OIL LABOR WAGES GIVEN REVIEW TODAY

WASHINGTON, April 12. (U.P.)—Wage differentials proposed for oil workers by the planning and coordinating committee were reviewed today by the petroleum labor policy board of oil company executives. Labor spokesmen attended the hearing.

The differential is retroactive to September 2 when the oil code became effective.

Administrator Ickes instructed the board to conduct the hearing. W. G. Williams of Fort Worth represented four independent producing, refining and marketing organizations. Roy B. Sessions, president of the Houston local oil workers' union, appeared.

Talbot Elected B'Spring Mayor

BIG SPRING.—C. E. Talbot was unanimously elected mayor of Big Spring Tuesday by the city commission.

His was the only name placed in nomination. Talbot, after service as mayor pro tem on various occasions, succeeded J. E. Fricke as mayor when the latter resigned before the expiration of his term. Leo Nall moved Talbot to be named mayor again and J. W. Allen seconded the motion. All commissioners voted.

Student Conference To Be Held at TCU

FORT WORTH. (U.P.)—The annual North Texas Student Conference, sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A., will be held on the campus of Texas Christian university, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 13, 14 and 15, according to Fred Miller, T.C.U. junior, who is chairman of this year's conference.

Delegates from 12 colleges and universities of North Texas are expected to attend the conference, according to Miller.

Miller is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miller of Midland. The father is district manager of the Texas Electric Service company.

Secret Invites All To Hear Radio Talk

H. G. Secrest, superintendent of Rankin schools, invites Midland people to tune in on the El Paso radio station tonight at 8:30 to hear W. A. Stigler speak on the amendment to permit taxation of university lands for public school purposes.

Supl. Secrest, president of an association of officials working in interest of the amendment, believes Midland county will cast practically a unanimous vote for the amendment "as passage of the amendment will not bring any new taxes but will help Midland's friends."

Bring Tullous Here For Interment Rites

Tentative arrangements for interment in Midland of W. R. Tullous, 78, who died at Phoenix, Ariz., were made this morning by Midland relatives. Tullous lived at Midland several years ago.

Children are Mrs. Fred Crabie of Midland, Ed Tullous of Prairie Lee, Mrs. Ben Driver of Midland, Fred Tullous of Phoenix, Mrs. Oma Dowlen of Phoenix and Mrs. Emmett Rowsey of San Angelo.

Complete arrangements had not been made at noon.

University Land Taxes Are Needed

While the University of Texas is getting fat off its oil lands in West Texas, small, sparsely settled communities in counties where university lands lie are struggling to keep their public schools open. The Texans advocating passage of the amendment to permit taxation of the lands for school purposes declare:

These small schools must help educate the children of the very rich developing university lands, and yet are denied the right to collect any taxes from these rich oil lands to carry on the common schools. H. G. Secrest, Rankin school superintendent says:

Taxes on these university lands would total only about $12,000 a year, which is a small sum compared with the approximate $25,000,000 collected by the university, but this small sum would enable the public schools for the counties affected to operate nine months instead of the six some are facing, according to Editor Clarence Burgess of Rankin, secretary of the association working in interest of the amendment to be voted on at the next general election.

Committee Reports On the McLeod Bill

WASHINGTON, April 12. (U.P.)—The banking and currency committee reported favorably to the house the McLeod bill to pay off depositors of closed banks with amendments extending to pay off all state and national but limiting 100 per cent payment to $2,500 accounts.

A Noted Entertainer Is Entertained

They've been linked together in Mrs. Fay Wallace's suit for divorce, but that didn't seem to trouble Rudy Vallee and pretty Alice Faye, film actress, when this picture was taken in a New York night club. Miss Faye had just returned from Hollywood, where Fox named her one its own list of 1934 baby stars.

ADVERSE DECISION IS HANDED INSULL

ISTANBUL, April 12. (U.P.)—Samuel Insull today lost what was believed to be his last chance to escape extradition to the United States tomorrow.

The supreme court of appeals at Eskishar ruled that Insull's appeal against extradition could not be considered. Within 24 hours, Insull was expected to be under the American flag.

