Other Races on Labor Day Card Slated For Monday

Eight horse races for fifty cents will be the bargain event to which thousands are expected to flock Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Cowboy park. The same program is scheduled for Monday afternoon, Labor day.

The two day meet is sponsored by Brooks W. Lee post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, with James S. Noland, commander of the post, as general chairman.

Sixty per cent of the gate receipts go to making up a purse which has attracted to the local stables some of the outstanding race animals of West Texas. The remainder of the gate charge goes to the Vets and to expense of the grounds and track.

Minimum of Delay
