THE TALL TEXAN

Glen Cunningham held some 200 young people and a few adults in the palm of his hand here Saturday night as he spoke at the Christ For All Crusade.

Cunningham, who held the indoor mile record for 21 years, told the young people how he had been able to overcome crippling burns as a child to become the world's greatest miler in the 1930's.

However, Cunningham told the young people that he never found satisfaction in all of his records and victories, his education, a Phd degree, and his success as a teacher at the University of Kansas until he learned to help other people.

That is just what he has been doing since 1946 when he was released from military service. Since that time he has given so much help to needy young people that he has expended all of his money, and has mortgaged his ranch and everything else he owns.

After the meeting Glenn told us he started out planning to just help a few needy children on his ranch each summer.

"I had no idea how many children there are that need help."

He and his family have taken care of 8,200 children in the 19 years since they began their work with young people. They have had as many as 80 children at their ranch at one time.

Some of the large number have been there only a week or two, some have stayed a year or more.

In the first 16 years the Cunninghams and their 12 children were helping needy children, they averaged receiving $62 per year in outside help.

At one time the Cunningham family was without a car for five years because they needed the money to finance their help for children.

The Cunninghams help both boys and girls, but Glenn says he probably leans toward helping girls. He says needy and emotionally upset girls just compound the bad situation if they do not get help.

When their home life is bad, the first thing girls want to do to get away from it is get married. Most of them marry into situations that just create more unstable homes and more needy children.

In recent months a foundation of professional and business people has been set up to help Cunningham raise money to build a youth ranch and keep his work going.

He said he hoped they could raise enough money to get a building put up so they could have a large group of children at the ranch for Christmas.

Cunningham said anyone who would like to help can send their tax deductible donations to the Glenn Cunningham Youth Ranch, Inc., Route 2, Augusta, Kansas 67010.

We were talking to a sports writer this week about Cunningham's work. He said Cunningham was so sincere in SURROUNDED-- Glenn Cunningham, the former world record holder of the mile run, is surrounded by young people after he spoke to some 200 youth at the Christ for All Hootenanny in the Community Building Saturday night. He now has a home for needy children.

Shamrock Bringing Big Line For Final Lynx Football Game

Another big line will be facing the Spearman Lynx this Friday when the Shamrock Irish come to town for the final football game of the year. Kick-off time is 8 p. m.

In the Irish forward offensive wall the two tackles weigh 200 and 220 pounds, and the center weighs 180. On defense the tackles are 153 and 180 and the two guards are 210 and 220. The line-backers are 185 and 170.

Shamrock runs from the I and T with variations. They throw the ball and their quarterback is a lefthanded passer.

The Irish have found the going tough this year. They are on the bottom rung in the district race.

Some new offensive combinations may be used Friday by Spearman. Coach Don Seymour said several boys were being used at different positions this week. The definite changes, if any will not be made until late in the week.

This will be the final game for 10 seniors on the team. The seniors are Harrel Adkinson, Rennie Berry, Mike Babbs, Mart Brillhart, Skipper Robinson, Lynn Buzzard, Dave Clement, Kenneth Shufeldt, Clayton Cochran, and Larry Butts. Butts is injured and has missed the last three games.

Nine of these players have earned either their third or fourth letter this year. Adkinson, who did not begin playing football until his junior year is the only one not having three or more letters with the end of this season.

School Enrollment Gains 16 Students

Enrollment in the Spearman Public Schools has increased 16 students since enrollment in September, Supt. Dr. Bill Reeves told the school board Tuesday night.

The largest increase is in the first four grades where 10 additional students enrolled. The increase is in the first and second grades.

One more student has enrolled in the fifth, three in the sixth and one in the eighth. This is an increase of five in junior high.

The high school enrollment has increased only one.

The enrollment in high school is now 338, junior high 397 and primary 386. Total enrollment is 1121. The enrollment at the first of school was 1105.

The average daily attendance for the schools from Aug. 30, through Oct. 11, was 1,088.77 students.

Supt. Reeves was given the board's approval to go ahead with a new reading instruction program under the PESO federal program.

Under the new federal aid to education program, federal money is made available for the schools to put in new programs to aid educational deprived children.

The funds cannot be used for any existing programs in the school.

Board members spent two hours Tuesday night inspecting the remodeling of the junior high school plant and discussing work to be finished with architect John Work.

