KUWAIT ROUGHNECKS--The petroleum students from Kuwait learned about "roughnecking" in the Crewman School here this week. Twenty-two students were here all week.

Kuwait Study Roughnecking In Local Crewman School

The new rotary drilling crew school in Spearman provided 22 young Kuwait men some experience in the hard life of a "roughneck" this week.

The 22 students from the oil-rich Middle East country spent four days in classes and on the rig at the school to learn about crew work.

Instructors H.L. Barnett and Mel Hobbs said the young men learned a lot in the short time they had at the school. Both instructors said the men were eager and willing to learn. They learned as much in an hour as some of the regular students did all day, the instructors said.

The 22 men, who come from all walks of life in their newly independent country, are in the United States for two years for training in oil drilling and production.

Oil is the life blood of their desert homeland by the Red Sea. James McFarland, one of the University of Texas Petroleum School instructors with the group, says one-fifth of the world's known oil reserves are under the former British Protectorate.

The men have been in this country for a year and have another year of study. When they return to Kuwait they will go into different parts of the oil industry.

McFarland said this is a pilot project by the Kuwait government. The country is making an effort to get more and more of their people into the oil industry.

When the men first arrived, they spent three months in Yale University in an intensified English course, then to the University of Texas for study in petroleum engineering, math, English and other petroleum industry related subjects.

McFarland said the training here is really a stop enroute to more classes. They are going to Rangley, Colo., for more study with California Oil Co.

H.L. Barrett, rig instructor for the local school, said two or three of the youths have some oil field experience and they could make "roughnecks" now. He added that none of them were afraid of getting dirty or hard work.

"They would really slap that iron around on the rig", he said.

Spearman Surpasses 2 Inches of Moisture

Hansford County now has that slow two inches of rain that everyone has been waiting for the past two years.

Spearman weather observer, Mrs. Pat Cates, measured a total of 2.20 inches of rain from the beginning of the rains on May 27 through Tuesday, June 2.

The rains came in small, slow amounts and none of it went into the bar ditches as run-off. The showers were accompanied by cloudy, cool weather that kept evaporation to a minimum.

Farmers report the rain has been just right on the irrigated wheat. The moisture and cool weather has allowed the grains to fill completely and will make more weight per grain.

Besides starting the grass, the rain also put moisture in the ground for planting milo and forage crops for grazing and hay.

The rainfall amounts by dates are: May 27, .60; May 28, .15; May 29, .45; May 30, .34; May 31, .60 and June 2, .06. The rainfall is measured at 7 a.m. each morning and is for the preceding 24 hours.

The wet spell brings the year's total moisture in Spearman to 3.52 inches. This includes rain, snow and heavy dews.

Jaycees Play Saturday for Little League

Softball will return to Spearman Saturday at 8 p.m. when two Jaycee teams meet in the Little League Park for a benefit game for Little League.

All the funds collected at the game will go to help pay the indebtedness of the Little League and provide money for the league to operate.

There will be an admission collected during the game.

There is much speculation about the game. Some of the Jaycees contend they will knock the ball out of the park each time they come to bat. Others contend the sluggers will not get the ball out of the park.

Sheriff Richardson's Tools To Sheriff Cooke's Collection

Some more historical police equipment was added to Sheriff J.B. Cooke's collection this week.

Mrs. Keesee Richardson presented Sheriff Cooke with the personal equipment used by her husband, the late Alvino Richardson, Sheriff from Jan. 1923 to Jan. 1929.

Mrs. Richardson presented the sheriff with a .38 Smith & Wesson Special in a handmade holster and cartridge belt, a set of handcuffs, leg irons, a one hand cuff with a handle, it is called a come along and a pair of thumb cuffs.

Sheriff Cooke said he was glad to get the equipment to add to his collection. Sheriff Richardson was an outstanding officer, Cooke said.

In recalling the work of the officer, Cooke and Mrs. Richardson recalled that the county had no jail. Richardson kept his prisoners chained to a long chain in a shack until they could be transferred to a jail in a neighboring county. The chain was known as the "trotline".

The courthouse was still in Old Hansford, but it did not have a jail. The city later built a small jail on the back of the lot where the courthouse is now located. It was officially known as a pumphouse since the city could not build a jail.

