Two Motions For New Trial Denied As Court Closes

LEAH AND HAYNIE TO GET TERMS

Appeal to Be Filed In Each Case, Counsel Says Saturday

District court adjourned its four-week session Saturday, ending with the court denying new trial motions to Leah Bailey and H. W. Haynie, each of whom had been sentenced to the penitentiary after being granted new trials by the appellate court for convictions in the lower court in 1928. Motions for appeal were filed by counsel in both cases. Court convenes in Odessa Monday morning. A light docket, both civil and criminal, will be read. Afterward, district court rotates back to Midland after sessions in Andrews, Stanton and Garden City, in that order.

The new trial motion entered by defense counsel for H. W. Haynie was overruled and the defendant sentenced. He will be taken, at his request, to the Reeves county jail, to Pecos, where relatives live. He was given a 20-year verdict for the shooting to death in Stanton in 1926 of John Linn, a barber.

Leah Bailey will be sent to the El Paso jail for safe keeping. She was given 90 years by a jury during the first week of the session. She laughed at the motion for new trial was denied, and said she didn't mind "how many years she got." She expressed confidence she would get a new trial on appeal to the higher courts. Both appeal motions may be made within 90 days to the court of criminal appeals, sitting at El Paso. Counsel has this period for filing of statements of facts and bills of exception.

Leah Bailey's motion for a new trial had been pending all week. G. W. Mann, 17, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, Saturday, for hijacking the Cory Corner eating place here a few weeks ago. He was 16 when this felony was committed but, because he was 17 when his case came to trial, he was culpable under state law. The penitentiary, which specifies the penitentiary rather than a reform school. Had he been tried while he was 16 he could have been sentenced to the reform school. From the penitentiary, however, it is easier to secure a parole, it is understood from talking with attorneys.

Hope for Recovery Is Held for Shelburne by Physicians in the Case

Where a week ago Saturday morning J. M. Shelburne, county-district clerk here, hovered uncertainly between life and death from mercury poisoning resulting from mistaken medicine, physicians in the case announced late Saturday night the official has a fighting chance to recover. "The continued building up of strength of Mr. Shelburne and his successful passing of the turning point at midnight Thursday lends optimism to his recovery," Dr. W. E. Ryan said when approached. "The peculiar symptoms of this poison cannot be ascertained in terms of life and death until several days have passed. Then, if the poison has not concentrated its strength too much in the kidneys, the patient has a chance for getting over its influence." Shelburne took bichloride of mercury instead of nerve tablets he had been using as a prescription.

TWO AIRLINE CO. REPRESENTATIVES GATHER DATA IN MIDLAND ON SAT.

Representatives of two airline companies were in Midland Saturday, gathering data on air traffic which may be used to advantage in the future of Midland's standing as an air center.

Phillip Shumway, former assistant general traffic manager for the Braniff airlines, subsidiary of Universal, with whom he later held the same position, was here to represent Safeway, and W. D. Peck, Jr., for Western Air Express and Standard airlines, the latter of which is to be absorbed by the former March 15. The terms of the merger have been met 80 per cent of the stock having been transferred.

Safeway, by inception of daily schedules from Midland to Sweetwater, connects with trimotored craft to the Middle West and the east. It also puts the passenger into various transportation centers at a time which allows for meeting important railway schedules to practically any desired place.

Now Safeway proposes extending its Sweetwater-Midland extension to El Paso. There it would drop passengers, who could make connection with Standard Airlines, Inc., line which possibly flies more miles a day than any other in America. This line began carrying the San Francisco-Salt Lake mail in 1926, and now makes connections from El Paso to the three great west coast cities, where, in turn, connection is made with the east and Middle West for those wishing to fly that direction.

The two lines are not working together, but extension of the Sweetwater to Midland airline if put through to El Paso would assure that convenience for the flying public.

The visit of the representatives of the competing airlines was just coincident, they said. Each was in Midland looking over the territory. In fact, S-A-F-E has announced a possible extension to the west coast of its proposed Midland to El Paso line.

Western Air Express probably flies more miles a day than any other line in America. Since its beginning it has flown more than four and a quarter million miles without injuring a single passenger, according to Peck. The company has contracted for five of the new Fokker F-32, largest land plane in the world, and has options of the next 13 turned out by the Fokker factory. The chairman of the board of the airline is president of the Fokker Aircraft Co., and chairman of that company's board. This is Harris M. Hanshue.

Imbodied in the Western Air Express organization are the following companies, which are either cooperative or subsidiary: Mid-Continent Air Express, West Coast Air Transport and Standard Airlines. "Midland will have almost direct communication with Tulsa, Chicago, Twin Cities, Cleveland, and other important business centers with the S-A-F-E line starts Monday," Shumway said. "These people will know what it is to have this side of St. Louis, and dinner in Chicago—all in a single day."

