MUSSOLINI FORMS PACT PLAN FOR EUROPE'S PEACE

Attempted Plot to Kill Hitler Is Reported

By United Press Latest European developments assembled by the United Press news bureaus today, were as follows:

Premier Mussolini of Italy, Great Britain, France and Germany to insure peace in Europe for at least one generation.

It was indicated that the United States will be invited to study the project and to join in a consultative capacity.

Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain was en route to Paris to confer with Premier Daladier after his own five year arms limitation plan was substituted by Mussolini's.

France probably will want more British pledges in return for concessions by Italy and Germany.

The League of Nations announced that the United States had accepted an invitation to cooperate on the Leticia dispute.

Norman H. Davis, United States disarmament chairman, will leave for Geneva Thursday.

ATTEMPT MADE ON HITLER'S LIFE

MUNICH, March 20. (UP)—An attempted plot to kill Chancellor Adolf Hitler was reported today, as he left his home for the airport, preparatory to a flight to Berlin.

Dismiss Jury in Hillsboro Trial

HILLSBORO, March 20. (UP)—Judge W. L. Wray dismisses a jury which had been deliberating for 91 hours, failing to reach a verdict in the case against Raymond Hamilton, 19, charged with the murder of John Bucher here last April.

Mutton Barbecue Plan of Class

The Men's class of Hotel Scharbauer will have a mutton barbecue at Cloverdale early in May, probably the first Sunday. T. M. McKnight, cattlemen and sheep man, will be host.

B. H. Blakeney is captain of the north side of the Hotel Scharbauer dining room where the men meet Sunday and Cottey Hiett is captain of the south side.

The men were evenly divided Sunday to begin the contest. The total attendance Sunday was 60 men, though at the division time only 25 men to a side were placed.

The attendance contest will rage for the next five Sundays. The losing side must look after the beans, coffee and wood for the barbecue.

Every man in Midland is invited to join, if he isn't attending elsewhere. It was announced that men without regular good paying jobs should not put anything in the collection plate, as unemployed men are wanted as members. It is likely two other barbecues will be given later in the year.

Mrs. Chivers Dies Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. L. H. Chivers, wife of a Midland county farmer living at the Moore Dawson place northwest of town, died Sunday evening following complications from a major operation performed at a local hospital Friday.

The body was taken to Colorado last night and funeral services will be held this afternoon there. Family members were accompanied to Colorado by a number of friends from that city who came here last night upon receipt of news of this death.

Mrs. Chivers is survived by her husband and a son here, and two daughters who live at Colorado.

Insects Basis of Sermon Lessons

Lessons from insects and other animals were presented to an audience at the Baptist church Sunday night by the pastor, Rev. Winston F. Borum in a fashion to interest the philosopher as well as the child and the average man.

The minister drew his comparisons of human beings to the ant, the locust, the spider and the scorpion in such a practical way that every person present could see in himself traits of character to cultivate and certain traits to stifle. The sermon was declared by the minister's auditors to have been a contemporaneous parable of life which was concretely helpful to all who listened with their inner ears.

Fitz Invited Sing Before Legislature

Professor Theophilus Fitz has been invited to sing before the Texas House of Representatives. He will sing in the state capitol at Austin March 29. The Midland singer and composer will be introduced by Representative B. Frank Haag.

Arrangements for this publicity from Midland before the House were made by Representative Haag on suggestion of the Midland chamber of commerce. Professor Fitz will combine the trip to Austin with a business trip to San Antonio.

FORT WORTH, March 20.—Plans for the third annual spring polo tournament on Friday, April 14, have been launched by Cecil Childers, captain of El Ranchito Polo club, which will be host. Invitations have been sent to Oklahoma City, Wichita Falls, Houston, Dallas, San Angelo, Georgetown, Air Corps Training Center, San Antonio Infantry Brigade and the Eighth Corps Area.

Cotton Ginnings 4-Million Lower

WASHINGTON, March 20. (UP)—The census bureau today estimated that 12,703,000 bales of last year's cotton had been ginned, compared with 16,628,000 bales of the 1931 crop.

Sunday Tennis Is Texas U. Question

AUSTIN, (UP)—Shall tennis courts at the University of Texas be thrown open for usage on Sundays?

