DILLINGER PUTS DOWN NAZI MUTINY

Dillinger Leads Murderous Assault on South Bend; One Killed, Two Wounded, $25,000 Taken

COP FALLS AS VOLLEY FIRED INTO HIS BODY

Outlaw's Appearance Breaks Quiet of Several Weeks

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 30. (U.P.) Desperate guns of gangdom blazed again today, and one policeman was killed, two Merchant's National bank officials were wounded and loot variously estimated at from $15,000 to $25,000 was taken.

John Dillinger was recognized by C. W. Coen, vice president of the bank, he said, as the leader.

Policeman Howard Wagner was shot to death as he ran toward the bank while the bandits were coming out. A fusillade of bullets caught him, and spat against buildings up and down the street.

Inside the bank, the gang shot Dolos Coen, cashier and a son of the vice president, and Perry G. Stahley, another vice president.

Nellinger was wounded seriously. Dillinger's return, it is said, the bandit was the nation's No. 1 had man, marks a few weeks of comparative retirement for the Indiana terrorist, only occasional reports having cropped out as he escapes a Wisconsin trap. One of the recent reports said he was recognized while sitting in the Polo grounds in New York City watching a major league game.

CHILD SURVEY TO START THIS WEEK

A child welfare survey will be conducted in Midland county over the next six weeks. This survey is part of a state wide program, and includes the following groups: families of ex-servicemen or women; families who have blind, crippled or otherwise handicapped members under 55 years old, and all other families with children.

The cooperating agencies in this program are the American Legion, American Legion auxiliary, the state blind commission, the state department of education, the state department of health, and the Texas relief commission.

A house to house canvass will be made by Mrs. H. N. Phillips, Miss Stella May Lanham and Miss Kathleen Elland. The information obtained from this survey will be held confidential, as in any government census. It is hoped that every housewife will greet these visitors courteously and give the few minutes of time necessary for answering the questionnaire.

This survey is available an actual count of the number of sick or crippled children in Texas, the physical condition of all relief families, the condition of children, the condition of parents, as well as a record of the handicapped persons under 55 years of age. With this information the proper agencies will be able to locate and assist those who need aid. It will be possible to continue child welfare work in Texas on a much more efficient and broader basis.

As it was deemed inadvisable to make a study of every family in Texas, these three groups were selected because it was believed they would form a fairly accurate cross-section of population, since every type of person will be involved.

HERE FOR SUMMER

4,500 Rabbit Ears Spent For Money Here Saturday

Actual count and a close estimate on a few hundred ears missed in the shuffle showed 4,500 rabbit ears bid in the auction sale Saturday.

More than 50 articles of merchandise, groceries, gasoline, crockery, drug sundries, dry goods, etc., were given away. Bids were made by farmers, ranchers, oil men and townsmen.

Included in the sale and bringing the highest bid up to the five if was sold was a dollar check given by Mrs. John Haley. Flour brought the later top price. Theatre tickets from the Ritz and Yucca theatre brought fancy bunches of rabbit ears at the close.

"Cap" Wallace, seasoned auctioneer, cried the sale and kept the crowd laughing at his wisecracks. Cap also "poured it on" urging all persons to kill rabbits and save ears for a possible later sale.

It was announced that free poison is available at the courthouse and it was also announced that if good rains come and things "looked right" for another sale, the merchants through their chamber of commerce may put on another sale. This, however, is up to the business

CREDIT ASSN. INCREASES STOCK

Now Capitalized at $180,000 and Can Lend $900,000

A great boon to the agriculturist and the stockman was read into the announcement Saturday of Bruce Frazier, secretary-treasurer of the Midland Production Credit Association, that the organization has increased its capital stock from $60,000 to $180,000, which will authorize loans up to $900,000 in the 10 counties of which Midland is headquarters. The announcement followed a meeting of directors.

It was in order to provide for the handling of anticipated business that directors deemed it to be the best interest of the association to increase its capital stock from $60,000 to $180,000, consisting of 36,000 shares of stock of par value at $5 each, Frazier explained.

The board requested the governor of the farm credit administration to increase the capital stock in the amount of $120,000, consisting of $90,000 Class A stock and $30,000 Class B stock. Action followed a motion by George G. White of Big Spring, seconded by J. R. Sale of Stanton, the resolution being unanimously carried.

Directors also authorized directors of other counties to sign releases of livestock mortgages which the association holds in order that livestock may be sold the government for canning or destruction. This is in line with relief measures which have as their aim the clearing of overstocked ranges and farms of undesirable livestock and, at the same time, to provide cash to the producer and furnish free food to the indigent.

Directors present were S. R. Preston of Midland, president; John Gist of Odessa, vice president; George G. White of Big Spring, J. W. Ashley of Big Spring, Joe Youngblood of Midland, W. J. Underwood of Andrews and J. R. Sale of Stanton. Two directors, J. P. Jamieson of Garden City and J. E. Rankin of Rankin, were unable to attend.

BROTHER FLYERS FORCED TO LAND

PARIS, June 30. (U.P.)—Benjamin and Joseph Adamowicz, Brooklyn brothers on a brother-act flight to Warsaw, landed today at piers of L'Orme near Aleson, far short of their goal. They were forced to land because of a shortage of gasoline. Neither was injured.

