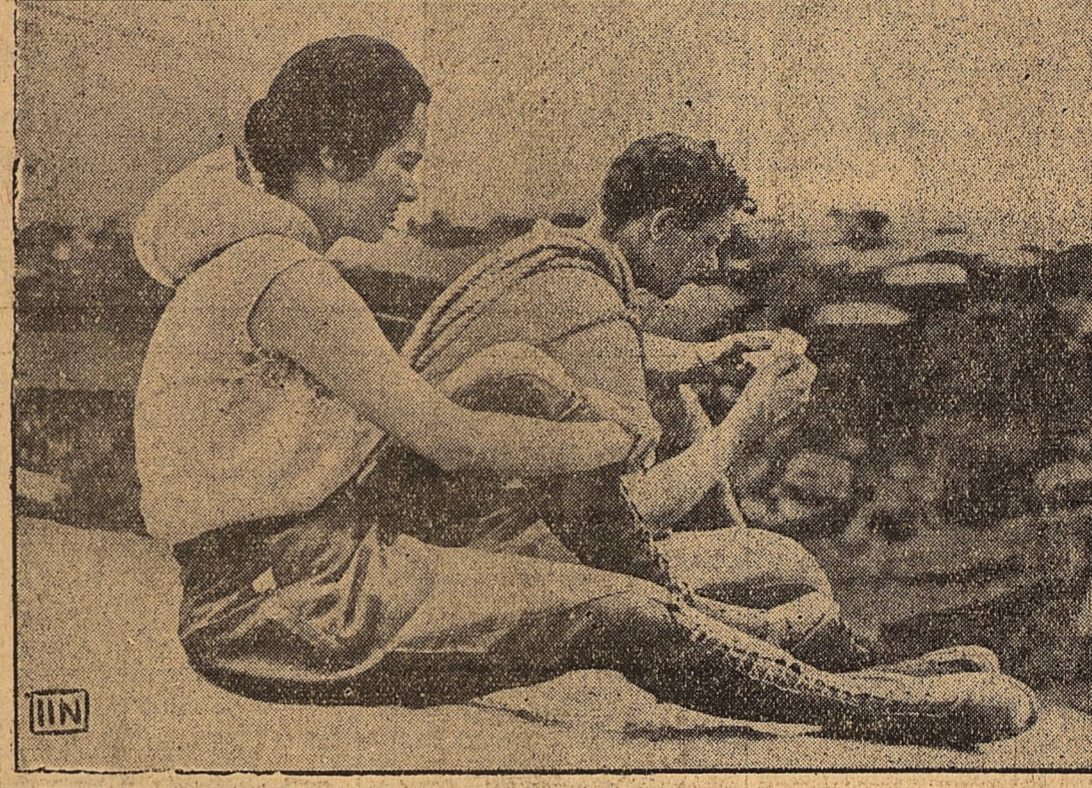

Additional space is being taken in the Petroleum building by the Texas company to provide for the enlargement in its force.

Banana Trees Are Grown On Streets Four Mexican children believe banana trees grow alongside the sidewalks of Midland's business section.

They were walking along the streets Saturday afternoon and stopped to watch a farmer eat a banana. It was quite evident they would have enjoyed being in the farmer's large boots.

Down the street was an old gentleman leaning on a cane. He observed the look on the children's faces, dodged into a grocery, bought a sack of bananas, and, before the children observed him, scattered the fruit on the lower branches of a small Christmas tree. The smallest of the Mexicans was first to see the bananas and grabbed a handful. A lively skirmish ensued until it was seen that there was no more of the fruit.

Lindys Explorers In Arizona Cliffs

When Lindy and Mrs. Lindy visited the cliffs in Arizona recently, there were a few pictures which did not escape the eagle eye of news photographers. International News scored with these two photos, the upper one showing at a photo of Lindbergh Cave in the upper picture, and exploring the heart of Indian cliffs in the lower.

OIL CONTINUES TO RISE IN NEW ANDREWS COUNTY WILDCAT WELL

Indications point to immediate completion of the Andrews county wildcat test which Friday drew the attention of the oil fraternity when 700 feet of oil rose in the hole in 10 hours. The well is the Deep Rock Oil Company's No. 1 Ogden.

Reports late Saturday said that approximately 2,000 feet of fluid, rated at 27.2 gravity with no water, stood in the hole which was shut down at 4,348 after penetrating the pay three feet.

Six inch casing was hauled to the test Saturday, and it is expected that the casing will be set to the top of the pay this morning, preparatory to penetrating the formation in which the oil was found. The well is located 330 feet south and west in the east half of section 6, school block A-46, Andrews County, and is about 6 miles northwest of the town of Andrews, near a large tract of University land.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS ATTACKED Washington Circles Admit Situation Is Serious

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(UP)—President Hoover today ordered 500 Marines dispatched to Haiti to cope with political disorders in that republic. Secretary of State Stimson announced today following receipt of information that five Haitians had been killed and 20 wounded in a clash with a score of United States Marines at Aux Cayes on the Southern coast.

A band of 1500 natives is reported to have attacked the marine patrol. The natives were repulsed, the marines employing a machine gun and six automatic rifles. No soldiers were killed or injured.

The marines are concentrated at Hampton Roads. Situation Serious Stimson didn't attempt to disguise his concern, and told reporters that the situation was serious.

Hoover sent a special message to congress explaining the serious political situation which has developed, and asked authority to appoint a commission to go to Haiti.

Asks Appropriation He requested an appropriation of $50,000.

"The high commissioner asked that additional marines be held in readiness to make sure that American lives be protected," Hoover said. He paid tribute to the accomplishments by American officials in Haiti toward improvement of the material condition of the people.

The marines occupied Haiti the last time in 1915, in the Wilson administration, when the Haitian leaders requested aid in setting up government on the island.

SEIZE STUDENT STRIKE WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Dispatches from the Haitian capital that Marines had killed five and wounded 20 in repulsing 1,500 Haitians at Aux Cayes were scanned closely by President Hoover who already had confidential reports that the situation is serious.

More serious reports were received subsequent to delivery of the special message to congress. The information indicates that a student strike was seized upon by political leaders to start a widespread revolt, aimed in part at Americans.

Store Building Being Remodelled Permits issued for building during the week amounted to $3,000, it was announced at the city hall Saturday, of which $2,800 was taken out by Z. T. Brown who is having the front of the old Home Furniture company building, at the corner of North Main and West Texas, remodelled. Felix Stonehocker hold the contract for this work. The front will be of brick and tile. BULLETIN LUBBOCK, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Dependent because of separation, Walter Simmons, 24, shot and killed his wife, Juanita, 19, then turned the gun on himself while the two sat in a car in front of her boarding house. She had left him Saturday morning.

NEW MEXICO OIL MEN TO PROTECT BY ORGANIZATION

Land and royalty owners, lease holders and oil operators interested in New Mexico oil activity, are invited to meet at Artesia, N. M., Wednesday evening, December 11, for the purpose of organizing a New Mexico Oil Men's Protective Association according to a letter received yesterday by E. G. Bedford of Midland, head of the Texas division of the Mid-Continent Royalty Owners' Association.

The letter was written by Wesley McCallister, a royalty owner of Roswell. He urges that all who are interested in lands, royalties, leases or oil development in New Mexico be present.

The meeting is to be held at the new Artesia Hotel at 8 o'clock on the evening of December 11, the letter to Bedford said.

A number of men are directly interested in lands, royalties and leases, as well as some representing oil operators in New Mexico, Bedford said yesterday morning.

Finds Midland Free From Any Objection Midland is different from all oil towns in which he has lived, says L. L. Brooks, district manager of Black, Sivals and Bryson, world's largest manufacturers of oil field tanks.

Brooks has been secretary of the Borger chamber of commerce and a civic worker in many towns. He has studied community building, and realizes the difficulty in keeping a town within its boundaries when oil gives the town a tendency to "boom."

He says the distinct oil town is present in Midland, yet without the objectionable features. Brooks has been with his company for 20 years.

Farm Speaker To Make Visit Here Date for the appearance here of an outstanding agricultural authority and speaker, to address Midland county farmers and other business men, is being arranged by the Midland Chamber of Commerce and County Agent Frank Wendt.

J. E. Stanford, Texas editor of Southern Agriculturist, is the speaker. He was formerly a department head of the Texas A. and M. College and at one time agriculture secretary of the East Texas chamber of commerce.

He is to be in Big Spring January 16 and 17 as one of the principal speakers at the poultry school. He wrote the chamber of commerce here that he would be glad to visit Midland without cost to anyone.

