Spark of French Uprising Is Seen in War Fraud

BY MORRIS GILBERT

NEA Service Staff Correspondent PARIS, Dec. 7.—The "Fraud of the Devastated Regions" bids fair in France this winter to replace the Bayoune Pawshop swindles of the late Alex. Stavisky as the focus of public frenzy, and a new "February 6th" might take its spring-board leap from the revelations discovered here.

Such is the fear of observers, watching the case against a certain Charles Goldburg, alias Charles Levy, Algerian, nee a Frenchman, as it unfolds. Allegations have been made in royalist and revolutionary quarters that Levy handled 600 million dollars of the public money in war-damage operations. The definite complaint upon which the investigation now rests is that in two cases individuals plus their claims for war damages in the hands of the Levy company and have so far been unable to collect.

A cousin of Charles Levy, Joseph of the same name, has been arrested and proceedings are now under way against Charles who some months ago resigned from the company he founded. This is described in some quarters as an "act of great prudence."

As in the Stavisky case, circulars emanating from government departments urged the public to confide their interests to a private controlled French destinies, are making capital out of charges that the Levy group operated under the reign of the Radical-Socialists. Again the name of the bitterly-attacked Camille Chautemps comes up as the political chieftain under whom the new alleged skulduggery flourished. And Chautemps's fellow party leader, Georges Bonnet, ex-minister of finance, is named as the man who awarded the rosette of the Legion of Honor to Charles Levy.

War-damage claims for many years have offered a fruitful and legitimate source of financial revenue in France. The procedure was a normal one. Farmers and other dwellers in the devastated regions, whose properties had been destroyed or mutilated during the war, were given the opportunity to present their claims for damages. These claims being investigated, the claimants received rights to recompense. To finance the huge sums required, the government issued bonds, and these were taken up by bankers in a normal banking transaction.

Claimants could receive their recompenses more quickly than from the government, through a lump sum instead of through the government-organized system of annuities, by dealing with banks which were handling such transactions. However, when the Levy firm came into being and obtained the right to act in this manner. So far it looked like a legitimate enterprise.

But now the charges have been brought that this firm, to which claimants turned over their rights, has failed to get in return the money they expected. It is reported that during the time the Levy chain of financial enterprises is understood to have organized at least 37 companies in the last few years. It is reported that during the public demonstrations of last February, LEVY WAS FAR FROM WAR.

The rise of Charles Levy as a financial power was spectacular. Born in Oran in Algeria, he crossed the Mediterranean to Marseilles in 1923. There, still a poor man, reputedly without education, he commenced his activities, and shortly afterwards made his way to Paris.

Today he is not only Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, but Officer, which is a far higher distinction, usually reserved to war-decorated soldiers. It is asserted that during the war, Charles Levy was far from the front. In fact, it is reported that during the time he sold oranges on the quay at Algiers.

T. R. Shelburne Is Seriously Ill Here
T. R. Shelburne, critically ill after an attack of paralysis last Sunday, is gradually growing weaker, although it was reported resting early this morning, relatives said.

Three daughters, Mrs. Carl McKimmon of Chisholme, Mrs. Claude Holman of Alpine, and Mrs. Dick Montgomery of Marathon, are at his bedside.

A sister, Miss Sallie Shelburne of Ballinger, and John Greenhill and family of Ballinger left for their homes today, after a visit to the sick man.

Hedrick Shelburne and family, also of Ballinger, arrived yesterday.

Out of the ashes of the last war... may arise a new French public demonstration to disturb the civil peace of France.

Basin Oil Developments

BY PAUL OSBORNE
Finding that about 2 barrels of water in twenty-four hours still showed at plugged back depth of 4,754 feet, Honolulu-Llano No. 1 Parker, central Andrews county well, is today plugging back still further, probably to about 4,738 feet, with lead wool before shooting. Pay horizons are expected today or tomorrow in the Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 4 Well, north of the Saylor producer in northern Winkler county. Considerable gas has already shown, and the hole is being drilled loaded.

Fire which destroyed the National rig on the Fox-Butler and Jeffries' wildcat No. 1 Brown and Almarin in central Winkler county is definitely reported here today not to have caught the 5,200,000 feet of well in the well. Tools, reports indicate, were hanging on the wreck at the time a rabbit ladle caused the rig to catch fire, and the well was shut in.

Skelly oil company No. 1-R Grayson, best test south of the Big Lake field in Reagan county, was reported drilling at 8,763 feet this morning in black shale.

Division of Thoroughbreds Made Thursday
Final division of the car load of Kentucky thoroughbred mares and fillies recently shipped here from the annual Lexington, Ky., auction sale was effected Thursday afternoon and preparations were under way by the owners to place the animals in their permanent stables and pastures today.

