Home Town Talk by Beddy

It makes our hearts sad and pains our pride mightily to hear some of the expressions going the rounds of Big Spring football fans.

Last year when the Steers were chasing across touchdowns so rapidly you could hardly keep an account of them—oh, boy that was a wonderful team, those were wonderful boys, wonderful coaches. The weather was fair.

Now, when we have a club that really needs encouragement to help it reach the stride that it most certainly can reach, we find that a goodly portion of those erstwhile loyal fans were just fair weather fans—fair weather friends don't amount to much; they're not worth much.

The club of last season could have gotten along all right if no fan ever gave it any encouragement. This year we have wonderful material that is improving rapidly. The Amarillo coach the other day accorded the team the compliment of being a wonderful defensive club against his highly-touted eleven.

But, if you listen long up and down Main street right here in the Steers' home town you'd almost come to believe the Steers really don't live in Big Spring.

That sort of spirit toward a football team gives us a pain of the sort that we imagine a fellow has just as he rushes for the rail the first day out on his first ocean voyage.

We've watched many a football outfit in this country out here, and listen here, if these limber-neck fans and so-called sportsmen will change their tunes and learn what loyalty really means this year's Steer club will do things before the season ends that will cause some mighty big upsets.

Here's the thing. The kind of talk that is being engaged in around here just takes for granted that the Steers haven't got a leg in. When such a feeling is expressed a spirit of that kind comes to pervade the whole town and it gets into the club. The boys get to feeling "well, we're not supposed to do anything, no nobody will be disappointed."

As far as we're concerned this football team of ours is due every bit of our support and encouragement all the time, whether it wins all its games or loses all of them. The boys are being taught their football well. Now, the spirit is what will count. If they get the right spirit they'll go a long way. But, if they become afflicted with the kind of stuff a lot of people right here in their home town are putting out they won't get any where.

We can all have a lot of fun again this season if we will but a lot of guys are doing their best, perhaps unwittingly, to queer the fun.

Murder Plot, Started In San Angelo, With Killing Near Sterling City, Now Near Solution After One Confesses

By SAM ASHBURN

SAN ANGELO—Three men were at the Guaranty Bank corner in San Angelo on mid-afternoon of March 22, 1930. A cattlemen's convention was in progress and the clicking of boots on the sidewalk smothered their conversation.

There is only one river between anything about," said Fred L. Moutray, "and that is the Pecos." It is revealed in a confession made by Moutray to Ranger Captain W. L. Wright of Marfa.

It was on March 25, 1930, that two fishermen trying for catfish near the bridge four miles from Imperial saw the shoulder of a man appear. They had rowed past that spot several times during the day and had seen nothing.

Address Of Roosevelt On Air Tonight

Message Directed Especially At Women Voters Scheduled

Messages were flashed Thursday from James A. Farley, Democratic national chairman, to Roy Miller, state director of the Democratic presidential campaign, and from him to district chairmen and county workers urging that women of Texas be reminded to listen in this (Thursday) evening over radio stations KRLD, Dallas, WACO, Waco, KPRH Houston and KPSS San Antonio to an address by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic nominee.

The address will begin at 9 p. m. Big Spring time and will be delivered especially to women. Party leaders, both national and state, were insistent that individuals do all in their power to have large numbers of women listen to this address.

The suit was ripped off the man's body, the buttons cut from the clothing and a watch removed. Later the companion tossed in the buttons and the watch where the body had been thrown. Only about a half mile from this point on February 25, 1930, the bodies of a woman and a girl were found in the river. It was considered strange at the time by officers that bodies should be found so close together in a river as long as the Pecos. Residents of Imperial reported that a Ford coupe with a hole out of the top was seen to have crossed the bridge about two days before the women's bodies were found.

Colonel Clarence M. Young, department of aeronautics, Department of Commerce, made the principal address. Representatives from San Angelo and Lubbock were invited to attend the session, at which extension of the Big Spring-San Antonio air mail line to Amarillo was to be discussed.

Unemployed men totaled 3,967 in 1931 with a slightly lower figure of 3,329 in 1932. Over a period of two years the total unemployed was set at 7,297.

Recognized charitable forces, which includes American Legion, churches, Community Chest, Salvation Army, county and city, the county and city and the bulk of the expense. In 1931 the two local governments combined gave $10,725.23 toward the sum expended. In 1932 the two governments contributed to the extent of $8,898.26.

Private donations, going largely to the Community Chest, amounted to $7,182.16 in 1931 and $7,543.37 in 1932.

