GROWTH LOWERS SCHOOL TAXES

The senseless killings, church, home and business bombings, the shoot and run attacks and all other forms of integration resistance that are now happening in the south, have been predicted for many years by those of the deep south and those who knew the country.

Twelve or 13 years ago in shipboard bull sessions when the then new idea of total integration got into the discussion, we heard southerners say this would happen. Many of them stated flatly that the federal government might be strong enough to force integration, but blood would run in the streets.

Not many of us took them serious at the time. They were just a bunch of happy-go-lucky "anchor clankers" doing their four years in the Navy to stay out of the walking Army. Like the rest of the nation who do not live under the shadow of a Negro population domination we did not understand the deep feeling these people have about the matter.

This is another case of one part of the nation which actually knows little about another part trying to dictate how the unknown part should live.

One local political observer says the people of Mississippi can expect to have a long, hard summer of federal harassment. He says President Johnson realizes he has lost the state in the November election and will be using it to gain the liberal and Negro vote.

The approaching football season gives one much more pleasant thoughts than mulling over the trillion of problems in the world.

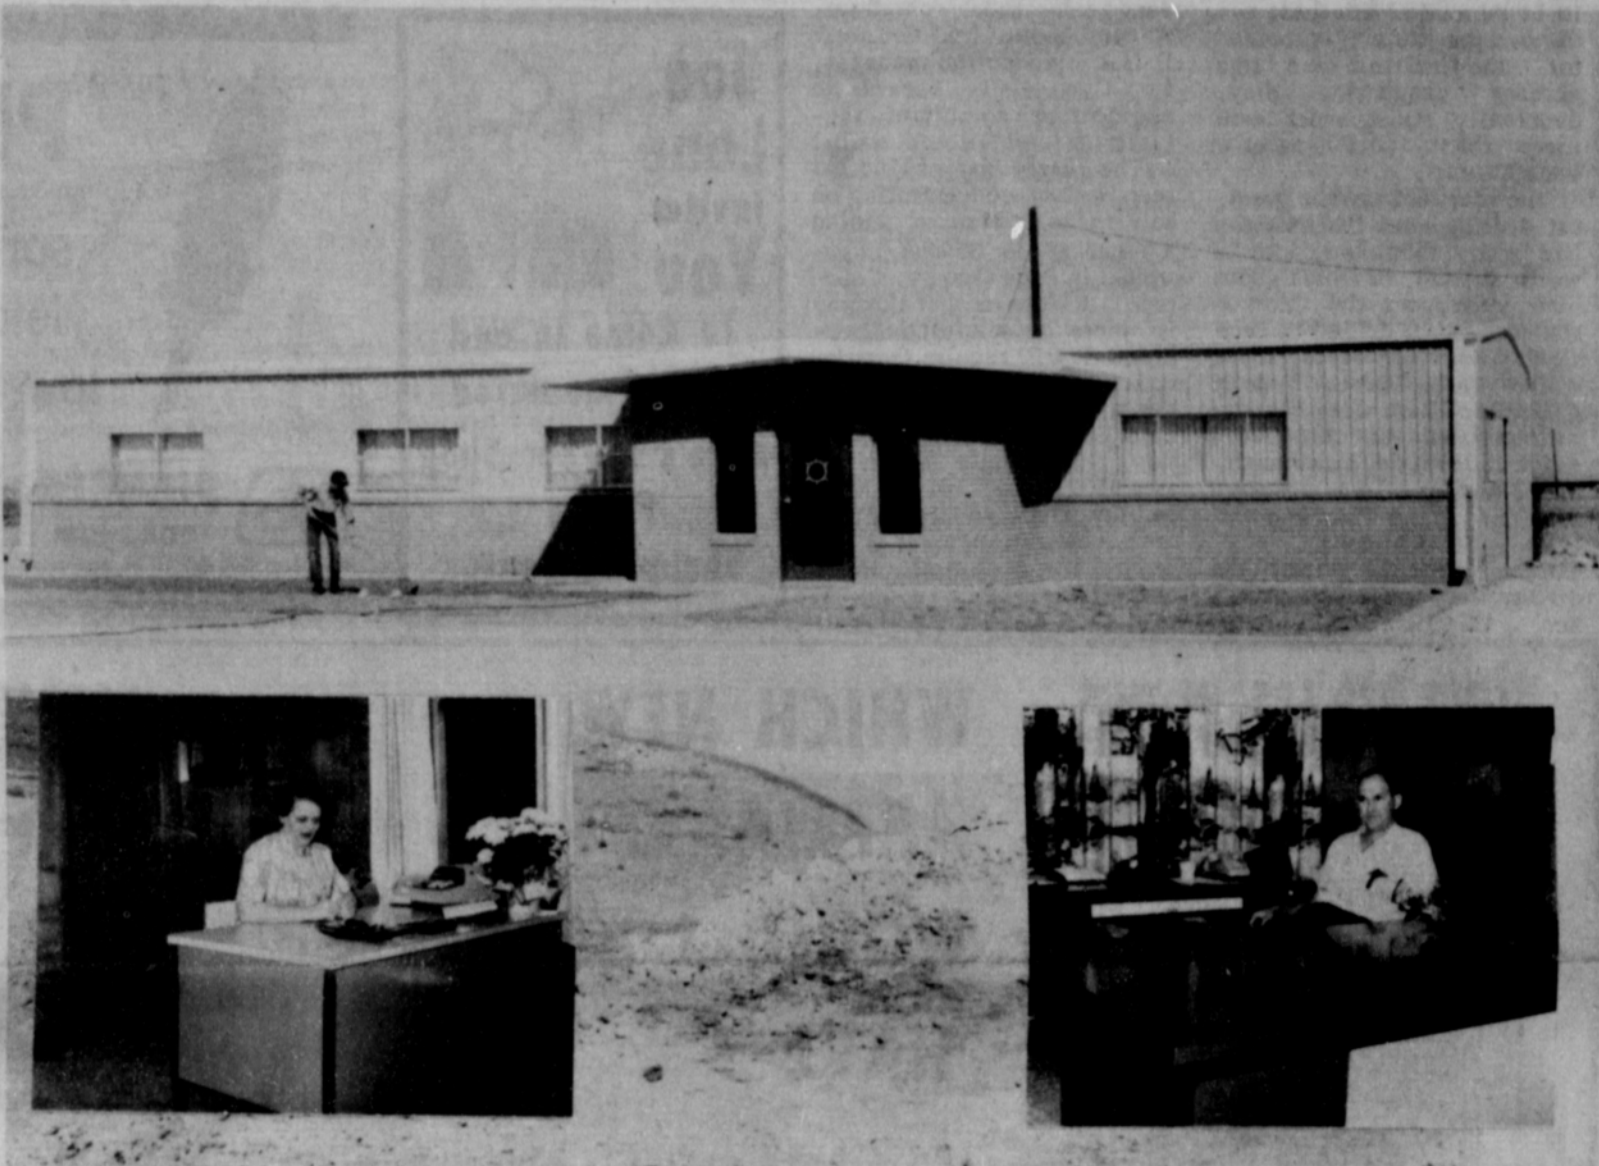

The annual football books with their predictions are coming off the presses and everyone is getting in on the guessing game of who's going to be first and last.

