BULLETIN: The Greyhound football team was terrific in their scrimmage against Dalhart Friday night!

Lynx To Go To Texhoma For Scrimmage

State runner-ups Spearman, scrimmaged Guymon at Guymon Thursday evening, and it looked like Notre Dame and Michigan had scheduled a play-off for the National Championship. Spearman had some 70 boys suited out, as did Guymon, and the stands were almost a sell-out!

The Lynx looked very good as did Guymon, and fans are pretty well pleased with the first showing of both teams. However, the coaches from Spearman were a bit disappointed in some phases of the offense, but that was to be expected. Three new quarterbacks working for the Lynx, almost stole the show at Guymon; they were Charles Steele, (Senior transfer from Hooker, Oklahoma); Sherwood, a freshman from Spearman, and Pack, last year's back-up quarterback. Quarterback Pack had been sick all week, but performed very well Thursday evening. Sherwood and Steele both looked outstanding with Steele looking great with his passing, and biggest surprise of all was Sherwood, who seemed to have poise and control of the situation at all times. Quite frankly, Sherwood, a freshman, was a surprise to the some 1,000 Lynx fans who attended the scrimmage.

The defense was very good; both the Lynx and Tigers performed well; we have printed the entire Lynx roster with their names and numbers, plus all other pertinent details. Be sure and carry this line-up with you to Texhoma Thursday evening; the scrimmage will be at Texhoma!

Scrambles Championship Dance-a-Thon Planned

Remember ponytails and blue suede shoes? "Don't Be Cruel" and "Rock Around the Clock"? It'll all come back to you at the Cystic Fibrosis Fabulous Fifties Dance-a-Thon Saturday, September 20. You'll rock and roll to the sound of authentic 50's platters at the Community Building from 9 p.m. until midnight with recuperation and refreshment breaks taken every 30 to 45 minutes.

Sponsor forms will be available for those who want to dance and help a lot of children who are suffering from Cystic Fibrosis and other lung-damaging diseases. Several weeks before the Dance-a-Thon, dancers obtain sponsors (relatives, neighbors, friends, local business persons) who will pledge any amount of money for every hour the participant dances. Prizes will be awarded for Most Money Raised, Most Sponsors, Best 50's Costume - male and female, and Best 50's Dancers.

All money raised through the Dance-a-Thon will go to support care, research and education programs benefiting children who have asthma, chronic bronchitis, "childhood emphysema," recurrent pneumonia as well as cystic fibrosis. Of the diseases that kill children, lung disease ranks second only to cancer. Cystic Fibrosis, the most serious of these diseases, is the number one genetic killer of children.

For children who have these diseases, breathing can be a struggle and life is full of frequent check-ups, tests, hospitalizations and bouts with lung infection. The ordinary cold can severely strain the lungs of those with cystic fibrosis so much that it can set off a chain of events leading to critical illness or even death. Most of these children must follow daily time-consuming treatments.

In addition to affecting the child, lung-damaging disease can exhaust the financial and emotional condition of the home. Helping children and their families cope with lung-damaging diseases is a prime function of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, a national volunteer health agency founded 20 years ago by a group of parents of children with cystic fibrosis.

Since its beginning in 1955, the Foundation has grown to support more than 100 Cystic Fibrosis Centers across the nation which provide diagnosis, treatment and referral to children suffering from all lung-damaging diseases as well as those with gastrointestinal disorders related to cystic fibrosis.

The Foundation also funds a research program to find a cure and control for cystic fibrosis and better methods of treating all lung diseases. Twenty years ago most children with cystic fibrosis didn't reach school age. Now thanks to advances in treatment, more than 50 percent of children with this incurable disease live past age 18. And, the treatment, which prolongs the lives of individuals with cystic fibrosis, effectively alleviates and often cures children with other lung-damaging diseases.

