Police Seeking New Clues In Robbery Suspect Slaying

HERSHEY, Pa., Nov. 12. (AP)—State police turned to New York and Connecticut today for new clues in the road side slaying of a man Sgt. Alfred Verbecken said has been linked to a $13,000 robbery.

Verbecken said the victim, found in a cow pasture near here Wednesday night with three bullet wounds in the back and 10 $100 bills on his person, has been "positively identified" by Daniel Lamont, Altoona, Pa., sportsman, as one of two who held him up at his home early Wednesday.

Lamont came here to view the body after a letter, found on the man and written on stationery from an Altoona hotel, led police to seek a possible connection to the robbery, Verbecken said.

Two men, one with a mask over his face, forced Lamont, owner of the Racehorse, El Mono, to enter his home and open his safe at gunpoint.

The cash loot was in $100, $500 and $1,000 bills. A quantity of jewelry and several shares of stock also were taken.

Late last night Verbecken said fingerprints of the victim were being checked with those of a James Longden, 33, of Bridgeport Conn.

At Bridgeport, Detective Sgt. Walter Auger said that a James Longden had a police record in that city. Longden has a family living in Bridgeport, Auger said, adding that he left home four or five months ago.

A postcard found on the slain man gave police their first clue to his identity.

Verbecken said it was addressed to James Langdon, care of a hotel in New York City. The same name was signed to the register there and at the Altoona Hotel. The postcard was signed "Rhoda" and was postmarked Miami, Fla.

A check disclosed the woman's full name to be "Rhoda Gross" of Miami Beach, Fla., Verbecken said.

Family Of Five Monoxide Victims

Crisman had started building the small home earlier this year in Franklin township, 10 miles northwest of Pittsburgh. The family later moved in and lived in a section of the house originally designed for a garage.

The bodies were discovered by Mrs. Crisman's brother when he went to the house to see why his sister failed to keep an appointment.

Opera Star Carries On Despite Stab

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 12. (AP)—Metropolitan Opera Star Raoul Jobin carried on in true theatrical tradition last night despite a wrist stab wound sustained during the third act of Carmen.

Although bleeding from the wound inflicted accidentally by Leading Lady Gladys Swarthout, Jobin continued on stage but fainted as the curtain fell for the end of the act.

Jobin, portraying the role of Don Jose, was stabbed during a "quarrel" with Miss Swarthout, playing Carmen, after Don Jose had given up his family and his army career to join Carmen and a band of smugglers in the mountains.

Jobin sang the fourth and final act as the audience of 3,800 in Syria Mosque was unaware of the incident.

Later Jobin went to a hospital where five stitches were taken in his wrist.

He and Miss Swarthout had appeared as guest stars in the performance given by the Pittsburgh Opera Co.

Western Europe Military Pact Is Reported Set

PARIS, Nov. 12. (AP)—A proposed 50-year military pact which would bind the United States to Western Europe will be presented by France to the six-power conference now being held in London, it was reported today.

A French foreign ministry spokesman said reports circulating about the contents of the French draft "are right in a general sort of way," but added that details of the proposal still are secret.

The French plan is said to commit the U. S., Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg to come to each other's aid in case of attack.

American Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal is believed to have discussed the pact at a meeting here last night with French Defense Minister Paul Ramadier.

Forrestal planned to fly to London today but was grounded by fog.

Second Memorial Erected To FDR

LONDON, Nov. 12. (AP)—The second memorial to the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt dedicated this year in London will be unveiled in Westminster Abbey today.

The specially designed plaque is a more modest symbol of remembrance than the heroic statue unveiled in Grosvenor Square last April by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

It will, however, be an unusually significant memorial in that the late President will be the first head of a foreign state ever so honored in Westminster Abbey.

The Roosevelt niche is above the roll of honor of civilian casualties in the last war.

