Virgil Jones scored the first chdown; Sheridan romped yards to score the second, in the second period, when Jones marked up his second; Barnett, Woehl and Sheridan counted in the third, and Hahn and Roberts in the fourth. Sweetwater's timed-to-a-nicety offense rolled up a total of 25 first downs, Midland counting only two, both of which came as direct result Through the first half Midland had not gained a yard from line of scrimmage, and had lost five yards in running attempts. Only one Mid_ and pass clicked, and that for no gain. Both backs averaged less dictiones then undiv distance than ordinarily, Sheridan kicking at times near the goal line and having one boot almost blockand having one boot almost block-ed, which caused him to kick zen-ithward. Sherrod was bothered all afternoon with enterprising red and white forwards and secondary jump-ing into his midriff as he tried put-ting what kick the Midland football machine lacked into his punting. Both clubs at frequent intervals sent in substitutes, Midland's head coach, L. K. Barry, using most of the men available. The game goes down as belonging to Sweetwater in the first place, but not until Wednesday with such 3 score envisioned. For it was on that date that Midland's two most powerful men-and they're just as powerful physically as anything running rampant in the Sweetwater remuda —were lost to the Saturday engage-ment. Captain G. B. Hallman, whom Sweetwater had been waiting to see Tom Collins, than when no lineman in the district is huskier, suffered injuries to their legs. Both were on the sideline Saturday, Collins on crutches. A large percentage of the rest of the club looked like ani-mated advertisements of the Amalgamated Adhesive Tape association In other words, it was a sorely 'shot aggregation that took the field, a much lighter club than Coach Hennig's stalwarts and one that back had dropped many degrees down the esprit de corps thermometer follow-ing the loss of Hallman and Col-liss. ### STORY TELLERS AND FAIRIES

A long-lost race of pigmy cave men who lived in Europe and the British Isles during the old stone age probably gave rise to the myths about fairies, according to a recent speaker before the British Association for the Advancement of Science.

This race, submerged when more advanced people entered the land, lived in caves, disliked their more civiltirely. Legends about them were handed down, from not do it again "he replied that the could be in the could b men forgot that they were telling about an actual race of people and embroidered the tales into fantastic accounts not even in Winkler county since the of diminutive supernatural beings of enchanting loveli oil boom struck. Even Jim Waddel of diminutive supernatural beings of enchanting loveli-

So, at any rate, runs the British scientist's explanation; and it is a striking and interesting example of the way in which the race can take a tiny bit of fact and ex-pand it into a myth which bears almost no relation to its tion; and it is a striking and interesting example of the pand it into a myth which bears almost no relation to its original form.

Story tellers, you see, are a queer lot. The way things actually happen is seldom quite good enough for them. They put in little things here and there to make the tale more pleasing, they change their stories of what really happened into stories of what they wish had happenedand presently the race has a new legend, brave and shining, very often, fit to ensnare the dreams of wide-eyed youth for unending centuries. So the whispered reminiscences of pigmy cave men become transmuted into delicate and charming stories of lovely beings from the realms of magic. So a blind poet's chant about an ancient war becomes a great epic of heroism and human struggle. So a fireside recounting of a half-savage king's exploits becomes the deathless story of King Arthur, his round table and the island vale of Av alon.

And so, over the years, humanity builds for itself tales that inspire it and comfort it, tales that persuade it that it has a noble heritage and a high destiny, tales that round off the rough edges of the world and make life more liv able. It doesn't matter much how these tales begin. The artistry of the story teller can make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

FRANCE STRAINS AT THE SPIGOT

An American business man who recently returned from a trip to France reports that French wholesale wine prices have advanced by at least 15 per cent because the French, confident that the coming election will mean the end of prohibition, are preparing for a big export trade to the United States. Preparations are even being made, I recall back in the war of 1812, from dreadnaughts to subchasers. I was assigned to duty on the U. S. S. "Unfortunate," a sloop of 150,000 fered us was on April 1, 1812 at tons displacement with an armanent of 146 sixteen inch rifles. Of the 83 eighteen inch rifles, 53 were swivel guns on the main deck and 30 were stationary guns on the gun deck ar-of the dest deck are of the dest deck are table to he said, for whole shiploads of wine to be sent to the Unit ed States immediately after election day.

If he reports things correctly, it is plain that the French wine sellers are in for a sharp disappointment. For, regardless of the outcome of the fall election, the 18th amendment will remain on the books for quite a ime yet. Even if a unanimously wet Congress and administration should be named, the dry law couldn't be repeal ed overnight. These wine exporters seem to be counting their chickens a long time ahead of the hatching season.

Trade In Your Worn Tires for Safe Gripping Non-Skid Firestone Tires

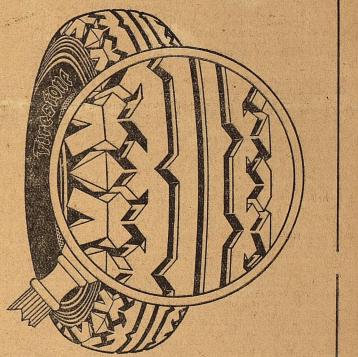

ABERAL trade-in allowance-now-on all Firestone High Speed and Heavy Duty Tires!