Insull boarded a ship for Smyrna today.

Food and Clothing Contest to Be Held

A dress contest will be held at the high school 4 o'clock Wednesday. The winners will represent the school in the state home economics education rally at Austin, April 26.

Entries are made from four different groups: a simple wash dress from Clothing I, a dress for special occasions from Clothing III, a tailored dress from Clothing II, and children's play clothes from Clothing II.

Features of the contest will be election of toys from Foods I, planning and serving a company dinner from Foods II and forming good food habits from Foods III. Cash prizes will be given each entry and the girl who gives best solutions will be chosen for the state contest.

B. S. Department Store Is Robbed

BIG SPRING.—Burglars Tuesday night made a heavy haul on the J. & W. Fisher Department store. Officers investigating the theft Wednesday expressed the belief that the burglars had been locked in the building at closing time, took what stuff they wanted, and left the building by sawing off bars from a basement window.

The management said Wednesday that an estimate of the loss had not been completed, but that it would run very high.

Included in the list of stolen goods reported to authorities were 36 silk dresses, 4 men's suits, and a dozen hats.

Cigarette stubs strewn about strengthened the belief of officers that the burglars had hidden in the store until it was locked, then leisurely smoked until they felt safe to begin operations.

Big Spring Officers Look for Hamilton

BIG SPRING.—County and city officers watched roads leading into the city from the east Tuesday evening after it had been reported Raymond Hamilton, desperado, had left Abilene hours before.

Police here were notified a negro had seen a machine gun among the possessions of a party whose belongings he had placed in a car. Rumors here Wednesday were to the effect that finger prints found on the machine gun had been matched those of Hamilton.

Encouraged by presence of a sub-machine gun in the hands of a gun salesman, officers kept the vigilance over roads here for several hours Tuesday evening.

Abilene authorities did not know which way the alleged desperado had departed from there. No trace of the suspect was found here.

Hamilton was freed recently from a prison farm by Clyde Barrow, Texas public enemy No. 1 and ruthless killer.

TO ADDRESS LODGE
The Rev. Wm. H. Martin, Episcopal minister of Big Spring, will address the meeting at 8 o'clock tonight of Midland Lodge 623. It is his third address before the lodge.

In the meantime, republican senators assumed leadership of the investigation and summoned postoffice officials to tell about an alleged conference with independent firms in the inaugural of President Roosevelt.

Ill Treatment of Prisoner Charged

BRYAN, April 12. (U.P.)—County Attorney Oak McKenzie today started investigation of charges that Ranger H. T. Glover of Huntsville had been "indicted" by him in November 1933 that some charge would be recommended in air mail regulations to permit independent companies to obtain contracts.

In the meantime, republican senators assumed leadership of the investigation and summoned postoffice officials to tell about an alleged conference with independent firms in the inaugural of President Roosevelt.

2900 Attend Meets To Discuss Relief

AUSTIN, April 12.—The termination of OWA activities in Texas on April 1 necessitated the creation and installation by the auditing department of the Texas Relief Commission of a materially changed administrative system.

This system is now being installed in the various counties for the carrying out of the new executive set up. Institutes of instruction have been held in the counties during the past week by staff auditors, representatives of the Texas Relief Commission for the familiarization of county relief representatives with the details of the new operating system.

Captain W. Aldrich Perpares Trusted Weapons for Action

AUSTIN (U.P.)—Recent hunts for desperate characters have caused Capt. R. W. Aldrich of the headquarters company of the Texas Rangers to get out his trusted weapons and prepare them for action.

Aldrich, one of the oldest veterans in point of service, in the Ranger force and participant in many combats during the chaotic days along the Texas border when ability to ride hard and shoot straight were prime requisites of peace officers, is stationed in Austin as Ranger office chief.

MRS. HALEY GETS GENERAL SUPPORT

Mrs. John A. Haley, candidate for state representative of the 88th district, conducted a whirlwind campaign Wednesday in Upton and Pecos counties, which concluded her first series of visits to every county in the district.

