UNEMPLOYMENT BILL IS CERTAIN

WEST CERTAIN TO GRAB SEAT FOR CONGRESS

McAllen Opponent Is Trailing Badly in Contest

UVALDE, March 16. (UP)—Milton H. West of Brownsville virtually was assured the fifteenth district congressional seat of John Garner today as result of the democratic run-off yesterday which gave him 1465 votes and Gordon Griffith of McAllen 10,008.

All 23 of the counties in the district had reported, seventeen completely. It was estimated that only 800 votes were out.

The run-off winner meets Carlos C. Watson of Brownsville, independent-republican candidate, in a general election next month.

Rotarians Discuss Business Visits

Accounts of recent visits in the places of business of fellow Rotarians were given by members today as they sat at the luncheon table today and made informal and, for the most part, humorous extemporaneous talks. The program was in charge of E. H. Barron, chairman of the fellowship committee, and was designed to refute charges made by a Rotary Ann on the ladies' night program a week ago.

The chairman, after hearing the talks, judged that the Rotary Ann's charges were correct.

Jack Fannin and J. F. Hall, members of the East Ward and Big Spring clubs respectively, made brief talks. Music was furnished by a volunteer quartet. The chairman replaced one member with another and called for more songs.

Headlight Tests Requirements End

The 25c a year expenditure that automobile owners have made in the past to have their headlights tested became officially a thing of the past Wednesday.

The tax collector received from L. C. Phares, chief of the state highway patrol, notice that the bill repealing the headlight testing law had become effective. He was informed that tax collectors should register automobiles without requiring a headlight test certificate.

The commissioners' court will pass an order discontinuing headlight testing stations in this county.

Headlight stations possessing unused receipts may receive refunds if application is made by April 1.

New Bill Would Change Terms

BIG SPRING—A bill designed to afford both Nolan and Howard counties twenty-two weeks of district court by removing Howard from the 32nd to the 70th district will have the support of representatives and will have representatives of the two counties, members of the Big Spring and Sweetwater bars have been informed.

Legislators from this section have pledged support to any redistricting measure suitable to the Big Spring and Sweetwater bars. A bill drawn up by Nolan county attorneys and sanctioned by the Big Spring bar will be rushed to Austin for consideration.

Under the new plan affecting the 32nd, 70th, and 109th districts, the former will be reduced to contain only Nolan, Borden, Mitchell and Scurry. Twenty-two weeks goes to Nolan in two eight and one six weeks terms. Mitchell gets thirteen weeks in two four and one five weeks terms. Scurry comes in for eleven weeks in two four and one three weeks terms. Borden is scheduled for two weeks, one at a time.

With the expiration of the 32nd special court, Howard county demands twenty weeks of court as does Nolan. This being the case, Scurry, Mitchell and Borden would have only eight weeks to divide among them.

The revamped 70th district would allow Howard her twenty-two weeks of court in two eight and one six weeks terms. Midland would come in for twelve weeks in three four weeks terms. Martin would get six weeks in two three weeks terms. Ector would have a similar arrangement and distribution of time, while Glasscock would be given two weeks, widely separated.

Entrance of Howard into the 70th district would, under the proposed measure, exclude Andrews from the district. In turn, Andrews would become a part of the 109th with Reeves, Crane, Andrews, Loving, Ward, and Winkler.

Objection to the measure has been voiced in counties included in the 70th district. Howard county would have more voting power than the rest of the county combined.

Charles L. Klappoth is incumbent judge of the 70th district and Bob Smith of Odessa is district attorney. Placine Howard in the 70th district and removal of Andrews to the 109th will reduce the amount of idle time for the district judge from approximately sixteen weeks now to four weeks.

The bill provides that it shall go into effect August 1, 1933, the date the 32nd special court, presided over by Judge James T. Brooks of this city, expires.

How Roosevelt May Slash Veterans' Billion-a-Year Drain on Treasury

The above chart shows federal appropriations for the fiscal year ending July 1, 1933. Veterans' appropriations represent about one-fourth of the government's total expenditures. The comparison at the right shows how there are approximately 100,000 more veterans receiving monthly payments for non-service connected disabilities and those whose disabilities are service-connected.