The work on the building is complete, except for final touch-up and correcting some minor items the architect and school officials have found since they have been using the building.

After inspecting the work, the board told Work they were pleased with the remodeling.

The board discussed the possible uses to be made of the New Hope school building and the cost of moving the building to Spearman.

The building has to be moved from the Panhandle Eastern plant property by Sept. 1.

Spearman May Not Be Decorated

There is a possibility that Spearman will have no Christmas decorations this year, the Chamber of Commerce Manager Don Floyd said this week.

Repairing and putting the decorations up have become jobs too big for one or two and no one wants to help with the project, so the decorations may not be put up.

The Chamber sent 90 letters to members asking for volunteer help Tuesday night to help make repairs on the decorations and no one answered the request.

Floyd said it will take several nights to get the decorations ready. It is only three weeks until the decorations should be put up.

A second attempt at a work night will be made Monday, Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the Community building. All Chamber members are urged to attend and help get the decorations ready.

The Chamber of Commerce does not have the funds to hire workers to repair and put the decorations up.

Routine Items

Keep Council B&PW Gives New Isolet

Many routine items of business kept the Spearman City Council in session until midnight Monday.

The council discussed the purchase of a new trash truck and the kind needed to handle the increasing amount of hauling the city is doing.

The City Engineer was instructed to draw the specifications for the cleaning and repainting of the water towers.

City Judge T.J. Pittman reported he handled 25 cases in Corporation Court in October. He assessed a total of $754.50 in fines.

After meeting with representatives of the VFW on the operation of the Community Building, Mayor Bob Vaughn appointed a committee of six, three from the city and three from the VFW to work on a satisfactory plan whereby the building can be operated by the city and the VFW.

The isolet incubator for the Hansford Hospital was presented to the hospital Tuesday by members of the Hansford Business and Professional Women's Club.

The B&PW Club has members in both Spearman and Gruver.

The Isolet cost the club $850 and the women have raised over $600 and still have fund raising projects planned. The women have conducted fund raising projects, and raised money through donations of money and trading stamps.

Andy Anderson, administrator of the hospital, said he and the hospital staff deeply appreciate the work the women have done to purchase the badly needed piece of equipment for the hospital nursery.

Mrs. Sam Wysong, Mrs. Leonard Jameson and Mrs. Willard Davis presented the isolet to the hospital.

ISOLET GIVEN- This Isolet for Hansford Hospital was presented to the hospital Tuesday by the B&PW Club. Pictured with the Isolet are Mrs. Sam Wysong, Andy Anderson, hospital administrator, Mrs. Thelma Blevins, supervisor of nurses, Mrs. Willard Davis and Mrs. Leonard Jameson.

Homemaking Notes

By Linda Webb
Home Demonstration Agent

Holidays are right around the corner-or need you be reminded? For those on tight budgets and those on low-calorie diets, the temptations will be equally hard to resist.

Some of your family on reducing diets? They needn't forego the pleasure of taste-tempting foods this year, if you will set before them the following low-calorie (but delicious) treats.

APPLESAUCE PUMPKIN PIE
1 cup canned pumpkin
1 cup unsweetened applesauce
4 tsp. Sucaryl solution
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 1/2 teaspoons nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1/4 teaspoon ginger
4 eggs beaten
1 cup skim milk
1 9-inch unbaked pie shell

Combine pumpkin, applesauce, Sucaryl, salt and spices; blend well. Add beaten eggs and milk, mixing well. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in hot oven-425 degrees.

JELLIED CRANBERRY SAUCE
2 cups raw cranberries
1 cup water
1 envelope gelatin
1/4 cup cold water

2 Tbsp. Sucaryl solution
Combine cranberries and the 1 cup water; cook until skins pop. Soften gelatin in the 1/4 cup cold water. Add cooked cranberries, stirring to dissolve gelatin. Add Sucaryl. Pour into two cup mold. Chill until set.

To make plain cranberry jelly, force cooked cranberries through food mill or strainer; add to softened gelatin and proceed as above.

ORANGE EGGNOG
3 cups orange juice
4 eggs separated
1 tablespoon Sucaryl

1 cup skim milk
Heat orange juice; combine egg yolks and Sucaryl; beat on high speed of mixer until thick and lemon-colored. Gradually add hot orange juice and milk. Beat egg whites until stiff peaks form; fold into egg yolk mixture. Chill.

These recipes prove that foods don't have to be "fattening" to be good, even if you aren't on a diet.

New foods to look for in the market: (1) a new soft-type margarine, packed by the half-pound in plastic tubes, is readily spreadable from the refrigerator or freezer. Made from liquid safflower oil, the new spread is said to have less saturated fat than other spreads.

(2) Corn flakes and blueberries are now cereal-mates. The berries are freeze-dried (quick frozen and then dried under vacuum). With the addition of liquid they regain their original juiciness and flavor. (3) a concentrated fresh fruit drink made of peaches will soon be on the market. To reconstitute the drink, add an equal amount of water to the concentrate. Undiluted it can be used as a dessert topping and in salads.

THE LAST NOTE: Christmas is just around the corner. Those who remember last year's bills may vote to keep it there.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Baggerly Sunday evening were Messrs. and Mmes. Chalmers Porter, Ralph Blodgett, Ben McIntyre, Winfred Lewis and Richard Holton.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex G. Shapley

Miss Jeffries Is Bride Of Rex Gruver Shapley

A morning service, Saturday, November 6 in the chapel of the Gruver Methodist Church united in marriage Miss Marian Jeffries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jeffries of Gruver and Rex Gruver Shapley. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shapley, also of Gruver, are parents of the bridegroom. The Rev. Norman Grigsby, pastor of the church, directed the exchange of vows before an altar arrangement of white candelabra on either side of a lighted picture of Christ. A basket of white gladioli and mums was highlighted with pink ribbons. Fern and candelabra at the piano completed the decoration of the chapel.

Traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Grace Bennett of Gruver.

Mrs. Joe Bob White of Arriba, Colo., attended her sister as matron of honor and Tony Shapley, brother of the bridegroom was best man.

The bride wore a white street-length wool jersey dress designed with short sleeves and a sheath skirt. A band of the same material trimmed the neck and waistline. Her bridal bouquet was an orchid surrounded by stephanotis and white streamers atop a white Bible.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. The serving table was covered with a pink and silver cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake of white highlighted with silver which was made by Mrs. Carter Crawford of Spearman. A silver coffee service and crystal appointments completed the setting.

Mrs. Arnold Beck, sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. Joe Bob White presided at the table. They were assisted by Mrs. James Stedje and Miss Marilyn Stedje.

Guests included immediate members of the families, the couple's grandparents and Miss Laneta Blankenship of Guymon, Okla.

The young couple will be at home at 2902 Third Place, Apt. 9-24 in Lubbock where both are students at Texas Tech. They are both graduates of Gruver High School.

Guests of the J.D. Helms Friday evening for supper were her sister, Mrs. Jim Greenwood, two friends, and children from Canyon. The group were enroute to Perryton to attend the Canyon-Perryton football game. Mrs. Helms and boys accompanied them to the game.

Mrs. Owassa Valdez of Bakersfield, Calif., visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ola Sparks last weekend. Mrs. Valdez is the former Miss Owassa Sparks.

Paralysis Unable To Conquer Artist

Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Miller were in Amarillo Sunday where they attended the art show of his granddaughter, Carolyn Osborne, hung at the old Tascosa Bank Building in Sunset Center.

The show is interesting due to the fact that the artist paints with a brush in her mouth. She is 20 years old and has been paralyzed from the neck down since she was five years old. Her days are spent in a wheel chair and at night she sleeps in an iron lung.

She is a high school graduate having studied at home via two way radio with each class at school. Besides her painting she is able to type by using a stick and an electric typewriter.

She has 40 pictures in the show in Amarillo and has recently had a show at Vega where she sold several of her paintings.

Brocks Host Party Honoring Nelda Sheets

Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Brock were hosts for a dinner recently honoring Mrs. Willis Sheets on her birthday.

Enjoying the delicious dinner were Messrs. and Mmes. Sheets, Dana and Steve, Gene Cudd and Mike, Joel Lackey and family and the J.L. Brocks. The group spent the evening playing games and visiting and opening the birthday gifts.

ART GUILD MEETS

The Arts and Craft Guild met Friday afternoon in the P.A. Lyon home for an afternoon of china painting.

Those attending were Mmes. Freeman Barkley, Fred Hoskins, Jesse Womble, Clay Gibner, Bruce Sheets, Joe Dan Bryan, Garrett Allen and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Nolan Holt.