The candidate visited newspaper offices, county officials and leading business and professional men at Rankin, McCamey and Iraan. Pledges of support for the Midland woman were made by many leading residents. A friend who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Haley said the candidate was almost certain of winning the race without the necessity of a run-off.

Tucker Speaks at Rotary Luncheon

Advocating the use of "The Bible in Business," K. C. Tucker, Church of Christ minister, addressed the Rotary club today. He emphasized the use of Biblical teachings and principles every day in the week rather than on Sunday alone.

The speaker declared that all worthy organizations, such as service clubs and other beneficial civic organizations, have been made possible only because of the Bible.

Yates Field Adds A New Producer

The Yates field has gained another large producer. The Mid-Kansas Oil & Gas company has completed and tested the Turner No. 2, well No. 3, block 194, Pecos county. Total depth of the well is only 1,644 feet.

The well was tested for only 34 minutes because of the lack of adequate storage capacity available for a longer test. The well flowed 1,965.47 barrels in 34 minutes, or at the rate of 33,243 barrels daily. There was approximately fifty million feet of gas in addition to the oil produced. The well was rigged with two 6 inch flow line and two 4 inch flow lines through two traps.

Soviet Fly 22 More to Safety

MOSCOW, April 12. (U.P.)—The frozen arctic seas were cheated of 22 more refugees of the sunken icebreaker Chelmskii today after they had been trapped for two months in the fies of northwestern Siberia.

Soviet airmen brought back the men after hazardous flights, leaving only six still on the ice. They were expected to be rescued soon.

LEVY ON SMALL SALARIES WOULD NARROWED DOWN

Measure Also Closes
Loopholes Used
In Past

WASHINGTON, April 12. (U.P.)—Passage late today or tomorrow was expected for the tax bill in the senate today, the measure carrying lower levies than at present on small incomes and sharply higher taxes on large estates which constitute family fortunes handed down from generation to generation.

The measure also closes loopholes in the past used for avoidance of tax payments. It now goes to conference for shaping into a measure which can become law with approval of the two houses.

SENATE REVERSES ITS OWN STAND

WASHINGTON.—The senate Wednesday reversed itself and voted into the revenue bill an additional 10 per cent on all individual tax returns next year.

The vote for the emergency 10 per cent proposal was 43 to 36. Tuesday it was defeated 46 to 44.

Senator Couzens, Republican, Michigan, author of the amendment, moved reconsideration Wednesday and won.

Couzens estimated the tax would raise $55,000,000 more revenue in the one year it would operate.

Under it, if a man paid $100 in income tax, he would add another $10, or 10 per cent.

Care of Babies Lecture Subject

The care of babies will be discussed by Mrs. W. E. Ryan when the home hygiene class of the Red Cross meets at 9 o'clock Friday morning in the jury room of the county court building.

Members are asked to remember they may leave their babies in the nursery while the lecture is being given.

Treatment of Snake Bite Is Suggested

AUSTIN.—Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer, urges every one to be careful when in the country to prevent snake bite. In Texas the chief offender is the rattlesnake, and contrary to common belief, it does not always rattle before it strikes.

About 75 per cent of all bites occur on the lower extremities and could be prevented, to a large extent, by wearing high top boots or leggings. About 20 per cent occur on the hands and arms. Care should be exercised in putting the hands in invisible places when climbing rocks, and to look before picking up anything that may be obscured by vegetation, brush, or rocks.

SOCIETY ABOVE CRIME

It seems faintly ridiculous, at first glance, to read of the elaborate precautions that have been taken at Lima, O., to keep the Dillinger gangsters in jail. Machine gun nests, cordons of national guardsmen, files of special deputies, patrolmen scanning all roads leading into the city—all this seems like a lot of trouble to take just to keep two or three thugs in jail.

But it is trouble that is worth taking, just the same. A little bit more is involved in this case than in the ordinary criminal case.

The Dillinger mob is one that set itself above the law—and its leader, for the time being, has proved too slippery an individual to hold.