Much charity work, such as giving of clothing and food by private individuals or organizations, is not included in the dollars and cents expended.

Dear Sirs: For 3 months I've been using your pills and am very much pleased with results. I've lost 45 lbs., 6 inches in hips and bust measure. I've taken 6 bottles—one lasting 5 weeks. I had tried to reduce by dieting but never could keep it up but by cutting down and taking your pills I've had splendid results. I highly recommend it to my friends. Mrs. Carl Wilson, Mantol, Mich.

To lose fat SAFELY and PAINLESSLY, take a 10-cent bottle of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—don't miss a one. To hasten results go light on fatty meats, potatoes, cream and pastry—a bottle Kruschen will melt away but a trifling bit of fat. Your health comes first—get Kruschen Bros. Drugs, or any drugstore in America. If not, you'll be satisfied after the first bottle. Money back—adv.

Board Of Education Scares Dismissal

AUSTIN (UP)—The State Board of Education sustained the dismissal of C. C. Williams as a teacher at the South Park independent school district in March. Williams had appealed from the trustees' decision to the state school superintendent who sustained the trustees. Appeal then was taken to the state board of education now in session here.

Williams' discharge was on a charge that he had been making statements derogatory of the school's conduct.

TELLS HOW TO AVOID WINTER MOTOR TROUBLE

DALLAS—Almost human in their ability to obey the will of their owners, modern motor vehicles also have the human attribute of being susceptible to changes in the weather. J. M. Marrian, chief of the technical department, Magnolia Petroleum company, said in warning automobile owners to prepare for winter driving.

"People are warned of the approach of winter and instinctively put on heavier clothing and change their diet to assure their personal comfort and well-being in the cold months ahead," Mr. Marrian said. "Our automobiles need the same kind of care and protection, but they can not provide for themselves. About the only way they can let know they are suffering from the cold is to refuse to start easily on cold mornings and consume more fuel than they have been in the past summer. They have no way of telling us that their working parts are working out and deteriorating rapidly as a result of our neglect. When the symptoms appear much harm may already have been done, so the prudent car owner prepares his car for winter driving at the same time he puts away his straw hat and begins to sleep under a blanket.

"With the approach of winter a complete check-up of the motor car is often advisable and certain mechanical adjustments may be necessary," Mr. Marrian said. "But the first thing to do is to make certain that our automobile is ready in the proper cold weather diet. Gasoline which may have given satisfactory service in summer is better suited for winter use and if often the cause of hard starting, crankcase dilution, loss of power and engine misfire. Magnolia provides in its new Mobilox the added property of Climatic control which assures the highest usable level of performance under winter driving conditions by reason of the preclusion of manufacturing specifications before delivery.

"A change in the grade of the lubricants used is also necessary

Insull Plans Stay In Athens

However, Greek Authorities Say Extradition May Be Obtained

ATHENS (AP)—Samuel Insull, free after a brief detention, said Wednesday he planned to stay here some time.

The Greek minister of interior ordered Insull's rearrest and issued a statement saying the American government could ask for Insull's rearrest and extradition notwithstanding formalities in connection with the Greco-American treaty.

Extradition had not been completed.

The statement added that request for extradition would be considered by the Athens Court of Appeals which would decide whether extradition was justified.

Charges To Be Filed Against Elgin Men

BASTROP, (UP)—Charges probably will be filed against Jasper Glover of Elgin, in the fatal shooting late yesterday of Walter Luedicke, 32, shot and killed during an argument which arose over hunting in a pasture which Glover had leased.

Glover and his son, Esteen, were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Gus Wallace and are being held here. Wallace said the father told him the son was innocent, but this afternoon still had made no written statement. Charges probably will be preferred today, Wallace said.

The argument arose when Luedicke and Bill McWilliams, from whom Glover had leased the pasture, started across the pasture. The two were accosted by Esteen who told them to leave the pasture and were talking to him when the elder Glover came up, bearing a rifle.

After a few words, the shot was fired, the bullet striking Luedicke in the head above the ear, emerging through the shoulder blade.

Literary Digest Poll, In Fourth Week, Totals Nearly Two Millions

Roosevelt increases his lead over Hoover slightly in the fourth week's returns of nearly 2,000,000 ballots from thirty-eight states in The Literary Digest's nationwide Presidential poll, reported in tomorrow's issue of the magazine.