That is the question that Dr. H. Y. Benedict, university president, is now considering. The matter was submitted to him in a resolution signed by students. Dr. Benedict, in reply to the resolution, said the administration would give it serious thought.

While not ruling, he pointed out his communication that the principle involved was a broad one, whether the baseball diamond, handball courts, the gymnasium, libraries, classrooms, swimming pools should be opened on Sunday.

Indeed, for instance, is quite as helpful as tennis, and use of the football courts would certainly attract a public notice and unfavorable comment than use of tennis courts, he said.

DEBATE OPENS ON RACING BILL IN THE HOUSE TODAY

Hard Fight Seen on Measure Making Bets Legal

AUSTIN, March 20. (UP)—The house today began debate on the Duval bill to permit parimutuel betting on horse races.

J. C. Duval, the author, predicted that the measure would put $15,000,000 in capital to work and that the state tax on admissions and wagers would be great.

Representatives Fisher and Ray attacked the bill. Ray said bill-fighting would be legalized if the parimutuel bill passes.

Thursday was set to consider the Daniel bill changing the oil production tax from two per cent to two cents per barrel.

AUSTIN, March 20.—One of the major battles of the regular session of the Forty-Second Texas Legislature was expected to open this week when consideration of a bill to legalize betting on horse races was to start in the house.

The bill has been placed first on the house suspension calendar, but opponents could block its being placed before the house by refusing to give a vote to it. It was anticipated that an attempt would be made to prevent its being laid out as a suspension bill.

The bill would legalize the use of the parimutuel system of wagering. It would allow the county commissioners' courts to issue licenses for racing meets. The state would collect a portion of the commissions on wagers and also would levy a tax on admissions. Part of the taxes would go to the state school fund and a portion to the counties to aid in development of purebred horses.

Sponsors of the bill estimated it would raise approximately $800,000 the first year it was in operation.

Dub Stanley Is One Man Team at Barnhart Meet

Dub Stanley, called by San Angelo sports writers a "one man track team" from Midland, was the sensation of the high school meet at Barnhart, Saturday, winning the broad jump and the fifty and hundred yard dashes.

He was the runner-up junior, with fifteen points. San Angelo won first place in the meet with 33 points. Big Lake second with 35 1/2 and other teams were as follows: Iraan 21 1/2, Colorado 12 1/2, Ballinger 7 1/2, Sherwood 7, Eldorado 6, Ozona 5, Sonora 5 and Midland 4.

FARM BILL FACES AMENDMENTS AND DELAY THIS WEEK

WASHINGTON, March 20.—President Roosevelt's farm relief program will face a storm of amendments this week as congress considers the proposal through which the chief executive hopes to lift agricultural prices back to pre-war levels.

A wide variance of views virtually has shut out the prospect of quick and unanimous agreement such as that afforded other emergency proposals put forward by Roosevelt.

The best that friends of the program hoped for was that the measure would be in the hands of a conference committee by the end of the week. There were, however, forces which would tend to prolong that time.

Dr. Fred H. Albee, New York, professor of orthopedic surgery at Columbia university, is another speaker as is Dr. Julius J. Valentine, New York, urologist at the Doctors' hospital in that city.

In addition to the scientific sessions, the association members will find a full program of entertainment and recreation awaiting them and during their stay in Dallas. The Dallas chamber of commerce and other civic organizations are cooperating with local members of the medical profession in arranging the latter features of the convention.

Brief Outline of Farm Bill

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles by T. S. Hogan, Midland oil man and former senator from Montana, who is in Washington for the present session of congress. Sentiments expressed by the writer do not in any way represent, necessarily, those of The Reporter-Telegram.

1. Declares an economic emergency due to disparity in the price of farm products compared to other products.

(a) To balance production and consumption of farm products so as to establish the prices prevailing in the years 1909-14.