Prayers for Rain To Be Heard Today

DALLAS, June 30. (U.P.)—Congregations of several Dallas churches will pray for rain Sunday, but it appeared today their prayers will be answered in advance.

Meteorologist Joseph L. Cline predicted showers would blanket the west Gulf states and possibly reach north Texas.

Schools to Open On September 10

At a regular meeting of the school board this week, September 10 was officially designated as the opening date for the 1934-1935 session of the Midland public schools. This notice will serve to inform parents, teachers, and pupils of the board's action in the matter.

Stores to Close Wednesday for 4th Observance

July 4 will find Midland taking a holiday.

Practically all stores will be closed Wednesday so their employees as well as owners may have a day "off."

Midland shoppers are advised to buy Wednesday's needs on Monday and Tuesday.

A hot ball game between San Angelo and Midland is the main sports dish to be served up Wednesday and the store closing is expected to swell the crowd to grandstand capacity, as San Angelo has a great team.

Golf, tennis, swimming and baseball will cause many Midlanders to remain at home to enjoy the day, while others, particularly rodeo fans, will journey to Stamford, Pecos, Brady, Alpine and other points for entertainment.

ELECTION ACTION TABBED BY BOARD

Action toward ordering an election for general obligation bonds of approximately $38,000 to guarantee a portion of a $68,000 PWA loan and grant for building a gymnasium was tabled Saturday by the board of trustees of the Midland public schools.

The question of ordering such an election followed a long campaign in which the school board sought to secure such a loan and grant on a self-liquidating basis, without voting bonds.

In the various steps of attempting to secure the Public Works administration allocation, government officials sought finally to have action taken by the present school board guaranteeing a future year, assuring that the deal made by the incumbent trustees would be carried out by all future boards.

The board had sought the allocation, advancing a plan by which the loan should be paid off from revenue of the building itself, such as admission to basket ball games, receipts from school cafeteria and other funds.

Under the original plan, there was to have been an outright gift of approximately $20,000 by the government. The school board planned then to pay as much as $10,000 of present funds on the balance, leaving a debt to the government of approximately $38,000 to be payable in thirty years, with four per cent interest.

It was the guarantee of this amount which eventually caused government officials to require a bond election. They assured school authorities that upon passing of a resolution to order the bond election, the allocation in all probability would be made.

After the allocation was made, school officials were to order the election. If carried, the money would be available, otherwise the issue would be dropped.

Trustees questioned many tax paying voters Friday and Saturday, explaining in detail the plan for the bond election and were assured that the bulk of the voting public did not desire to have the issue brought up at present.

The decision to table the matter was regarded as finally dropping it under the proposed set-up.

JURY GETS CASE OF WM. WELBURN

SAN ANTONIO, June 30. (U.P.)—Whether the Rev. William Welburn Jr. ever married Wineta Long, as she claims but he denies, will be the question for the jury today. The testimony was completed and final arguments begun.

Miss Esther Warron Failing to Improve

Miss Esther Warron, beautiful New York girl who was gravely injured in an automobile wreck here New Year's that cost the lives of three other victims, is not making recovery New York specialists had predicted, information to friends here discloses.

Her face badly torn and crushed, she was rushed to a Midland hospital, where Midland and Dallas surgeons and plastic specialists attended her. When she had recovered sufficiently she was carried to New York, and other plastic surgeons continued the work of restoring the contours of her face, only to be compelled recently to announce her beauty cannot be returned.

A brother, sister and nephew of Eddie Blacher, Midland druggist, now on a European tour, died as a result of the wreck, one of the most disastrous ever to have occurred here.

Eddie Blacher Touring Europe

Many points of the compass are drawing Eddie Blacher, Midland druggist, who is touring Europe this summer.

Docking at Liverpool from the steaming Mauretania, he and his friends are soon to set out for the Narweka, Belsky, Russo-Poland, home, and will continue after a brief visit to Germany, Czechoslovakia, Serbia and possibly to other European countries.

Blacher, who left Midland a month ago, plans to be away for at least two more months. Max Kirschbaum, Blacher's former business associate, is in charge of his establishment.

The trip is the first Blacher has made to his home since coming to America in 1920.

$32,000 in Payrolls on Construction Work Will Be Released Here in July

Payrolls amounting to about $32,000 are expected to be turned loose in Midland during July, or at the rate of about $8,000 per week on various construction projects.

The chief of these will be the paving of State Highway No. 1 to the Ector county line.

A baby health survey under direction of Mrs. Addison Young; the lowering of city water mains; completion of the new municipal baseball park, payment of salaries connected with feed loans, and salaries in connection with other emergency relief programs.

These payrolls will be handled under general direction of R. M. Taggart, Midland county relief administrator.

The payrolls are expected not only to bring new comforts and conveniences to men needing jobs, but they will also stimulate business considerably, it is believed.

HIGHWAY JOB TO BEGIN TUESDAY

Road work in Midland county will begin Tuesday.

The long waited completion of paving between Midland and Odessa, on the Midland county end, was ordered to begin and the relief office is already registering workers.

The road is to be paved similarly to that already done east of the city. The employment of laborers in charge of the Midland county relief office and the Texas highway commission will supervise the construction.

Completion of No. 1 was the major project sought by the Midland county commissioners court and Midland chamber of commerce, with a southeast-northwest road as the next important. New interest is awakened in the possibilities of that project.