In just a month the Texas schoolboys will be knocking heads and preparing for that annual fall madness.

The coaches are beginning to look at the prospects for the fall and locally they seem pleased—that practically all of the Lynx have been doing manual labor this summer and look rather hard.

We have been nosing through some of the high school football information and seems that all the coaches have one universal complaint: No size, speed nor experience.

These rain clouds we have been getting lately are just moisture picked up from all the coaches practicing with the crying towel for this fall, it will be good to be in another season.

Bond Fund Has Surplus

An increase in tax values in the Spearman Independent School District has made possible a four cent cut in the district tax rate for the coming year.

The value of property in the increase from $29,800,860 in 1963 to $31,835,820 or an increase of $2,034,960. All four areas of the tax roll showed an increase.

The tax rate was reduced from an overall tax rate of $1.92 per $100 valuation to $1.88.

A balance in the bond interest and sinking fund made possible the reduction. This tax money cannot be used for any other purpose, so the rate was reduced to use up some of the $28,000 balance that will be in the fund on Sept. 1.

The maintenance tax rate which provides the money for operating the school is at its maximum of $1.60 per $100 valuation. This year the tax rate for the bond interest and sinking fund was 44 cents and with the increase in valuation it was possible to reduce it four cents to 38 cents.

Supt. James Bramlett and Business Manager Orville Latham told the board that the increase in valuations and other incomes will give the school a balanced budget for the next year.