Richardson and two deputies policed the county. It was during his time in office that Spearman had its first boom. All the oil machinery used north of the Canadian River was hauled from the Spearman railroad terminal. The town got to be quite a boom town, but Richardson and his "trotline" kept it law-abiding.

Cattle thefts and "bootlegging" were the two big crimes being committed in the county. Richardson broke up some big operations in both crimes. The biggest ring he broke up were busy in both bootlegging and cattle stealing.

Two of the largest stills he put out of business were on the Coldwater in the northwest side of the county and the other was on the Palo Duro near Morse. There were many one and five gallon stills put out of use.

Communications for law officers were slow while Richardson was in office. There was telephone, telegraph and the postal services. Richardson did not have a private line for his phone. The County Clerk's phone and five other persons were on the line to the sheriff's office.

Vote Saturday

Voters will go to the polls Saturday to decide the candidates for one race in the Democratic and Republican parties of Texas.

There will be four voting boxes in the county. There will be a Republican box in Spearman.

THUMB CUFFED--Sheriff J.B. Cooke tries the thumbcuffs as Mrs. Keesee Richardson puts the "come along" on his wrist. Mrs. Richardson presented the equipment to Cooke.

Care For Main Street

There are few towns the size of Spearman with a better system of streets throughout the town. At the same time we have seen few towns our size where the show street, the main one, gets less care than Main Street in Spearman.

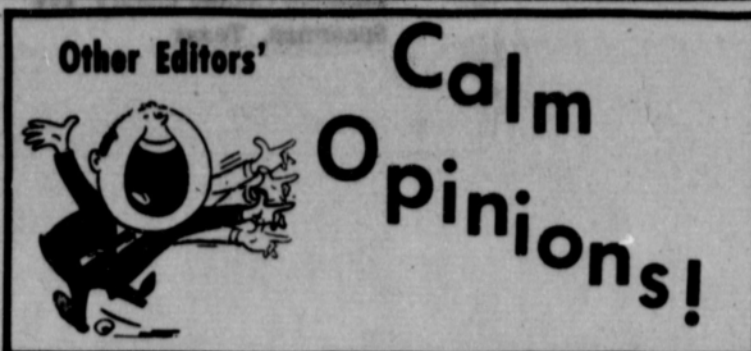

Two simple steps would do much to keep it looking like the main street of a growing, prosperous town, not the main street of a dying community. The street should be cleaned at least twice a week and lines put on the pavement for an established parking pattern.

The parking pattern is the biggest problem faced on the street. Anytime there are many cars on the street, many badly needed parking places are wasted because everyone parks to suit himself. This careless habit of parking wastes as much as a third of the available space on the street through parking in the middle of a space wide enough for two cars and parking at a wrong angle.

We know the city cannot find or afford enough employees for all the tasks. However, first impressions on prospective business owners, residents, and customers when they see our Main Street can be valued in dollars and cents. We believe this important job of caring for the street should have high priority in city work plans.

Are We Proud?

- We ALL claim we are PROUD to be AMERICANS.
- But we turn around and....
- FAIL to take an active interest in the running of our government by not even voting....
- FAIL to take advantage of the freedom of religion by not going to church....
- FAIL to use our right of free speech by not voicing our opinions on important issues....
- FAIL to appropriately honor those who have died throughout the years protecting our claim to freedom....
- FAIL to teach our children that pride in our flag and country is of vital importance....
- FAIL to abide by God's law of conduct and almost completely ignore the many laws of man....
- FAIL to maintain a family unit which is so vital to any way of life....
- FAIL to participate in many of the projects which make our children grow into better men and women....
- FAIL to fully support our schools so that our future generations can be better educated....
- FAIL to be tolerant of the other fellow's beliefs, religion, race or color....
- FAIL to assume the responsibility of leadership in our churches,

Troy Martin in Canyon News
The school board at Stinnett last week bitterly complained that the school patrons of that community did not understand a particular situation because they were not in possession of all the information which the board had at its disposal.

The reason the patrons did not have the information was simply that the board had been holding closed sessions and had denied them that information.