The oil and cattle fraternity will greatly benefit from the schedules and fares, he said.

CONSTRUCTION CONTINUES

The new $295,000 court house job has "topped out" and work will proceed with much more dispatch, according to officials of the J. O. Everett Construction Co., holders of the general contract. Columns leading to the ground floor have been poured and several beamsidms. Pouring of the first floor slab will be done in a few days.

PERMITS TOTAL $330,100

With the issuance over the past few days of building permits totaling $30,100, the total for the year is now $330,100. Charles Nolan, city builder inspector, said Saturday. The courthouse makes the bulk of this figure, representing $300,000.

WESTERN AIR EXPRESS PROBABLY FLIES MORE MILES A DAY THAN ANY OTHER LINE IN AMERICA.

THE CHAIR FOR KILLER IN MEMPHIS

Shoots Victim As He Is Grappled With In Hijacking

MEMPHIS, Texas, March 1. (UP)—The jury returned a verdict of death in the electric chair in the case of Hess Tyler, charged with the killing of Bryan Hall in an attempted holdup of a grocery store in which Hall was employed January 13. The jury deliberated 40 hours, and this is the first death penalty for Hall county. Tyler did not show emotion when the verdict was rendered.

State witnesses testified on the stand that the deceased was shot in his store when the defendant ordered Hall to throw up his hands. One of these when cross questioned admitted that Hall had said he (Hall) might have been influential in "pulling the gun off" when the defendant testified before the jury about no intention to hurt Hall having been intended by the defendant.

The defendant made his escape in an automobile following the shooting.

MAIDEN VOYAGE OF S. A. F. E. TO START MONDAY

With a throated roar which will be heard by a large crowd, the first ship on the Sweetwater-Midland extension of -A-F-E, airline which eventually proposes a line from Midland to El Paso and subsequently to the west coast, will warm up for its maiden trip from Sloan field Monday morning at 7 o'clock to Sweetwater, where it will discharge passengers for the Middle West and the East.

Decision to extend the line into Midland was announced last week by Bob Cantwell, chief pilot of Safeway and aide to Earle Halburton, president of the line.

Two passengers have booked reservations for Chicago already and an effort will be made to fill the ship, a four-place cabin Lockheed-Vega monoplane.

The ship will return to Sloan at 6:15 each day and the pilot will spend the night. A business official of the Safeway lines will be domiciled in Midland.

Christian Church To Hold Services

Services will be held at the First Christian church here tomorrow, the Rev. J. W. Winn of Texas Christian University being here for both morning and evening services. The morning worship will be at 11 o'clock and the evening at 7:30. It was announced by H. G. Bedford last night.

Lamesa Man Charged After Fatal Shot

LAMESA, March 1. (UP)—Charges of murder were filed today against Bud Aiken in connection with the fatal shooting of D. I. Cox, cafe owner, yesterday. A quarrel concerning Lamesa's first primary election is said to have preceded the shooting.

TAFT BETTER SATURDAY

WASHINGTON, March 1. (P)—The condition of William Howard Taft, was said by physicians to be slightly improved today. While they did not comment on the turn for the better, it is sometimes characteristic in illness such as that of the former chief justice that there is a slight rally just before the end.

Blacks Still In Van of Whites

George Prince, negro porter at a local hotel, Friday, got a divorce from his wife, Willie Smith Prince, George alleging he treated his wife with love and affection, provided a home and gave her money, but that she wouldn't cook his meals, kept a dirty house, was untrue to him, and finally told him she could get along without him, all of which George says injured his health, caused him to worry and made him less efficient in his work. Minnie Simpson, dusky dame of east Midland's bright lights, alleged in her divorce action against her man, Joe, that he was guilty of being a W. O. I. for days at a time, that he would come home drunk and beat her up, curse and abuse her, all of which Minnie said Thursday was too much for her, as she had made him a true wife and hadn't given him any cause for his conduct towards her. Minnie says she left Joe in Fort Worth. She got her divorce.

JUDGE KLAPPROTH ANNOUNCES FOR A 2ND TERM, TODAY

District Judge Charles L. Klapproth, who is serving the last year of his four-year term, has announced for re-election.

The judge, the youngest in Texas when elected, was county judge two years preceding the inauguration of the present incumbent, M. R. Hall. He has made only one promise during his political life, "to do the best I can—nothing less." That he has done this is attested by his record, most of his decisions being sustained when appealed to the appellate court, only a negligible per cent of these being reversed.

