Youth Injured When Machine Is Overturned

Buster Caudle Suffers Fracture and Shock

Friday the men and women who helped lay the foundation for the Howard County of today will hold their annual reunion at Paris last Saturday.

Howard County is rich in history and many of the events of 25 years and more ago will be retold and discussed under the big shade trees down there Friday.

In honor of the old settlers, the Herald is preparing a number of articles dealing with history of Howard county and this section of Texas. These articles, most of them interviews with the older settlers, will appear in Tuesday's issue.

It will be impossible to get interviews of all the older residents of the county in the single issue, but we expect in the future to publish such articles very often.

The Big Spring-El Paso leg of the southern transcontinental airway now is lighted with revolving beacons at intervals of 25 miles. An emergency landing field is located at each beacon.

The airway between Big Spring and Dallas has been lighted for some time but the El Paso-Memphis section was completed only recently.

Officials of Americans Airways Inc., operator of the Atlanta-Los Angeles air mail-passenger-express line report that volume of passenger traffic has grown materially. On all lines of the southern division passenger traffic increased 34 percent in June over April. During June 812 passengers were transported as compared with 512 in April.

During June 99.9 per cent of schedules were completed, by cancellation having occurred due to stormy weather.

Amount of air mail handled in June on all American Airways lines in the nation totaled 123,722 pounds as compared with 113,208 pounds in May.

Growth in passenger business on the air line indicates that people in the southern, or southwestern, areas, have more money to spend for vacation than they had for months ago.

These last few days, sort of a try but with a touch of optimism in the air, have served to whet our desire for this football season to open. We are hoping the whole town will join in this as a roofing section for the Steff squad. Let's make this a big year for the club!

Nyls Wright Under Arrest

Man Wanted In Extortion Plot Caught After Year's Hunt

SAN ANTONIO, July 20 (AP)—Nyls Wright was in jail here today after a hunt lasting more than a year. He was arrested at Atlanta, Ga. He is wanted in connection with several robberies and an extortion plot in which $75,000 was taken from R. W. Morrison of San Antonio.

Commission To Get B.C.D. Constitution

At the next meeting of the city commission that body will be given a copy of the proposed constitution and by law for the new Board of City Development. C. T. Watson and E. A. Kelley have all but finished their work in drafting and will present it to the board soon.

Bear Patrol, Troop 4, On Istan Lake Outing

Troop 4, Bear patrol, Fourth Street Baptist church, went to Istan lake on an outing Saturday at 3 p.m. Those attending were John and Robert Campbell, Horace Derring, Bruce Phillips, L. C. Gammie, J. L. Miller and Mr. J. O. Miller, and wife and son, Wyman. Ice cream, cake and fruit were served by Mr. and Mrs. Miller. The boys swam and played on the raft in the lake during the evening.

Save A Life! Breaks Man's Back

Man Bleeding Internally Can Be Saved Only By Blood Transfusion; Appeal Made.

Who will give his blood in effort to save a man's life?

Officials of the Big Spring hospital Monday issued an appeal in behalf of a patient there.

The patient was taken from a train here several days ago. He is suffering from internal bleeding. Physicians believe they can save him if they can perform a surgical operation. But they cannot operate until blood has been transfused in his body.

The man cannot hope to live without the transfusion. Those who will give blood for the transfusion are asked to report to the hospital.

Oil and Gas Supervisor Testifies He Knows Not Whether Agreements To Fix Prices Exist Among Majors

1,487 Barrels Of Oil Run To Storage Daily

Permian Basin Production Is Up 3240 Barrels Daily For Week

The Permian Basin, including Lea County, New Mexico, produced more oil by 3,240 barrels daily during the week ending July 8 than during the preceding week while distribution increased 31,124 barrels daily with the result that a daily average of 1,487 barrels of cheap crude was run to storage. During the week ending July 1 a daily average of 29,373 barrels was run to tanks.

West Texas, with 2,922 wells, the same number as during the week before produced a daily average of 203,758 barrels, 330 barrels daily less than during the preceding week, but daily average production in Lea county rose 3,579 barrels to 41,881 barrels.