Tax Assessor Troy Sloan reported to the board that industrial values were increased eight percent on this year's rolls, but no increases were placed on homes, personal property or land, except on irrigation wells. He said all the companies agreed to accept the increase this year.

Property and personal property taxes in the county are valued at $10,267,700. Royalties are valued at $2,450,160, production at $15,492,580, and pipelines, railroads and utilities at $3,685,380.

After getting the funds to operate the school, the board hired Mrs. Dick Hudson as the home economics instructor for the coming year. She taught the last semester after Mrs. Allen Alford took leave of absence.

Mrs. Doris Looper was hired as a primary teacher.

The board accepted the resignation of high school teachers Wayne Jenkins and Charles Gill.

Bramlett is now seeking a math teacher, driver's education teacher, and corrective speech teacher.

The board was informed that the Drilling School that has been operating here will be closed on July 24. There are not enough men interested to keep the school open.

The Texas Employment Commission said the High School Diploma requirement for entry was keeping many would-be students out of the school.

Maize Crop To Be Large

Hansford County will have an estimated 70,000 acres of irrigated milo this year, according to ASC Office Manager Elzey Vanderburg. This should produce about $6 million dollars for county farmers.

Vanderburg based his acreage estimation on the number of acres in the program and the amount that has been planted outside the support price.

County farmers have 34,510 acres in the government support program. The manager said there was that much or more outside the program because of the new irrigation wells.

There are so many new wells going down and most of these farmers do not have a maize base. They did not have maize planted earlier so they must plant outside the support price, and acreage control program.

Two hundred farmers have signed up in the maize program. They will receive $1.75 per hundredweight for their maize. All outside the program will have to sell on the world price.

The estimated average production for irrigated maize in the county is about 5,000 pounds per acre. With the estimated 5,000 pounds per acre, the county should produce about 350 million pounds of grain sorghum.

Grain men expect the market price to stay close to the support price during harvest.

Growing Horizon Opens Office

Horizon Oil & Gas Co. of Dallas and Spearman is proud to announce the opening of their new production office located on the Berger highway just beyond the city limits of Spearman.

The growth of Horizon's operation in the Spearman area has occasioned the building of their new larger quarters.

The company was founded in 1957 by two brothers, Curtis and Bruce Calder, of Dallas. They had been active oil operators since 1947 in South and West Texas and Central Oklahoma in partnership with Jack Woodward. A split with Woodward resulted in the formation of Horizon and a decision by the Calders to pursue the exploration of gas in the newly active areas of the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles.

The first step was to set up a geological and land office in Amarillo in the fall of 1957 to develop prospects. The first well drilled by Horizon was completed in January, 1958, as an extension to the Camrick gas field of Texas and Beaver Counties Oklahoma. Then followed an amazing string of successive strikes during the year 1958 resulting in 15 producers out of 15 wells drilled during the year. The significant wells were the Buzzard, which extended the Hansford gas field 7 miles to the southeast and discovered the Horizon Cleveland oil field, the Novak which extended the Horizon Cleveland field 4 miles west, the Weickler, which extended the Twin Des Moines oil field two miles east and the Wilson, which discovered the Dude Wilson field with its seven oil and gas pays. It was during 1958 also that Horizon employed Everett R. Tracy as production superintendent. Mr. Tracy had been formerly with Sharples Oil Company for 13 years in Colorado, West Texas and then Spearman.

The year 1959 was another good year for Horizon. The operation was expanded to 25 wells drilled with 20 successful wells. The significant wells drilled in 1959 by Horizon, were the Kile, which discovered the North Perryton oil field in Northern Ochiltree County and extended the North Perryton Lower Morrow gas field 3 miles northwest, the Davis, which extended the Dude Wilson Field 2 miles northwest, the Tillerson and Stump wells, which extended the Twin Des Moines field another two miles to the east, and the Dodson, which extended the Horizon Cleveland field two miles east.

The year 1960 was one of consolidation for Horizon. Their operation had expanded with explosive force in the face of a weak crude market. The Caldres decided to sell all of their oil wells in the Horizon Cleveland and Twin Des Moines oil fields. A ready purchaser was found in Stekoll Petroleum, who purchased 15 oil wells, three gas wells and 4,000 undeveloped acres of leases from Horizon for $2,000,000. The sale was good for both parties in that Horizon got a good price at the time for the properties sold and the properties turned out to be better than even Stekoll had anticipated.

