Sloan Speaks At Windfall Profits Tax Hearing

TROY SLOAN

The following statement was presented by Troy Sloan for the Texas Wheat Producers Association before the Senate Finance Committee Hearing on Windfall Profits Tax in Austin, July 17.

Senator Bentsen, Senator Boren and members of the Committee, I welcome the opportunity to appear before you to oppose the so called Windfall Profits Tax application to individual royalty owners. I am a member of the farmer-elected nine-man Texas Wheat Producers Board, a member of the Institute of Certified Appraisers and of the Texas Society of Rural Appraisers and also of the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners Association. I am appearing today as a wheat farmer and in their behalf. Historically, the potential for mineral leasing or royalty income has figured in wheat farmers purchase of farm land. It has also been a significant part of their land cost and often an integral part of their income.

I would like to start my statement with a true story about a royalty owner. I farm 320 acres of wheat land on a share crop basis for an elderly lady. She lived on his farm many years. She worked at the high school cafeteria to help make the family a living and make land payments which included the royalty interest. When she and her husband grew too old to maintain the farm they moved to New Mexico so a daughter could help care for them. In the meantime she leased her land for minerals and has a 1/16 interest in a small stripper oil well. Her farm income, small teacher retirement benefits and royalty income has provided her less than $8,000 per year to maintain her home and care for herself. I called her July 5th to tell her that I had harvested the wheat and had a better yield than in 1979; however, due to the drop in wheat prices she would have less income in 1980. She then told me, she had notices that her property taxes were up, her royalty advalorem taxes increased, and that she had just lost about 34% of her royalty income to this so called Windfall Profits Tax. Needless to say she was distressed and bewildered. How can anyone call this windfall profits? I maintain that it is the fruits of frugal investment and is hard-earned income! This situation is not unique. It holds true for many royalty owners with whom I have visited.

I am a Registered Professional Appraiser. To supplement my farm income, I professionally value land, homes, oil & gas wells, and all types of property. I know from first-hand experience, that royalty interests are bought and paid for from after income tax dollars, then income tax is paid on royalty payments, along with school taxes, county taxes, hospital taxes, road taxes, water district taxes, severance taxes, and now after all this, we are told that we have a windfall and must pay more taxes-and when we pass away, pay inheritance taxes on this royalty.

Royalty owners have neither refineries, nor marketing facilities, but on the other hand, help pay the major oil company taxes that have been passed through every time they buy petroleum products.

Contrary to some popular opinions the average royalty owner does not put his royalty checks in CD's or savings and loan companies, but in fact uses the money to live on, to pay his farm payments and operating expenses. In short, it circulates and maintains rural towns and communities. Royalty payments keep elderly people off welfare rolls, and many farmers from competing for off-farm jobs in the job market. A large portion of royalty income is used for conservation purposes in rural America, to make our land more productive, and improve the environment so as to make our land a better place to live. Through the Windfall Profits Law our government has decided to take about 1/3 of this income and through bureaucracy handling do a better job of spending this hard earned and richly deserved private income than the people to which it rightly belongs.

There is no windfall profit in small royalty ownership. There is no comparison or basis for taxing royalty on the same basis as major oil corporations. Their whole tax structure is different. The government recognizes this difference by placing a higher rate on royalty for inheritance tax purposes. Also the government allows major oil companies to pass through certain taxes that royalty owners cannot. Major oil companies have a different taxing system for their investments in exploration, leasing, etc., than royalty. For instance, if an oil company pays $50 per acre for a mineral lease and drills a dry hole, the company has a direct write-off for all its investment. However, if the royalty owner has $50 per acre invested in the royalty portion of the price he paid for his land and the operator hits a dry hole, the royalty owner get no tax relief on his investment. So, with all these different taxing schemes, how anyone could see any comparison between royalty ownership and major oil corporations is beyond my realm of personal or professional reasoning.

According then, I respectfully request that the Windfall Profits Tax not be applied to royalty owners and to the extent that it has already been implemented that there be a direct refund or tax credit established for its recovery.

Thank you.

Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas in Fort Worth, August 5, according to Jack Rowland, Godley, President of the organization. The award will be presented at the Annual Awards Program of the Association.

Little League Park To Be Fixed First

Chamber of Commerce President L.E. Thomas was the guest speaker for the regular meeting of Spearman Jaycees, Monday night.

The local Jaycees -- young men of the Junior Chamber of Commerce -- have been reorganized only a matter of weeks now but membership is growing and the fellows are working at some adopted projects so diligently the community has come to think of the organization as "our Jaycees" instead of that new Jaycee group.

Following the speech by Thomas, the membership in business session rearranged some project priorities based on need that was the most critical and decided to make their first repairs and refurbishments on the Little League Park. The group plans to have an active part in the Little League program when the next season opens.

A decision was reached to order caps bearing the "JAYCEE" emblem. These will be of an adjustable design and extras will be ordered so that new members will have one from the very start of their Jaycee member activities.

Membership is open to young men 18 to 35 years of age and roster is growing every meeting.

The next meeting will be at 8 p.m., Monday, in the conference room at B and B Farm Industries.

ALL STAR TOURNAMENT UPDATE

The Little League All Star Team from Spearman continues as of this writing. The team is working its way through the losers' bracket toward playing the winner of the winners' bracket. Competition ends on Saturday, July 26, in Guymon. The boys and coaches are representing Spearman in an all star manner. Results of the tournament will be appearing in Thursday's edition.

Wednesday afternoon the Junior Babe Ruth 14-15 year old All Star Team, representing District 6, Top O Texas League lost its second game and were eliminated from the State Tournament for that age group.

In an earlier article we wrote that four boys represented Spearman in the Top O Texas All Star Teams for the thirteen year olds were Greg Meek and Pat Tucker and from the fourteen-fifteen year olds Darren Goodheart and Ricky Torres. We are all proud at the YMCA of the caliber of young men representing Spearman during the regular season and post season play.

Also, on Wednesday, in Lubbock, the three remaining boys representing Spearman in the Top O Texas State Tournament went down in defeat. This team, coached by Spearman's own Charles Eaton came in third in the State Tournament. Congratulations are in order for Chuck Eaton, Greg Hazelwood and Kirby Hargis.

SOFTBALL FOR MEN AND WOMEN CONTINUES

Not only are the regular games being played, Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, but a men's softball tournament has been scheduled for the weekend of August 1, 2 and 3. More details will be forthcoming.

This week in the Women's Softball League we find on Monday, July 28, First State Bank's Red Hots against Spearman's Bottom's Up at 7:00 and Junior Lusby Cats vying with Sacks Third Avenue Odds & Ends at 8:30 p.m. Games are played on the new field just east of the YMCA at old Lynx stadium.

Men's Softball competition includes: Tuesday, Jul 29 at 7 p.m. Tico vs Henton's team, at

The regular meeting of the Hansford Hospital board of managers, Thursday night, was occupied chiefly with sale of the bonds to finance the new nursing home and with salaries within the hospital.

The bonds will be sold at 1 p.m., Monday, in the hospital conference room.

Administrator Jerry Taylor pointed out that at the beginning of the effort to build a nursing home, Hansford County tax payers had been assured additional taxes to repay the bond issue would be little more than fifty cents. The first issue negotiated was a 15-year repayment issue at six and one-half percent that would have cost an extra 52 cents in taxes.

Later, in the very midst of the high interest flurry, Taylor was able to negotiate a bond issue on a ten-year bonding span for only 57 cents. The advantage here being a shorter period the county will be in debt for the new facility.

It was also noted that the county received an "A" rating on its bonds.

Such ratings are required before a bond issue is authorized in due process and an "A" rating is unusual for a county this size. This particular rating is not based on how well the county pays its obligations but on a sum of such factors as the financial potential of the county and current fiscal management of both the county and the hospital.

The latter was particularly impressive in the bond rating

Hospital Head Quits

Jerry Taylor, Hansford Hospital administrator for the past four years has presented his resignation to the board of managers to take effect Aug. 9.

Taylor will assume the duties of administrator of a 70-bed hospital in the Rio Grande Valley.

"I don't really want to leave Spearman," Taylor said. "I feel like Hansford County folks have supported me to the point we have created the best hospital in the Panhandle."

Since I am going, that is the way I would like my friends of Hansford County and the High Plains to remember me: he's gone but we're left in good shape."

Contacted, the board said it was "Seeking a replacement."

8:30 Thriftway vs North Plains International and at 10 p.m. Baker & Taylor vs Agco. Come out and watch these teams compete. There is some excitement and good games to be seen.

process. Four years ago, the hospital revenue for the fiscal year was some $370,000. This current fiscal year some three months yet remaining, hospital income is in excess of $1.25-million.

What this spells out is that expense of operating the facility has seen paid with receipts for patient care and other services. Because of this, county administrators can use tax monies for other projects that are needed but do not pay their own way.

Further discussion of the bond sale upcoming centered around handling monies derived therefrom. Concensus was that the bulk should go into short term interest bearing certificates of some nature. It was pointed out that it can only be short term since the nursing home construction must move on a schedule with regular interval reports to the various government agencies involved in authorizing the project.

The panel then spent more than an hour in executive session discussing salaries within the hospital, a matter relegated to such closed sessions for discussion with final action then taken in open session again. Salary discussion at this point is one part of preparing a budget for the hospital for the coming fiscal year.

Following the closed forum, a substantial raise was voted for both registered nurses (RNs) and licensed vocational nurses (LVNs) with a bonus added to the hourly pay rate for each year of in-hospital experience for each nurse.

Salaries of other hospital personnel were tabled.

Other matters discussed had to do with the routine operation of the hospital.

Schubert-Boone Vows Read

MR. AND MRS. SAM BOONE

Margie Lynn Schubert and Sam Randall Boone were united in marriage July 6, 1980 in a double ring ceremony at 4 p.m. in the First Baptist Church with Rev. Russell Pogue, officiating. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Burton Schubert and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Boone, all of Spearman.
Two white wicker baskets of yellow and white silk roses with wheat and baby's breath and background candleabra with yellow candles and greenery decorated the altar. Pew markers were of wheat and greenery with yellow bows.

Marilyn Groves played traditional wedding music and "Longer" and "I Pledge My Love To You" were sung during the ceremony by Mr. and Mrs. Travis Angel.

Bridal attendants were Patti Short as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Suzy Steele of Boys Ranch and Kelly Vernon of Lubbock. They wore floor length dresses of yellow fashioned with bustles in the back. They carried white fans decorated with yellow and silk roses and wheat.

Doug Steele was best man and groomsmen were Terry Latham and Zane Newton. The men of the wedding party wore silver tuxedos and each wore a yellow rose boutonniere.

Flower girls were Brandee Groves of Spearman and Traci Brinkley of Liberal. Brandon White of Spearman was ring-bearer.
Candlelighters were Shannon Groves of Spearman and Mindi Brinkley of Liberal. Ushers were Lee Schubert of Spearman and Kieth Adamson of Dalhart.

Wayne Groves of Spearman gave out wheat roses and Connie Etheredge of Dumas registered the guests.

The bride wore a white floor-length gown with chapel train. The gown was trimmed in Belgium lace and the bodice and long fitted sleeves were accented with Chantilly lace, pearls and sequins. She wore a picture hat with a chapel length veil attached. Her bridal bouquet was of yellow and white silk roses with wheat and baby's breath and short ribbons of lace. Mrs. Schubert chose for her daughter's wedding a floor length turquoise dress with lace jacket. Mrs. Boone wore a floor length peach dress with a lace capelet. Their corsages were of yellow and white silk roses.

At the reception following the ceremony the bride's table was highlighted with a six layer stair step cake with glass tubes between the layers. The centerpiece was of yellow and white silk roses with wheat on a crystal cake plate given to the bride's great-grandmother Mae Henry on her wedding day. The table was covered with a white tablecloth with yellow sheer overlay. Yellow punch was served.

The groom's table was covered with a white tablecloth and held a chocolate cake decorated with brass horses. Cake and coffee were served from the table.

Servers were Kim Vandenburg, Marilyn Groves, Carla McAllister of Dallas and Donna Brinkley of Liberal.

For the wedding trip to Six Flags the bride chose a white street length dress with crocheted yoke and a corsage of yellow roses.

The young couple will be at

Faye's Daze

Going through the many articles that come across my desk this week I came across one that I found interesting headed "Biteless Mosquitoes May Be In Our Future" from Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Now I would prefer no mosquitoes at all but would certainly settle for biteless ones. Anytime I am on an outing, if there is a mosquito in a mile it manages to find me.

Anyway, back to the story, it seems that A&M scientists have discovered what triggers biting by the mosquitoes and are working on a way to prevent this impulse. Research indicates that biting is initiated by a hormone produced by tiny glands located in the neck of the mosquito. They removed these glands from the newly-emerged adult female mosquito and it prevented the biting, and also reproduction. Only the female bites, did you know that?

Then to prove that the hormone was the culprit they operated on the females and reimplanted the gland or injected a synthetic hormone. Both treatments restored biting.

The scientists are searching for a chemical which will be effective as biting suppressants on mosquitoes.

Present estimates are that one-tenth of the earth's population is infected with diseases such as malaria, filariasis, dengue, and encephalitis. Although the organisms causing these diseases differ, they share a common route of entry into the human host-the bite of the disease-carrying mosquito.

If it stays as dry here as it is now we probably won't have any mosquitoes, biting or otherwise.

The slight cool front that come in a few days ago with the accompanying clouds has been nice even if we haven't had any rain. Any relief from that 100 plus temperature is good.

Billy and I enjoyed an all too short visit with an old school chum this morning when Bennie Briley came in to visit us. He and his wife are here visiting his mother, Mrs. Edna Briley. We didn't have time to reminisce very much but enjoyed the visit. Bennie is with the Bank of America in Sonora, Calif.

We have upgraded our TV section beginning with this paper. We now have program listings for KTVU on Channel 11, the PBS channel out of Oklahoma City, and The Movie Channel. Hope you enjoy it!

Insurance Corner

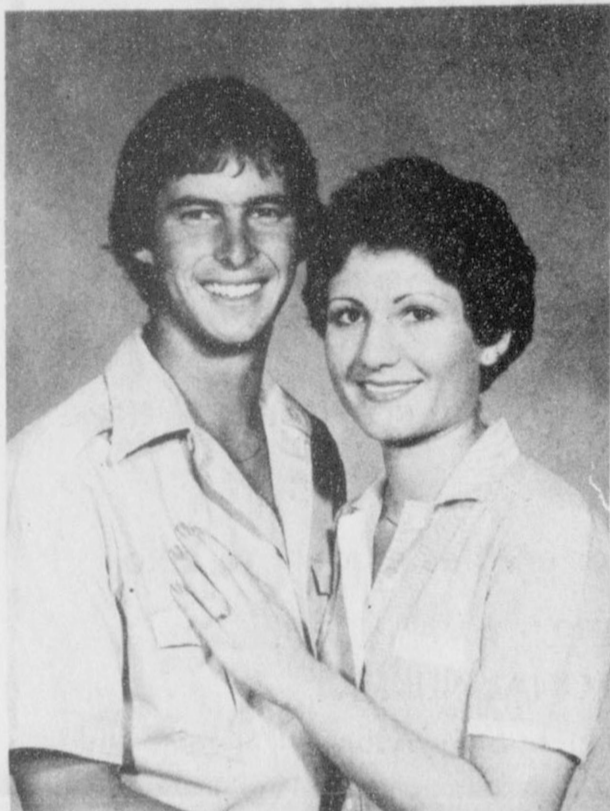

WHY COMPREHENSIVE?

The comprehensive insurance policy is a common one and most people are familiar with it. They probably have some form of this type of protection. But what are the actual reasons for this type of policy? One is that a person might want complete protection, and therefore he'd go out and buy a lot of different policies to cover different risks. All that folded paper surrounded by a rubber band looked impressive, but the person still wasn't positive that he was protected against ALL hazards. And even if he felt secure, it could turn out to be a false sense of security.

An insured might try to save money and only buy certain coverages. The pick-and-choose technique may be okay in a store, but very possible unwise when buying insurance. His money-saving endeavors could turn out to be false economy because he might fine out-to late—that his insurance was wholly inadequate. And sometimes an insured simply doesn't know what policies he needs and exactly how to handle them. The comprehensive form was "born" out of these shortcomings of the many policy many risks coverage.
