Athletic Fence Knotholes Used With Advantage

WINK (U.P.)—Knotholes in the fence that surrounds the Wink high school athletic park created general demand yet no contest was billed for the new arena.

Workmen engaged in moving the fence were sent scaling for safety on its top when a mad dog attacked them. So fierce was the men were afraid to stay on the fence, leaving to the other side and watching the animal through knotholes.

Constable Dick Taylor shot the dog, the third to have contracted rabies here recently.

Pates Cracked in New Mexico Shindig

HOBBES, N. M. (U.P.)—It was not a ball held in observance of the birthday of the president, that frolicsome shindig that resulted in a general thrashing of pates in the Harding community.

Neither was that which resulted in various casualties to the Mosquito community an official ball for relief of the Warm Springs foundation. Both were held on the night of the president's birthday, however.

Deputy Sheriff Gallegos was numbered among the supine after the Mosquito battle, which included several youths. A well applied piece of scrap iron was used upon him, he charged.

Two Ector Tests Get Oil Showing

Two Ector county tests, both in the northern part of the county, had their first showings reported Monday.

A slight showing of gas at 3,995 feet was an increase at 4,012 feet in drilling to 4,015 feet, was reported in Stanolind Oil and Gas company No. 4 J. M. Cowden estate, 660 feet from the north line and 1,980 feet from the east line of section 27, block 43, township 1 north, T. & P. railway survey.

Continental Oil company No. 1 hit, 660 feet from the west line and 1,980 feet from the south line of section 20, block 4, public school land, an offset to production, filled 150 feet with oil Monday from line at 4,200 to 4,205 feet. Operators were drilling ahead at that point.

MEXICO, Mo. (U.P.)—Miss Eleanor Cass, of Mexico, has a 222-year-old sampler made in Stratford-on-Avon, England, by one of her ancestors. It bears the date Feb. 17, 1712. On it is etched an alphabet with a quaint design of flowers and a Bible verse.

"73," for Your Information, Is Term Husband Should Have a Care in Using

What the wild air waves are saying—especially as regards the amateur broadcasters of Midland—

Anyone who listens in over his low wave set frequently hears the CQ's on the trail, of Station WGBE, operated by G. B. Brock, radio man of Sloan field. Then, there will come CQ's from Dick Morse of Dallas, former Midland man, or shop talk from Alvin Schneider, another Midland station owner.

These fellows have a way of talking "over the heads" of the chance listener. Brock, for instance, "working" Station W50BH, Houston, last night, told of several Midland inhabitants never having seen a rain. The Houston man, whose set was fading repeatedly because of heavy rains there yesterday sent back a "99", which means "Get out!" or something to that order. One says "73" when talking to a girl operator. For the information of Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Morse and Mrs. Schneider, that means "Love and kisses." The continual "Hi" one hears indicates the hearer has just had a good laugh. QSA refers to the signal strength (which is indicated from 1 to 5, depending on volume), and QRA is location. And how those boys do talk shop! They spend great periods discussing troubles in their station, swap diagnosis and otherwise keep the chance listener guessing.

Tom Mix Horses Seen in Midland; Actor en Route

Tony, Tony Junior and several other well known horses belonging to the screen actor Tom Mix, were seen here today as Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nolan stopped here briefly en route to Dallas, where the Sam Dill circus and the Tom Mix roundup will go into winter headquarters.

Mix was expected to reach Midland in his Rolls Royce some time this afternoon from Los Angeles. He and his horses have just completed a circus engagement of seven months, and will open again at April at Little Rock, closing in December at Los Angeles.

There were six horses and truck mule in the large van, and two horses in a trailer. Stopping here was necessary as Nolan wanted to procure blankets to protect the horses in the trailer.

Tony, now 25, was viewed by several score interested persons, Nolan courteously letting down a door in the side of the van to facilitate the view. A hackney horse, Taggart, came in for much attention, as did Tony Junior and the truck mule.