No matter what it costs or how much trouble it is, the rest of the gang must be shown that society is strong enough to keep its hands on them and subject them to the orderly processes of law.

Lord Rexford refuses all Mary's efforts toward a reconciliation and Sylvia's arrival in London with a gay crowd does not help matters. Mary, hurt at her husband's manner, goes off to a gay club with her sister and her friends. Rexford follows her and says there is but one solution—divorce. CHAPTER X. Lady Riversleigh saw at once that something tragic had happened when Mary returned to the bar and said simply that Philip had gone.

Special Prayer Meeting Held by Christian Women

The 60th anniversary of Founder's day of the Woman's Missionary society of the Christian church was observed at a special prayer meeting at the First Christian church here Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

On April 10, 1874 at 10 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Caroline N. Pearce knelt in prayer and then decided Christian women could be and must be organized for missionary service. Mrs. Pearce organized the first missionary society in her own church at Iowa City, Iowa. In October, 1874, 75 women representing nine states met with an offering of $430 in Cincinnati to organize the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. The first missionary work was undertaken in the island of Jamaica.

All Phases of Housekeeping At Cook School

By CELESTE and EMILY

Housekeeping in all phases will be presented to women of Midland who attend The Reporter-Telegram All-Electric cooking school, to be held at the Yucca theatre April 17, 18, 19 and 20, with sessions at 9:30 each morning. From the first trip to the market to the last flick of the dish-cloth, Mrs. Ethyl Warren, one of the foremost culinary experts of today, will take women on a tour through the modern housewife's day in the kitchen.

Economy has set a new standard in living but Mrs. Warren will demonstrate that it need not affect the standard of menus.

Midland merchants are heartily accord with Mrs. Warren and will cooperate with her to their fullest ability, proving that food and home equipment stores here are offering prices that, even by nation-wide comparison, are unbelievably low.

"What shall I have for dinner?" "What shall I do with my leftovers?" "How can I have a one-dish dinner?" "What can I serve at my luncheon-bridge?" All women have been confronted with some of these problems, and have bothered and fussed needlessly. The answer is all very simple. Mrs. Warren knows the answers and will demonstrate them to you. She will be glad to give her advice on any kitchen or household problem, and invites everyone to feel free to ask questions, either by mail or in person.

A Midland department store is offering the latest fashion in summer underwear for women—hip-pettes. They come in the sheerest of glove silks and rayons and are trimmed in either ecru lace or appliques. The waist band is made of soft elastic webbing and the openings are cut low over the hips, thus making them the latest item in cool underwear.

Seems funny that after all these years when women dieted and banded and struggled to take off curves that they should now be seeking friendly ways to put them on! Yet that's the inexplicable thing that has happened, what with the waistlines tightening in and short sleeves crying out for dimpled elbows to exploit.

Dimples and curves, however, are not always a question of food only. A woman or a man may be thin because of an obscure physical disorder, mental conflict or overwork. In that case, the problems become more complicated, but even so, tempting food will help.

Appetite Stimulators

The thin person who never feels hungry should first of all go on a diet that will stimulate him to eat. Undoubtedly this lack of appetite indicates a small stomach capacity, but that can be increased simply by eating more as every over-eater can sorrowfully testify. Fruits, succulent vegetables, yeast breads and meat broths are all appetite stimulators. Which make for perfect elimination, so essential to good health.

Plenty of these must be taken before adding the so-called "fattening" foods. An excessive use of weight-gaining foods alone would do more harm than good. Let this typical menu for a day be your guide:

Breakfast: Fruit, cereal with cream, eggs or their equivalent, toast, coffee.

Luncheon: Cream vegetable soup, croutons, fresh fruit or vegetable salad, bread or rolls with butter, a hearty pudding such as rice with cream tea.

Dinner: Consomme, meat, potato, cooked vegetable, raw vegetable or salad, bread and butter, dessert.