The year 1961 saw the most significant well drilled by Horizon in its history as the company expanded into a new area. The discovery well was located in Baca County in the very southeastern corner of Colorado, and was known as the Cogburn. This well discovered the Midway Topeka and Morrow gas fields. Horizon then stepped out 15 miles

County, Kansas. Horizon also made an outstanding westerly extension to the Hansford gas field, making a number of successful completions, of which the Wilmeth was probably the most outstanding.

1963 saw another step in the development of Horizon's approach to the oil business. Whereas in the past Horizon had taken on a few contract pumping jobs for other operators, the Caldres decided that a concerted effort would be made to enlarge Horizon's contract work, both in completing wells for other operators and in operating the wells after completion.

In line with a trend toward contract work among many operators, Horizon decided to contract out some of its own work in order to lower overhead costs. As a consequence in late 1963, Horizon closed its Amarillo office with Mr. Ridgell becoming an independent geological consultant. At the same time Horizon's Dallas production manager, Mr. C.W. Kelly, became an engineering consultant, specializing in well completions.

The early part of 1964 has seen Horizon concentrating on solving the problem of gaining a market for 35 shut-in gas wells in Baca County, Colorado. It appears that Horizon is close to solving this problem. It will require that Horizon gather and deliver the gas to Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, near Elkhart, Kan. Panhandle Eastern has agreed to take 14,000 MCF per day. The whole transaction must now get approval of the Federal Power Commission.

The prospect of adding 35 new wells and a pipeline to the over 150 wells already operated by Horizon prompted the company to proceed with its plan to build a new field of five.

The staff of Horizon presently operating out of Spearman are as follows: Everett R. Tracy, Production Superintendent, Eddie Healer, Production Foreman, John Wilde, Office Manager, Jessie Faries, receptionist and secretary, Virginia Mathis, secretary, Charles Patton, Douglas Grimes, and Darryl Ammons, Pumpers.

Maize . . .

If the price is $1.75 per hundredweight, the county will have an estimated gross income of $6,125,000 from the maize crop.

ASC Ready To Pay For 1964 Wheat

Hansford farmers who were in the wheat program this year, but are not in the maize program will begin receiving their final wheat payments for diverted acres and wheat certificates.

ASC Office Manager Ellzey Vanderburg said his office has received the official go-ahead on making the payments.

All farmers who have not signed for this final payment should sign at the ASC office immediately.

Vanderburg said farmers who are in both the wheat program and feed grain program will receive their wheat payments as soon as their farms are certified to be in compliance on maize acreage.

ASC officials will begin measuring grain sorghum soon. Farmers who are overplanted have until Sept. 1, to dispose of the excess acres.

Vanderburg said the total payments from the wheat program will be about $1 million dollars in the county.

ACP payments for conservation practices are now being made from the ASC office. These payments for the year will total about $70,000. This payment totals approximately $30,000.

Mrs. Neill Leaves ASC

A long-time employee of the Hansford ASC office is resigning her job at the end of this month and moving to Aransas Pass, where she will be married.

Izene Neill has resigned effective July 31, Office Manager Ellzey Vanderburg said this week. She has been employed in the office for six years.

Farm Safety Week Proclaimed By Judge

County Judge Johnnie Lee has officially proclaimed July 19-25, 1964, as FARM SAFETY WEEK in Hansford County, according to Robert Novak, president of the local county Farm Bureau. The local farm organization is coordinating activities for the special farm safety campaign.

President Johnson and Governor Connally have previously designated that week on national and state levels as a period to call attention to worthwhile safety practices that can reduce disabling injuries and death.

The county farm leader said that farm accidents have been reduced in the past few years; however, farmers cannot afford to let down their guard against accidents. He emphasized that farming remains one of the most hazardous occupations in America today.

In his official proclamation, County Judge Johnnie Lee said: "All the citizens of Hansford county are concerned about the safety and well-being of farm families from whom we receive our abundance of food and other essential agricultural commodities. "Farm accidents result in over 150 deaths and thousands of disabling injuries in Texas each year.

"Farm accidents are responsible for needless suffering and incapacity, and greatly effect the economic well-being and progress of our agricultural population in our county, state and nation.

"Throughout this special week, a statewide farm accident prevention and educational program will be undertaken by the Texas Farm Bureau, the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas Safety Association and the Hansford county Farm Bureau with the theme "Safer American Families Everywhere".

