HENRY FORD'S PLAN FOR THE RAILROADS

SHOULD BE SO REGULATED THAT PEOPLE COULD USE WITHOUT LIMIT

In this recent time of railroad strikes and the numerous remedies proposed it is proper to listen to the statement of one who has solved the railroad problem of preventing strikes, reducing expenses, making the road pay and eliminating strikes as a possibility. Here is the system as adopted by Ford and which is a complete success:

Henry Ford, in the publication of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States tells how he would run a big railroad. Mr. Ford's operation of his own road, the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton, had been the subject of much discussion.

First of all, he said, he would get rid of individual stockholders, whom he considers a parasite; then he would turn to lighter rolling stock, and finally, "fire useless employes, especially the lawyers."

Finance, as it applies to railroads, he says, is a failure; and the roads spend money uselessly in red tape particularly in accounting.

"Real purposes of a railroad," he writes, "are to serve the public." There is no reason why it should be diverted from that service and set to putting money into the pockets of stockholders who make no contribution to the road's actual operation. The public pays these dividends. There are a tax on the people.

"There is a possible and practical system of financing railroads, which those contributing the money will be in positions to add directly to the success of the undertaking. If the brakeman on a railroad owns stock in it, he has an additional inducement to competent service. If the railroad is a success, it is due to him and his fellow workmen and they are entitled to the profit.

"Railroads should not have to go to banks for money. They can be otherwise financed. The first thing is to make a railroad work. Make it possible for people to use it as much as they want to. Then there will be no trouble about finances. The trouble with them they start finance and expect finance to make the road go. Finance can't do that. Finance is a failure.

"If such a course were attempted, we could expect a great outcry for the protection of invested capital. It would be said that people had bought these stocks for the financial protection of their families, their children. The protection from what? From the necessity of earning their living? Their children would be better off if they had to finance themselves. Proper financing would, of course, be easier on new roads. On the old ones, however, it should be possible to retire the parasite, the non-contributing stockholder, and get the ownership into the proper hands.

"After removing this dividend drain, the second step would be to remove the great physical burden of the railroads—needless weight of its rolling stock. A freight train is several times the weight of the load it carries, and a passenger train is 20 times as heavy. The cost of pulling empty trains is needlessly large.

"On the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton the old types of engines and cars will be displaced by better types. Our patents will guarantee free use of ideas. We will never proceed against anybody for infringement on our patents.

"The third step would be that of expediting the journey of the freight carrier. By speeding up our freight over the preliminary part of its journey on the D. A. & I. we have shortened the time of its delivery by from seven to 14 days. This means our product gets to the people from seven to 14 days quicker than it used to. It means we carry on our books $30,000,000 less undelivered products than otherwise.

"Most railroads have enough lawyers working for them to operate them if they were engaged in useful work. One of the first things is to dispense with the legal staff. A well-managed road needs less of that sort of service. The lawyers are mostly in the claims department, one of the most wasteful branches of railroad operation. Any small claim against a railroad is likely to knock about the claims department for weeks or months, to cost many times as much as it would to pay it. Proper organization would lead, at the time it is first presented, to establishing the facts about it and settling it on the basis of justice. It would keep all this detail off the books.

"Bookkeeping of railroads is complicated far beyond all necessity. We have simplified this department reduced its cost and have transformed it into an actual help instead of a vexation and a burden. How did we do it? By viewing the proposition as a service to the users of railroads and making everything fit into that, instead of having the fear of stockholders and dividends before our eyes. Our faith is that service will pay. Finance does not come first. Work comes first.

"We don't claim to have done anything new in railroading yet. We have only taken the old system of operation and cut off its obvious absurdities. Even the old system brought up to efficiency, would be an immense change. We have simply cut the loafing of men, engines and cars. There is no mystery or magic about it. Anyone can do it. If the introduction of plain, every day good management will create such a change, what may we not expect from really new ideas?

"I don't like to appear as criticizing any railroad manager, for I have never done so. With their stockholders on their backs and their banker bosses, who don't know anything about railroading, what can they do? They must be liberated from the present system. And you can't do that by giving that $500,000,000 to perpetuate the present bad system, either."

WAR: IT'S APPALLING DESTRUCTION OF LIFE

As we approach the time of the disarmament conference every one should study the effects of war and then use their influence with the said conference to stop the scourge of war. We can stop it and ought to stop it, or civilization is doomed and we will be thrown back into the dark ages again. Some of the best scholars of Europe, and who know most of the conditions there, claim that it is yet to be proven that the last war has not done it already. The after-effect has been worse than the war and we are not to the end yet.

Cost of Life: As life is something that we can not replace, this ought to be our first concern, but as a matter of fact it is not, statistics gotten up by expert statisticians for the disarmament conference at Washington estimates the loss of life as follows: Killed in battle or died of wounds, 19,658,000; from increased death rate, 30,470,000; decreased birth rate, 50,500,000; a total of 89,628,000, but little short of the entire population of the U. S. A., and millions will yet die of exposure and undernourishment. In places the war did not leave a child alive under five years of age. War spares no one, the soldier, old age and the young "all go down with the ravages of war.

Cost in Money: U. S. Senator Spencer claims that the total cost, including the Red Cross and all other drives to the U. S. was $44,173,948,225, and we will be paying interest and pensions for years to come. The Carnegie Research claim that the total cost to the world was $375,000,000,000, would wipe everything of value, except lands, off of North America. This means but little to us; we do not grasp it. We need something tangible; suppose we convert this cost into pounds, we can grasp this. It takes 16 silver dollars to weigh one pound; this would give us a total of 23,437,500,000 pounds. To transport this would require 5,859 trains of 40 cars, 50 tons to the car, a total of 244,375 cars. Each train would be 1-3 of a mile long, or a total of 1,953 miles in length. It would reach from San Francisco to a few miles east of Dallas, Texas. Do you grasp it? And what fools we have all been to allow it. All of us are to blame for the war. What did you do to prevent it, and what are you doing to prevent wars? The same heartless human parasites that brought this last war on will bring on another if we do not use our influence to stop them. The shame of it is that the United States has her full quota of these bloodless human parasites. The American profiteer, if you please. Yet we were told at

CORPS AREA CO-ORDINATOR, THIRD TO PRESIDENT UNDER DAWES

It will be of interest to his many friends in Midland and to the friends of Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Rhea to learn that Col. J. C. Rhea has recently received a big promotion, being made corps area co-ordinator under General Dawes and the third man to the President in this division. He has supervision over every federal department in Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia, and Kentucky. That includes the army and navy, postoffices, federal agents of justice, etc. General Dawes is chief of staff to the President, and Col. Rhea is one of the nine highest men in the government under him, and is supreme in these four States. He does nearly all of his traveling in air machines, and in that way is able to cover lots of territory.

The work which Col. Rhea is now engaged in is similar to the great work which he did in Constantinople just after the great war. In addition to the duties mentioned above, he has charge of all federal property, all purchasing agents, all stock on hand, all reserves, operations, transfers, sales, and all real property, really serving as the third man to the President in this division and being supreme in these four states. This is indeed a big and well-deserved promotion, and we congratulate Col. Rhea, his parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Rhea of our city, and their many friends in Midland.

Harry Stone, editor of the Seminole Sentinel, was down from Seminole Monday, with some other parties whose names we did not learn, to attend a meeting of the Midland & Northwestern Railway.

B. F. Whitefield, Jack Biard, Joe Jay and George Ratliff returned this morning from a week's outing down in the Menard Country. They had fine luck, and bagged the limit of turkeys, three each.

Married, Wednesday afternoon at the court house, Mr. Jno. C. Jones, of New Mexico to Miss Euna Mae Swinton, of Baird, Judge J. M. DeArmond officiating.

Addison Wadley, of the Wadley-Wilson Company, went to Dallas on Tuesday evening on business.