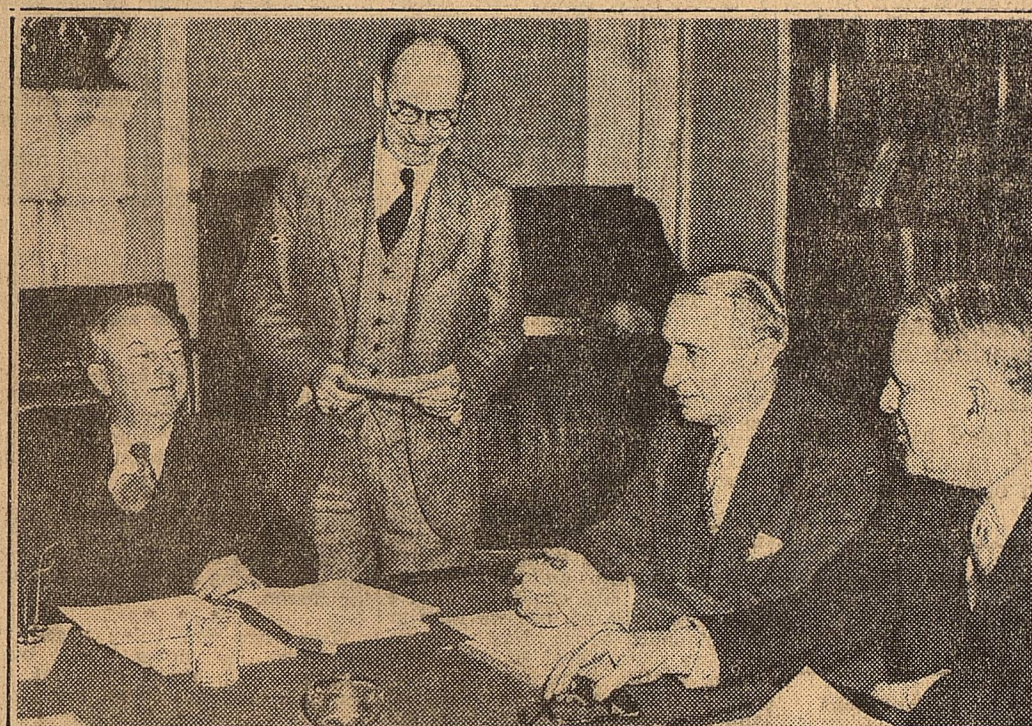

(b) To adjust the prices of what farmers produce on equality with what farmers buy, through a gradual process.

(c) To protect the consumers' interest by preventing processors and marketers from taking a larger percentage of the retail price than they did in the 1909-14 period.

2. Section 3 of the bill is a re-enactment of the Smith cotton bill which I fully covered in the February 17 issue of The Reporter-Telegram. The whole body of the bill was set out in that article so it is unnecessary to repeat it. For the convenience of those who did not read that article it may be said that the bill requires the E. F. C. to purchase all cotton held by any government agency and to give cotton growers who agree to reduce their acreage 30 per cent or more the right to take an option from the secretary of agriculture on the number of bales which it is estimated would otherwise be produced from the land left idle. The idle land must not be used in production of any nationally produced agricultural commodity or product.

(a) Under this sub-section is given unlimited power to issue and revoke licenses to persons, companies (See HOGAN, page 4)

Woman Deputy's Hobby Is Shooting

PARIS, Texas. (UP)—Target practice is the favorite sport of Miss Della Ashley of this city, only woman United States deputy marshal.

She can send five bullets from her six-shooter through a tin can tossed into the air before it reaches the earth. Occasionally she enjoys dancing, horseback riding or long walks, but this coming gray-haired officer of the law finds no time for pink teas and bridge parties.

SENATE, HOUSE AGREEMENT ON PER CENT SEEN

Economy Bill Signed By Roosevelt to Cut Salaries

WASHINGTON, March 20. (UP)—Senate and house conferees agreed today to legalize 3.2 per cent beer, wine and fruit juices and struck out the Borah amendment forbidding the sale or gift of beverages to minors under sixteen.

Senate conferees hoped to report a compromise late today. The house adjourned and the bill will not reach it before tomorrow. The bill will go to Roosevelt immediately after both houses finally agree.

If signed tomorrow, the beverage will be legal April 5.

WASHINGTON, March 20. (UP) Signature of President Roosevelt to the beer bill was expected tonight as the senate agreed in conference with the house on controversial points.

Leaders were confident of agreement on a compromise percentage of alcoholic content. It would give legal beverage by April 4.