Of the 1,968,935 votes tabulated President Hoover receives 781,431 or 39.7 per cent. Governor Roosevelt receives 1,062,087, or 53.54 per cent, and Norman Thomas 106,353, or 5.36 per cent, of the total cast to date.

Eighteen new states are reported in the current returns. The only one of this in which Hoover is leading is Vermont. Roosevelt is shown capturing the other seventeen—Arizona, Arkansas, Delaware, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah and Wyoming.

The Hoover strength is confined to the six New England states, which he is shown carrying solidly, and New Jersey. Roosevelt is leading in the other thirty-one states from which returns have been received and tabulated so far.

Hoover is indicated gaining strength in California, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island in all of which states he shows increase over his last week's total. Returns from Massachusetts this week show a decrease in his percentage of the total vote there.

In an analysis of "how the same voters voted in 1928" Roosevelt appears to be obtaining more than one-half of his vote from former Republicans in California and Michigan while in the nine other states of Iowa, Kansas, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Wyoming he has more votes from former Republicans than he has from former Democrats.

The same analysis reveals that Roosevelt has increased his lead into Republican ranks of four years ago throughout the nation, gaining 39.64 per cent of his entire strength from former Hoover adherents this week as against 37.93 per cent, in last week's report.

Roosevelt continues to carry California the home state of the President, by a lead of nearly 2 to 1. He is ahead also in his own state of New York by a vote of 155,417 to 145,554.

Calculating the current returns on an electoral college basis, Hoover would receive 57 votes and Roosevelt 456.

Massachusetts leads the Republican column giving 58.09 per cent of its vote to the President, taking the lead from New Hampshire which had this rank last week.

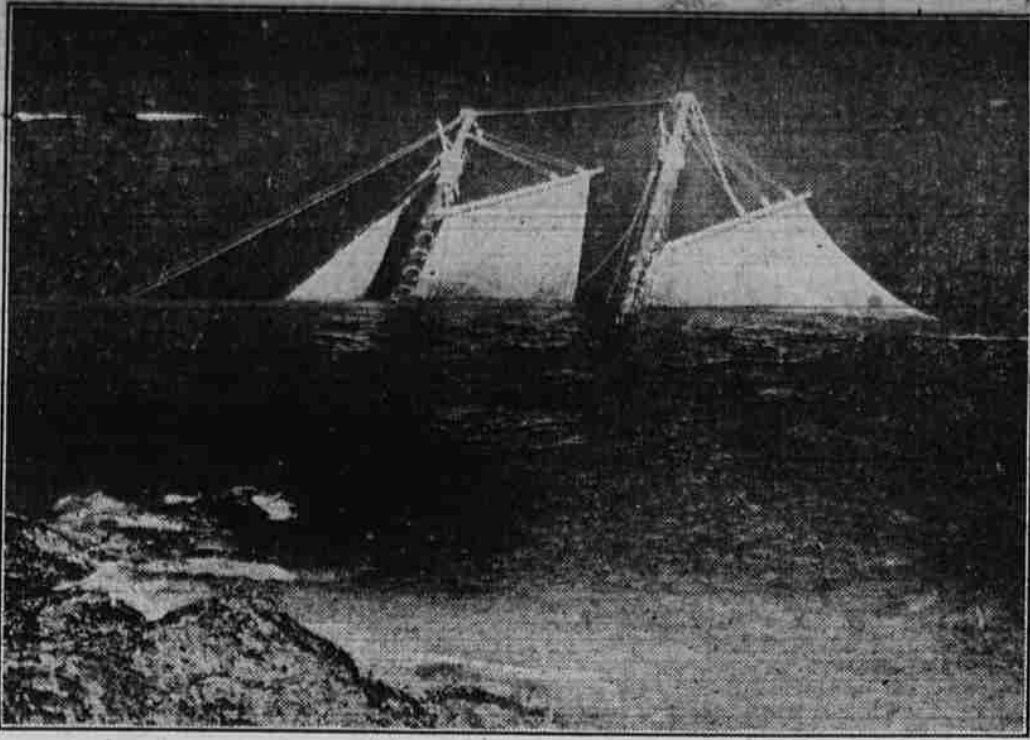

Roosevelt is indicated receiving a clear majority of all votes cast over all six other presidential aspirants in twenty-nine of the thirty-eight states reported this week.

The Literary Digest authors that though the figures this week "are worthy of respectful attention" they are not yet conclusive and that later returns may change the entire complexion of the vote.

"With this week's report" The Literary Digest will state editorially tomorrow, "the Presidential poll reaches the edge of its 2,000,000 mark."