RELIEVE CHRISTMAS HASTE

The Christmas rush in Midland is well under way. It will gain momentum every day, and as usual there will be a few days at the last which will rush shoppers, clerks and postal employes off their feet.

Shoppers are already helping to relieve this last minute rush by getting a great deal of Christmas buying done early, but they could avoid the whole rush of the last few days by deciding now to complete the shopping list.

Christmas stocks are already on display. There is a wider choice in every line than there will be the last week. There are only 14 shopping days left, and it takes several of those days to get packages mailed in time to reach the people for whom they are intended.

Do yourself a favor, as well as the clerks and postal employes. Get your shopping done early.

ANOTHER ANONYMOUS LETTER

One of the best "letters to the editor" to have been received for some time was found Friday night on the editor's typewriter; but although it was a good letter, it was unsigned and deserves no cognizance.

In the editor's five and a half years' experience at such work, he has received probably a half dozen anonymous, or unsigned, letters. Each one has provoked an editorial against such a practice, because no one who really believes he is right will feel hesitant about signing his name to a letter.

One who writes an anonymous letter usually makes a few statements which are more bold, or more pointed, than when he signs it. The letter received Friday night was no exception. Its content, however, was well prepared, even though somewhat "off on a tangent."

THE GOODFELLOW FUND

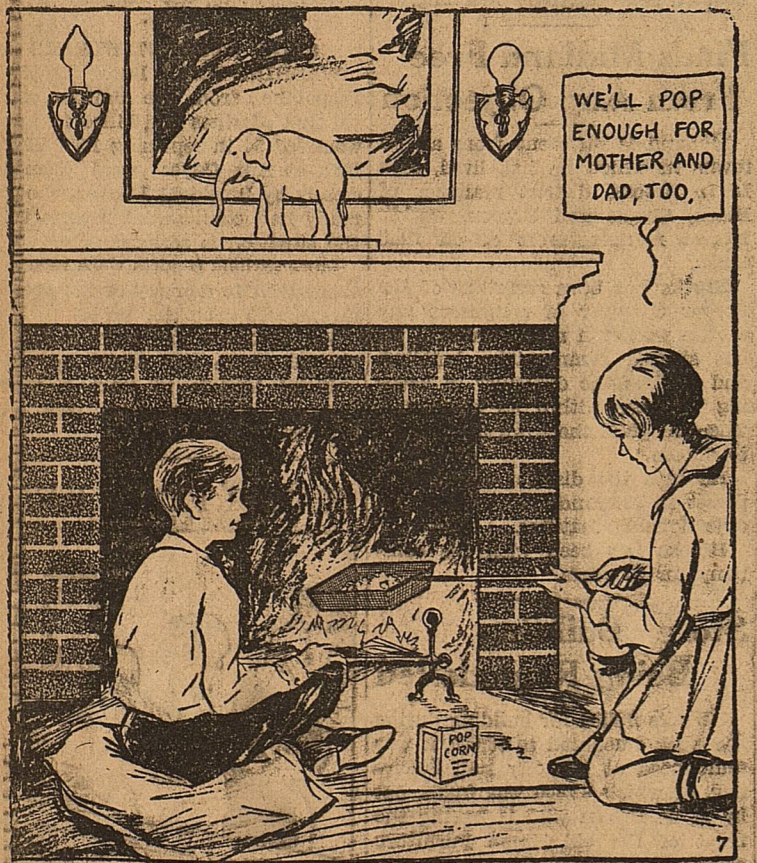

If you have not yet allotted your contribution to the Goodfellow fund for the needy people of Midland, now is the time to make up your mind to spend liberally toward bringing real Christmas happiness to a large number of people.

The Goodfellow fund brings Christmas cheer, in the form of substantial gifts, to Midland people who would not otherwise enjoy the holiday season.

The money is spent by a carefully supervised purchasing committee, and every dollar is spent for something useful. The gifts serve a double purpose, providing Christmas cheer and badly needed commodities.

Dr. J. D. Young, chief of the Goodfellows, raised and disbursed slightly over $1,000 last Christmas, and has set a mark of $1,250 this year on account of evidence of more people who are in need. Let's put it over!

Going Over the Blue Prints!

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Assembling again in regular session, Congress will pay strict attention to business. Every man may be depended upon to serve the best interests of his constituents and to concentrate his efforts on matters of serious purpose. The Congressional Record will bulge with the evidence of great and windy endeavor.

For the beginning of every regular session finds each member of the House and at least a third of the members of the Senate running for re-election. And there are few incumbent statesmen who do not regard re-election as the most serious phase of their jobs. Nearly all are convinced that they ought to do their utmost to save the folks back home from being represented here by some gent less able and worthy.

Speculation about the 1930 congressional elections is far easier than prediction at this time, because in most cases it's too early to tell who's going to run against whom and because if there is any particular trend in them one way or the other it will probably be attributable to conditions which will develop or become more apparent within the next year or ten months.

But they will be more interesting than usual, first, because of the trouble President Hoover has been having with the Senate and, second, because the results may help answer the question of what's happening to the Democratic party—a question commonly asked after its sad licking in the electoral college a year ago.

Once there was a lusty rumor that Mr. Hoover and his personal friends were going to launch a movement to elect a "Hoover Senate," which would mean backing other and more docile Republicans against such incorrigible insurgents as Senators Norris and Borah.

Whispers to that effect came so vociferously from the general direction of the White House that they attracted considerable attention. But if there ever was such a plan not much has been heard about it lately, even though the provocation by the insurgent section of the Senate coalition in its defiance of the White House may seem to have been very great. It seems reasonable that Mr. Hoover himself will be careful to take no part in the primary fights, although there will undoubtedly be a "Hoover candidate" to oppose the renomination of Norris in Nebraska, Pine in Oklahoma and possibly of Schall in Minnesota.

The Democratic national executive committee here has been greatly encouraged by Democratic victories in municipal elections last month. Some of its jubilations, but not all, may be discounted. It is axiomatic that the party in power is most likely to suffer in these biennial congressional elections and there is very little if any hope that the regular Republicans will improve their position in 1930. Under normal conditions the very large Republican majority in the House probably would be somewhat reduced and the Democrats might reasonably gain two or three seats in the Senate. That would still leave a good Republican majority

The Town Quack

The Quack is going to see Moran and Mack at the Ritz to get some new material for this column. My wit is only half wit. I didn't say I was a half wit. Someone else hatches up a hot yarn and I print it in this column.

For instance, I can tell you why there are no Scotchmen in Australia. It costs $300 to get there. That isn't original with me but it's a good yarn.

Look's promising for another Mexican revolution. Vasconcelos evidently believes he didn't get all of his just votes registered and is planning to overthrow the government and take his rightful seat.

Senator Vare took another method of attempting to get a seat in the senate, spending hundreds of thousands to get the seat, but his fellow senators voted not to seat him. His opponent, standing by to get the seat, didn't get seated, not having received a plurality of votes. Vare and Wilson might start a revolution in Philadelphia.

James G. Tarver, weighing more than 400 pounds, and said to be the largest man in the United States, has taken out a birth certificate. Maybe he wants to go on record as having been born and not manufactured.

instead of the normal 32 because of the deaths of Warren of Wyoming and Burton of Ohio.

The Republicans whose terms expire in 1931, aside from the successors of Warren and Burton, are Borah of Idaho, Capper of Kansas, Couzens of Michigan, Deneen of Illinois, Edge of New Jersey, Gillett of Massachusetts, Goff of West Virginia, Gould of Maine, Keyes of New Hampshire, Hastings of Delaware, McMaster of South Dakota, McNary of Oregon, Metcalf of Rhode Island, Norris of Nebraska, Phipps of Colorado, Pine of Oklahoma, Sackett of Kentucky and Schall of Minnesota.

The Democrats are Blease of South Carolina, Bratton of Arizona, Glass of Virginia, Harris of Georgia, Harrison of Mississippi, Heflin of Alabama, Ransdell of Louisiana, Robinson of Arkansas, Sheppard of Texas, Simmons of North Carolina, Steck of Iowa, Brook of Tennessee and Walsh of Montana.