Golfers to Decide Important Points

An important decision must be acted on tonight at country club, when golfers in full strength are asked to ballot on whether re-qualifying for handicaps should follow the moving here of new members whose worth to the Sand Belt golf team is unquestionable.

Midland's membership in the K&K Klaw association also will be discussed.

Prominent golfers on the ladder insist that a new qualifying would let new members take their places on the team faster than the method allowed in the challenge matches on the ladder may keep their handicaps without having to play new rounds if they choose—or that is the plan generally proposed.

The meeting begins at 8 o'clock.

MARION F. PETERS

The Lions club of Midland is well organized for a drive to advance its candidate, Marion F. Peters, to the governorship of District Two-T. One other man, an El Pasoan, is opposing Peters for the honor.

LIONS HARD AT WORK FOR LOCAL CLUB CANDIDATE

Lions of Midland have not only nominated Marion F. Peters, their president, for governor of District Two-T, but they are working energetically at the job.

This week shows they mailed out to the 53 clubs in this district a clever page of cartoons contributed by Chauncey Garrison, postoffice clerk.

The cartoons showed pictorially the versatility of the Midland civic leader and the many community tasks at which he works.

The cleverest of the group showed two Lions branding a third lion with a "D. C." meaning district governor. L. H. Tiffin ran the cartoons off on a hectograph.

Letters went out to the various clubs earlier in the month asking their support of the Midland man. Newspaper stories prepared by the number of commerce extolling Peters as a civic leader and an outstanding Lion will be made out by the Peters campaign committee the last of the week.

James S. Nolan is campaign chairman and his committeemen are Marvin C. Ulmer and Marion Seymour. This committee has still other literature and stunts planned.

An El Paso man has announced for district governor also. District Two-T embraces territory from Sweetwater to El Paso and from Alpine to the Oklahoma line.

Victory for Peters will be a big compliment to him and much publicity for Midland.

Kills Bulls; Faint In Slaughter House

EL PASO. (UP)—Killing fighting bulls with swords is sport for Jose Ortiz, prominent Mexican matador, but thoughts of a slaughter house make him shudder.

He complained here recently the poor animals in the packing plants didn't have a chance whereas the bulls in the arena have a chance to gore the matador.

"You say the bull in the arena doesn't have a chance?" Ortiz asked. "Try fighting one yourself."

Only one-third of the matadors finish their careers, he offered as further proof of the bull's chances.

On the same day a girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Heidelberg, who live southeast of Midland.

CITIZENS MUST BACK ROOSEVELT

The most important duty facing the American people today is that they give complete and unqualified support to President Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt began his administration by using war power. He was entirely justified in doing so. Today's emergency is as critical as any war could be.

But if we are to meet this emergency as a war, and if our president is to exercise broad war-time powers in attacking it, there is a responsibility on us as citizens—to form a united column in support of the president.

In time of war there is no room for partisanship, no room for protracted debate, no room for petty criticism. That is equally true of the present emergency. What the president does he must do quickly and decisively. We, the ordinary citizens of the land, must help him.

The most encouraging feature of the day's news is that the era of inaction has come to an end. We are to be led again, and it is apparent that we are to be led at a fairly rapid pace. We have got to be ready to follow our leader with all the enthusiasm and devotion we can muster.

There is no other possible way in which we can get past our troubles. Even mistaken action is better than no action at all. If, later on, we find that we have gone in the wrong direction, we can settle things in the constitutional way. For the moment it is our part to follow.

For the simple fact of the matter is that no American who wants his own lot to improve can do anything else than hope for the success of the Roosevelt administration. If Mr. Roosevelt fails, we all fail. Whether we like it or not, we are bound to his star. In sheer self-interest we must help it to rise.

That this puts a colossal responsibility on President Roosevelt's shoulders goes without saying. But this responsibility we share. We must unite behind him—and, in that way, help him to help all of us.

WOMEN TEACHERS

The predominance of women teachers in American schools is one of "the most flagrant flaws" in the American school system, according to Dean Louis T. More of the University of Cincinnati graduate school.

Women teachers, says Dean More, lack the intellectual patience of men teachers, and are more interested in getting married than in holding down their jobs. Furthermore, they are partly responsible for a type of student "essentially undisciplined and flabby."

