School Enrollment Up Ninety More Students

Enrollment in the Spearman Public Schools has increased 90 students over last year, Supt. James Bramlett announced Tuesday. There are 1120 now enrolled.

Enrollment figures for all the grades were compiled Monday afternoon after the first day of classes. The four elementary and four high school grades showed the greatest increase in students.

In the elementary grades enrollment increased from 384 last year to 417 this year. After the first day there were 117 in the first grade, 97 in the second, 94 in the third and 109 in the fourth.

Principal James Pendergraft had only six more students in junior high than were registered last year. His enrollment this year is 369 as compared to 363.

Enrollment by grades in junior high is: fifth, 82; sixth, 92; seventh, 108; and eighth, 87.

For the first time in several years, according to Bramlett, there are more boys than girls enrolled in Spearman High

Mosquitoes-Encephalites

With the recent outbreak of encephalitis on the South Plains I am sure a great number of people are concerned about the possibility of an outbreak of such in Spearman.

As you probably read in the regional paper, Hale County has had some cases reported and it was found that a large number of chickens were infected with the disease.

I want you to know this, so that you will know that the mosquito is the method transmitting the disease and it can, only if it has previously been in contact with an infected animal. The mosquito itself is not diseased.

St. Louis encephalitis and equine encephalomyelitis are primarily diseases of wild and domestic animals. Man is an accidental host and there is no known individual to individual spread.

I have consulted Dr. Rinker of the Spearman Animal Clinic and he reports that he has not seen a case of encephalitis among animals in Hansford County during this time.

Should, at any time a similar or other epidemic type of infectious disease develop in our town I can assure you that the City Aldermen will use all available means of protection.

So, for now, use a good repellent when you are going to present yourself for mosquito bait and stop lying awake at night worrying about that pesky bite.

Pioneer Manor Will Open Soon as Fixtures Are Set

Spearman's home for Senior Citizens, Pioneer Manor, will have its opening about the middle of September, according to Gus White.

White, who will be operating the home, told the Spearman Lions Tuesday that part of the furniture was here and just as soon as the building is cleaned and the furniture placed, the opening date will be set.

The operator said some of the furnishings will arrive later, but we believe there will be enough in this shipment to allow us to begin operations.

White said the Business and Professional Women's Club has already volunteered to help with the open house for the home.

Sunray Bobcats Rated As Tough 1-A Opponent

If pre-season ballyhoo means anything the Spearman Lynx should find out what kind of football team they are Friday night when they open the season against the Sunray Bobcats at 8 p.m. on Lynx field.

The Bobcats bring to town a squad that has 12 returning lettermen from a team that posted a 7-3 record last year.

According to the pre-season information Sunray will have an aerial game from a pro style offense, much like the Spearman offensive game.

To help the aerial game, the Bobcats have a 190 pound fullback in David Hayes and a couple of 150 pound halfbacks with one, Bobby Walker, being boomed for all-state.

At tackle the Cats will come in with a 220 pound Delbert Thomas and 170 David Maloney. All the way up and down the line the Cats will be carrying the weight advantage.

Spearman will not send a bunch of country bumpkins out to the Cats. There are about two teams of "big footed Cats" wearing the purple who have been to a couple of football county fairs and have seen the train come to town a few times.

Coach Don Seymour, who seldom announces happiness at anything concerning his football team, is in the happy position of not having a starting line-up.

"We have two units battling for starting positions and this early (Tuesday) it could be any of them."

With the depth and fierce competition for positions the Lynx have this year it is expected the switching of players in and out of the game will at times look like a Chinese fire drill.

Giving away pounds to the opponents is nothing new to the Lynx, they have been doing it for years. It did not seem to bother the battlers in a scrimmage with McLean last week.

In the aerial game the Lynx should be able to match anyone there. They are blessed with big powerful Johnny Crawford, whose only problem is overthrowing, and little scrambling Dave Clement who has come a long way since last fall. Both boys can conduct the aerial game.

The Lynx are deep at every position. To help with the running chores in the backfield there are fullbacks Bill Cator and Clayton Cochran, halfbacks Rennie Berry, Mike Morris, Ken Shufeldt, and Jim Ownbey and possibly Ronald McDonald.

At ends Seymour can call on Leroy Callaway, Larry Butt, Gary Haner and Bari Blevins.

The experience is thinner, but the potential is great at tackles, watch for Mart Brillhart, Randy Moore, Ike Richeson and possibly Ronald McDonald.

Bowl Participants Dot Tech Schedule

Three bowl participants lead off Texas Tech's home football schedule this fall.

First three foes in Jones Stadium for Coach J. T. King's Red Raiders are Mississippi State, the Liberty Bowl winner; University of Texas, the Cotton Bowl champion; and Southern Methodist, topped by a touchdown in the Sun Bowl. Completing the six-game home card are West Texas State, Washington State, and University of Arkansas.

Road contests are with Texas A&M, Texas Christian, Baylor, and Rice.

Mississippi State opens the home slate at 7:30 p. m. Sept. 19. Wade Walker, former Texas Tech assistant coach, is MSU athletic director, and Vic Spooner, who played end for Tech, is an assistant coach there.

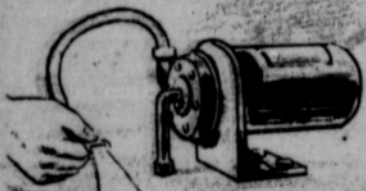

Texas, gunning for another national championship, will be met in night game a week later, Sept. 26.