Short Club Has Luncheon In Baggerly Home

Mrs. Max Baggerly was hostess for the Short Club Tuesday, Nov. 9 for their regular bridge luncheon.

High scorer was Mrs. Bob Skinner, and second high was held by Mrs. Max Baggerly.

Attending were members, Mmes. Henry Cornelius, Oscar Donnell, Tom Etter, Garland Head, Richard Holton, Woody Gibner, Bob Skinner, Virgil Mathews, and guests, Mmes. R.C. Porter, Winfred Lewis, Charles Cox and the hostess.

Day by Day

by Day McClellan

It seemed so far away when they first started the Christ for All Crusade early last summer; but the time has come now.

If you have any doubts that a city-wide revival is needed in Spearman, all you need do is get in your car and come home before church on any Sunday morning. If you are a regular churchgoer, chances are you would be sincerely surprised at just how many people are cleaning yards, washing cars or just at home on Sunday mornings. Most noticeable are the yards full of children who are busily engaged in play, unaware that they are missing anything.

I'm not very perspicuous when it comes to describing the inner joy anyone can find from serving God, but perhaps if you need convincing there'll be people at the crusade who can say what I feel.

When I hear something pleasant about someone, I think it's worth passing on.

Someone called me on Halloween and said Miss Mary Sparks over at the little school store had just called their home in the country. She just wanted to tell their little daughter not to miss her house on her trick or treat route that evening!

Now how's that for a twist on the old theory that Halloween is something we adults endure just for the sake of the children.

You'll notice in an advertisement elsewhere in the paper of the grand opening Friday of Young Fashions, a new store located next door to the Gift Box, featuring top brands in clothing for children up to teens.

This should be a nice addition to Spearman's retail family as well as, of course, one less empty building in our midst.

Wouldn't it be nice if some more of our empty buildings downtown were occupied by businesses again. Empty buildings are fine for rummage sales and the like, but they sure are eyesores.

The way Spearman is growing though and with the tremendous growth in irrigation and agriculture, empty buildings downtown should before long be a thing of the past.

One of my last year's Sunday school students who is now a freshman at Tech sent me word that the Raiders are going to make it to the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day yet!

I guess I'll have to say power to you and I hope you're right. I'm sure not an Arkansas fan.

And, since Spearman has Johnny Crawford, Mike Morris and Jimmy Ownbey down at Tech with the freshmen footballers, I guess I'd be a traitor to be against the Raiders.

So... now am I out of the doghouse for whistling "Wreck Tech"?

I read Arlene Dahl's column Tuesday on tall girls in understanding and amusement. If you are under five feet seven you won't appreciate this but she said "Tall girls, like wine, improve with years. Those extra inches of height she hates at 16, she'll begin to like at 26 and accept as pure blessing at 36."

Besides with Audrey Hepburn, Julie Newman, Ingrid Bergman, Rosalind Russell, Lauren Bacall and a handful of statuesque Miss Americas managing nicely, look what good company she's in!

At 16 and towering over all the boys, being tall isn't much fun. But, up here in girls' basketball country, additional height doesn't seem to bother young girls at all.

Since I can remember being what I thought was much too tall at 16, I'm pleased now when I see even taller young girls who consider their height an asset rather than a detriment.

And besides, now that I've learned to live with being tall, I'm beginning to see it isn't half bad... even if you aren't a basketball player.

Bell said the meeting will be over in plenty of time for persons attending, to go to the crusade services.

Tower and Carr Share FB Talks

DALLAS — Two prominent politicians who could be heading toward a heated statewide contest will share the same speakers' platform here soon. U. S. Senator John Tower and Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr will both appear at the annual Texas Farm Bureau convention Nov. 16 at the Adolphus Hotel. Carr has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination to oppose Tower in next year's election. Should he win the nomination and Tower again be the Republican candidate, they will lock horns in general election campaign.

The two politicians' convention addresses will be one hour apart and will be separated by the appearance of a third guest speaker—one who is non-controversial in Texas politics, Indiana Farm Bureau President George Doup.

The King, the Queen and the executioner were present. Alice and the prisoners, too, of course, but these were all. No jury, no public, no publicity.

No newspaper reporters.

In Alice's Wonderland even applause was "immediately suppressed by the officers of the court."

Not so in America.

In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right of a public trial, says Article the Sixth of the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the United States.

So people may know, newspapers must report these trials.

This is not freedom of the press. This is responsibility of the press.