$22,000 IN TAXES PAID DURING THE WEEK AS RESIDENTS HASTEN TO SAVE SELVES ADDED PENALTY

A last minute rush to pay county, state and common school district taxes before the Saturday midnight deadline brought added penalties and costs, had netted at 4:30 Saturday afternoon a total of $22,000.27 for the week, $31,880.76 for the month.

A joint statement issued by the commissioners court and by the tax collectors office said appreciation to the public for its response to publicity given by the court and the tax office through The Reporter-Telegram, and to the newspaper for its assistance in the drive to bring the matter of tax savings to the public.

"The response of both the public and of the newspaper was gratifying," the statement said, in part, "and its effect on collection of taxes was invaluable."

It was expected that several checks were in the mails, and these will be accepted without added penalties and costs if the covers were postmarked before the deadline.

A few taxpayers, whose tax bills had been running for as long as 15 years, saved 100 per cent or more on their investment. The saving on the total of delinquent taxes would have been greater except for the fact some of the assessments were delinquent after 1929—following the boom and at the beginning of the state democratic executive committee. He is an eloquent speaker, and his friends say Midlanders will be interested in his address.

MAURY HUGHES HERE TUESDAY

Tuesday afternoon at 4:30, Maury Hughes, candidate for governor of Texas, will address Midland residents.

It is hoped by friends here that Hughes will be greeted by a large crowd. The candidate is among the most widely known men in Texas, having served as chairman of the state democratic executive committee. He is an eloquent speaker, and his friends say Midlanders will be interested in his address.

Midland Points Way to Relief

Counties over a large area of West Texas have sought information from Midland as to how this county was made eligible for drought relief.

Four long distance telephone calls and five letters of inquiry have been received by the Midland chamber of commerce from county judges and chamber of commerce officials asking Midland's advice on designation procedure.

CREATES NEW BOARD

WASHINGTON, June 30. (U.P.)—President Roosevelt in executive order today created the National Labor Relations board under the labor disputes act. It will be composed of Lloyd Garrison of Wisconsin, chairman; Henry Alvin Mills, Illinois; and Edwin S. Smith, Massachusetts.

GEN. SCHLEICHER, OTHER PROMINENT OFFICERS KILLED

Reichswehr Soldiery Surrounds Ired Storm Troops

BERLIN, June 30. (U.P.)—Chancellor Hitler suppressed the Nazi storm troop mutiny before it was well formed today, at the cost of the lives of General Kurt von Schleicher, former chancellor and Reichswehr commander, and several of his best men.

Schleicher was shot as he resisted arrest as a conspirator against government. Other leaders of mutinous elements in the storm troops were also killed or committed suicide as they faced arrest or court martial.

Fran Schleicher also was killed. Chancellor Hitler, hearing of mutiny among his storm troopers, sent the crack state police and Reichswehr soldiers to surround their headquarters here.

Ernest Roehm, commander of all storm troop units, was arrested at Munich. Karl Ernst, commander of all storm troops in Brandenburg, was arrested at Bremen. Captain Herman Goering, Hitler's chief cabinet aide, announced that several storm troop leaders had been shot dead and others had committed suicide.

Herman Goering, Hitler's strong man, declared after the troop movement that "the second Nazi revolution has begun and ended. Hitler's position is stronger than ever."

ANGLO-GERMAN TRADE WAR SAID IMMINENT

LONDON, June 30. (U.P.)—The outbreak of a bitter British-German trade war at midnight seemed almost certain when delegates failed today to make progress toward agreement on the German foreign debt moratorium.

Two Jailed; Found With Spurious Coins

Two transients are in jail awaiting the arrival of federal men from El Paso, charged with having passed counterfeit half dollars.

One of the men tried to make a 5-cent purchase at the Midland drug. Barney Greathouse informed him the money was spurious. When the fellow pulled out a great handful of coins of the realm Greathouse grew suspicious, more so as he noticed the man's pockets bulged with nickel purchases.

He informed officers and the man and his confederate were soon jailed.

The men said they paid a dollar for 10 of the half dollar pieces, getting them from a "bum."

Free Poison for Rabbits Available

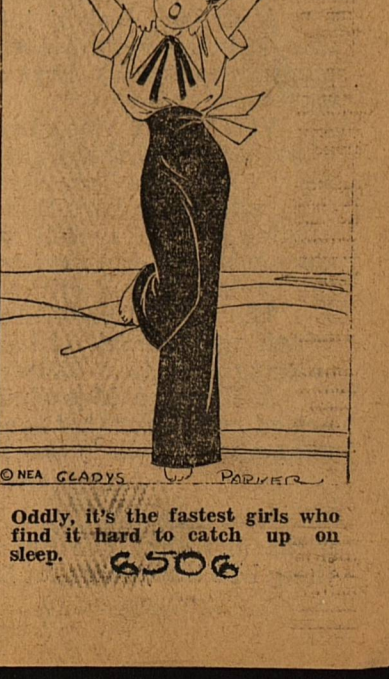

Free rabbit poison is available at the courthouse. This poison is furnished by the commissioners court and may be had by any rancher or farmer living in Midland county. Mere application to the county farm agent gets the poison.

