The Town Quack

(Reserves the right to "quack" about everything with taking a stand on anything).

CORNERED WOLVES

If you can believe John Landesco, famous Chicago criminologist, we are apt to get a very bad outbreak of crimes of violence, such as bank robberies and large-scale holdups, in the near future. Oddly enough, this will come because the underworld is at last definitely on the run.

The booze racket, as a steady source of revenue for gangsters, is fading. The underworld has at last been convinced that kidnaping is too risky. The whole business of crime is suffering a severe depression. Gangs are breaking up, dissolving, losing their money and their power.

And it is right at such a moment, says Mr. Landesco, that gangs are most dangerous. Being desperate, they will try almost anything. Consequently, this criminologist believes we shall have a new "crime wave" shortly—a crime wave which, paradoxically, will testify to the efficacy of our drive to break up organized crime.

A grandmother has been found in Tennessee who didn't take her first air ride on her 100th birthday, has no opinions on the younger generation, and needs glasses to read her newspaper.

Midland fans are about to get their first dose of night football. A few years ago only the biggest colleges had the nerve to try it—and it was popular. The smaller colleges and larger high schools took it up—and it went over big. And now the smaller schools all over the country are lighting their fields and playing football at night—and all of them report heavier attendance and greater interest in the game. If it works everywhere else, surely it will work here. Let's all go out Friday night and see the Bull Dogs get off to a start with Colorado.

A rich man who lived a long, long life finally died. A friend met one of the relatives and offered condolences.

"Was your uncle in full possession of his faculties at the time of his death?" he asked.

"We don't know yet, but we will be to read this afternoon," was the reply.

It was away out in the country.

Mrs. Barron Reviews Play At Club Session

Mrs. E. H. Barron was hostess to the Play Readers club Wednesday afternoon at her home, 306 W. Ohio. Mrs. Ralph Barron read a review of the play "Left Bank" by Elmer Rice.

About 14 members were present. Mrs. E. R. Thomas was a guest for the afternoon.

Announcements

Friday Belmont Bible class will meet at 3:30 Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tyson Midkiff, 201 E. Michigan.

The Left Bank

NOTE: The following review of the play, "The Left Bank" was read by Mrs. Ralph M. Barron at the meeting of the Play Readers club Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Rice has taken the left bank of the Seine for his locale, and has drawn his people from the radical youngest of expatriate Americans in the Latin Quarter.

John and Claire Shelby are living in a small hotel on the Boulevard Montparnasse. With Teddy in school in England, John thinks they will have the freedom they left America to find, but Claire would much prefer to live in America and have her child with her.

Waldo and Susie Lynde come to the same hotel to be near the Shelys. The recent death of Susie's father causes her to go to Venice to help settle the estate. As John is writing a biography, it will be agreeable for John and Susie to go to Venice and Waldo may stay and look after Claire. Claire and Waldo find that they like very much the same sort of life. When John and Susie return, there are adjustments to be made. Susie has decided on a divorce that she may study in Paris. Claire has made up her mind to go to America and take Teddy with her. John may come if he cares to, but he is sure that he will never care to. Waldo accepts their decisions complacently, knowing that he will be happier in America.

CARTOONIST VERSATILE

AUSTIN.—In order to obtain "atmosphere" for his cartoon, "Wash Tubbs," Royston C. Crane of Cleveland, Ohio, Newspaper Enterprise association artist and former University of Texas student, has driven a locomotive, has traveled with a circus, and has watched revolutions in Cuba and Mexico. It is pointed out in an article about him in a recent issue of the Literary Digest. Crane is the subject of a half-page feature, "Cartoons and Their Makers," in that periodical.

After leaving the University in 1922, where he had been a student for two years, Crane joined the NEA Service in 1924, and began drawing "Wash Tubbs," which now appears in over four hundred newspapers of the country.

