THE EXTENT OF POTASH IMPORTANCE

OUR ODESSA CORRESPONDENT RECITES NUMEROUS POSSIBILITIES

To The Reporter:

The combination of a government report favorable to the Odessa field, and the bringing in of the Toyah-Bell well last week, has served to greatly stimulate interest in this section, and early development is looked for. Should the Toyah-Bell come up to expectations it is almost sure to bring the development in this direction as geologists have highly favorable reports for the territory north and east of the Pecos river.

Col. B. M. Hatfield, prominent geologist and operator, who is now drilling four wells in the Mexia field, has secured two tracts of 10,000 acres each in this field and expects to start a core test before Christmas. Hatfield, in a message to the Commercial Club this week, states that he regards the Odessa territory as the most favorable for a new field, in the State today.

He has made an extensive survey of the field. He expects to develop the potash which he states will be far more valuable to the United States than Muzzle Shoals nitrate plant on which the government has already expended $50,000,000 and which Henry Ford, the jitney king, is endeavoring to secure. Hatfield also expressed a belief that shallow oil would be found in the Odessa field.

"The combination of potash and oil," he said, "makes the Odessa field by far the most attractive speculative proposition in the country today, principally because of the tremendous importance of the discovery of a large bed of potash. It would be so much more valuable than oil that there would be no comparison, and the development work would last for centuries. Just as soon as my Mexia operations will permit, I shall start work on my Odessa holdings."

There is little doubt that Odessa is by far the most important wildcat proposition in the State, and if oil or potash are struck in large quantities it will become the Mecca for operators all over the country.

Speaking of the discovery of potash by government experts in West Texas, Bulletin 11398, recently issued by the U. S. Geological Survey, says: "Thorough tests by the core drillers justified by the tremendous importance to the whole United States of the discovery of commercial deposits of potash in this region—a discovery of far greater value than that of any oil pool."

The report, the first detailed account of the potash discovery from official sources, mentions the three wells in which the potash was found, namely Ward, Dawson and Midland counties, giving the depths the percentage of potash found, some of which tested as high as 14 per cent, in spite of the fact that the salts were mixed with mud-water and other drill cuttings. The report continued:

"Still more interesting and possibly more significant indications of potash have recently been found in another well, the River well of the A. Pitts Oil Company, eight miles east of Barstow, Ward County, and about 75 miles southwest of the Midland County well. At this well which is near the Pecos River potash salts were found at four levels from 1600 to 1875 feet."

The three wells form a triangle over 100 miles long and 50 miles wide. Speaking of the discovery in these three wells, the report continues: "The potash may have been obtained from a single stratum which extends through this distance though in the intervening space or possibly far to one side, potash may be present in such thicker beds, for neither of these wells may be in the area where potash was deposited in the greatest thickness."

The Odessa Commercial Club considers the government bulletin the best indorsement the field has had since it was opened up. Large chemical companies all over the country will watch all developments closely and are prepared to take the necessary steps to distribute the potash, once it is found in large quantities. Numbers of visitors continue to visit the field, and there is a fair amount of lease selling.

COTTON BLOSSOM MINSTRELS NOV. 12

It has been often asked, "Where is the minstrel of long ago? What has become of the bones and tamborine, the banjo and the slap-sticks, the coon with the watermelon mouth, and the old time cross-fire and the wooden razor?" The management of the Midland Concert Band has endeavored to revive, to some extent, the minstrels of the old sunny South by presenting the members of the band in the Cotton Blossom Minstrels on the night of November 12th in the band hall. While they are laboring under trying difficulties without a regular theatre, the boys are tirelessly rehearsing their stunts and promise to give the Midland people their money's worth. Some of the latest songs of the day are being learned, the latest minstrel orchestral selections will be played and gags, stories and stump speeches, monologs, sketches too numerous to mention will have their part.

A concert by the band on the street on the afternoon of the 12th will announce the minstrels.

The program of the minstrels will open with a gorgeous old-time "first part" with the singing of the famous Whitmark Minstrel Overture coming on down the line to the ever welcome strains of the song of the South—"Dixie." Following, "gentlemen be seated," there will be a very laughable bones and tamborine drill by the end-men accompanied by the Cotton Blossom Jazz Band. Then will follow the regulation gags interspersed by coon songs and ending up with the beautiful old ballad "Just Break the News to Mother," by Chas. K. Harris, with tableaux and electrical effects in the background.