Turner and John Dublin, in an undivided partnership, received thirteen of the thoroughbreds, Tom Nance six and A. C. Francis six. Nance personally bought the animals at the Lexington sale, billing them to Turner and Dublin. They were placed under care of a veterinarian at the fair grounds stables pending shipment from the long freight train trip.

In the car load of thoroughbreds were ten brood mares, two three-year-old fillies, one in foal, two two-year-old fillies, one yearling filly. The blood lines represent outstanding thoroughbred families of two nations, several being sired by English bred horses and one mare being imported.

Turner and Dublin took six yearling fillies, one two-year-old, one three-year-old and two brood mares. Nance retained two brood mares, one three-year-old filly in foal, one two-year-old filly and two yearling fillies including one bought by Mrs. Nance at Lexington in a private deal. T. Paul Barron got one yearling filly.

Francis took two brood mares, one three-year-old filly and three yearling fillies.

Detailed descriptions of the animals, with interesting features of their breeding will be given in the Sunday edition of The Reporter-Telegram.

With types of thoroughbreds suitable for racing, polo, hunter and jumper classes and general saddle use, the owners had not announced whether plans were being considered for training any of the younger animals.

To Employ Census Taker This County
Employment of an enumerator to take the farm and ranch census in this county will be made soon, it was indicated in a letter received this morning by the county judge's office from the district enumerator, Joe B. Worsham, of El Paso. The letter follows:

"The department of commerce bureau of census has just opened an office in El Paso for the purpose of securing the farm and ranch census of this district. Midland county is included in this district.

"For the 1935 census of agriculture there are to be appointed enumerators for each county. For each enumeration district there will be an enumerator whose duty it will be to visit each farm within his enumeration district and secure from each individual farmer an accurate report of his farm and farm operations covering the calendar year 1934. These enumerators are to be selected, given the census test, and recommended for appointment by the district supervisor and a representative of the Washington office.

"Payment of the enumerators is fixed on a piece-price basis; that is, the enumerator will be paid a certain amount for each complete, accurate, and properly prepared farm report turned in to the supervisor. These rates will vary according to the density of the farm area. An active energetic enumerator should earn from $4.00 to $5.00 per day. The period of employment should not exceed thirty days and should not exceed the enumerator approximately $100.00.

"Any correspondence with reference to this work, and applications for positions as enumerators should be addressed to Joe B. Worsham, district supervisor, Chamber of Commerce, El Paso, Texas."

DEBNAM GETS NEW ORDER TODAY FOR DECEMBER BUYING

West Half of Texas Included Under The Program

Purchase of 1,000 head of cattle in Midland county by December 31 is the plan of the United States government, it was advised today in a telegram from the A. & M. college to County Agricultural Agent S. A. Debnam this morning. Maria county, in Debnam's territory, also will have 1,000 bought.

The county agent asked that all ranchmen and farmers who desire to sell cattle to the government get in touch with his office immediately, giving the number desired to be sold in order that the full 1,000 head may be handled in the limited time allowed.

The order was the result of a meeting at Amarillo yesterday wherein the AAA officials, along with cattlemen and extension service representatives, placing the entire western half of Texas in an emergency zone and deciding to continue the buying through December 31.

The minimum set for each county was 500 head.

AMARILLO, Dec. 7. (AP)—Half of the counties in Texas, including the entire western part of the State, Thursday were declared emergency drought areas in which the agricultural administration cattle buying program will be continued until Dec. 31.

Representatives of the AAA, cattlemen, the state extension service and the Federal Emergency Relief Administration met here to determine counties in which the program would be renewed and to allocate the county purchase quotas.

The minimum quota was announced at 500 head. Purchases will be made above that figure, according to the severity of the drought.

Under the November program, many counties failed to fill their quotas because calves still were being weaned. Cattlemen said the buying program would be more timely now as they knew the maximum number of cattle they would be able to carry through the winter.

The entire Panhandle was included in the emergency area, which included 127 counties. Other sections included were the Big Bend region and the West Central Texas section, extending almost to Fort Worth and Austin.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace yesterday announced that $2,738,000 had been appropriated for the purchase of 220,000 cattle in Texas. The program will end Dec. 31. The cattle will be turned over to government culling plants.

George E. Barnes of College Station, assistant to Dr. O. B. Marlin, chief of the state extension service, conducted today's meeting. R. D. McCrum, Austin, state director of surplus commodities, Tom Cobb, Amarillo, president of the Texas Southwest Livestock Association; Theodore Pile, Longfellow cattleman; L. W. Anderson, Reeves county rancher and Groves B. Hill, AAA representative, were among those attending. No quotas by counties were announced.

