ODESSA MAN KILLED IN CRASH

TRUCK AND CAR COLLIDE EARLY TUESDAY NIGHT Negro Killed When He Leaves Train Here Today

As a result of injuries received in a head-on collision of his automobile and a produce truck Tuesday night, W. L. (Tip) Brown, about 33, Odessa mortuary surgeon, died early today.

Two produce men of Dallas are seriously injured, reports from the Headlee hospital of Odessa indicating one may not live.

According to several Midland motorists, the truck, west bound, attempted to pass another vehicle going west, and smashed directly into the east-bound car driven by Brown.

Each was estimated to have been traveling at a speed of from 40 to 50 miles an hour, and the impact was so great the truck and car were riveted together and did not overturn. Damage to the vehicles was almost complete, with the truck motor driven through the front assembly of Brown's light sedan.

Brown was found wedged against the broken and bent steering wheel of his machine, and the motor and the load of the truck were jammed closely together that it was with difficulty that a quickly gathered crowd could extricate the produce men.

The accident happened three miles east of Odessa at 9:30. Sheriff Reeder Webb was summoned and an ambulance called, only to find that the ambulance driver was one of the accident victims.

Mrs. Brown was visiting at El Paso, and left by bus for Pecos, where she was met by Odessa friends. She reached Odessa shortly before death of her husband, who had been unconscious for several hours.

Brown had been associated with the Barrow Furniture company at Odessa for four years, later joining the insurance firm there of Rhodes & Brown, and serving with the Hendrix mortuary as mortuary surgeon.

Interment will be at Anson, where Brown's father is associated with an insurance company. The Barrow mortuary of Midland is preparing the body.

DALLAS NEGRO IS KILLED HERE TODAY An unidentified negro was killed here when he attempted to leave a freight extra, No. 622, west bound, at 9:43 this morning.

W. C. Tatum, dispatcher of the T. & P., was standing before the depot with orders for the train crew when the accident happened. He said the negro tried to swing off the train, but maintained his hold too long and was thrown under the trucks, where he was almost completely dismembered.

Papers in the man's pocket led Coroner B. C. Girdley to telephone J. J. Daniels, grocer of Longworth, inland community of Fisher county, and Daniels said the man lived in Dallas and that papers carried by the negro were addresses of Longworth people for whom the negro was to gather crops soon.

Efforts were being made to locate members of the negro's family, if any.

Two men riding on the train with the negro said the three had planned to get off the train here if it stopped, hoping to "thumb" rides on the highway.

M. "Buttermilk" Smith was engineer of the train, Bill Dugan, conductor, both of Big Spring.

This and That on N. R. A. Finds General Optimism

By RODNEY DUTCHER Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Some at least of those white collar workers about whom Gen. Johnson has been so concerned, aren't getting the benefit of the 40-hour week.

The workers in the general's own department, for instance, who have been fixing it so the rest of us won't have to say on the job so long, frequently toil far into the night.

The general himself works almost as hard as anyone. Most key officials are at their desks from 8 or 9 o'clock in the morning until 7 or 8 at night.

Visitors are so numerous and conferences so frequent that most can be accomplished in the twilight hours. So many of these officials return after dinner and may not get home until 2 or 3 in the morning.

And of course, the executive must have his assistants, secretaries and stenographers around.

The result is that a lot of lovely girls are becoming thin and pale. One slender little NRA blonde has lost four pounds in two weeks, and it's going to be a crime if she loses any more.

This goes on especially in NRA, the agricultural adjustment administration, the public works administration, the RFC and other agencies actively promoting the New Deal. But it's also true of many regular departments and bureaus which are operating with new duties and curtailed staffs.

Frayed Nerves Common Frayed nerves and dazed brains are common.

No one works harder or longer than Gen. Hugh Johnson. Up late the night before, he was "buggy-eyed"—as one of his aides described it—when he opened the oil hearings.

Johnson, after the first witness was through, called two separate witnesses and successively turned them off with the assertion that they were appearing in the wrong order. After whispered conferences with Legal Adviser Richberg and Deputy Administrator Simpson, Johnson realized that they had come

TAX BOARD TO FACE OVERDRAFT

AUSTIN, Aug. 2. (UP)—With an overdraft of $5,526,989 in the state general fund and $3,530,420 in the Federal pension fund, the automatic tax board was expected today to meet during the week.

It was anticipated that the maximum tax rate of 77 cents on the $100 valuation will be adopted. Representative Kayton of San Antonio, author of the non-pyramiding sales tax of the last session, asked State Treasurer Lockhart, legislators and officials to confer here tomorrow.

