

WILL PROBABLY BE NEXT KING

Britain Is Joyous Over Tiny Prince

LONDON, Nov. 15 (AP)—Joyous British roared a welcome today to the tiny Prince of Edinburgh, first born of beloved Princess Elizabeth. He probably will be England's next king.

The U. S. Warships Columbus and Hamul joined British naval craft at Plymouth in firing a 41-gun salute to the royal child.

Crowds outside the palace screamed and cheered to the nervous father last night.

AFL Demands Swift Labor Law Repeal

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor key-noted the start of its 67th convention today with a demand for swift repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act and the re-shaping of a strong Labor Department.

President William Green, who has set the tone of every convention since 1944, was scheduled to open Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin, who has informal approval from the AFL for his plans to rebuild the Labor Department.

Hopes High For Maritime Strike Peace

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15 (AP)—Reporting "definite progress" over the week end, maritime strike negotiators spent the morning today in drafting tentative contract language covering points already settled.

The AFL entered a political league in the 1948 campaign for the first time in its history. The league never officially endorsed Mr. Truman, but 96 per cent of its backers worked for a Democratic victory, AFL leaders said.

Under the formula by which peace talks were resumed last week, they are limited to a 10-day period which expires next week end. If a settlement of the 75-day-old strike has not been reached by that time, unions must submit the employers' latest offer to a vote of their members.

On the eve of the convention opening, the AFL council voted to demand outright repeal of the act, now that the Democratic Party controls both houses of Congress.

A brief statement issued by the CIO longshoremen and the waterfront Employers' Association after yesterday's session adjourned said: "Almost the entire third day of negotiations was devoted to discussion of improving grievance and arbitration machinery."

Peoples of scores of races joined in the world wide jubilation. A noon-time drizzle of rain scattered for a while the crowds waiting before Buckingham Palace.

Two issues which began the strike last Sept. 2—wages and control of the union's hiring hall by which men are assigned to jobs—remain to be settled.

Doctors issued this bulletin: "Her Royal Highness the Princess Elizabeth has had some sleep during the night. Her condition and that of the infant prince is satisfactory."

As the strike began, longshoremen and employers were only 5 cents apart. The union wanted a 15-cent raise to $1.82 an hour, and employers offered 10 cents.

Four resolutions were submitted at the Sunday business session here two of which were adopted, while one was disapproved and a fourth was amended before gaining favorable action.

Election Plans Laid By ACA

Six persons were selected to act as nominating committees for forthcoming "A" and "B" Community committee elections at a session of agricultural officials at the local ACA office Friday.

Another resolution recommending that the word "comrade" be eliminated from Legion rituals was voted down.

Comprising the "A" Community nominating group will be A. A. McEwen, C. H. Devaney, and Ed Carpenter while A. J. Stallings, B. M. Newton and Cecil Alfred will serve in the same capacity for the "B" committee.

The district went on record as favoring the National Legion organization's policy of urging universal military training, and copies of the resolution were forwarded to Congressman George Mahon and to both Texas senators.

Man Dies In Battle

ROME, Nov. 15 (AP)—Rome newspapers said a man was killed and five were wounded in a gun battle between Communists and Republicans Saturday near Forli.

Sen. Alben W. Barkley, vice president-elect; Sen. J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman and Leslie L. Biffle, director of the Democratic National Committee in the Senate, would say nothing as they moved out of Mr. Truman's vacation retreat.

U.S.S. DES MOINES, NEW SUPER CRUISER WILL BE PUT TO SEA

QUINCY, Mass., Nov. 15 (AP)—The world's most powerful cruiser, the U. S. S. Des Moines, was scheduled to be put to sea today on her builder's trial.

The Navy does not precisely state how fast they can fire, merely saying "four times faster than any guns of the same or larger caliber." This could mean a salvo of nine 334-pound armor-piercing projectiles every three seconds or perhaps less, not unlike mammoth charges of buckshot.

Reds Drive Southward From Suchow

Nationalist Breakup Is Mounting

NANKING, Nov. 15 (AP)—Red threats to Nanking increased today as Communists surged southward from the Suchow area.

ONE KILLED, FIVE HURT Head-On Crash Is Blamed On Bad Fog

An early morning fog was blamed Sunday for a head-on automobile collision that claimed one life and left five other persons injured.

Mrs. Nancy Lou Adams, 49, wife of Charles M. Adams, Foran, was killed instantly. Her husband was injured painfully. Seriously injured were Rosemary Hendrix, 19, Ruby Conway, 19, S. E. Coats and John L. Perry, Lubbock, occupants of the other car.

A mounting breakup of national forces along the outer approaches to the capital was reflected in reports from the war area.

Richard Whitley, Brownfield, brother-in-law to Big Spring Police Chief Pete Green, escaped injury when he whipped his pick-up truck to avoid the wreckage which loomed suddenly ahead in the fog.

Survivors include her husband and two sons, Capt. John Camp Adams, instructor at A. & M. College, and Darrell Adams, student in Texas Tech; her father, Henry D. Camp; three sisters and six brothers; two grandchildren, Jernice Adams, 5, and Randy Adams, 4, College Station.

Neutral reports said Suchow was isolated. There had a mechanized force fighting its way to the relief of trapped government troops east of the city.

F. D. (Red) Williams, state highway patrolman, said that visibility at the time of the crash—8:40 a. m.—was about 15-20 feet. It was difficult to ascertain what had happened, he said, although it appeared two cars collided head-on.

Mr. Adams sustained three fractured ribs and multiple cuts and Communist forces reached Suchow, 135 miles northwest of Nanking. One report said the town was captured by the Reds.

The railroad, connecting Pukow across the Yangtze from Nanking, and Suchow, had been cut in several places. Government reinforcements moving up from Nanking were reported stranded in spots along the line. There were no reports from Suchow itself.

Charles Hayes of Salem, Mass., pilot of a plane that flew out 25 Catholic missionaries to Shanghai, said there were signs of heavy fighting near the Suchow airport, five miles east of the city.

On the political front, President Chiang Kai-Shek and top leaders met in Nanking to discuss a proposal to the United Nations against alleged Russian aid to the Reds.

The letters were sent to Mr. Truman, Prime Minister Stalin, Prime Minister Clement Attlee of Britain and Premier Pamk Queuille of France.

The source said Marshall will answer the Lie-Evatt peace letter as soon as he and the British and French foreign ministers hold full consultations.

Their contention is that the record of the GOP-controlled 80th Congress—which Taft helped write—contributed not only to the defeat of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the presidential nominee, but to the party's loss of both houses in the Nov. 2 election.

The source said, however, that Marshall, acting in his capacity as spokesman for the United States on foreign affairs, actually will answer the letter.

UN circles said the Lie-Evatt appeal was aimed at the American President in the hope he would agree to meet the other three if he felt the moral weight of the UN was behind such a meeting.

There is little doubt that if these Republicans make an issue of this contention, Taft would fight to retain the leadership.

The United Nations looked to the American answer for a cue to the success or failure of the peace appeal.

UN officials said privately they expected Stalin would agree quickly to the appeal. Dispatches from Moscow said foreign diplomats in the Russian capital believe Stalin will accept.

On the other hand, some of the Ohio senators friends say that if Taft isn't challenged openly, he may wish to step out of his own accord.

The UN informants said the big question is what reply Mr. Truman will make to the letter.

DARE-DEVIL TACTICS STOP RUNAWAY P-51 FIGHTER WITH A DEAD PILOT

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 15 (AP)—National Guardsmen, Air Force personnel and state police officers used a riot gun and dare-devil tactics to stop a runaway P-51 fighter plane yesterday that circled crazily on Stout field runway.