Weight-Gaining Diet

After appetite-quickening has been established, reinforcements may be brought in, but with due precaution against stomach upsets, remember. One of the safest ways to add fats is in seasoning vegetables, serving extra bread and butter, cream with the breakfast cereal, and desserts which combine cream with fruit. Milk and eggs are always nourishing and if plenty of fresh vegetables are used, may also be included lavishly in a gaining diet. A quart of milk a day for an adult in place of his usual pint, an extra egg, cheese, salted nuts, a piece of candy after luncheon or dinner—these together with larger portions of food than are usually taken ought to effect an appreciable gain in weight for the average too-thin person.

Add to it exercise in the fresh air, plenty of sleep and water to drink, and you will insure good, healthy flesh under a clear complexion.

Boulder Dam—Progress, Step by Step, on Uncle Sam's Mammoth Power Project

Progress in building the mighty barrier of steel and concrete which will be Boulder Dam is shown graphically in these step-by-step views of the government's $145,000,000 project. (1) A down-stream view of the site before the thousands of workers started their construction labors, showing Marble Canyon in the Colorado river, in all its virgin beauty. (2) Preliminary work under way, with temporary bridge and catwalk erected, after tunnels had been dug to divert the Colorado river during the dam building.

(3) Concrete has been poured and the barrier is taking shape, the "berry boxes" being sections for the foundation of the dam, with the eight-foot slots from which cooling water is poured on the concrete shown between the sections. (4) Extent of the construction to date, showing the vast wedge of the barrier already reared, as seen from the control tower of the 150-ton cableway on the Nevada rim. (5) How the dam, with powerhouse, will look when completed in 1937, according to present schedule.

Takes a Little Starch to Play Potato Polo!

The lewly spud that gets only a smacking when served with roast beef and spinach, has now been elevated by society to the dignity of polo at swanky Pinehurst, N. C. Just to give you an idea, Elva Statler of Boston tries to drop her speared 'later in the barrel at left, but finds her progress impeded with Marjorie Burrows sticking around. Marjorie comes from Kew Gardens, L. I.

Finest of Finest

If you want to know why New Yorkers call their police force "the finest", look upon the smiling features of Bernard H. Jeppson (above). He is shown after a committee of four women artists had selected him as the handsomest cop in the city.

Vanishes After Crash; Innocent

Missing since he was injured in an auto crash March 28 near Troy, N. Y., John P. Leland, 21, above, of Mechanicville, N. Y., student at Syracuse university, is the object of a nation-wide search. He is believed to have been dazed by the accident and to be laboring under the delusion he was responsible for the crash. A bandage over his right ear may serve to identify him.

It's Fish the President Is Off to Investigate

Havoc in Wake of New Orleans Tornado

Whole rows of houses went over like dominoes when a sudden tornado swept through the Gentilly district of New Orleans reducing homes to matchwood and littering the streets with snapped tele- phone poles, wrecked autos and street cars, as shown here. More than 40 were hurt and damage rose above $250,000.

A Vanderbilt Sues For a Divorce

The only daughter of the late George W. Vanderbilt, from whom she inherited $50,000,000, Mrs. Cornelia Vanderbilt Ceell (above) has asked court permission in Paris to sue John Francis Amherst Ceell, a former member of the British diplomatic corps, for divorce. The couple, married in 1924, have two sons, aged 8 and 4.

ARE U. S. AGENTS 'SHOOTING TO KILL'?

Despite denial by Attorney General Homer S. Cummings that U. S. agents have been ordered to shoot to kill in gangster roundups, agents took no chances in capturing Eugene Green, companion of John Dillinger in a recent escape, as this photo of the scene of the "ambush" in St. Paul shows. According to witnesses, as Green left his car and started toward the house, officers opened fire from the windows marked with circles and Green fell, as pictured, seriously wounded. His woman companion was captured in the car.

IT'S A FORD—BUT CHEAP AT $3500!

Under the hood of this smart and distinctive town car is—what do you think?—a Ford V8 engine! But this is all that's Ford-ish about it—except that it enables the builders to offer the car at the remarkably low price of $3500—a give-away! The car is built by the Brewster people, subsidiary to Rolls-Royce, has a 127-inch wheelbase, dual silencers, booster brakes, improved springing and all the other refinements you will find in custom automobiles that sell, ordinarily, at a minimum of $5500.