The olio, or second part, will consist of musical selections, stump speeches, ballads, sketches and ending up with a very laughable after-piece skit entitled "The Dempsy-Carpenter Fight."

The costumes in the first part will be very unique, pink, blue and red being the color scheme.

The patronage of Midland is solicited, for the band "needs the dough."

HAVE MEETING IN EL PASO TOMORROW

MANY TO MEET DISTINGUISHED MEMBER OF FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

W. A. Hyatt, vice president of the Midland National Bank, accompanied by his wife, left yesterday for El Paso. Mr. Hyatt's visit is in response to a letter received by him from W. C. Weiss, manager of the El Paso branch of the Federal Reserve Bank, of Dallas. Mr. Weiss writes:

"We are going to be favored with a visit from the Honorable John R. Mitchell, member of the Federal Reserve Board, Washington, D. C., on Saturday, November 5th.

"It is not often that we are honored with a visit from an active member of the Federal Reserve Board, in consequence of which it occurs to me that because of Mr. Mitchell's prominence and interest in the unusual conditions affecting our territory, you might like to meet him personally.

"As you are aware, we have been for some time, and are still, confronted with a very difficult situation applying more noticeably to this district than perhaps any other district in the United States; consequently, it is our desire that during this visit Mr. Mitchell secure reliable information from those most vitally interested, as to the needs, as well as the resources, of the district served by the El Paso Branch.

Mr. Mitchell will probably arrive here about noon Friday, November 5,

A. P. Hill left this week for Kansas City, accompanying a shipment of calves. He had five cars billed for that market.

MIDLAND COLLEGE NOTES

By H. G. Head, Reporter

The first literary program of the season was rendered on Tuesday of last week when the Platonians and Philadelphians met jointly in the parlor and dedicated an hour to the pursuit of the muse. Songs were sung by various members of the respective literary societies and a story was read by Mr. Emerson Anderson that was especially deserving of commendation. Perhaps in passing we should say that the "awful quartet" favored us with some of the most melodious discords ever heard in Midland College. The critic, Mr. Stevenson, stressed the value of the ability to correctly address an audience, or, as Mr. Bowman so aptly put it "to think on one's feet." In closing Mr. Stevenson said that it would be well for the societies to arrange to meet on time from now on to the end of the term. Motion was made and passed that the two societies meet regularly on Friday afternoon of every second week and that it be made compulsory for each and every member of the societies to appear with his or her part when placed on the program. This is only reasonable when viewed from the proper angle and we trust that every one will be glad to oblige in every way possible and thus save themselves and those in charge from embarrassment and displeasure.

Mr. Fred Hood, of Breckenridge, is the latest addition to the junior class, he having entered last week.

Mr. Walter Vaughan, of Mount Vernon, Texas, entered Midland College this week and was classified as a junior.

Miss Elizabeth McKissick gave a reading in chapel last Saturday that was especially fine, possessing as it did, the proper admixture of human interest, rhythm, reminiscence and philosophy. In addition to these things the style of delivery was remarkable for clearness of meaning and expression.

Rev. I. H. Teal, of the Christian church, was a visitor in chapel service last Saturday and gave us a very interesting talk. It is apparent, even to the most casual observer, that while Rev. Teal is a man of God, he also knows the world of men. He spoke of his own school days and the troubles and trials that beset his pathway; of his early struggles and ultimate triumphs. Rev. Teal stressed the value of preparation for life's work and said that the years spent

ARMISTICE DAY IS TO BE CELEBRATED

FIRE ALARM FROM TWELE TO TWELVE-TWO WILL BE SOUNDED

The Masons, all to themselves, are going to have a busy Armistice Day. The Royal Arch degree is to be conferred upon a number. It will start about 1 p. m. and continue into the night and until everything is finished.

The band boys, also, on Saturday night, Nov. 12, will stage a minstrel show, and they promise you more laughs than you've had before in the same length of time. There are other announcements elsewhere in this paper.