The body is to be carried overland in an Eberley coach to Southland, where funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Burial will be in the Southland cemetery beside the grave of Mrs. Blair's husband, David Alfred Blair.

Survivors include six daughters, Mrs. Anna B. Todd and Mrs. W. L. McBeck, both of Fort Worth, Mrs. J. W. Sparks, Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. C. O. Taylor, Surber, Kan., Mrs. Audrea Rux, San Francisco, Cal., and Mrs. Mining, six sons, C. C. Blair, Hawley, J. E. Blair, O'Donnell, C. L. Blair, Clyde, Otis Blair, Long Beach, Cal., H. W. Blair, Muleshoe and Emmett B. Blair, Anton.

A dead pilot, victim of a ground crash between his plane and another Mustang, was the ship's only occupant. He was Capt. Phillip Bonner, 28-year-old Indianapolis veteran of the Second World War.

Boy Triplets Born

CLEVELAND, Nov. 15 (AP)—Boy triplets were born last night to Mrs. John Stakes, 29. They were her first children.

What this means—but what military security did not allow the civil defense planning office to say openly—is germ warfare, not only against humans but against crops and livestock.

Russians Working Overtime To Make Something Of Election

The Russians are trying awfully hard to make something out of the election. In fact, they have twisted various developments more ways than a pretzel-maker can wind his dough.

In the light of pre-election polls, the Soviet propaganda machine was all set to say that a republican victory was a repudiation of the administration's foreign policy. But the unexpected happened and for nearly a full week Joe Stalin's mouthpieces were bewildered and silent.

Then they added the democratic and the progressive vote together and said that the aggregate was the number in the U. S. opposed to war. Sen. Arthur Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, tossed in a right sharp rejoinder, reminded the Soviets that they had embraced the progressive campaign with the net result it was worse than a kiss of death. The grand total of this Russian-blessed party was little more than a million votes with more than 47 million voting other tickets. That might be construed as a 47-1 endorsement of a firm policy toward Russia.

Joined with this, the Reds turned their "peace offensive" in yet another strange direction. By contemplating sending Justice Fred Vinson to Moscow, they said that President Truman had obligated himself to come to Moscow to see Joe Stalin. This is so silly that to date no one in high places has bothered to dignify it with formal reply. Looks like the communists will have to come up with something else.

Attention To Northwest Park Would Be Pointing Right Way

In a neighboring city action is being taken toward the purchase of a site for an development of a park for a minority group.

This brings to mind that efforts to do something about a park in the northwest part of our own city are not creating any particular notice. That could be because not a great deal is being done.

In years past we have consistently plugged for a urban park—one which would easily be accessible to people without means of private transport. In pressing for this, we were convinced that an equally urgent if not more pressing need was for some sort of park facilities for the people in the northwest quarter of the city where lack of recreational facilities aggravate a rather deplorable social condition.

Meanwhile, spasmodic violence is such that the city is contemplating addition of police to patrol that particular area. We are not so naive as to believe that a park would transform the situation by magic. Indeed, the trouble lies much deeper than that, but it does seem that the establishment of a place of recreation would be a wholesome step in the right direction.

Solon's Seniority System Doesn't Mean Efficiency

WASHINGTON, (P)—ONCE AGAIN YOU are about to see at work a system whereby a man gets paid off on his mere ability to stick around, not on his general ability.

That's the seniority system in Congress. Under it, a man who has served longest on a committee automatically moves up to become chairman even though other more recent committee members may be smarter at the job.

This will happen when the new Congress, the 81st, takes over in 1949—and the Democrats, who have a majority and will run Congress, start setting up their committees.

It worked the same with the Republicans when they won a majority in the 1946 elections.

The Democrats will have a majority on every committee. A few Republicans will have to drop off, and a few more Democrats will be added.

Then the Democrat who has been on each committee longest becomes chairman. (This year the rule may be broken a bit if the Democrats want to get tough with some of their fellow-Democrats from the South who opposed President Truman's election.)

(There's a chance some of them may be deprived of a top committee spot, but right now there's no certainty that will happen.)

But the importance of the committee chairmanship cannot be overstressed. It's a key spot in Congress. Those committees examine every bill that is introduced in Congress. They can, in effect, kill a bill by ignoring it altogether. And the chairman is in a prime position to make that decision.

The new Democratic senator from Tennessee, Estes Kefauver, has a few sharp words to say about the seniority system. Before his election to the Senate last week, Kefauver had been a member of the House—and of House committees—for 10 years.

A year ago he wrote a book—"A Twentieth Century Congress"—to point out some of the things he thinks are wrong with Congress. He said:

"Foremost among present evils is the ancient and rigid seniority system that governs the selection of committee chairmen. . . . There is abundant evidence to prove that fitness and leadership are not based upon years in office alone."

Short Stories Old, New Always Draw An Interest

NEW YORK, (P)—OUR MENU FOR TODAY is two short stories.

The friends who told them to me thought the stories were new and true. But a thing can be new and true to one person and old and false to another. How else can you explain love, hamburger, and Santa Claus.

Personally, I have never heard the first story before. And it may be true. The second story—in one variation or another—has probably been told since the Greeks camped outside Troy.

A beautiful lady went into a fashionable Fifth Avenue store to buy a new dress. There was a strangeness in her manner that caught the salesgirl's interest.

IT WAS THE LADY'S FIXITY OF PURPOSE. She seemed to know exactly what she wanted. When she had selected a dress, she went into another room to have it fitted.

"I want the sleeves here," she said, pointing to her arm. "And I want the skirt to fall exactly here." And she indicated the length.

The fitter looked up and objected politely. "That isn't the way they are wearing them this year. It's out of fashion."

"I know," said the lady. "But I am going to San Francisco to meet my husband. He's been with the Army overseas. Now he's coming home. And when I meet him I want to be dressed just as I was when I told him goodbye."

"Where has your husband been?" asked the fitter, pleasantly.

"SORRY, PAL—THAT'S THE WRONG KIND OF UNITY"

Washington Merry-Go-Round — Drew Pearson

Another Un-American Investigator, McDowell Has Flaw In His Record

(Copyright 1948 by Bell Syndicate)

WASHINGTON — Rep. J. "I-refuse-to-testify" Thomas isn't the only member of the House Un-American Activities Committee who didn't practice in his own office what he preached from the committee rostrum.

Another who pulled a fast one behind the taxpayers' back while investigating un-Americanism in others, was Pennsylvania's outgoing Rep. John McDowell. Though McDowell didn't take kickbacks, he drew $4,000 annually from the government to pay a secretary, but used it instead to subsidize a local politician. The salary meant for McDowell's secretary went to the Republican chairman in his hometown, Albert E. Beech of Wilkingsburg, Pa.

Beech also serves in the Pennsylvania state legislature which pays him another $3,000 each session. By profession, he is a commercial photographer. About the only thing he doesn't do is secretarial work for McDowell.

Note — Though McDowell comes from a predominantly Republican district, the voters got wise to him and sent a Democrat to Congress in his place on Nov. 2. More than anyone else, the man who defeated McDowell was a Republican editor—Bert F. Kline, who campaigned against McDowell in the Homestead Messenger and Squirrel Hill News.

TAFT-HARTLEY END
It won't be announced for some time, but here is a digest of backstage planning on the all-important question of banishing the Taft-Hartley Act at the next Congress:

1—After much discussion, the President and his labor advisers have decided that the T-H Act should be repealed on toto, rather than "amended down" into a form acceptable to organized labor.

2—Present plans are to make T-H repeal first on the administration's list of "must" legislation for the new Congress. In any event, President Truman will request very early action.