COOK ORCHID IN CHICAGO
CHICAGO. (U.P.)—A rare orchid of historic interest, collected in Tahiti 165 years ago by the English explorer, Captain James Cook, while on the first of his three famous voyages, has been added to the herbarium of the Field Museum of Natural History here. The specimen, dried and mounted according to herbarium practice, is preserved in its good condition as if it had been collected during the past year.
California now has 285,000 acres of state-owned parks.

VISION

To America and Americans must go credit for the greater portion of the inventions that dominate the world today. Vision built the electric light, the airplane, and the automobile. Likewise, it is vision that has made the American financial system the most potent in the world. As a firm, strong link in that system, we take pride. To serve our city and our nation better is always our aim. With strong leaders guiding this bank, you can count on vision playing an important role in its success and security.

Joe Turns up Two New Ball Players For Friday's Game

A couple of surprises—two new ball players—will be unwrapped before the fans at the Friday afternoon practice baseball game with Odessa, announced Manager Joe Pyron.

They are the Rose brothers of here and there. One of them is a pitcher who toiled on the Midland mound first in semi-pro days, then in the palmy days of the West Texas league. His brother is a first baseman who can fit in practically anywhere else.

They're saying, those who talk little else but baseball, Midland has a club strong enough on paper to go places in the Permian league. That is good news to those who watched last year's poorly balanced club take it on the chin from everybody who felt in the mood to take a punch at it.

Little is said about the possibility of building a park, a grandstand or both. The club may have to play in the open, but Pyron says the main thing is to play. To that

Frogs and Baylor Will Play Friday

FORT WORTH, April 12.—The baseball team of Texas Christian University, defending champions of the Southwest conference, will make another attempt to open the 1934 season tomorrow—this time against the Baylor Bears in Waco.

Coach Dutch Meyer has announced that Dan Harston, left-hander, will probably be on the mound for the Frogs in Friday's game. Jimmy Jacks is expected to hurl Saturday afternoon.

Harston has two victories over the University of Oklahoma Sooners, Big Six champions, to his credit. He has also been a big factor in the T.C.U. batting strength.

The Frogs were scheduled to open their conference play in Fort Worth last Friday and Saturday against the Texas Longhorns, but the weather man ruled otherwise. The postponed games will be played here next Monday and Tuesday. This places the four games so close together that the Frogs, with a small pitching staff, will be placed somewhat at a disadvantage.

Guy Lombardo's Royal Canadians To Play in Amarillo on April 16

Here are the 11 Royal Canadians, including Guy Lombardo and his three brothers, who will appear in Amarillo in concert and for a dance engagement the night of April 16. This famous dance and radio band will make the two appearances—at the Municipal Auditorium and at the Nat.—to accommodate those who like their music sitting down, and those who like to shuffle their feet to it. The concert will be especially interesting, as Lombardo promises a brilliant "extemporaneous" request program to last from an hour and a half to two hours. Reservations are available now at the Globe-News, and may be made by mail or telephone by calling Miss Lois Black. Concert prices are 50 cents to $2; for the dance, $2 per person. A large representation from over the Tri-State area is expected. Phone or write for tickets now.

Sixth Annual Band Contest in Abilene Saturday, April 28

ABILENE.—The sixth annual West Texas high school band contest, under the auspices of the western division of the Texas Band Teachers association and sponsored by the Simmons University Cowboy band, is to be held at the university here on Saturday, April 28, according to D. O. Wiley, cowboy band conductor and chairman of the tournament.

High school bands in four classes will compete. Class "A" bands are those which come from high schools of 650 enrollment or more. Class "B" those with 250 to 650 enrollment. Class "C" those with less than 250, and Class "D" those from schools whose band has been organized only one year, regardless of size. A new class is also being added this year—the junior high school class for those school systems which have elementary bands in addition to their high school bands.