Why take a chance on worn, smooth, uncertain tires when you can buy Firestone non-skid safe, proven tires at lowest prices.

Firestone Tires are designed to grip the road. The non-skid tread is thick, tough and gives 25% longer non-skid safety.

Glen Schultz only last month set a new world's record in climbing Pike's Peak, in 16 min. 47 sec. His top speed was .78 miles per hour-negotiating many hair-raising turns where a skid or a tire failure meant death.

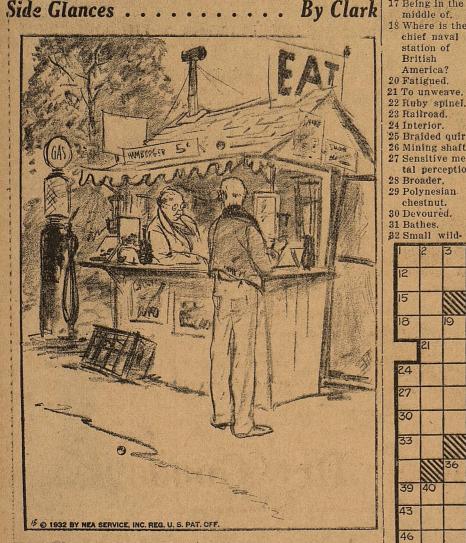

It's that kind of stamina that makes Firestone Tires safe and economical for you.

AN ENCOURAGING SIGN

Colonel Leonard P. Ayres, whose rank as a business prognosticator is about as good as anyone's, believes that the long-awaited "corner" which business was to turn has, in fact, at last been passed. He does not look for a speedy upturn, but he points out that the normal, seasonal upturn in business which is to be expected at this time of year nas actually taken place this fall, while it did not take place in the fall of 1931 or the fall of 1930.

That's why race drivers use Firestone Tires. They won't risk their lives on any other make.

No tire in the world has the Firestone endurance. That is because Gum-Dipping, the patented Firestone process, transforms the cotton cords into tough, sinewy units. It means that the liquid rubber penetrates every cord and coats every fiber, assuring protection against internal heat. Two extra Gum-Dipped Cord Plies under the Tread, give 56% stronger bond between tread and cord body.

Don't buy cheap tires that are only made to sell. Don't risk your life on wet, slippery pavements these October days -Use the same precaution race drivers use. # FOOTBALL Cracked Rib Not Much of a Worry

By R. C. HANKINS

Just a word or so to reassure those who seem to be suffering from an after effect of disillusionment: There will be other football games, and Midland will win some of them, Likely enough, the Bulldogs will go down before Angelo and Big Spring —possible against Colorado. And we may have to show something against —possible against Colorado. And we may have to show something against nay have to show something against McCamey in order to save some ad-

may have to show something against MeCamey in order to save some ad-ditional cmbarrassment. That sort of thing must be suffered by some club each year. It just happens to be Midland's luck to be singled out this season. During the slaughter of Saturday, we talked with Obie Bristow, Big Spring coach. He is pessimistic over the thought of the Midland-Big Spring game, saying among other than the royal purple of Midland. He says he will have nothing next year. Midland should be much im-proved that season, and the season. afterward—holy scarabs! what a crop is due to trample the bermuda grass here! "But the cash custom-ers want what they want now, don't they?" Obie moaned. **** Weakened as it was by injuries.

Weakened as it was by injuries, Midland appeared to us as more inferior to Sweetwater than Odessa was to Midland a week ago. Sweet-water could have scored 100 points against the Eulldogs without much additional effort, according to the scribes about us—and to which opinion we subscribe. But playing Sweetwater is not a fair test for any medicere team. Opposite ex- Institute remes tangled and one saw the results in a daze.

sults in a daze. The game was interesting from only one angle—from watching the machine-like precision of Sweet-water's attack and her defense. That done and there was nothing else. The snappy drills during the half, featured by Midland's band and per squad, the pretty uniforms and prettier girls of the Sweetwater squad, innovations such as Miss Mi. E. Hodges' riding of the mustang onto the grid and of the Sweet-water municipal band playing a stirring song that is said to attach with official affinity to the Sweet-water school—all this brought a sort of cordial to nerves frayed by Sweetwater's startling edge over Midland on the gridiron. What we cannot understand, however, is why the pep squad of the Nolan city does not form an "S" for Sheridan rather than for Sweetwater. Sheri-dan, we have it on reputable au-thority, was given fee absolute title to Sweetwater following the game. He already owned it in fee simple. Charles Green, Sweetwater scribe,

Charles Green, Bweetwater scribe, was good enough to say little about the upset. He praised the continued fight of the purple club when its back was hard against the wall. It was good to meet the author of those Sheridan defense articles, and we were not disappointed to find him just as we had suspected him to be—an old hand with a flair for writing non-biased stories on any-thing from murder to murder. from murder, murder to hich means from football to may
