HEALTH NURSE RESIGNS

Reports on Work for Period Ending August 1

Resignation of Miss Martha Bredemeier, county public health nurse, was submitted to the county commissioners' court this week and has been accepted by the county and by the state health department.

Miss Bredemeier is resigning to continue her work in Minnesota University, doing post graduate study in public health work. Her resignation becomes effective September 1.

The health official said today that the state department would submit names of available nurses for her possible successor at once, to be acted upon by the commissioners' court. Appropriation for the department was made January 1 by the state and by the county for this year, the state paying $1,500 toward the nurse's salary.

Report, covering the county health nurse's work for the period from January 1, 1931, to August 1, 1932, as submitted to the court and the county health board, is as follows:

"Just what are you trying to do?" people ask frequently. To answer that, here are listed a dozen aims of local, state and national health workers.

1. Reduce the infant death rate.
2. Increase the per capita consumption of safe milk.
3. Extend some form of organized health service to every county.
4. Work for the day when no citizen shall suffer and die from a preventable disease.
5. "Better" the record toward the early elimination of pellagra.
6. Cut down the death toll from automobile accidents and accidents in the home.
7. Immunize a larger number of children against diphtheria and smallpox than in any year previous.
8. Extend the benefits and protection of approved sanitation to rural homes than ever before.
9. Through periodic health examinations prevent untimely deaths from cancer, heart, kidney, and other similar diseases.
10. Extend medical and hospital service to every prospective mother needing assistance in time to prevent a needless death to either the mother or child.
11. Make a material reduction in the number of children repeating grades in elementary schools by referring physical, medical and through more effective health supervision.
12. Strive for a health-minded population who, with the aid of such as willing to purchase medical and dental service when needed to preserve good health as to pay out money for any of the desirable possessions of life.

Following are projects of Midland county public health nursing service that were carried out with more or less success in the past year:

1. Infant and maternity work: definite increase in subnats, indications of better health supervision and care of children with one records of 60 prenatals, fifty infants, and 225 preschool children, 110 of which are summer round up records.
2. School work: definite advance in teaching of health education, especially in rural schools, physical inspection of children numbered 3,284; number of children with one welfare, 1 & A operations, 1 pair glasses, few dental, play day, poster contests; weighing; contagious disease control; needs lot more work; dental; sanitation need more emphasis; 1256 home visits to school children; 1514 office visits by school children.
3. Welfare: investigations for sickness, referred for groceries, or clothes; talked; gardens, canning, to stay put, encouragement, total 500 visits; needs lot more strictly public health work, more time given because of general conditions. Poor results in attempts to educate this group.
4. Classes: Valley View, Cottonflat, North Ward, South Ward, Teachers' group, Busy Bee, Stokes, Prairie Lee, Pleasant Valley, Camp Fire girls, Annie Male 2 classes; 157 meeting up to August 1, 1932; total attendance 1870; 86 completed the course, 24 will probably finish before September 15. Topics: child care, sanitation, contagious disease, T. B. home nursing and care of the sick, and first aid; 104 demonstrations.
5. General work: 87 meetings; 45 talks given to groups, clubs and civic organizations; service given by dentists and doctors 120 times, for talks, immunization, examinations, no treatment; 18,000 pieces of literature, 5,000 pieces on hand. Community demonstrations, May 1931, Annie Male's work with negroes, 2 summer round ups, county fair, turnip patch, dental film, post display, health books, 701 health magazines, read since January, 1932. Health station started June 1931, in 13 months total circulation of 1296. Office calls amounted to 2302, which is 4 and 1-2 visits per working day. Home visits were 3845, or seven (See HEALTH NURSE page 4)

Active In Defense

This is Alfred Holman of Cincinnati, father of Libby Holman, caught by the camera at Winston-Salem, N. C., as he appeared prior to surrender of his daughter Monday.

This is the latest picture of Ab Walker, released under $25,000 bail since he was indicted for murder in the shooting of Z. Smith Reynolds, husband of Libby Holman. This photo was taken as Walker entered a car near the jail.

SWIM MEET MOVED UP TO TUESDAY

Postponement of the boy scout water carnival, set for Thursday here, was announced this morning in a telegram from A. C. Williamson, scout executive, to John P. Howe, vice president of the Buffalo Trails council.

The meet will be held on Tuesday of next week and will have more than 300 representatives from troops all over the county area, local scout officials say.

General rains over the territory, which would have made travel very difficult, is the reason for postponement of the swimming meet.