The Dill circus has 120 such vans as that seen in Midland. Mix was here last July with three of the large vans. The actor has made more western pictures than any other, but has not held a contract for several months, preferring to travel about with his circus, a life which was responsible for his being launched into pictures.

Beer Voters Win In Nolan County

SWEETWATER.—With only one box remaining unreported late Tuesday night, Nolan county had voted to legalize the sale of 32 beer in a county-wide election by the majority of approximately 300 votes.

Although most of the smaller boxes voted against the sale of beer the boxes in Sweetwater were carried by the wets by a 2 to 1 majority. The balloting was light as only 2,149 votes were cast out of the county's possible voting strength of approximately 4,000.

Voting by boxes is as follows: Sweetwater east box, 553 for, 275 against; Sweetwater west box, 364 for, 132 against; Roscoe box, 189 for, 212 against; Mary Neal box, 38 for, 12 against; Bitter Creek box, 14 for, 2 against; Divide box, 34 for, 85 against; Hylton box, one for, 20 against; Decker box, five for, 21 against; Westella box, seven for, 18 against; Bastwell box, 24 for, 125 against. The Champion box had not been heard from.

Carlsbad Getting Training Flights

CARLSBAD, N. M. (U.P.)—Some of the immediate results of the grubbing and dragging of the new airport of this resort town was the scheduling of graduation flights of Kelly field, Texas, cadets to land here.

A flight of 10 army planes led by Major Andrews recently landed and spent several days, and other flights have settled here since that date. The planes return to their Kelly field base via El Paso, Marfa and Dryden.

Improvement work here recently includes construction of cone-shaped rock boundary markers.

Boatler, principal of the Fairview school 20 miles northwest of Colorado, is being held in the Howard county jail for safe keeping after charges a Persian cat, even insisted, but Brock had admitted to the air to whoever listened that his wife has a canary—and she's the boss around here.

Money Asked to Fumigate Cotton

WASHINGTON.—The government was asked upon Tuesday by Rep. Thomson (U. S. Tex.) to make provision for paying the cost of fumigating cotton offered for shipment in the area of far West Texas under a pin-borer quarantine.

The Texas also urged support for his pending bill providing for the reimbursement, from government and state funds on a 50-50 basis, of fumigation costs, which are mounting for ten years and would run between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000.

John Gist Wins At Houston Show

John M. Gist won the senior champion steer award with his champion, McCully's Prize, at the Houston Fat Stock show Monday. Mason's Pretty Boy, Hereford, owned by J. D. Jordan of Mason was adjudged the reserve champion steer.

A West Texas girl proved to be the best "cattiewoman" at the show by capturing the junior champion and the grand champion steers, awards with her Hereford, Ed. She is Miss Ruby Ludwick of Brady.

Shoots at Hawk; Hits Another Bird

ARTESIA, N. M. (U.P.)—J. A. Reed, farmer living near here, is convinced it pays to look before you shoot.

He tried out a new high-powered rifle on a hawk perched in a high tree with the result that he grazed the ribs of Ed Nelson, farm hand, nearly two miles away.

Nelson was sitting in his shack getting into a pair of irrigation boots. The slug from the heavy rifle bored through the wall of Nelson's house, went through the farm hand's jumper and coat, raked his ribs and plopped down on a stove, where it was recovered. Nelson was not seriously injured.

Restoration This Mail Route Likely

BIG SPRING.—Answering a protest by C. T. Watson, chamber of commerce secretary, S. A. Cisler, general superintendent of the nation's post office department, said Tuesday in a communication here "It is regretted that the recent emergency left your city without air mail supply."

He added "the question of extending service by the war department is being given earnest attention by the department and will be provided as soon as practicable."

Shortly after reception of the letter, Watson talked with C. R. Smith, vice-president of the American Airways.

Smith said he was "hopeful" that his company would again be given a contract to carry mail on this route.

Court Martial of Major Ocker Is Started Today

Major William C. Ocker, oldest army pilot in point of service, pleaded not guilty today at a court martial trial on charges that he spoke disparagingly and profanely of a superior officer.

