Midland Women Named to Head Zone Meet Of Women's Missionary Group; Rankin Host

Two Midland women were elected to head the Methodist Women's Missionary Society zone district, at a meeting held Saturday at Rankin. Mrs. L. B. Hankins as president and Mrs. Otis Ligon as secretary-treasurer. Mrs. J. Guynes of Big Lake was in charge of the program. Delegates were from Big Lake, Rankin, McCamey and Midland, 17 women and the Rev. Kenneth C. Minter, pastor of the First Methodist church, attending from here.

The morning program presented follows:

Opening song; invocation, the Rev. Washington of Big Lake; welcome address, Mrs. Mitchell of Rankin; response, Mrs. W. I. Pratt of Midland; installation of officers, Mrs. Hankins of McCamey; business hour, which included reading and approval of minutes, old business attention, new business attention, and reports of committees; devotional, the Rev. Mitchell of Rankin; special music, McCamey; district secretary's message, Mrs. S. L. Batchelor of San Angelo; announcement, Mrs. Guynes; benediction.

There followed a fellowship hour and luncheon served at the church. The afternoon program follows:

Prayer, the Rev. Hickman of Rankin; worship and meditation, Mrs. Washington of Big Lake; special music, Mrs. John Dabbs of Midland; group meetings of officers in which Mrs. Hankins instructed a group of presidents, treasurers and corresponding secretaries, Mrs. A. J. Norwood of secretaries, Mrs. Jess Prothro of superintendents of children's departments, Mrs. Batchelor of superintendents of study, literature and publicly, and Mrs. Breeding of superintendents of supplies and local work; general discussion of problems and plans for the year; service of dedication for officers, the Rev. Minter; offering and announcements; benediction.

From Midland were Meses K. C. Minter, Otis Ligon, Jess Prothro.

Work was abandoned until University of California and Stanford paleontologists could collect the bones from the shale formation of rock.

Chevalier Great In "Way to Love," Showing at Ritz

That mysterious part of Paris which has never been shown on the screen—the hundreds of tiny roof-top homes perched crazily on the shabby buildings of Montmartre—

A startling new innovation in openings—wherein twenty cameo-like characters pass in quick rhythmic photographic revue.

Two hit songs by those masters of film music, Leo Robin and Ralph Rainger.

Uproarious comedy mingled with acute drama, touching love situations and rugged battles of castside low-rate cafes.

The beautiful Ann Dvorak as the exotic heroine.
And Maurice Chevalier! These are the intriguing story ingredients of Paramount's "The Way to Love," showing today and tomorrow at the Ritz theatre.

The original story by Gene Fowler and Benjamin Glazer was undoubtedly built around the versatile Chevalier entirely. Every humorous incident, dramatic recontre, melody song or love situation fits Chevalier like a new tailored suit.

The gay playboy, the wine-bibbing, lady-killing Chevalier is noticeably absent. In his stead is a screen version of the real Chevalier—the youth who struggled up from dire poverty in Paris guided by the beacon light of an overwhelming ambition to be somebody—a fellow with a startlingly Chaplinesque technique. In other words, a far more interesting Chevalier than of yore.

The plot has to do with a poor Parisian youth who aspires to be a tourist guide. His sweetheart whom he rescued from a villainous knife-thrower, doesn't approve of his low aspirations. Maurice is despondent and with Edward Everett Horton in tow, tours all the low dives of the Montmartre and gets beautifully drunk. He engages in a free-for-all, and loses his guide job.