The inscription, suggested jointly by the Prime Minister Clement Attlee and former Prime Minister Winston Churchill, reads: "To the honored memory of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, 1882-1945. A faithful friend of freedom and of Britain. Four times President of the United States. Erected by the government of the United Kingdom."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Defense To Present Case In School Head's Trial

LONGVIEW, Nov. 12. (AP)—Defense attorneys were expected to present their case today in the trial of an ousted superintendent of schools. Mrs. Allen, Gregg County superintendent of schools, is the defendant. The state rested its case yesterday after a wire recording was admitted as evidence.

District Judge Otis Dunagan admitted the recording over strong objections by defense counsel. The state said it was a conversation between Mrs. Allen and D. M. Brown, principal of the Shiloh Negro school. Mrs. Allen is charged in the suit with incompetence, misconduct in office and gross negligence. Brown testified earlier in the trial that amounts he received for a school lunch program at Shiloh school were not as much as warrants issued for that purpose by the state to the county superintendent.

Grange May Support Oleo Tax Repeal

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 12. (U)—Repeal of federal oleo taxes may get the Grange's support.
 That would be a turn-about on the part of the big farm organization. It has sided with butter's champions in the protracted margarine-butter war.
 Now, State Master C. P. Key of South Carolina said last night there's a "general feeling" for repeal in the organization, "providing, of course, means can be found to protect the consumer against fraudulent sales of margarine as butter."
 Key is chairman of a special oleo committee that will report to the current National Grange convention here.
 It was formed after margarine supporters failed, in the last congressional session, to get rid of the 10 cents a pound levy on colored margarine. The Grange fought repeal then.
 Another committee member, State Master Harry B. Caldwell of North Carolina, said he thought the consumer could be protected by making sale of margarine as butter a violation of the pure food laws.
 The committee has members from butter states and from states producing soybeans and cottonseed—whose oils go into oleo.
 Congressmen from these states, taking opposite sides on the issue in the last Congress, threatened farm bloc unity.

'Date' Killing Suspect Gives His Confession

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 12. (U)—A surly sugar plant worker has confessed to the "date" killings of Miss Mary C. Kline and John H. Mahlan, a spokesman for Gov. Lane announced last night.
 Louis O'Donnell, special assistant to the governor, said police officials telephoned Lane at Sea Island, Ga., that Thomas Alexander Edwards, had admitted shooting the 18-year-old Glen Burnie girl and her escort Sept. 17.
 Edwards, a 23-year-old Anne Arundel County negro, was taken into custody Monday night. A wire recorded was rigged up in his cell and his conversation with a Negro in the next cell was noted.
 Chief John H. Souers, Jr., of the county police said FBI tests showed bullet fired from a gun recovered from Edwards' home matched bullets taken from the bodies of the victims.
 Mahlan, a 25-year-old Glen Burnie post office worker and the pretty, red-haired girl were good friends who used to date about once a week.
 They disappeared the night of Sept. 17 and their bodies were found three days later on a dead-end dirt lane six miles west of Annapolis. Both had been shot through the head.
 Mahlan's wallet, which is believed to have contained less than $2, and the girl's watch were missing.
 Edwards faces a charge of murder.

Chrysler Strike Idles 13,500 Men

DETROIT, Nov. 11. (U)—A spreading work paralysis in Chrysler Corp. was affecting four plants and idling 13,500 men today.
 In a dispute over production rates Chrysler charged the CIO United Auto Workers with contract violation in a "wildcat strike" and the union accused management of a "speed up."
 Strikes and layoffs followed a lay-off discipline Monday for two machine operators whom management charged with refusing to meet the rates.
 At the Dodge truck plant 800 workers were sent home yesterday because of a shortage of engines which forced a halt to the heavy duty assembly line.
 Chrysler said the 13,500 men were out of work "because 150 workers refused to live up to the contract their representatives signed with the company."

