District Court Jim Ferguson Described Soon To Open

The four weeks term of the 32nd Special District court with Judge James T. Brooks presiding is scheduled to begin here September

Jury panels for the court term will be released by District Clerk Hugh Dubberly sometime prior to September 1, he said yesterday. Numbers of cases have already been filed for hearing in the spe-cial term, but it is expected the largest amount of filing will be placed in the hands of Dubberly before the docket is closed.

· Prices of commodities are going up.

• The price of the base coffee of commerce has advanced app: proximately 40%, in Brazil, in recent weeks.

• The retail prices of coffees, of all grades, in the United States are beginning to reflect that advance.

In Texas, the Coffee Roasters' price to the retailer has advanced 8.7% in the past ten days.

As commodity prices go up, times get better.

• Your dollar will now buy $1.60 worth of merchandise as it was priced in 1929.

• Advertised merchandise has real value, plus the faith and reputas tion of the makers of that merchandise.