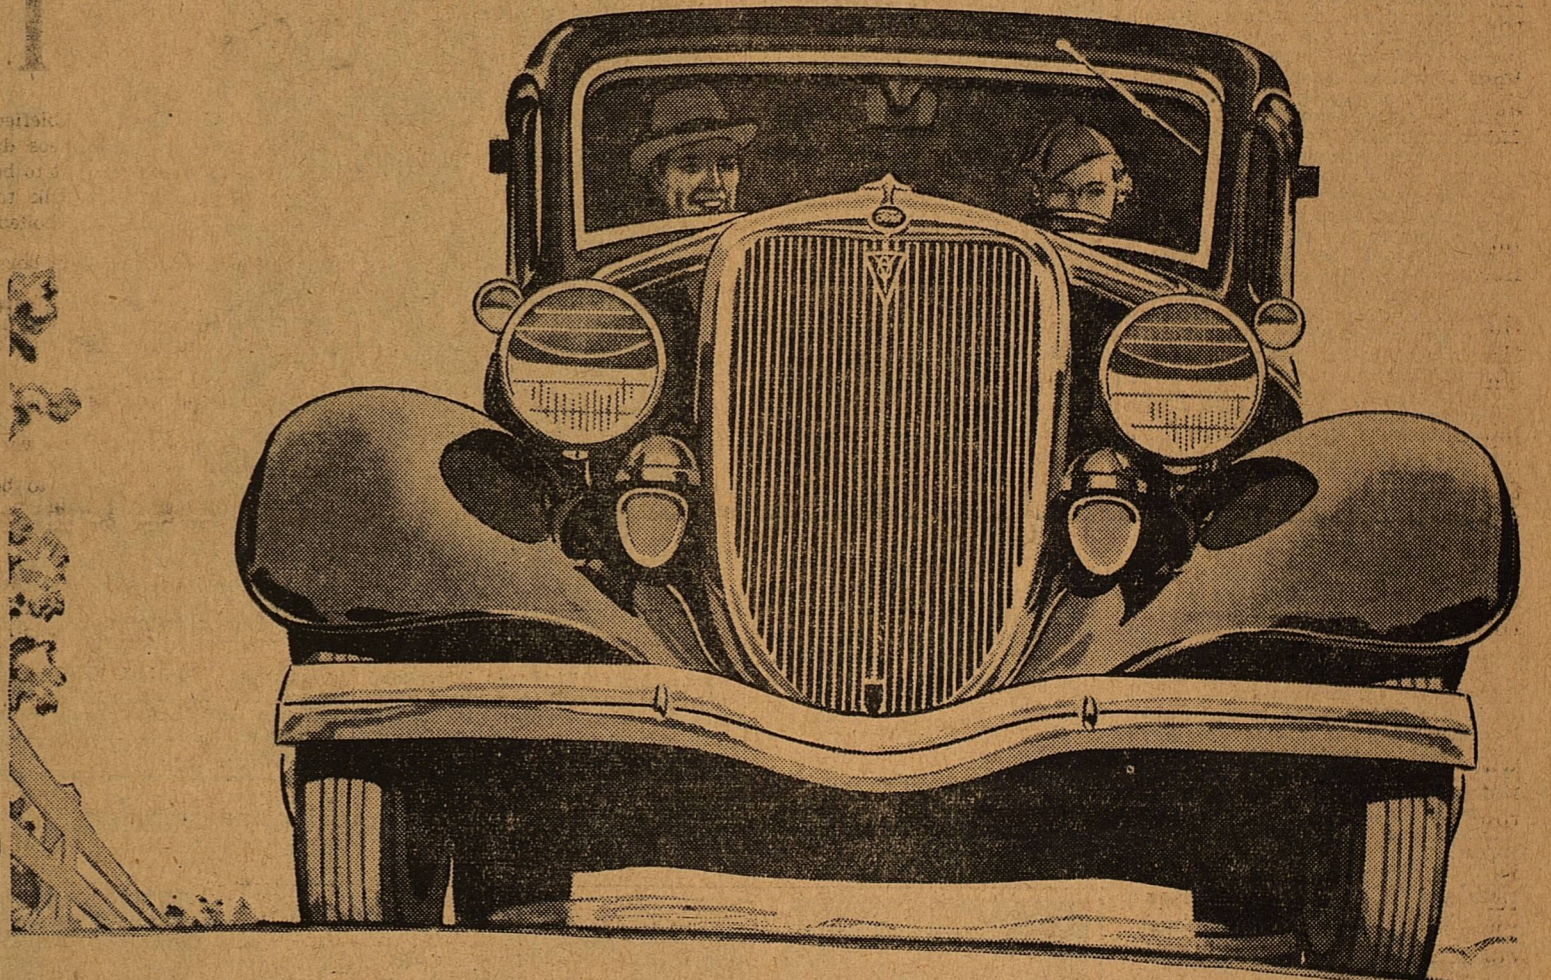

However, Edward Everett Horton who has had a grand time, aids Maurice in securing a better job and winning the hand of his fair heroine, played by Ann Dvorak.