3—Since repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act not only will eliminate many of the restrictive curbs on labor, but also wipe out collective-bargaining privileges and other vital sections of the old Wagner Labor Act embodied in it, a complete new bill will have to be drafted for congressional action.

You can jot it down that this new legislation will, of course, guarantee the two main provisions of the Wagner "Magna Charta" Act — labor's right to join unions of its own choosing and to bargain collectively with employers. It will also provide:

A.—The closed shop, banned under the Taft-Hartley Act, will be restored.

B.—The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, now an independent agency, will be returned to the Labor Department and given greater latitude in dealing with labor disputes.

C.— Presidential fact-finding boards, now limited to probing labor disputes, will be given the power to make recommendations for strike settlements.

ANTI-JOHN L. LEWIS
There will be some restrictions on labor, yet to be worked out. The President is certain to ask for a ban on both jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts. Also, a special section of the new law will deal with strikes that create national emergencies, as John L. Lewis's tiemp of the coal-mining industry.

An extended "cooling-off period," probably as long as 90 days, during which it would be unlawful to strike, may be written into the law. Some of Truman's advisers, however, doubt that this will be enough to cope with Lewis and have been urging that the door be left open for recourse to the courts in national strike emergencies.

President Truman is opposed to the injunction procedure of stopping strikes. At the same time he realizes that court action may be the only means of hobbling unscrupulous labor leaders who endanger the public welfare. This is the toughest section of the bill to be written and the inside betting is that the waste-baskets will overflow with discarded drafts before the White House comes up with the $64 answer.

TIMID JUDGE
U. S. District Judge Walter C. Lindley of Danville, Ill., is one man who didn't bet on President Truman. And it may have cost him promotion to a coveted place on the U. S. Court of Appeals.

Shortly before elections, Attorney General Tom Clark telephoned Judge Lindley, offering him promotion to the court of appeals. Judge Lindley was appointed by President Harding, and is a Republican. He has had an excellent record, however, and was picked by the Truman administration for promotion.

But when the Attorney General told him of the promotion, Judge Lindley hesitated. "I couldn't take the oath of office now," he said. "You can send me the commission, but I won't say anything about it until after the elections."

Obviously, Judge Lindley figured Truman was going to lose, and he would not be confirmed by the Senate. Now that Truman has won, the Justice Department is not inclined to promote a judge who would not take a chance on Truman.

There has been a lot of talk about who did and who didn't stand up to be counted for Truman before election. Ex-Governor Ellis Arnall of Georgia, predicted in the Atlantic Monthly in October that Truman would win. . . . Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer also predicted Truman. . . . The man who did most for Truman in downstate Illinois was veteran editor of the Illinois State Register, "Admiral" V. Y. Dallman. . . . New York Taxi Driver Joe Mercurio bet his passengers a gallon of wine each Truman would win. He collected so much wine he could have remained drunk a year—but won't. . . . Ed Lagron, Florida chairman of the Democratic Veterans Affairs Committee, had a hard time raising money for Truman. He needed $1,500 for campaign expenses. So he borrowed $200 from friends, placed it at 7 1/2 to 1 in New York, and thus the Republicans paid the $1,500 for the veteran's Democratic campaign in Florida. . . . U. S. Assistant Attorney General Vincent Quinn resigned a good job in the Justice Department to run for Congress in Queens Borough, New York. He won. The victory is especially significant because Quinn is the man accused by the Un-American Activities Committee of failing to prosecute various alleged Communists who worked in the government during the war. While Quinn won, two leading Republican members of the Un-American committee who criticized him were defeated.

Film Moppets Will Be Economy Drive Victims

HOLLYWOOD (P)—The casualties of Hollywood's economy drive, not mentioned until right here and now, are those dimpled darlings, the child star.

I don't mean that Margaret O'Brien should start applying for social security. She and a handful of other current juvenile favorites are secure as long as their youth and charm hold out. But there are tough times ahead for kids who hope to follow in the golden footsteps of Jackie Coogan, Baby Peggy, Jackie Cooper, Mizzy Green, Baby LeRoy, Shirley Temple and Jane Withers.

The blunt fact is that studios can't afford child stars.

You might argue that the up-keep should be simple for young performers—just some toy blocks and a jigger of pabnum now and then. But it's not that easy.

Child acting is a specialized field and an expensive one to studios. The regulations regarding use of children in studios are involved enough to warm a bureaucrat's heart. This will give you an idea:

Children must have a permit to work. The permit must be renewed every six months and can be revoked any time. Children must pass a physical examination and keep up school grades must be hired for every 30

Love For Human Mayhem Seems Inborn And Ageless

Perhaps fashion changed for the worse when man and tribe abandoned the practice of identifying themselves and their's with coats-of-arms and emblazoned their armorial bearings on everything from shield to goblet. But not so the sport so popular when knighthood was in flower.

Or has virile man and his love for action changed so much in 700 years? Man's idea of excitement in those days, according to folk lore, was to gather the athletes of his particular tribe about him, don his mail, which must have weighed a dozen stones or more, mount his noble steed, accept his lance and set out to unseat a challenger representing another tribe.

If an eye were gouged out, a finger lopped off or a vertebrae knocked off center, that was all part of the game. The male bore his wounds proudly. If he perished, he died a hero's death and was given a hero's burial.

Or the sportsman of that other era wore a sword that demanded respect. The more efficient he was at hacking and maiming a fellow biped, the more unctuous attention he received.

Man's idea of sport has changed somewhat but has it progressed any? The modern football player wears armor, and lots of it. The gridder's objective is to make a touchdown or keep another athlete from making it. The fact that broken bones oftentimes result is incidental.

Boxing, a sport which professes no protection to the combatants, call for much blood-letting on occasions. Take away the chance of a man getting hurt and you'd probably remove a lot of the interest surrounding the business.

The suggestion to man that his fellow traveler might suffer bodily harm at some endeavor seems to hold fatal fascination for him. His lust for blood-letting, as long as it is the other fellow's, is probably a throw-back to the dark ages when man sought to make himself monarch of all he surveyed and had to do it with his physical prowess and his cunning.

What ever its origin, it seems to be inborn and as ageless as time.—TOMMY HART

Jap Death Sentences May Arouse New Controversy

THE SENTENCES OF DEATH BY hanging for war crimes, meted out in Tokyo to former Japanese Premier Tojo and six of his top leaders—not to mention terms of imprisonment for others—recall (and may revive) the argument revolving about the Nuremberg trials of Nazi leaders.

The dispute was over whether such trials were admissible under international law and, if they were, whether there was moral justification for the death sentences. The first of these two points is, of course, legal; the second is based largely on the commandment, "Thou shalt not kill."

As for the legal aspect, much has been made of the claim that international law never had recognized such charges prior to World War II, and that the various war-crimes trials have been based on a law created after commission of the crimes alleged. However, the Allies obviously have felt sure of their position, which was summed up in the Harvard Law Review in 1946 by Dr. Sheldon Glueck, professor of criminal law and criminology at Harvard, in this way:

"Every recognition of custom as evidence of law must have a beginning some time; and there has never been a more justifiable stage in the history of international law than the present, to recognize that by the common consent of civilized nations as expressed in numerous solemn agreements and public pronouncements the institution or waging of an aggressive war is an international crime."

So far as the trials are concerned, the peoples of the various allied nations generally accept them not only as justified but as necessary warnings to countries which might develop warlike notions. Few if any allied citizens would challenge any sort of punishment by imprisonment, no matter how severe.

However, the death penalty raises other issues in the minds of a lot of folk. Some object on moral or religious grounds. This has just cropped up in Germany in connection with the continued executions in Munich of former Nazi guards at the Mauthausen Concentration Camp, convicted of large scale extermination of inmates by various methods. German church leaders have protested the executions, but 15 more of the 139 originally condemned were hanged yesterday, leaving 81 still to die.