Newspapers have no extraordinary rights.

People do.

Men have the right to a public trial and the right to know what happens in courtrooms. These are rights written into the Constitution and affirmed by the Supreme Court in 1829 when Mr. Justice Bagley wrote: "It is one of the essential qualities of a court of justice that its proceedings should be public."

If people are to know the truth the newspaper must report the news.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Robert Cordes, pastor
Faith & Oslo Lutheran

We live in an age whose watchword is progress. Proudly we gaze at our accomplishments and believe we have made a happier world than our ancestors. But it is irony that this apparent progress should produce a generation which is dominated by fear as so many of you are. The latest dance craze is many a persons liturgy and their hymns the restless weird rhythms of the jukebox. The world seems mad. Man is puzzled and bewildered, wandering the highways of the world, clinging pathetically and fearfully to the gospel of pleasure or despair.

History repeats itself. 600 years before the birth of Christ, there was an golden age of Isaiah much like ours today. The people had turned the altars of God aside for the altars of pleasure and worlds goods and playthings. The great mass of the people cared little about the future of the nation and less about religion. There was still enough to eat and drink and the clouds of the anger of God gathering on the horizon went unheeded and unseen.

Suddenly in 626 BC God raised a prophet Jeremiah spoke of the doom to come if the people would not listen to the voice of God. Then came a terrible period of captivity-- (read of it in book of Lamentations).

God allowed dark and gloomy days to come to His people. But the Kingdom had to go on. So today the Church Militant must continue until the Church Triumphant comes.

Is this not our greatest need today? We have so little faith, so little hope, so little confidence in God's final victory. We have forgotten the road back to God is the brave road. Hell has produced the view of religion as being something soft and weak.

Hands placed in Christ's hands cannot be soft. Our generation may be soft about many things and reckless. But we walk through life with a safety belt. Christ said 2000 years ago "He that loses his life for My sake shall find it." The courage to lose life for the sake of Christ is our need today. Jesus the crucified & risen is ever near. The road back to God is filled with courage and the Lord's help. Use it!

Natural gas is coming to Morse! For several years various attempts have been made to secure natural gas, but they have always ended in failure. The Morse Lions Club has worked on this project for quite some time and now report success in its venture.

Western Gas of El Paso has entered into an agreement with the school and people of the town to supply natural gas. On Monday the gas committee secured enough signatures and turned the contract over to officials of Western Gas. As soon as the Railroad Commission approves the rates, the company will proceed with plans to pipe the town. Work is to be completed within 60 days following approval by the railroad commission.

This is just one more improvement that can be credited to the Lions of Morse.

Have you noticed the stakes that are placed over the town? According to reliable information, a phone cable will be laid in the near future and Morse can expect better service and some private lines.

'Texas' Will Be Title of Paul Green Outdoor Drama To Be Staged in Palo Duro Canyon Amphitheatre

"TEXAS", a new production of the noted playwright, Paul Green, will open in the Pioneer Amphitheatre in the Palo Duro Canyon State Park during the second season, 1966. Echo-sounds and blazing lights roll through the Canyon in this time highlighting the story of the hardy cattle-men and settlers who found time to carve homes in the desert.

Paul Green is the author of several very famous historical plays presented with light and sound and dance in spectacular outdoor theatres throughout the country. He has been successful in transforming history back into life in the theatre where it took place, using the resources of the modern theatre to bring this about.

Mr. Green has done more to develop the great outdoor theatres than any other one person. He is a master of the form of drama with all the other arts which makes the history come alive so vividly.

The Lost Colony, the first play he wrote, has been running in Roanoke, North Carolina, for 24 years. His Commonwealth Glory has played in Williamsburg, Virginia, for 18 years. And the Stephen Foster play which opened in Bardonia, Kentucky, in 1959, is still playing to great audiences.

His latest production is the Boss and the Sword which had its premier last summer to celebrate the 400th anniversary of St. Augustine, Fla.

Mr. Green makes the following comment about the title of his production "TEXAS" in a letter sent to the Board of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation:

"I have tried dozens and dozens of titles in my mind for our drama, and so have you and many others. None of them seem to cover the ingredients and pointed reach that will necessarily be in the play (but) one word does cover everything... "TEXAS".

I know such a title sounds big and grabbing. Well, why not? You Panhandle folks are the first in that whole great state with vision and drive enough to want to celebrate the mighty Texas land and its people. The play actually will be, no matter what we call it, a dramatization of Texas life."