Among the supporting players who contribute excellent work to the story are Arthur Peterson, Muna Gombell, Blanche Frederici, Nydia Westman, John Miljan and Sidney Toler.

"The Way to Love" was directed by Norman Taurog.

NEW FORD V-8 for 1934

The Most Economical Ford Car Ever Built

ALWAYS, the main purpose of the Ford Motor Company has been to provide the most dependable, most satisfactory transportation at the lowest possible price. The New Ford V-8 for 1934 is no exception. It is the most economical Ford ever built. At the same time it is the most powerful, the fastest, the most dependable.

An eight-cylinder car can be inexpensive to operate. The Ford V-8 for 1934 proved this! Millions of miles in actual service, and the unsolicited letters of thousands of V-8 owners, leave no room for dispute on that point. And now—a better Ford V-8 than ever. With more speed and power, faster acceleration, quicker starting in cold weather, and more miles per gallon because of the new dual carburetor, with a dual intake manifold.

Low cost in the New Ford car doesn't stop with fuel and oil economy. It goes farther than that and includes freedom from repairs; the low cost of Ford parts and service; high re-sale value. Economy is only one feature of the New Ford V-8 for 1934. There's greater beauty and riding comfort and new Clear-vision Ventilation system that prevents drafts and has no exterior parts to obstruct your view.

Ride in the New Ford V-8 for 1934 now! It's the car of the year. A money-saver, a time-saver on the quick trips to town—and at the same time a roomy, stylish and most dependable family car.

OUTSTANDING IMPROVEMENTS IN THE NEW FORD V-8

BETTER PERFORMANCE. Greater power, new speed, quicker acceleration, smoother performance, more miles per gallon, especially at higher speeds, and quicker starting in cold weather—all these result from the new dual carburetor and dual intake manifold. New waterline thermostats enable the engine to warm up more quickly and to maintain an efficient operating temperature. Added engine refinements reduce oil consumption and maintenance costs.

NEW VENTILATION SYSTEM permits clear vision, prevents drafts and provides desired amount of fresh air in any weather. Individual control for front and rear side windows. When ventilation is desired the window glass is raised to the top. Then the handle is given an additional half-turn. This slides the glass back horizontally to form a narrow slot. Through this slot air is drawn out by the forward motion of the car.

This simple ventilation system maintains complete draft-free circulation and insures passenger comfort. No fogging of windshield or windows in cold or stormy weather. Both the windshield and the adjustable cowl ventilator in the Ford V-8 can be opened to supply additional air needed for comfortable warm-weather driving. This is an advantage worth remembering.

DISTINCTIVE NEW APPEARANCE enhanced by the newly designed chromium-plated radiator shell and grille, new hood louvers, new hub caps.

Interiors are attractive, with new tufted upholstery, new mouldings, new cove-type headlining, new instrument panel, new arm rests, new hardware. Swivel-type sun visors in De Luxe bodies prevent glare from front or side.

FENDERS IN COLOR. Fenders on all De Luxe Ford cars for 1934 are finished in color to harmonize with body colors. Wheel colors are optional.

GREATER RIDING COMFORT results from increased spring flexibility. The spring leaves are newly designed for quieter and easier action. Shock absorbers are improved. Seat cushions are deeper, with new, softer springs. New type, individual bucket seats provide increased comfort for front-seat passengers in the Tudor Sedan. Adding to comfort is the new driving ease of the 15-to-1 steering gear ratio.

Kaiser Bill Gives Dutch and Germans Wood He'd Chopped

DOORN (U.P.)—All during 1933 the ex-Kaiser cut and sawed wood. On Christmas, quantities of the fuel were given to the poor and needy of Doorn and the neighborhood. Parcels of groceries and clothes were added.