THE FARMER'S DEBT-PAYMENT RECORD

Farmers and farm organizations have made the best record of all institutions and individuals in this country in the matter of repayment of sums borrowed from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Regional agriculture credit corporations borrowed $174,000,000 and on October 31 had repaid 98 per cent. The railroads, which borrowed $424,000,000, have made the worst showing, having repaid only 17 per cent.

It may be of some comfort to those who are worried about the piling up of the public debt to know that during the first quarter of the fiscal year 1935 the R. F. C. turned over to the Treasury $125,029,940 more than it received from the Treasury. However, heavy disbursements recently made during late October and the early part of November reduced the net surplus of the R. F. C. to $9,126,661 on November 8.

The better showing so far this year is due to fewer advances, repayments on advances previously made, and sale of some of the collateral obtained against advances. If this trend continues, the R. F. C. will become less and less of a strain on the public debt. In the entire fiscal year 1934, $1,615 million (36 per cent) of the $4,516 million increase in the gross public debt was due to the R. F. C.

In its report as of October 31 last, the R. F. C. shows that so far about 49 per cent has been repaid of all advances except those to governmental agencies and for relief. Of these advances, $886,663,202 went for the purchase of preferred stock, capital stock and debentures of banks and trust companies. In the nature of things, early redemption of these assets is not to be expected. If this item be excluded, about 59 per cent has been repaid of all advances except those to governmental agencies and for relief.

In addition to the repayments cited, building and loan associations borrowed $115,000,000 and repaid 78%; federal land banks borrowed $387,000,000 and repaid 70%; insurance companies borrowed $90,000,000 and repaid 67%; banks and trust companies borrowed $1,699,000,000 and repaid 66%; and mortgage loan companies borrowed $278,000,000 and repaid 43%. Loans to finance the orderly marketing of crops and livestock (mostly to the Commodity Credit Corporation for cotton and corn) amounted to $280,000,000 of which 83% has been repaid.

POPULATION MAY NEED ADJUSTMENT

As if American cities did not already have enough problems, a declining birth rate is about to present them with an entirely new one.

E. O. Baker, specialist attached to the Department of Agriculture, warns the American Country Life Association that the American birth rate has already fallen so low that the national population cannot be maintained permanently.

Nothing can keep our cities at their present size, he says, but a heavy migration from farm to city, and that will do the trick only for a few more decades—at the cost, incidentally, of a drained and impoverished countryside.

Sometimes one is forced to suspect that the race has managed to reach an end of a whole biological era. During the last two centuries, there has been a tremendous expansion of world population. The rising curve now seems to be leveling off.

If national populations, including our own, are not to increase any more, or are even to diminish, some profound readjustments will presently be in order.

Some kindly brain truster might take a few minutes out and figure how much time we lose in a year trying to put that dratted cap back on the tooth paste tube.

A new tiger was delivered to Clyde Beatty in Detroit, so he named it Mickey Cochrane. Wonder what he'd call a new hyena if it was delivered to him in Louisiana.

Girls, Comedy And Hit Tunes In Penner Film

Girls, melody and laughs play an equal part in Paramount's campus comedy, "College Rhythm," coming to the Yucca theatre Sunday for three days, opening with a preview Saturday night, with Joe Penner heading the featured part. Directed by Norman Taurog, "College Rhythm" presents Penner, Lanny Ross, Jack Oakie, Helen Mack, Lydia Robert and Mary Brian in a story about the campus cut-ups who turned the department store business into a college football campaign.

The story has its beginning at State College where Jack Oakie, as "Love and Kisses" Finnegan, a football hero, becomes Lanny Ross' deadly rival for the love of Mary Brian.

Their rivalry is carried over into the business world but temporarily submerged when Oakie gets a job in the store owned by Lanny Ross' father. Here he gets the bright idea of introducing collegiate atmosphere—beautiful girls, cheering sections and football teams—into department store business as a means of whooping up sales. Everything goes beautifully until their competitors start sealing their thunder.

The climax of the film comes after the big football game when Lanny Ross realizes that he does not love Mary Brian after all, but his father's demure little secretary, played by Helen Mack. And Oakie and Miss Brian turn lovebirds on their own account.

Melodies for "College Rhythm" were written by Gordon and Revel and include "Stay as Sweet as You Are," "Let's Give Three Cheers for Love" and "Take a Number From One to Ten."

The Town Quack

(Reserves the right to "quack" about everything with taking a stand on anything).

Heard over the radio: "A woman can make a monkey out of a man in 10 minutes, but it takes 10 minutes to get her back."