THE TOWN DOCTOR
"DOCTOR OF TOWNS"

A Man Can Appreciate Only That Which He Knows

Arthur Brisbane tells a story about a brown rat in Lincoln Park, Chicago. This rat lives happily in his hole under a tree, never doubting that the whole park was made just for him, as some people believe the whole town in which they live was made just for them. This rat is an agnostic: you can't make him believe anything that he cannot understand and prove, and as he cannot understand or prove very much, he is happy and self-satisfied. He is a good rat, however, minds his own business, and keeps regular hours. He runs up and down his little path, looks with contempt at the queer animals which live up the tree, and some day he will die in his hole, with his teeth grown long, convinced that he has not missed a thing that life has to offer.

Without intention of drawing any undue comparisons, the fact nevertheless remains that in every community there are residents who, like the rat, deny what they cannot understand; citizens who are contemptuous of that which is near them, and that which could be appreciate. Intellectually, these people are as rats—rodents to the civic life of community. These people do not know but unlike the case of rats, it does make a difference and upon the shoulders of somebody or some group of somebodies is the responsibility of doing that which is necessary to make them appreciative.

The voters who deter the building of better schools, the paving of roads and streets, the making of playgrounds, the laying of sewers, the installation of disposal plants and water filtration plants, the business people who insist on being "storekeepers" and "pool-pool" the idea of clerk-training, yet weep and wail that chain stores and capital are ruining their business; the resident to whom a stranger says:

"This looks like a pretty good town," and replies, "Yeah, it's all right, if you like it," the merchant whom the community has supported, but who refuses to belong to a service club or civic organization, and who belittles, runs down and decries every attempt on the part of anyone to help the community; Mr. Average Citizen who sits back and says nothing, does nothing, with all "It's none of my affair" attitude; the ever-present percentage who go out of their way to run the community down maliciously; the resident who takes no part in the clean-up campaign, an orphan's home benefit, hospital or other charitable drive; the property owner, resident or otherwise, who refuses to eradicate visible community abominations; the man grown old, who cares not a whit if the swimming pool of his forgotten boyhood joys is polluted with the refuse of his factory; the civic derelict, the knocker and the fool—these are the rodents who must be shown and taught the costliness of their ways before, and in order that they may appreciate.

Petroleum Bridge Club With Mrs. Miller

The members of the Petroleum Bridge Club were entertained Friday evening in the Petroleum clubrooms in Hotel Scharbauer with Mrs. E. M. Miller as hostess.

In the games, Miss Mozelle Downing held high score, and Miss Mary Garrett won the prize for low score.

Fruit salad and sandwiches, cleverly moulded and cut into the shape of hearts, diamonds and spades, served with hot chocolate were passed to the following:

Misses Marguerite Shaffer, Daisy Lindsey, Mozelle Downing, Ira Crouch, Mary Garrett, and Mmes. F. D. Osborne, H. R. Christner, Maury Unger, J. F. Hornbeck and Dave Finley.

Surprise Shower For Mrs. Nolan

Mrs. Charles Nolan was the honoree at a stork shower given Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. E. R. Mask with Mrs. E. W. Hough as co-hostess.

The house was attractively decorated in holiday colors, carrying out the Christmas scheme.

The members of the Belmont Bible Study Class met with Mrs. Mask, for their regular business meeting, and after all business had been disposed of, games and contests were played with Mrs. J. C. Hudman taking the prize for most cleverly dressing a "clothes pin baby," and Mrs. C. F. McCargo for putting together the letters of a puzzle naming an item of a baby's wardrobe.

Between games, a miniature Santa Claus, who proved to be little Russell Holster, entered the room bearing the many dainty gifts which were presented to Mrs. Nolan.

A salad course was served to Mmes. Jimmie Nolan, D. E. Holster, C. F. McCargo, R. B. Mitchell, T. D. Murphy, Elmer Straughn, Clint Vaughn, J. C. Hudman, Jim Walker, S. J. Fink, K. E. Ambrose, and Miss Leta Scarborough.

Contest Winners Entertained In Home Of Miss Wall

The home of Miss Dora Wall, 602 North Marienfield, was the meeting place of the boys and girls of the J. O. Y. Class of the Baptist Church Friday evening at 7:30, when the boys were entertained by the girls for being the winners in a recent attendance contest.

The red and green of Christmas were favored as colors in house decorations, and a snow man added to the attractiveness of the rooms.

The first game played was the Get Acquainted game, and then a peanut race was held, after which a debate between two boys and two girls was arranged. The subject for debate was, Resolved: That Men are More Vain Than Women. The judges were unable to decide who were winners in this debate, so it was decided to call it a tie.

The guests enjoyed a corn race, a clever manless wedding, and then the snow man was found to contain the fortune of each member present.

Refreshments of sandwiches, fruit salad, topped with green whipped cream and red cherries, individual cakes with green icing, red and green mints and salted peanuts were served, with Mrs. J. M. White and Miss Annie Frank Stout pouring tea and coffee at the table, which was centered with sweet peas and Christmas candles.

After serving of the refreshments,

WHICH SHALL IT BE? He who offers her all the things of which she's dreamed—the jewels, clothes, yachts, money—all the things which will make her the envy of every other woman? Or shall it be he who offers the greatest gift of all—Love? Think long and well before you make the decision! If you're cold, selfish, willing to give up everything in the world to satisfy your ambition, then accept riches. But, rest assured, you'll go through life with a frozen heart which will constantly ache from loneliness. For where there's no love there can be no happiness.

Of course, it's a thrilling thing to think of—the tiny bungalow with two whose hearts beat in unison to the song of Love? Where Peace and happiness are ever welcome guests and where the greatest wealth is the bubbling laughter of happy hearts.

Santa Claus gave out bags filled with fruit, candy and nuts from the beautiful Christmas tree.

Behind the Scenes in Hollywood

By DOROTHY HERZOG

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Over on the First National lit, the powers that be have already changed the name of "The Lady In Ermine," to "Bride of the Regiment." Vivian Seegal is evidently the female part of the title, with Walter Pidgeon among those caring for the latter part.

Tother morn, a test was made of Vivian and Walter, and rushed over to the laboratory to be developed.

Hours passed. No developed test from the laboratory. Director John Francis Dillon sent an assistant to telephone how-come.

"Where's that pidgeon test?" the assistant barked into the mouth-piece.

"We haven't got any bird tests here," shouted back the lab man.

"That's the way it goes. . . . Look at us," instructs Vivian. "Pidgeon, Seegal (Seegul), and Dove Birds."

King Vidor, director of "Hallelujah" and Marion Davies' last talky, "Dulcy," is preparing to put Peter Kyne's popular story "Billy the Kid" into production. Hear tell George ("Godless Girl") Duryea may play the title.

RETURNING

Word comes direct from Camilla Horn that she intends to return to Hollywood. Why, when or wherefore not explained. Camilla is vacationing in Italy at this penning, having recently finished two German talkies for Warner Brothers, one with Conrad Veidt. Shortly before departing Flickburg, Camilla purchased a Packard limousine and took it back to the vaterland. She also took it to Italy and, according to her, she's making one big splash in the eye-country with it! Incidentally, didst see in the A. M. papers that the Horn fraulein is divorcing her husband? He spent last Christmas with her in Hollywood and happiness seemed to be their middle name. It just goes to prove?

Hear tell Kay ("Dynamite") Johnson is taking vocal lessons and devoting herself strenuously to gargling. Reason: Cecil DeMille wants her to heroine in his forthcoming operetta. Swell part, if Kay lands it.

It's all off between Clara Bow and Harry Richman.

Blanche Sweet and Mickey Neilan espied tete-a-tete. Mickey is very proud of Blanche's success in the talkies. Divorced and happy is the subtitle

Edna Murphy has returned from a jaunt to New York. She and husband Mervyn Leroy are living at Malibu Beach and the weather has been so darn balmy they've gotten their money's worth out of the Pacific. Mervyn says it's a good thing Edna is home. Those long-distance phone calls are tough on the monthly bill. "For $14.87," says Mervyn, "you say, 'Hello. I can't hear you. Goodbye.'" Since her return, Edna received a voodvil offer, but refused the two-a-day chance.

The Rupert Hughes depart the town for good, December 2nd. They will make their home in New York. Hughes recently built a sumptuous home here, which he now has for sale. Also, en passant, his latest novel, "Ladies Man," running serially in the Cosmopolitan Magazine, has been purchased by Famous Players.

WAX DISC SYSTEM WOULD SIMPLIFY TELEPHONE CALLS

PARIS.—(UP)—When the French telephone administration perfects an instrument with which it is now experimenting, it will be possible to talk to yourself by telephone or to a second person without either of your being home to put in or take the call.