Princess Hermine busied herself with bazaars during the year, and herself acted as saleswoman. Signed photographs of the ex-Kaiser brought $10 and more each. The money raised was divided among the Dutch poor and the German needy in Berlin.

With the increased amount of unemployment in the neighborhood, both the ex-Kaiser and Hermine enlarged their usual contributions to charities.

Aside from these activities, Christmas day itself was dull for the royal exile and his household. Wilhelm is not visited often by any members of his own family. None of his relations gets on very well with his second wife or her family. The ex-crown prince only visits his father when Hermine is away from Doorn. On Princess Hermine's birthday, which occurred late in December, she was visited by some of her sons and daughters, but they were not joined by any of the ex-Kaiser's family.

Strikers Seize Chicago Milk, Dump It Into Road

Callons of milk gushed into a Chicago street and milk cans by the score littered the pavement after strikers captured a truck and dumped its contents, as shown here, in their violent fight to cut off the city's milk supply. Trains were halted and highways blocked by pickets and the city started rationing its meager supply, taking care of only babies and individuals, as the curfew tightened. The government took a hand in the matter Wednesday.

Knights of Rods Quit Jungles of Kin-Go to Work

FORT WORTH (U.P.)—Reluctantly, but effectively, hardened "knights of the rods" have abandoned the roadside fire and the tomato can coffee urn for a clean table and the percolator here.

Their inducement is the Tarrant County Transient bureau, another of the many angles of the national recovery and rehabilitation program. Some of the calloused itinerants, veterans of hobnobland who have made a life's "work" of wandering, were a bit hard to induce to join the bureau. Younger men, however, and those forced to the road by depression, welcomed the opportunity.

At the head of this organization and doing an interesting as well as valuable work is a man who himself was forced to join the vast army of unemployed. He is H. P. Mott, of New York, in good times a paper salesman.

Mott became engaged in relief work in Harris county last year. So successful was his work there that he was transferred to Fort Worth last December to organize the transient bureau here.

About 10 per cent of the 1000 men now lodged at the bureau are of that old school of hoboes who carried out their "work" for "art's sake." The other 90 per cent, he said, are men and boys forced into unemployment and who are enthusiastic over the opportunity to "keep the chin up."

The men have forsaken the old T&P water for the most part happiness and contentment, although generally longing for the day when they can break loose again on their own.

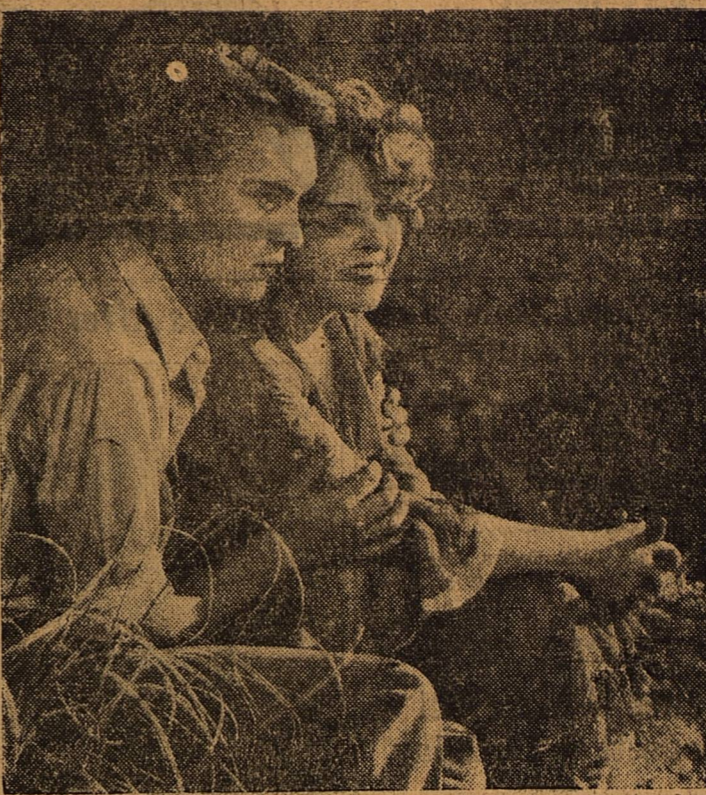

Some of the old school do not acquiesce so readily in the work that the men are forced to do to earn their three warm meals a day, their warm beds and their daily bath. But for the general, the men enter into the thing with a gusto, born of weeks and months of adversity, cold, hunger and suffering.