Judge Klapproth has lived in Midland all his life. He is the son of Mrs. H. Klapproth. He finished high school in Midland and had two years in Polytechnic college, Fort Worth, before going to the University of Texas law school where he took his law degree. He was graduated from the law school in 1918.

Secret Funeral For Dr. Snook Is Held

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 1. (UP)—The body of Dr. James Howard Snook, electrocuted last night for the murder of Theora Hix, illicit sweetheart, was buried secretly here at dawn today. Brief funeral services were held at the home at 5 o'clock this morning, having been prearranged to prevent morbid curiosity from viewing the body. Execution took place at 7 o'clock Friday evening. Snook was calm and stoic to the end.

Former Sheriff Is Severely Wounded

JASPER, March 1. (P)—Former Sheriff Beaver Bishop of Jasper county is fighting for his life in a hospital here today from a stab wound in the abdomen, sustained a moment before fatally shooting Irving Ling, 31, late Friday. It is reported that Bishop questioned Ling's ownership of a hog, and it is said that Ling drew a knife and stabbed him, and Bishop then shot Ling.

MYSTERY MUSIC HEARD

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., (UP)—The source of phantom "music" which emanated from a steam pipe in a church here when a radiator was removed for repairs and which ceased after the radiator was replaced remains a mystery. One observer declared the tones resembled a piano and chimes, another said they sounded like an organ, while a third, a newspaperman, believed they resembled the "sawing" of a violin.

DYNAMITE BELIEVED THE CAUSE

Firemen Fear Others Are In Ruins of Wire Office

SAN ANGELO, March 1. (AP)—Seven persons were injured, some critically, in an explosion that wrecked the Western Union office here tonight.

The injured were taken to a hospital as soon as firemen could dig them from the ruins of the office.

The extent of the injuries is not yet ascertained.

Fire Chief John Barker said the explosion appeared to have been caused by dynamite.

The entire office was demolished by the blast and the floor raised several feet off the foundations.

All fire companies in the city answered a general alarm and began an effort to dig through the wreckage and extricate victims.

First reports were that four persons were in the building although firemen said there might be others.

Cause of the blast is unknown, firemen saying either gas or explosives might have produced it.

No reason is known for a bomb being placed in the building.

ATTORNEY IN CASE HERE HAS HAD AN EXCITING TIME

An attorney in a case in district court Saturday, when the session adjourned, had an interesting life.

Facing the bullets of Germans on the Russian front, later joining those wild riders of the steppes, the Cossacks, he has been decorated several times and has led a harrowing existence.

Kustoff, a lieutenant in the Russian Imperial army, when he was 18 years of age, and later a captain of a Cossack battalion, filed last November an application in El Paso to practice law in Texas courts. The Russian became associated with Maj. R. F. Burges, El Paso attorney.

The story of Kustoff is another success tale but it has a background of fierce war and revolution and a speedy march to success. The lawyer, only 33 years of age, has already accumulated a "nice fortune." He did it in Florida real estate.

Kustoff came to the United States eight years ago. It was after he had commanded a battalion at the famous battle of the Bloody River of Stohod and went through a dozen other encounters of Russian and German forces.

The river of Stohod ran blood for days after the battle. Twenty-five thousand Russians were killed in eight hours in that battle. Kustoff's command of 250 men on that day, December 12, 1927, was reduced to 27 men and one officer. Kustoff.

It was after he had been decorated four times for bravery and following the rebellion of the Reds that he came to this country.

Remaining as loyal to the imperial army as he could he joined the Russian Cossacks and was made a captain. In the Cossacks he was awarded the famous silver sword and dagger for heroism. His discharge papers, giving an account of one award read:

"He endeavored to obtain information for the Russian army." (See RUSSIAN page 8)

HENRY FORD MAY REPRESENT DRYS TO COUNTER WETS

WASHINGTON, March 1. (AP)—Drys said today that they would wait until the "wet fling" is over before making public witnesses. They intend to marshal before the house judiciary committee in support of prohibition.

The wets end presentation of the dark side of prohibition Tuesday, until which time the drys' plans are expected to be kept secret. Reports have indicated that the drys will counter the wet speakers, W. W. Atterbury and Pierre Dupont, financial leaders, with Henry Ford.

Mrs. Cales Died Here Late Friday

Mrs. Mabel May Cales, 36, wife of Clarence V. Cales, Midland carpenter, died late Friday at the family residence here after a brief illness. The body, lying in the Harrow funeral parlors last night, was expected to be removed on an early train this morning to Caney, Kansas.

The Cales family moved to Midland about three years ago, and has been engaged on such construction as Hotel Scharbauer, the Petroleum building, and recently on the new court house. They have many friends here who regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Cales. She is survived by her husband and by a daughter Verlyn, 11, and two sons, Darrell 10, and Jackson 2.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

Nothing sweeter than a heart full of love, unless it's a heart full of candy.