Famous Cow Horse Presented

At the annual rodeo of the Texas Cowboy reunion held at Stamford, Texas, on July 4, Walter Cousins, Historian of the organization, was presented with a famous cow horse, "El Diablo," owned by R. W. Swenson, author of the non-pyramiding sales tax of the last session, and officials to confer here tomorrow.

Cousins has been riding "El Diablo" in the parades for several years and became attached to him. He is a typical cow horse of whose kind there are no many left. A deep-chested, round-barreled gray kind that in range parlance is said to be able to turn on a dime and hold anything that is tied to him.

"El Diablo" is a well known cow horse, made the long trek with him from Stamford to Dallas. They hauled him 200 miles in a trailer behind an automobile and delivered him to the Cousins home on Richardson pipe, north of Dallas.

Bulletin

SOUTH COFFEYVILLE, Ark. Aug. 2. (UP)—Possemen were believed today to have surrounded five of six bandits who this morning robbed the Citizens bank of Weir, Kansas. The bandits took a three-ton safe aboard a truck after driving two persons, including three women and the town marshal, into the city jail.

Marshal E. J. Bennett, making his rounds, was overpowered. The robbers forced entrance to the telephone office, broke equipment, jalled a girl operator and others.

The safe aboard the truck was recovered unopened. Later possemen overcame the bandit car. A gun fight ensued with the suspects who fled on foot. Kansas national guardsmen joined in the hunt.

NRA SWEEPING MORE EMPLOYEES INTO CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. (UP)—More than a quarter million additional employees were brought under the NRA when Administrator Johnson today authorized modifications for radio and electrical manufacturers, rayon weaving, bedding and rayon and synthetic yarn industries.

It was estimated that 30,000 more will be employed from the agreement. Child labor was abandoned by all of those industries.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2. (UP)—The Standard Oil company of New Jersey and affiliated companies with 45,000 employees today signed the NRA blanket code pending adoption of the oil code.

Affiliate companies include the Colonial, Beacon, Standards of Pennsylvania and Louisiana.

Announcement was made from the Midland office of the Gulf Production company this afternoon that the Gulf has signed the president's blanket code pending adoption of the oil code.

The action was taken by the production company, the Gulf Refining company and the Gulf Pipeline company promoting the New Deal. But it's also true of many regular departments and bureaus which are operating with new duties and curtailed staffs.

Lowered Crude Price Is Met

PONCA CITY, Aug. 2. (UP)—The Continental Oil company met the lowered crude price which the Sinclair family announced effective this morning. Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas crude brought from 29 to 62 cents.

The Empire Pipeline company also reduces prices. The price drop was explained as coming because purchasing subsidiaries of the Standard Oil company had failed to meet the 75 cent level.

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 2.—The Sinclair Prairie Oil Marketing company announced Tuesday it will reduce its midcontinental price schedules from the present 75 cents' top to 62 cents level that has been maintained by the Standard Oil companies of New Jersey and Indiana.

H. F. Sinclair, chairman of the Central corporation, and Standard Oil company, sent a message from Washington where he is attending oil code conferences, declaring, "There was no alternative except to concede to the former price level."

Since it had become "evident" the Standard subsidiaries and others in the area would not go along with the high price.

The Humble Oil and Refining company prices in Texas and the Carter Oil company prices in Oklahoma and Kansas were met in the new Sinclair schedule.

A few minutes after receiving word of the Sinclair action, the Empire Pipe Line company, Cities Service unit, followed suit.

Other companies purchasing in the midcontinent made no announcement at once.

Oklahoma and Kansas: Below 25 gravity, 30 cents, with a 2 cent increase each degree to 49 and above, 62 cents.

North and north central Texas: Below 29 gravity, 29 cents with a 2-cent increase each degree to 40 and above, 52 cents.

East Texas: 50 cents flat price. Panhandle Texas: Gray county; Below 35 gravity, 41 cents with a 2-cent increase each degree to 40 and above, 46 cents; Carson, Moore and Hutchinson counties, below 35 gravity, 30 cents, with a 2-cent increase each degree to 40 and above, 41 cents.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2. (UP)—Nat Bass, 35, sportsman and brother to Promotor Humbert Fugazy's partner, Arthur Bass, was held by kidnapers today for $25,000. Three armed men kidnaped Bass Monday night near his Brooklyn home. A ransom note threatened destruction.