When a transient is admitted to the bureau he is taken to the basement. There he is stripped, given a medical examination, put under a shower bath, and then issued clean clothes. His next step is to be given a job in one of the enterprises that have been arranged for that purpose.

All is not work, however. For recreation there are handball, horseshoe pitching, and baseball. Those talented as entertainers are in another recreational group. All in all, the transients live within a veritable village of their own in the heart of Fort Worth, carrying on their work unmindful of the rest of the city and living their own lives in their own buildings and dwellings.

NATION'S OLDEST ROTARIAN
ABILENE, Kan. (U.P.)—The oldest Rotarian in the country recently was feted here by the local chapter, D. B. Gordon, 89, has been a member of the organization since the Abilene chapter started.

At Yucca Theatre Today

Clara Bow and one of the principal players in her latest starring production for Fox Film, "Hoopla." Her two leading men are Preston Foster and Richard Cromwell. The show ends its engagement Monday night.

SWEDISH FILM CENSOR BUSY

STOCKHOLM (U.P.)—The Swedish censorship, of which Dr. Gunnar Bjurman, is the head, now has viewed its 50,000th film since Sept. 1, 1914. Half of the films submitted are of American origin, as compared with 80 per cent just before the talkies were introduced, but about 250,000 meters are eliminated every year, mostly vulgarities. The censor's judgment changes with public taste, admits Dr. Bjurman. He also grants that the producers show better judgment than they used to.

APPETIZER IS POPULAR

STOCKHOLM (U.P.)—The vogue of Swedish "smorgasbord" or preliminary appetizer, has increased the demand in many foreign lands for Swedish anchovies and pickled herring in cans. Repeal in America is expected to stimulate the demand for boned herring still further. Or canned cod in general. Sweden consumes only eight cans per individual a year, compared to 55 in the United States.

CLAUSE PREVENTS SALE

CERES, Calif. (U.P.)—Because under a clause in deeds of land sold by Daniel Whitmore, founder of Ceres, liquor in all forms is forever outlawed in this town, although other cities in Stanislaus county are wet. Buyers of land agreed to forfeit it if they sold, or ever had in their possession, any beverage known as liquor, deeds to the property said.

SPIRIT OF ECONOMY

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (U.P.)—This city seems to treasure the spirit of economy exemplified by its one-time mayor, the late President Calvin Coolidge. Recently a chemical truck attached to the fire department broke down after 21 years' service. But instead of getting a new one, the old one is being repaired.

PROFESSIONAL LIARS BARRED

PORT ANGELES, Wash. (U.P.)—Fishermen in this section were preparing their fish stories for the coming handicap of the "tallest fish story" to be held here next summer. Only "professional liars" were barred from the fish story contest to be held in connection with the annual Salmon Derby.

BEST FIRE RECORD

SAN BENITO (U.P.)—San Benito believes that it has the best 1933 fire record of any town in the Lower Rio Grande Valley with a loss of less than $200 for the year. Fire Chief C. L. Potter reports 10 city calls and seven rural runs but all were minor blazes. Quick action in preventing spread of flames and educational work to remove fire hazards contributed to the record.

PAPER DELIVERY INCREASE

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (U.P.)—James D. Meek, a mail carrier for over 30 years, believes the greatest change which occurred in the rural free delivery is the increase in daily newspapers. He had only one paper delivery 30 years ago and on the day he retired practically everyone on the route took a paper.

Stop Violation Oil Production Orders

AUSTIN (U.P.)—The state and federal oil administrations moved speedily recently to prevent violation of oil production orders pending a decision in a federal court action against the regulations.

Certain operators, officials believed, were preparing to overproduce in expectation that the decision of the court would overthrow the order. In that event no action could be taken against the offenders.