The charges were preferred by Lieut. Col. Henry A. Claget, Kelly field commandant.

The court room was strictly military, with few civilian spectators. Cool stoves heated the room.

Major C. C. Johnston, flight surgeon who grounded Major Ocker after Claget ordered the pilot to submit to examination for eye sight, was the first witness for the prosecution.

Ocker was accused of saying, "If other pilots on the field, such as Claget, were given more than cursory examination, they too would be off flying status. There was a collusion between the commanding officer of this station and you (Johnston) relative to my examination."

Stevenson Might Find Precedent a Difficult Matter

AUSTIN (U.P.)—Should Coke Stevenson decide to break a precedent by trying for re-election as speaker of the Texas house he may find that success will be difficult.

Several of Stevenson's friends in the house, including some who supported him heartily in his campaign for speaker of the current legislature, have indicated they would not support the move.

Some of them have signed a petition circulated in behalf of the candidacy of J. B. Ford of McGregor for speaker and have expressed themselves as fully behind Ford even if it meant opposing a bid by Stevenson for re-election.

In an informal conversation, one of Stevenson's warmest admirers expressed hope that Stevenson would not take the chance.

"He is timber for bigger things than speaker of the house," he said. "And another thing, he might stick his head out too far and get it chopped off."

Stevenson's refusal to commit himself has given rise to a supposition that he may seek to succeed himself.

The 43rd legislature during the long regular and first special sessions cannot the companion of the "Rightful 43rd" because of the number of combats and near combats staged by the members. Some of the incidents were quite dramatic in some diaphanous trifle.

The second special session went off with little more than the passing of a bill. There were the customary wranglings between factions but at no time did differences show signs of developing into major proportions.

He Gets Cigarette And Place to Smoke

WINK (U.P.)—A racket of a different kind was nipped here when a man knocked on the door of a deputy sheriff by mistake.

Evidently the racket was to knock on door and, if anyone answered, beg a cigarette and leave. Puffing of the house was the alternative.

The officer not only gave the man a cigarette, but plenty of room in the jail for smoking.

Drilling Is Brisk In Ward Co. Areas

MIDLAND, Feb. 28.—The Gulf Production company is active in Ward county at the present time. The company has been staked for No. 44 G. W. O'Brien. It is 330 feet out of the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of section 17, block F. G. & M. M. E. & A. survey.

In addition to this new location there are five tests drilling in the immediate locality of this production. No. 41 O'Brien is drilling in line at 590 feet. No. 42 O'Brien is drilling in anhydrite, and No. 43 is drilling in red rock at 430 feet. On the Hutchins Stock Association land, the Gulf has No. 45 drilling 2,390 feet in the line, and No. 26 is drilling at 1,290 feet in broke-anhydrite. The Gulf already has 67 producers in this immediate locality.

The Sinclair Prairie Oil company has made another location on the Archenhold tract in Ward county. The new test is No. 5 and is 2,410 feet from the southeast line and 2,310 feet from the southwest line of section 23, block 5, H. & T. C. survey.

Pre-Prohibition Night Clubs Now Sparkling Again

BY PAUL HARRISON

NEW YORK.—The chorus girls' lament has changed into a song of jubilation. Happy days are here again and everything is not only rosy, but hot-cha and also hey-hey. There are jobs.

Jobs for peppy little ponies who know how to dance, jobs for tall, pulchritudinous show-gals who know how to walk and wear a few clothes, jobs for stream-lined Venuses who can pose and posture in some diaphanous trifle.

Not many of these jobs are on the legitimate stage. The remarkably prosperous theatrical season has been all the more unusual because of an unprecedented lack of musical comedies and revues. And of such offerings as can be termed musicals only one, "Murder at the Vanities," offers any display that is truly anatomical in the old chorus-show tradition.

It's the cabaret, the music hall and the big café, modernized, that offers the chorus girl her big chance. Relatively few prohibition night clubs had any room for a floor show—really only a revival of pre-war cabarets de luxe—has to have them, bigger and bare than ever, and with big-name stars and specially-written acts and music. Such places are really theatres, even if the customers do sit at tables instead of in rows of plush seats. And it is to them that New York and its visitors must go to see song-bodies could see the stage.