"It embraces thirty-eight states. Eighteen of them are now making their first appearance in the poll. Hoover captures one of the debutantes—Vermont. Roosevelt captures seventeen of them. "We're going to give some searching facts about the Thomas vote, showing the effect of the ballots to the Socialist cause this year—all of which may cause some orthodox Republicans and Democrats to open their eyes."

"Evidently the Socialist candidate is going to poll a very large vote for a Socialist candidate. 'The Thomas' vote, as this week's report is composed as follows: 'Former Republicans 48,945; former Democrats, 24,354; Socialists, 11,547; former Socialist-Laborites, 22; former Farmer-Laborites, 15; former Prohibitionists, 25; former Communists, 80; 'Did Not Vote,' 21,364."

"His percentage of youthful first-voters who presumably dominate the 'did-not-vote' column is 20.09. Hoover's is 12.90. Roosevelt's is 14.46. 'Youth gives Thomas one-fifth of his ballot-strength. 'His percentage of gain from the Republican votes is 46.02. Roosevelt's is 39.64. Thomas' percentage of gain from Democratic ballots is 22.90. Hoover's is 5.87."

"Some of his followers are beginning to discuss the chances of his polling a couple of million votes, or more, on election day. In the 1928 election he polled 267,420 votes to Hoover's 21,392,190 and Smith's 15,018,413."

"Rocke-ribbed New England, with the Green Mountain State filling its last gap, stretches its rugged hands to New Jersey and those seven stand firm as the Hoover Old Guard."

"Just now they haven't an ally in the whole country, but perhaps next week's tabulation will bring them a few. It may even change the complexion of some now in the Roosevelt column."

Eight Charged After Rioting In Oklahoma

Eighteen Other Strikers Already Had Been Put In Jail

McALISTER, Ok., (UP)—Eight men were arrested on charges of feloniously participating in a riot as a result of a clash between strikers and two non-union miners at the No. 4 mine at Pittsburg. Two men were injured in the fight.

"Peace Justice A. C. Sewell released the accused men on $1,000 bonds each. Previously 18 other strikers had been arrested and brought to the county jail on charges of picketing in defiance of a district court injunction and intimidating miners at Pittsburg."

The eight charged with rioting were Jimmie Bell, Tom Wade, Feliman Perez, A. T. Phillips, George Reed, A. Barroso and Edie Melchner. The charge accused them of assaulting Frank and Karl Herford, non-union miners.

Karl Herford was knocked down without rock, suffering head injuries. His brother fought off the assailants with a pick handle and an auto crank until help came. Bell, one of the accused strikers, was taken to the hospital where physicians reported he was only slightly injured. The strikers had surrounded the brothers' car in front of the union hall at Pittsburg shortly after they left work.

Ducks, Blackbirds Play Havoc In Rice Fields

AUSTIN, (UP)—Ducks and blackbirds are playing havoc with rice fields in south Texas. Their intrusions together with rain damage has reduced probable yields, the state and federal departments of agriculture jointly reported here. The crop is estimated at 8,148,000 bushels based on conditions of Oct. 1, or about 183,000 bushels less than estimated on Sept. 1. The five year average is 8,827,000 bushels.

Throughout The Years She Has Been The Partner Of Famous Men Who Supported Pharmacists

This is pharmacy week—believe it or not. Fire Prevention has almost swallowed it up but it remains Pharmacy Week just the same; and druggists' devotion are celebrating by various displays and reminders of the importance of their trade to the welfare of the public. The history of the pharmacist—dealer in herbs and rare plants—is marked by the unusual, the humorous, the pathetic, and is interwoven with great names, not alone of druggists but of others who have followed or been associated with the profession.

It was a druggist at Yorktown who received the surrender of the British forces. It was a druggist who invented matches. He called them friction lights and his name, John Walker, is cut on a bronze tablet in England at Stockton on Tees and the date of his death, 1827.

Edison was a frequent visitor of drug stores. There he purchased his charcoal and carbon for the first incandescent lamp and there his wife used to take him of evenings to brush him off properly before going to the opera. A druggist, W. A. Speck, collected the greatest Goethe collection in the country and presented it to Yale.

Aid To Detectives

Detectives have called on pharmacists for clues to get them in detecting criminals. A famous woman detective in London told once of a certain lipstick she had used containing an opiate so powerful that the person she kissed went immediately into a coma. She had also another opiate, called Flowers of Sleep, which she sprinkled over flowers in her room, and induced a coma by this method that lasted long enough for her to search a brief case. What a pity Shakespeare did not know about this when he wrote Romeo and Juliet.