The system is operated by means of wax discs at the sending and receiving end. You dictate to a disc and attach it to your phone, giving the number of the person you desire called. If he is absent a recording disc on his telephone will record your conversation. In case you have a dozen calls to make, with the same conversation for each one, one disc will serve the purpose.

Counties Of South Plains "In" On Big Dry Milk Factory To Be Put In Lamesa

LAMESA, Dec. 7.—A magnificent step towards making the Lower South Plains one of the outstanding dairying sections of Texas, was made here this week when a contract with the Douthitt Engineering company of Chicago was signed by directors and officers of the West Texas Milk Products company for a $200,000 powdered milk plant. This milk plant will in scope take care of seven or more counties in the Lower South Plains. It will manufacture products from milk such as butter milk powders, skim milk powders, sweet creamy butter and other milk products, and will provide a better market price for farmers of this section for their dairy products.

Officers of the corporation were elected during a recent meeting of the one hundred and more stockholders. C. B. Norman, prominent banker here and connected with the local chamber of commerce was elected president. His election was a reward for his first efforts in securing this progressive business institution for the South Plains. He has been working with the stockholders during the last eighteen months. J. L. Staumaker was elected as vice-president of the corporation. J. E. Barron prominent local business man was elected to the post of secretary and S. L. Forrest was elected as treasurer.

Over one hundred prominent farmers in Dawson county and Lamesa business men are listed on the company's books as stockholders in the corporation which is building the plant. The largest stockholder is Ulysses Dalmont, who has invested $10,500. Dalmont is a rancher here and an extensive landholder. This powdered milk factory will be the realization of a dream born eighteen months ago during a meeting of the agricultural department of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce. E. R. Yates was director of that department at that time, and through his efforts investigations and surveys were made in view of building such a plant of this kind in this territory. O. B. Norman was elected to the post of director of the department during the beginning of the fiscal year 1929. Norman and Yates have both worked together on the surveys since then. The result of their survey is as follows: Number of cows in Dawson county, 5,347; number of cows giving milk, 4,281; number of heifers, 3,233; number of gallons per day, 13,852; potential number of cows farmers would have in milk plant located in Lamesa, 15,749; number of farms in county, 2,249; acres in cotton in 1928, 233,896; acres in feed in 1928, 105,703; acres in sudan in 1928, 8,996; number of hogs, 15,743; number of hens, 227,159; total acres in cultivation in county, 348,595; average Dawson tended toward being extremely dairyminded, and the surrounding counties will fall in line with the reaction of the plant.

The West Texas Dairy Products company expect the plant to be in operation sometime during March of April next year. Contract for building the plant will be let on December 16, according to President Norman.

The location of this plant in Lamesa and Dawson county will bring to this section a better stabilization of capital, a forced diversification and a living at home slogan.

Dairying will, in a few years, rival King Cotton as the principal farm industry in West Texas, in the belief of W. W. Evans, county agent. He is already recommending the planting of sweet clover as a feed crop for the increased number of cattle which is expected to the farmers in this county after making experiments on several farms near here.

Progressive farmers are looking toward Old Bossy now as the principal producer of the mythical bacon to bring home in the place of King Cotton. King Cotton will be "civiled" up in Dawson county from now on, is the belief of this writer.

BRAWL FOLLOWS "BAILLE"

TAMPICO, Mex.—(P)—Two persons were seriously wounded here in a free-for-all brawl which followed celebration of a "napango," a native dance exclusively of the State of Tamauilipas.

The trouble started about midnight when a group of dancers became inebriated and started libelling others. Then the fight began in which more than forty persons, including some women, joined. The scrap lasted until police arrived.

The city government to prevent a recurrence of this trouble, has decided to withhold permits for any more similar dances.

CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHT IN 12 HOURS PLANNED

ATLANTA, Dec. 7.—(UP)—Some time next spring when the elements between Los Angeles and New York return to normalcy, Doug Davis, crack Atlanta pilot, expects to fly the distance in about 12 hours.

The record, now held by Capt. Frank Hawks, is close to 17 hours.

But, that fact, apparently offers little obstacle to the man who recently clipped three hours from the record of seven hours, 30 minutes for the trip from New York to Atlanta.

He used a Travelair "Mystery" ship—a bullet-like monoplane which looks like a bumble-bee upside down, but which functions with unprecedented efficiency.

Davis won the cup for America's most meritorious flier of 1929 in the same projectile-like craft at the Cleveland air races. He was in New York early in November and wanted to enter it in an air-race in Atlanta.

So he took breakfast in Gotham and lunch in Georgia, actually flying the 800 miles in four hours and thirty minutes through rain and fog. The entire trip required five hours, with two stops of 15 minutes each for fuel.

Davis believes his "Mystery" ship has greater possibilities than any similar craft extant, believes its highly developed maneuverability and excessive speed would make it an invulnerable fighting unit in time of war.

He told the United Press that shortly he expects to open its throttle somewhere in the vicinity of the ground, points its nose "absolutely straight up," and out swiftly heavenward for one solid mile at an angle of 180 degrees.

Already he has climbed to 3,000 feet in that manner after a 250-mile an hour start. Present equipment of the plane, he said, does not permit more altitude because of gas tank adjustment, which he expects to alter.

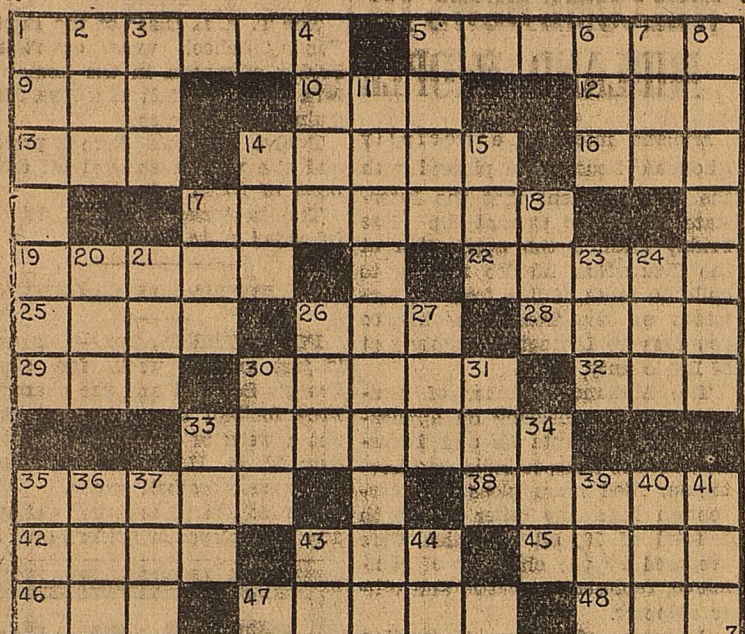

The plane can take off at an angle greater than 45 degrees and hold it "all the way to the ceiling," Davis said. "I believe it is unquestionably the fastest climbing plane ever built."

It is an open cock-pit affair and responds so swiftly to the controls that a sudden change of direction will produce temporary blindness for the pilot. That happened in the Cleveland races, Davis said, when he rounded a pylon too abruptly.

A nine cylinder motor of 300 horse power twirls the plane's 22 degree pitch propeller, 2,300 revolutions per minute and propels the whole craft more than 250 miles an hour.

"A novice is out of place at its controls but it is perfectly safe in the hands of an experienced pilot," he said.

SLOAN FIELD PILOT SAYS RADIO IS DESTINED TO HOLD BIG ROLE IN AIR

That radio is destined to play the same important role in aviation as it has in ocean transportation, H. M. Becherer, field manager of the airport, says. Explaining the work of the radio division of the government, Becherer shows that it is charged with the inspection of all licensed radio stations land, ship and aircraft; it examines and licenses radio operators; checks the frequencies of stations; measures the field strength of stations, and performs all the field work entailed in the enforcement of the ship radio act, the radio act of 1927, and the International Radiotelegraph convention of that year. It also issues licenses to amateur and technical and training school stations.

During the last fiscal year the Radio Division made 10,715 inspections of ship stations for American and foreign vessels clearing from United States ports, as compared with 9,093 for the preceding fiscal period. It made 1,102 inspections of ship stations for license, 1,154 inspections of commercial land stations and 229 inspections of amateur stations. Examinations were given 3,477 applicants for commercial operator's licenses and 3,163 applicants for amateur operator's licenses.