An increase in daily average pipe line runs of 32,990 barrels to 214,634 barrels accounted for the greatest oil movement. Daily average to refineries declined 386 barrels to 24,118 barrels and daily average tank car shipments dropped 375 barrels to 3,400 barrels daily.

Details of the oil movement during the two weeks follow:

Vernon Hillard, Lockhart, is visiting with Mrs. G. D. Hall at the latter's home.

A. P. I. CHAPTER FORMED . . . LONGVIEW, Tex., July 20. (INS)—A new chapter of the American Petroleum Institute has been organized here with R. W. Taylor, Simmons Oil Company, as permanent chairman.

AUSTIN, July 20 (AP)—The house investigating the oil industry, descended today to learn if price fixing agreements existed among major oil companies.

R. D. Parker, chief supervisor of the oil and gas division of the railroad commission, testified that he did not know what fixed oil prices.

Under questioning he said that if one company raised or lowered prices others usually followed. He said pipe line rates could be protected by operators.

2,000 Attend Forsan Rodeo And Barbecue

Ranchers and Oil Men Join To Make Saturday Affair Success

Forsan was told Saturday to what he plans to make an annual barbecue, "merger of the ranchers and oil men making their affair possible. An estimated crowd of 2,000 people participated in the all-day frolic and barbecue held on the Settles ranch about one-half mile west of Forsan.

Following the big festival on the ranch, the crowd moved nearer Forsan and witnessed a rodeo that continued throughout the afternoon. Approximately twenty wild broncos were ridden and fifty head of cattle were used in aber riding, calf roping, and bull dogging.

An unique feature of the rodeo was a wild burro roping contest. Participants were required to rope the "mountain muckers" and throw and tie them for time. That event provoked much laughter and interest, according to witnesses.

The committee in charge of the program had as its members L. H. Page, E. W. Davis, Albert King, Walter Drusett, and Bill Keenan. Several Forsan oil men also functioned as members of the arrangements committee. The ranchers were responsible for the barbecue beef and the rodeo, while the Forsan citizens arranged for the accessories accompanying the barbecue and other details.

Prevention of Grass Fires State's Object

AUSTIN, Texas, July 20 (AP)—A warning to citizens not to become careless with grass fires has been issued by J. W. DeWeese, fire insurance commissioner, after reports of several fires of this nature from various sections of the state. Grass fires annually cause a loss of several thousand dollars and decisive steps should be taken by officials of Texas cities and towns to curb them, DeWeese said.

Prime Minister MacDonald and other officials met the delegates at the station. Secretaries Stimson and Mellon, representing the United States, arrived yesterday. Ambassador Matudaira represents Japan.

Navy Balloon Race Winner

Bag Lands Near Buffalo, Covering 215 Miles In Air

AKRON, Ohio, July 20 (AP)—The navy balloon piloted by Lieutenant T. G. W. Sette, won the national race today, landing near Buffalo, N. Y. and credited with 215 miles. The Goodyear Zeppelin bag of Frank Trotter and Roland Blair was second, landing at Steubenville, Ohio, with a credit of 190 miles.

Strict enforcement of fire ordinances would aid materially in reducing the loss from grass fires during the remainder of the summer.

DeWeese gave some interesting information concerning the attitude of the European and the American on fires. In the Old World, a man who has a fire in his home, store or factory is regarded as a public offender while in the American states the victim of a fire is regarded as "unfortunate."

The result of this attitude is increased fire losses for the people of the United States and decreased losses for Europeans. The annual European fire loss averages 33 cents per person while in the United States the loss is more than $4 per person.

Army Aviators Killed In Mid-Air Collision

NEWINGTON, Conn., July 20 (AP)—Lieutenant Benjamin F. Lowry and Sergeant Stromyer were killed here today when two army airplanes collided over town. Two other flyers in the planes escaped by using parachutes.

"CODES" AT HARVARD CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 20 (AP)—For the first time in the history of the university, Harvard students have gone feminine. But it still has not had a chance to act as governor.

However, his chance probably will come next month because Gov. Ross S. Sterling is planning a short vacation trip to Colorado, in connection with which he will attend the oil conference at Denver August 10.