Solo and ensemble contests in the tournament are being increased this year. Another change is being made in these contests in that students of same age only will compete. Two, three or four age divisions have been made in the solo contests, depending on the instrument. Solo and ensemble contests include D Flat piccolo, C flute, flute descant, oboe, bassoon, xylophone, bass, pluegel horn, alto clarinet, bass clarinet, B Flat clarinet, trombone, baritone, cornet, baritone saxophone, tenor saxophone, alto saxophone, soprano saxophone, C melody saxophone, E Flat clarinet, French horn, mellophone, drums, concert trums, baritone and trombone trums, cornet duets, baritone and trombone duets, quartets in brass, saxophone duets, saxophone quartets, woodwind duets, and woodwind quartets.

This is the official contest for the West Texas division and winners will be certified to the National Band contest without further elimination. All inquiries for details are being addressed to Mr. Wiley. Awards are to be given school and individual winners.

Bombing Is Method Of Rabbit Hunting

HEREFORD. (AP).—Bombing from the air is the newest method of rabbit hunting introduced to the plains country.

Doc Hendricks and Overt Pinkart, Hereford pilots, dropped bombs from two planes in a rabbit drive in the Belview community near Clovis, N. M., and killed about 2,000 rabbits.

The drive took place on the Guseman ranch. Three hundred hunters brought in 3,000 rabbits, but the bombers got credit for two-thirds of all the rabbits killed. They had the help of the ground forces, however, in bunching the victims so that the shots from the air would be effective.

Colorful Revue to Be Given at WTCC

SAN ANGELO.—"Rainbow Roundup" is the name of the all-West Texas show to be given by San Angelo with the cooperation of the cities and towns of West Texas as on each night of the West Texas chamber of commerce convention here May 14, 15 and 16.

Every city in West Texas is being asked by the San Angelo board of city development to immediately select a young lady to represent it in the show.

Miss Micaela Rogers, acting manager of the San Angelo board of city development, in her notice to the towns said: "Rainbow Roundup will be not only colorful, as the name implies, but will be an outstanding and worthy attraction built around the rainbow motif."

With West Texas apparently through the worst of the depression and with the future full of promise, it is thoroughly appropriate that we use the rainbow motif at this year's convention.

Mrs. Lee Weathers, Sweetwater, who has directed several shows held during West Texas chamber of commerce conventions, has been secured by the local entertainment committee, headed by W. E. Blanton, to direct Rainbow Roundup. She is director of the well known Rolling Stones chorus of Sweetwater.

West Texas chamber of commerce directors, and local chamber of commerce secretaries were asked to select the girls in each town or to see that it is done and notify convention headquarters here of the selection.

Several social functions honoring the young lady representatives are being arranged by a special ladies' committee here, and the committee will be assisted by "Miss San Angelo" and "Miss West Texas" who are to be named soon, and who will participate in the shows.

SHARK-OIL BAROMETERS
HAMILTON, Bermuda. (AP)—One of the many quaint customs which persist among the inhabitants of Bermuda is the use of "shark-oil barometers." A glass bottle filled with shark-oil is corked and hung on an outside wall or porch. In good weather the shark-oil is clear as water; on the approach of storms the oil turns a white, milky color.

A PATRON WRITES AN AD!

Manager, Yucca Theatre, City.
Dear Sir:
You make me tired!
I read your "hokey" in yesterday's Reporter-Telegram that was supposed to sell people the idea of attending Lionel Barrymore in "This Side of Heaven."
It was terrible! The same old "holokey." You spend good money telling people it is Barrymore's newest picture and probably his best, etc. The same old line you've used for months.
I ABHOR ADJECTIVES!
By the way, I saw "This Side of Heaven" at an out-of-town theatre a few days ago. And what I'm sure about is this:
A superb motion picture—a fine artist at his best—a great story perfectly filmed—-and yet you couldn't think of one novel, original, unusual way to get show-goers like myself who wouldn't miss a picture like this if they knew what it was—-but are sick and tired of your yah-yah-yah bigger-than-Barnum advertising, on every picture you play.
You should pack your theatre to record crowds on pictures like this but I haven't seen any waiting lines. So your system is wrong. You really HAVE a great picture but you've said so often nobody believes you this trip. Who is the joke on?
Very truly yours,
A PATRON.
P. S. I'm coming again tonight and bring the family.