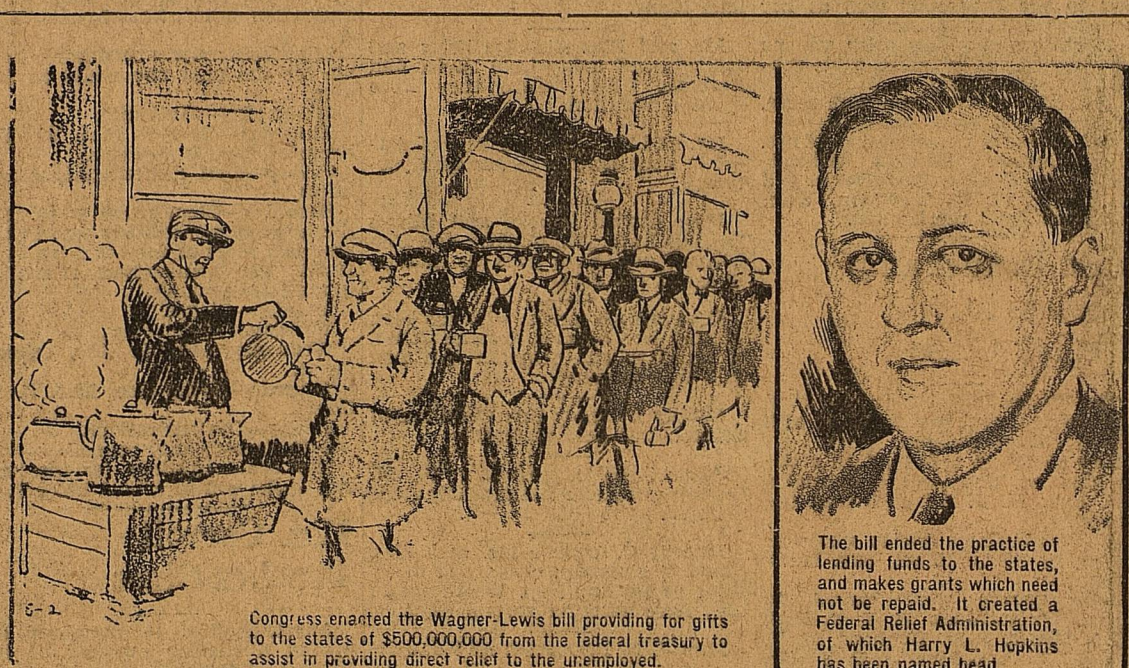

HYDE PARK, Aug. 2. (UP)—President Roosevelt today appointed Assistant Secretary of State Moley to study kidnaping and racketeering for the department of justice. It was a temporary assignment inasmuch as Moley had gathered data already.

Seigelson said the first contact with the kidnapers came last Wednesday in a letter from Urschel. Another message was received Friday, he said.

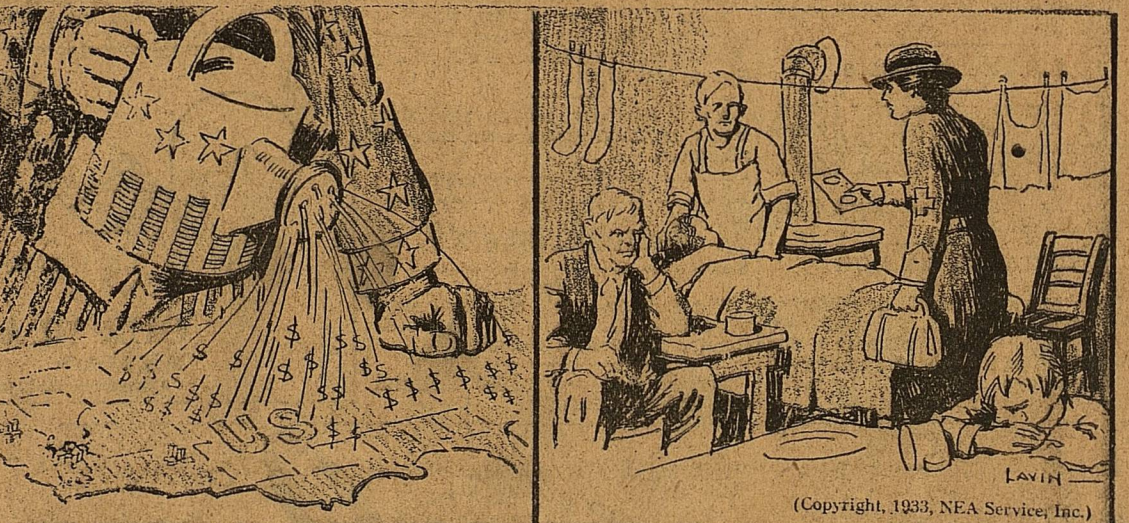

There was an additional assurance to us that he would be given to the right party and it named the place of contact and denominations of the money," Seigelson said.

