LET THINGS BE DONE, WHO CARES HOW!

It has been interesting to watch the diagnosticians getting to work on President Roosevelt's address to Congress, trying to figure out whether in the main it was a "liberal" or a "conservative" document.

Even more interesting is the fact that there seems to be no unanimity of opinion on the issue. Some commentators find it one thing, some find it another, and some find it a carefully balanced middle-of-the-road affair.

But while this discussion may be interesting, it is not of any very great importance. For this distinction between liberalism and conservatism seems to be one thing that the ordinary American has stopped caring about of late.

The ordinary American, one may guess, read Mr. Roosevelt's speech without once stopping to figure out whether the gentleman in the White House was inclining to the left or to the right. This business of labels has become—for the time being, at any rate—unimportant.

After all, there is a pretty general agreement in the land on the things which the administration ought to accomplish. People want to see prosperity restored; that is, they want to see stores and factories and railroads busy once more, they want to see the bread-lines dwindling and the "help wanted" signs going up again.

They want to see a return of that era in which farmer and laboring man and business man and professional man could face both present and future with a decent sort of confidence.

And it is very much to be doubted if the mass of people care very greatly how all this is accomplished.

That certain reforms must come with this revival is taken largely for granted. Revival must not carry with it the seeds of a new collapse. Human values must be given a wider place in the general scheme of things. In so far as we can discover the causes of the last collapse, we must eradicate them.

But as for the labels that are attached to the acts of recovery—does the ordinary man actually care two toots about them? It is very doubtful.

So long as we are moving toward recovery and trying to avoid the mistakes of the past, it makes little difference to him whether our policies are liberal, conservative, a little of both—or neither.

RETURNED GIFTS

Assistant Secretary of Commerce Ewing Y. Mitchell acted properly in seeing to it that employees in his bureau refused to accept Christmas gifts proffered by a steamship company which has extensive dealings with the Commerce Department.

All in all, a "wagonload of 50-cent cigars" is said to have been received by various employees of the Shipping Bureau. Mr. Mitchell notifies the employees that "it is not good practice for a government official or employe to accept gifts, even of small value, from those with whom he may have business relations."

To be sure, these particular gifts seem to have been harmless enough. Nobody imagines that a government official is going to sell his soul for a box of cigars.

But the principle is rather important. An ironclad rule against acceptance even of insignificant favors is a good bulwark against growth of public suspicion.

Because he considers its daily study essential to a well-rounded education, Superintendent R. L. Patton of Rutherford College, Morganton, N. C., has directed his students to hunt up copies of Noah Webster's "blue back" spellers, a textbook used by their great-grandparents. While the volume is, in the present day, not easily come by, those who have surveyed its formidable array of words are of the opinion that locating copies of the book will be the easiest part of the students' task.

Perhaps the editors of that Arkansas paper which advertised, "Subscribe for the Sentinel by bringing us wood," might be said to prefer wooden money to a "baloney" dollar.

This staff member received a phone call this morning and replied, "All right, I'll drop up that way in a few minutes." Drop up. Always trying to go against the law of gravity.

The local woman who got locked out of her own house and had to break in may have been a house-breaker but that doesn't mean that she's a home-wrecker.

And then there was the wife who told her husband she was going to the show last night. She came in later with a pair of salt shakers. Figure that one out.

We're against passage of the Tut-will bill, sometimes referred to as the food and drug bill, but if it's passed we may have an opportunity to find out what's in the baloney dollar.

A bank liquidator in an eastern city advertised for sale a "solid mahogany directors' table." Investigation led to the statement that he meant no reflection on the directors but was attempting to describe the table.

PYTHIAN RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions of respect to a Brother Knight in the loss through death of a Brother and Nephew—Once again the Supreme Ruler of the Universe has called through death the brother and nephew of our dear Brother Eddie Blacher to that beautiful castle up above, and we know their going was years too soon, but God in his wisdom knew best.

Even death has a wonderful mission. It lifts our hearts from our surroundings. And when on that great judgment day, we meet again in that great land, we'll kneel and say a word of prayer.

