Mrs. I. E. Harmon, Formerly of Midland Passes 90-Year Mark; Says She's Living On Borrowed Time; Lived Here Many Years

Passing the ninetieth year mark was an event in the life of Mrs. I. E. Harmon, who made her home in Midland until five years ago, and her many friends at her home in San Angelo last Friday.

Mrs. Harmon, one of the most loved elderly women while she lived here, came to Midland with her family in 1900.

Her interests were in church work, her friends and her family.

In August, only two months before her 90th anniversary, she made an automobile trip to visit her friends here with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Gibbs and Mr. Gibbs, with whom she makes her home.

A birthday box was sent to Mrs. Harmon from her friends here last week.

object of praise wherever they are found. She has completed the handkerchiefs which she has made for members of her Sunday school class and has been at work for some time on Christmas gifts. She does not like to do things in a hurry. In the afternoon she reads and rests and on Thursdays she attends the missionary society. She attends the class and the morning church services regularly, her only worry being that she doesn't hear as well as she used to.

Memories of the pleasures during youth furnish this elderly person much enjoyment but her most fun, she declared, reaches her through the play and friends of her grandson, Charles Gibbs Jr.

Spooky Party Honors Alathean Class At Barron Home

From the greeting at the entrance by a ghost to the close of a whirl of spooky games, the party for the Alathean class at the home of Mrs. T. Paul Barron Saturday afternoon was one completely typical of the Halloween season.

Mrs. A. W. Wyatt was the conductor of the afternoon's program. In the hunting pumpkin's contest, which was done by partners, Mrs. J. O. Nobles and Mrs. John T. Gay found the largest number and Mrs. Homer Rowe and Mrs. Clarence Ligon won a second prize.

Spooky Party Honors Alathean Class At Barron Home

Perhaps it is that characteristic that has brought her scores and scores of friends. Letters and telegrams of felicitations and boxes of gifts have arrived all week and yesterday she proudly displayed her gifts to the women who were entertained at a luncheon by Mrs. Charles Gibbs, daughter of Mrs. Harmon.

Luncheon Given

The table was laid for 12, pink and lavender marking the colors in the appointments. The centerpiece was a bouquet of beautiful chrysanthemums and queen's wreath.

In the afternoon members of the Womans' Bible class of the First Baptist church, to which Mrs. Harmon belongs, called. There are 30 elderly women in the group and most of them visited with their fellow member, Mrs. George Davidson is president of the group and Miss Emmy Lee King is teacher.

Mrs. Harmon was born in Louisville, Ky., Oct. 24, 1841. She came to Texas with her husband in 1876, stopping in Dallas, the terminus of the M. K. & T. She has outlived all her relatives, her husband and three children, Mrs. Gibbs being the only child left.

The Civil war, the Spanish-American war and the World war have occurred within the span of Mrs. Harmon's life. She had people on both sides during the Civil war and she "nearly went crazy," she said, for fear Mr. Harmon, then her sweetheart, and a young man, would be drafted.

Joint Meeting of Methodist Circles At Martin Home

The two circles of the Auxiliary of the First Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Martin Monday afternoon in the monthly business, social and program meeting.

Mrs. L. B. Hankins led the program which was preceded by a devotional read by Mrs. M. J. Allen.

The short business session followed the program.

Members of the Mary Scharbauer circle served refreshments to the 16 women attending.

Episcopal Auxiliary Holds Business Meeting

Business matters of interest to members of the women's auxiliary of the Episcopal church were discussed at a meeting Monday afternoon at Trinity chapel.

A report of the women's auxiliary activities at the general Episcopal convention in Denver recently was one of the principal phases of the program.

Decision was made to hold a rummage sale on Nov. 6.

Year books, distributed by the district auxiliary, were turned over to Mrs. A. S. Legg and Mrs. A. N. Hendrickson to name leaders of the programs and select dates.

Meetings of the auxiliary will be held on the third Monday of each month.

Members attending were Mmes. North Milligan, Legg, John Shipley, E. H. Ellison, J. P. Butler and Hendrickson.

Helpful Health Suggestions

School Athletics Trains for Later Life

Athletics has an important part to play in school life in training children for participation in activities that may be carried on in later life, it has been pointed out by the secretaries of the various state athletic associations and the state supervisors of health. They recommend the following principles:

Athletics is an integral part of physical education, not only in theory but in practice and should be a part of the school physical education program.

Athletic control according to the age, ability and needs of the pupil is favored rather than encouragement of athletic competition in elementary schools.

Programs of athletics should provide greater opportunities for sports that may be carried on in later life, including tennis, golf, swimming, basketball and volley ball.

National and interstate championships in athletics or any other activities that make use of children gathered from widely separated districts for display purposes should be discouraged because they have little educational value and are conducive to a distorted sense of personal importance and an unhealthy state of mind on the part of the child.

American interscholastic football for junior high school boys is undesirable.

Girls should not participate in state tournaments or in overnight or week-end trips. Girls should have a broad program of athletics, which will be conducive to their health.

SAN ANGELO OFFER TRANSFERS SCENE OF SATURDAY GAME THERE

GREAT MOTORCADE TO BE MADE UP; HILTON HOTEL TO BE MADE MIDLAND HEADQUARTERS THEN

Midland high school plays Saturday in San Angelo, rather than in Midland.

This arrangement was made between officials of the two schools by telephone this morning, according to information from Supt. W. W. Lackey of the Midland institution.

The Midland superintendent said dickerings had been underway for two days, culminating in San Angelo offering Midland $200 plus the same amount for expenses, with an option of taking half the toll upon the gate. This is considered sufficiently attractive to switch the game to the Concho capital.

More than 40 cars will be required to transport the pep squad, band, players and others of the high school. An additional number of cars is expected to make the trip.

There are 75 members of the pep squad who will see the game, 41 handmen and 34 gridsters.

"Dusty" Waller, manager of the Hilton hotel and formerly manager of the Scharbauer hotel in Midland, is decorating his hotel lobby with Midland colors and will make his new hostelry "Midland headquarters" he said in a telephone conversation with the sports department of The Reporter-Telegram this morning.

Season tickets for the San Angelo game, formerly marked for attendance in Midland, may be presented for the same here with McCamey which formerly was slated to be played in McCamey. Holders of tickets thus realize the same number of games. Pasteborders for the San Angelo game must be bought. McCamey's decision to come here for the Bulldog-Badger meeting was made after the tickets had been printed.

The exodus to San Angelo is expected to be the greatest ever made by Midland for a football game.

FIRST DISTINCTION REPORT HIGH SCHOOL SHOWS GOOD GRADES; 89 PER CENT PASS IN ALL WORK

The first six weeks of the present session of the Midland public schools closed Friday, October 16. Reports to the office of the superintendent from the various schools show that 89 per cent of all pupils passed in their work and that 357 pupils won distinction in their various studies. The passing grade below the high school is 75, and pupils are promoted on general averages. The passing grade in the high school is 70, and pupils are passed by subjects and not on general averages.

In the senior high school 85.82 per cent passed in three or more subjects and 79 were placed on the distinction list. In the John M. Cowden Junior High school 92.16 per cent passed in all work, and 152 won distinction in their studies. In north ward, 91.88 per cent passed in all work, and 75 won distinction in their grades. In south ward, 88.95 per cent passed in all their work, and 51 won distinction in their studies. Those averaging 95 or more were recorded with highest praise (Summa cum laude); those averaging 85 to 90 were recorded with high praise or honor (Magna cum laude). Those pupils in the two highest groups who also averaged 85 or more in department were placed on the roll of honor. The lists follow by schools:
