

GTE To Have Customer Service Booth

In Spearman on December 15, at 10:00 A.M., a Customer Service Agency Booth will be opened as a convenience for customer contact with General Telephone Company. The booth is located at the Spearman Chamber of Commerce, 303 Main in Spearman. Local business and residential customers are invited to the Grand Opening to see how the Booth operates. Representatives from General Telephone will be there to answer questions. Coffee and donuts will be served.

Throughout the whole General Telephone Systems Operating Companies in the United States there will be 50 booths placed. Ten of these Customer Service Agency Booths will be placed in the 4-state area of Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Arkansas. The Perryton area is fortunate to receive two of these booths. One is in operation in Dalhart and the other will be placed in Spearman.

Residents can place an application for new service, request service changes, moves, or disconnects by using a direct line to the Business Office in Perryton. There is also a direct line to the Billing Department in Broken Arrow for those with billing questions. Service problems can be directed to the Repair Department.

Payments can be made and phones may be picked up or returned to save the customer additional charges. Telephones will be on display at the Booth and there will also be a catalogue of different decorator phones. If phone mart jacks are located in the building and facilities for service are available the customer will have next day service.

Business hours are 9:00 to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 5:00 P.M., Monday through Friday.

Fruitcake Review 1982 Baby Contest

Judi Varenhorst Fund Set Up

What better time of the year than Christmas to help a very deserving person in need. Christmas is the time for giving and hopefully you will see fit to help now.

Most business people in Spearman know Judi Barfield Varenhorst, as she is that sweet person who delivers freight for Beaver Express. She is always most accommodating for the people and now she needs your help.

After recuperating from a car wreck in November, which left her with a broken collarbone and bruises, she is now in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo with injuries from another accident. She was attempting to unload a large piece of freight when it slipped and gashed her leg. She's to undergo skin grafting to repair the damage as soon as her leg heals enough.

Fortunately, the injury can be repaired, but due to the fact that Judi only has one kidney and is on kidney medicine, she is unable to obtain hospitalization insurance. She had to put up a $500 deposit before the hospital would admit her.

Judi is a single parent who resides in Spearman with her two year old son. Her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Davis is taking care of him at present. Anyone wishing to help Judi may do so by making a contribution to the Judi Varenhorst Special Fund at the First State Bank. Help make Judi's Christmas a little brighter just by knowing that she has friends who care.

The two previous Fruitcake Reviews starred local and area talent. We have been lucky enough to secure baby pictures from ten members of our past casts. The Reporter will be running these pictures from now until February. Study them and make your guess as to their identity. The first five people to correctly name all ten will receive two free tickets to the 1982 Fruitcake Revue as well as area recognition for their outstanding ability to recognize faces!

Hey! No fair telling, if this is YOUR picture. Please mail guesses to: Chamber of Commerce, % Name the Baby Contest, Box 161, Spearman, Tx. or drop by the Chamber office after you have seen all ten pictures. All ten pictures will run again late in January.

Rotary Hears Speaker On Playa Lakes

When it rains they fill, then evaporation, run off and irrigation seem to dissolve them? What are they? The thousands of playa lakes in the Ogallala Basin, which encompasses Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma. There really is very little anyone knows about the playas. In frontier days the travelers would find stakes driven in the ground to mark water supplies. But many months of the year those seeking water would find them dried up. Why?

The playas, when viewed from the air dot the countryside after a good rain, but after several weeks or months, the playas are merely craters. The U.S. Department of the Interior's Bureau of Reclamation has been studying the characteristics, location, use and consistency of the playas in this region to help find answers and make recommendations for better utilization for the agri-business people and communities.

Nick Palacios spoke about this project to the Spearman Rotary Club last Monday. Palacios is a planner in the project and outlined the steps being taken by his office and the other government offices on the Federal and State levels.

The study covers these playas in an 85,000 square mile section of New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma. The bureau is using visual inspections, aerial mapping, satellite pictures, monitoring devices, all to help understand the characteristics of the individual playas. Little is known about the runoff from them, the amount of time each playa will hold water, what the water is being used for and the potential for the playas for use in irrigating and other water related uses like wildlife refuges.

Data being collected, compiled, put into computers and comparisons for various regions being made. Some of the information, especially on modifications to the waterholes for farming and commercial use is being compiled for recommendations to playa owners.

Studies have shown that the water usage by Panhandle agri-business is some of the most efficient. This study will help to make better use of the playas by farmers and communities.

Other programs for the month of December will include: December 14, Jim Ross Plant Manager for Phillips Petroleum in Borger talking about the expansion of that facility. December 21st, George Hudson, General Telephone will inform the club about the new GTE Service Center in Spearman in the Chamber of Commerce office. December 28 a representative from the Texas Human Resources Department will speak.

Elections for 1982-83 were held last week. Elected were: Mike Schnell, President; Steve Rogers, Vice President; Jack McWhirter, Secretary-Treasurer. Also elected were members of the Board of Directors who were: Allen Alford and Jim Benson.

Council Passes Resolutions

An appointment, a disappointment and two resolutions were a part of the agenda for the regular meeting of the Spearman city council, Tuesday night.

Former council member Frances Loftin was appointed to a three-year term on the board of development for the city of Spearman.

The apparent disappointment became prospective when the council turned down a request from a private citizen of the county to provide gas and water services for a homestead being developed.

The decision to deny the request had nothing to do with the person making it nor the location. It was just not felt the city was capable of extending such service on a multiple basis which could develop if other private requests followed this one once it was granted.

The council was in full accord concerning the resolution to request a flood hazard study from the U.S. Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service at Spearman. Some time ago the federal government issued certain regulations concerning land development that even effected prospective loans for land purchase and development. These regulations were supposedly based on flood plain studies projecting flood danger areas as far as 50 years in the future based on records up to 100 years in the past.

The council passed a resolution regarding telephone service. The move was inspired by a current request by General Telephone Company before the Public Utilities Commission to have a $4-million penalty for poor service removed.

Cities involved with GTE felt neither the company nor the PUC gave adequate notice of the hearing. The Spearman city council noted in a revision of the resolution first introduced at the meeting that response and effort in answer to service trouble calls from phone customers has improved immeasurably.

Service has not.

Members of the council agreed to a revision of still another resolution, this involving the new Spearman municipal airport. The change was simply to amend the wording to concur with the wishes of the Texas Aeronautic Board.

The remainder of the meeting was concerned with approval of monthly reports from the various departments of the city -- fire, ambulance, police, animal control and municipal court -- and approval for payment of the monthly bills.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 22.

8th graders. These canned goods are for the Needy Families here in Spearman. There was a total of 1,107 cans brought in--that makes you think, the SJH students sure do have a heart!!

CANCER SOCIETY AWARDS PRESENTED -- Gruver with her 15 year service award, and ACS District 15 Representative, Dr. R. L. Kleiberger received a 30 year service award from the Society, but was unavailable for a picture Thursday.

Federal Court Approves Lawn-Crossing By Letter Carriers

Another law aimed at stopping Postal Service letter carriers from crossing lawns has been mowed down by a recent federal appeals court ruling.

In affirming a decision to disallow a 1978 ordinance in Pittsburg, California, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals on November 16 strongly supported the Postal Service's requirement that letter carriers can use short cuts when there are no safety hazards or objections from homeowners.

Although there are still cases pending in Ohio, Michigan and New York, two other federal district courts recently threw out other laws barring lawn-crossing even before the court of appeals decision.

In the earlier district court rulings, federal judges in Cleveland, Ohio, and South Bend, Indiana, found that Youngstown, Ohio, and Mishawaka, Indiana, ordinances were in conflict with federal law and unconstitutional under the supremacy clause of the Constitution.

In the Pittsburg case, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals determined that the regulation is designed to promote the efficiency of mail delivery by permitting postal carriers to take short cuts across lawns.

"The regulation's purpose and effect is consonant with the Congressional mandate to the Postal Service to provide efficient mail delivery service," the appeals court said. "The local ordinance frustrates postal efficiency by forcing the Postal Service either to stop using short-cuts across lawns or to undertake the nightmarish administrative burden of obtaining express consent from every Pittsburg property owner.

"It is therefore an unconstitutional 'obstacle to the accomplishment and execution of the full purposes and objectives of Congress.'"

In a footnote, the court pointed out that the ordinance had already slowed mail deliveries in the California town and, because of overtime, led to higher costs.

Restating its point even more emphatically, the court said "the Pittsburg ordinance interferes with postal carriers' federal duty to deliver the mail efficiently and is therefore unconstitutional."

FRUITCAKE REVUE 1982 general chairman is Sheri McWhirter, left, and co-chairmen, Jim Benson and Mary Lou Wysong. These people are working hard to bring another great revue to Spearman people.

It is time for Santa letters

Postmaster Ray Robertson assures us that any letter to Santa, addressed simply to 'North Pole' will be forwarded to us at the newspaper. The U.S. Postal Service rules regarding specific addresses will not apply to letters written Santa Claus by Hansford county boys and girls. The new rules which went into effect this fall, require a specific address for the person receiving the mail.

Letters to Santa will appear in future editions of The Spearman Reporter-Hansford Plainsman as Christmas approaches and will be forwarded on to Santa.

Letters may be addressed to: Santa Claus, Box 458, Spearman, Texas 79081.

Next week, December 16th, W.M.U. will meet in Fellowship Hall for Study of Current Missions.

Beverly Sutton will preside over the meeting.

Those present were Wren Holt, Anita Anthony, Hazel Loftin, Mabel Edwards, Cleo Denman, Imogene Pogue, Eva Adkison, Edrie Jones, Verna Jarvis, Viola Hutton, Beverly Sutton, Sada Hoskins, Maragret Nelson, Evelyn Hiller, Ora Sanders and one visitor, Mrs. Frank Faber.

POSTMASTER'S PLEA

With the Christmas mail load now hitting its peak, the Postmaster today expressed his appreciation for the fine cooperation on the "Shop and Mail Early for Christmas" campaign. "Time means everything now," he said. He warns that only by stepping up all Christmas card and gift package mails immediately will it be possible to process and deliver all cards and packages by Christmas Day. He urged the use of ZIP Codes on all mail.

The Postal Service faces a critical situation during the next few days. Every postal employee is digging in for the final big rush. They urge that mailing Christmas cards and packages be done now. A delay of a few hours may mean they cannot arrive at their destination before Christmas.

Bridge Club

Mrs. Carrie Marie Berry was hostess for the Bid-A-Bit Bridge Club Christmas party Thursday evening in her home.

Mrs. Verna Gail Keim had high score and Mrs. Leonard Jameson had second high.

Enjoying dinner and a gift exchange were members, Mmes. Jameson, Gertrude Archer, Vi Whitson, Frank Hefner, R. E. Lee, Faye Lynch, a guest, Mrs. Keim and the hostess.

Christmas is fast approaching and we are featuring some Santa Claus letters in this issue. Be sure and read them, they are priceless.

Some say that Christmas is too commercialized and perhaps it is. It is only if we as individuals let it be so. We don't have to feel that way if we hold to our memories of Christmas past and let them become part of Christmas past for our children and grandchildren.

It probably doesn't "spoil" Christmas if we get full of excitement that is generated through the colorful decorations and desires of wanting to give to others. Giving is the key to the whole thing. Christmas is a time of celebration for the gift from Our Father of His son to provide a way for all of us to be One Family and expressing our love in gift giving is traditional.

If you could relive your favorite Christmas memory, what would it be? Was it the time you saved every penny you had to buy a very special little gift: Was it a special handmade item you created yourself, or is it simply family gatherings to mark the day. Each of us has some special Christmas memory and I imagine that, in most cases, the memory centers on something that all the money in the world could not buy.

Of course, to parents at any rate, seeing the faces of their children wide-eyed with anticipation on Christmas morning ranks high on the list.

When my son was about three, he wanted a cuckoo clock. I never did figure out where he got the idea unless it was from "Romper Room" on TV. Anyway we bought a cuckoo clock and installed it over his bed Christmas eve. His comment on Christmas morning was "That silly chicken kept me awake all night". Sometimes the things we have our heart set on are really not that important.

Christmas is a time to give, to share, to express our love, to be joyful and to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. These are expressions of love and if Christmas is becoming too commercialized it is only these expressions of each of us that bring that aspect to it.

I found this article about what was under the American Christmas tree nearly a half-century ago?

According to the first Christmas "Wish Book" from Sears in 1933, you would have found a cedar chest with floral-patterned stationery, felt slippers, a pearlone dresser set in a satin-lined gift case, and five pound box of chocolate drops. Also a "two-in-one" Tiddley Wink game.

A blanket cloth robe was $2.98. There was a selection of "hard-to-break" dolls for 69 cents. Mickey Mouse watches made their early appearance in the catalog pages, and a metal band version with moving Mickey hands to tell time was $2.29.

Things have changed. Catalogs from Sears have long been known as chroniclers of American lifestyles and economic conditions. They are frequently used by movie makers and historians to determine what people bought and how they lived at certain times.

While American children today ask for Snoopy dolls, Star Wars toys, Superman T-shirts, Muppet watches and soccer balls, the kids of 1933 had different tastes.

Dolls with real hair and "eyes that sleep" were the choice of that decade's little girls. The catalog carried their favorite "Miss Pigtails"--for only $1. And a solid oak children's dining set for those late afternoon tea parties was one of the more expensive gifts, at $5.95.

For boys there was a Strike Out King baseball with a How-to-Pitch booklet by Dazzy Vance himself!

That year's toy offerings--and maybe life in general--were a lot simpler. Prominent in the catalog were a box of blocks, a rocking horse, jumbo wood beads and a horse shoe game.

For Mom, there was pure silk hose for 48 cents a pair, and a three-piece boucle knit dress for $2.98. A bottle of Evening in Paris ran $2.75, and a genuine birthstone ring in 14-carat gold sold for $3.95.

For Dad, there was a pair of "Railroader" rubber overshoes for 89 cents, a cotton broadcloth shirt for $1.59, and an electric clock for $2.99.

The first Christmas catalog from Sears had 88 pages and by today's standards a small circulation.

GTE Provides Learning Tools To Schools

School isn't just the "three R's" anymore. Instructional programs are changing with the times as learning materials play an increasingly important role in the classroom.

This year, more than 70 schools in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arkansas are using materials provided free by General Telephone of the Southwest as teaching aides in business, economics and social studies classes and to assist in career development. Some of the learning materials are also used to assist in teaching good communications habits.

"We recognize our responsibility to education and strive to meet the needs of the educational system, particularly in those areas we have unique knowledge and skills," said Charles Watkins, community relations manager.

"The materials we provide educators will assist in explaining to students the importance of telecommunications and the changing environment of the industry in the 80's," Watkins added.

Among the materials available are:

Teletrainers. These "phones" not only help students learn telephone usage, they also assist in sharpening communications, speech and listening skills. Teletrainers can be geared to any age group.

Telezonia. This program is rich in audiovisual materials. Geared for Elementary grades, subjects include emergency calling, proper use of the directory, how the telephone works and more.

New City Telephone Company Game. Designed for high school students, this game is decision-making simulation exercise in economics and free enterprise. It teaches students to make group decisions and set goals.

Thank You - Please Call Again. For high school business students, this program teaches fundamentals of telephone communications in business and explains how telephone equipment and services are used in a variety of business situations.

Anything You Want to be. For use at the secondary level, this multimedia package uses the technique of value clarification to help students evaluate various careers.

Other offerings include:

Films. GTSW's film library covers a variety of subjects including telephone usage, science, safety and history.

Booklets. Prepared in comic book form, the booklets assist in instructing small children how to use the telephone in an emergency.

Tours. Students can see the inner workings of a telephone switching center, service office or operator center by arranging a tour.

Service Technician Visits. Educators in some GTSW areas can arrange for a telephone service technician to visit the school with a truck and equipment. The technician shows the pupils the importance of safety and neatness on the job, explains the use of the equipment, and shows how to climb a pole and connect the school's telephones to the telephone network.

Lectures. Company officers and directors are available for university and seminar lectures and for consultation with students working on special projects.

Additional information on programs provided by General Telephone can be obtained by calling Charles Watkins, Community Relations Manager, at 915-944-5721 or by writing Watkins at P.O. Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas, 76901.

Editor Receives Special Delivery Letter From Santa

We received the following letter from Santa Claus up at the North Pole.

"All of us here at the North Pole are very busy-making toys, putting a fresh coat of paint on the sleigh, feeding and grooming the reindeer, reading mail--everyone has a special job to do. We have had to put on extra help in the computer toy department and will try very hard to fill all those orders.

The first newspaper photograph appeared in the New York Daily Graphic of March 4, 1880. It was a halftone illustration of New York's Shantytown.

The precise geographical center of the North American continent is in a town called Rugby, North Dakota.

Christmas Mailing Tips Offered

With the Christmas mailing season just ahead, the Postmaster is offering some tips for customers to make sure their cards and packages arrive on time and in good shape.

In addition to shopping early, the Postmaster urges customers to properly address cards and packages with the name, street number and name or post office box number, and the city, state and ZIP Code reserved for the last line. It's also a good idea to put a slip of paper with the recipient's name and address and your return address inside parcels. Be sure to include your return address including your ZIP Code on all envelopes and packages.

The Postmaster also reminds customers to check the size of envelopes before mailing Christmas cards. Letter size standards which went into effect last year require envelopes to be at least 3-1/2 inches high and 5 inches long to be accepted for mailing.

The Postal Service is also asking its customers to put an ounce of extra care into preparing packages for mailing. Parcels will arrive at their destination in good shape if mailers follow a few simple instructions:

1. Make sure the contents are well cushioned and there is no empty space in a box. Use crumpled newspaper around the item, on the bottom, the sides and on top of your gift. Foamed plastic shells and air pocket padding also are good cushions.
2. Brown wrapping paper and twine cord are not necessary. Wrappings can rip off, and twine can get caught in processing machinery.
3. Use sealing tape to close off and seal the box. Three types are recommended: pressure-sensitive tape, kraft paper reinforced with nylon or glass and filament-reinforced pressure sensitive tape. Don't use masking tape or cellophane tape. They're no longer recommended due to past poor performance.
4. Use a smudge-proof ink for the address which should appear in the lower right-hand corner of the box. Write your return address in the upper left-hand corner. BE SURE TO INCLUDE THE ZIP CODE FOR BOTH THE ADDRESSEE'S ADDRESS AND YOUR RETURN ADDRESS.
5. Remove any other labels or addresses from the carton.
6. Mail early in the month and mail early in the day to avoid the rush.
7. Send irreplaceable articles, cash and all valuable items by Registered Mail.

Lynx Beat Lockney Lynxettes Lose 1st Game of Tourney

The Spearman Lynx traveled to Lorenzo to participate in the Lorenzo Varsity Invitational Tournament. The Lynx, very experienced team, have been having a very good year, they won 3rd Place at their own tournament, and by winning Thursday afternoon, they have a chance either to bring home a 1st, 2nd or 3rd Place Trophy.

The Lynx, coached by F.G. Crofford, played against Lockney, when time expired, the game was tied, so overtime was played and the Lynx pulled the game out with 2 points.

In the first quarter action, the Lynx and Lockney were deadlocked at 8 points a piece. Both teams went out in the 2nd quarter and as one team scored, the other retaliated and scored also. The Lynx and Lockney were tied at the half way mark by scoring 17 points each and the score was 25 to 25.

So as the 3rd quarter began, both teams were trying to break the tie. Lockney must have gotten a 3 point play, because when the 3rd quarter buzzer sounded to end the 3rd quarter, the Lynx trailed by 3 points--41 to 38. The final quarter of the game was a very good quarter for the Lynx. They came out and scored 15 big points, while only letting Lockney score 12 points. The buzzer sounded ending the final quarter, but the Lynx and Lockney were tied at 53. This meant that the game had to go into overtime. The Lynx and Lockney had to play an overtime quarter, who ever scored last would be the probable winners, or who ever scored first, then the other team scored also, then the team that scored first would take their time in shooting and making a score. There are lots of possibilities. It was a Defensive overtime quarter--the Lynx Defense only let Lockney score 2 points, and then the Lynx Offense scored 4 points at the end of the overtime period. The Lynx won the game 57-55.

Cam Collinsworth was high scorer with 12 points. Stephen Tindell, who didn't play in the Spearman Tourney because of an injury, had a very good afternoon getting into double figures with 10 points.

The Lynx advanced in the Winners Bracket and will play the host team--Lorenzo. Lorenzo just breezed to an 89 to 29 victory over Roosevelt. So with that score, the Lynx will probably be playing a very tough, tough team. The game will be played tonight, Friday--December 11, beginning at 8:30 p.m., if the Lynx lose they will be playing for 3rd Place, if they beat Lorenzo, they will be playing in the finals for 1st--if they win Saturday, or 2nd--if they lose Saturday.