Monitoring was carried on throughout the year in all inspection districts with apparatus constructed by the field inspection service. The use of this equipment demonstrated the need for more precise instruments and steps have been taken to procure them. It also proved the value of frequency measurements at fixed points rather than at the station being measured as was formerly the custom. This service has been of value not only to the Federal Radio Commission but also to station owners. Of the 614 licensed broadcasting stations, frequency measurements were made of 374 stations, the remainder being mostly of low power, at a considerable distance from the monitoring stations, or stations, operating most during daylight hours.

The construction of a constant-frequency monitoring radio station authorized last February will soon be begun near Grand Island, Neb. The site chosen is about the geographical center of the country. The measuring apparatus to be installed in this station will be of such design that it will be capable of making measurements with resulting accuracy of 1 part in 1,000,000. Three types of receivers are to be installed, two of which cover the frequencies from 100 to 30,000 kilocycles, using both loops and antenna and having extreme sensitivity. The arrangements of the receivers permits simultaneous use at all times. A special antenna system, in conformity with the latest developments in this line, is to be erected, the antennae being in the main of the type connected to receivers through transmission lines.

Becherer is looking forward to installation of a government radio station in Midland soon. Designation has already been secured.

Stars Were Laughed Into Favoritism

"The surest way to wealth nowadays is to amuse the public," assert Moran and Mack, the Two Black Crows, who have just completed their first motion picture, "Why Bring That Up?" at the Paramount studios.

"The public wants to rock with laughter. Look at Bud Fisher, Billy DeBeck, George McManus, Rube Goldberg and the other comic strip artists who have landed on Easy Street because of their ability to make readers laugh."

"Al Jolson makes more today than Caruso ever did. Caruso spent a life on study and he could make you cry. Jolson only took five vocal lessons in his life but he makes folks weep, too."

"It's the same way with the stage and the screen. Henry Ford made a fortune out of automobiles because he gave the masses amusement in enabling them to go out and have fun."

The Two Black Crows have for their aim in life to make people laugh. That they have succeeded is evidenced by their tremendous record sales, the popularity of their radio programs and now their motion picture debut. Their initial picture has been called, after that famous expression of theirs, "Why Bring That Up?"

"Why Bring That Up?" is from an original story written by Octavus Roy Cohen for the Two Black Crows. It carries them from obscurity on small time vaudeville to the heights of success and closely parallels their own lives. "Why Bring That Up?" will be shown at the Ritz theatre Sunday and Monday.

The picture has an excellent supporting cast, headed by Evelyn Brent and Harry Green. There are a number of new songs and many spectacular chorus girl dance scenes.

The two principal songs of the show are "Shoo Shoo, Boogie-Boo!" and "Do I Know What I'm Doing?" They are catchy tunes.

George Abbot directed the production. He is famous as a Broadway playwright and was the co-author of "Broadway," a renowned stage success which enjoyed a long run on the gay white way two years ago.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

By SISTER MARY, NEA Service Writer.

Since puddings are a popular dessert for winter dinners the pudding should be carefully considered. It must furnish any lack in the pudding itself and must emphasize the flavor of the pudding by contrast or delicacy of flavor. The rest of the menu has bearing upon it, since a meal made up of rich foods should not be followed by an over-rich pudding sauce.

Baked puddings, with a tendency toward dryness should be served with a liquid sauce.

Hot puddings, if they are not too rich of themselves, can be served with a rich hard sauce.

Sauces thickened with eggs are richer than those thickened with flour or cornstarch.

Whipped Cream Much Used
Whipped cream is a popular sauce for many puddings. It should be slightly sweetened but not made sweet enough to overpower the flavor of the pudding. Many puddings served with a liquid sauce are improved if a garnish of whipped cream is added.

Rich, sweet puddings are improved when they are served with a fruit sauce. The contrasting flavor and lack of butter, cream or eggs in the sauce brings out the best in the pudding.

Flavorings should be added to hot sauce after they are thoroughly cooked and just before serving so that none of the taste is lost.

The pudding sauce can be varied to the dessert course, for the same pudding served with a different sauce gains fresh interest. Keep in mind that the rule for thorough cooking of all starches holds good in pudding sauces, and if a sauce is thickened with flour or cornstarch it must be well cooked to make it palatable and digestible.

BRUTAL MURDER MAY BE SOLVED YET, IS THOUGHT

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 7.—(UP)—Still clinging to the hope that the mysterious and brutal slaying of Bessie Lynch and Cleo Lieto, Dallas girls, Nov. 4, 1928, may be solved, police here plan to question Bennie Aldredge on the eve of his execution, Dec. 10.

The bodies of the two girls were found in a cornfield west of here. They had been mutilated. Aldredge will be executed for an attack on two Dallas girls.

For more than a year, police and county officers have been confused in the maze of conflicting evidence concerning the identity of the slayer or slayers. City investigators, however, still maintain that it was Aldredge and Lee Roy Merriman, executed at Huntsville recently, as one of the slayers.

Police base their belief on remarks made by both Aldredge and Merriman when they were being held in jail here following their arrest, and testimony of their victims concerning remarks they made at the time of the crime. The two girls were reminded "of what happened to those two girls in the cornfield west of Dallas."

Police also maintain that Aldredge declared that Merriman "knew something about the slaying."

Aldredge, more affable than the sullen Merriman who sulked in his cell, is expected to "talk" before he starts his last march up "death row." Detective Jones reported that Aldredge, although surly or discourteous, was so wrought up over the execution of his "pal" and his refusal to bid him goodbye, that he asked to be left alone.

Merriman went to the chair without making a statement of any kind—not even the consolation of a minister. Feigning insanity until the last, he refused to speak to prisoners in adjoining cells or the guards who administered to him. Refusing to speak all Thanksgiving—his last day—he ate a Turkey dinner and smoked countless cigarettes.

Guards, hoping to break down his feigned insanity, forced him to ask for cigarettes before they purchased them for him. A letter, which the doomed man had failed to open, was found tossed in the corner of his cell after he had gone to the chair.

Flyweight Stuff

Prospects of definitely establishing a world's flyweight boxing champion appear remote although it is now almost certain that Black Bill, Cuban negro and stable-mate of the sensational Kid Chocolate, will be recognized by the New York State Athletic Commission as the title holder.

Bill recently defeated Eugene Huat of France, the European champion, in the semi-finals of Madison Square Garden's flyweight elimination tournament and is an odds-on favorite to win from the survivor of the other semi-final match which will bring together Midget Wolgast of Philadelphia and Ruby Bradley, Jersey negro.

The flyweight division has been without a title-holder for several years, although the New York commission at one time recognized Izzy Schwartz and the National Boxing Association recognized Frankie Genaro. Efforts to bring the two together were unsuccessful.

Genaro has been campaigning in foreign rings with varying success. He lost on a foul to Spider Pladner, French star, who was later knocked out by Eugene Huat. In a return bout Genaro took the decision from Pladner and as a result he still claims the title and has signed to meet Yvon Trevidic of Marseilles in a "world's championship bout" at Paris, January 12.

Schwartz was even less successful in establishing his right to championship honors. He lost a decision to Willie LaMorte of Newark, N. J., in what was advertised as a championship bout, but the New York commission refused to recognize LaMorte as champion when it was revealed that both LaMorte and Schwartz were being handled by the same manager.

In an effort to settle the flyweight situation Madison Square Garden signed eight prominent flyweights for the present tourney, but failed to produce either Genaro or LaMorte to enter. Schwartz, Huat and Speedy Dado, Filipino star were regarded as the outstanding entrants, but Dado was forced to withdraw because of an injured shoulder and Schwartz was eliminated by Huat in the first round.

Huat, a tall, lanky, fair-haired battler with a death's head expression on his face, failed to display the terrific punch he showed in foreign bouts, but was far too strong for Schwartz and became the favorite to win the tournament.

In his second American start against Bill, Huat was decisively defeated and thereby eliminated from championship consideration. Bill now appears practically certain to win the tourney and become the New York commission's champion. Jack Dempsey is reported to be negotiating for a bout between Bill and Willie LaMorte, at the Chicago Coliseum early in February. If he succeeds in pairing the two the situation will be clarified, and only the winner of the Genaro-Trevidic battle in Paris and Speedy Dado will stand between the winner and an undisputed championship.

Black Bill is one of the most picturesque fighters on the boxing horizon in years. The little coal

LOCAL "MOVIE" CAST SELECTED KING IN LEAD

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. King and Miss Marian Wadley have been selected to play the leading parts in the "Story of Midland," the local movie being made by Victor Shuler for the new Yucca theatre. Others in the cast will include John Junior Nobles, Blanche Cowden and Duffy Stanley. Production of the story will begin at once and all will be experiencing the thrill of their first appearance before the movie camera. "Locations" have been selected for the various scenes in the story which begins something like ten years ago and is brought up to the present time by having the lead character arrive in Midland as a stranger who comes to the city seeking opportunity.