There are to be a number of programs Armistice Day, we understand, but The Reporter was not given details thereof. From 12 m. to 12:2 p. m., by order of the American Legion, our fire alarm will be sounded, and persons are requested to take due notice of this. Arise at this time, and let your thoughts dwell upon the memory of this day.

In the district court of Martin County this week, the law firm of Garrard & Fannin, won a case for Martin County effecting the location of a county road. This case is of more than passing notice as it will cause the adjustment of many land lines in this locality that have been hitherto uncertain. Messrs. Garrard & Fannin are to be congratulated for this achievement.

in-school yield greater dividends than any other period of life. "There is a deplorable lack of foresight among the younger people of our own generation," he said, "and a tendency to look only on the present and fleeting hour, taking no concern for the future, but whether you know it or not, the world is taking your measure; is sizing you up, so to speak, and sooner or later you will be compelled to take your place in the business of life, and when you do your position will depend on the amount of preparation and the kind of preparation you have had." Rev. Teal said that the war had exerted an evil influence over educational institutions the world over, from which, they were slowly recovering. As a closing admonition he remarked that we should strive to scale the heights but if that is impossible, then we should try to fill a humble station in life and fill it well, for as he said "the trained mind takes precedence but others are important and every one may have the satisfaction of treasures in Heaven. Keep your mind clear, your nerves steady, your muscles strong and above all things, watch your step if you would gain success in this life and in the life that is to come," was the closing advice of Rev. Teal.

"To bob or not to bob"—that's the question. A perplexing question, and one which has been decided in various and sundry ways. At present the girls of Midland College are about evenly divided on the bobbed hair problem and there are two things that puzzle them. The ones who have taken the step and shorn their locks wish to know if "you like it better that way?" And those who have not yet severed their raven tresses, want to know "if you think you'd like it bobbed." Not being an authority on women or the ways of women we have tried to preserve a dignified exterior and keep silent on the all important topic, but fate has evidently decreed that we must act as mediator in a controversy of which we know nothing. We like it bobbed or unbobbed, given to marcel wave or slicked back over the dome even or the vampiest "vamps" are wont to do it, hanging in curl-cues over the fair shoulders or rolled in a ball on top of the head. Just any old way will meet with our approval and none will incur our displeasure, so go to it virils, and do your hair however you please, for when it narrows down to basics it is only a question on opinions and we don't have 'em.

MIDLAND STOCKMAN SAYS DROUTH IS BLAMED

A stockman at Midland who is thoroughly familiar with conditions throughout this entire section states that the fall drouth has caused the rush of calves on the market at this time. "I know," he said, "that if it would rain tonight I would not sell the calves which I have listed with agents, but I would buy several hundred from my neighbors to winter. But as it is I would not only not buy calves to winter, but I am planning to sell what I now have. We all know that we have not the cattle on hand that we should have, but it is due to the dry spell, and have shipped to market rather than keep and feed." What he says seems to ring true, for camping and driving over the plains one sees very light stock. Nothing like the ranchman had a few years ago.—Fort Worth Record.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR ENJOYS HALLOWEEN

The intermediate Endeavor celebrated Halloween on Saturday evening, Oct. 31st, at 8 o'clock when Mrs. Henry M. Half graciously opened her lovely home to the young people on this occasion. The guests were in costume and wore their masks until partners were selected, at which time Mrs. J. W. Archer, supervising director, suggested Halloween games and helped in numerous ways to entertain the young people. Delicious refreshments of chocolate, wafers and mints were served after which ghost stories were told. While the stories were being told a ghost appeared and proceeded to hypnotize several of the guests. The Endeavorers departed after assuring Mr. and Mrs. Half and their daughter, Miss Ernestine, of a most pleasant evening.

James Henson and wife, of Stanton, are here this week, attending their young son who has just sustained an operation for appendicitis. The boy is eleven years of age. His condition was quite serious, the appendix having ruptured, but he now seems likely to continuously improve.