Then apart from moral and religious issues, there is an awful finality to execution which precludes correction of mistakes in conviction. Apropos of corrections, a couple of months ago the life sentence of Ise Koch, "queen" of the frightful Buckenwald Concentration Camp, was commuted to four years. General Lucius D. Clay, American military governor in Germany, said reduction of her sentence had been recommended by reviewing officers on the grounds "it had never been proved that Frau Koch selected prisoners for execution or had in her possession articles made of human skin." This commutation created a heated controversy, but it illustrates our point.

Not long ago the British House of Commons passed a measure abolishing capital punishment. One of the chief arguments advanced for this act was that many innocent people have died. There sometimes is uncertainty regarding the actual proof of guilt. However, the House of Lords vetoed the measure on the grounds that the death penalty was a necessary deterrent to murder.

Of course there's no possible doubt about the guilt of Tojo and his barbaric leaders. If anyone ought to die for crime, they certainly should.

Matter Of Fact — Joseph And Stewart Alsop

German Communists Plead For End Of Berlin Block

(Copyright 1948 by N. Y. Herald-Tribune Syndicate)

WASHINGTON—Toward the end of last month Marshal Sokolovsky, Russian proconsul in Germany, received an interesting letter through the secret channels which connect the Soviet command in Germany with the German Communists. What makes the letter interesting is the fact that it was signed by Wilhelm Pieck and Otto Grotewohl.

Pieck is a lifetime Communist, who took part in the Spartacist revolt in 1919. Grotewohl is a renegade Socialist, who sold out to the Russians after the war. They are co-chairmen of the Russian-sponsored Socialist Unity party, in reality the Soviet zone Communist party. There were four other signers as well as Pieck and Grotewohl, all important but subordinate German Communists.

The letter, whose contents are known to the American government, was of course written in the tone of respectful humility which Communists use when addressing their Soviet masters, and was full of protestations of loyalty. Yet it was nevertheless deeply displeasing to Sokolovsky and the rulers of the Kremlin.

For the German Communists begged Sokolovsky to end the blockade of Berlin. They stated flatly that the blockade was undermining the German Communist movement, by turning the German masses against both the Socialist fatherland and the German Communist party. Discipline within the party was more and more difficult to maintain, and the party was daily losing previously loyal adherents.

German Communists were good Communists, the six wrote, but they were also Germans.

Sokolovsky's response was unequivocal. Pieck and Grotewohl were hauled on the carpet and charged with "narrow nationalism" and "deviationism." They were allowed to retain their positions, perhaps because their purging would have created an unwelcome uproar. But they were warned that no repetition of such insubordination would be tolerated. And to force the point home, the four lesser Communists were carted off to jail.

Taken alone, this episode is significant enough. But what makes it more interesting is the fact that it is not an isolated incident. For within the last few days evidence has been obtained that Moscow is having very similar difficulties with the high command of the French Communist party.

Early this summer, as first reports in this space, burly, hamfisted Maurice Thorez, leader of the French Communist party, was hauled before a Communist kangaroo court on orders from Moscow and charged with "excessive nationalism."

At the time, Thorez performed the usual Communist rite of public repentance and confession of sins. Since then, however, there have been reports that Moscow's troubles with Thorez were not over.

According to these reports, Thorez has been intruding within the French Communist party to split his very considerable personal following away from Moscow's control, and to head a national French Communist party more or less on the Tito model. The nature of the sources of these reports, within the French party, has cast doubt on their validity.

Yet very recently a document has been obtained which suggests, at the very least, that Thorez is distrustful by the rulers in the Kremlin. The document is a directive from the Kremlin - sponsored Cominform, successor to the Communist International, to the French Communist party. The Cominform directive orders that leadership of the French Communist party, including the duty of reporting to and receiving orders from the Cominform, is to rest henceforth with Jacques Duclos, a Stalinist theoretician generally considered No. 2 man among French Communists, and Andre Marty, a fanatical extremist who spent four years in Moscow. Thorez, although for the present he retains his titular leadership, is thus left out in the cold.

The parallel with the episode of the Pieck-Grotewohl letter is entirely obvious. Pieck and Grotewohl were moved to protest simply because Soviet policy in Germany runs directly contrary to the interests of the German Communist party, and is indeed threatening to destroy the party. In France, Thorez has always been regarded as a "moderate" Communist, who wished to build a Communist party with a mass popular base. Yet as in Germany, the mass base of the French Communists is threatened by Soviet foreign policy, which requires that French recovery be wrecked.

Stalin himself, in his recent Pravda interview, hinted that he considered the world Communist parties his great secret weapon. The weakness in Stalin's weapon is clearly the basic contradiction between national interests and the interests of the Kremlin.

Caroline Prepares For Spring Color

Amateur gardeners, who thirst for a splash of color after dreary winter months, might well take a tip from Caroline's Flower shop.

It is namely this: Get your winter bulbs in the ground, and your winter plants in your flower beds. Always providing a helping hand to those who love yard and pot flowers, Caroline's has a stock of bulbs. As usual, they are robust, sound stock, capable of producing the finest of spikes in the early spring months.

Among those available are the Amaryllis lily, a plant capable of producing exotic and rich shades in large blossoms; the golden-

Polite Dealing With Public Nalley Mark

In business here for more than a decade, the Nalley Funeral home, 906 Gregg street, proffers the same correctness in its work and its dealings with the public that characterized the establishment when it was first opened.

Nalley personnel is trained to assume all problems associated with burial and arrangement of funeral rites down to the last detail in times of bereavement.

Nalley has been a licensed mortician for the past quarter of a century. His associates include Bill Underburk, who received his certificate following graduation from a Houston preparatory school more than two years ago, and J. C. Pickle, now an apprentice embalmer.

Pickle, long time resident of Big Spring, recently attended a mortician's school in Dallas and will have served his apprenticeship within two years.

In times of emergency, Nalley ambulances stand ready to serve when summoned. They have no established boundaries and are available 24 hours every day.

The sick and injured seeking transportation to and from local hospitals are insured rides in comfort if they employ Nalley carriers. Business telephone number of the concern is 175.

O'Brien Ready For Thanksgiving Rush

Families who live in the southeast part of Big Spring, including Washington Place, Central Park, Highland Park and surrounding areas should encounter no difficulties in obtaining the necessary ingredients for bountiful Thanksgiving dinners.

Everything required for the traditional feasts will be available in ample quantities at the George O'Brien Grocery, located at 1201 Eleventh Place, in the center of one of the city's largest and swiftest growing residential areas.

Many families in that section of the city need no reminder about the O'Brien Grocery and practically everyone is familiar with the friendly, accommodating services featured by the establishment. New families, who are moving into the area as rapidly as new houses are constructed, always find a welcome at O'Brien's.

The firm's reputation is based on its service and the quality of merchandise. Merchandise features include a host of nationally known brands in staples, top quality meat; the best fresh fruits and vegetables obtainable and several choice lines of fancy grocery items.

In addition O'Brien's maintains helpful services purely for convenience of its customers, such as a lending library and a rental service for floor polishing and refinishing equipment.

The Thanksgiving extras at O'Brien's this season will feature everything on the market from turkeys to cranberry sauce.

Search For Coed's Slayer Is Moving To South Colorado

BOULDER, Colo., Nov. 15 (AP)—The search for the slayer of Theresa Foster, 18-year-old University of Colorado coed, extended to Southern Colorado today.

Canon City police held a 26-year-old man for questioning by Boulder authorities about the death of the pretty freshman who was found raped and strangled to death Thursday.