We realize that there are times when a closed session of a board or committee is very nearly necessary.

However, a closed meeting of a board or committee handling tax funds should be convened only for the gravest reason and then for the shortest duration possible. All decisions should be made in public.

Capricious calling of closed meetings of such groups can be a dangerous infringement on the public's right to know.

BILL OF RIGHTS

Thankfully, common sense appears likely to prevail in the U.S. House of Representatives. Nearly 150 proposed amendments to the U.S. Constitution would allow school prayer and other officially directed religious observances. Considerable organized pressure on behalf of these mischievous efforts to tamper with the Constitution and establish state religion seems to have failed.

Tipoff of the failure comes from several quarters. A Maryland congressman who opposed amending the Constitution won easily last week over an opponent who made school prayer a campaign issue.

Religious and civic groups around the country have refused to be stampeded, and have gone on record against the amendments.

Most significant, Rep. Frank Becker (R., N.Y.), who sponsored the leading proposal to amend, has been hunting signatures of other representatives on a discharge petition that would take his measure out of the judiciary committee and put it before communities, state and nation....

FAIL to honor our ancestors who have made this country the great nation it is....
FAIL utterly to follow through on our own claims that....

Big BIG JOHN

Governor John Connally's resounding re-election to a second term has left even his most staunch supporters dumbfounded. While most observers expected the Governor to beat out Houston Attorney Don Yarborough fairly easy, few if any of us anticipated the record vote of confidence given Governor Connally on May 2.

By the same token, few of Texas' great governors of the past have deserved this solid support more than does Governor Connally. There is every reason to believe he will serve our great state as capably and admirably as in his first term.

Such an overwhelming victory as scored by the Governor makes us pause to wonder, though, if recent legislation limiting the governorship to two two-year terms for one man is best for Texas? Perhaps a more educated answer to this question might be provided at the end of Governor Connally's second term.

Seniors Feted At Party After Graduation

Members of the graduating Spearman High School senior class were entertained Tuesday night by a progressive all-night party.

The graduates began the night in the home of Mrs. Robert Brandt. The members enjoyed "midnight snacks" and home made ice cream along with many games being played. Ping pong was played in the backyard, but the long forgotten rain interrupted many enthusiastic players.

As the night proceeded, the members then adjourned to the home of Eddie Martin for breakfast. The group enjoyed bacon, eggs, and toast before setting out for the trip home.

The members spent many hours just remembering many memories they had shared through the years. Then as the sun began to rise the graduates began their journey home over muddy roads.

Day By Day

Amidst a heavy downpour of rain that lasted almost all weekend, my admiration of pioneer women really soared.

It happened this way. Here we were, camped out in a tent at the lake waiting for the clouds to blow on over (in their usual way). As we encountered things like scrubbing greasy skillets in cold water, hanging out wet clothing in preparation for the next change and brushing windblown hair into a "Ma Kettle hairdo" to keep it out of our eyes, I couldn't help but think of hardy female pioneers who lived with such inconveniences and worse everyday.

A few inconveniences are taken lightly when you break away from your luxury-filled routine for a day or two, but what if you had to live without electricity, running water, telephones and the like, all the time.

I'll tell you what, if the necessity arose, I guess we'd have to make the transition but it would take a sight more than three days to get used to it.

Camping out is really more fun than I make it sound. Mostly it was that deluge of rain that made it a little unpleasant at times.

After all the dirty, dry months this county has experienced though, I'd be the last to wish it wouldn't rain, wherever I might be.

The Lions Club members entertained their wives at the annual installation banquet Tuesday evening and it was a very enjoyable and entertaining affair.

During the evening, I heard one couple say to another, "Wouldn't you know it, the only game we've missed all year and Mike got his first major league hit tonight."

Believe you me, if you aren't involved in Little League baseball in the summertime, you're sure on the outside looking in.

I understand the Jaycees will stage a game Saturday evening to benefit the Little League which is running in the red. This will probably be entertaining and is without a doubt, for a good cause.

Midge Being Studied Now

The "recreational" activities of the sorghum midge are under close scrutiny by Texas A&M University scientists.