Mr. Vickers, of the chamber of commerce, acts as host to the stranger and endeavors to convince him of the advantages of living in Midland and takes him for a trip over the city. On this trip the lead character meets the young ladies and falls in love with the supporting lead, Mrs. King. He immediately decides that Midland is the place for his future. Then follows a delightful story which ends in an amusing manner.

Various street scenes were made Saturday afternoon, and today the various churches will be filmed at the dismissal of the regular services. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance so that each church will be properly represented in this civic picture.

Says Is Legal To Ship Coyote Hides

Holly Roberts, Midland county commissioner, gave some interesting and valuable information to Midland people yesterday, advising The Reporter-Telegram of the correction of an erroneous impression regarding shipping of coyote hides.

He said that instructions had been given by a game warden to post office and express company employees not to accept for shipment any coyote hides, as they were under the head of fur bearing animals.

The order, Roberts said, has been retracted, because of the fact that coyotes are predatory animals and are not under the laws regulating fur bearing animals.

Commissioner Roberts says he had investigated the laws relative to predatory animals, and their hides may be shipped at any time through any service.

BRECKENRIDGE TO SEMI-FINALS AS AMARILLO LOSES

The Buckaroos converted two Amarillo fumbles into two touchdowns in the second period. Breckenridge won the toss and the semi-final game with Waco here Saturday.

EXTENSION MEN FROM A. & M. MAY HOLD MEET HERE

Midland may get the district meeting of Extension Department of A. & M. College, O. B. Martin, H. H. Williamson and E. M. Rigenbrecht, extension men here visit to Midland Saturday, said.

Martin, director of the extension department, Williamson, a vice-director, and Rigenbrecht, swine specialist, spoke highly of Midland county's potential farming region and hunted in the morning on the J. E. Hill place, accompanied by County Agent and Mrs. Frank Wendt, Miss Genavieve Derryberry, county home demonstration agent, and A. J. Florey.

The Midland county and state extension workers returned Friday afternoon from the district 3 meeting in Abilene, where Miss Derryberry spoke on "Yard Beautification."

To Discuss Road South To Stiles

The south road committee of the chamber of commerce, which is composed of S. R. Preston and Frank Ingram, is to confer with county commissioners of Reagan county at the earliest opportunity in order to perfect plans for a projected road which would connect Midland and Stiles, giving a good route to Big Lake. Preston believes such a road would be valuable to Midland because of the sheep raising industry in the southeast of Midland county and northwest Reagan county. He also thinks there would be a considerable volume of through traffic from the old Spanish Trail highway and the Broadway of America.

MARKET PRICES HIKE

LAMESA.—Market prices to farmers saw a slight rise here during the last week-end. Corn middlings rose from fifty and fifty-five cents to seventy cents while milo maize shot to $20 per ton. Maize has been selling for $15 and $16.50 during the last three or four weeks. Cotton seed prices have remained steady at $28 during this fall, and the cotton market has averaged around $15.30c.

RAIL PERMIT IS WELCOME NEWS TO MIDLAND PEOPLE

Midland interests, especially wholesale houses, are pleased with the announcement that the Interstate Commerce Commission late Friday granted the application of the Texas-New Mexico railway to build 70 miles of line from its terminus on the Texas-New Mexico boundary to Lovington, county seat of Lea county, N. M.

The Midland chamber of commerce, at the hearing on applications of the Santa Fe and Texas-New Mexico lines, to build into Lovington, filed more pleas of intervention than any other city, with a total of 10, all of which were prepared by the chamber of commerce, representing cattle and other shippers.

Authority for the Texas-New Mexico railways to construct 70 miles of line from its terminus on the Texas-New Mexico boundary to Lovington in Lea county, New Mexico, was granted Friday by the interstate commerce commission.

The commission also permitted the South Plains and Santa Fe railroad to extend its lines from Seagraves in Gaines county, Texas, to Lovington, 46 miles. Application for construction of a branch line from Lovington south for about 43 miles was denied.

Each of the applicants intervened in opposition to the petition of the other, and the New Mexico state corporation commission recommended that both applications be granted.

The Texas-New Mexico, a subsidiary of the Texas and Pacific, filed its application first, estimating cost at $1,825,000. Later the South Plains application was filed. Its branch, which was denied approval, would parallel closely the construction proposed by the other line.

SCHMIDT STARTS BASKETBALL

FORT WORTH, Tex.—This week is just another week for Coach Francis Schmidt and the champion Frog football team. At least, it is not a week of rest and celebration over T. C. U.'s initial Southwest Conference football crown.

Schmidt, as pleased and elated as any Frog player or student over the title wrested from Ray Morrison's Mustangs, has begun preparations for the basketball season. He lost no time in declaring "no rest" for T. C. U. athletes by calling for all varsity cage candidates to report for the opening of the practice season at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Fourteen men, four of them last year's letter men, answered first call and met with the "miracle man" in the big gym, pivoting, and stance was held. Intense practice will get under way late this week.

ROSCOE WEIGHT HANDICAP OVERCOMES MIDLAND OFFENSIVE

PLOUGHBOYS TURN TIDE JUST IN NICK OF TIME, WINNING BI-DISTRICT GAME BY 7-0 SCORE

BY JAMES P. HARRISON
Special Staff Writer

A heavier and more experienced Roscoe eleven found their toughest opposition of the year when they went up against the Bulldogs of Midland High School in the championship football game between Districts 8 and 9 Friday afternoon at Roscoe, finally putting over one touchdown and adding the extra point to win 7 to 0.

Roscoe fans had predicted an easy victory for their purple and white warriors, but their assurance of a victory was short lived just as soon as Captain Gray had kicked to Burris to start the game.

Wind Favors Roscoe

The Midland Bulldogs marched down the field for 30 yards before being forced to punt.

A strong south wind was in favor of the Roscoe Plowboys and most of the first quarter was played in Midland territory, with the Bulldogs chalking up more first downs and much more yardage. Roscoe punts kept the ball in the purple and gold territory.

Bulldogs Threaten

Midland threatened to score in the early part of the last quarter. The Bulldogs started a march from their own 26-yard line and carried the ball across the goal line, only to have it called back to the eight-yard line on the umpire's decision that Midkiff went out of bounds.

Fumble Costly

Midland could not advance the ball from the Roscoe eight-yard line and lost possession of it after being thrown for losses. Burris attempted to pass but the ball was slipped down just as it left his hand.

A fumbled catch of a punt by a Bulldog paved the way for the Roscoe touchdown.

The four heavy and fast Roscoe backs carried the ball from the center of the field to Midland's one-yard line, where they were held for three downs before being able to take the ball across.

Captain Gray of the Plowboys stood out as the star of the line for his team. His backfield was about evenly matched for honors, with Frost and Golden making more yards.

Midland Outweighed

Midkiff and Hallman made long gains for Midland, with Burris and Fryar making consistent gains.

The Midland backfield was outweighed 30 pounds to the man and the line about 20 pounds.

The Bulldogs had the edge on the Plowboys on first downs and total yardage.

The Game Play By Play

First Quarter

Captain Gray of the Plowboys won the toss and chose to defend the south goal. A strong wind from the south was blowing at the time and the field was very dusty. Captain Foster chose to receive for the Bulldogs.

On the kick-off, Gray booted the ball over the goal line. Burris hit the line for a one-yard gain at the 20-yard line. Midkiff tore loose for 20-yard gain that put the ball on the Bulldogs' 41-yard line with first down.

Hallman, Midkiff and Burris gained only six yards around the ends and a line buck. Pinnell punted 31 yards to Frost, who returned the ball to his own 26-yard line, catching the punt on his own 23-yard line.

Golden and Frost, heavy backs, lost one yard in three line bucks and Hicks punted to Burris on Midland's 30-yard line. The Bulldog quarter dashed 11 yards before being downed.

Burris was thrown for a loss of four yards on the first down. Midkiff made seven yards on a line buck and an end run. Pinnell fumbled on his attempted punt and the Plowboys got the ball on Midland's 29-yard line.

Hicks and Golden made six yards on off-tackle smashes. Frost's pass to Medlock was incomplete. Midkiff intercepted an open pass thrown by Hicks. The Bulldog fullback was downed on his own 15-yard line. Fryar went around left end for two yards. On the second down Pinnell punted out of bounds on his own 25-yard line.