Advice given by a prominent West Texas and Panhandle property owner: Buy some real estate of some kind in this plains country. Beg or borrow the money but get it and invest it. Buy a farm or a ranch on time. Buy a home on long-time payments or buy business property. Get it in your name. If you have any possible income, don't worry about going in debt.

The business recovery has started. It's actually on its way. It's rather slow starting but it's definitely begun and history will repeat itself. The American people are high strung and they must have their feasts and their families have their feasts and their families and feasting times, boom times, are in the making. Values are down to nothing, but one good wheat crop, one upward movement in the cat-the prices and increasing prosperity over the country will start prices to rocketing. You can't help but make money if you buy now and can hold onto what you buy for not over two years at the most. Buy in any city or town or county in the Panhandle. You simply cannot miss as prices are down to bedrock. How do people make money? By buying when there are few buyers. How do they lose money? By buying when there is a rush and they can't resist the fever. Of course you have to use judgment, and to study values and trends but if you use only half sense, you'll make a nest egg for yourself. This plains country and every town and every piece of property in it, almost has been sold short. Property can be had for ridiculous prices and you get yours NOW. Get into business for yourself and dig in. A boom is coming. Buy now and sell out five years later.

Have you found the SUNNY PACKAGE on your grocer's shelf?

It's a delicious ready-to-eat cereal. Millions of Americans have found Kellogg's ALL-BRAN a safe, effective means of correcting common constipation—the kind caused by lack of "bulk" in the menu.

Laboratory measurements show that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in this tempting cereal is more effective than that found in fruits and vegetables—because it resists digestion better. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass. Gently, this cleans out the intestinal waste.

Isn't this natural food better than taking patent medicines? Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases with each meal. If this fails to give relief, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or cook into appetizing recipes. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains much more needed "bulk" than part-bran products. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

15 shopping days to Christmas

FRANCE
Village children, armed with tapers which shine out in the darkness of the night, carry about the streets on their shoulders a little checho, singing as they go the Christmas carols which they make the pretext for collecting pennies from door to door. The checho is a small box like a stage set. In it are a manger about which the appropriate images are grouped.

Miss Norda Howell won high score and Miss Maedelee Roberts low score in play.

Guests of the club for the evening were: Misses Lois McWilliams, Norda Howell, and Josephine Skeen.

Club members present included: Misses Maedelee Roberts, Thalia Howell, Marguerite Eivens, Mrs. Olin Fryar and the hostess.

Mrs. J. E. Leigh and Mrs. Draper Speak At WMU Meeting

An address by Mrs. J. E. Leigh, state corresponding secretary of the Baptist women's missionary union, and a devotional on prayer by Mrs. S. Draper of the Baptist Bible Institute of Los Angeles were the chief numbers on the program of the all-day meeting of the Baptist WMU held at the church Thursday.

Mrs. Leigh spoke on the history and observance of the week of prayer and Lottie Moon offering for foreign missions which the church has celebrated since 1888.

She also gave the report that the condition of the WMU in general over Texas is very satisfactory.

A round table discussion of WMU work followed the speaking.

At noon a turkey dinner was served to about 75 persons including visitors from Stanton and Odessa and Mrs. E. Phillips of Big Spring, president of the Big Springs association.

Because of the lateness of the hour, a short afternoon session was held and it was voted to continue the program given by Midland people Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church.

Mrs. Draper's devotional on prayer was in three parts: (a) the story of Christ during betrayal night in which the speaker compared the sleeping disciples to "sleeping church members"; (b) praying through adversities, in which she cited the praises of Paul and Silas in prison; and (c) answered prayer, illustrated with examples from modern life.

Mrs. Fred Wilcox gave a piano solo.

FEMININE FANCIES

BY KATHLEEN EILAND

Carved ivory bracelets, say, Paris, to be used for blouse or dress cuffs. With matching brooches and rings or flat carved choker collar. . . . Sounds alluring, doesn't it? There's something about the phrase, "carved ivory," that brings up pleasing anticipations.

Style leaders may now be fleet-footed if they so desire. Shaved stag skin is employed to make very feminine slippers that can be dyed to match any ensemble.

We always thought a dot on a dress was just a dot in old England. And again it was an American who brought it about.

Arthur Larson of South Dakota, scholar at Oxford, has forced the Union debating society there to allow girls to buy breakfasts and teas in the club halls—the first time in their history that the club rooms have been opened to women.

The men aver that they are now permitted entrance only because their money will help finance a proposed dining room for the men.

Even so, tradition dies hard. Or maybe masculine obstinacy.