Flowers For Druggists

A list of the flowers and well known plants that furnish the druggist with his powders and supplies would surprise a modern who thought herbs were old fashioned. They include: larkspur, mustard, castor bean, flaxseed, caraway, psyllium, oranges, cotton, cascara bark, Job's tears, tansy, sinning, chamomile, spearmint, belladonna, acornite, digitalis, commonly known as foxglove, calcium and even the local cactus.

Going as far back as Exodus in the old Testament, which contains a recipe for perfume, and to King Tut's tomb, in which was found an alabaster vase to which the scent of perfume still clung, woman has always been a customer of ner-chants selling perfumery supplies, and men have not been far behind her.

In 1770 an attempt was made to change human nature in this respect and to hang a woman for a witch who smelled too much of perfume and used it to entice a man into marriage. Other enticements were: powder, cosmetic, washes, artificial teeth, false hair, iron stays, high-heeled shoes and bustles. Apparently wives were exempt.

The day of perfume as big money-making institution passed and laundries came in, when Beau Brummel, famous English dandy, revolted against the idea of drenching his underwear with perfume and decided to send it to the laundry regularly to be sun-dried.

Some famous extravagant customers of shops which sold perfumes were: Napoleon, who used 60 bottles of Eau de Cologne a month; King George IV, of England, whose bills for perfume were frequently $2500; Nero, who spent $200,000 alone on roses and perfume.

Once in Italy—that was back in 1709—when a plague broke out, the inhabitants of the town protected themselves with aromatic oils. They had the bricks of their house rubbed with it.

The prize for absurd cosmetics goes to the ladies of the Roman Empire; they ordered pharmacists, or whatever they called druggists, to send them out crushed flies' feet for making their eyes beautiful. They rubbed this concoction on their eyelids.

In spite of all the hangings and that has been done and said against the painted woman: she and her haunts (the drug store and with her the man who is dependent on his masculine cosmetics. Who can blame the drug stores when the total business of cosmetics amounts to two billion dollars a year?

C. T. Watson and R. F. Shoemaker are in Dallas on a business trip.

Poor Lo Disappears
M. K. SNIFFEN of Philadelphia, Secretary of the Indian Rights Association, probably would appreciate a walking walk against which to pour out his soul on the subject of the decadence of Indian customs and ceremonies.

Mr. Sniffen, just back from Alaska where he investigated the condition of the tribes there, says that Sitting Bull would probably roll over in his grave if he could see some of the effects modern civilization is having on his tribesmen. Gone is the war cry. Gone is the war dance. Gone, too, is the chief in full regalia. All, according to Mr. Sniffen, is lost. The modern Indian works in factories or lifts the soil. The nearest approach to war paint is the rouge on the cheeks of the Indian flappers.

Po Lo, however, has seemed to thrive on civilization. Our Indian population has jumped from 250,000 forty years ago to 345,000 today, thereby disproving the popular fallacy that Poor Lo is vanishing. He is vanishing as a tribesman, as a hunter and warrior; but in his place is the modern Indian apt to be well educated, sure to be interested in automobiles, and airplanes and sports. The Indians' civilization has gone, but the Indian himself is still around in great numbers, much improved culturally.

After all is said and done, Uncle Sam has done pretty well by his American nephews.

MURDER PLOT—

Moutray. She is Mrs. "Cowboy" Decks of San Marcos with whom Moutray had been friendly while he was in the oil field. Moutray lived in the rear of Mrs. Allen's hotel in McCamey. Mrs. Allen's former husband was a commissioner from Upton County until he became involved in minor difficulties. The officers learned that Moutray had been in the city on March 22, 1930, and that he appeared at his old residence in McCamey at 10 o'clock on the morning of March 23, 1930, and that he had ridden around in a strange auto, which was described as being similar to that of Poland's car. With him was a girl and they visited some liquor establishment. Moutray became a little talkative and paved the way for his final arrest. The underworld has its grapevine system but the law has one equally effective.

Moutray had been sent to the penitentiary from Houston for robbery in 1928. He was pardoned in 1930 by Governor Miriam Ferguson. He was finally arrested several months ago in Tulsa, Okla., and returned to the Ector County Jail. Officers had just missed catching him in Thayer, Kan., and Hammond, Ind.