Chas. McClintic was in from Sweetwater the first of the week.

The beginning of the war that it was to be a war of patriotism, not for profits, and yet it has been proven in the congress that a few corporations profited to the amount of more than $38,000,000,000.

How the War Increased the Federal Tax: We give the amount of tax of a few countries before and after the war. The U. S. A., $33.00, now $214.00; England, 102.00, now $548; France, $122.00, now $633.80; Italy, $79.70; now $646.50. This is for a family of five.

David F. Houston, former secretary of the U. S. Treasury, stated that the total expenditures of the United States since the foundation of the government to date has been $67,000,000,000, of this $58,000,000,000, for war, only 9, but for all other purposes.

Where Your Federal Tax Goes: For expenses of war, 92.6, 4.8 per cent; civil department 1.4 per cent for all public works 1.3 per cent for research, public health, education development.

It has been stated that the wars of Napoleon reduced the height of the French people 5 inches and that after more than 100 years they are yet 2 inches below normal. Does wars account for the reduction in height of the people since the days of Biblical antiquity? There were giants in those days. In breeding live stock the dogs are culled out; in war they are left for your future breeding stock and a few more wars and we will have nothing but dogs left. To save civilization we must stop wars. The church can, and must, demand that this be the last great war. Get busy at once and flood congress and the disarmament conference.

NATIONAL RED CROSS SUNDAY PROCLAIMED

IT IS NEXT SUNDAY BY PROCLAMATION OF PRESIDENT HARDING

Sunday, November 13th, has been designated National Red Cross Sunday by a proclamation of President Harding. In a communication sent out from Washington to the clergy of America, the President says: To the Reverend Clergy:

The President of the United States has designated Sunday, November 13th, as Red Cross Sunday.

It is hoped that on that day ministers of religion, throughout the length and breadth of the land, will make some mention to their congregations of the work of the American Red Cross, and will make an appeal to them that they enroll themselves in its membership.

The roll call is not a campaign. It is merely the yearly opportunity for men and women to pay their annual dues and renew their membership in the Red Cross.

The annual dues are one dollar. Of this amount fifty cents is sent to national headquarters and the chapter enrolling the membership retains fifty cents for local Red Cross activities.

Aside from special contributions this provides the working funds for the American Red Cross for the ensuing year.

The American Red Cross is unique in that it is at once a voluntary organization charged with certain duties and liable to certain obligations.

The object of the American Red Cross has been briefly set forth thus:

The union of all who love in the service of all who suffer.

Under its congressional charter, issued by Act of Congress, January 5th, 1905, its duties are not voluntary, but it is seated that the purposes of this organization are and shall be:

1. To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war and in accordance with the Conventions of Geneva;
2. To act in matters of voluntary belief and in accord with the military and naval authorities as a medium of communication between the American people and their army and navy.
3. To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace, and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, or floods, and other great national calamities; and
4. To devise and carry on measures for preventing the same.

Nothing is more significant of the condition of things, both at home and abroad, then is the insistent call for the continued activity of the American Red Cross.

A year ago we thought that the end of the work of the American Red Cross overseas was in sight. A year ago we thought that our program at home would be along lines similar to those of the years before the war.

It is something of a surprise, therefore, today to find how broad and far-reaching are the tasks that the American Red Cross feels called upon to undertake, in response to the demands daily made upon it, and in fulfillment of the provisions of its charter.

The fifth membership roll call which will occur simultaneously all over the United States, will be emphasized on Red Cross Sunday. The Red Cross work for the disabled ex-service men to whom this nation owes such a tremendous obligation, relief of starving and suffering children overseas, public health nursing in the cities, towns and rural communities of our own country which is building a sturdier and healthier next generation, community work among the children through the Junior Red Cross, nutrition classes to overcome the appallingly high rate of malnourishment found among American children of rich and poor alike, first-aid and life-saving work to prevent the terrible death toll due to accidents annually in the United States, and the disaster relief work, which is so important a part of the peacetime program of the Red Cross, are some of the points emphasized in the President's call to the clergy of the country. In asking for the co-operation of the church and clergy in the tasks that are set before the Red Cross, that organization is offering a comradeship of common service for the common good in its organization of "The Red Cross of Peace, in the Service of Those Who Suffer."

DEATH OF PRESLEY COOK AT LOVINGTON

The following notice was taken from the Lovington, N. M. paper and sent to us by our former townsman, J. R. Barron:

"Mr. Presley Cook, of Knowles, N. M., was found dead at his home Friday. Mr. Cook was in his seventies and was subject to heart failure. His home was near his sister, Mrs. J. S. Coleman. Some of the Coleman family went to his home every few days to see that he was alright, as he lived alone. But as the Coleman family was very busy last week they neglected to go. Friday Mrs. Coleman went to his home and found him dead just inside the door. She walked two or three miles to a neighbor for help and a phone. The doctor stated that his death was caused from heart failure and that he died Wednesday. Interment was made in the Lovington cemetery Saturday at 2 o'clock. He leaves only his sister and several nieces and nephews."

Mr. Cook used to live in Midland, as did Mrs. Coleman, and old friends deeply deplore his passing.

Preliminary reports to the unemployment conference show that there are 6,380 unemployed in Dallas, 4,275 in Houston, 2,515 in San Antonio, 2,070 in Fort Worth, and 2,000 in Galveston, the five large cities in Texas.

LARGE CROWDS HEAR THE NEW MINISTER

A great crowd heard the new Methodist minister both morning and evening on last Sunday. As stated in our last issue, Rev. Smith comes to us from Kerville, a young, wide-awake minister of the gospel. He made one statement in his evening sermon Sunday that impressed all who heard him, that is, "he never intended using the pulpit for anything but for the preaching of the word of God." He emphasized this statement in a way that all who heard him felt that he was absolutely sincere. The church has taken on new enthusiasm, in fact, already the power of right seems to hold full sway upon its membership in such a way that they are now going out into the highways and byways, working for the cause of Christ and the church.

Here's hoping that this will be the greatest year in Methodism that the church has ever known.

A BEAUTIFUL WINDOW AT ECONOMY STORE

One of the most attractive and appropriate windows we have ever seen is shown at the Economy Store. The window represents a cemetery of the United States soldiers over in France. It shows the graves of our soldier boys with the cross that marks each grave, the green grass and the sentinels on duty. In one little plot it shows a new grave and in the distance is seen an army wagon with a casket wrapped in the American flag, surrounded by Red Cross nurses, chaplains, and soldiers. This unique window was designed by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones, proprietors of the Economy Store, and is very appropriate to this day, Nov. 11th.

The advance in the price of oil has greatly increased wild catting in the Texas oil fields. Many hundreds of men are being given employment and thousands of dollars being spent in this work.

Coal costs $14 to $15 per ton in addition to the hauling from the station, while the farmers receive but $8.50 per ton for corn, which they must also haul to the station.

To move a ton of corn over one line from Fort Worth to Dallas now costs more than it did seven years ago to move the same commodity from Amarillo to Beaumont over two or more lines.

Nine-tenths of the annual mortality from lightning occurs in the rural districts and towns and villages of 2500 inhabitants or less.

OIL SITUATION IN THE PECOS FIELD

PIPE LINE TO RAILROAD COMPLETED AND TANKS CONSTRUCTED

Midland men who have visited Pecos and vicinity since the Toyah-Bell well was reported "in" are rather less enthusiastic in their reports than is the Pecos Enterprise. However the Enterprise is in better position to state the facts, and we reproduce the following from its last issue:

Gushing over the top at intervals for the past ten days the Toyah-Bell No. 2 well, twenty miles north of Pecos has continued to attract much attention. This much showing without any special effort to clean out the well has established in the minds of many oil men the conviction that this is the initial well in a great oil field.