But in spite of all these advances in treatment, only one out of four cystic fibrosis victims are diagnosed. Therefore, it is vital to know the signs of lung-damaging disease--recurrent wheezing, persistent coughing with excessive mucus, pneumonia more than once, excessive appetite but poor weight gain and clubbing or enlargement of the fingertips. Other signs that are peculiar to cystic fibrosis are a salty taste of the skin, persistent and bulky diarrhea and nasal polyps.

Over six million children in the United States with lung-damaging diseases are dependent upon the programs of the National Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and its local chapters--many of the children are dependent for life itself. So, please, don't turn your back on them. Take an active part in the Cystic Fibrosis Breath of Life Fabulous Fifties Dance-a-Thon September 20. They'll bea the easier for it.

"This course is a survey on the subject of meteorology," says Dr. William Beasley, course instructor and assistant professor of physics.

He will cover cloud identification, forecasting, storms, general circulation of the atmosphere and "what goes into making the weather happen."

The course, available in physics and geography has no prerequisites. Registration for this and other West Texas State University courses will be August 29 and 30 in the WTSU Activities Center, according to the prescribed schedule.

Museum Plans Pie Eating Contest

There will be workdays at the Stationmaster's House Museum every Saturday afternoon starting with this weekend. Painting the interior is the main activity at present. All who wish to help are to bring their paint brushes. The museum is located at 30 South Townsend in Spearman. On Saturday, September 27, the Hansford County Historical Survey Committee, a non-profit organization, will sponsor a Pie-Eating contest to benefit the county museum. There will be four age categories and prizes for the eaters of the most pies and for the raisers of the most funds.

Next week end is Labor Day. To be more precise, Monday September 1st. The Big Jerry Lewis Telethon will be on T. V. with Jerry working his heart out for our Kids with Muscular Dystrophy. Let's all of us open our hearts and pocket books to help in this very worthy cause.

The Spearman Fire Fighters now have the capability to recharge fire extinguishers. If we can be of service to any of you be sure and call 2525 or 2524. You will find the service to be prompt, courteous and economical.

Over the week end I had a chance to review the large number of kids on probation within our area. It brought to mind the need to make all of our Kids a part of something. A FEELING OF BELONGING.

It's easy to take care of the athlete. Everybody wants to help the quarterback or the star of the basketball team. But what about the boy with two left feet. The boy who can't compete in athletics. He's never chosen to hand out papers in school or to lead the fire drill because he's not a leader. He couldn't join boy scouts because his dad had to sign up for him and dad didn't care just as long as he was out of his sight. We had better start caring. Making our Kids feel like they are a part of something. All they want is just the feeling of belonging.

What if we had a fishing program. The fish doesn't know who's on the other end of the line. And once they have caught the big one they are the hero. The spot light is on them. And no one can take this moment away from them. They are a part. They belong.

 It's the sizzle that sells the steak, and not the cow. Find the sizzle in what you sell.....and you find success.

Clauda Johnson On Honor Roll

Clauda Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Brummett of Spearman, was named to the Dean's list at Southwestern Oklahoma State University at Weatherford for the summer semester. To make the Dean's list a student must have a 3.0 or higher grade-point average with no lower grade than C. Only undergraduates enrolled in at least eight semester hours were considered for the summer honor rolls.

Although Reed is a highly talented steer roper, having won the Spearman rodeo earlier this year, he had yet to prove his skill on the wary goats. From the first leap it was evident that Reed was to be reckoned with for the title, but in the third go-round, he ran into some tough luck on the hard to handle goats and finished third in the championship roping. A. D. is to be congratulated for this fine feat.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eter Saturday through Wednesday was her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Richardson and Denise of Bakersfield, California. The Richardsons had just returned from Honolulu, Hawaii where they had attended the wedding of their son, Lou, who lives in Honolulu.

Pickles Cause Cancer

Pickles are killers and pickles cause cancer. We came across this statement the other day in a story concerning the 1963 Soil Conservation District banquet held in Perryton where Dr. Charles Smallwood of West Texas State University was the guest speaker.