Before we take our stand. Therefore, be it resolved that Midland Lodge 145, Knights of Pythias, in this grand Domain of Texas, extends to Brother Eddie Blacher our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in his sad hour of bereavement and sorrow, and our earnest hope is that his Sister Mrs. Sarah Caplan and their friend Miss Esther Warren have a speedy recovery from their disaster. And, further, be it resolved that we place a copy of these resolutions on the minutes of our next convention, also send our dear Brother Blacher one and have one printed in The Reporter-Telegram.

Two Romances

Feature Story Of Newsy Film

Two surging love stories live in Paramount's "Golden Harvest," produced by Charles R. Rogers, showing at the Ritz theatre Friday and Saturday.

These romances between Richard Arlen and Julie Haydon, and Chester Morris and Genevieve Tobin, have as their background the hysterical activity in the Chicago Wheat Pit and the turbulent farm strike and revolt against foreclosures that are right in the news today.

In this thrilling story by Nina Wilcox Putnam, Arlen and Morris, brothers born to the soil, have different ambitions. Morris leaves for the city for a career as a speculator, falls in love with Genevieve Tobin, daughter of a wealthy trader.

Arlen remains on the farm, marries Julie Haydon. As the price of wheat falls under the onslaught of his brother, he organizes the farm strike, leads the revolt.

When Arlen sees a way of saving the farmers by stopping the shipment of food to cities, jacking prices, he enlists the aid of Morris. They combine, the market soars, and the picture drives on to a rousing peak.

The performances of the cast are outstanding. Roscoe Ates and Elizabeth Patterson supply the comedy interest. The farm scenery, filmed on a location trip to Pendleton, Oregon, is beautiful. Ralph Murphy directed.

Oklahoma is nicknamed the "Sooner" state.

British Put Color In Dress Clothes—But Only in Cloak

LONDON (U.P.)—The arbiters of men's styles who issue their edicts from the dignified chambers of Saville row, have decreed a touch of color to relieve the plain black and white of men's evening attire. Their latest suggestion to brighten the coming year is a crimson-lined evening cloak to be worn over the shoulder to display the color. Already a few of these gay garments have been seen abroad in the West End at brilliant theatrical first nights, and in the stankier supper clubs.

However, it is only the more daring among the fashionable Beau Brummels who have sported the garments so far. Saville row has nothing like the power over its clientele that the fashionable modistes of London and Paris have over their women patrons.

Panhandle Oil, Gas Values Estimated

AMARILLO (U.P.)—Oil and gas recovered from the Panhandle field, together with manufactured by-products, had an aggregate value of $40,000,000 in 1933, according to a survey conducted by N. D. Bartlett, oil editor of the Amarillo News-Club.

Refined gasoline led the field with a slight margin over oil. Six refineries operating at 75 per cent capacity produced 275,000,000 gallons of gasoline valued at $1,000,000. Nine refineries in the field have a total capacity of 58,000 barrels daily, but three of them were not in operation.

The year's recovery of oil was estimated to be worth $10,000,000, the average price being slightly above 60 cents a barrel. The year's production from an average of 1,900 wells daily, was 16,000,000 barrels, bringing the total recovery from the field to 212,174,000 barrels. The average daily allowable was 45,000 barrels. The new potential as figured by the railroad commission, took a hike during the latter part of the year to a total of 159,740 barrels daily.

Passage by the legislature of a bill legalizing the extraction of natural gasoline from gas where no other market is available, resulted in an increase in this product from 155,000,000 gallons in 1932 to 223,000,000 last year. Several new plants were constructed, bringing the total to 55.

All-State High School Grid Team Picked by United Press and Texas News Photos

Here is the all-State high school football team as picked by Texas News Photos and the United Press. Selections of sports writers all over Texas were compiled to make this team. In many cases the vote was very close, and a game between this first team and the second team, named in the same manner, would doubtless be a tie-up. Ratican of Childress, playing on a team that did not win its conference flag, came nearest to unanimous selection. Marshall of Greenville and Owens of Pampa were very popular, with Coston of Dallas following close behind.