Preliminaries to actually bring in the well are rapidly nearing completion and the cleaning out of the sand in the bottom of the hole which is believed to be hindering the flow is to be started Saturday—or as soon as necessary arrangements are completed for taking care of the oil.

The big steel tanks have arrived and are on the ground. Workmen began to put them up Friday morning with the probability that they will be completed by Sunday.

The pipe line, which had to be run several miles, connecting the well the Santa Fe railroad track was to be completed Friday night. Surveys have been completed for an eighteen car switch track to be constructed along the Santa Fe tracks between the Arno station and the Arno bridge. Although the loading facilities for the oil had not been completed at the time this paper goes to press, a big wooden tank had been erected and ready to care for a considerable amount of the oil that is coming from the well. The materials for the construction of the loading rack and switch are enroute to the site and work is to be started probably Monday or Tuesday morning.

It is said that about 50 feet of packed sand is in the hole, and all the oil that comes out has to come through this sand, indicating that a heavy pressure of gas is beneath. Gas continues to rise from the well in clouds.

Satisfactory responses to the agitations of the swab and bailer have been had during all the past week. A flow of about fifteen barrels of what is declared to be a high grade oil has resulted from each swabbing. The oil at present prices, is estimated to be worth $3 per barrel. Because of the oil that has been found the well has been able to operate under its own power the past two weeks.

Because of the reported advance of 50 cents on the Pennsylvania crude oil has added further stimulus to other oil men toward further developments in the field. The oil from the Toyah-Bell No. 2 is said to resemble very closely the standard Pennsylvania crude.

Many prominent oil men, some representing some of the biggest companies in America have come to Pecos and many leases are being sold daily on the local exchanges. Also many men who reside in other sections of the State but own land in the Pecos territory have come here to look after their interests. Others are coming daily and are figuring with local property owners for sites for various lines of business. The hotels and restaurants are crowded day and night, but the Chamber of Commerce and the hotels are arranging to take care of all who may come. A rooms committee of the Chamber of Commerce is ready to render any service in getting places for all. At the same time the Chamber of Commerce officials are insisting that none of the local people will be too hasty in demanding high prices. It is planned to avoid boom prices as long as possible.

Three cowboys will make the trip from Yellowstone National Park to New York City on horseback without purchasing fresh horses. They are to dress in typical Western style and expect to arrive in New York City on January 1st.

The U. S. S. Pecos is capable of supplying fuel oil to four vessels at the same time, while moving at sea. Two vessels can be bunkered from the stern and two from the sides.

GERMAN LANGUAGE PREJU- DICE FAST DYING OUT

Waco, Texas, November 10.—The study of the German language is a hundred per cent more popular at Baylor University this year than it has been for the past three or four years. Reports from the larger colleges and universities over the country show the same general tendency. The University of Wisconsin reports a great increase in the number of students enrolling for German. Pittsburg University shows the greatest increase in enrollment. In that institution the enrollment in German study classes has doubled in the last year. Middlebury College in Vermont shows almost as great an increase in the number of students enrolled in the study of German. From all parts of the country, in the South as well as in the North, figures from the larger institutions show that the prejudice against the German language is fast dying out.

Though Baylor University never stopped teaching German, the enrollment in the beginners' courses fell off to such a great extent during the war that the beginners' courses had to be discontinued. However, Baylor University was broadminded enough to realize that nothing was to be gained by giving up the study of the German language. The courses in advanced German were taught throughout the period of the war.

As has been frequently pointed out by eminent American scholars it would be foolhardy for American students to give up the study of the language of a people who have contributed so much to science and literature as have the German people.

MIDLAND COLLEGE NOTES By H. G. Head, Reporter

Christian Endeavor was held at the college last Sunday afternoon with Mr. Emerson Anderson as leader. The Christian Endeavor is now a part of the regular routine of Midland College life and we are expecting great things during the current year.

Owing to certain things that have come to pass in the last few days Midland College girls are strictly forbidden to carry on long distance conversation with chance visitors beneath their windows. This ruling was the direct outgrowth of some of the so-called "high school tactics" of various third floor girls.

The Philadelphian Literary Society has prepared a program to be delivered on the 11th of this month that promises to be one of the best of the season, combining as it does, such a varied selection of wit and humor as well as song and story.

An improvised orchestra furnished much fun and amusement at M. C. on last Monday when three students gave a rendition of "Hesitation Blues" with two sticks, an old chair and a piano as their only methods of expression.

The Midland College Dramatic Club was organized last Friday with Miss Pauline McPherson, president; Miss Fanny Moxley, vice president; Miss Gladys Johnson, secretary, and T. W. Caskey, treasurer. This club is organized for the purpose of developing dramatic talent in the students of Midland College and they plan to put on a play.

It is generally conceded that the Midland College team was not up to their usual form last Saturday when they played Lamesa, else the measly score of 38 to 0 would have been doubled or even trebled as in the previous game that was played with Lamesa on the high school athletic grounds. One of the most potent causes for the lack of spirit was doubtless the long and wearisome ride to Lamesa, made in a Ford truck and without comforts and conveniences. On top of this the truck in which the trip was made broke fifteen miles out of Midland and it was necessary for the men to get into Lamesa in any way that presented itself, so that a not very enthusiastic crowd of football players went on the gridiron at the opening whistle. The team showed some pep in the first quarter and two touchdowns were made. In the second quarter Caskey pulled an awful "boner" when he missed a perfect pass. A little later in the quarter, Haley captain and quarter, was knocked out and Caskey, who had never played quarter before, was substituted, E. Anderson subbing for Caskey, as full-back. These changes in the lineup together with Caskey's lack of experience on quarter, were sufficient to destroy the morale of the team and prevent the piling up of a larger score. However, two touchdowns were made in the second and an additional pair in the third. In the fourth quarter Haley returned to his position and forced another over, this completing the final score. After the game the Midland College players were winned and dined by the Lamesa squad and when they returned they spoke in highly commendatory terms of the prowess of Lamesa cooks.

Arrangements have been completed whereby the football team of Roscoe high school will play Midland College at Midland on the 19th of November. In view of the fact that Roscoe is one of the only two teams that has scored on Abilene this season and has never played in Midland before, this game promises to be one of the best of the year and we shall appreciate the patronage and support of the town, as well as the college, in showing them a good game and a good time when they make their initial appearance in our city.

Announcement was made in chapel Tuesday to the effect that students are to be permitted to attend the minstrel to be given Saturday night by the boys of the Midland Concert Band, for the benefit of the band. The entertainment will be in the form of a hilarious round of fun and laughter, mirth and merriment, superinduced by the antics of the so-called Cotton Blossom Minstrels, and will be a performance worthy of every student's support and patronage. Every thinking man or woman will recognize at once the important part that is played by the average town band in fostering civic pride and, as the pleasure of the college is enhanced by the co-operation of the band, it devolves upon us to support them in every way possible. Let's go.

Special music was furnished at chapel service last Tuesday by Misses Rhodes and Cravens, with Miss Moxley at the piano. Needless to say it was appreciated to the fullest extent by all who were fortunate enough to be present.

THE "DOUGHBOY OF IDAHO"

Striking Statue Recently Selected by State's War Memorial Commission, Is Lifelike Study.

It's a far cry indeed from the stiff-necked, primly dressed recruit which flooded America after the armistice as the sculptured representation of the American fighter to the shirt-sleeved, delightfully informal "Doughboy of Idaho," recently selected by the state's war memorial commission to symbolize Idaho's contribution to the World war. The statue, work of Avarad Fairbanks, Portland, Ore., and Salt Lake City, Utah, artist, is the most lifelike study of the A. E. F. infantryman as the Boche saw him that American artists have produced, according to both the ex-infantryman and those who have sought to immortalize him in bronze and stone.