PRESIDENT SIGNS ECONOMY BILL

WASHINGTON, March 20. (UP) President Roosevelt today signed the half billion dollar economy bill, cutting veterans' expenditures and federal salaries.

SEE EARLY VOTE ON STEAGALL BILL

WASHINGTON, March 20. (UP) The house gag rules today insured a vote by night on the Steagall bill to place state banks on a parity with national banks, enjoying the benefits of emergency financial legislation.

OHIO FLOODS BRING DEATHS, HEAVY DAMAGE

CINCINNATI, March 20. (UP)—The Ohio river bottom death toll today was five, with thousands homeless in the worst flood of twenty years.

The river was up sixty feet and still rising. The dead lost their lives when two cars overturned on embankments. They included John Bain, George Heidemam, Harry Lindeman, all of Covington, Ky., and Mrs. Hazel Harrison and her daughter, Aileen, 9, of Gallipolis.

The worst flood since 1913 paged all the way from West Virginia to Indiana, accompanied by four deaths and property damage as thousands of acres were inundated. Fortsnang was threatened as the swollen waters beat against a wall protecting the city, and the mayor issued a proclamation warning the residents to be ready to flee. All highways leading into the city were inundated.

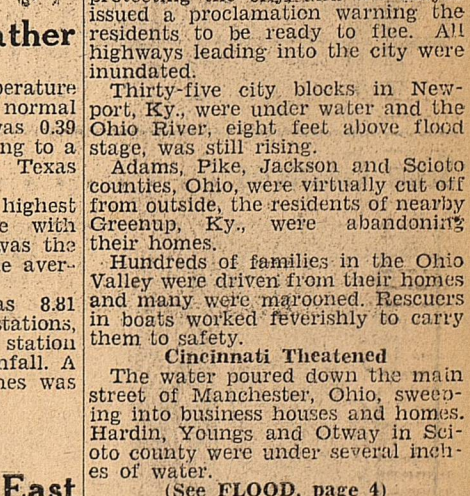

Thirty-five city blocks in Newport, Ky., were under water and the Ohio River, eight feet above flood stage, was still rising. All Adams, Pike, Jackson and Scioto counties, Ohio, were virtually cut off from outside, the residents of nearby Greensburg, Ky., were abandoning their homes.

Hundreds of families in the Ohio Valley were driven from their homes and many were marooned. Rescuers in boats worked feverishly to carry them to safety.

Cincinnati Threatened The water poured down the main street of Manchester, Ohio, sweeping into business houses and homes. Stardin, Youngs and Otway in Scioto county were under several inches of water. (See FLOOD, page 4)

WANT AMID PLENTY

Attorney General Patrick H. O'Brien of Michigan wants to see a bill put through the legislature which would empower the governor to take over idle manufacturing plants and lease them to communities as a means of unemployment relief.

Gov. William A. Comstock has indicated that he is not in sympathy with the scheme, and it is easy to think of a lot of reasons why it wouldn't work. But the idea back of it isn't as unsound as you might think.

To suffer from want in the midst of plenty is ridiculous. Yet that is precisely what we have been doing for the last three years. In the mere fact that people are suffering for want of goods while great factories are idle for want of orders there is an inconsistency so great that the flaws in some of the corrective panaceas which have been suggested look small by comparison.

While President Roosevelt did not need all the timber which was available for his Cabinet, much of the remainder can be used advantageously in other posts to reinforce the Ship of State.

The Chesterfield FORMULA - what is it?

The formulas and processes which make Chesterfield a milder and better-tasting cigarette are secret - to prevent others from copying them

If every person knew the method and processes of tanning leather, it would be of interest; but what people want to know is: Is it a good shoe? Is it comfortable? Will it wear longer? Is the price right?

So it is with Chesterfield Cigarettes. If smokers, men and women, knew all of the formulas and processes of manufacture, it would be of interest to them; but what smokers really want is the result.

Everything that goes into Chesterfield Cigarettes is as good as money can buy.

Every process has in it all that science knows about cigarette manufacture.

The formulas are secret to prevent others from copying them. The mildness and the better taste you may prove for yourself. May we ask you to try Chesterfield?

Wherever you buy Chesterfields, you get them just as fresh as if you came by our factory door and associations to engage in the "handing" of basic farm products.