Here is a little expression of opinion which will probably involve the Cincinnati dean in a whole series of red-hot arguments. And it is doubtful if any large percentage of ordinary citizens will come to the dean's support. The American school-ma'am, all things considered, does a very good job, devotes lots of energy to it and does not get overpaid. The school system contains more serious defects than the sex of its teaching staff.

The move to tax motortrucks to give the railroad an even break in transportation arouses an unsuspected friend of the trucks—the farmer. The New England farmer in particular steps out as a champion. "The motortruck has put us into markets we never could have reached by rail," say the growers. All of which probably means that the great transportation puzzle is even a little more complicated than it has seemed.

Arizona prepares to send a train of covered wagons, drawn by mules, across the continent to visit Washington, New York, and then to become an exhibit at the Chicago World's fair. The covered wagon went from East to West three-quarters of a century ago as the chariot of a people's mightiest hopes; it may well roll back from West to East as the chariot of hopes fulfilled.

Over in another town a traveling man who usually stops at Midland said to the hotel proprietor, "You say your hotel is the best in town? That may be a boost for your hotel but it is a knock for your town."

A local man said he married a woman because she was different from all other women he knew. She was the only one who would have him.

It did me a lot of good yesterday to see how the public reacted to the reopening of the banks. Our banks stack up strong, so strong that they were in the first list to be opened after those in federal reserve cities and in cities where there are clearing house associations had been opened.

The people here were sensible all right, the banks were closed and did not lose any confidence. They knew it was just for the time necessary to revamp the national situation and they had confidence in the banks and in the president. How well and how quickly Roosevelt acted bore out the fact that this confidence

Bonfires Aided Pioneer Pilots

CHICAGO. (UP).—While the Lindbergh and other successful trans-oceanic flights are most vivid in the public's mind, pioneers in the industry this month are recalling the twelfth anniversary of a flight made by air mail pilots, which wrote history in 1921 by flying the first continuous coast-to-coast schedule, much of it at night, over airways lighted by bonfires.

Prior to the winter of 1921 air letters were flown by day and trained at night on the New York-San Francisco route, then as now, the backbone line of the air network. To convince congress of the time sayings which were made by flying at night as well as by day, if the airway was lighted, a group of air mail pilots volunteered to push the mail across the country in a continuous flight.

Thirty-three and a half hours after the flight had commenced at San Francisco, the mail was landed in New York.

That first night flight was the fore-runner of today's dusk-to-dawn flying and on the New York-San Francisco route United Air Lines now flies 4,000,000 miles annually at night, making possible a one business day service across the states.

A POOR REWARD

COLUMBUS, O.—Little Betty Chapin, 9, received a bad bite when she tried to help a dog which had been run over by an automobile. The dog was fatally hurt and probably in great pain. When Betty tried to pick the dog up it turned and bit her. In the hospital where Betty was treated she said, "I guess the doggie didn't like me."

Mrs. A. E. Pistole and Mrs. E. O. Ellington of Big Spring were in Midland Wednesday visiting friends and transacting business.

Robyn Club Gives A "Pop" Program

A "pop" program, an impromptu program on which children play without their music, was presented Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the Robyn club at the Watson School of Music studio.

Members of the club called on others to play and Edith Wemple, Maxine O'Neal, Lulu Vanlandingham, Reynour Schneider, Willie Josephine Barber, Dorothy Sue Miles, Norine Barber, Frances Ellen Link, Mary Ruth Ray, Frances Wade, Billie Wade, Adren Wright, Dean Gemmill, Marian and Marie Newton and Anna Minter responded without any previous warning.

After each number, other members criticised the playing, proving that they are becoming intelligent listeners.

The next meeting will be called "Red Star Day." All mothers will be invited to hear the program.

"Walking Suit Case" Arrested

MERIDIAN, Miss. (UP).—A "walking suit case" in the form of a negro, arrested by local police officers, told Chief of Police M. H. Yarbrough that he "was just trying to keep warm."

Taken to headquarters and searched, Joe Davis, the black, was found to be wearing four suits of clothes, seven shirts, two suits of overalls, a jumper and an overcoat.

Davis was held for "investigation" as a "dangerous and suspicious character."