Many farmers report excellent results with the poison. Every female rabbit killed now means a loss of five to six other rabbits. Now is said to be the best time of the year to kill rabbits in order to rid the country of the pests.

Mrs. Haley Making Numerous Speeches

Mrs. John Haley addressed voters of a Winkler county commissioners precinct Friday night at a political barbecue. Available records show that Mrs. Haley has already made many speeches in behalf of her candidacy for representative of the 88th district, than any other candidate who ever sought that office. She speaks from one to three times each week at various rural and town meetings.

Have You Suffered Under This Deal?

President Roosevelt, in his address Thursday night, asked the people of America if they are faring better under the new deal than under the old. He answered critics of the new deal who declare that the freedom of the people has been taken away by the government by calling upon every American to read the bill of rights and "ask yourself whether you personally have suffered the impairment of a single jot of these great assurances."

For the convenience of readers of The Reporter-Telegram who wants to analyze their individual cases, the bill of rights is printed herewith:

- ARTICLE I—Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.
ARTICLE II—A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.
ARTICLE III—No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.
ARTICLE IV—The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.
ARTICLE V—No person shall be held to answer for a capital or other infamous crime unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service, in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.
ARTICLE VI—In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district within the crime shall have been committed, which districts shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.
ARTICLE VII—In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States than according to the rules of the common law.
ARTICLE VIII—Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.
ARTICLE IX—The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.
ARTICLE X—The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

Why Impose A Price On Mother Love?