The Idaho commission has ordered that all counties of the state have memorials alike in character with the addition that Mr. Fairbanks' "Doughboy" be the main feature of each county's memorial. The American Legion of Idaho has been warm in its commendation of the statue and Mr. Fairbanks has returned the compliment by informing the service men that: "I am convinced that the American Legion can be a tremendous power in education and in honor and in the glory of our great government. I am indeed enthused with the loyal stand on Americanism which the Legion is holding out for."

LEGION MAN UNION OFFICER

California Organization Adjutant Well Known for Activities With Fellow Laborers.

Fred F. Bebergall of San Francisco, who is now serving his second term as department adjutant of the American Legion in California, is one of the most active Legion officers in his state. Bebergall also is well-known for his activities in labor union circles.

Bebergall's life history is the same in some details as that of many successful men. His father died when he was nine years old and he went to work. He obtained his education at night schools and as he expresses it—the "good old college of hard knocks."

As a union official Bebergall has served in nearly every office of the San Francisco Typographical Union No. 21, and as assistant secretary of the California State Federation of Labor.

He was twice rejected for military service on account of impaired vision, but finally obtained a waiver from the secretary of war and was enrolled in the medical department of the United States army. He served as a member of Base Hospital Company No. 87 in France and was discharged June 30, 1919, at San Francisco as a sergeant, first class. He immediately became interested in the American Legion and was one of the organizers of the California department.

SALVAGING FROM AMERICAN RAG BAGS

Great hearted women all over the United States are busy salvaging the waste of this country to clothe the destitute of America and the war stricken children of Europe. All sorts of comfortable and, in many cases, really beautiful garments are made from the contents of the rag bags of America.

In the Red Cross workshops throughout the Southwestern Division women with clever brains and skilled hands fashion children's stockings from the legs of the worn-out stockings of the grown-ups. Warm caps are made from the tops of men's woolen socks. Little shirts come from the unworn sections of discarded underwear of men and women. Old coats and trousers form new suits for boys, and women's dresses are cut down into the smaller garments of children. Odds and ends of carpet and heavy woolen material become slippers for invalids. Bits of ribbon grow into hat trimmings for children, and even the pocket flaps and collars of women's coats, past wearing in their original form, can be used for hats and caps for children.

An exhibition of the salvage from the rag bags of some American cities was one of the interesting features of the recent Red Cross convention in Columbus, Ohio. Everything shown had come from some garment which had literally been thrown away by its original owner because it was in too bad a state of dilapidation for further use, and the ingenuity displayed in the process of making something wearable and good out of what appeared to be nothing, was remarkable. These garments were made by the volunteer workers of the various Red Cross work shops in America. Many of them came from sections in the southwest where such work is being done.

TO INCREASE THE ROSTER OF JUNIORS

The annual membership enrollment of the Junior Red Cross is being held throughout the United States now but will be speeded up during the annual roll call of adult members November 11th to 4th, according to information given out at headquarters of the Southwestern Division, American Red Cross, in St. Louis, by James L. Fieser, manager of the division. The plan is, Fieser said, to conduct the two membership drives simultaneously so as not to confuse them in the minds of the public and to enable roll call directors to enroll children as well as grown-ups during the roll call period. Junior directors are in charge of the junior roll call, acting co-operatively with the chairmen of the grown-ups roll call, and results, though separate, will be announced together. The Junior Red Cross membership in America now is 14,000,000. An effort is being made in the present membership drive to greatly increase this roster.

CHEAP AT THAT

"Here's a case of whiskey I want to leave in your vault till called for," suggested the customer.

"Glad to," agreed the bank clerk, "but I don't know just what sort of a receipt to give you."

"Ask your president."

"I'll just do that," averred the clerk, and got the president on the telephone.

"There's a fellow here who wants to leave a case of whiskey and I don't know what to give him for it," the clerk explained.

"Give him whatever cash you have on hand and the negotiable securities in the vault," shouted the excited president, "and if he wants any more tell him I'll give him my note."

The Husband: "Look here, my dear, won't you want to take some fiction with you to pass away the time?"

The Wife: "No, darling—you'll be sending me some letters, won't you?"

—Sketch.

Charlotte: "I saw Joe at the cinema with Mabel on Saturday night. Aren't you keeping company with him now?"

Gladys: "No, I asked him if he liked her better than me, and he said yes; so I threw him over."—Punch.

"Why did Mrs. Dare change her hair from brown to golden?"

"I believe it was to gratify her husband's dyeing request."—Tit-Bits.

"The doctor says that I have camel's feet."

"How's that?"

"They have gone a long time without water."—College Coyote.

Carrying on With the American Legion

Of all the fruit that grows in the Imperial valley of California, a considerable portion is planted and tended by disabled veterans of the World war. While receiving $100 monthly compensation from the government, the men are placed on tracts of land by the federal board of vocational education and are assisted in getting out their crops. R. T. Fisher, assistant national director of the government's rehabilitation work, recently complimented the California department of the American Legion for safeguarding the interests of the veterans who are winning their way back to health and usefulness in the fruit-growing project.

The aid of women's clubs of the West in the interest of a coast to coast Victory Memorial highway will be solicited by Capitol post of the American Legion in Topeka, Kan., with which the plan originated. The Topeka Woman's club will place the request for co-operation before the coming convention of the state federation of women's organizations. Integral highways now in use would be hard-surfaced by the government. Bronze memorial figures of American soldiers in full equipment and with rifles at "present arms" would mark all state boundaries.

Another move to induce the United States government to force the release by the Bolsheviks of Capt. Emmet Kilpatrick, Uniontown, Ala., has originated with the department of Poland of the American Legion. Latest reports declare that the American, confined in a Moscow prison, is in a deplorable condition from brutality and terror. Captain Kilpatrick, a Red Cross worker, was captured in Crimea.

The National Americanism commission of the American Legion is making arrangements to have a member present at all Legion state conventions. In addressing the conventions the Americanism officials will lay emphasis upon the necessity of co-operation with teachers for the furtherance of education in citizenship, the promotion of patriotism and the development of Americanism.

A house-to-house canvass of the entire city of Chicago has been undertaken by posts of the American Legion, in seeking out veterans who have been unsuccessful in adjustment of compensation claims with the government. A recent membership campaign in Illinois netted a gain of 10,000 members for the first four months of 1921 over the corresponding period of last year.

The American language will replace German in the services of the Bethany Reformed church of Baxter, Ia., under the provision of a resolution adopted by the congregation after a conference with the local American Legion post commander. The Legion objected to preaching in German at the funerals of veterans who were killed in France.

Aerial mail flyers, their mechanics and all who assist them in the U. S. Post Office department's air mail service will be ex-service men, according to an order issued by John S. Jordan, San Francisco, chief of construction, acting superintendent of the traffic division, air mail service, a copy of which has reached American Legion national headquarters.

A proper education for American children in China and Japan is the end sought by the Peking (China) post of the American Legion, which has written to Legion national headquarters to enlist the aid of ex-service men in the movement. The American Chamber of Commerce and other organizations are working with the Legion in the project.

Because they believe that Memorial day should be observed in a reverent and decorous manner, members of the American Legion in Indianapolis, Ind., have asked that the annual motor speedway race be held in the future on July 4 instead of on May 30. More than 130,000 persons attended the international motor classic this year.

When the town of Lawton, Okla., set about building a road to the oil fields, 20 miles away, Lowry post of the American Legion undertook the building of a much-needed bridge about eighteen miles from town. During the construction members of the post's Women's Auxillary brought food to the busy Legionnaires every day.

Fifty-eight years of residence in America were not enough to induce a resident of Emerald, Neb., to familiarize himself with the American language and institutions of government. As a result his application for final citizenship papers was denied at a naturalization hearing in which American Legion members testified.

A resolution calling upon congress to pass the American Legion's legislation for the relief of disabled veterans of the World war sent by an American Legion post at Newberry, S. C., was accompanied by a large pair of shears. An attached card bore the inscription: "For the Love of Mike, Cut Out the Red Tape."