County Farm Bureau President Robert Novak said that a different phase of safety would be emphasized each day during the week: Sunday-reverence for life; Monday-safety begins at home; Tuesday-agricultural chemicals; Wednesday-prevent falls; Thursday-rural highway safety; Friday-farm machinery; Saturday-recreation safety.

WHEREAS farm accidents result in over 150 deaths and thousands of disabling injuries in Texas each year; and

WHEREAS farm accidents are responsible for needless suffering and incapacity, and greatly effect the economic well-being and progress of our agricultural population in our county, state, and nation; and

WHEREAS the President of the United States and the Governor of Texas have designated the period of July 19-25, 1964 as FARM SAFETY WEEK; and

WHEREAS records show a notable and steady decline in the number and rate of accidents among farm people as a direct result of such worthwhile safety education program:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Johnnie Lee, County Judge of Hansford County do hereby designate the week of July 19-25, 1964 as FARM SAFETY WEEK and urge all farm families, persons, and organizations allied with agriculture to engage in a purposeful concerted effort to reduce further the number of farm, home, and highway accidents.

IN OFFICIAL RECOGNITION THEREOF, I hereby affix my signature this 9th day of July, 1964.

County Agent's Report

GRAIN SORGHUM IRRIGATION

It is very important that grain sorghum be irrigated at the right time for maximum yields. Grain sorghum uses very little water up to the seven-leaf stage which is about 25-30 days. Grain sorghum requires the most water at boot and bloom stage. No benefit is gained from irrigation when grain is past the soft dough stage.

Grain sorghum at the seven-leaf stage uses about one tenth inch water daily. From this stage through blooming, water use rises rapidly. At booting stage, the crop is using nearly four-tenths inches water daily. Water use drops sharply after blooming is completed.

Water stress at any time during the growing season through soft dough stage will reduce yields. Keep moisture at least to the 50% available moisture level, especially during boot and bloom stage. Most plant roots are in the top two feet, so this area must have the moisture replenished.

Water stress at the boot stage can easily cut production 25%. Stress at bloom stage can cut yields as much as 50%. Excessive moisture after soft dough stage delays harvest and causes tillering or suckering, which complicates harvest and lowers quality.

MIDGE CONTROL

The sorghum midge is showing up in several Plains counties, according to James Harding, entomologist at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock. Harding says very light populations of midge have been found in a nine-county area--roughly centered by Lubbock County.

The entomologist cautions, however, that midge damage is not expected on grain sorghum blooming this early in the season. He says research and observations in past years show midge damage is usually not significant until about August 1. Application of chemicals for midge control before this date serves little useful purpose.

One important research finding was reported by Harding. He says midge have emerged from grain sorghum florets (flowers) that were covered with soil last fall up to a depth of eight inches. This indicates land preparation measures have little effect on destroying overwintering midge.

Two approaches to chemical control in late-planted sorghum may be followed.

1. Automatic or insurance method: Apply a recommended insecticide after 90% of the heads have emerged from the boot. A second, and possibly a third, application may be necessary at 3 to 4 day intervals if the field doesn't head

THE WAY I SEE IT

With lungs gasping for breath, the snorting bucks lunged at each other. Antlers rattled. But as the bucks desired to back up for another lunge, they couldn't. Their antlers were interlocked in a death hold. Falling to the ground, the animals kicked squirmed and rolled but the grip was fatal. Death came. A trophy in the Gruver State Bank attests to this fantastic but deadly grip.

No one was present to set these bucks free. They were condemned to death because of the wedging of the antlers. They couldn't be parted.

The Devil has locked his horns with God's creatures. We as a human race have become entrapped by His sinful temptations. Worse than the fate of the two bucks who could only lose their physical life, we humans have our eternal life in the balance. He who dies gripped by satan's

The vicious battle goes on for your soul. The world, whose ruler is satan, makes every attempt to snare you in its vicious grip. You are asked to conform to the world. Satan desires your soul.

Left alone, each human would spiritually fall and die a spiritual death. There is no human way to separate ourselves from satan's death grasp.

God, however, sent His Son Jesus Christ to earth to be the Savior. He alone could unlock our horns from Satan's deadly grip. On Jesus God heaped the sins of the world.

Day By Day

I never thought I'd see the day when a television network would try to keep Old Pardon Dizzy Dean from talking with pride about his homestate. I notice it didn't do any good, but the idea that it was even mentioned makes you wonder what in the world we're coming to. Why, how did the protesters know whether all the "good ole homefolks" to whom he refers down in Mississippi are light or dark. Did they base their criticism on Dizzy Dean's sinister appearance and his record of racial disturbances. It seems to me they are really digging deep to find something to protest about.

