Scharbauer Heads Haley Club; Bradford Says He Finds Evidence He Is in Run-off

Scharbauer is extremely busy with his cattle business and is asking for volunteer workers to visit other towns in the interest of Mrs. Haley. Among those first to agree to assist in electing the state representative from Midland were Scharbauer, J. E. Hill, J. R. Martin, W. B. Simpson, Percy J. Mims, C. A. Sheftield, J. P. H. McMullan, Jimmie Greene, J. O. Vance, Hugh (Happy) Corrigan, Marvin C. Ulmer, Sam Preston, Billy Sparks and R. M. Barron. Scharbauer is extremely busy with

Most of those named have agreed to make visits to other towns to campaign for the election of Mrs. Haley Aug. 25, but more workers are neeted. Anyone who will volunteer to assist is asked to notify Mrs. Haley, Scharbauer or Hill.

When Scharbauer agreed to be chairman of the campaign and other prominent residents said their intention of working at the job, Mrs. Haley definitely threw her hat in the runoff ring with W. W. McCutcheon, youthful candidate from Fort Davis, who received 190 votes more than Mrs. Haley in the district.

The Midland entrant's candidacy is backed by cattlemen, oil men, union laborers, farmers, business men, women, relief workers and professional people.

The people feel that since Senator Ken Regan of Pecos is from the west end of the district, a state representative should be chosen from the east end, particularly as Mrs. Haley is seasoned by her age and experience and has had experience in seeking legislation for West Texas at Austin.

Mrs. Haley's Work With the Red Cross Is Cited by Friends

More official work for distressed people has been done by Mrs. John A. Haley than any other one unpaid person in Midland, a relief worker stated Thursday in declaring he would work for election of the Midland, woman for state representaland woman for state representa-

If we send her to Austin as our state representative, we'll have somebody there who knows the needs and the suffering of relief workers," the man stated.

Big Reduction to the Domestic Consumer Seen in Rate

Permission was voted to the West Hard on the heels of Mrs. John Texas Gas company by the Mid-Hard on the heels of Mrs. John A. Haley's decision to enter the runoff campaign with Willis Mc-Cutcheon Jr. for state representative. Clyde Bradford of Grandfalls, who had been listed in third place in Saturday's democratic primaries, told The Reporter-Telegram at noon he had found a mistake in Peccos county balloting results as mailed the newspaper earlier in the week and that the amended results, given him by election judges, of two precincts, at Iraan and at Fort Stockton, prove him to have finished in second place—ahead of Mrs. Haley, pending incomplete returns from several small precincts in that county.

He said the total vote counted in all additional The old charge for the order to domestic and commercation of first domestic and commercation of the domestic consumers and optional rate contract, designed to prouve the schedule of from 50 to 60 per cent of the comsumers and approximately 80 per cent of the commercial.

A FAIR ENOUGH LESSON ON PUBLIC MANNERS

Much as we may deplore the philosophy of the Russian Reds, we must admit that the lads who wear their shirts outside of their pants do get ideas now and then. The latest is a stunt to teach the proletariat how to behave itself in public.

On the edge of Moscow there is a vast amusement park—the Park of Culture and Rest, a sort of glorified people who get drunk there, commit acts of rowdyism and in other ways disturb the peace. So they have started putting up life-sized waz figures of the offenders in public And while this might tend to make the park look queer, it does seem to be an idea with possibilities.

You can see for yourself how it would work in this country.

On the edge of the picnic grounds, for instance, you could put up, a nice effigy of a banjo-eyed moron and hang from its neck a sign reading something like this:

"Here's Luke McGlook, who scatters paper, banama peelings, partly consumed doughnuts and cigar butts all over the place of the proper live is a local for the proper live is a local for the proper live is a local form its neck a sign reading something like this:

"Here's Luke McGlook, who scatters paper, banama peelings, partly consumed doughnuts and cigar butts all over the place of the place of peelings, partly consumed doughnuts and cigar butts all over the place where people eat picnic dinners. Luke is a

And then, on some bench along the path, you could have the figures of a pasty faced sheik and his redfingernailed sweetie, with a sign along this line: "These halfwits think a public place like this is a swell place to engage in necking. They have been locked up.'