Dr. Smallwood backed up this statement about pickles causing cancer by citing some accurate statistics. He said that 99.9 per cent of all persons who die of heart disease have eaten pickles.

Not only that, 99.8 per cent of all persons involved in traffic accidents have eaten pickles at some time or other. Statistics show that over 90 per cent of all persons who die of cancer have at some time or another eaten pickles.

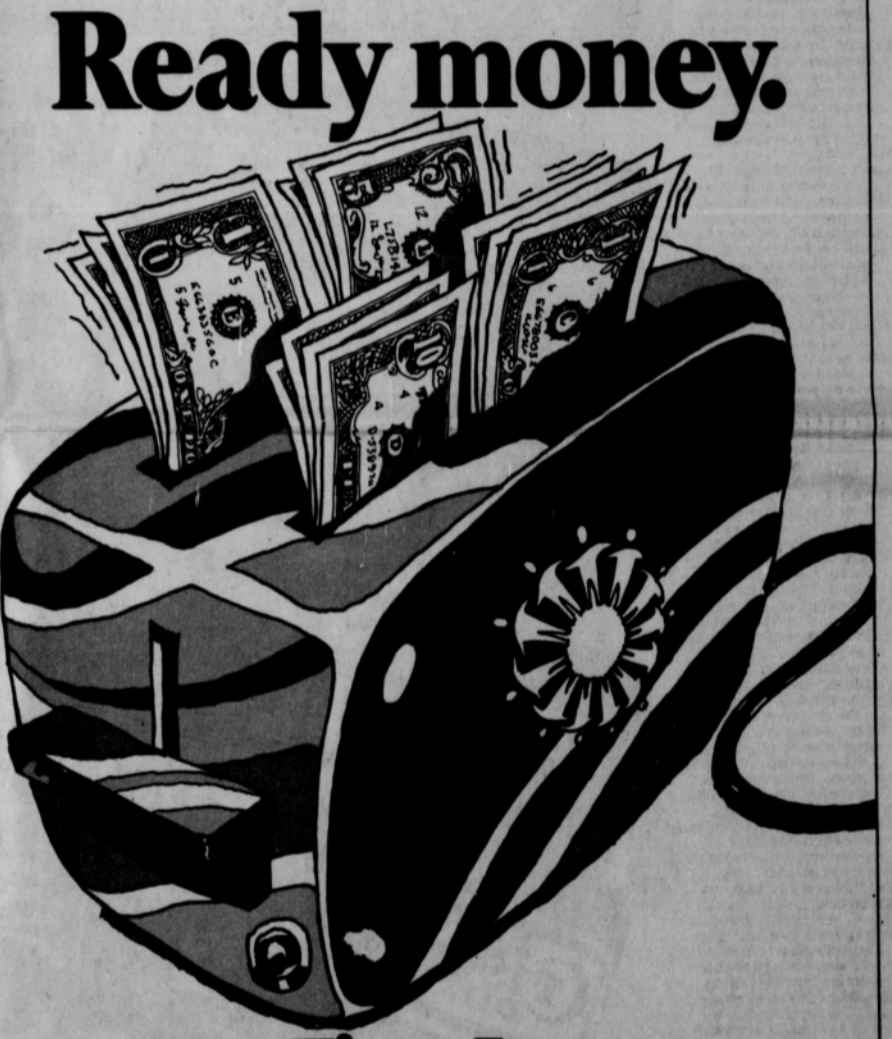

Of the major crimes in the U. S. last year, 99.7 per cent were committed by persons who came from homes where pickles were eaten regularly. Even more shocking is the fact that of all persons born in 1839 and who ate pickles, there has been a 100 per cent mortality. Besides, those pickle eaters born in the period 1869 - 1889 who are not yet dead are suffering from wrinkled skin and loss of teeth.