James Harding, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station entomologist, has taken 113 grass samples to date from fields over the South Plains. These samples are being held in the laboratory at the South Plains Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. Harding checks the samples constantly for possible early midge emergence from the plant heads.

Willing cooperation of electrical power companies on the South Plains has allowed placement of 28 sticky, insect traps on power poles in a nine-county area. Counties are: Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Terry, Lynn and Garza.

Harding says weekly grass samplings, along with checking of the insect traps on power poles, will give an insight into "why" and "how" the midge attains such damaging numbers to reduce yields of August-blooming grain sorghum.

A few adult midge began emergence during the middle of May and are suspected of depositing their eggs in available grass hosts. Study of the grass samples will determine this in the near future. In contrast to early reports of midge activity, it is believed these are the first midge out. There are several orange, "midge-like-creatures" on the High Plains that are not sorghum midge, but greatly resemble them, says the entomologist.

Several "allies" in the fight against the sorghum midge have been found this year. Two wasp-like parasites of the diapausing midge larva have been obtained from midge-infested sorghum florets. An external mite has also been found living on adult sorghum midge.

Milk Foods Plentiful

"June is Bustin' out all over." And milk and dairy products are "bustin' out," too, for "June Dairy Month," reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The normal seasonal abundance of such items as cottage cheese, cream and milk is expected again this year. And both cheese and milk production rank above last year.

Also, look for plentiful supplies of beef; early summer vegetables, especially onions; and canned pink salmon.

Beef in abundance is expected to continue on into June, with about 6 percent more fed cattle reaching marketable weight during this quarter, than in the same period of 1963, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture whose Marketing Service compiles the monthly plentiful foods list.

Seasonal increases of vegetable supplies from commercial producing areas also are anticipated. Such items as onions, leafy greens, green beans, radishes and sweet corn are expected to be plentiful.

Unusually good catches of pink salmon in Alaska, Washington and Oregon during the last three years have enabled processors to accumulate large supplies of canned salmon. Retail prices are particularly favorable now.

Booker T. Washington, the negro educator, was entertained at a luncheon in the White House by President Theodore Roosevelt, on Oct. 18, 1901.

Homemaking Notes

by Linda Webb

Home Demonstration Agent

The County 4-H Bake Show was held Friday, May 29 in Gruver. We had a very good contest, with lots of nice baked products made by the 4-H members. Look for the details elsewhere in this paper.

Information has now begun coming to my office about the 1964 "Make-It-Yourself With Wool" Contest. Any girl between the ages of 10-21, who sews, is eligible to enter this contest every year. There are three separate divisions which you may enter: 1) Sub-Deb, ages 10-13; 2) Junior, ages 14-17 years; and 3) Senior, ages 18-21 years. Three girls from each division will be eligible to compete from Hansford County in the District Finals in Lubbock Dec. 12.

There is also an adult division, for women over 21 years of age. The adult is eligible only for district and state competition, and only one adult from the county may compete in the district finals.

More information will be given later on, but I hope we will have more interest in this contest this year than has been shown in the past. Entry blanks and detailed information are both available at the County Extension Office. Come in and see us anytime.

June is "Dairy Month", and the normal seasonal abundance of such items as cottage cheese, cream and milk is expected again this year. Look for these plentifuls in the dairy case at your favorite store, and help make every month "dairy" Community attending State 40H Roundup at Texas A&M University. We hope we will have some good news to report about these teams next week after their competition in the state 4-H contests. However, win or lose at State, we feel

Year Will Be Record For Irrigation Wells

The demand for irrigation wells has slowed in the past two weeks, but this year is going to exceed past years by many wells.

Applications have already been submitted for 150 new wells as of noon Monday. Drillers have completed 68 of these wells and 82 permits are still pending.

Office Secretary Dallasene these 4-H'ers are winners anytime in our county 4-H program, month" at your house; Milk products are good and good for you.

As you read this column this week, the county agent and I will be with four 4-H demonstration teams from Morse

Martin Van Buren was the first President born in the USA.

Reynolds, said the number of applications filled during the past two weeks have slowed slightly. However, she attributes this to farmers not being able to get the new wells in time for this year's mile and the fact that most have been busy at other tasks.