While the rainfall over the Buffalo Trail council area stopped the water carnival and swim that was to have been held at Pagoda pool tomorrow, and caused officials to postpone it until Tuesday, considerable work has been done toward making this the outstanding event in scouting in Midland for the year.

Midland cattlemen have in previous years been very liberal in their cooperation with local scout officials in donating meat for the barbecue.

C. A. Goldsmith donated this year a splendid yearling. It was butchered by Young Lee, and the Rev. Edwin C. Calhoun brought the meat in from the Goldsmith ranch yesterday. It has been put in cold storage together with the calf donated by B. N. Aycock and butchered by C. E. Gann, local market man.

The work in connection with the barbecue, which the meat has not cost the local scout council any money and is indicative of the splendid Midland spirit. And local scouts have complained that East Texas appreciation to these men who have given their time and labor in helping to put over the annual scout swim and water carnival.

Three Winston-Salem Officials

Solicitor Carlisle W. Higgins, above, entered the murder case at Winston-Salem when he announced that Ab Walker, held in jail on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Z. Smith Reynolds, could be released under bail.

This is stern-faced Deputy Sheriff Matthews, officer in charge of the Forsyth county jail where Ab Walker was held until released under bail.

Judge A. M. Stack, above, of Winston-Salem, set bail for Ab Walker at $25,000 when the 19-year-old youth, charged with murder, was brought before him. The youth's father signed the bail bond under which Walker was released.

STOCKS UP TODAY ON EXCHANGE

Prospect of Hoover Speech Causes Purchasing

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. (UP)—Displaying the strongest resistance to selling pressure on the cotton market in many months, futures advanced to almost $1.50 per bale.

The government's weekly weather report sent prices up a dollar after the market had recovered from earlier to cover losses. Radical bears switched, some predicting ten cent cotton by Labor day.

Two Hour Sales Run Almost Two Million

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. (UP)—Traders, anticipating favorable market reception of President Hoover's acceptance speech tomorrow, bought stocks vigorously on the New York stock exchange, forcing gains of one to five points.

Volume increased early this afternoon, after running exactly parallel to yesterday morning. Sales the first thirty minutes totaled 500,000 shares and 1,400,000 in the following ninety minutes.

The noon total was up to 1,900,000 shares. Wild buying was believed coming from shorts who were forced to cover at heavy losses after surviving previous rallies.

RAINS BECOME MORE GENERAL IN MILDAND AREA

Rains continued falling at intervals over the Midland territory today, although sections had reported either no moisture or very light showers; and neighboring towns, with the exception of Fort Stockton, indicated that some precipitation had been registered.

To the north and east, substantial rains had been received. Four miles south and about the same distance west still remained without good rains this morning.

One man, coming from El Paso, said that traffic had been tied up at points all the way from El Paso to Kent, that from Kent to Toyah good rains fell, but that the precipitation was lighter on this way. Although immediately south of Midland there was pasture country which had experienced only light showers, the rain was heavier at Big Lake, Rankin and McCamey.

The Eb Dickerson ranch, northeast of Midland, had a good rain, as did the Slaughter ranch 20 miles this side of Lamesa.

At Midland, slow showers fell but had registered only 13 of an inch from 8 o'clock yesterday morning until the same hour today. Meanwhile, cloudy weather prevailed, with slow drizzling rain at intervals.

INCREASED RAIL VOLUME SEEN AS INDICATION OF BETTER BUSINESS

FORT WORTH, Aug. 10. (UP)—An indicated return of confidence in business, shown by increased volume in railroad transportation, is viewed by railroad officials here to mean business in general is on the upgrade.

Two trunk lines, the Cotton Belt and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, reported increases of 38 per cent and 12 per cent respectively in freight movements during July over July, 1932.

For the most part, the trade revival is reflected in movements of basic farm commodities and road construction materials, railroad men said. Merchandise has continued to move in greater volumes despite the new federal tax which caused a flurry in shipments before the tax became effective.

R. C. Hatfield, assistant general freight agent for the Cotton Belt lines, foresees a decided upward swing in all business. He attributed

LIBBY HOLMAN'S WHEREABOUTS STILL UNKNOWN

WINSTON-SALEM, Aug. 10. (UP)—No new developments in the mysterious disappearance of Libby Holman had been announced early this afternoon after the former Broadway singer made a brief court appearance to surrender and make bond on a charge of slaying her young tobacco millionaire husband, Smith Reynolds.

Her father, Alfred Holman, Cincinnati, looking haggard as a result of strain, would not say where Libby had gone, and her local attorneys asserted they had no information.