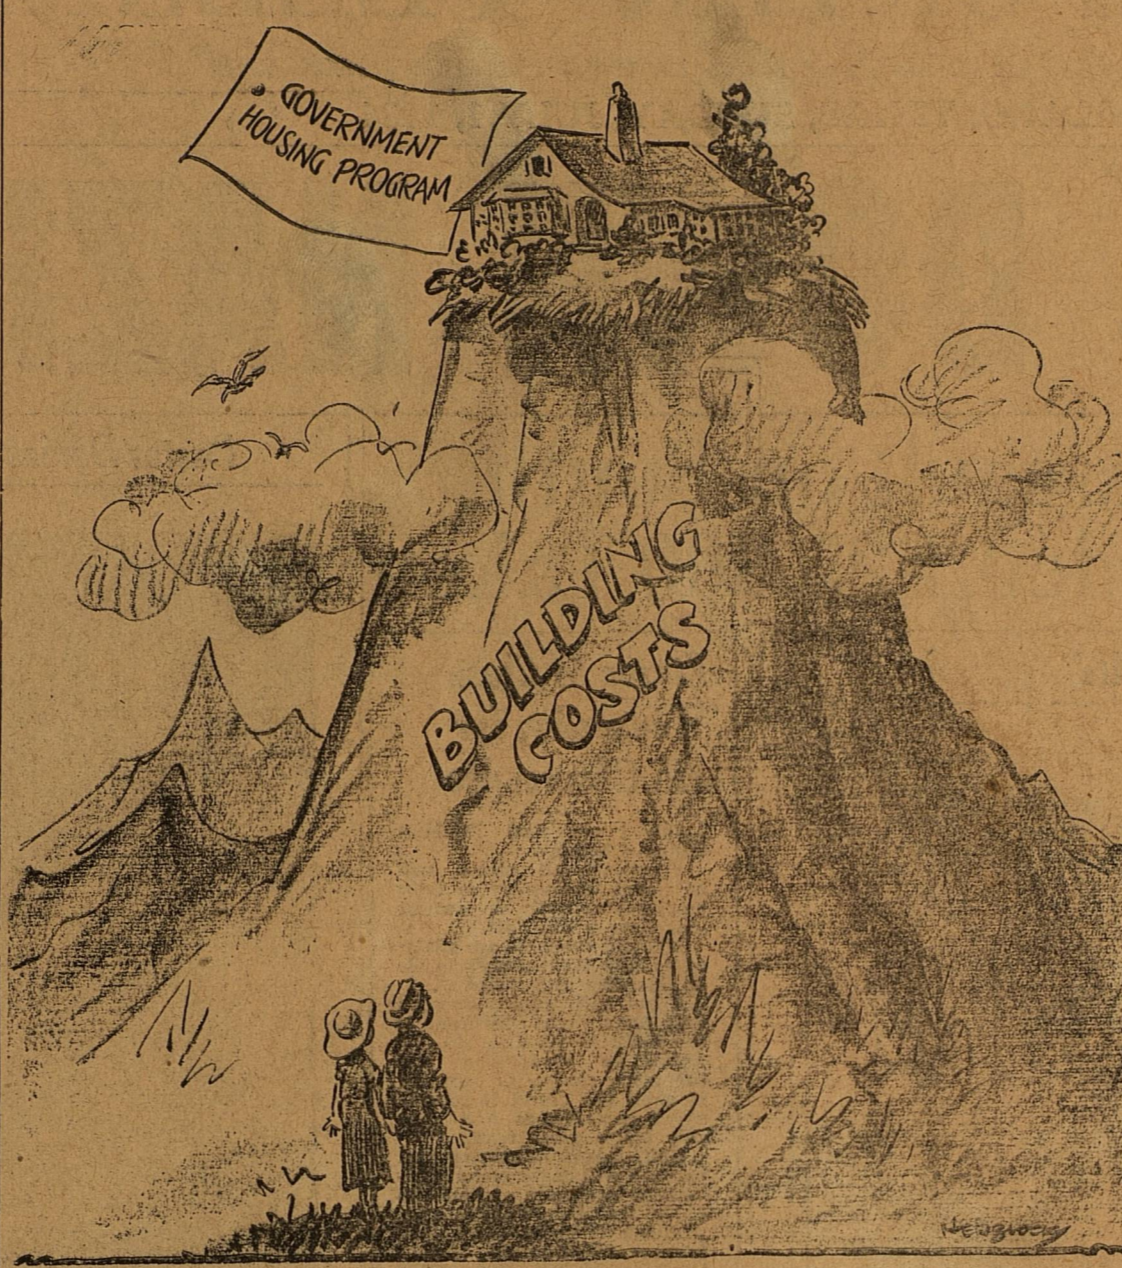

A baby boy with a beguiling smile held out chubby fingers, gripped tightly together, toward the judge on the bench in a large middle western city the other day. The clutching fingers came open slowly, revealing a nickel and a penny. "We got money," the baby said. Money was decidedly what the child and his pretty, 24-year-old mother needed, as the judge had just explained. The young woman was in court to ask permission to place her son in a children's home until she could get work and earn money to support him. She was able and eager to work in an office or at housekeeping. Her husband had disappeared and she did not know where he was. Her brother who had been supporting her and the boy was no longer able to do this. But the mother's appeal was denied. She couldn't, the judge explained, turn her baby over to the institution unless she contribute to his support or unless she would sign papers relinquishing all claim to him. "But I want him back!" the mother protested. "I can't give him away."

It wasn't the judge's fault that nothing could be done about it. The judge and juvenile court authorities had heard the story before, knew of many similar cases. Needy mothers eager to work to support their children if someone would only give them a chance, needy mothers determined, in spite of all hardships, to keep their children. Mothers' pension laws, which once would have been the answer to the problem, have been abandoned in many communities because there are no funds to pay the pensions. And the mother who is told she cannot put her child in a public home unless she is able to pay something toward his support while, at the same time, she cannot earn this support unless she has some place to leave the child to be cared for, finds herself torn between two impossibilities. The futile heart-breaks of mothers forced to give up their children to provide for the youngsters' welfare is one of society's oldest and most inexcusable tragedies. There is wide talk of social legislation these days—new schemes and remedies to do away with unemployment, to protect the aged, the sick, and the injured. Certainly there is no greater injustice than laws which protect the mother who abandons her child and penalizes the mother who refuses to do this.

Dictatorship's Dread

A striking insight into the philosophy of a dictatorship is given by the contrasting speeches made in Germany recently by Franz von Papen and Paul Joseph Goebbels. Von Papen, vice chancellor of the Nazi government, advocated that the right to criticize the government—a right which has been sternly suppressed under Hitlerism—be allowed again. But a projected broadcast of a recording of his speech was immediately canceled, and Goebbels, Hitler's minister of propaganda, asserted that the suppression of criticism would be continued. That it will be Goebbels' view, and not von Papen's, which will prevail is hardly to be doubted. Nothing is so dangerous to a dictatorship as freedom of discussion. A Hitler, a Mussolini, or a Stalin—they do not fear armed revolt, for that is a thing they can cope with. Plain, unhampered talk is the one menace they cannot endure. Now Lake Michigan is supposed to have turned up a sea monster. The Chicago World's Fair needed something like that, now that Sally Rand and her fans are gone.

Pilgrims Had Own Beer, Explains El Paso Man at Fete

BY MARSHALL HAIL
EL PASO—If the Pilgrims had not brought a large cargo of beer with them on the Mayflower the Southwest Nationalist association would not have gathered at the Elks club to celebrate the 375th birthday of T. A. Hutchins, the Sage of Ysleta, and to put Christianity on the spot. Capt. W. L. Rider, who spends his time in historical research, explained that John Alden, successful lover in Longfellow's poem, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," came over on the Mayflower solely as a cooper to look after the beer barrels.

Yancy Plans Air Flight to Ruins

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—Plans for an air expedition to study mystic Mayan ruins in Central America were announced here by Captain Lewis A. Yancey, trans-Atlantic flier. Piloting an autogyro on an exhibition tour of Montana, Yancey revealed that he expects to lead three of the "windmill" ships into the Central American jungles in the winter of 1935-36. The trip is to be staged under the combined auspices of Tulane University, an autogyro company and a spareplane company. Belez, Honduras, is expected to be the expedition's base and surveys are to be made from there 150 miles northward into the Yucatan jungles. The planes will be equipped with much longer blades than regular autogyros and thus will be able to land in small openings in tropical forests. Yancey first visited the temple cities of the Mayans, built centuries ago and abandoned during the Spanish conquest of the 16th Century, on foot with a surveying expedition. Two years ago he flew his autogyro into many of the "lost cities," many times, using old temples

Candlelight Ceremony United Miss Sill and Mr. Lawrence

Wedding Vows Read at Home of Bride's Parents; Reception Followed; Couple Leaves on Honeymoon Trip to Colorado

At a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at 8 o'clock Miss Pauline Sill became the bride of Mr. David B. Lawrence of New Orleans. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Sill, 120 S. Big Spring street, with the Rev. Kenneth C. Minter, pastor of the First Methodist church, reading the marriage vows.