SOCIETY

Novelty Keynote Of Robyn Club's Wednesday Session

Several novel ideas were brought out in the initial meeting of the Robyn club held Wednesday afternoon at the studio of the Watson School of Music.

Twenty-five children responded to roll call with some musical expression and its meaning. Those who were present on time received a gold star while absent and tardy members received a green star. Every fifth meeting of the club will be red star meeting day and mothers will be guests.

Acquaintance of new and old members of the club was made through each child introducing himself and each mother introducing herself.

The following club officers were elected: President, Shirley Ruth Jolly; vice president, Liza Jane Lawrence; secretary, Imogen Moore.

Miss Lydia G. Watson talked on the "Lives of Composers," and pupils took part in a round table discussion of musicians and musical history.

Piano presented the following program:

Piano solo—Ring, Sweet Bells—Biarro—by four-year-old Jane Harrison.

Guitar solo—Jack Noyes.

Piano—Fairy Wedding Waltz—Turner—Edith Wemple.

Piano—Serenade—Lang—Bertha Flournoy.

Violin solo—Medley of Old Time Tunes—Lewis Ray Bewley.

Piano—Chasing Moonbeams—Anthony—Imogene Moore.

Piano—Scheizo—Bach—Shirley Ruth Jolly.

The meeting was closed with the repetition of the club motto—"Musicians are artists. They paint their colors in tones. The canvas upon which they paint is silence. And the audience must furnish that."

All children in the club are twelve years old or younger.

Luncheon Opens Wednesday Club's Winter Season

The Wednesday club opened the new season with a luncheon in the Crystal ballroom of the Hotel Scharbauer at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Pink roses formed the floral decoration of the table at which a four-course luncheon was served to 10 members.

Mrs. Andrew Fasten, retiring president, presided at the business meeting following the luncheon.

New officers who assumed their duties for the year at the meeting were: President, Mrs. O. B. Holt; vice president, Mrs. Frank Elkin; recording secretary and treasurer, Mrs. John P. Butler; corresponding secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Paul Ryan; parliamentarian, Mrs. W. G. Whitehouse.

The club decided to buy Greeley's "Handbook of Alaska" to be used in the club study course this year and to donate the book afterward to the city library.

At last we have found a way to use those extra rolls of paper left over when we papered the house last year.

Select four patterns, put one on each of the four walls of your room and presto! you have magically leaped into the forefront of fashion.

All four walls of the room papered in the same design and color? Not, but, this monotony won't do. Wasn't that Mr. Hobe Erwin, famous decorator, thought to himself, He decided to jazz things up a little in the interior decorating business and forthwith created a room with one wall painted brown, and one plum color, the third papered with a plaid paper, and the fourth draped in beige-leather.

On second thought, such a variety in room decoration might be valuable in case of housebreakers. The poor burglar would get so confused turning round from one wall to another that he'd forget which room he was in and inevitably be captured.

Why is it that of all our West Texas flowers cosmos seem most perfectly to express the spirit of the fall season?

And speaking of flowers, we wonder what flower Midland will adopt for its own during the Centennial? Corsicans will decorate the highways in her community with the red rose. Houston has chosen crepe myrtle. Galveston has long been identified with the oleander.

We suggest for Midland that hardy but exquisite wild flower called "antelope flower" or sand flower whose clumps of pinky-white blossoms form such bits of arresting beauty along our country roads.

Their Big Moment Brings 2 Comedy Stars to Theatre

Blazing a new trail in screen stories, "Their Big Moment," playing at the Yucca theatre Friday and Saturday starring ZaSu Pitts and Slim Summerville is a radical departure from the type of pictures in which this popular team has heretofore appeared. Without any diminution of the comedy element, it said to be replete with thrills and tense situations and, as the story progresses, it resolves itself into melodrama of the most exciting kind.