Whether this will apply to all stores is not clear from the language of the bill.

A fine of $1,000 per day is provided for "handing" without such license. Every licensee must report to the secretary the amount of farm products bought and sold and the prices, etc.

It is this power to license, in other words to decide whether any dealer or processor shall remain in business, that the secretary expects to use to coerce obedience to the purposes of the bill.

(b) The secretary may change this tax if he finds the established rate causes material reduction of consumption of the farm products.

(c) Wages, habits of the people, and a multitude of other things may be considered by the secretary in fixing or changing the amount of this tax.

(d) The secretary may appoint the necessary officers and employees subject to civil service laws, as may be necessary. Not more than ten officials appointed under this act shall receive more than $7,500 a year.

(e) He may establish local committees, associations or cooperatives to act as agents in distributing rentals or benefits hereunder.

(f) The secretary, with the approval of the president, may make rules and regulations to carry out these powers and such rules and regulations shall have all the force and effect of enacted law. Any violation is subject to $100 fine.

(g) Regulations shall determine the conversion factors for any processed commodity in fixing the tax.

(h) The secretary may, with the approval of the president, make rules and regulations to carry out these powers and such rules and regulations shall have all the force and effect of enacted law.

(i) Regulations shall determine the conversion factors for any processed commodity in fixing the tax.

"Frisco Jenny" At Ritz Tuesday

The long step from the drawing-room to the Barbary Coast of old San Francisco gives to the screen an entirely new Ruth Chatterton, in her latest First National picture, "Frisco Jenny," which opens at the Ritz theatre on Tuesday.

Coming as an interesting departure from her long series of portrayals as the rich, charming and cultured woman of high society, the title role in "Frisco Jenny" awards the star a chance for a new characterization. No longer does she sip tea and bandy smart repartee with the intellectuals. No longer does she appear as the fashion plate of the screen. And no longer does she speak with the softened "r" and the broadened "a."

"Frisco Jenny" is the story of a woman who ruled the vice element of a city. The sweep of drama takes across a quarter century of human life. Opening on the eve of the Great Fire that laid San Francisco waste in 1906—the days when the Barbary Coast flourished in all its lawlessness—the picture traces the colorful career of a saturnian with herself through the changing life of the new San Francisco to the moment of supreme sacrifice that crowns the story.

HE'S STUCK WITH IT

TOLEDO, O.—Pete Stoeff is quite a weaver of yarns. The latest one he told police when they picked him up for drunkenness is exciting. "Two men," he said, "attacked me, bound me with ropes and threatened to throw me in the Maumee river. I talked them out of it. Then they beat me up and took $12 from me. It was awful! The tale didn't click, however, for he was fined $10 and costs.

Fresh paint spots may be removed from canvas of saturators with turpentine and spirits of ammonia.

(e) The action of any officer employe or agent in determining the amount of any rental or benefit payment shall not be subject to review by any officer of the government other than the secretary of agriculture or the secretary of the treasury. This eliminates the right of appeal to the courts.

7. Basic agricultural commodities as used in the act include wheat, cotton, corn, hogs, cattle, sheep, rice, tobacco and milk and its products.

8. The tax imposed on packers, millers, etc., will be used by the secretary for rentals of unused land, benefits to producers of these basic products and expense of operating under this law.

9. The president may at any time declare the emergency ended and thus terminate this law. Or he may remove any basic commodity from its operation whenever he so decides.

10. The secretary may rebate the processing tax on any commodity whenever he thinks the tax is interfering with the use of the commodity.

11. Provision is made for adjusting the rate of tax between competing agricultural commodities.

12. A refund of the tax will be made on all exported products.

13. A tariff equal to the processing tax will be added to all existing tariffs on the commodities covered by this act.

This brief outline fairly covers the provisions of the proposed law. If it seems complex to you the fault is not mine. I didn't write the "dam thing." If I did, I would definitely state the price to be paid over a fixed period of time so that producer, marketer and consumer would know what to expect. Incidentally, the banker would like to know when he is called on to finance the producer and the processor.

The bill will very probably pass in its present form. Two thirds of the members of congress do not approve of its unconditional grant of power to the secretary but they recognize that a hysterical public wants a dictator and they are going to give them what they are asking for.