TO SUBMIT OIL TARIFF ISSUE AGAIN

"Heartened" By Way Consideration Is Given

Marked lack of pessimism in the oil fraternity greeted the rejection by a dozen votes in the senate Friday night of the Thomas proposal for a tariff on oil and gasoline.

"A stupendous victory for us," E. G. Bedford, Midland director of the Independent Petroleum Association of Texas, said when talked with at his hotel Saturday. "Never has a tariff issue submitted on the figurative eve of its consideration by congress ever gone so far. It is in this unlooked for consideration that the independent oil men of America find dramatic sequence may not invoke acceptance in the belief of the laity."

"The issue came up January 15. No tariff of such magnitude was ever attempted on such a short notice, with any belief in its passage. That this tariff went to the committee and then to the floor of the senate, and was then defeated by such a small majority, constitutes a moral victory which cannot be estimated.

Encouraged

"The treatment of the proposal by the senate lends encouragement, makes for morale for the marshalled forces behind the issue for breaking down of anti-trust laws as relate to the petroleum industry. The fight is only started. The proposal will be submitted again, with the same accu- rating cause, the same great leadership and with infinitely more help."

Significant in the realization of opposition against the existing evils is the printed story of the willingness of the Shell Petroleum Corp. to cut down on importation of crude. One of the principal issues in the fight being waged.

Pipe Line Law Up

"We were told, when we went to Austin that we were too late, but Governor Moody has had placed before him a bill which has signi- fied sympathy with in all respects in so far as they do not tend to react against the state anti-trust laws."

Bedford referred to the pipe line law, which would force pipe line companies to act as common carriers. He had a long distance call into Austin at late hour Saturday night in an effort to determine what action had been taken.

WASHINGTON, March 1. (AP)—The senate recessed today until Monday, without taking up the Shortridge amendment for a tariff of seven cents a pound on long staple cotton.

The democratic-independent-republican coalition is still master of the tariff situation, as the senate devoted its attention today to approval that duty be fixed on long staple cotton, now on the free list. The coalition has maintained numerical superiority through roll calls on lumber and oil tariff. The proposal that crude oil be made dutiable at $1 per barrel and petroleum products at 50 per cent ad valorem was defeated late Friday night, oil remaining on the free list.

Blame for delay in passage of the tariff bill was placed on the coalition by Senator Goff, republican of West Virginia, who accused the group of obstructing the bill in order during the coming elections to lay blame for business uncertainty on the republican party, and making the tariff bill an instrument of class legislation.

BIG ARMY CONTINGENT TO LAND SHIPS HERE LATE IN MARCH, SAYS BECHERER

Concrete Completion Is Placed on Goodwill Trips by Announcements

TOTAL OF EIGHTY SIX MEN WILL SETTLE TO FIELD

Thirty-eight officers and 49 enlisted men will compose a flight to Midland the last week of March, according to a letter received in Midland Saturday from Lieut. J. W. Hammond, adjutant in the air corps of the U. S. Army.

The letter asked for accommodations to be made at leading hotels of the city for the officers and men.

The nature of the flight was not made public in the letter, but other correspondence received before Saturday indicated the flight would proceed from San Diego to Dayton, Ohio.

Nine thousand gallons of gasoline have been ordered from the airport to be held in readiness for the contingent of army planes.

The exact date of landing in Midland has not been announced, depending on weather conditions.

"We have had concrete information the flight will land in Midland, but the number of planes has not been given out, nor the purpose of the flight," H. M. Becherer, field manager of the airport, said just before taking off for Lovington on a cross-country hop Saturday morning.

WANTS MIDLAND PEOPLE TO ATTEND SPRING FESTIVAL

Neal Douglas, with the San Angelo board of city development, was in Midland Friday afternoon meeting stockmen, chamber of commerce officials, ministers and newspapermen seeking to get a big representation from Midland to the spring festival to be held in his town at the time of the Southwest Cattle-men's convention there.

It is hoped by Douglas that members of the women's federated clubs will be present on one of three nights, March 10-12, to see the world's famous Christus play and the Freiburg players present the famous passion play. This first played in Freiburg, Germany in the year 1264.

Horse racing will be another big feature of the festival. Douglas is trying to get George Buchanan, Midland racing fancier, to enter one of the horses from his racing stables in the track events.