The Plowboys took the ball on Midland's 25-yard line. Hicks made two yards through center. Jones added three yards on a short end run. Frost fumbled on the third down and a Bulldog recovered on Midland's 31-yard line.

Burris made six yards around end. Midkiff hit the line for three more and Fryar added three more on a cut-back, making first and ten. Burris failed to gain and Midkiff fumbled but recovered on his own 43-yard line. Pinnell punted to Jones on the latter's 45-yard line, and the heavy Plowboy half made only three yards before he was nailed.

The Midland forward wall swept through the Plowboy line on the next three plays, and Frost, Golden and Hicks lost three yards. Hicks punted from his own 45-yard line to Midkiff, who fumbled on the catch but recovered and ran from his own ten-yard line to his 14-yard line. Midkiff made one yard through the line. A Bulldog lineman was off-side on the next play and Midland drew a five-yard penalty that put the ball on the purple and gold's ten-yard line.

Fryar made a pretty left end run that netted 14 yards, the quarter ending when he was downed.

Second Quarter

Burris took the ball on his 24-yard line and rammed his way for four yards to make first down. Midkiff made three yards through the line and Burris added four on an end run. Midkiff made 15 yards which carried the ball to the center of the field with first and ten to go.

An attempted pass on the first down was incomplete, and then Burris took a lateral pass which was good for nine yards. Fryar failed to gain on the next play. A fumble on the next down cost Midland possession of the ball, after having advanced it from their own 24-yard line.

Hicks was thrown for a yard loss on the Plowboys' first play, but Frost gained the yard back with four more on the succeeding play. Jones made three yards through the line. Hicks' punt was blocked and the Bulldogs got the ball on Roscoe's own 40-yard line.

Midkiff side-stepped his way for a five-yard gain on the first play. The Bulldogs failed to complete a pass on the second down. Burris took a lateral pass for a four-yard gain. A Midland fumble was recovered by a Plowboy on the latter's 25-yard line.

Jones hit the line for five yards. Golden made seven more on a short end run, with first and ten on Roscoe's 37-yard line. Jones went over tackle for three yards. Hicks broke through the line for 15 yards, carrying the ball to Midland's 45-yard line. Frost made three yards through center. Roscoe drew a five-yard penalty for off-sides. Hicks gained two yards through the line and three on the next play made 14 yards on a wide end run, going out of bounds on Midland's 30-yard line.

Jones made three yards on the first play. Golden added six more and Frost slipped through for two yards, making first down with ten to go. Jones made three yards through the line, carrying the ball to Midland's 16-yard line. On the next play Hicks was thrown for a three-yard loss. Jones failed to gain on the third down and an incomplete pass gave the Bulldogs the ball.

Score at the half: Midland 0, Roscoe 0.

The half ended just after Burris had missed a lateral pass on the second down, Hallman having been thrown for a three-yard loss on the first down.

Third Quarter

Fryar kicked for the Bulldogs at the beginning of the third period and sent the ball to Hicks on the five-yard line. The Plowboy fullback made a pretty return of 24 yards. Jones made two yards on a short end run after Golden had been stopped at the line of scrimmage on the first down. On the third play Golden was thrown for a one-yard loss. Hicks punted to Burris, who caught the ball on his own 41-yard line and ran five yards before being stopped. A Bulldog pass on the first down was incomplete. Hallman carried the ball from his own 46-yard line to Roscoe's 46-yard line on the second play. Midkiff gained one yard on a line plunge. Pinnell punted from the Roscoe 45-yard line to Hicks on the latter's 20-yard line. Hicks returned nine yards before he was stopped by four Bulldogs. Frost made two yards off tackle. Golden made three additional yards and Hicks hit the line for no gain. Hicks punted to Midkiff on Midland's 20-yard line.

Midkiff was downed on his own 25-yard line near the east sideline. Burris carried the ball out of bounds on the first play with no gain, and lost four yards on a lateral pass. Pinnell punted from his 21-yard line to Frost, who was downed on Roscoe's 30-yard line after he had made two yards on the return.

Hicks broke loose through the line for 14 yards, for first down. Golden ran through the Midland line for six yards. Hicks tore loose for a long run and was not stopped until he reached the Bulldogs' 30-yard line. Golden was stopped with no gain on the first down of the next series. Four Bulldog linemen swept through the big Roscoe forward wall and threw Hicks for a five-yard loss. Jones was stopped at the line of scrimmage on the next play and Hicks punted over the Midland goal line.

Midkiff went around left end from his 20-yard line and swept to the Roscoe 44-yard line. A lateral pass to Burris took the ball to Roscoe's 22-yard line. Midland drew a 15-yard penalty for clipping and a Bulldog fumbled on the next play, Roscoe recovering.

Hicks made 15 yards through center for first down. Jones made a short end run for six yards. Hicks made three yards through the line and Jones' pass did not find a receiver. Hicks punted over the Midland goal.

The quarter ended after Hallman had made a six-yard run around end, putting the ball on Midland's 26-yard line.

Fourth Quarter

Midkiff made 12 yards and first down on the second play of the series and added two more on a line plunge, putting the ball on Midland's 40-yard line.

On the second down, Hallman made a 38-yard run around left end, advancing the ball to Roscoe's 22-yard line. Burris was good for three yards on a short end run.

Midkiff went around left end to cross the goal line from the 19-yard line, but was called back to the eight-yard line for having stepped upon the side line. Hallman made two yards through the line, leaving only six yards distance between the Bulldogs and a coveted touchdown. Fryar was thrown for a two-yard loss before he could get started good. Midkiff lost five yards when the Bulldog line was swept aside by the charging Plowboys.

On the last down, with 13 yards to the goal line, a pass was slipped down just as it was leaving Burris' hand, the ball going over to Roscoe on their own 13-yard line.

Golden hit the line for no gain. Hicks gained six yards around left end and then punted to Pinnell at the center of the field. The Midland center was completely surrounded when he attempted to jump in the air and catch the ball after it had hit the ground and bounced high. Roscoe recovered the ball on their 45-yard line.

A determined group of Plowboy backs led by a charging line carried the ball from their 45-yard line to the Bulldogs' one-yard marker. All four of the Roscoe backs made substantial gains on the long march.

With one yard to go for a touchdown, Jones hit the line but was held fast with no gain. Quarterback Frost hit the line for a gain of two feet. Jones was sent hammering for the necessary one foot, but was stopped at the line of scrimmage. Frost called Jones to make another attempt on the fourth down, and the 170-pound fullback went over Midland's right tackle for the only touchdown of the game. The ball was over only by inches.

Captain Gray executed a perfect kick from placement for the extra point.

The Bulldogs made a desperate attempt to drive up the field after they had received the kick-off after Roscoe's touchdown. A 25-yard penalty set the Midlanders back near their own goal line. Pinnell kicked from his own ten-yard line to send the ball out of bounds on Midland's 27-yard line.

Roscoe gained only four yards on line bucks and Hicks punted over the goal line.

The ball was Midland's on its own 20-yard line. The last play of (Continued on page 10)

GREAT GABBO IS RUSHED HERE BY PLANE SATURDAY

The Yucca theatre received by airplane Saturday its print on "The Great Gabbo," today's attraction. It was necessary that the film be shipped via air from New York to Dallas and thence by air express to Midland.

The film has been shown only in key cities of the U. S.

His first vehicle since "The Wedding March," Erich von Stroheim stages a startling local return to the screen, and in a talking picture, too, Sunday, in James Cruze's first talking picture, "The Great Gabbo," in which von Stroheim has the titular role.

In many ways, say critics, "The Great Gabbo" gives von Stroheim greater scope for his talents than in any of his previous pictures. In this production, they say, von Stroheim is more arrogant than von Stroheim in "Foolish Wives"; more cynical than von Stroheim in "Blind Husbands" and a more uniquely original lover than von Stroheim in "The Wedding March."

Betty Compson is the featured feminine player in "The Great Gabbo."

Talking pictures threw fear into the hearts of nearly every screen star. Betty Compson assumed that she would be able to cope with the new dialogue problem and went right ahead on that theory. She merely applied common sense. She realized that natural conversation sounds best on stage or talkie screen, therefore she has, from the very beginning, talked in her natural tones. The result has been that, since the inception of talking pictures, Miss Compson has been a pronounced success.

New Frat Rules Apply At Texas

AUSTIN, Texas.—(UP)—Here's how University of Texas students will get into fraternities in the future: The old system of a rush week at the opening of the college term was banned when the faculty adopted new regulations. These rules prohibited the pledging of freshmen until after the mid-term.