Marvin Richards, Canon City chief of police, said he arrested the man on a traffic violation, and held him when he found blood in the trunk of his car. The automobile had a California license.

Meanwhile, police in Northeastern Colorado were on the lookout for a black Ford coupe. Denver Detective Joseph Hollindrake said the driver of the car was seen washing out the trunk on a country road. He drove off when he saw he was being watched, the detective said.

A piece of bloody rope was found yesterday near the place where Miss Foster's ring and scarf were discovered Wednesday. Sheriff Arthur Everson said strands of hair matching the dead girl's were on the rope, and he thought it was used to strangle her.

Pat Lamb of Big Spring is one of several students at Eastern New Mexico College at Portales to be pledged as a member in the Tau Kappa Tau fraternity.

Held For Murder, Man Takes Life

HOUSTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—A Houston plumber charged with the St. Valentine's Day murder of his wife was found dead in the county jail here yesterday.

A note found with the body of K. T. Willis said he had taken 157 sleeping pills.

Justice of the Peace W. C. Ragan returned an inquest verdict of suicide.

Ragan quoted a note addressed "to whom it may concern" as saying: "I, K. T. Willis, this night is taking my own life by taking 157 sleeping pills."

A district court jury Saturday had judged Willis sane and ordered him to trial for the slaying of his wife, Mrs. Isabelle Willis.

Mrs. Willis was found beaten to death in a ditch a short distance from the home of a daughter.

There are 110 rookies among the 280 players carried on the rosters of the eight teams in the All-America Football Conference.

Search For Missing Man And Cruiser

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 15. (AP)—The Coast Guard and Navy yesterday started a search for a 26-foot cruiser with one person aboard. Coast Guard officers said Ray Snook of San Antonio left the Naval Air Station dock at Corpus Christi Wednesday en route to Fort Myers, Fla. The boat is the "Eugene." Snook had scheduled a stop at Galveston, the Coast Guard said, and should have arrived there Friday. There has been no report from him.

Dangerous Showdown Is Near Between De Gaulle And Reds

PARIS, Nov. 15. (AP)—A dangerous showdown in France between Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the Communists appears to be growing nearer. Frenchmen refer to the conflict between the two as "our own little cold war."

Examine Film Of Mock Fight

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 15. (AP)—Air National Guard staff officers today examined gun camera film to determine the outcome of a mock air battle waged by 140 planes over Pennsylvania. Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., was the target in the maneuver yesterday as planes took to the air from bases in eight states.

The 55th Fighter Wing, Columbus, O., sent aloft 90 planes, including two squadrons of B-26 bombers and seven F-51 fighter-escort squadrons. Fighter Squadron from Pennsylvania, Washington and Virginia acted as interceptors as the attack force passed over York and Middletown, Pa. The four interceptor squadrons—consisting of 50 planes—were part of the 53rd Wing with headquarters at Harrisburg.

The two wings, after reaching Washington, passed over the nation's capital in aerial review, landing at Andrews Field before returning to their home bases.

Flowing Oil Well Called Ship Menace

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 15. (AP)—The Coast Guard announced last night that an oil well six miles off the Louisiana coast near the Texas border has been flowing gas since Saturday morning and is a menace to navigation. The Eighth District Coast Guard headquarters here said the well is owned by Stanolind Co., and is located about six miles off shore midway between Sabine and Cameron, La.

Mencken Attacked By Russian Writer

MOSCOW, Nov. 15. (AP)—Soviet Author Ilya Ehrenberg has attacked H. L. Mencken for "calling for a deadly struggle with the Russian barbarians." Writing in the Communist Party Newspaper Pravda, Ehrenberg asked if Mencken's "predicting a horrible war in order to bring loss to a peaceful country—is this not the real barbarism?"

Bullitt In Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Nov. 15. (AP)—William C. Bullitt arrived by air today to begin a study of the Chinese situation for a special U. S. congressional committee.

Gaulle and the Communists has recently flared into scattered riots, and cost one death. Many Frenchmen fear a broadening of such clashes into what they loosely describe as "civil war."

The De Gaullists and Communists may never reach that bloody stage, but events seem to be moving rapidly toward some kind of fateful climax. Gen. De Gaulle just won a big election victory. His party—Rally of the French People (RPF)—last Sunday won 40 per cent of the seats in the upper house of parliament, the Council of the Republic.

The Communists criticize the electoral college system of choosing the upper House which is selected by 100,011 electors. Florio Bonte, a Communist spokesman, has castigated the indirect method of voting for the council as "anti-democratic."

De Gaulle's party has two main planks: 1. Change the constitution in order to give the executive stronger powers. 2. Oppose Communism.

De Gaulle quit as head of the French government in August 1946 and began preparing his own comeback on his own terms. Meanwhile, the Communists went ahead winning the backing of 5 million voters and are the largest single party in the lower house of parliament, the National Assembly.

The Communists are not powerful in the assembly, despite their numerical strength, because other parties gang up on them. Nonetheless, the two houses now dramatize the fact France is slowly but surely splitting into two camps.

Frenchmen dread this as much as they shudder at a world divided between the East and West. Caught in the middle is the present coalition government of Premier Henri Queuille made up of the Radical Socialist (conservative) Party, the Socialists and the Catholic, Popular Republican Move-

Participation Sought For Parade

County-wide participation is being sought for a big parade on Dec. 3 to help launch Christmas season festivities in Big Spring. The chamber of commerce announced Saturday.

Detailed plans for organization of the parade already have been made by the chamber of commerce merchants' committee, which is headed by C. W. Norman. Letters of invitation and entry blanks were mailed Saturday to all schools in the county, and others will go out Monday to clubs and civic organizations. Prize lists for winning parade entries are being prepared for two divisions. First, second and third place prizes will be awarded for two classifications in the junior division and in one classification in the senior division.

Commercial floats and other entries by business firms also will be welcomed at the event, although they will not be eligible for prizes.

Newspaper Ads Hit New Record

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (AP)—Media Records announced Saturday newspaper advertising in October was in greater volume than in any other month in history.

For the first time since it has been collecting information on line, covering the past 21 years, Media Records chart showed a total in excess of 200,000,000 lines. The lowest monthly volume was 72,000,000 in February, 1933. Media said total advertising in the first 10 months of this year was 14 per cent greater than in the same months last year and 18 per cent greater than in the same months in 1929.

Prove CAMEL MILDNESS for Yourself!

Prove for yourself what throat specialists reported when 30-day smoking test revealed NO THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!

MAKE YOUR OWN 30-DAY CAMEL MILDNESS TEST. Smoke Camels, and only Camels, for 30 days. Prove for yourself just how mild Camels are!

Hundreds of men and women, from coast to coast, recently made a similar test. They smoked an average of one to two packs of Camels a day for 30 days. Their throats were carefully examined by noted throat specialists. And after a total of 2470 exacting examinations—these throat specialists reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

But prove it yourself...in your "T-Zone" (T for Taste and T for Throat). Let YOUR OWN TASTE tell you about the rich, full flavor of Camel's choice tobaccos. Let YOUR OWN THROAT give the good news of Camel's cool, cool mildness.

Money-Back Guarantee!

Try Camels and test them as you smoke them. If, at any time, you are not convinced that Camels are the mildest cigarette you ever smoked, return the package with the unused Camels and we will refund its full purchase price, plus postage.

Blood Typing To Be Continued On Wednesday

The weekly blood typing service sponsored by the Knights of Pythias lodge will be continued Wednesday evening from 6 p. m. to 8 p. m. at the Malone and Hogan hospital, Carl Gross has announced.

Local residents are being urged again to take advantage of the free service. The sponsoring organization is particularly interested in building a substantial file to be used by various hospitals in the city.