One thing that makes me feel it would be hard to overdo the sweep of the title is the fact of the sound and light display which we will be able to give the audience. They won't go away and say the show wasn't big enough for Texas, not after we have shot the works we'll have to shoot."

The second season of the Pioneer Amphitheatre will open on the first of July 1966, with the Founders' Festival which has been planned since the first announcements of the program. This week will be primarily for those who have supported the theatre and will be a gala time. All seats will be reserved and memberships will be included in the admission price. There will be special celebrations each of the six days. The regular season will open on Thursday the seventh of July, and run through Labor Day.

The people of the Panhandle of Texas have been working on the development of the theatre and the presentation of Paul Green's production about Texas ever since the summer of 1960. It is with great pride that they announce that the season of 1966 will bring this about.

Following the pattern established the first season of the theatre when 36,000 people visited the Canyon to see the production, "TEXAS" by Paul Green will be presented by the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation with the cooperation of West Texas State University, when it opens in the summer of 1966.

Paul Green's script will cover several periods of the history of the Panhandle which the production in 1965 "Thundering Sounds Of The West" did not include.

It presented the early history of the Texas Panhandle done in life and sound and sight. The Palo Duro Canyon in which the theatre is built, was the passage way to the Southwest for this area, and everyone who traveled went that way. In the very early days of exploration, the travelers were bewildered because the Indians would strike and disappear. Finally the Canyon was discovered by the newcomers, and the mystery was solved.

Here in the Canyon, in the Indian hideaway, a place of spectacular beauty and awe, 36,000 people relived the days of the Indians and Spaniards and early settlers last summer.

Now in 1966 they may return to see the rest of the story, the transformation of the land by those who bound their lives to it.

This is a saga of development against great and exciting odds and in the hands of Paul Green it will unfold so that people who see it and feel it will go away and say, "Now I know how it was."

Edward Dears Attend Foundation Workshop

It is amazing the interest and work being done by young people for the March of Dimes and its fight against birth defects, said Mrs. Ed Dear after attending National Foundation March of Dimes workshop in Dallas, Nov. 4-5.

Mrs. Dear said one part of the workshop was dedicated to the work being done in the foundation by the young people over the nation.

One small high school in Arkansas with about 200 students raised $2,000 for the March of Dimes. The students went to work after seeing a film that showed them it would be their children who benefited from the research on birth defects.

the feelings a mother has when she sees a baby that is deformed for an unknown reason or hears another mother talk about a deformed child.

The theme of the workshop was "A Community that Cares." Mrs. Dear said when the drive is completed this year she is sure that Hansford County will again prove that it is a community that cares.

A baby with a birth defect is born every two minutes, Mrs. Dear learned. The only hope to prevent this is that a cure for birth defects will be found in the very near future.

Kilroy Answers Varied Questions

Dear Kilroy,
Everytime I see this little fish with black hair I want to stick her head in the mud.

Dirty Intentions
Dear Dirty Intentions,
Concentrate on her better points or qualities and try to like her. "Love worketh wonders."

Kilroy ...

Dear Kilroy,
Have I got problems. There is this girl whom which I have gone with before. But a while back she wanted to break up so I had no choice. She said she just didn't think it would work out. While close friends of hers and mine said that she told them I was getting too serious. Please help us get back together, tell me what is wrong and what I can do.

This is not a hoax. It is true. No names were involved to save embarrassment.

I'll wait

Dear W iter,
As far as I can tell, a consultation with Mr. Webster would help as much as anything. If you can manage to get your "whoms, whiches, and whiles" straightened out, the girl will fall into line.

Kilroy ...

Dear Kilroy,
I am a boy 16 years old. I have a terrible problem. Every time I go to a football game I get too excited.

At the game between us and Phillips this girl said something bad about our team, it made me so mad I jumped up and did everything but hit her in the eye. So please help me with my problem because I would hate to hit a girl in the eye.

Yours truly,
Excited Muscles

Dear Excited Muscles,
Calm down! Energy unused is energy wasted, and in the same way would your energetic muscles be wasted by slugging a girl in the eye. Instead of squandering your strength in physical contact, exert it via your lungs and vocal chords and help spur our Lynx to a Victory.

Dear Kilroy,
I have had a few dates with this out of town girl. She left and is supposed to be back next week. I wondered if I should date another girl or what to do. Help I need somebody, so help me if you can.