Mrs. Decks received a letter from a Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Thayer, Kan. Moutray had been sent to the penitentiary with Miller. The letter asked that Moutray's trunk be shipped to them at Thayer, Kan. When he was finally arrested, Hecker Webb, sheriff of Ector County, Ranger Sergeant Warren Smith and Jim Rooney, ranger, brought him back.

Moutray says that a woman planned the robbery and that another man whom he had known in the penitentiary, killed Poland and that he (Moutray) was not present at the time of the crime. Moutray says that his companion had been in McCamey about a month before the slaying occurred and that the man came there in an old Ford car which was given to a woman in McCamey. This woman has told Captain Wright that she has since sold the auto. The gift of the car was made after the murder and when Moutray and his companion were trying to get away. In his confession Moutray said that he is 39 and that he was born at Guthrie, Okla., and that his people live in Baytown, Texas. He said that he met the man who later on killed Poland on the streets of McCamey and that there they renewed an acquaintance begun in the penitentiary in 1922 and 1924. The other man was without funds and hungry and Moutray took care of him. On March 19, 1930, the two men came to San Angelo in Moutray's Ford roadster. The first night they stayed with a garage man who resides in the eastern part of the city but whose name Moutray can not recall. The next night they slept on the banks of the river and for breakfast they went to the Riverside Cafe. There they met the woman who asked Moutray if he was looking for a job, saying that she had a "fast proposition". She said, Moutray contended, that there was a Jew in town who had lots of money and wanted to know if he was interested in robbing him.

Moutray acquiesced but said he had a companion who might be interested. Moutray said that he went to the Walker Hotel and made arrangements with the woman for her to meet his companion on the lawn of the First Presbyterian church on the morning of March 21, 1930. They asked him, Moutray, states, to participate in the job but he refused, but consented, he added, to permit his companion to use his auto. His companion had told Moutray, the confession says further, the job could not be done unless Moutray offered the use of his car to his companion and the woman.

The Plot

He said their plan in brief was as follows: The woman and Poland were to leave the Walker hotel at seven o'clock the morning of March 22, 1930 and go north toward Lubbock, and that Moutray's companion in Moutray's car were to follow the pair and rob them on the road. She was to suggest that they drive up a side road, where she would get out of the car and then a man in a car following could do the robbing. He was to tie both of them fast, lay them on their backs, but she was to be tied easily so that she could free herself. Then they were to come back to town and split the money. Moutray says that Poland who had been staying at the Roberts, did as he was scheduled, drove to the Walker, picked up the woman and started north. Moutray said that he and his companion drove down to the Walker, that they saw a porter bring the woman's baggage out, place it in Poland's car and Poland drove off. Moutray said he got out and did not see his companion again until about two o'clock when he met him at the Guaranty Bank corner, Chadbourne and Twigg. Before he saw his companion he saw the woman in the street walking down the street. A few minutes later he said his companion drove up in Poland's car and said that he had done a bad job, that he "had to kill the Jew" that when he drove up alongside the car that the woman was out on the ground, but that Poland reached for his gun when he told him to give him his money.

How Many Shots

Moutray lacks any information to the number of times that Poland had been shot and did not know what became of Poland's gun. The car with the dead body in the back end stayed parked on the street two hours until Moutray and his companion decided to go to the Peecos, driving about 175 miles. Moutray said that he drove his own car and that his companion drove Poland's car. They went through Mertzon, Barnhart, Big Lake, Texon, Rankin, McCamey, crossed the river at Clewin and drove up the Peecos 30 miles before they threw the body out. In McCamey they stopped at a booze place, owned by a woman named Myrtle and bought a pint of liquor. In McCamey Moutray's car was abandoned. When they got to the brick near Imperial after driving over irrigated lands they both lifted Poland's body out of the car. The companion took his pocket knife and cut the clothes of Jim. Moutray had hold of his feet, the other man held his arms and threw him in the river. They stayed there for about an hour and the night was dark. They tried not to leave a trace of any of Poland's possessions there. They got back to McCamey about dawn. Moutray slept until noon, while his companion, Moutray says, awoke him at twelve and offered him a drink of liquor which he took. Moutray says he gave a woman by the name of Willie Mae ten dollars of the twenty that his companion gave him for his aid.