A couple of decades ago the Palais Royal was one of the brightest Broadway institutions, but doomed to ignominy as a chop suey palace with the coming of prohibition. Recently an ex-night club potentate named Ben Madden restored it to its place in the spotlight. When the wreckers had carried off a few tons of the old gilded decor, and the architects had done their work, there was a spacious room quietly done in blue and tan, and seating a thousand people at its tiers of tables so that everybody could see the stage.

Walter Brooks, musical comedy producer, was brought into to do the revue, Jimmy McHugh and Dorothy Fields wrote the lyrics and music. Bob Alton, who used to work for Ziegfeld, staged the dances. Kiviette designed the costumes for dancing, show and ballet girls. The result is an hour-and-a-half revue (three shows a night) that is clever. (See NIGHT CLUBS, page 4)

WARMER, CLOUDY WEATHER IS SEEN

DALLAS, Feb. 28. (U.P.)—The cold wave was broken and rain was falling in the south and other sections of Texas today.

Temperatures throughout the state increased, the lowest being reported at Amarillo with 20 degrees. The highest was 48 at Galveston.

For the first time in three nights, the mercury did not fall below freezing Tuesday, meteorologists at Sloan field said today.

A minimum of 36 was registered for a couple of hours early today.

Masked Wrestler Has Odorous Edge

SALT LAKE CITY.—Ira Dern, local wrestler who has quite a reputation for his rather rough tactics, met more than his match when he recently wrestled the masked "Red Terror" here.

The match was nip-and-tuck until each had won a fall. Then, when the third fall had started, Dern smelled something. He charged that the "Red Terror" had put cheese under his finger nails and that he was trying to nauseate him (Dern) with it.

The bout was stopped until the masked grappler had washed his hands.

LEGISLATION OF RELIEF NATURE IS CONSIDERED

Governor Will Sign
Moratorium Says
Farmer Jim

AUSTIN, Feb. 28. (U.P.)—The second special session of the forty-third legislature expired at 2:05 o'clock this morning at the constitutional limit of a 30-day existence.

Lieut. Governor Edgar E. Witt and Speaker Stevenson ordered the clocks in the legislative hall stopped, otherwise the session would have ceased at midnight.

Close surviving measures of the session included issuance of $7,500,000 in state relief bonds; a moratorium until February 1, 1935, on forced sales of property; examination of refiners' records by the railroad commission in a campaign against illegal oil. All were designed to attain maturity and have the force of law upon signature by the governor.

James E. Ferguson spoke for the governor. He expressed no probability of another special session. He said the governor will sign the moratorium bill.

WAR BUSINESS RISES!

Strange, how the rumors of coming war can be felt in far-off places and in the most peaceful of pursuits! Steamship traffic through the Panama canal is heavy, these days—and the imminence of war is largely responsible.