"Their Big Moment" is said to be the best Pitts and Summerville show to date. And that's something when their previous productions have earned the hilarity and patronage of thousands of screen fans. And with such outstanding production qualities as James Cruze's direction; a supporting cast including Kay Johnson, William Gaxton, Bruce Cebot, Ralph Morgan and Julie Hayden, and a story from Walter Hackett's successful long run play, "Afterwards."

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep... Vigor... Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

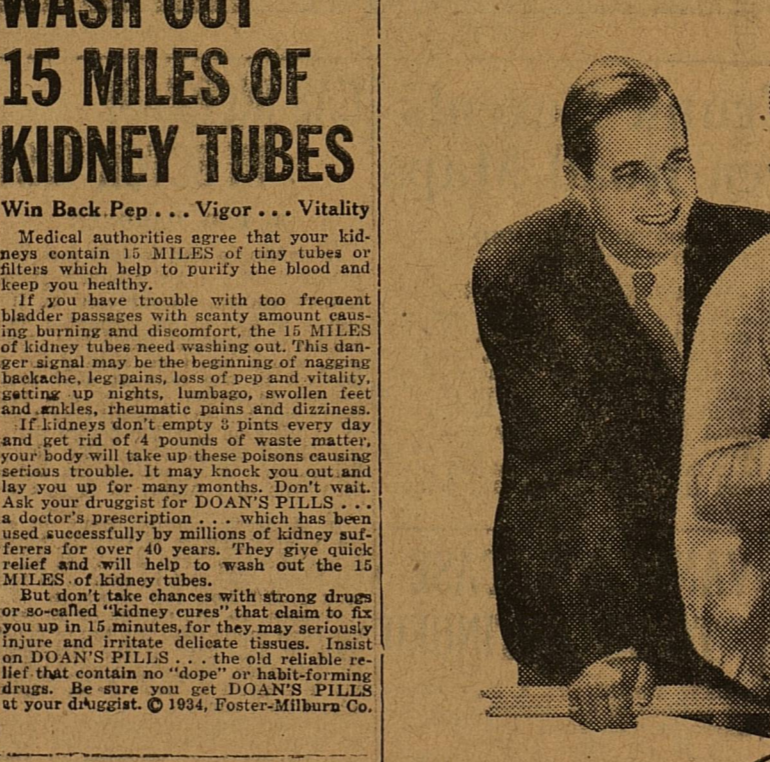

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scant amount, existing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS... a doctor's prescription... which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes, for they may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS... the old reliable relief that contains no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

McCamey to Meet Colorado on Oct. 12

McCamey Badgers open the fight for Class A district honors at the Badger field in McCamey, Friday night, Oct. 12, at 8 o'clock, when they meet the Colorado Wolves.

The game was scheduled for Colorado, but due to financial difficulties it was changed to McCamey.

In a hard fought game last year, Colorado eked out a 7 to 6 win over McCamey and from all reports the game Friday night will be equally as interesting.

McCamey will enter the game with four games already played this season to two for the Wolves. The Badgers have met Pecos, Alpine, Lamesa and Rankin while Colorado was playing Roscoe and Roby.

Home Brewed

BY R. C. HANKINS

The Detroit Tigers, who led the American league in batting, fielding and stolen bases, looked like the New York Giants in yesterday's jumpy session. They looked like sand lotteries, or almost as good. Gone for the moment are the stirring statistics of the eight-in-a-murderer's-row of 300-or-better hitters. The fans are not thinking as much today of the Detroit team average of .300, of Mickey Coghane's piloting of his club to the flag not duplicated in Detroit but 12 times since organized baseball began in 1876. They are thinking of the so-called iron clad infield's failure to handle chances that would have been easy to high school boys, and of the nervousness that induced the poor play.

In the interest of baseball it is hoped that young Livewood Rowe sends the Tigers into their typical crushing offensive this afternoon, and puts Detroit back into the class given late rallying clubs managed by Clark Griffith in 1901, Hughie Jennings in 1907, Jake Stahl in 1912, Bucky Harris in 1924 and Joe Cronin in 1933. The Tigers, it is true, got off to an early start, but lost the lead to New York, took it again in July only to lose it on the 27th, got back next day and stayed there.