Little Money

He said that his companion swore that the murdered man had little money. The confession, but those who know Poland declare that his hidden pockets were perhaps filled with greenbacks and that in burying his clothes on the banks of the Peecos they also burned a good deal of money. While in McCamey Moutray says that he visited friends and they all took a drink together and that he became very, very, intoxicated and went to a closet and hid a great deal of money. On March 14 the confession reads that he and his companion left in an auto for Del Rio via Ozona. Near Juno they discovered that Poland's car were yet in the car and threw them out at the side of the road. In Del Rio they stayed a tourist camp and spent a day at Villa Acuna, got intoxicated again and went on to San Antonio. They fled next to Wichita Falls where they obtained a Kansas license for Poland's auto. The car had borne an Arkansas license. In Ponca City they stopped and asked about a tank building job then went to Thayer, Kan. They encountered a Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Miller with whom Moutray had served time in a penitentiary. The Millers found the mysterious woman in the case, who is not yet arrested and she told Moutray and his companion that they had better get out of the country that they were wanted in Texas. In Thayer, Kan., they burned Poland's five other suits of clothes and his suitcase, advanced into Chicago and then went to Hammond, Ind., where Moutray got employment on a tank job. There Moutray said that he parted company with his companion, who said he was going to the Pacific Northwest.

Officers To Washington

Ranger Captain W. L. Wright and Jim Rooney left this week for Walla Walla, Wash., where they claim Roger Thompson, former convict, on a grand jury indictment in 12th district court in Peas county. The officers are making the trip by auto. It is not likely that Moutray will be tried in Peecos county as the incoming Tom Green county grand jury will have Moutray before it and the Sterling Co. district court may investigate the matter. In the meantime, the woman has not been arrested, though her identity is well known and she has been indicted. This woman was given a five-year sentence for robbery with firearms on July 26, 1920, and once escaped from the penitentiary. Again she was questioned for theft of diamonds in Oklahoma City.

Federal Agricultural And Cattle Refinancing Funds Ready In Texas

FORT WORTH, (UP)—Federal funds for the refinancing of Texas Cattle raising and agriculture were available at the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation here.

A total of $3,000,000 was deposited in the national treasury by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to the credit of the regional relief bank.

A. E. Thomas, executive vice-president and manager of the "Farm and Cattle" bank, deposited $2,000,000 in the Federal Reserve in Dallas. He anticipates $1,000,000 will be sufficient for immediate loans. Meanwhile the $2,000,000 portion will be earning interest.

"We are now ready to loan money for cattle feeding and other agricultural purposes," Thomas said. He pointed out, however, the loans would be made only in instances where usual sources of credit are not available.

Over 100 applications for loans have been received at corporation headquarters here. Three have been approved subject to inspections. Other applications have been received at Houston and San Angelo branch banks.

Thomas, who resigned as vice-president of the Continental National bank here to give attention to the relief work, could not say when the first loan will be finally approved.

SPORTS ON PARADE

By CURTIS BISHOP

According to the best information we can secure it has been a very long time, if ever, since the Stanton High Buffaloes won a football game from the Big Spring Steers. Our informant says that in 1925 or 1926 the Buffaloes, with a much stronger team, defeated Stanton 15 to 12, and that the Buffaloes led at the half 12 to 0. A still later game resulted in a 12 to 0 win for the locals. Last year the Bristowmen ran roughshod over the Bisons 46 to 0.

Both teams are weaker than in 1931. Stanton is, we believe, more so in comparison. But this year the Steers do not possess an offensive club. Their strength is a stubborn defensive game. Stanton was outplayed by Roscoe in a 0 to 0 tie. Big Spring defeated Roscoe 24 to 0 and if Obie Bristow's cohorts play as ragged Friday as against the Plowboys the Steers will be empty by the third quarter.

So with all of this dope in front of us we are ready for the weekly (or weekly) prediction. Dope points to a forty or more point victory, that is if the Buffaloes are really as good as they showed up in Amarillo. But thirty-one points is enough, and Stanton has no right to score any. The home field scoreless record that was begun in 1930 and lasted throughout 1931 should be held intact until Oct. 20 when it no doubt will be rudely broken. That's the disadvantage of playing

Sir Basil Zarahoff, Anglo-Greek Multimillionaire, Enters Insull Case Via Series Of Cablegrams

By HARRISON SALISBURY

United Press Staff Correspondent CHICAGO - The international melodrama that followed the billion dollar crash of the utilities kingdom of Samuel Insull depended today when the shadowy figure of Sir Basil Zarahoff, wealthy and mysterious Anglo-Greek financier, entered the picture.

What part this latest revelation will play in the complicated story of the sensational collapse of the house of Insull in America's greatest commercial failure was yet unknown.

The name of Zarahoff entered the widespread Insull investigation in a manner typical of the little-known European who has been credited with being one of the half dozen wealthiest men in the world.