The oil administrators, however, obtained injunctions against the operators which will remain in effect until the decision of the three-judge court is entered.

Officials charged with administering the state conservation laws and the federal administrators under the oil industry code are looking forward to the opinion, some with fear, that the order will be voided and some with confidence that it will be upheld. The attack was based principally on allegations that the commission did not act in accordance with the state conservation laws in issuing the order but instead set an allowable to conform with recommendations of the federal administration.

The opinion was expected to have an important bearing on other phases of the NRA and will be read eagerly throughout the country by persons in other lines of endeavor since the authority of the federal government to act in this instance was challenged.

Conditions in the oil industry may be said to have become settled. This is reflected in the lack of excitement and bickering that used to mark proration hearings of the commission.

When proration was in its infancy and elements of the industry were at loggerheads, the hearings would last from three to four days. The record was filled with biting remarks from the operators. On a few occasions the atmosphere became so charged that it required the intervention of more peaceful spirits to keep prospective combatants apart.

At the last hearing of the commission, not a line of new testimony was recorded and where operators and lawyers formerly argued for hours over whether it should be "twiddle dum" or "twiddle dee" the session was concluded in about 20 minutes.

Midget "Cow-Dog" Puzzles Wisconsin Veterinarians

RHINELANDER, Wis. (U.P.)—Veterinarians here have been puzzled by a midget "cow-dog" recently purchased by a Chicago concern for exhibition at the World's Fair next year.

The creature is 18 months old, has the head and tail of a bulldog and the hide of a cow. It is 22 inches high, and weighs little more than a wood-sized dog.

Its parents were a normal bull and cow.

TO GET STATUE OF CHRIST

CHAMONIX, France. (U.P.)—A statue of Christ, 98 feet high, with a chapel at its base and a marble tablet recording the Alpine feats of Pope Pius XI, is under construction at Les Houches, a village of the Haute-Savoie, opposite Mont Blanc. An Italian mountain climber, Mgr. Achille Ratti, ascended the Dôme du Gouter and Mont Blanc. He is today the Holy Father, and he has conferred a special blessing on all who have contributed to the erection of the statue.

MAY USE SPRINGS

PARIS (U.P.)—Hot water is said to exist in great quantities beneath Paris. Municipal councilors are suggesting ways of utilizing it. It would be advantageous, they state, to sink a very deep artesian well in the neighborhood of La Villette, and to create a thermal station near the Auteuil and Longchamp race courses so as to utilize hot radioactive springs with highly mineralized water, which, if geologists are right, should be found under this district.

8,066 BLOCKS IN QUILT

WAYNESBURG, O. (U.P.)—The tireless fingers of Mrs. Elton Hoobler have just completed a quilt of 8,066 tiny hexagonal blocks, whose millions of stitches required nine months to complete. Believing her quilting record unique, Mrs. Hoobler says that the tedious piece of needlework required 800 yards of thread for "piecing" and 1,200 yards for "quilting." Each of the 8,066 blocks is one inch square. Two hundred eighteen different colored blocks, no two alike, are represented.