MERCHANTS HERE ORDERING SOUVENIRS. BRILLIANT, THREE-COLOR HATS TO BE WORN; TRIP TO EXTEND TO HOBBS AREA

Children to Get Candy; Cowbells Ordered For Trademen; Other Trips are Planned

Trades day trips and goodwill jaunts of Midland tripsters and motorcaders to the Andrews-Seminole-Loving-ton-Hobbs area assumed a different aspect this morning with the announcement from the central agency, the chamber of commerce, that colored hats no less brilliant than the spectrum had been ordered and that committees had bought candy and other souvenirs for the trip, which will be started March 18 in case the weather permits.

One hundred of the three-color hats were ordered. These are of wool and are the prettiest ever specified for such an excursion, it was reported by the committee in charge. These, costing a nominal amount, are to become the permanent property of the trip. The chamber of commerce party of those who buy them for is buying little cowbells, bearing the name "Midland Chamber of Commerce Boosters, 1930" on the sides. Merchants are collecting individual souvenirs for the journey.

A Sentiment Journey
Several buckets of candy have been bought by the chamber of commerce for children along the route of the goodwill trip. Midland people know the sentiment of the territory to be visited and say requests for such a visit have been numerous in the past. A new bond of friendship has come to the fore with new cementing since the announcement of the Santa Fe railroad, saying that line would not build a competing line with the Texas & New Mexico, subsidiary of the T. & P. for which Midland people appeared as witnesses and the chamber of commerce as intervenor in the last year's fight of the two rail companies for the right to enter the territory.

The goodwill trip marks the first of several to be inaugurated by the chamber of commerce. Other cities and towns in other directions will be visited, as well as schools of Midland county.

Participants In Wedding Enthusiastic

Judging by the enthusiasm shown by the men who are participants in the womanless wedding, the event will be well worth the small admission price. The wedding is being given by women of the Presbyterian auxiliary.

A musical program will be given before the ceremony and Madame Lucinda Nightingale, Midland's prima donna, will sing. It is rumored that shoes are being specially made to fit the tiny feet of the bridesmaids and other attendants as well as those of the bride. Persons who are wondering just what the young bride of the season will wear can find no better answer to this perplexing problem than given at the coming wedding.

Monday the names of some of the sweet young debutantes who will participate will be published, but no one can learn the name of the bride except by seeing her in person.

CHURCHES

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Thomas D. Murphy, Pastor.

This Church is set in Midland to conserve the Truth, to proclaim the love of God in Jesus Christ, to show to all the way of life. It covets the loyal support and thorough-going faith of all, and rejoices to enlist whom it may in active Christian service with the purpose of making the victorious Christian life appeal to every one in Midland. Attend the services today. The theme for the morning sermon by the pastor will be "The Standards of the Christian Life," the second in a series on the Sermon on the Mount. The theme for the evening sermon will be a continuation of the series, so don't miss either one.

The schedule of services follows: Morning Worship 11 a. m. Evening Worship 7:30 p. m. Sunday School 9:45 a. m. Junior Endeavor 4:00 p. m. Senior Endeavor 6:30 p. m.

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

George F. Brown, pastor

"The Lord of the Harvest" will be the pastor's theme for this morning. The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. What will the "Lord of the Harvest" have to say to these idlers?

"Missing the Trail" will be the evening subject. There is no neutral path. You are either right or wrong, but never both at once. Have you missed the trail? If so come and hear the pastor's message. It may help you.

Sunday School at 9:45. Morning worship at 11:00. Evening worship at 7:30. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Mid-week prayer meeting at 7:30. We most cordially invite you to all these meetings.

Week Day Bible Class
The week day Bible class meets this week from 4 to 5 o'clock on Monday. We are just taking up the New Testament studies and any one can join. It will be worth your while to come.

The lesson in Mrs. George F. Brown's Bible Class this morning at 9:45 will be "Our Lords Testimony Concerning Himself." Matthew chapter 11.

In reply to the question asked of Jesus by John's friends, he said "Go show John the things ye hear and see." "The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear and the dead are raised."

Today we see these great miracles performed by the Master in our spiritual lives. In this day man is suffering from a malady that no human can cure, the leprosy of sin, but Christ is constantly making him whole. Sometimes the noise of the world and the things that clamor for our time destroy our sense of hearing the things that are best, but some one brings us back to Jesus and we hear again the things that mean more than the music of the world. He speaks peace to the soul, rest for the weary, strength for the weak and ease for the conscience.

Members will be present and friends are invited to hear these interesting topics discussed.

Shakespeare Club To Be Organized

The National Junior Shakespeare

Story Telling club, through the assistance of local teachers, will shortly form a branch or association here.

The club is educational in purpose and is designed to acquaint every grade school child with the works of the famous bard and in such a way that it will appear like play to them. At the same time, it prepares them for high school English studies while those who are not fortunate enough to advance beyond the grades will have a working knowledge of the classics.