The first letter did not go through the mails, but was delivered through an intermediary, whose identity Seigelson withheld. Seigelson refused to reveal the contents of the letter or of the second message.

FIXING OF OIL PRICES BALKED AT BY JOHNSON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Advocates of federal regulation of petroleum prices were told last night by Hugh S. Johnson, the industrial administrator, that he would not recommend any price fixing to President Roosevelt until the effect of production control had been determined.

Hearing Begins Johnson's statement was made as committees representing the various factions of the oil industry assembled with him to work out a trade practice plan. They began their sessions with a tentative draft submitted by Johnson, after the oil men were unable to agree.

Wirt Franklin, president of the Independent Petroleum association and spokesman for the emergency national committee, insisted price control was necessary.

The committee for which Franklin spoke recently voted 27 to 13 in favor of price regulation. Franklin asserted price control "will be necessary if we are to meet increased costs," Johnson answered: "I do not think so if we get production under control."

"That has not been our experience," Franklin said.

"That is my opinion," shot back Johnson.

"That is not the fact," said Franklin.

Only Once Successful Johnson said in answer that the only successful price control attempt he knew of was during the war when both the supply and demand for a commodity were under control and that all other attempts were failures.

"I am not thinking until the theory of production control is established to recommend any price fixing to President Roosevelt," Johnson said, explaining that he believed control of production in itself would affect prices.

Two committees were accepted from the membership of the emergency national committee of 94 set up under the code advocate, former business of the American Petroleum institute. One faction favored price regulation and the other opposed it.

No Backing Up Informed that E. O. Thompson, member of the Texas railroad commission, and other state officials were opposed to federal regulation of production, Administrator Johnson at a press conference had said, "There will be no backing up" on the code's provision for regulation.

Johnson said he and interior department representatives agreed "all the way down the line" in formulating the tentative code offered the oil industry.

Asked why there had been no price control provisions put into the plan, Johnson said prices could not be regulated unless production was also controlled, adding:

"When production control is established that in itself will control prices. Then the only price control needed would be a maximum to protect the public."

Whether the administration would move to set up a maximum is not indicated.

Scouts Save Boy About to Drown

SYLVESTER, Texas. (UP)—It took three girls, a boy and a man to rescue six-year-old Dent Ballo when he stepped into a deep hole while wading.

A sister, Gladys, 12, went to his rescue and was herself near to drowning when another sister, Verlie, 19, saved her. But Dent, another sister, Lois, 17, and a brother, Leslie, 16, swimming nearby, joined in the rescue. G. Ballo, the father, appeared in time to direct the search.

The child was found some distance downstream from where he sank, badly waterlogged. Use of boy scout methods saved him.

CASH BALANCE OF GOVERNMENT UNPARALLELED

NEW YORK, Aug. 2. (UP)—The summer White House today announced that the federal government has a larger cash balance on hand than at any time in history.

A close advisor of Roosevelt said, "We are sitting pretty." The president advised that the new $500,000,000 offer of 3.14 per cent eight year bonds was oversubscribed more than six times.

The White House said the cash balance is more favorable than during war days and that the government is in a favorable position for this year, probably well into the winter.

LIONS ENDORSE NRA CAMPAIGN

Members of the Midland Lions club voted at the regular luncheon today 100 per cent support of the president's recovery program.

Acceptance of a challenge to play the Wink Lions club a baseball game was voted provided the game can be arranged for Tuesday evening of next week at Wink.

Under the house plans, students will be more or less compelled to take two meals a day in the house dining rooms, whereas in the past they ate where they pleased.

The old "training table" also will be abolished under the new plan for years Yale's varsity teams have taken their meals, will become a tradition.

About a month ago three of the yards put on an extra man each, and hours of work have been arranged and salary schedules fixed that comply with the president's 40-hour week and salary minimum of $13 per week.

Managers Alvin Hicks, Raymond Lawrence, Charles Berry, and A. Harry Anderson were among the first to comply fully with NRA in Midland.