Jews' Offerings Alone Displeasing To God

Scripture—Amos 5:21-6:6; 7:10-17; Micah 4:1-5; 5:2-4; 6:6-8.
 By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
 Every age and every country has and always has had its wise men. In Biblical times, the Hebrews called them prophets, and their wisdom came direct from Jehovah. Sometimes they uttered prophecies of things to come; and on other occasions they exhorted their people to righteousness. These pleadings were combined with threats as to what would follow if their warnings were not heeded.
 In ancient Babylon many schemes were devised in attempting to determine the future, especially in relation to war, conquest, and the expansion of the kingdom. The Greeks consulted oracles. Today we call our prophets statesmen, and we listen to them and have more or less faith in what they say, according to our personal analysis of their characters, experience and knowledge.
 In Africa even today, and among our own Indians, medicine men are thought to be wise ones, with mystic powers to heal, inflict punishment or to prophesy future events.
 Amos, who prophesied about 785 B. C., was a herdman of Tekoa, but Jehovah called him from his labors to prophesy to His people Israel. Amos lived in the reign of King Jeroboam.
 Amos' message was one of exhortation, calling upon his people to repent of their evil ways and return to the real worship of their God—instead of merely going through empty forms and ceremonies. The Lord would punish them, he threatened, unless they demonstrated their religion in their lives and obeyed Jehovah.

Germans Arrest Man Who Eluded Them For Year

MUNICH, Germany, Nov. 12. (U)—The arrest of Alfred Loritz, who had eluded German police for more than a year, was announced last night.
 Loritz, colorful former Bavarian denazification minister, escaped on Oct. 4, 1947, while awaiting trial on black market charges.
 While police searched for him, he tantalized them by issuing political statements from hiding places. He topped that with an almost incredible performance in making a sudden appearance at Economic Reconstruction party headquarters last August and getting himself re-elected chairman of the party.
 American military government sources said Loritz was believed to have travelled to and from Switzerland a number of times under a disguise.
 Loritz went after the big Nazis while he was denazification minister. He supervised the trial of Franz Von Papen, who got an eight-year term.
 A professed foe of Hitler, he claimed he fled to Switzerland during the war to escape the Gestapo.

More Germans Hanged At Munich

MUNICH, Germany, Nov. 12. (U)—Fifteen former guards at the Mauthausen concentration camp were hanged today for slaying more than 4,600 wartime inmates, including 47 British and American airmen.
 They had been convicted by an American war crimes court of exterminating inmates by various methods, including shooting, hanging, beating, trampling, drowning, suffocation and injections.
 Thirteen of those sent to the gallows this morning were S.S. (Storm Troops) men. Two were inmates who turned on their fellow prisoners.
 The executions raised to 58 the number of war criminals hanged at Landsberg Prison in the past month.

The Lord told him, Amos said: "I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies" (the Bible frequently speaks of the odor of sacrifices arising to God).
 "Though ye offer Me burnt offerings and your meat offerings I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts."
 "But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream." He threatens the Israelites with captivity unless they mend their ways, for they follow after strange gods and live lives of luxury and hypocrisy.
 Amaziah, priest of Bethel, resent-ed Amos' prophecies, and sent a message to King Jeroboam accusing Amos of conspiring against the king, and of prophesying his death by the sword, and the captivity of his people.
 Amaziah wrote that he had told Amos, "O thou seer, go flee thee away unto the land of Judah, and there eat bread and prophesy there; but prophesy not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court."
 Amos answered Amaziah, saying that he was not formerly a prophet, nor the son of a prophet, but a herdman, when the Lord called him to prophesy.
 Quite unafraid, Amos told Amaziah that it was useless for him (Amaziah) to tell Amos not to do as the Lord ordered, and that Jehovah had told him that Amaziah's wife would be unfaithful, his sons and daughters should die violent deaths and he himself should die in a foreign land.
 The Prophet Micah—one of the so-called minor prophets—was a native of Moresheth, and lived 50 years after Amos. Micah, too, threatened the Israelites with dire happenings because of their wickedness and luxurious living.
 Micah also prophesied that "in the last days" the Lord's temple would be built on top of the mountains and people of all nations would come to it to worship—a prophecy that seems improbable of fulfillment at this time in a day of violent dissensions.
 He also told of a time when men should "beat their spears into plowshares," and there should be no more war. "But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid."
 "What doth the Lord require of thee?" asked Micah, "but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."
MEMORY VERSE
 "Let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream."—Amos 5:24.