Gross said the typing provides information that could be vitally important to persons who participate. Each person is issued a card with his blood type listed as soon as it is determined.

Gross also reminded veterans who were typed while they were in the armed forces that the types listed on their identification tags are of little or no value under present classifications.

Measles in Texas Shows An Increase

AUSTIN, Nov. 15 (AP)—The State Health Department weekly bulletin, reporting for the week ending Nov. 8, showed 227 new cases of measles, five times the seven-year average of 42 cases for this period of the year.

Poliomyelitis continued at an above-average rate. There were 25 new cases compared to the seven-year median of 10.

Influenza cases numbered 856 and dysentery 318, both well above average.

Local School Transferred In New Athletic League

Three Other 3AA Teams To 5AA

Big Spring high school has departed District 3AA by order of the Texas Interscholastic league and will compete as a member of District 5AA in 1949.

Other schools comprising that conference will be Sweetwater, Abilene and San Angelo, all members of District 3AA at the present time, and Brownwood of 1AA.

Odessa, Lamesa and Midland, other schools of District 3AA, will be reassigned to a district which will also have Lubbock and Brownfield as members.

W. C. Blankenship of Big Spring, named as temporary chairman of the new conference, said this morning he would call an organizational meeting shortly after Thanksgiving day, at which time district play officially closes. The session will probably be conducted in San Angelo, he said.

Districts over Texas are being re-organized to allow for 15 AA districts instead of the present 14. The other new league will be formed in South Texas with Robstown as a hub.

Red Bird Wins Sunday Race

Roy Foreman's "Red Bird" beat back the challenge of V. A. Merrick's "Peter Pan" by two lengths in a quarter-mile event at the Sheriff's Posse grounds Sunday afternoon.

The result came as a surprise to more than a few of the gathering, although the eight-year-old Red Bird had been nearly unbeatable here in the past. The win was his 32nd in 36 starts.

San Francisco Loses 34 To 7 Grid Decision

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (AP) — The mighty Cleveland Browns, unaccustomed to sharing leadership with anybody, finally booted the San Francisco 49ers out of co-partnership atop the All-America Conference pro football standings yesterday.

Divisional and playoff champions the past two years, the Browns gained undisputed possession of the lead by downing San Francisco's previously unbeaten 49ers, 14-7.

Three teams pulled into a tie for the conference's Eastern Division lead. The Baltimore Colts whipped the Chicago Rockets, 38-24, and the New York Yankees downed the Brooklyn Dodgers, 21-7, to dead-lead the Buffalo Bills for the top rung. The Bills bowed, 27-20, to the Los Angeles Dons. The three teams sport identical 5-6 won-lost records.

The pennant picture in the rival National League remained unchanged. The Philadelphia Eagles crushed the Boston Yanks, 45-0, to maintain their half-game bulge over the runner-up Washington Redskins. The Skins humbled the Detroit Lions, 46-21. In the West, the Chicago Bears and the Chicago Cardinals remained tied for the lead. The Cards turned back the Pittsburgh Steelers, 24-7, and the Bears nosed out the Green Bay Packers, 7-6.

The Los Angeles Rams trounced the New York Giants, 52-37 in the National's remaining game.

The pitching of Sammy Baugh enabled the Redskins to come from behind and down the Lions. The Skins, trailing, 21-19, showed over four touchdowns in the final period with Baugh passing to three of them.

Allen Lawler's conversion after Bobby Layne's 34-yard scoring pass to George McAfee provided the Bears with their margin over the Packers.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Monday, Nov. 15, 1948 7

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

The Texas Interscholastic league's proposal to create two additional Class AA football districts in 1949 did not exactly catch Supt. W. C. Blankenship of Big Spring by surprise, although all the plans were mapped in Austin.

Members of district executive committee, of which Blankenship is one, had been informed some time ago that some of the teams would be shuffled around to create the new conference. However, the new setup wasn't created until very, very recently.

Needless to say, news of the departure of such teams as Midland and Odessa from 3AA, if such comes to pass, will be greeted here with mixed emotions.

Big Spring stands a better chance of coping its district's flag without having to face such a powerhouse as Odessa year in and year out. However, the games with both Odessa and Midland have paid rich dividends to the local school for a long time.

EXCELLENT SCOUTING MAKES GAME UNPREDICTABLE
One big reason football has become more unpredictable than at any time in the past is that grid scouts are doing a better job than ever before. That complicated task has become such a fine art that it threatens to revolutionize the game entirely.

Coaches have found it impractical, yes, even impossible, to give their charges a complete new set of plays week in and week out. A scout who watches a team in action two or three times learns exactly what goes to make up a club's offense. That is the reason you see some teams tail off at season's end and seem to lose authority after a great start. The scouts have done their nefarious duty in wrecking their offense.

ORACLE DOESN'T THINK MUCH OF SOUTHWEST BALL
Paul Williamson, the noted football handicapper, evidently doesn't think very much of Southwest Conference football.

In ratings he released last week, the New Orleans oracle listed 16 teams ahead of SMU, which he ranked first in Southwest Conference standings. Williamson had Michigan, Notre Dame, Army, North Carolina, California, Georgia Tech, Michigan State, Penn State, Northwestern, Tulane, Oklahoma, Georgia, Ohio State, Ole Miss and Missouri ahead of the Ponies. He ranked Texas 20th in the nation.

NO TEXAS PLAYERS NAMED TO ALL-STAR ELEVEN
The Pacific Coast conference is one outfit that apparently "takes care of its own."

The Northern California Football Writers' association got together recently and named a modern all-star squad of players that had appeared in the East-West Shrine game at San Francisco from 1939 to 1948.

Not a player from outside the Far West area was honored on the West team, although Southwest Conference schools have sent lads there almost every year.

The Westerners honored were Nick Susoeff, Washington State, and Dick Hagen, Washington, ends; Bob Reinhard and Lee Artoe, both of California, tackles; Bruno Banducci, Stanford, and Alf Hemstad, Washington, guards; John Schiechl, Santa Clara, center; Frankie Albert, Stanford, Bob Waterfield, UCLA, Hermond Wedemeyer, St. Mary's, and Bob Kennedy, Washington State, backs.

Easterners honored were John Rokisky, Duquesne, and Dave Schreiner, Wisconsin, ends; Nick Drahos, Cornell, and George Conner, Notre Dame, tackles; Tom O'Boyle, Tulane, and Bob Heikkinen, Michigan, guards; Steve Andrako, Ohio State, centers; Johnny Lujack, Notre Dame, Nick Sacrinty, Wake Forest, Allen Dekdebrun, Cornell, and Bill Dudley, Virginia, backs.

LOCAL MAN GRID STAR FOR BAYLOR IN '20'S
The Weir Washam of Our Town is the same fellow who played so much football as a quarterback for Baylor university back in the middle 1920's.

Weir was one of the lucky few who escaped from the athletic bus hit by a train at Round Rock along about 1928. The tragedy resulted in something like ten deaths.

Nov. 27.
The stretch drive finds only three unbeaten, untied teams and four others that have escaped defeat but have been tied.

Henderson tumbled from the list of the undefeated and untied last week as Texarkana won 14-7 to virtually clinch the District 8 championship. Texarkana can win the crown with no more than a tie with downtrodden Kilgore Friday.

Alice, which had not lost a game but had been tied, fell before Kingsville 27-21. This threw the District 14 race into a two-way tie between San Benito and McAllen and eliminated Alice unless McAllen and San Benito should deadlock in their big game Friday at McAllen. In that event, and in the event that Alice beat Edinburg Friday, the district race would end in a three-way tie between San Benito, McAllen and Alice.

Conroe and Palestine, deadlocked for the lead in District 10, play at Palestine Friday for the championship.