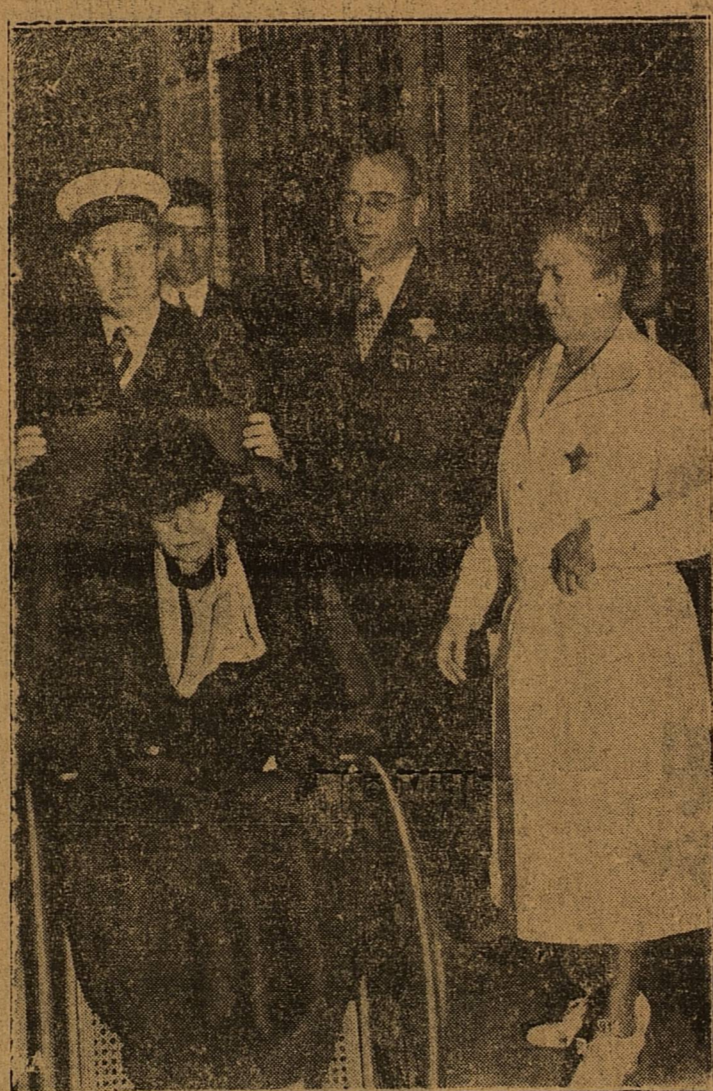

One man can plant 44 acres of corn in one day with a hand corn-planter, 63 acres with a one-horse one-row corn-planter, and 13.6 acres with a two-horse two-row corn-planter.

Pretty Angry!

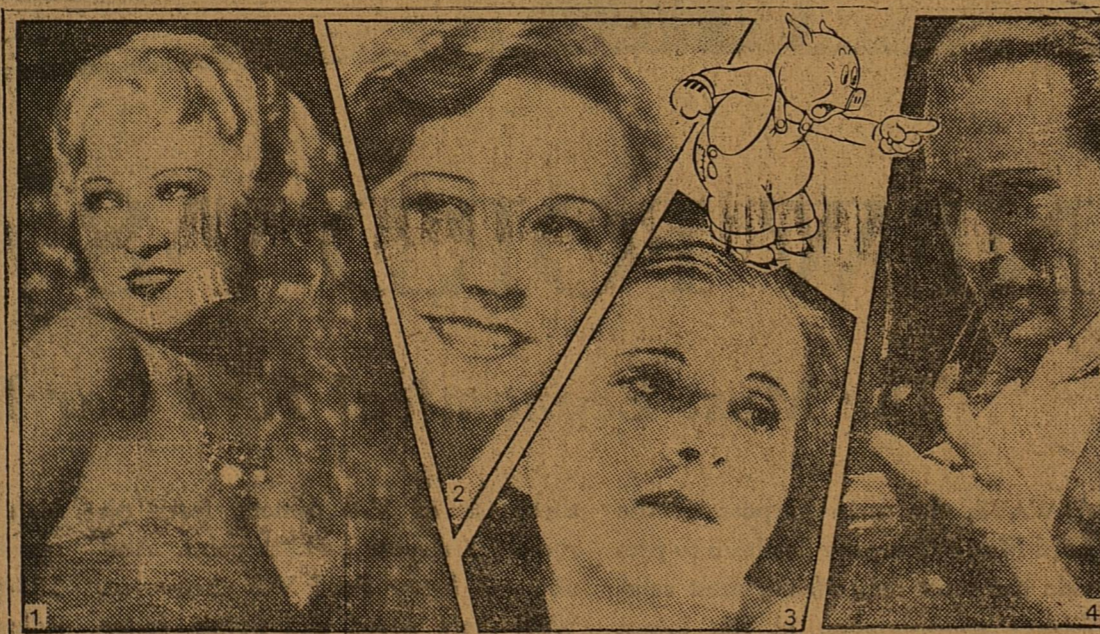

If Sidney Fox, pretty screen player, appears to get the new year a bit pensive, it may be because Hollywood's first domestic eruption of 1934 is reported to have estranged her from her producer-husband, Charles Beach. Movie friends are predicting the couple will make up. They were married in December, 1932.