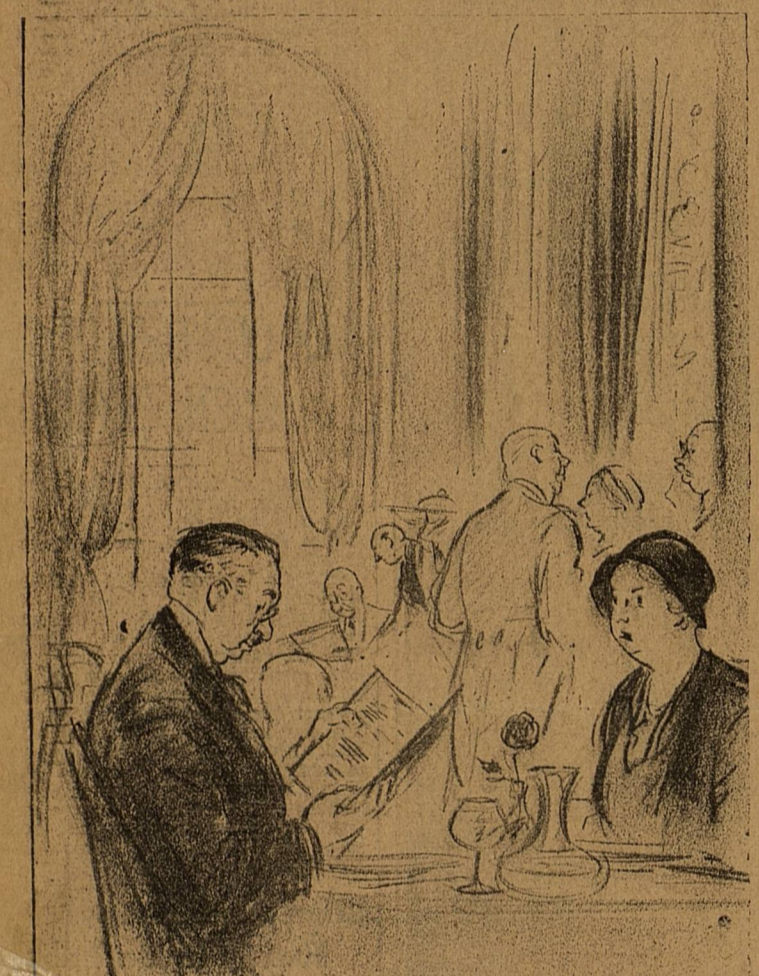

During the first three weeks of February, for instance, 12 steamers passed through the canal bound for Europe with Chilean nitrates—nitrates, from which high explosives are made.

At the same time, many ships are going through the canal in the other direction, bound from the east coast of the United States for Japan with scrap iron, lead, and cotton—commodities which also are destined to be transformed into the munitions of war.

Rusty steamers, deeply laden, busy on the most peaceful of errands... but grimly foreshadowing the fear of war which grips the world!

And up to now practically no progress has been made toward disarmament among pillow fighters.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

February 23, 1934. The Reporter-Telegram: Now that the Birthday Ball for the President has come to a successful conclusion, I feel that I would be remiss in closing this activity unless I took opportunity to express to you the appreciation of the National Committee for all that you and your associates have done in making this success possible.

Of course, no social event is a real success with the cooperation of the press, but in this particular case the newspapers of the country played a much greater role than the invaluable one of acquainting all of their readers with the event.

Over 3000 local committees throughout the country were organized in practically five weeks. Mr. Carl Bvoir, the General Director of the National Committee, tells me that his record of organization would have been absolutely impossible except for the fact that the local chairmen, almost without exception, were nominated by the local newspaper publishers.

I think the most heartening fact developed by this campaign was that, without a single exception, the newspapers of this country, both daily and weekly, joined in organizing and supporting this great humane work. This is probably the first time in the history of this country that a nationwide organization has been effected through the medium of the press although, of course, the newspapers of this country have frequently given unstintingly of their space to many charitable causes.

As soon as returns from local committees are complete and have been audited by a firm of nationally known certified public accountants, full detailed information will be furnished the public through the press so that all may know the extent of the success of the Birthday Ball.

It has been a real inspiration to me to have been associated with you in this work and I just want you to know that I feel very deeply that you can always have a just pride in having played so important a part in the fight against infantile paralysis.

Sincerely yours, Henry L. Doherty National Chairman

Lubitsch Wins Highest Honor For New Film

Ernst Lubitsch's brand new Paramount picture, "Design for Living," is now playing at the Ritz theatre.

It has for its leading players Fredric March, Gary Cooper, Miriam Hopkins and Edward Everett Horton and was brought to the screen by Ben Hecht from Noel Coward's sensational stage success of the same name.

Motion pictures have rarely attempted pictures dealing with the subject of "Design for Living."

Paramount, struck with the amusing entertainment possibilities of the stage play, bought it for a Lubitsch picture and placed a most important cast in the film.