REASSURING CONSUMERS

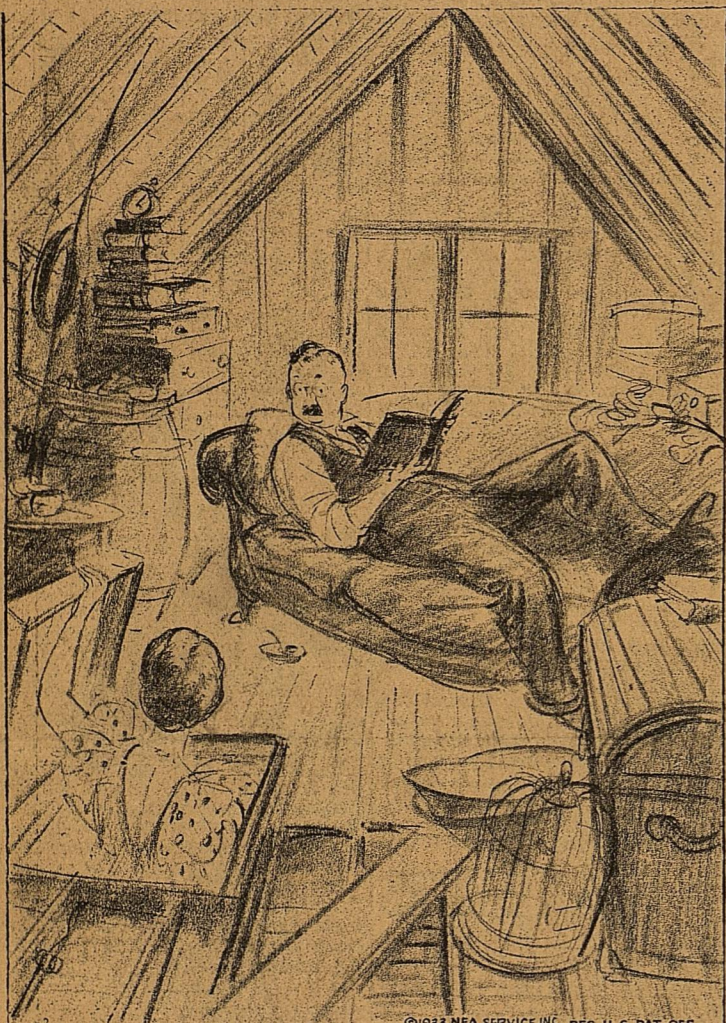

Secretary Wallace's warning that the federal government will attempt to keep farm prices from going too high, as well as from remaining at ruinously low levels, will reassure consumers who have been watching the upward swing in the prices of foodstuffs with some misgivings.

Wallace aptly recalled the experiment of the British, under which prices of crude rubber were forced from 14 cents a pound to more than a dollar, only to collapse later under the burden of stimulation production.

This problem of keeping prices at a level that will not unbalance the law of supply and demand is a delicate and difficult one.

WHAT NEXT? IS QUESTION NOW IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER
WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Much of the capital's after-dinner conversation concerns the "next phase" of the New Deal.

There will be no return to the old uncontrolled system, most everyone says. Whether the summer recovery drive succeeds or fails industry probably will become subject to more control than the administration has yet proposed.

The "Brain Trust" and the various amateur "brain trusts" agree on that.
The first step toward a planned economic system is restoration of employment, but NRA officials look forward to controlled, balanced production. Both production and prices must be kept from galloping ahead of buying power.

Fascism? State capitalism? Limited dividend corporations? Reduced capitalization? How to tie up a monetary policy with the NRA program? What controls will prevent another great crash one, two, three or five years after we're out of the present woods?

Such questions are asked by the capital's best minds. Administrative experts discuss them freely. They will suit their plans to developments now unpredictable.

Innumerable schemes pop up. Some receive serious consideration. They include plans for coercion in case the present high wages-short hours drive doesn't pan out well. Many cotton textile code violations are reported; strikes are breaking out in several industries.

Employers who won't accept the blanket code, who will try to beat the game after accepting it or who won't be able to stand the costs may make such a formidable total as to cause a situation requiring a drastic effort.

No one knows what forces are being unleashed by the attempt to get a whole nation steamed up over certain elementary economic principles. But the question has raised furious speculation in Washington.

Germans Urge Air Protection

BERLIN. (UP).—Aviation and aerial attacks, the vulnerability of Germany to such, and many other questions connected with flying are to topmost topics today in Germany.

Reports about the appearance of enemy airplanes over Berlin, recently, added fuel to the conversation of insecurity against aerial attacks.