Even animals are affected, with an experiment showing that when rats were force fed 20 pounds of pickles a day for 30 days they suffered bulging abdomens and lost their appetite for wholesome food.

Dr. Smallwood made his shocking disclosure about pickle eating merely to show that there is a lot of false conclusions reached from applying an accurate set of statistics.

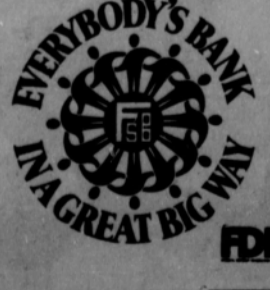

In other words, "figures don't lie, but liars do figure."

We need to remember this when we read the next shocking report from a government bureau which leans heavily on statistics like pickle eating to reach equally erroneous conclusions.

KISS YOUR BABY WEEK

You can't help but kiss your baby. He's so lovable. So wonderful. And, he needs you so much.

That's just why we ask you to "kiss your baby." If he should have cystic fibrosis, he needs you to do something about it.

One of the signs of cystic fibrosis, the most serious lung-damaging disease, is a salty taste of the skin.

If you taste salt on your baby, see your doctor.

Make sure your baby has a test for C/F.

Diagnosis and immediate treatment are vital to his life.

For more information, contact your local Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

salt on her baby, she should see the doctor and make sure the baby has a test for CF. Early diagnosis and immediate treatment are vital to the child's life. Additional signs of cystic fibrosis -- and other lung-damaging diseases are: recurrent wheezing; persistent coughing with excessive mucus; pneumonia more than once; excessive appetite but poor weight gain; clubbing (enlargement of fingertips), persistent bulky diarrhea and nasal polyps.

One out of every 1,500 babies has cystic fibrosis and many people don't realize that it is the number one genetic killer of children. For children who are diagnosed early, the outlook is very hopeful. Children with a chronic cough and wheeze sometimes are confused with allergy patients. They should have a sweat chloride test for cystic fibrosis.

Local chapters of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation may be contacted for further information.

ETTER, TX - John Shipley, Associate Professor, collects grain sorghum head samples to be used in research studies at the North Plains Research Field at Etter. Head samples are collected twice a week in an effort to determine the influence of average daily temperatures on the rate of grain fill and the length of the grain filling period.

Research Day At Etter

BUSHLAND -- Plans for a fall field day at the North Plains Research Field at Etter have been announced by Dr. John Shipley, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station researcher who directs research at the site.

Thursday, September 4 at 1 p.m. is the time and everyone interested in latest developments in agricultural research is invited. The theme of the field day will be "Greater Profits Through Irrigation Water Management". The Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the USDA Agricultural Research Service will cooperate in the event. The Texas A&M Research Field is located one mile east and a half-mile north of Etter.

According to Dr. K. B. Porter, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Research Director at Bushland, the first part of the program will be a question and answer session on new research at both Bushland and Etter. Persons attending the event will have the opportunity to visit with nine scientists from the USDA Center at Bushland about research on wheat and small grains, weed control, forage crops, sunflowers, insect control, sugar beets, fall grazing, animal health and irrigation water management.

The program will continue with a tour of the Research Field at 3 p.m. Tour stops will include water response studies with grain sorghum and corn. Irrigation size is varied and timing of application is based on stage of plant growth, calendar dates and soil water potential measured by tensiometers. Visitors will be able to take a close look at regional grain sorghum and corn variety trials each consisting of 50 different hybrids. Other stops of interest will be grain sorghum and sunflower planting date studies.

In addition to discussion and tour, publications of recent research will be available. The most recent, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station MP 1202, summarizes three years of research on water response of irrigated grain sorghum. Yields from 4, 8, 12 and 16 inches of properly applied seasonal just plain gossip of the Revolutionary times. The afternoon segment will also feature an encampment of the Continental Army. The soldiers will be performing daily chores and drills, as well as discussing what it means to be fighting the war. At 9:00 p.m., the characters will come together to present a dramatization of the events of the war and how it affected the town of New Bristol as well as the nation. The theatrical presentation will last approximately an hour.