The open season will start Feb. 20, at 1 p. m. It will close Feb. 21, at 2 p. m.

Ten days after examinations the fraternities will be given a list of all eligible freshmen and all eligibles who have transferred from other universities. The fraternities will within two days furnish the dean with a list of "rushes" as the men to be considered are termed. The dean will notify each rushee by letter which fraternities were "dates" with him. The rushee must accept dates with at least two fraternities and not more than ten if he has been named by more than one.

A committee will arrange the dates to prevent conflicts. Each fraternity will be given two dates with each rushee, unless he has been designated by more than five organizations. In that case they will get a single date each.

At the end of the rush period during which the rushees may be entertained at chapter houses, at automobiles or at public entertainments, each fraternity will furnish the dean with a list of the rushees they desire to pledge and the dean will send each rushee the list of fraternities that have designated him.

To be eligible as a rushee a freshman must pass every course with over D. grade.

Howard Terraces 10,000 Acres Soon

BIG SPRING, Tex.—On Monday, Dec. 9 J. V. Bush, county agent, will begin the terracing of 10,000 acres of land in Howard county. Applications for terracing in the county have exceeded the 10,000 acres and will be carried forward as rapidly as possible, said Mr. Bush. This terracing is a follow up of several terracing demonstrations held in various parts of the county showing the value of terracing and contouring of land. Eight farm levels to aid the county agent in this work have been purchased by the Big Spring chamber of commerce and will be distributed to the different rural communities.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NAMES ALL-SOUTHWEST AND ALL-AMERICAN

TCU PLACES FOUR MEN ON MYTHICAL ELEVEN; RICE AND AGGIES FAIL TO PLACE

DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 7.—(AP)—An All-southwest conference football team, based upon fancy and the combined opinions of the section's coaches, officials and sports writers, is presented herewith by The Associated Press.

There was the usual difficulty in settling upon the outstanding man at several positions; but, on the whole, the team shaped itself as the season progressed. Those whose names appear in the mythical line-up played a high brand of football consistently. They did not star in one or two games. Banded together they would make a great football team.

Four stalwarts from the champion Texas Christian University eleven made the grade; two each from Southern Methodist, Texas University and Baylor; one from Arkansas University. It is a representative team. For the first time in many a moon, the Texas Aggies did not have a player of championship calibre, in the opinion of this mouth placed three men on the first team of 1929.

The following Southwest conference men received honorable mention in the selection: Brown, Texas; Hammon, S. M. U.; Koch, Baylor; Brumblow, T. C. U.; Gilbert, S. M. U.; Grubbs, T. C. U.; Wilson, Baylor; Leland, T. C. U.; Skelley, Texas; McElreath, Baylor.

GOVERNOR MOODY SQUELCHES RUMOR OF A THIRD TERM

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 6.—(UP)—Gov. Dan Moody took occasion today to squelch beyond a doubt the intermittent rumors that he has been in conference with friends, discussing the possibility of announcing himself candidate for a third term in the executive chair.

"I have not discussed such a matter," the Governor said curtly when interviewed. He also denied that he had told friends he will not be a candidate for office again. This rumor also had gained currency in the state house.

The date for the special session of the legislature, he said, will not be announced until he receives a report from the committee authorized by the legislature to make a report on the state prison situation. The report is being prepared under the direction of Senator Edgar Witt of Waco. It is reported to favor an industrial prison to be located within 20 miles of Austin. A minority report, favoring erection of the institution on ground already owned, probably will be submitted, it was apparent today.

Having vetoed former efforts of the legislature to punish "Hoovercrats," Moody is not expected to submit election legislation to the special session. Meantime, the state Democratic committee continues to hold its silence as to how the Republican-voting Democrats will be treated. The race for Governor will begin to take shape when this becomes known.

The capitol generally is assuming that Former-Governor Pat Neff will be rushed into the executive's race by hostility to Former Senator Earle B. Mayfield but probably will announce himself as a candidate for election as a railroad commissioner as soon as he finishes the appointive term given him recently by the governor. It is taken for granted that Attorney General R. L. Bobbitt will be out for re-election.

Senator Morris Sheppard paid Austin a short visit recently. He left seemingly unworried regarding the possibility of a dangerous opponent for his position in the 1930 primary.

If they can only make the penitentiaries nice enough, maybe the yeggs will want to keep out of them.

MARFA WRITER IS COMPLIMENTARY OF MIDLAND MEN

The Big Bend Sentinel in a story received in Midland today, gave a sporting write-up of the Midland game in which the writer was evidently impressed with the sportsmanship of the Midland squad as was Midland with the Marfa team.

The story was prefaced by the following paragraphs:

Fighting desperately eleven surprisingly strong golden clad Midland Bulldogs, the purple sheathed Shorthorn machine went down in its first defeat of the season to lose a bitterly contested game and the district championship as well as to Midland Thanksgiving day, by the very close score of 21-25. The Bulldogs added another member to their team, and in the end it was this twelfth gold jersey that proved more than the Herd could overcome, and won for the kennels. This extra player was none other than the added handicap of playing away from home, on a strange field, before a partisan crowd, minimized with the effects of a long trip, and tiresome waits around hotels. To those rabid Marfa fans who followed the team to the oil city, there was no doubt but what had the game been played at Marfa, that the district championship would have been resting today on Shorthorn colors.

From the very first whistle it was evident that the Bulldogs and Shorthorns were going to be evenly matched, and that it was going to be another case of two powerfully strong offensive teams clashing, both using the theory that a strong offense was the best possible defense. Midland presented for the day an eleven with the most versatile offense ever seen in this section, and a trick bag which they drained dry. The Bulldog machine worked smoothly and efficiently and was by far the best team that the Herd had met. Burris at quarter called a smart game, and to him must go a large share of the credit for making Midland district champions. Midkiff at full was the principal ground gainer for the Bulldogs, and is a man to be taken into consideration when ever he is in the game. The Bulldogs' two ends were in fine fettle, and were responsible for stopping most of the Herd's sweeping runs.

The Herd took the lead early in the game scoring in the first three minutes on line bucks, and never relinquished this lead, until the last period when a perfectly executed pass accounted for the winning tally. It was a beautiful play, and the score was earned.

The loss of the district game this year makes two consecutive times that the Herd has dropped the crucial game by very small tallies, losing to Odessa last year by six points, and Midland this season by four.

medium's committee. Neither did the Rice Owls.

Three players who were placed on a majority of all-conference teams last year were deemed worthy of a repeat order. They were Captain "Choc" Sanders of Southern Methodist and Boehey Koch of Baylor, Guards, and Wear Schoonover, sensational Arkansas end. Koch and Sanders, on the whole, were no better than last year, if as good, but Schoonover blossomed into one of the greatest ends the conference has seen. He was a stand-out all year.

Six of the team have played their last game of college football. They are Grubbs of the backfield and Schoonover, Rose, Brumblow, and Sanders of the line. The other five are juniors and will be back next season to blaze their way through another campaign.

BY ALAN GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor) NEW YORK.—(AP)—As a tribute to the fertile football plains that produced such consistently brilliant teams as Notre Dame and Purdue, the Middle West takes the lion's share of honors in the Fifth Annual All-American consensus, compiled by The Associated Press from expert nation-wide opinion and made public today.

On the first team, the "shock troops" of an All-American squad of 33 players, five represent the Middle West, four the East, one each the South and Pacific Coast. Pittsburgh and Notre Dame, two of the finest aggregations of the year, each gained two places on the mythical eleven, a distinction no team in the country has been accorded in the consensus since Dart-

Planes Used Much In Hunting Game

With big game becoming scarcer and scarcer in the more thickly settled portions of the country, wealthy sportsmen are chartering planes in increasing numbers to take them to the big game country over the week-end, according to Bledsoe (Slim) Payne, pilot on the passenger line through here for Southern Air Transport, Inc., the Aviation Corporation's second largest subsidiary.

Payne had landed his plane and was talking to Field Manager Becherer.

"Lots of them also use the planes, after they get there, to locate coveys of quail, wild turkey and other game," he explained. "Of course, it is against the law to shoot game from the air, but they can locate it, land nearby and then make their way to within shooting distance on foot."

H. B. Taylor, general manager of Southern Aeromotive Service, Inc., one of the divisions of Southern Air Transport, and other executives of that organization consider a plane as much a part of their hunting equipment as a gun Payne declared.