Anyway, Mr. Larson had to promise that women would never be allowed to "room all over the place" and that a special entrance would be provided for them, before the Englishmen would consent to let them in.

"The Shining Hour" Is Tragi-Comedy of Tangled Lives

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following review of "The Shining Hour" was given by Mrs. Wade Heath at the meeting of the Play Readers club Wednesday afternoon.

BY MRS. WADE HEATH
This is Keith Winter's second play; the first to be produced in the United States where it has had its world premiere.
He brings to the field of drama a wit and tenderness that make his plays as entertaining to read as they are to watch.

"The Shining Hour" is the story of the Linden family, the tragi-comedy of their tangled lives, from the day Henry Linden, with his young wife Mariella returns from the East to the family home in England, to the moment when Judy Linden buys with her life another woman's shining hour of love.

It has the strength and power of a fine novel and its picture of passion and sacrifice is one not soon to be forgotten.

Here Is Texas News Photos and United Press 1934 All Southwest Conference Team

Coaches and sports writers throughout the Southwest Conference selected this team by ballot for Texas News Photos and the United Press, and it is the official 1934 team of these two news-gathering organizations. Rice, conference champion, placed four men on the team. Texas and Southern Methodist three each and Texas Christian two. Three members of the conference—Baylor, Texas A. and M. and Arkansas—failed to place a man on the first team, although each made several strong bids. Bill Wallace of Rice was the only man to receive unanimous choice for the first team, but his running mate, John McCauley, was right behind him, receiving all votes but one. No first team player received less than half the total votes cast for each position, in itself an indication that the 1934 team is one of outstanding ability. Wallace of Rice, Lester of T. C. U. and Wilson and Carter of S. M. U. have all made All-American first teams this year, a further indication of stellar material on this team. (Texas News Photos.)

All-Southwestern Team Named by UP

DALLAS (UP)—Four members of the championship Rice Institute football team were named today on the United Press All-Southwest conference first team. Choice of two of the Rice players, John McCauley, quarterback, and Bill Wallace, fullback, was practically unanimous. A first and second team was selected by vote of sports editors, sports writers and conference coaches.

First Team: Phil Sanger, 170, Texas, LE, Ralph Miller, 215, Rice, LT, Jake Wetzel, 194, SMU, LG, Darrell Lester, 215, TCU, C, Melbert Bale, 175, Rice, RG, Clyde Carter, 235, SMU, RE, Walter Roach, 173, TCU, RE, John McCauley, 190, Rice, Q, Bob Wilson, 150, SMU, HB, Bohn Hilliard, 170, Texas, HB, Bill Wallace, 170, Rice, F.

Second Team: John Sylvester, 180, Rice, LE, Bill Benton, 196, Arkansas, LT, Wendell Simpson, 190, Baylor, LG, Charles Coates, 195, Texas, C, Bill Spivey, 205, Arkansas, RG, Wilcox Groselocke, TCU, RT, Paul Rucker, 198, Arkansas, RE, Sam Baugh, 170, TCU, Q, Joe Jack Pearce, 180, Baylor, HB, Bill Couser, 162, Texas A. & M., HB, Harry Shuford, 183, SMU, F.

Honorable mention: Ends, Wray, Baylor, Lake, Ark.; Tackles, Spauld, SMU; Ott, SMU; Jordan, A. & M.; Mays, Rice; Guards, Measel, Ark.; Scottino, SMU; Harrison, TCU; Centers, Newby, Ark.; Backfield, Russell, Baylor; Witt, Rice; Gilbreath, Texas; Lawrence, TCU; Menton, TCU; Wolf, Texas; La Forge, Ark.

Clyde Carter, SMU tackle named on the United Press All-American team ran neck and neck with Ralph Miller of Rice for top honors at tackle on the All-Conference eleven. Both men won first team honors, with Carter leading by one point.

If figures count for anything, it is quite possible that the second team could trample the first squad. The second team line averages 195 1/2 pounds per man, compared to the first team weight of 151 pounds.

The second team backfield averages 173 pounds per man compared to the first string weight of 170 pounds.

SQUAD READY FOR COURT

LOGAN, Utah, (UP)—Preparing for the spotlight that will be shifted to their corner of the sports stage after football season comes to an end, basketball aspirants at Utah State College turned out in full force for initial workouts. Freshmen coaches are putting a squad of 45 through a thorough schooling in fundamentals.

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP)—L. A. Schreiner, of Kerrville has offered for exhibition at the Texas Centennial the last surviving herd of Texas Longhorn cattle from the Schreiner private game park near here. The herd includes the 24-year old, partially toothless bull, Old Paint, who was sent to the Century of Progress in Chicago last year.