High school and junior high students will probably enjoy and benefit most from the "People of '76" presentations. There is no charge for either the afternoon or evening showings, and we hope that many of your students and teachers will be able to attend. Arrangements will be made for bus parking in the Sanford-Lake area, about one mile west of the marina.

Both productions reflect the lives of ordinary Americans on the military front and at home during the Revolutionary period. The great names of history are notably absent for this is the story of the People of '76. If you wish more information or have any questions concerning "The People of '76", please call Superintendent William E. Dyer - 806-857-3151 - Fritch, Texas.

U. S. Retirement Bonds On Sale

WASHINGTON -- The Department of the Treasury has placed on sale U. S. Individual Retirement Bonds. They are specifically designed for investment by persons who lack coverage by any other retirement plan. The bonds are issued pursuant to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. They are sold at face value in denominations of $50, $100 and $500. Interest accrues at the rate of six percent per year, compounded semiannually, and is payable upon redemption. Individual Retirement Bonds may be purchased from any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch, or directly from the Treasury Department. They may be registered in either single ownership or beneficiary form, in the names of natural persons only. Individual Retirement Bonds are nontransferable; they cannot be sold or used as collateral.

The new Bonds permit persons, who work for employers unable to finance a pension plan, to set aside a portion of their annual income -- up to a yearly limit of $1,500, or 15 percent of gross income, whichever is less -- for retirement. The amount set aside annually is deductible from gross income for federal income tax purposes.

Because they are designed to be used for personal retirement, the Bonds carry certain redemption restrictions. During the first year after issue, they may be cashed without interest or penalty. They may be cashed, with a tax penalty, until the owner reaches age 59-1/2, after which the Bonds may be redeemed without penalty. The Bonds may, however, be cashed without penalty, at any time until maturity, for the purpose of changing investments. In addition, they may be cashed without penalty before age 59-1/2, in cases of disability. The maturity date is the first day of the month in which the Bond-owner reaches age 70-1/2, or five years after the date of the owner's death, whichever is earlier. Both principal and interest are reportable for federal income tax purposes, at time of redemption or maturity.

Complete regulations covering the Individual Retirement Bond may be found in Treasury Department Circular, Public Debt Series 1-75.

Clinic Set

The Northwest Texas Chapter of the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation, announce the forth-coming MELBA BANDY MASTERS MEMORIAL CLINIC for Myasthenia Gravis patients, Friday September 5, 1975, beginning at 8 o'clock in the morning, at the Hi-Plains Hospital, Hale Center, Texas. This free patient clinic is being funded by a Trust given by the E. E. Masters family of Cotton Center, in memory of Mrs. Melba Masters who was a victim of myasthenia gravis. It is hoped that the fund will be maintained through donations, enabling this free clinic to become an annual event and hopefully semi-annual. The trust fund is set up at the First National Bank of Hale Center, and memorials or contributions may be made directly to the account at the Bank.

For the fifth time, Dr. J. E. Tether of Indianapolis, Indiana, will be in Hale Center to conduct the all day clinic. Assisting him will be the Medical Staff of Hi-Plains Hospital. Dr. Tether is a noted authority on the diagnosis and management of Myasthenia Gravis, having been active in the field of MG for over 20 years. He is a Professor of Neurology at the University of Indiana School of Medicine and is the physician in charge of the Myasthenia Gravis Clinic at the Indiana University Medical Center. He is a member of the National Foundation of Myasthenia Gravis and has served on the Medical Advisory Board since its inception. Dr. Tether is the author of several textbooks and articles on Myasthenia Gravis.