Lynch Davidson, wealthy Houston lumberman, was the only lieutenant governor of recent years who did not get to act as chief executive. Davidson was lieutenant governor during Pat M. Neff's first term in 1921 and 1922 and Neff did not have the state during those two years.

STAFF BARRED ON CLOCK TORRINGTON, Conn., July 20 (INS)—Ben Henry Smith, music dealer, died a fellow townsmen he wasn't going to have anyone tell him how his public clock should be set. But Smith changed his mind when Prosecutor Wall issued a warrant charging violation of a state law against displaying other than standard time on such a clock. Smith went to court and promised to change the clock from daylight time to standard, and the charge was nolled. A fine of $100 is provided for violations, and the law has been upheld by the supreme court of errors.

Short Railroad In New Jersey Is One Century Old

NEW YORK, July 20 (INS) — A worn and rusty bit of railroad track near Jamesburg, N.J., is this year celebrating its 100th anniversary.

The piece of track lies alongside the Pennsylvania Railroad and was originally part of the old Camden & Amboy Railroad, one of America's pioneer rail lines. Experts tell the elements for a century past, the old relic of early railroad days is one of the last reminders of the beginning of the steam-powered nation era.

The Camden and Amboy Railroad, first railroad line in the state of New Jersey, was built originally between Bordentown and South Amboy and later extended to Camden. The old rails are now paralleled by modern tracks and passengers who travel between Bordentown, N.J., and South Amboy can see this rusty, worn 20-foot length of old railroad laid on large granite blocks just beside the tracks near Jamesburg station about 20 miles northeast of Trenton, the state capital.

It was in the late spring of 1831 that pioneer intruders, in search of a quicker and more convenient means of transport between Philadelphia and New York than the stage coach and canal boat, laid the old track. It is still in a fair state of preservation and gives promise of lasting another hundred years or so to remind successive generations of the struggles and early successes of the man who aid the foundation of American civilization.

The Pioneer Camden and South Amboy Railroad was chartered by the New Jersey State Legislature late in 1830 to operate a combined road and water route between Philadelphia and New York City. No iron suitable for its tracks being available in this country, the railroad's first president, Robert L. Stevens, took ship for England to develop with London iron workers a satisfactory rail design.

Whiling away idle hours on ship board, Stevens worked out an entirely new type of rail for his line, marking a distinct departure from that then in use in England and on the one of two short stretches of railroad already operating in the United States.

He discarded the old wooden nail or stone stringer plated with strap iron then in general use and designed a crude but practical exception of the rail which, with slight variations in shape and dimension in size and weight, is still standard design of railroad tracks today. This rail was used by Robert Stevens for the first time anywhere in the world on the old Camden and South Amboy Railroad.

The first lengths of rail for the pioneer line were received by ship from England early in 1831 and the first piece of track, five-sixths of a mile long, was laid during the summer of that year from Bordentown north in the direction of Hightstown. Later, the line was extended to Hightstown and thence to South Amboy, reaching completion late in 1832.

Although the first cars of the Camden and Amboy Railroad were pulled by horse, this pioneer line was one of the first in the country to use a steam locomotive. The "John Bull" engine, made in England, carried the first passengers by steam in the State of New Jersey over the Camden and Amboy a short distance east of Bordentown on November 12, 1831. A large party braved the uncertainties of

Duce's Wife Shuts Out World
To Rear Family In Simplicity

Signora Mussolini, wife of Il Duce, seldom stays beyond the walls of this elaborate villa save for shopping jaunts or motor rides with her children. Her interests are centered in making their palace a real home for her husband and their five children.

By ANDRÉE BERDING, school, and to put Romano and Anna Maria to bed.

ROME, (AP)—Signor Mussolini, wife of Il Duce, is perhaps the most secluded woman in Italy, and certainly among the least known of the wives of the world's great men.

While the fame and name of her powerful husband carry round the world, her own renown is confined within the four walls of her home.

No one in Italy speaks of Rachel Mussolini. Very few know anything about her. The wife of a prime-minister in any other country is a person of national note, perhaps a "first lady of the land." But not in Italy!

Il Duce has ordered inflexibly that his wife and children are not to mingle or be seen in this political life.

"My wife and family are my dearest possessions," he said, "but so greatly do I treasure them that I keep them apart from my day as something refreshing to go to when I have a moment in which to rest."