"No plan for future preparedness can be carried out without the support of the American Legion," said General Pershing at a banquet held in his honor at Lincoln, Neb.

INDIAN BOYS AS LEGION MEN

Charter for Post in South Dakota Bears the Names of Four Sioux Braves.

When adjutants of a number of western posts of the American Legion call the membership roll at meetings, it is not always the easiest thing in the world to "make out" the names, for American Indians who served during the World war, are lining up with the ex-service men's organization, according to applications for post charters received at national headquarters.

A recent charter request for a post at St. Charles, S. D., bears the names of four Indians who sign themselves: Benjamin Comes-Out-Bear, Charles Owl-Walks-in-the-House, Narcisse MacKenzie and John Bluebird. Sixty Sioux Indian braves have been engaged to stage a real war dance for the Legion's third annual national convention in Kansas City next fall. The Indians performed valiant service against the enemy in the World war as intelligence scouts.

Citation by Publication

The State of Texas,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Midland County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon C. C. Woods by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not then in any newspaper published in the Seventieth Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said judicial district, to appear at the next regular term of the district court of Midland County, to be held on at the court house thereof, in Midland, Texas, on the first Monday in February, A. D., 1922, the same being the 6th day of February, A. D., 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 30th day of July, A. D., 1921 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 1624, wherein the Midland National Bank, Midland, Texas, is plaintiff, and C. C. Woods and C. C. Railey are defendants, and said petition alleging that on the 19th day of June, 1920, the defendant, C. C. Woods, made, executed and delivered to the plaintiff his promissory note in the sum of $633.00 due December 16th, 1920, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from maturity until paid, and further providing for 10 per cent of the amount of principal and interest as attorney fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Wherefore, by reason of the execution of said note the defendant, C. C. Woods, became bound and liable to this plaintiff in the sum of $633.00 with interest and attorney's fees; that said note is due and unpaid, and though often requested, defendant failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay same or any part thereof.

Further, that at the time of the execution of said note defendant was owner of 1-8 undivided interest in 200 acres of cotton growing on C. C. Railey's place in Midland County, Texas, and that said defendant executed and delivered to the plaintiff a chattel mortgage on said cotton to secure said note, which cotton was seized and converted by C. C. Railey. Wherefore, promises considered, plaintiff prays that the defendant, C. C. Woods, be cited to appear and answer herein; that upon final trial it have judgment for the amount of its said note, together with interest, attorney fees, for costs of suit, and such other and further relief to which it may be entitled in law or in equity.

Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Midland Texas, this the 20th day of October, A. D., 1921.

WHAT TO EAT AND WHEN AND HOW MUCH

Only four per cent of the children in the plains section in the United States are normal, according to a survey recently made by the American Red Cross and the United States Public Health Service jointly. A large percentage of these sub-normal children are so because of malnutrition. Malnutrition is answerable for more ills in the child life of America than any other one cause, it has been ascertained, and this condition is found as frequently among the children of the rich as in the families of the poor.

The Red Cross, through its nutrition classes and its educational work is endeavoring to correct this widespread condition of under-nourishment and to lay the foundation for a healthier next generation by building up the strength of the children. In the United States there are over a thousand nutrition classes in which more than 22,000 children are enrolled. In addition to this there are 163 classes in food selection with over 1,500 students, all of whom either are in advanced school grades or are adults.

With a work of this magnitude, with an effort constantly to increase its scope, the Red Cross hopes in the next few years to teach American children what to eat, when to eat it, and how much of it to eat, so that undernourishment will no longer be a menace to the health of the nation.

SOLD BY THE GIST HEREFORD FARMS

After looking over most of the best herds in west and southwest Texas, D. A. Neely, manager of the Red River Hereford ranch near Memphis, Texas, this week purchased two fancy show heifers and a young herd bull from the Gist Hereford Farms of this city. All three cattle were intensely line bred Anxiety and all were sired by the famous herd bull, Le Roy. These cattle are just back from a circuit of shows in all of which they made a good showing.

Mr. Neely considers this purchase a very valuable addition to his already fancy herd.

ACTOR BECOMES LEGION MAN

Frank Tinney, Member of New York City, Post Lines Up Many of His Buddies.

The man with the smile is Frank Tinney. Broadway theatre-goers are familiar with the Tinney expanse of countenance and so are various former members of the army and navy, with both of which branches Tinney served in the late lamented guerre. Tinney is herewith snapped in the very act of joining the American Legion, F. W. Galbraith Jr. post, New York City. C. R. Baines, general manager of the American Legion Weekly fastened the button in Tinney's coat.

The actor's war record is an unusual one. He enlisted soon after the outbreak of hostilities in the navy as seaman, third class. After a hitch in the army passport transport service, he was promoted to ensign and then to lieutenant, junior grade. After eleven months in the navy he was transferred by executive order to the army as captain in the intelligence service and assigned as morale officer to various camps in this country. He was discharged three months after the armistice, with commendations from the chief of the Intelligence Bureau and from the White House.

C. R. Baines and Frank Tinney.

Tinney has vigorously subscribed to the Legion motto: "Every member get a member" and has rounded up various members of the actors' colony who are eligible to Legion membership.

THINGS WORTH WHILE FOR YOU TO BELIEVE IN

Arthur Fisher, in Personality Magazine, says I believe—
That today is the best day since yesterday and that tomorrow will be better.

I believe in life, laughter and love. I believe that there is joy in life, if we will but live.

I believe that what we love we own—love life that ye may live.

I believe that environment, which is adamant before weakness, is fluid before strength, purpose and work.

I believe that, on the whole, the world isn't so bad and is growing better.

I believe that nothing worth while is wasted—that everything was, and will be.

I believe that there is no more precious treasure for today nor higher heritage for the future, than a friend.

I believe that to be good is well, to do good is better, to "make good" is best.

I believe that we are helped in attaining our ideals by knowing that our friends believe in us and expect great things of us.

I believe that laughter means red blood and long life.

I believe in the divinity of all, as well as the divinity in one.

I believe in the hearty handshake, in hospitality, comradeship, friendship and love.

REXALL SALE WAS A GRAND SUCCESS

The management of the City Drug Store, Messrs. Fannin & Biari, are highly elated over the success of their "One Cent Sale" that has been going the rounds of all Rexall stores in Texas recently. During the three days that was consumed in this unique sale people thronged the store from morning till night, buying, buying, buying. Customers from all our neighboring towns took advantage of the sale and laid in great supplies of such articles as they needed in this line and both customers and merchants are satisfied. The City Drug Store didn't spare printer's ink in advertising this sale, and, this too was very gratifying to The Reporter. It is the man who advertises that "gets there" every time. When a man advertises it shows that he has confidence in his goods, and by this method he always wins the confidence of his customers.

We have a very few garments left which we are offering at sensational prices at Whitmeyer's Shop. adv

Southern Baptists Wage Vigorous Warfare Against Tuberculosis In This Section

WOMAN'S INFIRMARY BAPTIST SANATORIUM

RECREATION PATIO BETWEEN MEN'S AND WOMAN'S BLDG.

INVITING CORNER OF MEN'S INFIRMARY

FOUNTAIN PLAYS IN CENTER OF COURT BETWEEN TWO INFIRMARIES

In one of the most extensive fights that has ever been made by any religious body in America for the eradication of disease, Southern Baptists, through their Home Mission Board, have undertaken the task of combating tuberculosis in the 18 states comprising the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention. The first step in this direction was the recent establishment on a tract of 143 acres at El Paso, Texas, of the Southern Baptist Sanatorium, where $500,000 from the 75 Million Campaign has been invested and where $500,000 more will be placed by the end of the campaign period. The institution is located at an altitude of 4,500 feet on the side of Mt. Franklin and commands an excellent view of the mountains of New Mexico, Western Texas and Old Mexico, whose border is only six miles distant. Dr. H. F. Vermillion is superintendent.