In consequence, a propaganda is being conducted throughout the country asking people to join the "Deutscher Luftsport Verband," an organization recently established under the auspices of the government through the "harmonization" of all aviation societies, and which has made it its task to organize civil air protection in Germany.

In order to attract the attention to their organization, planes of the Luftsport Verband are visiting cities and, while circling overhead, drop leaflets with the inscription: "Friend, if this paper had been a bomb, you would now be carried to your tomb."

A further paragraph then asks everyone to join the Luftsport Verband so as to assure the best possible protection against aerial attacks.

BELT, Mont. (UP).—For three years Robert Stark complained of a sore spot on his abdomen.

Recently he visited Dr. R. M. Graybeal of this city, and requested an examination. The doctor found a sharp point protruding from the center of the sore spot. With a pair of forceps he extracted a long steel needle from the place.

Stark was at a loss to explain how he acquired the needle.

WORK HELD UP

DALLAS. (UP).—Three years ago the Lamar-McKinney viaduct was completed at a cost of $500,000 to the city, county and the Rock Island railroad. A month ago a $170,000 approach-underpass was completed.

Neither has ever been used by the public. The city pays one man, a guard, to patrol the underpass at night to keep small boys from defacing its walls.

Nobody knows how long it will be before the underpass and viaduct are put to use—it all depends on the outcome of negotiations between the city and property owners for rights-of-way for a 1,200-foot roadway and a small drainage ditch.

Once the rights-of-way have been acquired the viaduct can be made ready for use within 30 to 40 days.

John Barrymore REUNION VIENNA DIANA WYNYARD

Chatterton and Mate Together

Ruth Chatterton and George Brent are playing together again in a picture, the first time since their marriage. Brent has the leading masculine role in the star's latest First National production, "Lilly Turner," showing today and tomorrow at the Ritz theatre.

Their appearance together is a definite answer to thousands all over the country who have wondered if Miss Chatterton and Mr. Brent would feel, as many actors and actresses have felt in the past, that the fact they were married made it impossible for them to work together in a play or a picture, as they had done before.

Famous Drama Shows at Yucca

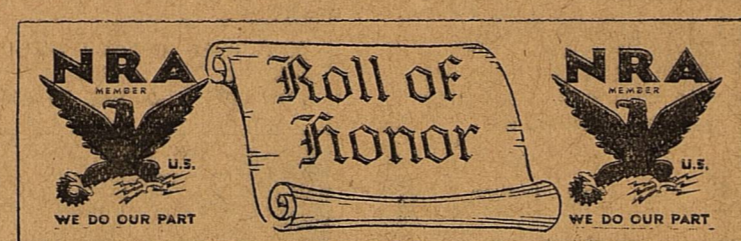

Considerable interest attaches itself to the screen translation of Robert E. Sherwood's stage masterpiece, "Reunion in Vienna," which supplied Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne with one of their most successful vehicles. The talk-picture versions of the noted play will be shown starting today at the Yucca theatre with John Barrymore starred and Diana Wynyard, of "Cavalcade" fame, in the leading feminine role.

"Reunion in Vienna" is regarded by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer as one of its most important undertakings of the current season, which may well be credited in view of the play's phenomenal success and the wide discussion it created when produced under the auspices of the Theatre Guild.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dear Sir: I am writing appreciation to you for a series of articles formerly conducted in your paper by T. S. Hogan of Washington. They were clipped and sent me in a sheaf. I understand that, since the ex-senator's appointment as a lieutenant of Sec. Tolson, Mr. Hogan does not have time to continue regular correspondence with newspapers, and for that I have regrets.

His style is refreshing, and his articles have thought. How different from the obfuscations of Walter Lippman, who dresses commonplace ideas in sumptuous garments, as though he used these verbal coverings to conceal the age and deficiencies of the thought content, as a well known magazine recently said.

As the leading exponent of the machine age the United States is being destroyed by the factors that should make it truly prosperous. Ninety per cent of our political economists attempt to evolve solutions of the present depression which are based upon the theory of a fixed and limited demand for the products of the industrial era.

Operation Blamed For Sudden Leave Of Sylvia Sidney

NEW YORK.—Sylvia Sidney, dark eyed motion picture actress, fears she may have to undergo an operation which would disfigure her and end her career in the films.

Arriving here Tuesday, Aug. 1, after an airplane trip from Hollywood, she said that was the explanation of her abrupt walkout from the Paramount studios where she was making a picture with Maurice Chevalier.