According to the records of the water district office here there are 509 farm irrigation wells in the county completed, 91 applications are still pending and there are 21 city or industrial wells for a possible total of 620 wells.

Nine of the pending applications are from last year. Miss Reynolds said some of these probable have been drilled, but the owners just have not brought the drilling logs to the office so the well can be marked completed.

Mrs. Richardson credits his love for golf with the fast recover of Phillip's leg. Doctors had predicted a long period of therapy for the leg, but the boy would not stay off the golf course. He played with the leg in a cast and in a brace.

MUD PUDDLES

THEY HAD BEEN told to stay out of the mud and away from the water. "If you play in the water you will get wet." Mother had warned them. But the mud and water had an attraction for Ann and Andy.

Andy saw the chunks of mud the truck had rolled up. What fun they could have with rolls of mud. The longer they looked the greater the temptation. Soon they were wading in water.

Unfortunately, Andy and Ann were so taken up with their mud fun that they forgot to be careful. Ann's foot slipped. Water poured into her boot. It was a dripping Ann who arose from the water as she slipped. Andy too was muddy on coat and trousers.

When Mother called Andy he had a guilty feeling. It was not only his hands and clothes that were dirty. He had disobeyed his mother.

Ann and Andy had to put on clean clothes. They were glad to think of something besides wet clothes, "I know", Ann said, "you can't play with water & mud and not get dirty & wet."

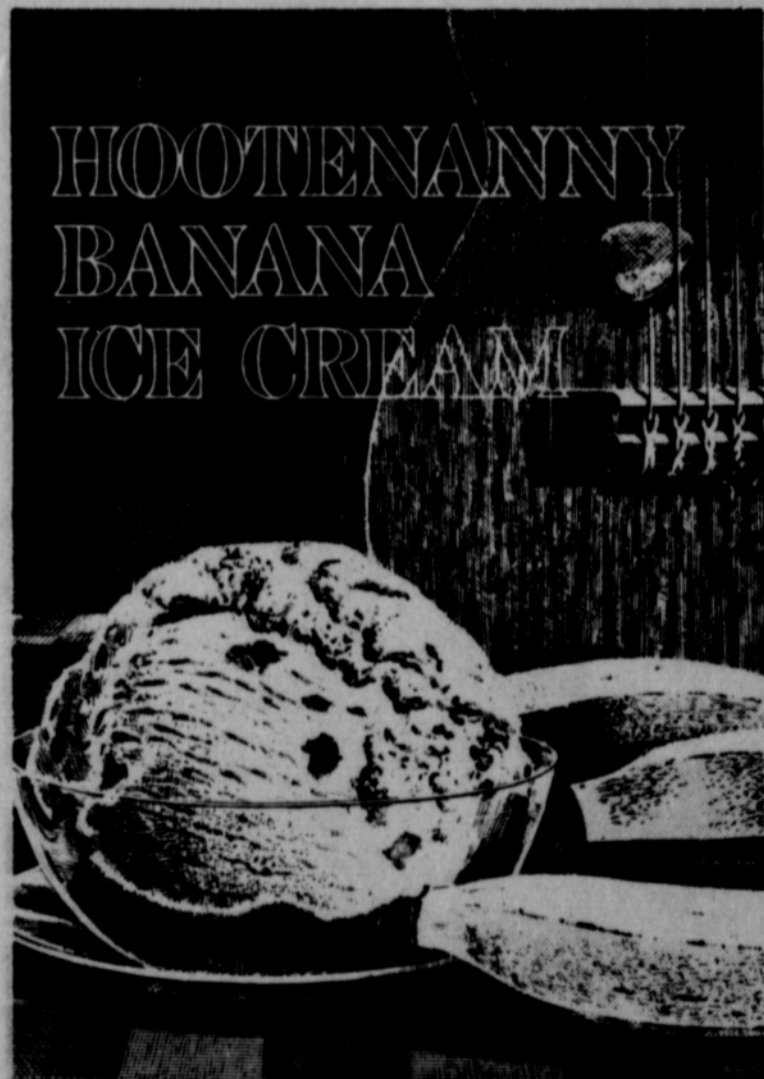

Mother said, "Yes, and you can't play with sin without being soiled by sin."