The most astounding feat of the year, however, would have to be the debacle of the New York Giants or the sudden rise of the St. Louis catching passes like a collegian.

Colorado has played two games and lost both to much stronger class B teams: Roby 13, Colorado 0, and Roscoe 6, Colorado 0.

The Bulldog squad is composed of 28 players. All will be ready to go, with the exception of Sam Midkiff, quarterback, who probably will be kept from the game with a knee injury. No chances will be taken with him, because his services will be more valuable at a later date.

The probable starting lineup for Midland:

- L. E.—J. D. Montgomery
- R.—O. Gee
- L. G.—D. Welch
- C.—R. Richman
- R. G.—T. Miles
- E. C.—Bob Frothro
- R. E.—Bob White
- Q. B.—R. Jones
- E. H.—Clyde Chandler
- T.—Oleo Brown
- F. B.—L. H. Collins.

Cardinals. The slump of the Giants was amazing, the starting offensive of St. Louis like a tonic. The experts had thought the race settled. Newspaper services had mailed mats on the series. But in one week the Cards whittled the lead of the Giants by three games and an apparently safe lead was blown to bits by the great hurling of the Deans, Dizzy and Nutsy. Chief in the thrills about this time was the double-shoutout by the Oklahomans, in which Jerome allowed only three hits, Paul none. It was by the margin of a single base on balls that Paul failed to pitch a perfect game when he blanked Brooklyn. Charlie Robertson was last to turn the trick, in 1922. Dan was the first rookie to pitch no-hit ball in the majors.

In the pennant-madness days of Ty Cobb and Hughie Jennings regime, seats sold at Detroit for $2.50. Now they cost $19.80 for a set of three.

Here's a tip three persons ought to appreciate. A Midland woman is driving to St. Louis, and can leave tomorrow if three persons would like to drive with her. Expenses are almost nothing. She is driving to the Missouri city on business, but is enough of a sport to act the Samaritan in a time like this. If you care to know more, telephone this department sometime this afternoon.

Nikolai Yevdokimov, a Russian parachute jumper, made what is believed to be a new world's record when he leaped from a plane at 26,575 feet and dropped 25,925 feet before pulling the rip cord.

The 14 INCH RULE

...a measure of safety for your child's eyes!

IMPROPER lighting frequently causes a child to bring her book much closer to her eyes than the normal reading distance—which is 14 inches.

If this is allowed to continue it may lead to defective vision, and so we suggest that you observe the kind of light your child is reading under. Only the very best is good enough, because about three-fourths of all the knowledge she will acquire through life will come through her eyes.

You can help your child make progress in her studies and reduce the possibility of future eye trouble by paying attention to proper home lighting NOW. We will be only too glad to consult with you.

Sure, we can talk "PRICE"

—and more non-skid mileage too!

WHAT'S back of all this recent hubbub in the tire business about "floor level prices," special discounts and such?

Simply this: We have the biggest tire success in years—the "G-3" All-Weather. We have 43% longer non-skid mileage built right in our tire.

And that doesn't leave the rest of the folk much to talk about except price.

So don't be talked out of the "G-3." This great tire gives you more miles of safety at no extra price! Come in and see for yourself.

GOODYEAR

Here's what you get in Goodyear's new "G-3"

- You get the broader road contact of a flatter, wider All-Weather Tread.
- You get quicker stopping and the greater road grip of more non-skid blocks in the center.
- You get the easy steering and smooth travel of wider riding ribs.
- You get the slow, even wear of closer-nested non-skid blocks and ribs.
- You get more rubber in the tread—an average of two pounds more per tire.

—all of which adds up to 43% MORE NON-SKID MILEAGE at no extra cost to you!