JANUARY

is a Month of Bargains

THE MAN (or perhaps it was a woman!) who invented the towel had a great idea! And an equally great benefactor was the man (or more likely a woman) who conceived the idea of making towels as colorfully attractive as they are bathingly serviceable.

Along about this time of the year, towels also have their plan of moving from bargain counters to thrifty closets. Linens, handkerchiefs and blankets also beckon the eye and prices soothe the pocketbook. January is a glorious month for bargains!

The advertisements in your newspaper are important news of the shopping world and they tell an interesting story of quality and price—of things that are new.

Did you ever pause to consider how much time and expense these advertisements save you? You make your own decisions in your own home. You figure the cost to a penny. Then, with the help of these daily messages of economy in your newspaper, you go forth on an adventure of buying and return with exactly what you intended to get.

ODESSA'S ANNUAL CAGE TOURNAY
PRONOUNCED A SUCCESS; SEVERAL GAMES ARE STIFFLY CONTESTED

By JESS RODGERS

The Odessa invitation basketball tournament started off with a bang Friday when Crane decisively defeated Midland in the opening game, by 46-13.

The second game, between McCamey and the Big Spring Roosters, was the closest of the day and ended by the score of 15-12 in favor of Big Spring.

Late News

The third game of the day saw Big Lake's tall Owls hand the Flashy Wink club a 24-12 drubbing and thoroughly impress all spectators that they were the best in the tourney.

The first game of the evening saw the Pecos Eagles go down to the Banstow club by an 18-10 count when the Eagles were unable to stop Dyer, tree top center, and Echois, a speedy little guard who was all over the court from the opening whistle to the end of the game.

In the next encounter the Rankin Red Devils were forced to go three extra periods to defeat a large but awkward club from Alpine, 27-23. Cope, the Rankin center, made a free shot in the last few seconds of the game to tie the score and then missed a free try in the second extra period that would have won the game; but the Devils (Red) received their due in the next five minutes when they made four points while holding Alpine scoreless.

The last game of the evening, between the Hobbs Eagles and the Odessa Bronchos, was the most thrilling of the day and was in doubt until the final whistle, with Hobbs winner 21-20. Hobbs led 19-11 at the end of the third period but in the last stanza the Bronchos came alive with a bang and, with a young forward named Smith dropping the ball through the hoop from all angles, the Eagles were lucky to escape with their tail feathers. Inability of the Odessa club to take advantage of free shots caused its loss as it was almost made only two gratis shots while the winners were making no less than seven.

Only 14 days remain for paying poll taxes. Only 325 had registered up to 3:30 Saturday afternoon, records of the county tax collector showed.

TO SERVE WESTEX QUAIL

Miss Georgia Bryant plans to have a quail dinner for her central Texas friends this week. The quails were shot by two cowboys, C. E. Strawn and Henry Locklar. The two hunters were ambitious to provide from 40 to 50 birds for Miss Georgia and began their shooting foray Saturday.

CIRCLE MEETING

The Belle Bennett circle of the First Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Davis, 602 North Marientfield.

What is claimed to be the first aviation service station is located on Long Island.

Funny On and Off Screen

You might think George Burns and Gracie Allen would want to show the rest of the world they're a regular married couple when they're not acting—that George is a kind husband and Gracie isn't really dumb.

Princess Joins Society Whirl

Her 19th birthday passed, Princess Maria, above, vivacious beauty, has assumed the duty of representing the Italian royal family at many formal social functions.

Golfers of both the higher and lower registers—which makes for a difference as wide apart as the poles—have been called to meet at the country club house Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock for organization in connection with Midland's participation in the Sand Belt and the Kat Klaw golf organizations.

Election of the Midland director in the Sand Belt Golf association and a team captain will be included. The meeting was called by Joe D. Chambers, Midland's 1933 director of the Sand Belt. The newly elected director will meet within a few days with other new directors of the association, probably at Big Spring, for final action. The season is expected to begin about April 1, as in other years.