It is only in the last year or so that Signora Mussolini has lived with her husband in Rome. Heretofore she was tucked away in her little home town of Carpina, in the north.

Home Duties Are Heavy
ALAHAMBRA, Calif. (INS)—Every day after day, in her own simple way, Donna Rachelle fulfills her task which can't help but be difficult, as wife of Italy's prime minister.

She is mistress of their elaborate home, the Villa Torlonia, on the Via Nomentana, in a suburb to the northeast of the city.

This is a big home, and a considerable responsibility. Signora Mussolini looks after it carefully, checking minutely the purchases and accounts, never forgetting the day when a few cents meant a whole day's pay.

She is the mother of five children. One, Edita, is married, but four live at home. Two of them, Romano and Anna Maria, are too young to go to school.

No Social Duties
SEBRING, Ohio. (INS)—Because of a lack of funds, Sebring officials will be forced to work without salary for the next six months. No funds will be available from tax receipts until next year and the village's only revenue will be from court fines.

Mrs. Joye Fisher Wins High Score at Lovely Party

Miss Agnes Currie entertained Saturday morning honoring Mrs. A. L. Wetzel, of Dallas, with a lovely summer party at her home in Edwards Heights.

The house was beautifully decorated with bluebells, zinnias and Shasta daisies. At the close of the games ice cream and cake were served. Iced punch was served during the games.

Mrs. Joye Fisher made high score and was given two linen handkerchiefs. The honoree was presented with a linen bridge cover as a guest prize.

The guests were Mmes. Robert Parks, E. E. Fahrenkamp, S. A. Hathcock, Robert Currie, Fisher and Misses Jenn and Dorothy Jordan.

Clara Pool, Andree Walker, Dorothy Homan and Jeanette Pickle.

S.P.C. Members Given Theatre Party by Hostess

Camille Koberg was hostess to the S. P. C. Club for an enjoyable theater party Saturday afternoon.

After the show, the guests returned to Camille's home and played games and were served delicious refreshments.

Three out of town guests were present, in addition to Frances Rogers. These were Earlene Green, of Rosebud; Roberta Hansen, of Lamessa and Charlene Williams of Sweetwater.

The members were Mozzie Glaser, Mary Louise Inkman, Winifred Piner, Nancy Bell Phillips, Doris Cunningham and Anna Katherine Ringler.

MRS. HILLIARD ENTERTAINS FOR VISITORS

Mrs. H. D. Hilliard entertained informally with a delightful little party honoring Mrs. Lee Hansen of Lamessa and Mrs. James McLaughlin, of Austin, Saturday afternoon, at her lovely home in Washington Place.

Only two tables of players, close friends and the honorees, were present. These were Mrs. R. C. Strain, Mrs. Hansen's mother, Mrs. John Clarke, Mrs. W. W. Inkman, Mr. Homer McNew, Mrs. C. W. Cunningham and Mrs. Fred Stephens.

Mrs. Clarke made high score.

The hostess served a dainty salad course at the conclusion of the games, after which the guests spent the time in enjoyable conversation.

Discord Hampers
Hornsby's Cubs

ELIES CONKLIN

International News Service Sports
Writer

NEW YORK, July 20.—PRECE-DING that interval discussion would impel the Cubs this year under Kepes-Hornsby, their new manager, being borne out at the second half of the season starts.

Of course the Cubs can not yet beaten out of the race—but they were only 1½ games behind the leaders at this writing and undoubtedly will do better during their present home stay—but there is no gainsaying the fact that the Bruins might be leading the league
today if friction had not retarded
the wheels of the Chicago machine.

The Cubs were in the thick of the pennant fight last year right to the last gasp, and they were strengthened during the winter by the acquisition of three pitchers—
Bob Smith, Suga Sweetland and Tommy Hitchcock.

But despite this increased paper strength, several upstarts, including the wizened refused to pick the club higher than third because of the possibility that the high-priced stars of the cash would not react favorably towards Hornsby's rough and ready methods and straight from the shoulder manner.

Hornsby himself is doing his level best to win the pennant. He thinks and talks nothing but baseball. But the fact remains that a few of his men can not, or will not get along with him.