You'll live every moment of it!

New Photoplay Bares Problems of Average Man

With an impressive array of talent in an all-star cast, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's early contribution to the 1934 motion picture year—"This Side of Heaven"—opens today for a two-day run at the Yucca theatre.

The picture, laid in modern settings, tells the story of a typical family with all their troubles, hardships, romances and disappointments, deftly woven into a picture that maintains interest and suspense from beginning to ending.

Lionel Barrymore plays the head of the family, Fay Bainter, a newcomer to the screen but one of America's best loved stage actresses, makes her motion picture debut as Barrymore's wife. Mae Clark, Mary Carlisle and Una Merkel are in the cast.

AGED MAN WEAVES RUGS
KAUKAUNA, Wis. (AP)—Dr. Richard Kerr, 88, retired veterinarian, has a strange hobby. Several years ago when his age compelled him to forsake an active life he took up rug weaving. He has just completed a rug after four months of work averaging 10 hours a day. The rug is of Oriental design and required $42 worth of yarn.

end, he has hauled in dirt on the Indian diamond, levelled it and got the field in semblance of a ball playing spot.

Not much has been heard of Odessa's lineup, but it is safe to assume George Elliott Jr. will have a fast fielding and hard hitting crew. Lefty Briggs is no unknown quantity. The little pitcher hauled for Midland in the West Texas league and has improved each year since. Loss of his right hander, Allen, did not help the Odessa club, but George will turn up another fliinger somewhere. You can take that as authoritative.

Unwritten Law Is Theme of Picture Playing at Ritz

A vital problem that may present itself to any man is the theme of "The Unwritten Law," showing today only at the Ritz theatre. Purnell Pratt essays the role of the man with the problem. Early in his married life, he was attacked and left to die by his wife's lover, who fled from Africa, the scene of the crime, with the faithless spouse.

For twenty years, this man searched for his former friend. Finally, he found him, a successful motion picture producer, in a Hollywood studio. When Pratt arrives on the scene, he learns that his quarry, Lew Cody, is about to marry his daughter. How should he wreak his vengeance? How should he save his daughter? What would you have done?

Others in the cast are Greta Nissen, Skeets Gallagher, Mary Brian, Louise Fazenda, Hedda Hopper, Mischa Auer, and Arthur Rankin. Christy Cabanne directed.

DOUBLE YOLK LAYER
BEND, Ore. (AP)—A white leg-horn pullet which lays only double yolked eggs is owned by Mrs. L. E. Brecken of the Alfalfa district, near here. The hen is 10 months old. Her regular procedure is to lay two large eggs in as many days, take a day off for rest, then come back into production for two more days.

"I WENT 51% FURTHER ON GULF-LUBE"

Says Mrs. Lee Ketner, Winston-Salem, N. C., Who Made The "Two Trip" Test

"I DROVE FROM WINSTON-SALEM TO WASHINGTON USING MY REGULAR 25c MOTOR OIL—AND HAD TO ADD A QUART AT RICHMOND."

"TWO WEEKS LATER I REPEATED THE TRIP AGAIN. THIS TIME I USED GULF-LUBE—AND DIDN'T NEED A QUART UNTIL I GOT TO WASHINGTON."

Winston-Salem Richmond

"Gulf-lube outlasted my regular 25c motor oil by 115 miles—it went 51% further before a quart was consumed!"

Thanks, Mrs. Ketner. You're one of thousands of motorists who have cut their oil costs with Gulf-lube—the oil that was tested by the American Automobile Association in 6 average cars—and outlasted every oil in every car!

Start saving! Switch to Gulf-lube now. You'll buy less oil between fillings. You'll get better, smoother lubrication. At 25c a quart Gulf-lube is America's biggest motor oil value. At all Gulf stations.

NEW OIL TEST detects motor dirt. Ask about it at any Gulf station.