USUAL SERVICES IN METHODIST CHURCH

The Reporter is authorized to state that all regular services will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday. The new pastor, Rev. W. A. Smith, and wife arrived in Midland yesterday, and he will conduct the services at the morning and evening hours. The Reporter's introduction of Bro. Smith last week ought to insure him a good hearing Sunday. Not in many years has a Methodist minister come to Midland so highly and enthusiastically recommended as this new man, and his people owe him a welcome that can be adequately extended only by their presence to greet him at the beginning of his labors here.

NEXT MEETING TO BE HELD AT PHOENIX

MONUMENT PLANNED IN MEMORY OF EX-CONGRESSMAN PLOWMAN

Hon. Bennahan Cameron, of Stagville, N. C., president of the Bankhead National Highway Association, has spent three days at the headquarters of the association in consultation with Director General J. A. Rountree, going over the details of the office and the work of the association. He expresses himself as being delighted with the progress that has been made during the past six months in promoting and building the Bankhead Highway from Washington, D. C. to San Diego, California.

While at headquarters he discussed the program of the sixth annual convention of the association, which will meet in Phoenix, Ariz., April 27th and 28th, 1922. He also considered the itinerary and the work of a path-finding commission, which will inspect and locate the route of the Texas to Mexico City division of the Bankhead Highway from Mount Pleasant to Laredo, Texas, on to the City of Mexico. President Cameron and Director General Rountree will accompany this commission.

Plans were also discussed in regard to the erection of a monument in honor of Ex-Congressman Thomas S. Plowman, the first president of the association, at his old home, Talladega, Ala.

President Cameron left Birmingham, going direct to Washington City, where he will hold a conference with cabinet officers and other officials, to urge that the Bankhead Highway be taken over as a government road and built during the coming year, in order to help the acute situation of the unemployed.

The young people of the Christian and Presbyterian churches have organized into one senior Christian Endeavor. They met in the Christian church on last Sunday and a very interesting and helpful program was rendered, the subject being "The Golden Rule." Eight new members were present at this meeting and all who do not attend some other similar organization are invited to meet with them at the Presbyterian church on next Sunday, Nov. 6th at 6:15 p. m.

HE FOUND THE EXCITEMENT

Hooser, Seeking Battle Lines, Discovered Liberal Share of What World War Offered.

Few bucks can equal the record of Ralph G. Patterson, Hooser of strong Irish extraction, who went A. W. O. L. looking for the battle. He found it.

Patterson left his quiet home in Muncie, Ind., early in search of excitement. He found what he wanted in the cattle ranches of the Northwest. His life in riding the ranges was the most exciting career he had heard of until he convoyed a carload of cattle to Chicago in April, 1917, and found out that America had entered the war. So did Pat.

Going to France with Headquarters Troop of the First division shortly after Pershing, Private Patterson was stationed in the peaceful French village of Gondrecourt for weary and drab months while the battle was going on without him. Finally he and two buddies hopped a French meat truck bound for the front. It took them as far as Bar-le-Duc, from which place they hiked in the direction of the firing. They found the front line trenches around Luneville, introduced themselves to the amazed poilus and declined to leave because they couldn't understand what the horizon blues were so excited about. After ten days an American officer came to the front after them. They polished the company's pots and pans for two weeks for their pains.

Patterson finally found enough excitement. At Cantigny he came through unscathed. At Soissons a machine gun bullet got him through both ankles. At Selcheprey he jumped into a shell hole on top of a German with a bayonet. High explosive which got him in the Argonne on October 4, 1918, left his right leg stiff, tore open his shoulder and broke his nose.

LEGION MAN FED UP ON WAR

Veteran of the World and Other Conflicts Returns to Greece and is Nabbed for Service.

John P. Poulos, veteran of the World war and a member of Albert V. Braden Post No. 58, the American Legion, Ishpeming, Mich., is getting tired of going to war every year or so. He has the United States government at work trying to get a red chevron that will keep him out of battle long enough to at least recover his breath. John is a native of Athens, Greece. When he came to this country his name was John Peter Coutsogiannopoulos. On account of his great difficulty in making his handle understood, he cut off several yards of it and became John P. Poulos. He was drafted for service with the Greek army during the first Balkan war. After being mustered out he emigrated to America and found employment in the copper mines of Michigan.