Baytown and Galveston get together at Galveston Friday with the District 12 crown in the balance.

The major upset of the past week was the 13-12 victory Childress registered over Wichita Falls. It plunged the District 2 race into a four-way tie for the lead among Childress, Quanah, Vernon and Wichita Falls. One of those teams will be eliminated Friday when Wichita Falls plays at Vernon.

Bruins Oppose Methodist 11 This Weekend

By WILBUR MARTIN Associated Press Staff

Baylor's Golden Bears get their whack at Southern Methodist University this week.

Arkansas missed throwing the front-running Mustangs by two seconds last week, leaving it up to Baylor to try and pitch the Southwest Conference title chase into a three-way tie.

A 16-yard pass from Gilbert Johnson to Paul Page on the final play of the game kept Southern Methodist undefeated in conference action, 14-12.

Texas retained its championship hopes by coming from behind to defeat Texas Christian, 14-7.

Baylor's chances against the Mustangs weren't improved by the 35-13 licking it suffered at the hands of Tulane.

Rice handed Texas A&M its ninth straight loss this year, 28-6.

Only Baylor and Texas Christian now stand in Southern Methodist's way of a repeat performance as Southwest Conference champion and host team in the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day.

Should the Mustangs lose Saturday, they would be tied at the top with Texas and Baylor.

Most of the interest this week will be centered on the big game at Dallas. But Rice and Texas Christian meet at Houston and Arkansas and Tulsa tangle at Little Rock. Texas and Texas A&M take the week off to prepare for their traditional Thanksgiving Day tilt.

Doak Walker ended up with a minus ten yards rushing against Arkansas, but kicked the extra points that spelled the difference between victory and a tie.

Tag Match Tonight Pits Heroes Against Villians

Dick Trout, no relation to the imitable Dizzy of baseball fame but quite a person in his own right, teams with Dory Funk of Hammond, Indiana, for an Australian tag match test with Benny Trudell and Roderick Fenton, the crafty Canucks, at the Big Spring Athletic club this evening.

The show gets underway with the first of two 20-minute warmup matches at 8:15 o'clock.

Trout has come a long way since he appeared here more than ten years ago and should make an able partner to Funk, who licked Al Getz last week to rise to the top of the heap in local wrestling ratings.

Funk is highly capable at times. He's a showboat on other occasions but he ordinarily knows the lay of the land.

Trudell is the bearded giant who made an auspicious debut here some five or six weeks ago. In any test, the dog fancier—he raises mutts for a pastime—uses his excellent advantage. Most referees frown on such tactics but that does not seem to faze Benjamin.

In Fenton, Trudell has a partner

Broncs To Open With Vernon In Initial Longhorn Game

The Vernon Dusters, who finished fourth in 1948 regular season play and went on to take the runner-up spot in the playoffs, will oppose the Big Spring Broncs in the Longhorn league opener at Steer park next April 27.

The opening day opponents were listed Sunday when loop officials approved a 140-game schedule at a general session in San Angelo. In other openers Sweetwater will be at Odessa, Midland at Roswell and Ballinger at San Angelo.

Howard L. Green of Abilene was re-elected league president, with Hal Sayles, Abilene, first vice-president, Pat Stacey, Big Spring, second vice-president, and Bill Davis, Sweetwater, secretary.

Each team again will be permitted to carry 16 players, but the rookie requirement has been reduced to seven. Seven limited service men and two veterans also will be allowed on each roster.

For the first time the Longhorn loop will maintain a player fund, with the first place club to receive 40 percent, the second place 30 percent, third place 20 percent and fourth place 10 percent. The fund will receive one cent from each adult admission and two cents from each admission for children.

The 1949 all-star game will be played in San Angelo.

GANN HAS 207 K'S

Fahr, Coleman Lead Hurlers

Gerald Fahr, the Vernon sophomore, and the veteran Merle Coleman of Odessa led the Longhorn baseball league pitchers during the 1948 season, according to official averages released recently by Statistician William J. Weis.

Fahr boaster the best earned run average with a 1.97 mark in 35 games, a new low for the league. The tall right-hander, who goes to Shreveport next season, won 21 games while losing eight.

Coleman's ERA was a poor 5.11 but he won 12 while losing one to lead in that department.

Eddie Jacome of Vernon won more games than any other hurler in the circuit—22. Fahr and Frank Perez were second with 21 each.

Bill Gann of Sweetwater was in front in strikeouts with 207. Gann issued but 29 passes. Jacome worked in a record 257 innings while Fahr completed the most games—27.

Chuck Ellis of San Angelo permitted 168 walks, tops for the organization. Ralph Blair of Midland hit no less than 25 batsmen and committed 19 wild pitches.

Gilmer-Aiken Report Will Be Studied Here Tonight

First of two local meetings for discussion of major provisions in the Gilmer-Aiken committee report on Texas schools is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. at the Big Spring High school auditorium.

All faculty members of the Big Spring school system are to attend and the general public has been invited to sit in on the session.

A second meeting will be held on Tuesday night, when teachers from all common school districts in the county will discuss the committee report.

Here are some of the salient points in the committee report: MINIMUM FOUNDATION PROGRAM—Support ample for 12 years schooling for children of six through high school graduation; program of continuation and vocational education; classes not exceeding 25 in average daily attendance and a teacher staff based on this class unit; special teacher for exceptional children (20 in special group or 50 in regular classes); counselor for each 500 pupils; graduate nurse for each 1,500 to 2,000 children; supervisors, administrators and transportation facilities.

COMBINED LOCAL AND STATE FINANCIAL SUPPORT—The state would guarantee the financing of the minimum foundation program by requiring and equalized local effort and by distributing the state available school fund on the basis of scholastics (in attendance). It is estimated that the foundation program would cost $180 million per year, of which roughly $45 million would be raised by the local districts, according to taxpaying ability, the balance by the state. Support beyond the foundation program would be up to districts.

ESTABLISH LOCAL ADMINISTRATIVE UNITS FITTED TO GIVE EFFICIENT MANAGEMENT—Permit any county to become a county-wide independent school district; or two or more counties to combine in a single administrative unit; set up procedure whereby districts within a county could arrive at the best possible administrative set-up and in event of failure over a long period of time provide for state intervention. REDESIGN THE MACHINERY FOR STATE MANAGEMENT—Establish a Central Education Authority, consisting of an elective state board of education, appointive state education commissioner, and a state department of education of professional talent. The board would be the policy making body, the commissioner the administrative head. A school investment commission would be named to manage the permanent school fund. ASSURE CONSTANTLY IMPROVING TEACHERS AND ADMINISTRATORS—Provide for a minimum of $2,400 for graduate teachers for 10 months of service (none to begin without eight weeks of full-time supervised teacher experience; provide for increments for service and competence; certification by the CEA to assure high professional standards; an instructional supervisor for each 50 teachers. OTHER CHANGE—Stronger compulsory attendance law; more accurate school census; improving textbook selection and teaching aids; modern school building code; recodification of school laws.

KILLED OVER FRANCE

Final Tribute Will Be Paid To Bernie LaVoice Scudday

Final tributes will be paid the memory of 1st Lt. Bernie LaVoice Scudday, who, at 25 years of age, gave his life in June 27, 1944 in an air battle over France, at the East Fourth Baptist church at 3 p. m. Wednesday.

The Rev. Walter Devers, Past Rector, who had been his pastor years ago at Forsan, will officiate, and the American Legion will be in charge of formal military rites at the graveside.

Body of Lt. Scudday is to be received here Wednesday morning by Eberley Funeral home.