The Northwest Texas Chapter of the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation supports free patient clinics and a Drug Bank where the myasthenic can buy the medicine which is essential in the control of the disease, at less cost. The Chapter sends out educational material for patients, doctors, and nurses upon request. They also handle many letters regarding myasthenia gravis problems. Money is needed to carry on this work which benefits so many people. J. E. McVicker of Muleshoe is Chapter Chairman, and E. E. Masters of Cotton Center is Treasurer.

Myasthenia Gravis is a neuromuscular disease characterized by varying weakness of the voluntary muscles of the body. It is aggravated by exertion, emotion, infection, or any kind of stress. It is relieved, in part, by rest and anticholinesterase drugs. Onset may be insidious or sudden. The initial symptoms may only be unusual fatigability. This may be accompanied by aching in the neck, back, or legs in milder cases. Prosis of one or both eye lids, blurred vision due to difficult focus, or actual diplopia are the most frequent early signs and symptoms. Slurring, nasal tones, jaw weakness, and fatigue on chewing may occur early in more severe cases. Many complain of arm fatigue on reaching up, as in care of hair or in shaving. Legs tire on stairs or short walks and may collapse without warning.

If you are a victim of Myasthenia Gravis, or you are interested person, you are urged to attend the Myasthenia Gravis Free Patient Clinic, Friday, September 5, 1975 beginning at 8 o'clock a.m. at the Hi-Plains Hospital, Hale Center Texas. Appointments may be made by calling the hospital, (806) 839-2471, ext. 36.

Vows Repeated In Dallas Nuptials

The North Ridge Presbyterian Church of Dallas was the scene for a beautiful mid-August Sunday afternoon ceremony uniting Miss Debra Sue Pavillard and Mr. Jonathan Dale Stein, both of Dallas.

The bride, a former Gruverite, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carter of Amarillo and J. D. Pavillard of Gannbury. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Stein of Hempstead, Texas.

Vows were exchanged 17th of August at a 3:00 P.M. ceremony conducted by the Reverend John Denhoff with traditional nuptial music provided at the organ by Helen Flannagan of Dallas who also accompanied the soloist Shelley Anderson of Denton. Candelights were pieces of the bride, Jill and Kay Kesterson, both of Borger. Mrs. Beverly Lee of Dallas presided at the guest register.

The charming bride, who was given in marriage by her step father, Mr. Ben Carter, and her mother, wore a traditional wedding gown of lace over organza accented by myriads of hand-sewn pearls which also accented the veil of bridal illusion and lace, both designed and hand sewn by the bride and her mother. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations, daisies, and star flowers set in lace and white satin.

The bridal attendants included Miss Donna Sue Cochran, maid of honor; Pamela Sue (Price) Pate, Mrs. Carol Harris, all of Dallas, and Mrs. Kay (Pavillard) Kesterson, sister of the bride from Borger. The petite flower girl was the niece of the bride, Elizabeth Kesterson of Borger, and the ring bearer was the nephew of the groom, Master Stephen Kitterman from Houston.

The bridal attendants were gowned in blue and mint green carnations and baby breath set in lace and satin. Attending the groom were his best man, Mike Harris, and groomsmen Charles Golentemek, Ken Gray, and Dan Cormier, all of Dallas. Ushers included Dan Pavillard, brother of the bride; Jimmy Whitworth, and Mark McDonald, all of Dallas. The men of the wedding party wore mint green and blue tuxedos.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carter chose a beige lace dress and accessories accented by a corsage of red carnations and white rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a pink lace dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds. The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Edna Bentley of Amarillo, wore a blue crepe dress trimmed in white lace with which she wore a corsage of blue carnations and white daisies.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Church parlor with Mesdames Jenny Cormier and Linda Golentemek, both of Dallas, Mrs. Maurine Conaster of Lubbock, and Lena Bentley of Amarillo presiding at the charming bridal table which featured the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Three blue candles encircled the centerpiece of blue and green carnations, white daisies, and baby breath, all of which was highlighted by a gleaming silver punch service.