After a few years in this country he returned to Greece for a visit. Greece was having another little scrap then, and he was drafted for the second Balkan war. He did his bit and left for America again. America entered the war just after John got back, and he enlisted for his third fling in the Infantry. He did it well, and after Uncle Sam had given him his discharge, he decided once more to visit Greece. Result, he's in again!

This time the Greeks have drafted him for service against the Turks. John recently appealed to his congressman, W. Frank James of the Twelfth Michigan district, opining that he was fed up on wars and that he wanted to get out of the army and be married. Mr. James has taken up the case with the State department. Poulos is a fully naturalized citizen, but in the absence of treaty agreements between the United States and Greece, his citizenship papers were not sufficient to prevent his being drafted.

ARMISTICE DAY

Marking the memory of that joyous day that heralded the dawn of Peace, let hearts thrill and drums beat throughout the land— This year we dedicate the day to pay our nation's homage to the unknown heroes of that great conflict—to those whose deeds of gallantry will never be inscribed upon the imperishable records of the war, but who, unheralded and unknown, gave up their noble lives for Freedom's cause, and now lie quietly sleeping in unmarked graves across the sea.

To you who sit at that white throne where heroes are, our thoughts in gratitude ascend. Look down upon your land today and know that in each loyal heart there is a monument of love for that rare gift you gave.

With thrilled souls and bowed heads, we pause to render tribute to the sacred memory of our unknown dead.

TRANSFERS PAY TO LEGION

Permanently Disabled Yank, Propped Up in Bed, Signs Over Bonus Check to Post.

A striking example of the gratitude of the nation's disabled veterans for those who have aided them in their hours of suffering has come to the attention of Lee C. Prentice post of the American Legion in Fairmount, Minn.

Cletus Lappin, a young soldier severely wounded on the battlefields of France and now in hospital, rated totally and permanently disabled, received a check in payment for the state bonus while taking treatment in a sanitarium at Fairmount.

Asking to be propped up in bed, Lappin indorsed the slip, good for several hundred dollars, to the Prentice post of the Legion. "When I needed help," said the boy who had given the best of his life to his country, "the Legion boys stood by me. Now I'm going to do my little bit to help them get those clubrooms they are after."

LEGION CHAPLAIN SETS PACE

Iowa Department Official, Elected Sheriff, With Aid of Buddies, Rounds Up Criminals.

When veterans of the World war in Des Moines, Ia., elected Rev. W. E. Robb, chaplain of the Iowa department of the American Legion, to the office of sheriff of Polk county, they disregarded party lines for the good of the community. The Legion chaplain ran far ahead of his opponent in the face of a landslide.

After he assumed his office, Sheriff Robb set a pace that woke up the county. He seized more illicit liquor and bootleggers in the first 60 days of his term than his predecessor obtained in two years. His 21 deputies were almost all members of the American Legion.

Then he turned his attention to an alleged graft ring composed of Des Moines police officials. He caused the demotion of the chief of police, his assistant and the chief of detectives.

Chaplain Robb was a theological student at Drake university in Des Moines when war was declared. In some manner he succeeded in obtaining a commission as a chaplain in the army before he was ordained and went overseas with the One Hundred and Sixty-eighth infantry. He served 18 months in France, was decorated with a D. S. C. for bravery under fire and was idolized by the doughboys of his regiment.

Upon his return he wrote and published "The Price of Our Heritage," a book depicting the prominent part in the World war taken by men of Iowa.

How Not to Take Cold

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over-heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excesses, over eating, becoming over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold, they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

Midland People Should Not Neglect Their Kidneys

No kidney ailment is unimportant. Don't overlook the slightest backache or urinary irregularity. Nature may be warning you of approaching dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Kidney disease is seldom fatal if treated in time, but neglect may pave the way. Don't neglect a lame or aching back another day. Don't ignore dizzy spells, headaches, weariness or depression. If you feel you need kidney help begin using the reliable, time-tried remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. For 50 years, Doan's have been found effective. Endorsed by Midland people.

Mrs. O. F. Wells says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have found them to be the only remedy I can depend on to do me good. There are times when I do a little heavy lifting or too much housework that I get a catch in the small of my back and my kidneys begin acting irregularly. For such spells I take a few Doan's Kidney Pills and they make me feel a lot better in every way. I would never be without a box of Doan's on hand."