While police were detaining the worn and aged Insull in Athens, Greece, where he had sought refuge from criminal indictments returned against him here, 300 cablegrams were placed before the Cook county grand jury.

His great influence, it is stated, was the chief reason for the Insull investigation, might enable the Chicagoan to delay or avoid extradition from the Mediterranean country.

Whether an appeal was made to Zarahoff, however, was not revealed.

Solution of the mystery first by newspapermen and later by the sender, linked the name of Zarahoff to the Insull investigation. Texts of the cablegram addressed to Samuel Insull, Jr., at Milan, Italy was:

"Porter (an attorney) says although no treaty with Greece, government might on request surrender as matter of policy. Suggest seeing Zarahoff immediately if you think wise."

The suggestion to see the mysterious Greek who has been called "the sleeping partner of war" due to his vast mysterious interests was made in connection with the advice that despite lack of an extradition treaty with Greece, that government might turn Insull over to United States authorities.

It was believed by State's Attorney John A. Swanson who sequestered the cablegram and three others for presentation to the grand jury that young Insull who is acquainted with Zarahoff planned to ask him to use his powerful influence with the Greek government in Insull's favor.

CHICAGO - Secret testimony that indicated Samuel Insull, Sr. received $500,000 a year in salary from his utilities empire was made public today.

The testimony was given in chambers before Federal Judge Walter C. Gandy last July at a hearing to determine how much Edward N. Hurley and Charles A. McCulloch should receive as receivers for the Middle West Utilities company.

Present, besides Judge Gandy and court aides, were: Oliver E. McCormick, vice-president and treasurer of Middle West; David A. Crawford, Pullman company official; Silas Strawn, Chicago attorney; other Chicago business men.

McCormick said he understood that Insull, Sr.'s salary totaled $500,000. Salaries of other officials of Insull companies, according to the testimony, were: Martin J. Insull, president of Middle West, $100,000 a year; Samuel Insull, Jr., (part time executive) $10,000; Harry Reid, president of the National Electric Power company, $50,000; Walter S. Wyman, president of New England Public Service company, Augusta, Maine, $54,000; Marshall B. Sampson, president of two Illinois operating companies, $35,000; McCormick, $14,000.

Before the receivership, Middle West's payroll was $630,000 a year. Later it was cut to $260,000. The receivers were given drawings account of $4,000 each a month. Insull got $8,000 for the two months while he was a co-receiver.

Other facts cited at the hearing were that the Middle West Utilities company had $150,000,000 in assets, had 122 subsidiaries, an annual business of $150,000,000 among 1,800,000 customers and that there were 381,000 stockholders.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Curtis and John Hardaway of Abilene were visitors in town Wednesday.

Fort Worth Appraisal Of Gas Distributing System Ordered Made

FORT WORTH (UP)—Appraisal of the Lone Star Gas company's system here, another step toward municipal gas service, was ordered by Fort Worth's city council.

Evaluation of the system will require 30 days, engineers said. A. B. Vickery, supervisor of public utilities, estimated value of the Lone Star's system here at $4,080,000.

The council's action followed a district court decision Monday which denied the Lone Star's plea for an injunction to block the municipal ownership plan.

Militia Is Asked After Picket Row

Two Deputy Sheriffs And Farm Woman Injured In Scuffle

HOWARD LAKE Minn. (UP)—Wright county officials left Wednesday to ask Governor Olson to order out militia after two deputy sheriffs and a farm woman had been hurt in a scuffle at the stock yards.

Pickets estimated at several hundred attempted to prevent unloading of live stock from trucks. Miss Zefma Chadd plans to visit in Dallas this week-end. She will meet her brother, Knox, who is now a student in Oklahoma university.

Billions To Fight Unemployment Plea Of Socialist Candidate

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah. (UP)—With the cry "we raised billions to fight a war why not raise billions to fight unemployment," Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for president, presented last night a program to combat the depression.

"There should," Thomas declared, "be a federal maintenance wage. Every worker and his family is entitled to maintenance, some may protest that is a dote. Be honest with yourselves. The tariff which you prize so highly—isn't that dote? Isn't the reconstruction Finance Corporation a dote for railroads and banks? Wasn't the $90,000,000 Charles Dawes got for his bank a dote?"

Other points in Thomas' program included a five-day week and six-hour day; controlled inflation; abolition of child labor, old age pensions beginning at the age of 60 and a huge building program which would include highways and bridges.