The plan consists of story hours for the children when groups will meet and tell Shakespeare stories in simplified form. Clubs for each grade will be formed. Then the grade school champions will contest with those of other schools for the town honors. Prizes will be offered at various stages of the competitions and diplomas will be awarded each child who has finished the prescribed course.

The grand finale will be a Shakespearean program having the children portray the Shakespearean characters.

The National Association now reaches practically every state and has been immensely successful. Aside from the fact that members of the club are improving their education and mastery of English, there is a social feature. Parents and teachers have endorsed the plan with enthusiasm. Presidents and superintendents of eminent universities and colleges have also endorsed ed this plan of study for the child of pre-school age through the junior grades.

This branch of educational work has been placed in the hands of capable teachers who received their education in handling children at prominent universities.

Misses Alberta and Eula Gee Gant, who conducted a private kindergarten in Midland last year, will conduct this work in Midland.

HIGH SCHOOL IS JINXED IN MATTER OF GETTING BALL GAMES

HAS A BALL CLUB BUT NO ONE TO OPPOSE THE BUNCH

The Midland high school baseball team, aside from being problematical winners of their district by virtue of no competition, may be declared regional winners for the same reason, judging from the failure of other teams to give the Midland team a "break" on games. No announcements of acceptance of a broadcast challenge for games has come from Head Coach Barry. Meanwhile, the boys with the bare feet are whinnying away at Three-Eyed Cat, town ball or what have you? They are faced with having to amuse themselves from anything down to watering and rolling their diamond in West End.

Coach Barry believes he will be able to get games from another district, but he is not certain.

SAN ANTONIO, March 1. (AP).—Charges of murder and assault to murder were filed today against Earl Ezzell, contractor, after a shooting last night in which Wilmer Serles was killed and Mrs. Shirley Ezzell, estranged wife of Earl Ezzell, was wounded. The shooting occurred as Serles and Mrs. Ezzell left a garage where the former was employed.

Dallas Lake Free Of Denton Taxes

FORT WORTH, March 1. (UP).—A municipality cannot be taxed on property owned outside the county in which it is located, the second district court of civil appeals ruled today.

Wide publicity was given Midland in the current issue of The Journal of the American Osteopathic Association, and in letters sent every osteopath in Texas.

The Journal contained an article from the Midland Reporter-Telegram telling of the donated services to Midland High School athletic teams of Drs. Wright and Ellinger, Midland osteopaths, who next week open new offices in rooms 311-12 Petroleum Building. The Texas copies of this article in the Reporter-Telegram were mailed by Dr. S. L. Southorn to all of the profession in Texas.

Midland was the smallest city in Texas to have services of osteopaths for its athletic teams. Excerpts from a letter by Coach L. K. Barry of Midland High School expressing appreciation for the work donated by Drs. Wright and Ellinger follow:

"As a result of the generosity and skill of these two doctors, our team was as well taken care of as any high school team in Texas.

"At least one of the doctors was present at every practice and every game. In addition to taping ankles, working on charley horses, sprains and other injuries before and during each practice game, these doctors worked on an average of about a dozen boys in their office each evening.

"A team so inexperienced, so light and so young as ours would not have been physically capable of winning the district championship had its injured players not been as well taken care of. The effect of this excellent care on the morale of the team as well as on its physical condition was no small factor in our success.

Seek Motive For Mysterious Attack

HOUSTON, March 1. (UP).—W. L. Kuykendall, lineman for the Moody-Seagraves Gas company is in a serious condition today as result of a strange attack last night. His assailant approached the car in which Kuykendall was sleeping in a down town garage, threw inflammable fluid in his face, thrust a lighted match in his face and fled.

Kuykendall's face and hair were sootied. Detectives have found no motive for the attack. It is possible that Kuykendall was mistaken for Police Captain J. J. Kuykendall who has been conducting liquor raids. The two are not related.

National Farm Equipment Week

The Farm Bureau, today's greatest agricultural organization, has for some time recognized that agriculture is in its transition period.

In its activities it has been an exponent and champion of factors which distinguish this New Era in American Agriculture. It has among its major activities the project of more efficient production through the use of modern implements and machinery and improved agricultural practices.

We are tying in with this worthy National movement with a large display and demonstration of modern machinery. We will have on hand three car loads of machinery and specially trained men for the demonstration which will be conducted during the week of

INTRODUCTION OF THE NEW KONJOLA MEDICINE HAILED

Many People Calling At The Mayes Young Drug Store To Learn Its Merits

Immediately following yesterday's announcement that the advanced medical preparation, Konjola, was to be introduced in Midland, many local people were eagerly seeking this medicine and telling of reports about it which they had received from relatives and friends in cities where the herbal compound was previously introduced. Many who called at the Mayes Young drug store, stated they already knew about this medicine and some had secured it through acquaintances at larger cities.