The Spearman Lynxettes are now participating in the Lorenzo Varsity Invitational Tournament. The Lynxettes played against Lockney in the first round of action, they played hard, but the Lockney team was too tough to beat, making the Lynxettes lose and play today, Friday--December 11, beginning at 1:00 p.m.

First of all, there is bad news and good news--bad news because Cindy Young has a broken bone in her hand and cannot--that is bad news for all the Lynxettes and their fans, because Cindy has done a terrific job with the Lynxettes this year. The good news isn't for the Lynxettes but for their opposing teams, they won't have to worry about the talents of Cindy. Cindy we, everyone that loves basketball and the Lynxettes, would like to congratulate you on having a terrific year as a Lynxette, we are all looking forward to when you can get out on that court and do what you do best, be a LYNXETTE!!

As far as the game is concerned, the Lynxettes and Lockney both played a very tough and Offensively, inclined, first quarter--Lockney making 17 points and the Lynxettes making 14. The Lynxettes, coached by Ralph Newton, could only get 3 baskets--making 6 points in the 2nd quarter, but Lockney made another 17 points. They had a halftime lead of 14 points--34 to 20.

The Lynxettes have never been a team to give up and just literally "quit" before the game is over, no sir, all the young Lynxettes--the Juniors and Sophomores, Lea Ann Gibner, Susan Davis, Jan Davis, Jean Davis, Janest Reed, Lana Paul and Sonya Ooley--Juniors, and Andrea Mires, Kelli Crawford and Robbie Heinrich--Sophomores, did like their Senior teammates--Mary Ann Martin and Johnnie Eaton--did, keep on playing, keep on making a comeback until the final buzzer. Well, one thing for sure, the Lynxettes did a superb job outscoring Lockney 13-10 in the 3rd quarter and only be behind by 11. The score after 3 quarters of play was the Lynxettes, 33 and Lockney, 44. The final quarter was the closest quarter and very equal in every aspect as far as stats, are concerned. Both teams scored a total of 16 points, meaning that Lockney won the game by a score of 60 to 49. Jan Davis and Lea Ann Gibner both had a good afternoon as far as shooting is concerned, they both had 12 points. This is Jan Davis' first year as a VARSITY LYNXETTE and she is doing a very good job. Lea Ann has been doing a very good job since she was a Freshman, and each year, each game, Lea Ann improves in some aspect of the game.

The Lynxettes will play at 1:00 p.m. against the host team of the tournament--Lorenzo. Lorenzo and Roosevelt also played a tough game, having Roosevelt win 54 to 45. The Lynxettes must win in order to keep their hopes for a Trophy alive.

Studies in China have suggested that one can predict the weather with 80 percent accuracy by monitoring the croaking of frogs.

7th, 8th & 9th Lynxettes to Meet Dalhart

The 7th, 8th and Freshman Lynxettes will travel to Dalhart to meet up with the tough Dalhart 7th, 8th and Freshman Wolverines.

The 7th grade game will begin at 4:30 p.m. The 7th and 8th Lynxettes are coached by Coach Terry Crocker.

The Freshman Lynxettes, coached by Robin Travis, will be playing right after the 8th grade game finishes. The 7th, 8th and 9th Lynxettes are having a pretty good year--the 7th Lady Lynx are undefeated, the 8th Lady Lynx have won 1 and lost 2 and the Freshman Lady Lynx have won 1 and lost 1.

Go on over to Dalhart and cheer on the 7th, 8th and Freshman Lynxettes on to victory over the Dalhart Wolverines.

7th, 8th & 9th Lynx To Host Dalhart

The 7th, 8th and Freshman Lynx will host the Dalhart Wolves.

The 7th Lynx, coached by Dan Shaver, will be going into action beginning at 4:30 p.m. The 7th Lynx have been doing a fine job this year--being their first year.

The 8th grade Lynx, Coach Tom May is doing a fine job with the 8th Lynx, will be playing right after the 7th grade game. Coach Ricky Smith and his Freshman Lynx, who haven't lost a regular game, but did lose 1 game in the Borger Tournament, will be playing against their arch-rivals--the Dalhart Wolves after the 8th grade game is finished. The games will be played at the Lynx Little Gym, so go on out and cheer on the 7th, 8th and 9th Lynx.
