As Texas Judge Fights for Life at Murder Trial

The scene in the courtroom at Austin, Tax., as former Judge John W. Brady fights for his life at his trial for the murder of Lehlia Highsmith, a stenographer, is pictured here. Brady, eyes downcast and chin resting on his hand, is indicated by the arrow. On Brady's right are Henry II. Brooks, 24-year-old district attorney, who has just turned his head to look at the crowd, and County Attorney Roy C. Archer. On Brady's left are E. A. Berry of Houston and Colonel John L. Peeler of Austin, defense attorneys, and Will Brady, brother of the accused judge. The three women seated behind the counsel's table are, left to right, Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Helen White of El Paso (Judge Brady's sister) and Mrs. Will Brady of Ventura, Calif. The jury in the case were charged today. "The defendant pleaded insanity," the judge said. The jury was ordered to consider the suspended sentence plea in case conviction is voted.

A "KNOWN BOOTLEGGER"

One of those little idiosyncrasies of modern police methods popped up, the other day, in a certain middle western city during the investigation of a murder.

A man had been shot to death by some prowler as he sat in the living room of his home. The prowler had used a shotgun, firing through the window, and had made his escape. It wasn't avery promising case for the police.

The next day the police announced that the slain man had undoubtedly been killed in some sort of bootleggers' war; for he was, they said, a "known bootlegger" —a liquor seller of considerable prominence.

Unsophisticated as we are, we cannot for the life of us understand that. If the man was a "known bootleg-ger," why on earth was he at large? How many other ger," why on earth was he at large! Editor's Note: The following letter is from T. J. Harrell, president of the Texas Cottonseed Crushers' association and manager of the Traders Oil Mill company of Fert Worth, in reply to a letter from the Reporter-Telegram editor relative to a newspaper advertising campaign. The editor commends the information from Harrell to the readers.)

Editor Reporter-Telegram,

the impression that we are gonducting an advertising campaign, agriculture must have better living one by the Wall Street bears. conditions and her production per capita must be increased, if the prosperity that has become a normal condition is to remain permanently so. All of us know that the growing of short staple variety of European cotton has increased, also the untenderable cotton in Texas grade is still good; therefore, it is going to be necessary that newspapers, county agents, cotton gins, farmers themselves farmers trade journals, and all of those that carry a message either directly or have a contact with agriculture either directly or indirectly must contribute third for farm sales in tome in Texas. Cotton first, livestock second, cotton seed third, and Texas cotton can not be given its proper rank until Texas produces a better staple of cotton and this of course has to start with the grade or class or seed to be planted. The oil mill industry in Texas has made cotton seed of value through their development and the work that we are doing is merely to show the contribution that oil mills have For Tax Assessor: made to Texas agriculture through the development of the cotton seed whereby they took the cotton seed which was a garbage in 1860, a fertilizer in 1870, a cattle food in 1880, and a table food of many uses. and today you will find it used in approximately one hundred and fify commodities ranging from roofing compounds to explosives to cosmetics and phonograph records. The oil mills do not have these commodities to sell but they are an intermediary between the farm and these articles, and it is only my endeav-or to help activities and show the contribution that the oil mill industry is making, and further trying to show that the oil mills are ready to assist in further development of agriculture through the development of cotton seed and its

Auxiliary Members Invited To Attend Wedding

The Presbyterian Auxiliary met for its regular Bible study at the church Monday, taking up a special study on "Giving."

The four methods as explained in the Bible were taken under general discussion as follows: Giving the time; giving as God hath prospered one; giving lavishly; giving

It was learned that regular and systematic giving develops the character of the giver.

The women of the organization were invited to attend the coming wedding of Miss Retta Young, and a committee from the auxiliary will have charge of the decorations for the church at the wedding.

At a meeting of the Auxiliary Monday, February 10, Mrs. Harvey Sloan will have charge of the program, and Mmes. J. M. Caldwell and Margaret Murray will be hostesses.

Auxiliary Studies Racial Attitudes

Sewing was started on communion linen at the meeting of the Episcopal Auxiliary Monday, at the home of Mrs. John E. Adams. During the work hour, reports from various committees were heard, and a letter read by Miss Emily Bird Smith from Miss Helen Hix secretary of the auxiliaries of North Texas. This letter contained a bulletin on "Tomorrow in Race Relations", and the members present held a most interesting discussion

This Stubborn Case

The way Tanlae takes hold of your troubles and ends them would seem almost unbelievable were it not for the experiences of thousands of men and women who have put it to the test and have found themselves restored to health, freed from so-called rheumatism, stomach, kidney, liver and bladder troubles by the use of this super medicine. Here's one man, Mr. Charles L. Stults, a carpenter and cabinet maker who suffered night and day for years until Tanlae put an end to his troubles and made him a new man. "I suffered from a rundown condition for 3 or 4 years. I also had some kidney and bladder broubles as well as indigestion, gastritis and pains in stomach and side, chest and shoulders. I had lost considerable weight and my sleep was disturbed chest and shoulders. I had lost considerable weight and my aleep was disturbed 4 or 5 times a night. I often had tried other things which failed to help me but after I had taken 3 bottles of Tanlac my kidney, bladder trouble and pains disappeared and never returned. I now sleep well and my pep and weight have all been recovered." Tanlac gives results and gives them quick for every herb, bark and root in it is a strong potent medicine, Like all good things it has its initiators but remember while others make glowing promises Tanlac is the ONE real medicine that backs its claims with a guarantee of money refunded if it does not help you. # The Proper Way

Cook With Gas

There is a right and a wrong way to use a natural gas cook stove. The wrong way is so expensive—it wastes natural gas. The right way applies the heat directly and eliminates much of the waste.

The metal stove lid keeps the utensil too far away from the flame. Bring the vessel into contact with the flame. The tips of the flame should first touch the pan for the most efficient utilization of the heat.

Be sure there is sufficient draft to carry off burnt gas fumes. However, an excessive draft should be avoided as it will carry the flame away from the utensil. You are paying for the gas you burn-why not follow proper methods of heat application and get full value for your

It is likely that Coach Francis Schmidt of the Frogs will switch his usual line-up, in an attempt to find a winning combination. Against the Texas Aggies Saturday night, the Christians failed to function smoothly in any department of play and hence took a 28-17 to the coast of Texas following visdrubbing. No combination that its in Midland with friends. Schmidt put on the floor worked effectively, so Baylor may see at Mrs. Sam K. Wasaff and Dr. May least two new faces in the Purple Oberlander. Dr. Oberlander took line-up Tuesday night.

The Purple forwards are still their shots count for points. Against here. the Aggies, Capt. Roy Eury was the only Frog to find the basket with MASONS TO PROMOTE more than mediocre success. The giant center totaled seven points. Ray McCullough, reserve forward, flashed nice form when he went in for Flynn and may start in the latter's position against Baylor.