The extent to which this Konjola has aroused interest proves very clearly that health troubles, due to disorderly stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels, are so common that hundreds are suffering daily. The forms of misery described by a great many sufferers interviewed yesterday, were as follows: STOMACH: Indigestion and gas bloating, feeling like a rock in the stomach, which in reality is a mass of undigested food, dyspepsia, intense pain in the stomach and chest, wild heart palpitation, feeling like a rock from the throat to the pit of the stomach, awful headaches, loss of weight, strength and tissue, sour stomach, dizzy spells, cramps, spitting up bits of half-digested food and a hot, sour liquid.

LIVER: Attacks of biliousness, sick headaches that may last for days, constipation, dizzy spells, yellowish complexion.

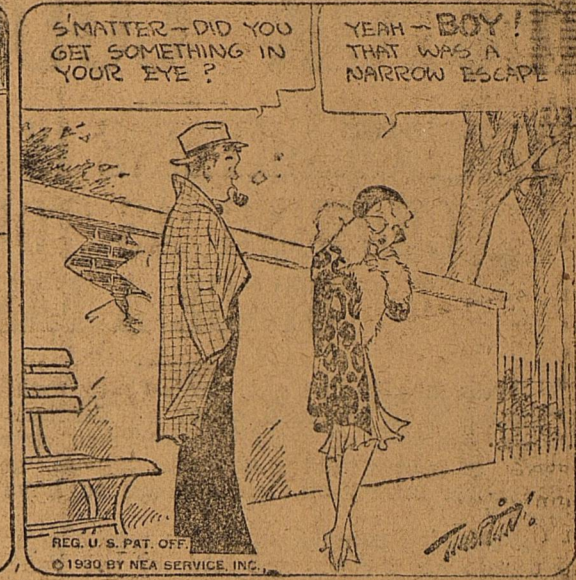

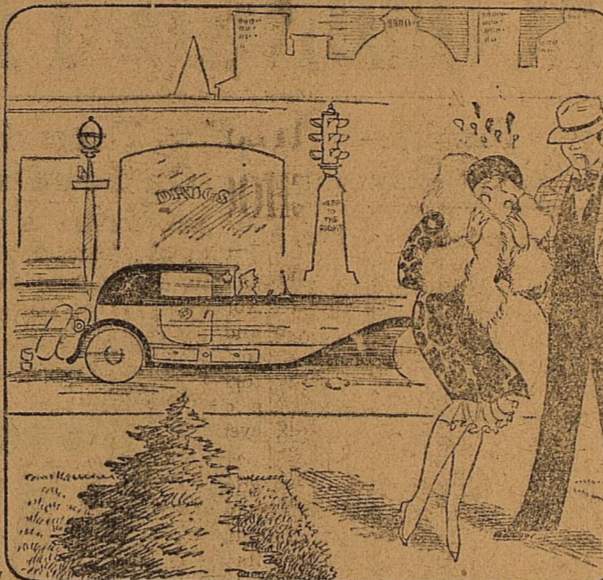

KIDNEYS: Sharp pains over the kidneys, a dull, aching feeling across the back, stiffness in the back and lower limbs, especially in the mornings just before arising, frequent getting out of bed during the night, lightheaded, spots before the eyes, lack of vitality.

BOWELS: Painful, bloated feeling in the lower stomach, worn out feeling, sleeplessness.

Many other forms of suffering arise from the disordered condition of the system that results from sluggish stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels. For instance, there may be rheumatic and neuritic troubles with its agonizing aches and pains.

The above forms of suffering yield readily to the work of Konjola and this medical preparation has so completely ended the health troubles of so many thousands in large cities that it is declared to be what countless sufferers in this sector have long needed to actually reach their cases.

ECTOR COUNTY POOL BECOMING "TYPICAL" WEST TEXAS FIELD

DERRICK SKYLINE IS GROWING AS TOWNS STAGE A FAST RACE

With 23 rigs in sight, three towns making a fight for "the town" of the field, other oil locations reported, five wells producing oil, pipe lines under construction, and hundreds of people milling about in typical "new field" style, the Ector county oil field appears to have "busted wide open."

Following completion a few weeks ago of the Penn-Humble No. 1 Kloh, and later of the Penn-Humble No. 1 York, in sections 7 and 16, respectively, block 44, township 3-south, Ector county, producers have been brought in by Cosden, No. 1-A, University section 1, block 35; Landreth No. 1-S, University section 2, block 35; and Cosden No. 1-B, University section 2, block 35.