D., 1921 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 1624, wherein the Midland National Bank, Midland, Texas, is plaintiff, and C. C. Woods and C. C. Railey are defendants, and said petition alleging that on the 19th day of June, 1920, the defendant, C. C. Woods, made, executed and delivered to the plaintiff his promissory note in the sum of $633.00 due December 16th, 1920, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from maturity until paid, and further providing for 10 per cent of the amount of principal and interest as attorney fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Wherefore, by reason of the execution of said note the defendant, C. C. Woods, became bound and liable to this plaintiff in the sum of $633.00 with interest and attorney's fees; that said note is due and unpaid, and though often requested, defendant failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay same or any part thereof.

Further, that at the time of the execution of said note defendant was owner of 1-8 undivided interest in 200 acres of cotton growing on C. C. Railey's place in Midland County, Texas, and that said defendant executed and delivered to the plaintiff a chattel mortgage on said cotton to secure said note, which cotton was seized and converted by C. C. Railey.

Wherefore, promises considered, plaintiff prays that the defendant, C. C. Woods, be cited to appear and answer herein, that upon final trial it have judgment for the amount of its said note, together with interest, attorney fees, for costs of suit, and such other and further relief to which it may be entitled in law or in equity.

Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Midland Texas, this the 20th day of October,

A. D., 1921. C. B. Dumagan, Clerk, District Court, Midland County. adv 3-4t

How Buick Accessibility Saves Owners Time and Money

Buick cars are built so they can be operated with a minimum of expense. If a part needs attention it is easily accessible. For instance, adjusting or putting a new fan belt on a Buick is a job that is handled by the owner in a few minutes. Buick invites comparison.

A Timely Suggestion

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

Wedding Bells

The merry, tuneful, tin tin nabulation of wedding bells will ere many moons again peal forth among Midland folk, and upon this occasion the hymenial halter will be thrown in the "Womanless Wedding." This promises to be one of the most laughable, the most enjoyable attractions promised us for the season. The "Womanless Wedding," under auspices of the Library Association, the first week in December.

Rev. Homer Magee Dead

Midland friends were grieved inexpressibly Monday to learn that Rev. Homer Magee, Christian minister of Pecos, had passed to that reward which is promised the faithful and pure in heart. His death was not unexpected for he has been a sufferer of tuberculosis for more than seventeen years, hence he has long been waiting in blessed expectancy for the time when he should depart and be with Christ. He was much loved by friends here and elsewhere who grieve with the sorrowing family in their bereavement. Rev. I. H. Teel and Mr. J. H. Wilhite went to Pecos to attend the funeral.

Hallowe'en Party at Rev. and Mrs. O. J. Hull's

A Hallowe'en party, which was delightful and lovely in every particular, was given by the ladies of the Baptist Auxiliary on last Friday evening and the attractive home of the pastor and wife would never have been recognized in its ordinary role transformed was it by its eery decorations of All Hallowe'en. The rooms were indeed beautifully and most cleverly decorated in yellow and black crepe paper while black cats, jack o' lanterns, spiders, snakes, ghosts, and all the uncanny spirits of Hallowe'en were holding high carnival. In one corner of the sitting room crouched a sombre looking witch before a camp-fire, who laded out fortunes from her "boiling" cauldron.

The "chamber of horrors" was sufficiently weird and uncanny to make the hair rise on end, the blood run cold and the heart cease to perform its proper functions. Stunts and rollicking games of various kinds were also enjoyed, while an orchestra composed of Messrs. Blount, Gilmore, Hyatt, Watson, H. B. Dunagan, Jr., and Miss Lydie G. Watson furnished the music throughout the evening. Miss Kellar also rendered some piano numbers. It was a lovely, a brilliant party, the pastor, his wife, the ladies of the auxiliary and all the guests uniting in enjoying the festivities. At a late hour refreshments also carrying out the Hallowe'en motif were temptingly served.