Signed,
Fluffy

Dear Fluffy,
Go ahead and date. "Live dangerously," as Emerson once said.

Kilroy ...

Dear Kilroy,
There is a girl who likes a boy very much. I want to get them together. Should I tell the boy and maybe get the girl to like the girl. I am so confused and they would make a lovely couple!

All Shook Up
Dear Shook,
More havoc has been created in this world by confused parties playing Cupid! If they are meant for each other, it will come about. Destiny will provide the way.

Kilroy ...

Dear Kilroy,
I met this out of town girl and sort of fell for her. I think she kind of liked me, too. But now she is going steady with a boy she used to go with.

I think about her all the time. What should I do. Please help me.

Signed,
Troubled

Dear Signed Troubled,
Well, Kid-O, there's really not a whole lot you can do, is there? I'd advise you to engage in various activities in your school and church and become so involved that you have no time to brood and forget all about your girlfriend. And next time you get a crush on a girl, make sure she's near enough that you can keep an eye on her.

Kilroy ...

Dear Kilroy,
There is a boy who I like very well. But another boy, who is going steady with someone else, keeps calling me.

My boyfriend is getting mad at him and this other boy's steady is getting mad at me and her steady. This boy has called me many times and has even gone far enough to ask me out. I told him that I couldn't go out with him as long as he is going steady. But he still keeps calling. The next time, what should I tell him to keep from making him feel that I hate him? I don't hate him but I don't crave him either. Please help me.

Troubled

Girls Begin Season With Scrimmage

Basketball season is right around the corner. The "A" and "B" girls had their first basketball scrimmage a week ago last Tuesday night against Panhandle. Both Spearman teams came out on top. The games were very good and both the "A" and "B" teams looked as if they will be having successful seasons. High scorer for the "B" game was Linn Ann Robinson; high scorer for the "A" game was Barbara Wilde.

What's New With Sue

By Sue Stubblefield

Knit ranks high in fashions for girls this season. One of the firsts in this line is the "Courage" look . . . in black and white wool separates.

Another high fashion is the pert shetland boy suit, coming in various gay colors, but one of the gayest, angel skin.

There is a striking new look out for boys . . . suits, sport coats, and slacks made of hopsack. The scene you will make in this is described only as elegant. The new hopsack slacks come in both dress woollens and no iron finishes. Great help for Mom!

Babbs Heads Local FFA

Larry Babbs is president of the F.F.A. chapter for 1965. He feels honored to be able to serve as president and enjoys working on projects assigned to him by Mr. Felder. He thinks agriculture is important because you learn more through a modern way. He likes to get outdoors in working around the F.F.A. farm. He plans to show three Hampshire hogs this year. He is looking forward to the Father and Son banquet. He feels that a rodeo is needed. If it is managed right it would be more profitable in many ways.

From the Lynx Den

By Rennie Berry

The Spearman Lynx will host the Shamrock Irishmen Friday night Nov. 12 at Lynx Field. The Lynx have a district record of 3-2 while the Irish have a 1-4 record.

This will be the Senior Lynx's last game. Many of them have played all four years under Coach Dawson and Coach Seymour. The team has experienced seasons of defeat and victory. They have been through seasons when it took all the fight available to be at practice the next Monday after taking a licking the Friday night before.

Through the game of football, it has been learned that when one is down he must get up. The team has lined up across from players which outweighed them as much as 75 lbs. but yet came out victorious.

Through this game, a player learns to take defeat with victory. He learns to keep going when the going gets rough. I believe Coach Dawson's saying "its not the size of the dog in the fight, but the size of the fight in the dog," can be applied not only to the game of football but also to the game of life. Support the Lynx one more time. Let's get an Irish!

Drivers Ed Classes Begin Practice Driving

Drivers Education, taught by Coach Fred Dawson, is one of the many elective courses that can be taken by students of SHS. Coach Dawson's students have finished the classroom work and most of them are practice driving, but a few have not gotten their glasses yet and are not allowed to drive.

The pupils have text books and have been shown films on such subjects as "The Natural Laws" which deals with gravitation and its force. One film was on "Rural and City Driving" and another was on "How The Engine Functions."

This year the Drivers Ed car has an automatic transmission. Dawson said that most of the students liked it better than a standard because their parent's cars have automatics in them.