From Philadelphia comes a warning that Hornsby recently laid down

the law to Hack Wilson, the fading home run king, and Balston, the catcher obtained from his birth.

Stamps Being Printed For New Fag Tax

Some May Be Distributed
Aug. 22 for Supply
On Hand

One hundred and two million stamps are in process of making at a printing plant in Waco to be delivered to State Treasurer Charlie Lockhart in Austin before the state cigarette tax goes into effect August 22. These stamps will be in sheets of 100 each, with 100 sheets to the block for shipping.
Some of the stamps may be distributed to various points in Texas to cover the supply on hand when the law becomes effective.

The new stamps, according to levelation in the Waco News, bear a lone star, state emblem, in a wreath and the number of cigarettes contained in a pack, with un-amount of tax charged for each. The stamps are being made in two classes, designated as Class A and Class B. In the former there is a moderately—or dull red-colored stamp for a package of five cigarettes on which a three-fourths cent tax is levied; a Van Dyke brown
one and a fifth cent stamp for a package of eight cigarettes; a blue 1 1/2-cent stamp for packages of 10;
a red one and three-fifths cent
stamp for packages of 12; a green 2-cent stamp for packages of 20 cigarettes; a 7 1/2-cent orange stamp for packages of 50.

Class B stamps for more expensive cigarettes are all alike. They are for packages of five, eight and 10 for which taxes of one and four-fifths cent, two and 88 hundredths cents and three and three-fifths cent taxes are levied, respectively.

No doubt S. M. U. would be willing, inasmuch as the Texans are looking for "spots." The only metropolitan opposition November 21
is the Fordham-Bucknell contest.

CANE FITTED, LATEST STYLE

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—One more thing for those who go in for "last cries" to worry about. A walking stick for ladies now carries a vanity case in the handle.
The handle has a mirror, rouge lipstick and other accessories concealed. A spring releases a tiny door in the top of the cane, and midway begins her art.

WOMAN "WEATHER MAN"

ANNISTON, Ala. (INS)—Mrs.
O. C. Miller has assumed the duties of meteorologist at the Anniston
weather bureau, succeeding R.
H. Dean, who has been retired for a long period of service in the department of agriculture. She is the first woman "weather man" in Anniston.

LOOSE 500 PHEASANTS

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (INS)—Between 400 and 500 Chinese pheasants are being liberated throughout Sonoma County by the Sonoma county gamemen's association. The birds were hatched in a Petaluma incubator and for the past two months have been reared for in a breeder house on the Fred Kepell ranch near Cotati. If the experiment proves successful, several thousands of the birds will be liberated next year, it was stated.

SIGHTSEEING MOTION

NEW YORK (INS)—A vacation
tour of Europe by airplane, piloted by William S. Brock, internationally famous American flier, is the prospect facing State Senator George F. Harding and party of Chicago, now en route on the Atlantic. The senator, a political figure in the midwest metropolis, will spend a month seeing the sights
from a bird's eye view. The Itinerary includes Southampton, London, Paris, Amsterdam, Prague, Brussels, Lisbon, Madrid, Vienna and Budapest.

POLO SPREADS

The sensational growth of polo
in the United States within the past few years shows no signs of slackening during a period that has hit other branches of athletic activity.

The galloping game is one of the oldest of known sports, going back to the times when they used a log to mark up the scores, but it has caught the popular American fancy
only in recent years, beyond some of the more cloistered eastern states.

The University of Arizona boys went home after their round trip to New York with renewed zeal for pushing polo's development in the far west among the collegians.

Chicago has witnessed its first international play, featuring the Argentines. The Black Hills polo association has just been organized to promote competition in South Dakota and Nebraska, where important outposts help to stimulate interest.

Meanwhile, the eastern section is warming up for the high-goal competition that will find ready all of the top-ranking American horsemen in action, led by the boss mattress, Eddie Malone, and Pat Malone.

Malone and Blane are set to observe the start of another campaign that may depart from the city where they have been idols
for so many years.

Hornsby was believed to have Malone and Blane in mind recently when he com-mitted that one of his so-called pitching stars was about to be named in the starting lineup.