One of them, Benet Polkoff, indicated she probably was hiding by night and resting by day to avoid stares of the curious.

The Winston-Salem lawyer admitted he knew his client planned to leave Reidsville, where she had gone after the ball proceedings as soon as she was rested.

After resting several hours in seclusion of her hotel room, the singer, wearing a natty sports costume, instead of the heavy mourning in which she went to court, slipped out of the hotel at 2 a. m. entered an automobile and sped swiftly into the darkness.

Since then there has been no word of where she is.

Polkoff said he did not know where the singer had gone, but expected to confer with her within a week or 10 days. She said she had him where to come, he said, when she feels strong enough to discuss with him her defense against the state's allegation that she and Albert Walker, young chauffeur of her husband, were responsible for the latter's death from a pistol wound July 6 after a corn whisky party at the family estate.

No definite defense plans have been made, but Libby wants an early trial, her attorney said.

Her first concern, he said, is the protection of her unborn child. The next, vindication of the murder charge.

"She wants a trial before the baby is born if physicians decide it will not endanger the infant," Polkoff said. "She wants vindication as soon as possible."

Testimony given at the inquest into Reynolds' death indicated the anticipated heir to part of the dead youth's estimated $15,000,000 interest in the R. J. Reynolds tobacco estate, is not expected for several months.

HEARINGS SOON ON PRODUCTION IN MAJOR POOLS

AUSTIN, Aug. 10. (UP)—Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson said today that hearings to determine new production for major oil fields would be called soon by the railroad commission.

Oil conservation in the Yates, Southwest Texas, Gulf Coast and Van fields will be considered. East Texas production orders probably will figure prominently since operations of Spahn had no knowledge of its attempted restoration by former army officers in Madrid and Seville. The king is now touring Czechoslovakia. French foreign office said that the Spanish situation is not as serious as was first reported.

Madeira Water Not Adequate for Camp

Hopes of the Buffalo Train council of boy scouts to make a permanent scout camp site at Madera Canyon in the Davis mountains, where they camped last summer, have been blasted on account of insufficient water supply, according to A. C. Williamson, scout executive, in a statement at Sweetwater Monday.

Williamson said that he, in company with three other men of Midland and Winston Forum, Ralph Budy and W. P. Dykema, made a trip to the camp site, which is southwest of Balmorea, and found that the water is too scarce there for a scout encampment.

At present there is no place in view for a scout camp site.

YEN FOR A HOME COSTS FREEDOM FOR NEGRO WHO FREQUENTS JAIL

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Aug. 10. (UP)—Zack White, 35, negro thief whose "toot" has varied from Bexar County's bloodhounds to an electric motor, is back "home" in the county bastille.

Zack was faring fine with a general parole from the State penitentiary when his yen for $75 worth of lumber and roofing led him into trouble. He blamed the trouble on his instinct for a "home."

"Things don't look right, and Ise lonesome," complained Zack, behind the bars again. Although Zack has spent most of the last 12 years in one jail or another under four Bexar county sheriffs, familiar faces are once again in the cell rooms here.

Always a model prisoner, Zack first attracted wide attention when a trusty here several years ago. The county's bloodhounds needed practice, and Sheriff James Stevens sent Zack away to lay a trail for them.

The hounds were then released and scamped away. Several hours

TWO NEGROES DIE IN CHAIR TODAY AT HUNTSVILLE

HUNTSVILLE, Aug. 10. (UP)—Richard Brown and Richard Johnson, Wichita Falls negroes, were electrocuted this morning for the slaying of A. N. Nordurt, Fort Worth oil man, and robbery and assault of his fiancée, Miss Vera Smith.

Johnson specifically was convicted of the murder of Nordurt, and Brown of robbery, by the use of firearms. Nordurt's fiancée was shot dead; his fiancée was attacked and robbed.

Possesmen beat the bushes. After a nine day search they apprehended the suspects, both of whom were held for a time in Fort Worth.

Back in Wichita Falls Johnson tried to escape the county jail, but the authorities found the hacksaw blades in time. His record showed two prison sentences for burglary, totaling 35 years, from Dallas county in 1927; a seven year prison sentence in Oklahoma and three escapes from the Texas penitentiary. Johnson was tried in Wichita county; Brown at Graham on a charge of venue.

H. E. Exum of Amarillo was permanent chairman of the convention. Bullington was recommended to carry the gubernatorial banner by the committee on nominations. Clarence A. Miller of Harris county, advocate of John P. Grant, Houston member of Webb county, for the appeals, said that he would present a minority report.