57,782. The death rate from tuberculosis is 14.2% higher in the South than in the Nation as a whole. One reason for the exceedingly high death rate in the South is the great prevalence of the plague among the negroes who are especially susceptible to tuberculosis, the death rate among them being three and one-half times that among the whites. But inasmuch as the negroes will doubtless continue to be intimately associated with the whites in domestic and other work in the future, the whites will never be safe from infection until the negroes, as well as the whites, have been freed from the plague.

It has been estimated that the total economic loss from the ravages of tuberculosis in the South is $175,000,000 a year, and in projecting their warfare against the plague the Baptists hope to greatly reduce this loss, as well as to save the life and promote the health and general efficiency of the whole people.

Would Educate the People.
In addition to providing treatment for persons who have already contracted tuberculosis, the sanatorium is carrying on an educational work that seeks to inform the public at large through the printed page, as to the danger of tuberculosis, how it can be avoided and how, once it is contracted, its progress can be arrested through proper sanitary measures at home. Other phases of the educational program include the training of workers inside the sanatorium and occupational and vocational work for patients. The extension department is widely disseminating literature on how to combat tuberculosis. An endowment fund that is being created for the institution will make possible a much larger circulation of literature and will also enable the institution to take care of indigent patients.

The sanatorium is at present seeking to devise special plans whereby it can serve the negroes of the South in combating tuberculosis. It is felt that the negroes' inability to help themselves in the matter entitles them to this consideration and that this assistance should be given, furthermore, as a means of self-protection on the part of the whites.

Other Phases of Baptist Work.
In addition to the Tuberculosis Sanatorium, Southern Baptists have a string of seventeen regular hospitals in operation and seven others under course of construction. This hospital property is valued at approximately $7,000,000 and these institutions last year treated 46,000 patients many of them being charity cases. Southern Baptists also operate 19 orphanages in which approximately 5,000 orphan boys and girls are cared for, educated and trained for Christian citizenship.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 85

LEGION LAWMAKER ALL THERE

Youngest Member of North Dakota Legislature Produces Results for His Fellow Buddies.

To Robert J. Boyd, a member of Gilbert C. Grafton Post No. 2 of the American Legion at Fargo, N. D., goes the honor of being the youngest member of the house of representatives of the North Dakota legislature. He is twenty-five years old.

A former president of the Fargo Trade and Labor assembly and an active member of the Pressmen's union at Fargo, Mr. Boyd was active in support of several bills advantageous to organized labor. He was also a strong advocate of legislation backed by the North Dakota department of the Legion.

Among the results of his work are: the passage of bills making Armistice day a legal holiday, protecting the Legion emblem and increasing tax for bonus fund from three-fourths to one mill on taxable property. He also led the fight which resulted in the passage of a resolution urging congress to pass the Fordney five-fold compensation bill, a measure backed by the Legion.

Victory for the Legion.

The closing of the United States public health service hospital for tubercular ex-service men at Markle-ton, Pa., by order of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Ewing Laporte, is regarded by American Legion officials as a great victory for the ex-service men's national policy in regard to disabled veterans. This hospital was first denounced as an improper place for the treatment of tubercular ex-service men by E. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the American Legion, in a speech in Philadelphia last November. His stand followed numerous investigations made by government authorities, and a public appeal from 96 tubercular veterans being treated there.

First in Membership Contest.

In the first published list of leading posts in the Kansas membership contest of the American Legion, Cal Mathewson post No. 280 of Edmond, Kan., takes first place. Next in order are the Legion posts at Sterling, Birkhart, Weir and Logan. Seventy-eight posts in Kansas have already passed their 1920 membership, while ten posts have no delinquent members.

A STITCH IN TIME

Midland People Should Not Neglect Their Kidneys

No kidney ailment is unimportant. Don't overlook the slightest back-ache or urinary irregularity. Nature may be warning you of approaching dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Kidney disease is seldom fatal if treated in time, but neglect may pave the way. Don't neglect a lame or aching back another day. Don't ignore dizzy spells, headaches, weariness or depression. If you feel you need kidney help begin using the reliable, time-tried remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. For 50 years, Doan's have been found effective. Endorsed by Midland people.

Mrs. O. F. Wells says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have found them to be the only remedy I can depend on to do me good. There are times when I do a little heavy lifting or too much housework that I get a catch in the small of my back and my kidneys begin acting irregularly. For such spells I take a few Doan's Kidney Pills and they make me feel a lot better in every way. I would never be without a box of Doan's on hand."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wells had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 52t

Buick cars are built so they can be operated with a minimum of expense. If a part needs attention it is easily accessible. For instance, adjusting or putting a new fan belt on a Buick is a job that is handled by the owner in a few minutes. Buick invites comparison.

LEGION MAN LOST NO TIME

North Carolina Lieutenant Rose From Farmer Boy to Numerous Ranks During War.

From farmer boy to high school teacher and later a lawyer and from back private to first lieutenant are the records of Cale K. Burgess, the first department commander of the American Legion in North Carolina, who was the pioneer Legionnaire in his state. Burgess is adjutant and finance officer of the North Carolina department.

Born July 15, 1891, at Old Trap, Camden County, N. C., Burgess was reared on a farm. He received his early education at the village public school and later was graduated from Whitsett Institute, from which he entered the University of North Carolina. He received his bachelor of arts degree in 1912 and taught science in the public high school at Raleigh two years, studying law at the same time. In September, 1913, he was granted a license to practice law in North Carolina and pursued the practice of his profession until July, 1917, when he enlisted as a private in the First N. C. F. A. N. G., which regiment was soon afterward mustered into Federal service as the 113th F. A., 30th Division.

During the St. Mihiel offensive he served as artillery liaison officer. In the Argonne offensive and until after the signing of the armistice he served as regimental intelligence officer. He was in service eighteen months and served as private, corporal, sergeant, battalion sergeant-major, regimental sergeant-major, second lieutenant and first lieutenant. With the latter rank he served as adjutant of his regiment during the last months of his service.

No Trespassers Allowed.

One of the wings of the plane had broken, and its pilot, after crashing through a mass of planking and plaster, found himself resting on a concrete surface in utter darkness.

"Where am I?" he asked feebly.

"You're in my cellar," came an ominous voice out of the blackness. "But I'm watching you."—American Legion Weekly.

LEGION OFFICER KNOWS NAVY

Edward Spafford, Chairman of Committee on Naval Affairs, Has Climbed the Ladder.

Edward Elwell Spafford, newly appointed chairman of the American Legion's committee on naval affairs, knows the United States navy on land and on sea as few other men do.

Born in Springfield, Vt., Mr. Spafford was educated in the public schools. He received an appointment to the United States

Naval Academy in 1901. Assigned to the ship Washington, he became gunnery officer; at that time he was the youngest officer in the navy to hold this position.

While the Washington was lying off Cape Hatteras a sailor was washed overboard in a heavy sea. Risking his life in the waves, Mr. Spafford plunged overboard and succeeded in rescuing the seaman. His bravery was recognized in a letter of commendation from the secretary of the navy. He rose to the rank of lieutenant commander.

In 1914 Mr. Spafford resigned from the navy to study law at Columbia university.

With the start of the war Mr. Spafford offered his services to his country and he was made a lieutenant commander in the navy reserve corps. He served for a time as a member of the board of inspection and survey, which was in charge of the selection of ships to be purchased by the government. He directed the fitting out of the first 25 110-foot submarine chasers built for distance service and established a submarine chaser base at New London, Conn.

When the American navy became active in the Straits of Otranto, Mr. Spafford was sent to establish a submarine chaser base at Corfu, Greece, and later became chief of staff of that station. He was in charge of all operations and was on the first American submarine chaser which destroyed an enemy ship after locating it by the process of sound contact.