Flag, Quirt at Best in Hot Pepper

Action, comedy, beauty, romance, music, and surprises are deftly blended in the Fox comedy, "Hot Pepper," depicting the most recent adventures of Quirt and Flag, those roystering Romeo's originated by Laurence Stallings and Maxwell Anderson. The new film had its opening yesterday at the Yucca theatre for three days.

Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen, who have made Quirt and Flag world-famous, appear as the lovable scoundrels. They discard their Marine uniforms and, in evening clothes, preside merrily over night clubs.

The exotic and dynamic Lupe Velez portrays the leading feminine role, and a feature of the production is her singing and her alluring dancing in one of the night clubs. She is assisted by a chorus of beauties that must certainly have been hand picked.

El Brendel's delightful comedy adds much to the entertainment of the production. Lillian Bond, recently elected Wampus Baby Star, Gloria Ray and Boothe Howard appear in important roles.

Three men were drowned in Covington, Ky., when water swept their automobile into a creek. At Lawrenceburg, Ind., the death of 14-year-old Charles Stephens was attributed indirectly to the flood conditions. He found a bottle adrift, drank from it, went into convulsions and died.

The Lower East End of Cincinnati was threatened with great damage as the waters of the Little Miami River lashed at a protecting levee. Hundreds of men were put to work chopping the embankment away to permit the water to come in slowly. Distress was caused by high waters in numerous other suburbs of Cincinnati. The Municipal airport was covered with water and many planes were removed to landing fields on higher grounds.

At Miami Grove, near Cincinnati, 52 persons were marooned for six hours on top of tourist camp cabins.

BEAUMONT TEAM HAS APPEARANCE OF NEW MACHINE

BEAUMONT, (UP).—Tradition prescribes that the Beaumont Exporters be a new machine this year and that is being carried out to even greater extent this year.

Absent from the roll of players which carried the Exporters to the Texas League championship last year are such men as Hank Greenberg, Art Herring, Schoolboy Rowe, Connie Goetz, Pete Fox, Luis Hainlin, Buck Morrow and Frank Reiber.

Some of the players will be returned to the Exporters if they fail to make the grade with the Detroit Tigers, father of the Beaumont chain club. But notwithstanding this depletion of ranks Business Manager Bobby Stow looks to his Exporters to repeat this year last season's performance.

Stow's forecast came without consideration that some of the 1932 Exporters would be returned here. Neither, said he, does he take into consideration the fact that the Tigers may ship other men here who heretofore have not worn the Beaumont uniform.

Tradition of team changes is carried out this year in one particular. Manager Del Baker of the 1932 Exporters has gone to the Tigers as team coach. Bob Coleman, veteran catcher once with the Pittsburgh Pirates, is filling Baker's shoes. He here had previous experience in the Texas League. He had a three year tenure as manager of the San Antonio Indians beginning in 1929.

The outfield of the Exporters lacks but one old face from last year's team. Pete Fox, champion league batter last year, is not on this year's club. Found in Paul Easterling again will be stationed in left field. Fred Tauby returns to fight against rookies and recruits for center field.

The outfield material on hand includes Tommy Hughes, who was with Toronto, San Antonio and Beaumont, last year; Hugh Shelley from the Moline club and Lawrence Banks and Hubert Bates, both from Moline.

Ray Fritz, a turn-around hitter who ended the season with Beaumont last year, is rated as the best candidate to fill Greenberg's place at first base. Two other tryouts are Ignatius Walters from the Moline and Decatur farms of the Tigers system, and Clarence Phillips.

A shift of Herman Clifton from short to second makes room for Lamar Newsome, utility man last year, in the infield. He will play short with Hal Patchett, the best bet for third base. Patchett played at first base last year, leading the Mississippi Valley league for stolen bases with 35 and was rated as the best infielder of the circuit.

Coleman is flush with infield material. The list includes Bevonts, Chester Morgan, Franklin Marshall and others from Moline and Decatur clubs.

Two regular catchers from 1932's team, Frank Reiber and John Patek, leave a hole in Coleman's infield hard to fill. He has several recruits on hand to select for the post.