The vows were repeated before an improvised archway in the living room of the home, of white satin, covered with pink and green carnations intermingled with ferns to give the appearance of a forest. Tall white satin-covered candelabra holding pink tapers burned at each side of the archway.

The bridal party made its way down the stairway to the altar while the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Harold Stuart of Oklahoma City, appeared from the hallway, joining their minister.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. P. O. Sill, was gowned in a white satin gown with lace sleeves and yolk. A short train graduated from the skirt. Her veil of tulle was sprinkled with orange blossoms and was attached to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Maxine Sill, who attended the bride as bridesmaid, wore a pink net model with pink accessories and carried an armful of pink roses. Mrs. Sill, the bride's mother, was attired in a Nemes model of pink silk. She wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. J. A. Lawrence of Wynnewood, Okla., mother of the groom, wore an ashen of roses gown with white accessories and a matching corsage.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room of the home, decorated with carnations and ferns placed at vantage points. A white tiered wedding cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom, centered the table which was laid in an Irish lace cloth. Mrs. Paul Kasishke of Pampa, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. A. H. Kasishke of Tulsa, Okla., also an aunt of the bride, presided over the bride's book.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony, which was attended by members of the family and close friends, were Mrs. Fred Packard of Covert, Mich., Mr. Robert Brown of Tulsa, Mrs. Kasishke of Tulsa, Mr. and Mrs. Kasishke of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lawrence of Wynnewood, Okla., Mrs. Paul K. Fredman of Dallas, aunt of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jordan of Dallas, aunt and uncle of the groom, Mrs. W. P. Wages and daughter, Miss Wilmore Wages of San Angelo, aunt and cousin respectively, of the groom.

Mrs. Lawrence, selected by two famous men, McClelland Barclay and Flo Ziegfeld, as a beauty, received her degree, B. E. A., from the University of Oklahoma and later attended Southern Methodist university. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi, social sorority, and is well known in social circles in West Texas.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lawrence of Wynnewood, Okla., received B. E. A. degree from the University of Oklahoma, going from there to Harvard and then to Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he received an M. S. degree. He is a Phi Gamma Delta fraternity member, now industrial engineer for the New Orleans Public Service company in that city.

After the reception, the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Colorado. On their return trip to their home at New Orleans, they will visit for several days with his parents, who will give a reception for the pair. They expect to be at home Aug. 15. Mrs. Lawrence's traveling costume was a Vionette model of midnight blue crepe with matching accessories.

Doris Lynn Pemberton Honored At Two Parties

Two parties were given Friday for Doris Lynn Pemberton in celebration of her ninth birthday anniversary.

Friday morning, four boys were invited to the Pemberton home, 1108 W. Illinois, for a surprise breakfast, which was served camp style on the lawn. The honoree's parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Pemberton, presented her with a croquet set, which was immediately arranged on the lawn for games. After several games, the guests were taken to Pagoda pool for a swim. Rubber balls were given as prizes to Frank Wade Arrington, Fred Gordon Middleton, Gene Estes and Joe Haygood.

At 6 o'clock Friday afternoon, several girls attended a picnic supper, also given on the lawn of the Pemberton home. After the gifts were opened, games of croquet and other outdoor games were played. Manicure sets were given as favors to the following guests: Emily Jane Lamar, Ethnye Jean Wilson, Edith Fay Dublin, Ella Anne Toibert, Joan Proctor, Willie Mae Riddle, Betty Kimbrough, Frances Ellen Link, Elma Jean Noble, Mary Lee Snyder, Glenna Jones, Rebecca Ray Weaver, Elma Louise Hays, Jean Hill, Nellie Wilkin Brunson, Myrtle Jean Butler, Charlotte Kimsey, Billy Joyce Ackers and one honoree.

Recent Bride Is Honored with Shower Wednesday

Complimenting Mrs. John Phillip Tuman, the former Miss Florene Cantelou, who was married recently to Mmes. Bud Estes and N. W. Bigham entertained Wednesday afternoon at the Bigham home, 310 W. Louisiana.

After guests had assembled at the Bigham home and registered in the bride's book, presided over by Miss Crystelle Steele, the honoree was called and came to the home, where she was greeted by Marjorie Barron, dressed as a bride in white satin and drawing a large silver slipper filled with packages wrapped in pink and green color motif of the affair. Marjorie presented the gifts to the honoree, after a brief presentation speech.

Reception rooms of the home were decorated with roses, carnas and crepe myrtle. Attractive refreshment plates adorned with hand-painted favors announcing the date of the wedding, 30, were served to Mmes. T. S. Patterson, W. M. Schrock, Clarence Hale, J. P. Iman, M. D. Cox, H. B. Dunagan, Guy Bennett, D. E. Gabbert, O. W. Stice, Aldridge Estes, Ben Dublin, Holt McWorkman, W. L. Holmsley, R. W. Dickcy, Bertha Kenny, W. C. Cochran, Don Quarles, Ralph Barron, J. M. The honoree was attired for the occasion in a white organdy frock embroidered in navy with navy accessories.