One Big Gasser
In addition to the producing oil wells, one gasser, Landreth No. 1-T, University, section 3, block 35, was brought in above the lime, making gas estimated at 5,000,000 originally, which later has increased. It is producing from 3,135-65 feet, whereas the oil producers are from below 3,500 to below 3,700 feet.

Field Has Advantage
The new Ector county field has a number of distinct advantages over other fields, speeding up development. To begin with, the acreage is cut up in more or less small tracts and is in the hands of various owners.

The field is located almost on the railroad and the highway, all of the present production being south of the track, but locations have already been announced north of the track. Rail and highway facilities speed up delivery of supplies.

Three Pipe Lines
The third big advantage is that of pipe line facilities.

The Ector pool is said to have received more pipe line service in a shorter time than any pool ever opened in Texas west of Eastland County.

Humble Pipe Line Company is laying a six-inch welded line to the new Ector County pool. This line will connect with the Wink-Crane line of the Humble Company at a point 15 miles in a general westerly direction from Crane City. Work is under way. Ector will soon have three lines as the Buford four-inch screw line is already completed to Wink and thence to Peecos. Cosden has announced a pipe line to connect with Magnolia's line to the Midland tank farm.

Battle of Towns
One of the most interesting features of the new field is the battle of towns. Driving west from Midland, one comes first to Hilton, on land belonging to Eli Jones, located at the old "Dead Man's Curve" filling station. In the last several days, cafes, drug store, barber shop, lumber yard and other necessary business establishments have been put in.

A mile or two to the west is Penwell, under the promotion of Charles L. Stephens of Midland, head of the townsite company. Its growth within the past week has been miracle-like, having sprung from a platted tract with two or three buildings to a town of about 20 buildings, with more under way. Four lumber yards are supplying materials for the growing city.

On the west another half mile is Badger, itself enjoying a boom and having reports that the railroad is about to provide a depot and other trackage facilities.

It looks as if the oil field could run right in on the towns, or at least Penwell and Badger, but the residents say that is just what they want it to do.

Hundreds of people of midland, Odessa and other cities are driving out to see the new oil field and the oil field towns, taking advantage of the rare advantages of having a highway almost to the heart of the field.

Information was received today that electrical facilities had been cut over for the new oil area by the Texas Electric Service company.

versy, the senate Friday night rejected by a dozen votes the Thomas proposal for a tariff on oil and gasoline.

The roll call which came shortly after 10 o'clock showed 39 against a tariff and 27 for it.

The amendment voted upon, as introduced by Senator Thomas, democrat, Oklahoma, would have placed a tax on foreign crude oil of $1 a barrel and on gasoline and other by-products of petroleum of 50 per cent ad valorem based on American valuation.

Rider Defeated
Prior to the final vote, the senate rejected 57 to 8 a rider by Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, which would have terminated the tariff on January 1, 1934, and made it inoperative meanwhile if the price of crude oil at the point of production in either Oklahoma or Texas exceeded $1.75 a barrel. Pittman proposed this as a guard against over-production which he said he feared would result from a tariff.

Senator Blaine, member of the senate lobby committee which earlier today questioned Wirt Franklin, president of the association, regarding activities in behalf of an oil tariff asserted the methods employed by the independent producers for a tariff were "refarious and damnable."

Franklin Defended
Half a dozen senators, both democrats and republicans from southwestern states, defended Franklin and the Independent Producers association, Senator Allen, republican, Kansas, says, "the independents were behind an earnest effort," to help a "stricken industry" and has sent representatives to Washington to seek "influence in a perfectly proper way."

When the revolution seemed complete, the young captain joined the intelligence service of the American army in Siberia. It was there he met an El Pascan, Capt. E. H. Simmons, now manager of the chamber of commerce. This meeting occurred at Habarovsk.

Then he came to the United States. He joined the 91st aviation school and put in a year's training at Mather school in California.

As a youth Kustoff attended military school in Moscow. After coming to this country, a militarist only, he set about to obtain an education in arts and law. His was the usual task of a boy working his way through school. He peddled everything from magazines to radios. He got his A. B. degree in the University of Florida at Gainesville to get his degree in law. He was in college seven years.

The real estate boom in Florida gave him a chance. He became an authority on land questions. He made good money and invested. He sold too. He still has a $40,000 farm near Gainesville.

He became an American citizen in 1920. He paints and has found time to write of the war and a few movie scenarios. He is unmarried.

In Los Angeles he became acquainted with A. A. Garrett, former El Paso attorney, and he planned to come with Garrett to El Paso and open a law office. Garrett being unable to get away, Kustoff came alone.