God's Word has much to say about the danger of "playing with sin." I Thessalonians 5:22 says "Abstain from every form of evil."

Romans 12:0 reads, "Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good."

James 1:27 states "Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this...to keep oneself unstained from the world."

Dear friends, you yourself can't keep unstained, unspotted. We love to play with the mud of sin. But the Lord sent you the Holy Spirit to guide you. Call upon Him for divine power to keep yourself unstained, and to watch out for the mud puddles of Satan.

THE TALL TEXAN

For the past few weeks and for the next year, the Spearman School Board is studying ways and means of establishing an industrial arts or vocational shop program in the high school.

This is one of the expansion ideas being studied by the board to meet future needs of the growing school. Max Baggerly introduced this idea into the package and is the promoter of the idea.

This is probably one of the most needed additions to the school there is. Industrial arts, which includes several kinds of shop work and mechanical drawing opens up many new fields of work and interests to students.

We were lucky enough to go to a small high school with a good industrial arts department. That one department led many students in to well paying positions. Many of the students went on to college to develop interests first discovered in industrial arts classes and others went into jobs from high school.

The expansion plan for the school has many proposals. Many of them will get the economic knife, but we hope the industrial arts classes can be added and enlarged over the years.

Everyone should turn out for the softball game Saturday night at the Little League Park. We do not guarantee the quality of the game, but we can guarantee that the money collected will go to help keep the Little League program alive.

The Mule Train has reached the end of a long trip. The people have had a good time, some hardships and gained a million dollars worth of publicity for Spearman and Hansford County.

We wish to say Thanks to the mule skinner for their help to a growing town.

Speaking of a growing town, it now looks as if Spearman is going to get a new motel. It is not official, but understand some out-of-town men have got a reasonable price on a building site and are going to be doing some work here in the near future.

"They can really ask questions and everything you tell them they write down. I wish all my classes were as interested as these men," he added.

The group is accompanied by McFarland, Bill Peters and Sam McFarland, all of the University and Jim Conway, technical school instructor.

Democrats will be deciding on the Representative-at-Large. Incumbent Joe Pool is facing Bob Baker.

Republicans will vote on a Senate nominee, George Bush is opposing Jack Cox.

Three Accidents Investigated

City and county police officers investigated three minor accidents Sunday and Monday.

City officers investigated two accidents Monday involving four vehicles.

One accident happened on 10th near Bernice when a station wagon driven by Jerry Morris of 1004 Haney hit a pick-up driven by Charlie West of 706 Lee.

Terry Morris, a child in the Morris car received a cut on the head and his father, Jerry, received an injured nose.

Monday morning two cars, one driven by Ed Dear of 703 Cotter, and the other driven by Mrs. Eva Adkinson of 211 Hazelwood collided on Main Street.

Officers said Mrs. Adkinson was backing out from the curb when the accident occurred.

Sunday afternoon county officers investigated an accident between two vehicles at the intersection of Highway 15 and FM520. It occurred about 6:30 p.m.

One car was driven by Hartley Simmons Jr., and the other was driven by Hermilo Silva. Simmons received a cut knee and a cut lip.

Turkey-Car Collide on Ranch

A wild turkey and a car collided on the Brainard Ranch in Hutchinson County and a child received a head injury and is under treatment in Hansford Hospital.

A sheriff's deputy who discovered the accident said the wild turkey flew into the windshield of the car and went through, striking the youth on the head.

The Hansford officer brought the youth to the local hospital.

In New Orleans they visited the French Quarter, the largest Cathedral and took a boat trip on the Mississippi, as well as tours of the city. Through Mississippi and Alabama they visited and toured some of the large plantation homes and did much sightseeing at Pensacola, Fla.

The Fisher's report the country was green and beautiful with its huge trees and lovely streams. They encountered some rain on the trip and were overjoyed when they called home and learned it was also raining in Texas.

Enroute they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Sexson at Cache, Okla.

Mrs. Gladys Cunningham of Roswell, N.M. spent from Friday till Wednesday visiting her parents, the J.E. Hadens near Waka and with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Haden and son.