The groom's table featured the German chocolate cake and a fountain with a single yellow rose bud. Tea sandwiches, hors d'oeuvres, mints, and nuts completed the reception refreshments.

The new Mrs. Stein, a graduate of Gruver High School attended North Texas State University at Denton as a music major and was a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. She is now employed by Glenn Bozell, and Jacobs Advertising in Dallas.

Mr. Stein graduated from Hampstead High School, attended Tyler Junior College where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He received his Bachelor's degree from North Texas State University and is now executive vice president of Varel Products, Inc., of Dallas as well as serving on the Board of Directors of that organization.

The young couple will be at home at 3372 Townsend, Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary (Debbie) Gilbreath are the proud parents of a son born 4:20 P.M., August 19th at Hansford Hospital weighing in at almost 7 1/2 pounds and was 21 inches long. At last report they hadn't named the baby as yet. Brother Greg wanted to name him Johnny Cash. Both Mother and Baby are doing fine and Daddy isn't doing too badly either. Gary is the Cookbook bread man for our area.

Congratulations to you all!

Two week ago Jesse and Dorothy Davis went fishing at Red River. Jesse said, "They got rained out!" But had a good time till then.

Mr. Janzen and sons, Randy and Scott, along with Buddy Hopper went Donna Wirsdorfer returned to Spearman last Friday after spending a week with friends in Las Animas, Colorado.

The J. L. Pierce's took Doris Switzer and family to Amarillo Wednesday where she and her children caught a plane to take them to Brazil where they will be making their home for awhile. Doris will be missed by those who knew her and guess Juanita will have to find a new fishing partner.

Good Luck Doris in your new home. Speaking of the Pierces—their son, Lynn, will be home the first of September from Brazil where he spent the summer.

Just before Press time, we found out the Gilbreath's baby has been named Robert Jeffery Gilbreath.

Sorry! Gregy your name didn't make it.

Remember those in the Hospitals!

With school starting Monday, August 25th, let's all drive with great care so not to hit some child. Remember Children have a way of not always paying attention and at times will run across a street without looking. So we, as adults, have to really be alert. Drive Safely!!

Mike Tucker didn't get off to school last Wednesday as we reported. Mike had trouble with his car and now will leave when his car is ready.

In-Sp re-ation

I ran across a prayer voiced by Abraham Lincoln when his young son, Ted, began school. It is a good prayer. A prayer that all parents might pray upon the beginning of this school year. Here it is: "World, take my son by the hand—he starts school today. It's all going to be strange and new to him for awhile, and I wish you would sort of treat him gently. You see, up to now, he's been king of the roost. He's been the boss of the backyard. I have always been around to repair his wounds, and I've always been handy to soothe his feelings. But now things are going to be different. This morning he's going to walk down the front steps, wave his hand, and start on a great adventure that probably will include wars and tragedy and sorrow. To live in this world will require faith and love and courage. So, World, I wish you would sort of take him by his young hand and teach him the things he will have to know. Teach him—teach him gently, if you can. He will have to learn, I know, that all men are not just—that all men are not true. Teach him that for every scoundrel there is a hero; that for every crooked politician there is a dedicated leader; that for every enemy there is a friend. Let him learn that the bullies are the easiest people to lick. Teach him the wonder of books. Give him quiet time to ponder the eternal mystery of birds in the sky, bees in the sun, and flowers on a green hill. Teach him that it is far more honorable to fall than to cheat. Teach him to have faith in his own ideas, even if everyone tells him they are wrong. Try to give my son the strength not to follow the crowd when everyone else is getting on the bandwagon. Teach him to listen to all men, but to filter all he hears on a screen of truth and take only the good that comes through. Teach him to sell his brawn and brains to the highest bidder, but never to put a price tag on his heart and soul. Teach him to close his ears on a howling mob—and to stand and fight if he thinks he's right. Teach him gently, World, but don't coddle him, because only the test of fire makes fine steel. This is a big order, World, but see what you can do. He's such a nice little fellow. Amen."