Answering the roll call, students gave the names of American composers and compositions done by them. Four-year-old Jane Harrison and her six-year-old brother, Harvey played their numbers from memory. The "Little Symphony" played by Billy Noyes deserved special mention, the large audience showed.

The Rev. Kenneth C. Minter pronounced a benediction.

ATHENS, O. (U.P.)—Miss Margaret Alcorn, Youngstown, O., a journalism student of Ohio university here, did not get to write the first story she was assigned at the daily newspaper where students get practical reporting experience. Instead, she became the subject of a story, when, during the showing of a play she was to review, she was stricken with acute appendicitis and taken to a hospital for an emergency operation.

The battleship West Virginia was built at a cost of $20,510,000 and is the most expensive battleship in the United States navy.

OLDSMOBILE OFFERS BIGGER, MORE BEAUTIFUL EIGHT.....AT LAST YEAR'S LOW PRICE...$845!

OLDSMOBILE WILL SOON INVADE THE LOW-PRICE FIELD WITH NEW ALL-FEATURE SIX...$640!

YOU EXPECT some improvements in any new car... But—double your expectations! You'll still fall way short of the wealth of beauty and improvements with which General Motors has endowed the 1934 air-stream Oldsmobiles.

Knee-Action Wheels! Each front wheel, cushioned on its own flexible coil spring, moves up and down like a knee—"walks" over bumps and holes without jarring the car or the passengers.

Center-Control Steering banishes shimmy and shake. The slightest finger touch holds the car to its course. A built-in Ride Stabilizer prevents sway and roll on curves. There is a steadiness and a clinging-to-the-road almost unbelievable.

Stopping? The new self-energizing Super-Hydraulic Brakes do it quicker, surer, safer. These new brakes are a tremendous advancement over the conventional type of hydraulic brake.

More room? It's there. Quietness? It's there. Oldsmobile's Syncro-Mesh Transmission is quiet in ALL speeds; body and engine are cradled in rubber to absorb vibration.

Power? 90 horsepower in the new Straight Eight... 84 in the new low-price Six. The priceless year-round comfort of Fisher No Draft Ventilation. Precision-built throughout—with all the ruggedness, performance and economy for which Oldsmobile is famous.

Come in. Whether you plan to buy a new car or not, give yourself the pleasure of looking at, sitting in, driving a 1934 Style Leader Oldsmobile.

An old timer out at Tombstone, Ariz., kept hearing reports about the cold waves of the middle west, so he had himself interviewed as follows in the Tombstone Epitaph: The old-timer says: "This news from the east puts us in mind of the blizzards we used to have in Iowa forty years ago. Used to freeze a bottle of 4th proof alcohol around a stick and use it to knock the icicles off the tea kettle spout when we were getting dinner. The sun dogs all froze to death that winter and the nightmare had her hoofs froze off. It was nothing to go out and sink a shaft all the way through a snow bank to find the cow in the morning and when we found her she gave ice cream."

LONG FIGHT TO KEEP NEGROES FROM DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES IS FUTILE

BY JOSEPH MYLER United Press Staff Correspondent

DALLAS (U.P.)—The last bar to unreserved exercise of the franchise by negro voters has, at least in theory, been thrown down in Texas.

A recent ruling by a federal judge at El Paso, following U. S. supreme court rulings on the same subject, gives negroes the entire to democratic primary elections...

In 1927 the legislature made another effort to preserve by law the amendment unconstitutional. It incorporated in the election statutes a provision which authorized the state democratic executive committee to prescribe the qualifications for party membership...

words, "I am a white democrat."

In some counties the word "white" was left out. In a few, notably Bexar, (San Antonio), negroes were permitted, even encouraged, to vote.

By 1927, however, the demand for a uniform "test" became so great that Gov. Tom Campbell persuaded the legislature to prescribe the sentence, "I am a democrat," as the test to be printed on ballots throughout the state.

Dr. L. A. Nixon, a negro crusader for negro rights, made a test of the provision and the case was carried to the supreme court at Washington. The supreme court held the amendment unconstitutional.