And by the roadside, a cigar-chewing maniac with a steering wheel in his hands, and a sign like this: "This is Joe Doakes, who thinks any speed below 50 miles an hour is too slow, and who specializes in crashing traffic lights. He has been liquidated."

All of this probably sounds pretty odd. Yet it is exactly the sort of thing that is being tried out in the Moscow park, and it is far from being the dizziest idea the Muscovites have had lately.

Give a few of these public pests a chance to see what they look like to the innocent bystander, and they might start getting wise to themselves. And if they did, our parks and highways and recreation spots would be much pleasanter places.

You can tell a man by the way he leaves his bathtub, says a Columbia professor. If he doesn't remove the ring, he's still a boy.

Onion workers are on strike in Ohio, but garlic still is being imported from Italy.

The rich are beginning to spend more freely, says a news report. The difference between them and us is that we're just free to spend more.

Many people are so indifferent about the trouble in San Francisco, they think the general strike was called against General Johnson-or that the heads of the army might have walked out.

It's "General" Will Hays now, by order of Gov. Ruby Laffoon of Kentucky, so if you call him anything for the way he's handled the movie situation, it will have to be done with more respect.

Want 43% More Miles of Real NON-SKID SAFETY?

Here it is! The amazing new Goodyear "G-3" is scoring a nation-wide success

TY 7E'VE never seen a tire make such an instant success-such a sweeping sensation -as this new Goodyear "G-3" All-Weather.

Goodyear took two years to develop it. Gave it months of grueling tests to prove that it gives 43% longer non-skid mileage.

And that means NON-SKID - right in the center of the tread, where the grip has to be for safety.

There's more grip on the tread—more rubber in the tread-more tread against the groundpatented Supertwist in every ply, to stand up under the huskier, heavier shoulders.

Sure, we have a

GUARANTEE

- not only a guarantee against road hazards -but in addition a lifetime guarantee against defects of material and work-manship. With the quality of Goodyear Tires where it is today - you can be sure of satisfaction. Come in and see us about it.

And the test fleet proved that this new "G-3" will keep its grip twice as long as tires tested against it.

What a tire! And the best news of all is it costs no more! Come in and see it!

LORAINE'S HIGHLY PUBLICIZED CLUB PLAYS MIDLAND FR

INVADING NINE HAS WON OVER SUCH TEAMS AS TEXON AND MIDLAND; NEW HURLER, SURRATT, TO BE INTRODUCED

Harvey Munn's crack baseball club from Loraine will engage the Midland Colts at Municipal park at 4:40 Friday afternoon.

For purpose of explaining who, why and how much, it may be said Munn is a brother of Mrs. Horace Newton and has piloted his Loraine clubs to wins over Texon, Midland and various other West Texas clubs and has been set back only a minimum of times. His club looks like a recruiting agency, reaching out to include players from Rule, Haskell, Abilene and what odd points of the compass do you know. Joe Pyron, Midland team manager, said a new lefthander. Surratt, will be on the mound for the home gentry. He is a brother to the club's flashy little shortstop and has quite a record. He has done service for Odessa and several other clubs out in this wind - swept, sparsely-vegetated area. He's young, but knows his way around. Big Wallace is available, too, as is Rose. John P. Butler, secretary-treasurer of the club, said the drought had extended to club funds and that public support is badly needed. "We are down to the last sheckel," he said, "and need more funds to complete the season. Come out and chip in. You'll see a good ball game and help the club, too."

The Colts romped through a workout game at the park Wednesday with Stanton. Fred Girdley, wronghander, shut out the visitors, and the war clubs of the locals thumped out 17 runs from the offerings of four Stanton hurlers, Epley, Standifer, Brown and Heaton.