When the Austrians surrendered two battleships and two destroyers to the United States, Lieutenant Commander Spafford took them over. Later, he investigated the situation along the Dalmatian coast and made a special report on Fiume to the American peace delegation at Paris. He received the Distinguished Service Medal.

Mr. Spafford is a member of Manhattan naval post of the American Legion in New York city.

SAYS NO MAN HER SUPERIOR

Bright-Eyed Sergeant and Vice Commander of Post Bluffed Mr. Silver-Eagles.

Who else but a bright-eyed, smiling American girl could have gotten away with it?

Sergeant Minnie Arthur of the United States marine corps was on duty in a recruiting office in Indianapolis, Ind., during the war. The major in charge was nervous; a colonel from Washington was coming to inspect; everyone brushed up on rules of military conduct. In walked the austere colonel. Sergeant Arthur remained working at her desk. Silver-eagles walked over to her desk and frowned.

"Um—ever get up when an officer comes in the room, sergeant?" he growled.

"Yes, sir, sometimes," Miss Three Stripes replied.

"Um—and I suppose you salute your superiors, too, eh?"

Sergeant Arthur smiled sweetly—and then her eyes snapped.

"Sir, I've never seen a man yet who was my superior!"

And the colonel passed it off without a reprimand.

Miss Arthur, now vice-commander of Robert E. Kennington post of the American Legion in Indianapolis, enlisted for four years and served 18 months. She is still in the reserve, drawing $1 a month with which she buys hair nets. She is authority on Librarian golf and plays a good hand at "blackjack."

"We had quite a game up to the boarding house last night."

"Poker?"

"No. The landlady was going to lick one of the boys for not paying his board. I tried to check her, she jumped me, crowned him and told us both to move."

"Did you do it?"

Carrying on With the American Legion

(Copy for This Department Supplied by the American Legion News Service.)

Russel C. Gross of Philadelphia who filled Slacker Bergdoll's place in the army and who was killed in action in France after winning a citation for bravery, will be honored by the Overbrook, Penn., post of the American Legion, whose members have decided to name their projected community house for the hero. The Overbrook post will also change its name to the Russel C. Gross post.

The apprehension of nearly 500 draft deserters since the publication of the slacker lists began has justified the position of army officials and the American Legion in their stand favoring the publication of the list. About half of the 60,000 names of deserters have been published and of the 500 men arrested through the publicity of the lists, 200 have been tried and 90 convicted.

William G. Rockefeller, a brother of John D., attended an American Legion Carnival at Greenwich, Conn., recently. The following day there was delivered to Mr. Rockefeller's garage a shiny new flivver sedan. It cost him $15 which is the sum he had paid for entrance tickets. One of the tickets was numbered 13, which proved to be the lucky number.

In Florida they look at hot weather as a state of mind. It was announced that the American Legion football squad of Jacksonville had begun practice. The team is coached by Joe Berchan, who was on the coaching staff of the University of Georgia. The Jacksonville soldiers expect to have one of the strongest teams in the south.

While citizens of Ephrata, Washington, were discussing plans for a public park, which has been talked about for years, members of the American Legion organized a working crew with wagons, shovels, rakes and picks and converted a vacant lot into a park with lawn, trees and walks, thus putting an end to the discussions.

A fund for the erection of a monument as a memorial to the late F. W. Galbraith Jr., national commander of the American Legion, has been started by Hopwood post at Pittsburgh, Pa. The post has forwarded to the national headquarters of the Legion a check covering its contribution to such a fund.

Members of the American Legion at Anthony, Kansas, determined to earn enough money shocking wheat to pay for the equipment of their new club rooms. They contracted to shock 500 acres of wheat and each evening at 6 o'clock they went to the fields and worked until dusk. They expected to earn about $400.

The Blue and Gray Association of Oklahoma has announced that it will turn over its reunion grounds and buildings at Bridgeport, Oklahoma, to the American Legion of that place on September 1. The grounds have been used for reunions of Civil war veterans for many years.

California is far in the lead of other states in providing legislative reward and rehabilitation for service men of the World War according to Gov. William D. Stephens, who has signed five welfare bills introduced and sponsored by the American Legion department of California.

Sergt. Alvin York, famed for his individual war record, has enrolled as a member of the David King Summers post of the American Legion at Chattanooga, Tenn. York was present at the organization of the Legion in Paris in 1919.

Fifty dollars reward for the apprehension of an army deserter will be used by the American Legion of Hardin, Mont., as part of a fund for relief work. The deserter's arrest was caused by the post commander.

After crushing a poppy he had purchased and then making disloyal remarks, Ralph Altman of Melrose, Minn., apologized for the act before members of the American Legion post at Melrose. The apology was accepted.

An American Legion baseball team at Rayne, La., defeated a girls' team in a recent game, after which both teams were entertained at a tea and dance given by the legion post.

Members of the St. Charles, Mo., post of the American Legion recently held a "hammer and saw" meeting at which a portable dance-floor was erected in three hours.

The Azalea Post of the American Legion at Oteen, N. C., has announced plans for collecting a fund to be distributed as needed to disabled soldiers of the post.

New American Legion posts have been organized in Minnesota at Brook Park, Clarissa, Morgan Park, Duluth, Birchdale and Albany making a total of 483 Legion posts in the state.

An exclusive section of Rose Hill Burial Park, New Orleans, La., has been set aside for use of American Legion posts of the city.

COMMANDS NEW S. S. 'LEGION'

Captain Corkum Soon to Make Trip to South America—Sent Two Subs Down.

Capt. Alex C. Corkum, commander of the new S. S. American Legion, is accredited with having sunk two German submarines while he was commander of the U. S. transport "Amphion" in naval transport service during the war.

Preparations are now under way for a two-day trial trip of the "American Legion" from Camden, N. J., where it was constructed by the New York Ship Building corporation for the United States shipping board. John G. Emery, national commander of the American Legion, together with other officials of the legion and representatives of this and other countries will be on board the ship during the trial trip.

Captain Corkum, besides his submarine sinking record, is famous for having established a new world's record for running time between New York and South America. The "American Legion" will be operated between New York and South American ports.

EVERY MEMBER GET ANOTHER

Indications Are That Big Campaign Will Double Membership of American Legion.

The "every-member-get-a-member" campaign of the American Legion has begun, and reports received at the national headquarters at Indianapolis indicate that the purpose of the campaign, to double the membership, will soon be accomplished.

To double the membership of the Legion was the ardent wish of F. W. Galbraith Jr., late national commander, who was killed in an automobile accident at Indianapolis. His successor, John G. Emery of Grand Rapids, Mich., was probably the first member of the Legion to get a member when the present campaign opened.

Mr. Galbraith planned the campaign a short time before his death. He was anxious to have the membership doubled by October. It now appears that the campaign will end before that time.

In his statement setting out plans for the campaign, Mr. Galbraith said: "The Legion has earned the right to do something in a national way primarily in the interests of its organization, and the time has come to exercise that right. I propose that the American Legion shall exactly double its membership. A tremendous undertaking you say. Yes, tremendously simple. Just an intensive effort when every Legion member in the world shall go out, lay a firm but friendly hand upon a buddy and sign him up. Every member get a member—and the job is done."

Peter Masterson of New York's "Finest," Commands an Organization of 1,200 Members.

Twelve hundred members of the "finest police force in the world" who saw service in the World War, have banded themselves together in the General Lafayette Police post of the American Legion, New York city. Peter J. Masterson, a lieutenant of police, commands the organization.

The New York force lost 802 traffic cops, plain and fancy patrolmen, detectives, desk sergeants and police officers, when America sent out her general alarm for the roundup of Germany. Ten percent of these men received commissions in the army and navy, and 50 percent of them won promotion, both in the ranks and among the shoulder straps. Nineteen bluecoats were awarded the Croix de Guerre for gallantry in action, and the same number were killed in battle. The police post buried the 19 dead with military and police honors.