Midland Girls in Camp Waldemar's 4th Celebration

Midland has the distinction of furnishing three swimmers for the Couard of the Guadalup, which is a part of the annual Fourth of July celebration at Camp Waldemar, near Kerrville. Because of their ability as swimmers, Freddie Faye Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner Jr., Ann Lloyd, daughter of E. Russell Lloyd, and Evelyn Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Phillips, were chosen to represent their groups in the water pageant.

Miss Walter Fay Cowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cowden, is one of 18 expert swimmers chosen for exhibition swimming during the pageant. Her group will give a moonlight ballet in the water, will demonstrate group form swimming and will waltz in the water to orchestral accompaniment. She is one of two new campers to be chosen in this group of 18. Miss Cowden is a junior counselor at Waldemar and assists with the swimming activities.

Miss Lorraine Stengl, daughter of Mrs. E. J. Stengl, is a member of the orchestra, which will furnish the music for the pageant and the swimming exhibition. Mrs. Alma Thomas, teacher in Midland high school, is a counselor from Midland and has assisted in planning this spectacular water pageant, which comes at the close of a celebration that includes an old time barbecue and a horse show in which the Waldemar campers ride the famous Col. W. T. Johnson string of Arabian ponies.

At Ritz Today

Carole Lombard plays the haughty heiress who succumbs to his charm, and George Burns and Gracie Allen, Ethel Merman, and Leon Errol contribute their important shares to the songs and laughter.

Crosby is a sailor aboard the yacht of Miss Lombard. Her guests are Miss Merman, Errol, and the fortune-hunting princes, Jay Henry and Ray Milland.

Shipwrecked, the band finds haven on a South Sea island, where George Burns and Gracie Allen are hunting big game. How Bing puts his "guests" to work and how George and Gracie get involved in the situation create a climax of love, song and laughs.

Norman Taurog adds "We're Not Dressing" to his long roster of successes. The story is from an original by Benjamin Glazer, adapted for the screen by Horace Jackson, Francis Martin and George Marion Jr.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Hodge have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Sid Wells and son, Bob, of Corpus Christi. Mrs. Wells is a sister of Mrs. Hodge.

Wild! Weird! Wicked! "THE BLACK CAT" (Adv.) G. M. Dean, staff writer of the Arizona Republican at Phoenix, Arizona, was through here Saturday morning and stopped for a brief visit with his uncle, W. A. Dean. Dean and his family were returning from an automobile trip to New York, which has given him his paper.

Horrors! A terrible Black Cat is coming to Midland! (Adv.) Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Templeton and daughter, Diane, of Amarillo, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Simpson.

Miss Ernestine Bryant is visiting her parents at Brownfield and will return here for the fourth. Miss Kathleen Ellang is taking her place at the county library.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stubbeman of Cuero are here visiting their son, Frank Stubbeman, and Mrs. Stubbeman. Miss Alma and Mr. J. H. Stubbeman of Smithville are also here visiting Frank Stubbeman, their nephew. The party will go to Carlsbad Monday and on to El Paso, returning to Midland Tuesday night and on to their respective homes Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Adams are spending the week end at Abilene visiting relatives.

Joe Kilbourne and wife of Waco were here Saturday en route to Amarillo for a visit. Kilbourne was formerly connected with the Gulf here.

Mrs. J. M. Flanagan and daughter, Emily, have returned from a visit with relatives at Kaufman and at Galveston.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 1. The Golden Text is: "Laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrites, and envies, and all evil speakings, as newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby" (1 Peter 2:12).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit" (Matthew 12:33).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science awakens the sinner, reclaims the infidel, and raises from the couch of pain the helpless invalid. It speaks to the dumb the words of Truth, and they answer with rejoicing. It causes the deaf to hear, the lame to walk, and the blind to see. Who would be the first to disown the Christliness of good works, when our Master says, 'By their fruits ye shall know them?' (page 342)."

At last a different brand of mystery has been contributed to the screen, one that avoids all the hackneyed plots and horrors of the usual thriller, yet holds interest from beginning to end and inspires many hearty chuckles.

It is "The Thin Man," which opened last night at the Yucca theatre, and proved to be one of the best-knitted baffling plots to come from the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. It shows today, through Tuesday.

Although the novel, "The Thin Man," has been read by thousands and the newspaper serial in all the Hearst papers has been read possibly by millions, this does not detract from the entertainment of the film.

William Powell, noted for his detective characterizations, plays an entirely different sleuth than in all his former pictures. As Nick Charles, the retired pleasure-loving detective, he gives the best performance of his screen sleuthing career.

Myrna Loy, too, is seen in an entirely different light than in her former pictures. Known chiefly for her emotional roles, Miss Loy makes her debut as one of the screen's most charming light comedienne as Nora, the lovely and wealthy wife of Nick Charles.

Maureen O'Sullivan does well with her part as Dorothy Wynant, the bewilderer daughter of a neurotic man. Also, there is a full gallery of other characters—ranging from befuddled Detective Lieutenant Quirk to Harrison Quinn, who drank to forget that his wife disapproved of drinking.

Porter Hall, noted stage player, was recruited from Broadway for an important character in "The Thin Man" and, if one judges from his first screen performance, he is destined to go far in pictures.

The picture was ably cast with such well known players as Minda Gombell, Henry Wadsworth, Natalie Moorhead and several others participating in the mystery and merriment that the plot contributes.