As you may have gathered, a hobby of mine is collecting recipes. And, not being a very accomplished cook, I especially like to find easy to prepare recipes that don't look or taste it.

At the home of a good friend recently, I tasted a delicious and unusual hamburger steak which I think would be equally as good made into hamburgers, cooked outdoors on a grill.

It's one of those "undetermined quantity" recipes and here's what you do. Combine two pounds of hamburger meat and an equal amount of lean ground steak. Add salt and pepper, about two cups of coarsely grated cheddar cheese and a cup of more of prepared barbecue sauce. Mix well and make into large, flat patties. Wrap in wax paper and freeze. These are easily prepared and quick to broil. I especially like them because they are prepared ahead of time and take just a few minutes to fix when you are in a hurry as I always am at noontime.

We have a standing joke at our house about Burl recognizing someone in the crowd no matter what television program we're watching. Usually it's "That old boy looks just like a kid I knew in the Navy. He was from New York City, blah, blah, blah . . . you know, I believe that's him!"

Beginning this fall, he'll have a cousin, who by the way, is visiting us this week, in the Kilgore Rangerettes who perform at halftime at so many televised football games. I'm already preparing myself for the "old spotter" to find Judy in the high-stepping cowgirl group everytime they're on TV.

Come to think of it, it will be fun trying to find the one we know in that group of pretty young girls.

SIX NEW TEACHERS HIRED

Morse School Facilities Enlarged

Six new teachers were employed by the Morse Independent School District Board Monday night. One more teacher is needed to complete the faculty.

A commercial, math, language arts, and three elementary teachers were hired by the board. Supt. John Brumley is still seeking a band director to complete the faculty.

School will open Aug. 25 in a remodeled and enlarged classroom.

R.L. Uptergrove of Spearman has the contract for construction of a new first grade classroom. Other changes are being made in the building.

Changes are being made in the teaching situation, also. The first grade will be a separate unit this year and grades six, seven and eight will be completely departmentalized this fall.

Supt. Brumley is expecting a larger enrollment this fall, but will not have the exact figures until students register. Grades seven through 12 will register Monday, Aug. 24. Classes will begin Aug. 25 and Monday, Sept. 7, will be a holiday.

Miss Barbara Elaine Behrens from Clarendon will be the commercial teacher replacing Truman Commons who resigned to go into personnel work with the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber company in Denton. Miss Behrens has a BBA from WTSU.

Palo Duro Canyon State Park

Etched deeply in the high plains of the Panhandle, just south of Amarillo, lies a spectacular gorge, widely renowned for its scenic beauty. This is Palo Duro Canyon, a great 15,000 acre state park of Texas. You enter it on a road which winds for miles along the bottom of the vast gorge. You see many remarkable formations such as the "Lighthouse" and "Balanced Rock" which have been formed by centuries of erosion which created the Canyon. As you drive slowly along the Canyon's beauty is enhanced by constant changes in delicate coloring. Coronado explored the Canyon in 1541, and in 1876 Col. Goodnight drove the first wagon train down a huge rock slide into its great gulf. Palo Duro Canyon is easily reached on major highways through many of our towns, and is a high spot in places to go and things to see in General Telephone Country.

"It is written that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God."
Dueteronomy 8:3

Even in this modern world today, bread alone is not enough. A man may achieve fame and great wealth, only to discover something still "missing" in his search for happiness. Whatever his means, the man lives by the words of God is richest of all.

Uncle Killed In Accident

W.R. (Bob) Campbell of Pampa, uncle of Mrs. Everett Vanderburg of Spearman was killed at 1:45 p.m. Tuesday when his car was struck by a freight train at a dirt road crossing 15 miles southwest of Canadian.

Tuesday was the well-known Pampa rancher and oilman's 84th birthday.

Mr. Campbell apparently didn't see the eastbound train, according to the investigating officer, until a few seconds before it struck his car. The engineer said Campbell appeared to speed up but the locomotive struck the rear of his car before it could clear the tracks.

Funeral services for Mr. Campbell will be conducted at 10 a.m. today in the First Methodist Church of Pampa. He was a member and lifetime honorary steward of the church.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his wife, one son and a brother, W.H. of Gainesville.