The biggest hole in the Beaumont lineup now appears to be in the pitching staff. Four fingers of the championship crew have graduated—Herring, Rowe, Goldstein and Hamlin. In their places are recruits from the lesser tributant Tiges farms. Richard Schultz, a right-hander who won 13 while losing five games last year, returns as does Southpaw Joe Sullivan who won three and lost four.

Of the Tiger's farm-crop here there is Joseph Hare who turned in 14 victories and 12 defeats last season. Harley Hagen, a right-hander with 10 winning games and seven losses and Elden Aiker, whose 1932 record was six and six.

HE WAS KICKED HOLLISTER, Calif.—"Well, I'll be kicked," is what Nesson Schmidt should have said as he stood between two cows. He was kicked by both of them. He was taken to King City, where he was treated for bruises.

moat speed, including the early approach of planting of the crops affected by the measure, the united support of farm organizations and the president's frank assumption of responsibility.

Formal introduction of the measure—submitted last week along with the president's special message recommending emergency action—was the first step scheduled today in the house. Chairman Jones of the agricultural committee indicated he hopes to simplify the bill but does not contemplate rewriting it to the extent of changing its fundamentals.

Opposition in Senate Chairman Smith of the senate agricultural committee, which postponed consideration because of the revenue provisions which require that the bill originate in the house, said his committee, which has studied the program informally, is ready to act speedily once the house action is completed. Arrival of the measure on the senate floor, however, is expected to be the signal for a storm of amendments.

One group of amendments contemplated would seek to add various commodities to those already in the bill—wheat, cotton, corn, rice, tobacco, hogs, cattle, sheep, milk and its products.

Others would attempt to reduce the number of products for which specific efforts would be made to curtail production and boost prices. Because of the experimental aspects of the measure, some members favor limiting the bill to commodities now strictly on an export basis. This definitely would eliminate milk, sheep and cattle.

Against Broad Powers Curbing of the emergency authority the bill would extend to Secretary Wallace also will be sought by some legislators who are especially opposed to the delegation of broad powers to regulate marketing and processing of the farm products named in the bill.

Other farm legislation also moved nearer congressional halls. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., farm board chairman, is working with the farm organization leaders in study of methods of providing farm mortgage relief which will soon be submitted to the president.

Senator Smith proposes that this program include the setting up of a system of farm credit through a special banking organization which would recognize that farm credit is usually extended on a longer term basis than most commercial credit.

VAGULATOR Coffee Brewer

"Have you found a new brand of coffee?" "No. It's the same brand, but this coffee is made in a Vaculator coffee brewer. It brews perfect coffee by extracting the maximum amount of aromatic oils which give coffee its fine flavor, and leaves in the coffee grounds the elements which make some coffee unpleasant. After this, you'll always have 'vaculated' coffee."

You, too, will like the new and different way of making coffee. Ask any employe of this company for an explanation or demonstration.

HOW THE VAGULATOR OPERATES

Measured water in the bottom, vaporized coffee in the top, one heating responsible of coffee to one cup of water.

Heat generates pressure that causes water to flow upward. Hot water hastens this preliminary action.

Coffee is brewed in upper glass where correct temperature is controlled. When upward flow stops, current should be turned off.

Removing from heat creates a vacuum in lower glass which "pulls" down filtered coffee in a jiffy.

Remove upper glass and serve. The coffee will stay hot upwards of thirty minutes in the decanter.

Thieves Stole Judge's Coat

HOLYOKE, Mass. (UP)—A coat belonging to District Judge John Hildreth was among the goods stolen when thieves broke into a cleaning establishment recently.

Depression Boosts Church Attendance SWEETWATER, (UP)—Churches have not suffered but, in a way, have been helped by the depression, according to Dr. O. P. Clark, of Sweetwater, presiding elder of the Methodist district.

According to Dr. Clark, attendance has steadily increased in practically all churches since the depression began.

"Reason for this," he says, "is obvious. People have turned to sober living and thinking."

"In this section people are attending church more regularly than at any time in the past four years."

Salaries of pastors have received more marked reductions than the salaries of those in other professions, Dr. Clark said.

"The churches are meeting their obligations," he said, "by reducing their budgets. This reduction covers a wide field—from the pastors to the foreign missionaries."