Before the convention, however, Miller announced he had decided to withdraw his report at the request of Grant. He suggested that Bullington be given the nomination by acclamation. Grant had been actively a candidate for the nomination for a number of months.

GRAND OPERA IN CHICAGO

Although Chicago's gaudy civic opera has gone broke, it is probable that the city will have grand opera next winter anyway—only this time it will be grand opera without frills.

Under plans now being prepared, Chicago would get its opera at vaudeville prices. The singers would work for a percentage of the box office "take," costly trimmings would be avoided and the whole proposition would have to pay its own way just as any other theatrical enterprise does.

This is excellent good sense. As long as grand opera in America remains a plaything of the wealthy and socially prominent, subsidized by vast grants of cash from millionaires and existing chiefly to give social registerites a chance to display themselves, it will never prosper. Let it remove its high hat and appeal to the masses instead of to the upper crust and it will eventually take root and become a permanent institution.

Grandmother Is Recognized Artist

that there is no such thing as "getting old."

"How can you," she asked, "when your own children and grandchildren accept you as one of them and refuse to let you even get as old as they are?"

Not only is Mrs. Powers the mother of four and the grandmother of four, but an artist of Paris Salon recognition. She has developed a completely new portrait background technique of a Da Vinci inspiration, which gives a striking individuality to the canvas without detracting in any way from the importance of the portrait itself. Her effects of reflected and refracted light are modernistic without the disfiguring qualities of many of the modern schools. She has exhibited at the L'Oeuvre Unique and the Spring Salon, and is a member of Les Independents. Perhaps her two best works for the present are "Francis," her youngest grandson, and "Un Ulivo," a landscape, both of which are exhibited in the Salon des Tuileries.

UNITED D. G. MOVES UP IN LEAGUE; PHONEMEN ALSO TAKE GAME

BLOUNT, GIRDLEY AND SMITH HIT TIMELY FOR BELL; UNITED MAKES RUNS OUT OF ERRORS, SCRATCH HITS

Tuesday night's games in the nocturnal league succeeded in breaking up the tied positions of three teams which had stayed around the 500 mark. United Dry Goods beating Hokus Pokus 6 to 3, moving up to third place and leaving the grocers, Cowden-Epley and the Bell Telephone on a par with 427 each.

Bell Telephone took a 7 to 3 game from Cowden-Epley, advancing to fourth position from the 333 it had been credited with formerly.

In the Bell-Ford game, at 7 o'clock, Blount and Girdley, for the phonemen, started with homers. Girdley scoring two men in front. H. L. Smith started at hitting, getting two hits and two runs in his two times at bat. Price, for Cowden-Epley, was driven from the mound in the fourth, Washington succeeding him and giving up seven hits and five runs.

In the second game, Hokus Pokus held the United team four innings before allowing a hit or run. The crowds were electrified repeatedly as runners advanced on errors or scratch hits. United got six runs with only four hits. Hokus Pokus getting three hits which were good for as many runs.

Doug Jr. Appears As New Type Hero

Yesterday's opening of the Yucca theatre brought Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. to the screen as a new type of screen hero. He appears again today. The handsome young star appears as the columnist, Broadway-wise and cynical, in "Love Is A Racket," the story of which concerns his adventures with the great and near-great of New York, as well as his own love affairs, which parallel those he writes about in this column.

"Love Is A Racket" brings Doug, Jr. to the Yucca at the height of his powers and popularity.

The story is amusing, combining the elements of comedy and drama. It is played by an excellent supporting cast which includes such finished young actors as Ann Dvorak, Lee Tracy, Frances Dee, Lysle Talbot, Warren Hymer and Andre-Luguet.

When a husband is "lost to his wife for several years he has the right to claim her love upon his return?"

That is the dramatic problem which confronts Olive Brook, as the British army officer, in "The Man From Yesterday," coming to the Yucca theatre Thursday and Friday.

Brook, on war leave in Paris, meets, weds and weds Claudette Colbert in quick fashion. The marriage takes place an hour and a half before Brook has to depart for the front. Later Brook is reported killed in action.

In the years that follow, Claudette falls in love with a young French doctor, but lacking official confirmation of Brook's death, cannot marry him. While visiting a rehabilitation hospital, she finds Brook among the scared and broken men. She insists on returning to him, but Brook refuses to accept the sacrifice. How Brook reconciles her to relinquish duty for love is the climax of the picture.