The Alpha-Omega Club Delightfully Entertained

Last Saturday Mrs. Donald Hutt was hostess in a most enjoyable manner to the Alpha-Omega Club. The girls of the club left town about 12 o'clock and arrived at the pretty ranch home about 1 o'clock. Soon after their arrival the charmingly cordial hostess served a most delightful luncheon which the guests most thoroughly enjoyed after their long ride o'er the plains through the cool autumnal air. The long afternoon was spent in embroidering and in the girlish chatter so dear to the feminine heart. Miss Rae Oppenheimer, of San Antonio, was a club guest and Mrs. Forrest King assisted Mrs. Hutt as hostess. It was altogether a delightful day and not till a late hour did the girls bid their hostess a reluctant good bye and started on their homeward journey, arriving home just at twilight.

The '99 Club had its initial meeting for the club year with Mrs. Tom White as hostess, last Tuesday afternoon. The subject was "Our Hymns and Hymn Writers," and the following delightfully interesting program was rendered, with Mrs. White as leader:

Roll call; Response, a verse from a familiar hymn, with incident connected—The Club.

Review: Some noted contributors to our Gospel Hymns—Mrs. Hyatt. Biography and reading Isaac Watts—(a) "Let Dogs Delight to Bark and Bite;" (b) "How Doth the Little Busy Bee"—Mrs. Hill.

Gospel of religious sons; each with preface: (a) Lead Kindly Light; (b) Abide With Me; (c) All Hail the Power of Jesus Name; (d) Onward, Christian Soldiers; (e) Blest Be the Tie that Binds; (f) Old Hundred and Doxology—Mrs. White.

The Wednesday Club met in regular session this week with Mrs. W. K. Curtis as hostess. The subject was Folk Stories of Northern Lands and the following interesting program was given:

Paper: Tennyson's Use of Arthurian; Legends in the Idylls of a King—Mrs. Thomas.

Reading: Selections from The Idylls of a King—Mrs. Haley.

Reading: Tennyson's Sir Launcelot and Queen Guinevere—Mrs. Half.

Reading: Longfellow's Tales of a Wayside Inn.

Selection from Saga of Olof—Mrs. Holt.

Round table talk: Legends of the Holy Grail

Billie Graves Nobles, is the pretty name bestowed upon the young grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Graves, and a grandson in whom they are well pleased. The young man, who arrived Monday at high noon, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Noble, of Kerns, their first born and may all the fond dreams, the cherished hopes of the dotting young parents, in this dimpled bit of innocent babyhood be realized manifold.

Mrs. N. P. Henry, known to Midland friends as Miss Grace Cowden, and her little son, of Lancaster, together with her mother, Mrs. George Cowden, of Ft. Worth, are visiting in Midland this week.

Miss Rae Oppenheimer, who has been the attractive guest of her uncle, Mr. Henry M. Half and family, left Sunday for her home in San Antonio.

Mrs. Clarence Scharbauer returned Saturday from a visit to Dallas.

Mrs. Margaret Watts, accompanied by her cousin, Mr. J. P. Forbes, of Coshoto, Ohio, arrived Thursday and is being cordially greeted by many old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Holt will return tomorrow from a visit to Dallas and Waco, where they had a most delightful time enjoying the festivities attending the Cotton Palace.

A number of our young people went to Big Spring Monday night to attend a Hallowe'en dance.

Miss Alta Hull, of Snyder, is the guest of her brother, Rev. O. J. Hull and family this week.

WAR BROUGHT WORK FOR HER

Fargo (N. D.) Girl Found Plenty to Do During and After Big Conflict.

Maybe woman's place was in the home when America entered the World war, Miss Abbey N. Hurley, Fargo, N. D., was a clerk and stenographer in the district court of her county. Then the district clerk enlisted for service and Miss Hurley forsook the files and keys to help the deputy carry on the work.

Then the deputy enlisted—and the little stenographer carried on the work alone while she broke in a new deputy. She did the task so well that she was named deputy clerk herself in October, 1919, a position which she now holds.

When the boys came marching home again, her brother, who had enlisted early in the state's infantry regiment, began forming a post of the American Legion and Miss Hurley started in to organize a unit of the Legion Women's auxiliary. Last May she was elected secretary treasurer of the North Dakota department of the auxiliary. She is, at twenty-one.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which griped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."