The soldier-police men have their own summer resort, maintained by the post, at Broad Channel, Long Island, where they may spend their annual vacations. They will form an auxiliary to their post this fall, as most of the force are married.

Chamberlain's Tablets Have Done Her a World of Good

"Chamberlain's Tablets have done me a world of good," writes Mrs. Ella L. Button, Kirville, N. C., "I have recommended them to a number of my friends and all who have used them praise them highly." When troubled with indigestion or constipation, give them a trial and realize for yourself what an excellent medicine it is.

SAKE BITE REMEDY SAID TO BE RELIABLE

Continued reports of fatalities from snake bites in Texas during the extreme hot weather, call forth protest from D. N. McCrea, the well known old-time citizen of Lometa, because he says these deaths are wholly unnecessary. After trying a very simple remedy for the past 42 years in Lampasas County and seeing it bring positive relief every time out of forty or fifty trials, Mr. McCrea has every reason to believe the remedy a positive one.

ENDANGERS SECURITY OF U. S.

Manhattan Post of Legion Condemns Action of Navy Department in Releasing 200,000 Members.

That the security of the United States is endangered by the release by the Navy department of nearly 200,000 members of the naval reserve force, is the opinion of members of Manhattan naval post, American Legion, New York, who have adopted a resolution terming the dropping of the reservists as "breaking the back of the reserves."

Cause of Mirth. When the young mistress of the house entered the kitchen she carried herself with great dignity. She had, incredible as it might seem, come to call the cook to account. "Bridget," she said, "I must insist you have less company in the kitchen evenings. Last night I was kept awake by the uproarious laughter of one of your women friends."

How Not to Take Cold

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over-heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excesses, over eating, becoming over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet.

Wednesday Club Hostesses

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gary and Mrs. Margaret D. Watts were the honor guests on last Tuesday evening at one of the most elaborate and beautifully appointed affairs of the season when the Wednesday Club entertained at the Yeakel Hotel with a dinner party. Covers were laid for the honorees, the ladies of the club and their husbands at the table which was exquisite in its decorations of pink and white. The centre piece was a basket of Killarney roses with streamers of pink ribbons running to the corners, thus lending additional beauty to the scene. After the sumptuous dinner so marvelously prepared and served, had been enjoyed the party adjourned to the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scharbauer where the evening was happily spent in playing games.

The Triangle Club

A number of young people of the Christian church met at the residence of Mrs. I. H. Teel on last Tuesday evening and organized a missionary society to be known as the Triangle Club. Miss Ina Beth Whitefield was elected president, Miss Lois Estes, vice president; Miss Mary Bradshaw, secretary, and Miss Maurine Winborn, treasurer. After the program a number of interesting games were enjoyed, at the conclusion of which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Epworth League Entertain

An affair that was especially enjoyable and interesting was given on last Friday evening when Mr. Pray-ther Benedict was host to the Epworth League. The house was tastefully decorated in autumn flowers. About sixty young people were in attendance and this, added to the cordiality of the young host's genial father and mother made the affair a most happy event. Many games were played as a diversion, and at a late hour the most delectable cake and coffee were served.

Miss Laura Johnson, Honoree

Yesterday afternoon Miss Laura Johnson, whose wedding to Mr. Stacy Allen is scheduled for the near future was the honor guest at a miscellaneous shower, given at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Brunson. A suitable account of this charming affair will be given in our next issue.

The Laddies Auxiliary of the Baptist church met in regular business meeting Monday afternoon at the church. After a devotional service a business session followed. At this time our president, Mrs. Frank Norwood resigned, her reason being that her health prevented her in performing this duty as effectively as she thought it should be done. The meeting was then turned over to the study of the W. M. A. Manual. Several members discussed the lesson, which completed our book. Two days last week both Circles Nos. 1 and 2 met at the homes of Mrs. John Hix and Mrs. O. J. Hull for all day work. This work was for the benefit of the Buckner Orphan Home. These all day workings not only helps in a material way but also keeps up a spirit of Christian fellowship among the women of the church that is so essential to the upbuilding of the Lord's work.—Reporter.

Mrs. N. D. Largent, of Big Spring, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Harmon. Wednesday Mrs. Chas. Gibbs gave a dinner party in compliment to this esteemed lady and many other affairs are being given in her honor. Mrs. Largent is so lovingly and cordially remembered by many Midland friends who are delighted to welcome her again.

Miss Alma Brunson returned on Thursday from a most delightful trip to Dallas and Houston. She attended fairs in both cities and while in Houston also attended grand opera.

Miss Mary Barron left Friday of last week for Dublin, where she was an attendant at a wedding.

CHURCH NOTICES

Methodist Church

As we begin our year of church work in Midland we feel greatly encouraged with the opportunities as they are opening before us. The welcome extended to us has been one of mutual friendship and willingness on the part of our membership to co-operate with us in our program for the year. If it were possible for me to briefly state the policy of the pastor for the year it would be in these words, that I expect during this year to try to present the constructive program of Jesus Christ as an essential necessity for the disturbed conditions as they exist both in the world and in the individual. Never before has the world stood in such great need of the power as it alone can come from Him who so willingly gave himself for us. We are ready at all times to co-operate with all movements which have as their ultimate realization the betterment of the moral conditions either locally or nationally.

This is the week designated by our church leaders as a week of prayer among the women in the missionary society work. As a conclusion to the week of prayer the society has requested that I use the morning service of next Sunday to bring a message on "The Power of Prayer." We trust there may be a large congregation present at that time to hear the message.

The pastor is ready at any time to meet the needs of those it is within his power to assist. Feel free to call upon him at any time.

W. A. SMITH, Pastor.

Sunday School 9:45 a. m. Worship both morning and evening. Topic for morning, "The Appalling Destruction of Men and Money in Modern Warfare."

This is at the request of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, of which the Presbyterian church is a member. The request has also been made from other sources, all in view of the meeting of the disarmament conference at Washington. Text, 2 Kings 5:25: And there was a great famine in Samaria, and behold, they besieged it, an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver ($44) and the fourth part of a cab (3-4 of a pint) of doves dung for 5 pieces of silver, ($2.75). And in the 29th verse we are told that the women killed and ate their own children. I know of no passage in the Bible that shows the horrors of war to such an extent as this lesson. The horrors of war is nothing new, it is as old as war, and it cannot be tamed, it is "hell," as Mr. Sherman said.

A Timely Suggestion

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. adv. Nov 1mt

THE U. S. NOBBY TREAD

Where the going is specially heavy with snow, mud or sand, in hilly country where maximum traction on the road is a factor, no other tire tread yet devised is quite so effective, or so wholly approved by motoring opinion, as the U. S. Nobby Tread.

Its very simplicity—three rows of diagonal knobs, gripping the road—is the result of all the years of U. S. Rubber experience with every type of road the world over.

If every one listened to experience, how much they'd save

STOP and talk to the next man you see with U. S. Tires on his car. Ask him why.

Most likely you'll hear an interesting story about his tire experiments—before the answer was found. Money wasted. Promises unkept. Trouble on the road—humorous to every one except the man who went through it.

Finally U. S. Tires. And U. S. Tires ever since.

Perhaps it's the experience of U. S. Tire buyers that makes them more emphatic in their preference than ever this year.

When these men have tried most everything by the way of "staggering bargains", "hurrah discounts", "discontinued lines at less" and so forth they know what not to get.

They want a fresh, live tire. With a good reputation. That's everything it says it is. With the people behind it who back it up.

There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Your local U. S. Dealer is drawing upon them continually to keep his stocks sized up, complete—to give you service.

Whenever he gets one or a hundred tires from a U. S. Factory Branch, they are newly made this season's tires.

Sold to you at a net price. Full values. Square-dealing. A reputable maker. A reputable dealer. The whole transaction as befits the leadership of the oldest and largest rubber organization in the world.