UNITED PRESS ALL-STATE FOOTBALL CLUB PICKED FROM SCATTERED AREA

DALLAS. (U.P.)—Bert Marshall, quarterback, and Emmett Hussey, right guard, were the only two members of the championship Greenville Lions to obtain recognition on the United Press all-state high school first football team. The state champions, however, placed three men on the second team—Rogers, left tackle; Sykes, right guard, and Luckett, halfback. Dallas Tech, runner-up for the title, placed Zed Coston, center, on the first team, and Ewing, halfback, on the second team. The first and second teams, selected by newspaper sports editors from all sections of the state, follow: Britt, Ranger—LE—Bordanaro, Port Arthur. White, Masonic Home (Fort Worth)—LT—Rogers, Greenville. Clements, Highland Park (Dallas)—LG—Wren, Temple. Coston, Dallas Tech—C—Jackson, Corpus Christi. Hussey, Greenville—RG—Sykes, Greenville. Brandon, Fort Worth Central—HB—Ewing, Dallas Tech. Hays, San Angelo—F—Forrest, Temple. Honorable mention: Lipsman—Burnett, Greenville; Philbrick, Dallas Tech; Graves, Beaumont; Nance, Fort Worth Central; Soap, Tyler; Reid, Port Arthur; Green, Pampa; Griggs, Sulphur Springs; Costello, San Angelo; Backfield—Slater, Brackenridge; Baker, Brackenridge; Wheeler, Longview; Corbit, Amarillo; Jones, Sweetwater; Cogdell, Abilene; Reed, John Reagan, Houston; Anderson, Ranger; Salome, Austin High of El Paso.

Birthday Party

Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, are among the more than 50 persons on the committee. Another committee, composed of labor leaders, is headed by Green, who estimated that each of the 3,300 labor councils of the federation, which has about 4,000,000 members, would arrange observance. A division of fraternal organizations is being organized by Joseph T. Fanning, past grand exalted ruler of the Elks. A radio party has been arranged for nation-wide broadcasting on the occasion, when nearly 200 stations will carry a description of the festivities. Broadcasting is scheduled to begin at 11:15 p. m., eastern time, over a hookup of the NBC and the CBS networks and continue until 12:15. The birthday "radio ball" also will include a short address by the president.

team 6 to 3 and Howe's team again won its game, beating James Walker's team 7 to 5. Each of the games were run for eight minutes, with a change of goals at the half. The troop is proud to get the services of two new assistant scoutmasters, John M. Speed and Thomas Lee Speed, former Midland scouts. Troop officials were proud of new boys who came to the meeting and signified their intention of joining the troop and starting the work on the tenderfoot requirements. The new applicants were Ronald McWilliams, Russell Wright, John Dublin and Bobby Walker.

Speed Lessens Trip to El Paso

Going to El Paso, transacting business, then returning to Midland for supper is merely in the day's work to hear R. D. Scruggs and Frank Adams of the Scruggs Motor company, Plymouth dealers, tell it. The two left here yesterday morning shortly before 5 o'clock for El Paso, spent three hours in a business conference there, drove back to Midland in time to drink a cup of coffee before "going home for supper."

EGG WITHIN AN EGG MARYSVILLE, Kan. (U.P.)—A White Leghorn hen owned by Perry Lohse, farmer, performed "double duty" recently when she laid an egg within an egg. The egg surrounding the inside egg, which is normal, is eight inches in circumference one way and nine the other.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11. (U.P.)—Before a record American tennis gallery, nearly 17,000 spectators, Big Bill Tilden, 41-year-old veteran, handed a straight set, including last night to Ellsworth Vines, 22-year-old Californian and former world amateur champion making his professional debut. The scores were 8-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Tilden was extended by the hard hitting western youth only in the first set when the lanky Vines scored with frequent outbursts of blistering forehand driving, but yielded after a spectacular duce battle for points. Thereafter the old master, covering court with an agility that belied his years and looking an assortment of strokes that had his young rival dizzy, administered a thorough beating to the Californian.

California at Best Vines electrified the capacity crowd with many of his booming shots, but there was no doubt about the outcome or Tilden's mastery. After the first set, even though he seemed the consensus of experts that the western star was showing his best tennis since he ruled the amateur heights, at home and abroad, in 1932. Tilden's service was no more difficult to handle than the delivery of young master Vines but it was more consistently effective. Big Bill's forehand wallop was not quite the singing weapon that Vines unfurled, when the latter had a clear opportunity to wind up and apply the power, but again it was more accurate and better placed. Off the backhand, Vines revealed himself a showman by trying the Australian two handed grip, in the first set.