It had been intended to play Odessa here on that day, but the game could not be arranged.

CROWDS JOSTLE

NORMAN, Okla., Aug. 2.—Neal Myers, who says he fled "the disgrace" of his college sweetheart's death, slept in a county jail cell near the university campus last night under a murder charge.

Surrendering after a crazy, aimless flight of three weeks, the 21-year-old junior in pharmacy pleaded not guilty at arraignment upon a charge of murdering Marian Mills, campus beauty queen, in a purported attempt to defeat materints.

Then he went to jail while a curious crowd of farmers and Norman residents gaped and jostled to see how he looked.

Such claims sometimes takes weeks and months to settle in court. So rather than subject their families to the humiliation of the relief rolls and semi-starvation, they sacrifice their personal health instead.

This writer has noticed that the majority of cases, being filed now are old settlers. Perhaps their residents gaped and jostled to see how he looked.

"I knew she was dead," the youth told newspapermen before he entered the justice of the peace court room for arraignment.

"I stayed with her as long as I could do anything for her.

"I had to get out. I couldn't stand to think of the scandal and the disgrace it would bring on my family and on Marian's family.

"I didn't know where I was going. I was just getting away."

Young Myers' preliminary hearing was set for next Saturday, with the understanding it will be delayed if the state is not ready.

Myers did insist that he had asked Marian to marry him "many times." He would not say why she refused.

"I asked her even before—even before this trouble came up," he said. "Even on the last day."

Murder ordinarily is not a bailable offense in Oklahoma, so young Myers will stay in jail. His attorneys indicated they did not plan to seek bail on a habeas corpus writ, the only possible procedure.

CRANE PAPER WARS ON GAS

A drive to call to attention of the Crane county public to alleged dangers of hydro-sulphide gas, bolstered with front page editorials and letters from the public, is being stated by The Crane County News.

The following letter that range alongside a front page editorial in the July 12 edition gives the gist of the drive:

is found dead in his real estate of fice. Caught in the market crash in which he loses investors' funds, he realizes that the only way out is suicide, making it appear like murder so that his insurance policies can repay the investors.

To Ned Sparks, sour-faced detective, is given the task of unravelling a complex tangle of clues that first point to suicide, then turn to an hitherto unsuspected plot against Cody's life. When Sparks begins unravelling the mystery, countless obstacles are placed in his path; he finds each member of the office staff lying to avoid exposing a "private scandal." Yet, through these lies, he finds the answer to the mystery.

"And you haven't the faintest idea what this cargo was?" asked Drummond.

"No. There's only one explanation I can offer, and it really isn't a very good explanation, because I don't know what it means. It's a radiogram in code. My uncle goit at sea yesterday, and it upset him terribly. It was sent from Port Said on the Suez Canal, where we stopped to take a sick deck-hand ashore. And Aunt Martha, knowing how important it was, sent me to give it to him."

"Then your Aunt knows what it said?"

"there was no record of Lola or her Uncle having registered.

"We want to see room 34. Have you any objections" Drummond asked politely.

"None at all sir. If you'll come with me."

The clerk, followed by Drummond, Algy and Lola, filed down the dark hallway, stopping at room 34. The clerk rapped lightly on the dor. It opened and a man clad in pajamas and bathrobe appeared.

"The sorry sir," said the clerk, "but this young lady would like to see the room. Just one minute, that's all."

"In this your Aunt knows what it said?"

"Uncle Paul told her, I know, because she was terribly upset too."

"Then we're off, Algy!" shouted Drummond. "Parker, the car! Algy, your things! Miss Field, your arm!"

Drummond and his party headed straight for the little waterfiont hotel where Lola Field told them her Aunt was awaiting her return with the same furniture," said Lola, "nor wail-paper."

The hotel was a dingy affair, and several loafers were lounging about the small lobby as Drummond entered. As Lola went to the desk for her key, the clerk handed her apen with which to register.

"The already registered. I want my key, please."

"What name, Miss?"

"Field—Lola Field. Room 34."