To and for me this is a good prayer as parents we ought to pray for all of our young people.

Recreational Vehicle Coverage

Today, nearly 3 million recreational vehicles are in use in the U. S. Second only to the towed trailer is the self-powered motor home. What is the best type of insurance for the self-propelled camper? Best bet would be a special policy that insures against virtually any type of accidental loss, including collision and upset. In most cases, personal effects such as cameras, clothing, and sporting goods would be covered, too. Liability coverage is also a feature of this type of package policy. Owners of truck campers may also want to consider the blanket-type coverage offered in this special recreational vehicle policy.

All too often, it is mistakenly believed that the insurance on the truck extends to the camper which slides onto the truck bed. This is true only if the camper section is named specifically in the policy and an additional premium paid.

Office Of Legislative History Needs Help

AUSTIN---The newly created Office of Legislative History is busy these days. Its goal is to complete a biographical file of all of the former members of the Texas Legislature since the first session in 1846, and so far, the progress has been good. Former Representative Jake Johnson of San Antonio, serving as Historian, is really having his time with history. "The things that are to be found are... incredible!" says Johnson. "I can't believe there's so much history lying, simply because nobody's ever kept up with it." When the project is completed, the State of Texas will have a photographic and biographical sketch of each member of the House and Senate and know a little bit about what he did after he left office.

Johnson says, "We want to be able to tell anyone who might ask us, 'Oh, yes, he came from Tennessee back in 1828 and served for three terms in the House and one in the Senate. Would you like to see his picture? And, did you know he went on to become Governor in 1869?'" "We'll be contacting many of the Historical Associations throughout the state to gather this information, and we're going to need a lot of help from the people to fill some of the gaps that we have. Sometimes, the only picture we can find is one that a relative might remember having somewhere in the attic." "This is the biggest manhunt in Texas history, and I'm asking for volunteers to join the posse." Johnson said.

YOU NEVER KNOW WHOM YOU'RE GOING TO MEET AT AN ARMY RESERVE MEETING.

You'll probably meet some of the most important people in your town. Because people who doers, very often serve their community and their country in the Army Reserve. It isn't just an extra income. It's something they can be proud of.

THE ARMY RESERVE. PART OF WHAT YOU EARN IS PRIDE.

College List Is Planned

The Reporter will publish a list of students who will be leaving soon or have left for college and would appreciate the cooperation of readers in supplying us with information on these students. Each year there are young men and women who go far and wide in pursuit of higher education. We are not just interested in those going to college for the first time but in all students from Spearman and the area who are attending college. This is interesting reading to find out who is going where and we would like to publish as complete a list as possible. If you have a son or daughter leaving for college call 659-3526 and let us list them in the story. It is a wise father that knows his own child.

Gruver Kin In On Apollo Flight

Captain Delvin Simmons, weather officer with the 54th Weather Reconnaissance Squadron and aboard Swan-59, an Andersen-based WC-130, staging out of Hickam AFB, Hawaii, was the one who gave the named Spacecraft Center a detailed briefing on conditions in the area prior to the splashdown of the Apollo Astronauts. The briefing allowed spaceflight officials to determine the suitability of the exact landing area for the Apollo portion of the Apollo-Soyuz Test Project. Captain Simmons is the husband of the former Geraldine Sutton and has been a Gruver visitor along with Geraldine and their children Tami and Stacey at the home of the Bob Suttons. Captain Simmons is stationed in Guam and they have recently adopted a ten year old orphan Vietnamese boy who is a delight to their two children as well as his new parents. Geraldine and the children were in Gruver a year ago and the children were enrolled in the Gruver Schools prior to their departure to join Delvin in Guam. Habeas Corpus literally means, "you may have the body."