Lt. Scudday was born in Brownfield April 30, 1919, and was the son of Mrs. Pearl Scudday and the late John Scudday. He moved with his parents to Forsan when 10 years of age, and completed high school there in 1937. He studied in John Tarleton college for the next two years and was a junior in the University of Texas in August 1942 when he enlisted in the air corps.

He received training at Kelly Field, San Antonio; Grider Field, Pine Bluff, Ark.; at Winfield, Kan.; and at Altus, Okla., where he received his commission on June 26, 1943. He had further bombardier training from the air bases at Fort Worth, Tuscon, Ariz., Blythe, Calif. where his crew assembled, and at Topeka, Kans. where they trained together before making the hop to Key West, Fla., and across the Atlantic to England as a part of a flight of 32 bombers.

Lt. Scudday was over France, 20 miles from Paris, at the time flack exploded in the nose of the ship, killing all but the navigator and two gunners. Coyle Acuff, Mashburn, Tenn., one of the survivors, wrote Mrs. Scudday that he went through the rocking ship to make sure that none in the nose were alive before he and the others bailed out.

Lt. Scudday was on his 24th mission at the time and his was the lead plane in the formation.

Survivors are his mother; four brothers, W. K. Scudday, Garden City, M. V. Scudday, Brownfield, W. O. Scudday and ElRay Scudday, Forsan; one sister, Mrs. M. M. Hines, Forsan.

Burial will be beside the grave of his father. Uniformed pallbearers will be Kenneth Hill, Lubbock, Richard Kendrick, Brownfield, Billie Joe Jacobs, Albuquerque, N. M., John J. Kendrick, Brownfield, Mutt Robertson, Jacksonville, Fla., Bill Henry Campbell, Los Alamos base, N. M., James Thompson, Royalty and Luther Moore, Forsan. John Camp Adams, College Station, whose mother was killed near here Sunday, was to have been a pallbearer.

Red Rolfe Is Tiger Manager

DETROIT, Nov. 15. (AP)—The Detroit Tigers today named Robert A. (Red) Rolfe manager of their baseball team.

A former Yankee star, Rolfe in 1947 was named director of the Tigers' minor league farm system. He succeeds Steve O'Neill, whose contract was not renewed.

No salary details were revealed by Gen. Manager Billy Evans as he announced that Rolfe had received the managerial assignment.

Big Spring Girl First Texas Entry In Cotton Contest

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 15. (AP)—First Texas entry in the 1949 maid of cotton contest is Miss Cornelia Frasier of Big Spring.

The tall brunette at present is studying music in New York but her family owns a cotton farm near Big Spring. She is five feet, eight inches tall, has black hair and dark brown eyes and is 23 years old. A talented vocalist and pianist, she was graduated in music from the University of Texas.

Any single girl between 19 and 25, born in a cotton state, is eligible to enter the contest.

Tribble May Win League Crown

By The Associated Press
McMurry can clinch the Texas Conference title this week by beating Southwestern, but if the Indians lose the race won't be decided until Thanksgiving Day.

The Indians took over the lead in the dizzy chase for the crown last week, dumping Howard Payne from a first-place tie, 35-20.

Southwestern also added out a share of the lead when it lost to Hardin, 14-7.

Stops Over Weekend To Visit Mother

Mrs. Addie Hebison, a former Big Spring resident, stopped here over the weekend for a visit with Mrs. Felton Smith while enroute from California to her home in Longview.

Mrs. Hebison is the mother of Oscar (Ox) Hebison, a one-time football great here, who died in action in the Southwest Pacific during World War II.

Suspect Pays Fines In Two Local Courts

Juan Tovar paid fines in two local courts this morning after he had been picked up on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants last night.

Tovar was fined $100 and expenses in county court on the DWI count. In justice court, the accused paid a penalty of $1 and costs for driving without an operator's license.

Joins Tax Bureau

Harry K. Macaulay of Dallas has joined the local force of the Bureau of Internal Revenue as a deputy collector, bringing to three the number assigned here by that agency.

Macaulay plans to move his family here shortly.

TWO PLEAD GUILTY

Two persons accused of drunkenness entered pleas of guilty in justice court this morning and each was fined $1 and costs. They were Francisco Galindo and Antonio Juarez.

TRIP IS DELAYED

Mrs. Della Wilson, who was to be winding up her home in Tennessee Tuesday, fell and broke her arm here Sunday and will be forced to delay her trip.

Last-Minute Thrills Rule Rather Than Exception In Grid Battles

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (AP)—College football teams squeezed through Saturday's proceedings with a minimum of upsets, but with enough fourth quarter thrills for a whole season.

The top two games of the day weren't settled until the final gun sounded. More than a half-dozen others were seriously in doubt up to the last play.

Take a look at these stranger-than-fiction finales:

Army marched 73 yards to beat the clock by 30 seconds in whipping Pennsylvania, 26-20, after the lead had changed hands three times.

Notre Dame came from behind in the last nine minutes to edge Northwestern, 12-7.

Gil Johnson's desperation pass to Paul Page gave Southern Methodist a 14-12 verdict over Arkansas on the last play of the game.

With less than three minutes remaining Bob Dean scored for Cornell and then kicked the extra point that gave the Big Red a 27-26 margin over Dartmouth, which had led, 26-14, at the start of the fourth quarter.

Princeton stopped Yale, 20-14, with two last period touchdowns and then had to halt the determined Elis within the shadow of the goalposts in the closing seconds.

Iowa refused to stay down against Minnesota. The Hawkeyes were never ahead, but they tied the Gophers three different times before Minnesota finally pulled it out in the last quarter, 28-21.

Joe McCary, playing despite injuries, traveled 45 yards in the last quarter for the only score as Virginia nosed out West Virginia, 7-0. Boston College, by far the best in everything but points, had to come from behind in the closing minutes to gain a 14-14 tie with William and Mary.

And unbeaten Clemson, an underdog despite its untarnished record, moved past Wake Forest 21-14, with a fourth period counter.

There were some lop-sided affairs, too. Michigan scored and scored and scored against Indiana, finally winding up with a 54-0 verdict that probably will make it first by a wide margin on the Associated Press poll of leading teams.

DRAGNET IS SPREAD IN FLORIDA FOR SLAYER OF SCULPTOR, WIFE

BOCA RATON, Fla., Nov. 15. (AP)—A statewide dragnet was spread today for the slayer of nationally-known sculptor Leno Lazzari and his pretty wife, Louise.

Lazzari, about 48, and his wife, the former Louise Delea of Brooklyn, N. Y., 42, were shot to death in their modernistic studio-home early Sunday morning.

Police chief W. H. Brown said robbery apparently was the motive. Mrs. Lazzari's purse was missing and Lazzari's pockets had been turned out and no money was found in them.

The bodies were discovered shortly after 12 noon yesterday by Mrs. Marjorie Castiglione, a friend who was to have been a dinner guest. Brown termed it a "cold blooded double murder for money." The killer—or killers—apparently waited for the Lazzaris to return from West Palm Beach late Saturday night where they had been visiting friends and shopping for groceries, Brown said.

After killing the sculptor and his wife, the killer apparently fled in the Lazzari's jeep. The only clue authorities had were the missing jeep and a slug, believed to be from a .44 or .38 calibre weapon, found on the floor. The bullets entered the stomach and emerged from the back of each victim.

Rites Set For Man Killed While Hunting

BEEVILLE, Nov. 15. (AP)—Funeral services for Albert G. Mueller, 58, prominent business man, fatally injured while on a hunting trip yesterday, will be held here this afternoon.

Mueller, accompanied by his brother, Robert, attempted to pull a rifle from his car shortly after they arrived at the Mueller ranch south of here. The gun was accidentally discharged and the shot struck Mueller in the forehead.