The picture version clings very closely to Dashiell Hammett's novel—and what changes were made served, in truth, as an improvement to the story.

A Gallery of Characters
The narrative deals with Nick Charles, ex-detective, and three murders, which involved him, against his will, with the peculiar Wynant family—a half-mad father, a scheming, lecherous mother, the bewildered daughter and a neurotic son. Also, there is a full gallery of other characters—ranging from befuddled Detective Lieutenant Quirk to Harrison Quinn, who drank to forget that his wife disapproved of drinking.

W. S. Van Dyke, best known for his direction of such epics as "Trader Horn," "White Shadows in the South Seas," and "Eskimo," directed "The Thin Man"—and made a mighty fine job of it.

A Million V-8 Followers

... for the Ford idea of low-cost transportation

ON June 20th the millionth Ford V-8 was produced—finest of a long line of nearly 22,000,000 Ford cars.

26 years ago Henry Ford said, "We will build a motor car for the great multitude".

This basic idea has never changed. The name Ford is synonymous with dependable, sturdy low cost motor cars. The V-8 was the answer to the need of the modern motorist for greater speed and flexibility.

Without sacrificing one whit of traditional Ford owner economy and lasting performance, the V-8 has brought to a million owners the power and comfort previously found only in the most expensive cars.

New low prices for 1934 were put into effect June 15.

Lonely Couple Guards Flyers

HUNTINGTON, Pa. (U.P.) — One of the most treacherous flying areas in the United States is watched by Paul Husak, Trans-continental and Western Airways sentinel atop Jack's Mountain in Huntingdon County.

His job is conceded as being the loneliest in the state. Three years ago Husak and his bride deserted Pittsburgh and came to live in a tin shack, 10 by 15 feet in dimensions, on the lonely mountain top, near the 60-foot tower where he collects weather data for TWA. The Husaks' staple provisions are hauled by wagon twice a year over the six miles of rough road that leads in slow spirals to the summit. Mail comes twice a week — when Husak feels like walking six miles for something to read. Mr. and Mrs. Husak and their two-year-old daughter — and the mountain top has been her only home — sleep in double-decked bunks, their shack being too tiny to accommodate beds. They huddle the stove during the winter months, and spend much time on the observation tower in summer to escape swarming bees and hornets. Their family's method of travel during vacation periods is a far flight from the "frontierishness" of their workaday existence. They tour in the most modern cabin plane.

Let's look at probabilities for a moment. They're saying the city has invited the playground bloc to move lock, stock and keys to the city diamond, where the spectators can sit in comfort in the modern stand. Such a move would necessitate quite an expense, but is deemed likely. About the only difficulty envisioned would be the position of the pitcher's mound, a hump that might make third basemen grow white haired over the rest of the season. Haven't been able to locate Earl Ticknor, factotum of the night racket, about the matter.

A dull Sunday in general, with the baseball club at Iraan and both golf clubs idle. A bunch of the tennis luminaries will go to Odessa for a tournament in which a total of 32 players has been entered. We read from Henderson Shuffler's Odessa News-Times. Invitations were sent doubles teams of Midland, Stanton, Big Spring, Fort Stockton, Pecos Barstow and several other towns. The Odessa team is made of Dr. J. K. Wood and Ford Turner. This pair especially wants to bat 'em back at the Fort Stockton team, which defeated the Odessans recently for the Pecos Valley championship. Matches start this morning at 8:30. Dick Nelson and Harold Dean make the best Midland combination.

Economy Promised By Holly Roberts

"Economy to the fullest reasonable extent—but a guarding against false economy." Thus explained Holly Roberts his issue in announcing for commissioner of Precinct 1.

The candidate said no set methods of coping with conditions of the next 30 days can be established in advance—that committing oneself "this early" would be like the farmer who says today what he will do in thirty days—not knowing what conditions will face him that far in advance.

Roberts has been in Midland since 1899, living in Precinct 1 practically all the time since being commissioner of Precinct 4 and except for the time he spent unattached in a motor transport corps during the war.

"In offering myself to the consideration of the voter I do so with full sense of the responsibility one should have to a county which has shown such admirable taste in picking its officials in the past," he said.

West Coast Singer To Vacation Here

Prof. Roy Beights, voice instructor of Los Angeles and head of music in the University Methodist church of that city, may accept students while spending a vacation in Midland, he said Friday while here visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hallman, relatives.

He has studied under several internationally recognized singers, among them Richard Crooks and Martenelli.

All-Night Dance at Big Spring July 3

All night long the strains of Johnnie Lochaby's 11-piece orchestra will beguile those who gather at Big Spring's modern Club de Paree on the night of July 3. The dance will begin at 11 o'clock and will not stop until the sun takes a look-see into the club's windows.

Lochaby, just back from an engagement at the lake at Wichita Falls, one of Texas' best summer spots, has restocked his library with the latest dance hits. Noted for his keeping abreast of jazz compositions, he has gone a step further to insure his orchestra's parity with many of the well known radio bands—he has added an arrangement expert to his staff, one who is qualified for taking a hit off the air and scribbling it down for rendition just as soon as rehearsal can be held.

Lochaby has worked untiringly for two years to build up his band. "I'm just beginning to realize the value of the work," he said in Midland Friday. "I'm really proud of the orchestra."

The club is now under the management of Jack Potter.
