Summer reading program

85 kids turned up at the library on Tuesday, June 11 for the Awesome Adventures film show. The Summer Reading Program is off to a good start. 162 children who were in grades kindergarten through fourth enrolled in the program. On Tuesday, 407 books were checked out. This was the highest one-day circulation ever at our library! Special thanks are extended to volunteers, Tonya Curtis, our projectionist this summer, and Marjorie Curtis, who helped Frances Kilgore check out and reshelve all those moutains of books.

OF SPECIAL NOTE: The ladies of the Library Thriftshop have brought in a total of $100,000 for our library since 1967. These women work very hard, and all their efforts are volunteer. Mrs. J.R. Stump manages the Thriftshop and has done an outstanding and unselfish job all these many years. All proceeds form the Thriftshop go directly to the Hansford County Library.

A gallon of nectar can provide enough energy for a bee to cruise 3 million miles at 7 mph

SPECIAL MEETING: Two very special visitors attended the Library Board Meeting on June 10. Mary Kay Snell, Director of Amarillo Public Library and Chairman of the Harrington Library Consortium, and Mary Kay Wells, Texas Panhandle Library System Coordinator spoke to the board members about the Harrington Library Consortium. In the fall, TPLS will give computer hardware to two one-person area libraries. Hansford County Library is a contender for this grant, which would entail putting our book collection on-line and eventually having patron files and circulation on-line.

NEW BOOKS AND CASSETTE TAPES: 60 new cassette tapes have arrived from our TPLS packet. Some new books are: The Glory Game, Janet Dailey's newest; The Marburg Chronicles by Alfred Coppel; Kentucky Love by J oe Coomer; Lonesome Dove by Larry McMurtry; and Jubal Sockett by Louis L'Amour (yes, there's a waiting list for this one!)

Athletic ineligibility identified UIL rules now govern junior high sports

An athlete in Texas who repeats the seventh grade for athletic purposes will be ineligible in the eighth grade to compete in school sports, according to rules recently passed by the University Interscholastic League.

This rule is now commonly known as the "redshirt rule." The UIL will govern junior high school sports now in addition to high school sports.

Other rules passed include ages for seventh and eighth grade athletes, requirements who repeated the seventh for being scholastically eligible for athletics, and a rule against transferring from one school to another for ath- that an eightbarader cannot play a letic reasons.

A seventh grade student must be less than 14 years old on Sept. 1 to be eligible for athletics in his grade, and an eighth grade student must be less than 15 years old on Sept. 1 to be eligible to participate in his grade's sports.

When asked what would be the eligibility of a student who repeats the seventh grade for thletic reasons before thest new rules were passed, Sdool officials noted ninth grade o high school sports.

But if the student was less than 15 years old on Sept. 1, he would be eligible to com-pete in eighth grade athletics in the 194-85 school year. Officials also note that with the new rules, any student grade for athletic purposes from now on will be ineligible for seventh grade athletics the second time around, but would be eligible for eighth grade.

Scholastic eligibility requirements are the same as the current semester scholarship rule used for high school sports. That rule is: passing four one-half credit courses or the equivalent for seven days before an athletic contest, including at least three courses other than physical education or activity courses.

Another rule states that a student who is failing a class may not miss the class to travel to UIL competition or participate in an athletic contest.

The other eligibility rule is that to be eligible, a student must not have changed schools within the previous year for athletic purposes. A rule not passed yet, but which is under consideration, is that no athletic event should begin before the academic school day ends.

Also under consideration is a recommendation, not a rule, that junior high schools hold athletic events on nonschool nights, or end the competition to allow students to return to their home school by 10 p.m. on a school night.

In parts of Texas such as the Texas Panhandle, travel time often will make it impossible for athletic teams to be back at their home school by 10 p.m.

Mae Wofford and group return from trip

MAE WOFFORD of Panhandle Travelers in Spearman, has recently returned from escorting a group of 34 Senior Citizens from Booker, Darrouzett, Perryton, plus some from the Oklahoma Panhandle and Kansas areas, on a sixteen day motor coach tour.

These groups traveled to fifteen different states. The highlights in Nashville, Tennessee were the Hermitage, Opryland and the Grand Ole Opry, where George and Barbara Bush were special guests the night these groups were in attendance.

After traveling through the Smokey Mountains, the group toured Williamsburg and Jamestown, Virginia. During the two days in Washington, D.C., a visit with Beau Boulter, plus attending the Dinner Theater production of "Showboat" was a HIGH, highlight.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania shared the Liberty Bell, Betsy Ross us, with lunch at the Bourse (the old stock exchange building that has been converted into a posh shopping center) very near the Liberty Bell.

Valley Forge, Amish Country Tour near Lancaster and a family style Amish meal at Intercourse, Pennsylvania were shared by the group.

Topping off the tour, a night was spent in Pittsbury, a visit to the Fostoria Glass outlet and a ride around the Indy 500 track in Indianapolis, Indiana.

"We had a wonderful group of travelers that made my job easy. It's a shame to have so much fun and get paid for it! The average age of this group was 68.6 years...from age 55 to 84. They kept me hopping! We had sing-a-longs, played bingo, Trivia and Bible. Trivia while we rolled down the freeways in our classic Continental Trailways Golden Eagle with driver Al Plexico, from Amarillo, at the

the time you couldn't see past the barrow ditch because of all the trees.'

Mae was honored J une 3 by the First Bank and Trust of Booker with a cash award for "Service above and beyond the call of duty'' for the very successful trip.

Now we are four. Our family has assumed a new dimension. Molly has a brother, and we have a son.

There is new richness and happiness in our lives, but there is also new responsibility. Sure, we'll need to keep that "roof over the head," but there's much more to being a parent than that. Sometimes, when you look at the headlines in the paper, you get scared. As these kids grow up, can you face "the new moralities," the endless changes?

No - not alone. But you have the strongest ally in history to help you: the Church. In case you haven't noticed, the Church has been keeping pace with change.

Why not start next Sunday-and bring yourself up to date?