RICHMOND, Va. (UP).—A tomato which took the unique form of a doughnut, with a hole and all, was displayed here by N. J. Lacy, R. F. D. 1, Dumbarton, Henrico county, who said he found it in his garden. The tomato weighed nearly a pound.

The tree-frog has the power of changing color to resemble more closely the surface upon which it desires to be inconspicuous. It can change from a dark hue to a light one in about 20 minutes.

Tented Cities Dot River Bank

MEMPHIS (UP).—Up and down the Mississippi tented cities are springing up from Cairo, Ill., to New Orleans as levee camps are erected from which the big offensive is to be waged against the mighty river the next 12 months.

It is part of the big Mississippi river improvement program that was provided for in the Army Appropriation Bill of $31,500,000, of which approximately one-third will be spent in the Memphis engineering district.

Already, Maj. Erson B. Somerville, district engineer, has completed the awarding of contracts for the construction of levees and sea walls and the furnishing of supplies in the district, totaling $5,000,000.

Hardly had the contracts been signed before equipment was moved onto the river banks and tented cities, housing the workmen and their families, began to spring up.

Hundreds of workers who stormed the engineer depot here, however, for work, were informed that employment would be given only through the city employment bureau working in co-operation with the veterans' bureau.

Hoover Offered Summer Home

NEW YORK (UP).—To the perquisites and privileges of the President of the United States now may be added the right of exclusive use to a 450-room summer White House located in Florida.

Such is the invitation extended to President Hoover by Henry L. Doherty, Florida Year-Round Clubs, president, and the governor and people of Florida. Moreover, the invitation is to stand as a permanent offer to the nation's chief executive.

No matter whom the president of the United States may be, the 450-room structure in Coral Gables will remain at his command from March 15 to December 31 each year, Doherty said. Completely furnished throughout, the entire building awaits only a word from the president who cares to claim it as his own. The offer holds good as long as the building, a hotel, remains in Doherty's control.

Probably one of the most unusual offers ever made to any president, the invitation includes much more than exclusive right to free run of a building capable of housing nearly 800 guests. The Doherty plan also places the full facilities for fishing, golfing, and riding, at the disposal of the president.

"The idea of proposing Miami as a summer capital will seem fantastic and incredible to uninformed northerners," Doherty said, "but I know Florida is cooler in summer than New York and the rest of the north and many of my friends knew it, too. One of these days a president is going to accept our offer. I think President Hoover would accept this summer except for the terrific pressure of work—work which is going to keep him from establishing a summer White House any place."

The invitation was extended at the White House a few days ago when the president received Doherty, officials of the Miami area, and 120 Florida boys, members of the Boys' Drum and Bugle Corps of the Miami Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A Pretty Good Job, Too

Hornsby directed the pitching of young Lon Warneke almost entirely this season, and that means almost every ball the young man flung.

The signing of Waite Hoyt was not such a dumb move by Bill Terry.

Cleveland threw away its chances for a pennant this year when the club moved into the new stadium because the chief sluggers haven't the driving power needed for long hits, and the outer gardens are a fast outfielder's paradise.

Twenty Grand really will be back in there breaking the horse's hearts again in a short time.

Gilbert English, the Giants' re-inforcement who has started out with a couple of bases, was one of McGraw's own discoveries.

Ty Cobb, interviewed by a newspaperman at the Olympic games, admitted he couldn't run 100 meters in less than 17 flat, and that he never could run fast.

he rejoined the team—which brought forth from Hughie Critz the remark, "Yeah, and I suppose you hunted bears with buggy whips!"

Jack Hendricks, who always blamed Hornsby for his dismissal as manager of the Cardinals, did not cry at all, but bore up very well under the news that the Rajah had been fired by the Cubs.

There are about 6,000 French prisoners confined in French Guiana.

CUTS SCHOOL COSTS

ODESSA, Aug. 10.—According to Supt. Murry H. Fly of the Odessa Public schools there has been a decrease in the school budget of over more than 33 1-3 per cent over last year's figures. The last budget called for something like $90,000 while the 1932-33 budget calls for less than $60,000. There has been a 10 per cent reduction in teachers salaries.

IT is perfectly natural for smokers to talk to each other about what they smoke and why they smoke a certain brand. Tastes differ, and therefore different people smoke different kinds of cigarettes. Those who smoke CHESTERFIELDS seem to take more pride in telling other smokers—"that CHESTERFIELDS are milder; that there is no harshness—no bitterness." They also tell them—"that CHESTERFIELDS taste better; that they have a pleasing aroma."... CHESTERFIELDS are clicking with millions.