Three successive road games are interspersed before Southern Methodist engages the Red Raiders in a contest climaxing Dad's Day the night of Oct. 24.

Following a regionally televised game with Rice, the Red Raiders return for a three-game home stand winding up the season.

Calm Opinions!

We had some time on our hands last weekend and played one of our favorite city games--looking at used cars. The game is best played by one prospective buyer and one anxious seller and a small inconspicuous lot with no dealer franchise is the ideal playing field.

Score five points for the "seller" for each, "this is a real little jewel. I've been using it for the family ever since we got it." Score five for the buyer for every, "this one is a little rough. It was owned by a high school kid that placed second in every neighborhood drag race last year."

If, in ten hands, the score isn't 50-0 against the buyer please send your "methods" to this office--they may be worth a fortune.

Did you ever notice how many "little-old-lady" school teachers have their cars chopped, channeled, blocked and twin piped?"

Shower Compliments Mrs. Mike Garnett

Mrs. Mike Garnett was honored with a post-nuptial bridal shower Thursday evening in the Hospitality Room of the First State Bank.

The hostesses presented Mrs. Garnett with a red rosebud corsage and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Wesley Garnett, Sr. with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The guest register lay on a table in the entryway covered with a white cutwork cloth. An arrangement of white pom-pom mums highlighted the setting.

The serving table was covered with a white cutwork cloth and was centered with a bouquet of pink gladiolas and white mums. Highlighting the setting was a two-tiered wedding cake decorated in pink with a miniature bride and groom standing in an archway between the tiers and dainty silver wedding bells on the top tier. Appointments of silver and crystal completed the setting.

Punch, cake, mints and assorted nuts were served to the guests.

Mrs. Pete Fisher registered the guests, Mrs. Hall Jones and Mrs. Bob Parris presided at the serving table and Miss Lynn Garnett assisted her sister-in-law with her gifts.

Hostesses for the courtesy were Mmes. Hall Jones, Major Lackey, Jack Taylor, R.C. Fisher, Carl Archer, Marvin Jones, Everett Vanderburg, A.R. Witcher, Ernest Wilmeth, Fred Holt, V.N. King and Roscoe Nelson.

Miss Carolyn Collard from Guymon visited here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Collard over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Orrell left Sunday for Barstow, Calif. where they will teach this fall.

Recent guests of Rev. and Mrs. Luther Berry were Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Crittenden from Shawnee, Okla.

Day By Day

You can tell school started this week. . . Little girls who wore straight hair all summer have newly permanented curls. . . 10-year old boys start the day at least smelling more like soap and hair oil than dirty tennis shoes. . . Dogs that enjoyed a rip-roaring summer now roam the neighborhood, looking for a playmate. . . And, at the Plainsman, school time arrives in a flurry of young customers seeking white poster board and felt markers for heaven-only-knows how many posters and signs.

If advance ticket sales are any indication, the Lynx should have a good following this season. The reserve seat section of the stadium is almost sold out, I understand.

With the fans all very curious about the prospects of this year's team (plus the fact that the Lynx Band will be there in their new uniforms) there will, no doubt, be a good crowd at the first game. And, human nature being what it is, the crowds the rest of the time will depend largely on whether the team is winning or losing. Everyone likes a winner, but then thank goodness there are always a good many of us who like the game and the boys who work so hard, well enough to follow them whether they win or lose.

We watched the Gruver-Canadian scrimmage the other night and even the players were swatting wildly at the mosquitoes. Maybe it would be a good idea to spray ourselves with insect repellent before going to the game Friday night.

Here's a recipe for Mock Hollandaise I received from a friend. It is delicious over asparagus and probably would be quite as good over broccoli or other green vegetables.

MOCK HOLLANDAISE

One can cream of celery soup

1/2 cup mayonnaise

2 tsp. lemon juice

2 tbsp. minced onion

2 tsp. minced parsley

Mix all together and stir over heat just until hot. Serve immediately.

Just as soon as September arrives, I can't wait to make a fresh apple pie. Here is a much-used recipe my mother used to make. It's level full of calories but it's one of the best pies I've ever eaten.

HARVEST TIME APPLE PIE

1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed

1/2 cup granulated sugar

1/4 cup flour

1/2 tsp. cinnamon

1/4 tsp. nutmeg

1/8 tsp. salt

1/4 cup butter

6 to 9 sliced tart apples (6 cups)

2 tsp. lemon juice

1/4 cup heavy cream.

Mix sugars, flour, spices and salt in a small bowl; cut in butter. Sprinkle apple slices with lemon juice and add 1 1/2 cups of the sugar mixture. Toss gently to coat the apples. Arrange in cheese pie shell, piling apples highest in the center; sprinkle with remaining sugar mixture. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes and then at 350 for 25 minutes or just until the apples are tender. Carefully pour cream over apples and bake 10 minutes more.

CHEESE PIE SHELL

1 cup plus 2 tsp. sifted flour

1/2 tsp. salt

6 tbsp. shortening

2 1/2 tsp. cold water

1/2 cup grated cheese

Sift flour and add salt and cheese. Cut in 4 tbsp. of shortening (mixture should first become fluffy and then start to clump together). Add remaining shortening in several pieces and chop in lightly until pieces are divided into the size of peas.

Sprinkle in water, a little at a time, mixing lightly with fork. When all particles are moistened, press pa try into a cake and let stand 15 to 30 minutes. Roll out on lightly floured board to 1/8 inch thickness and fit into a 9 inch pie plate, folding edge to make a standing, fluted rim.

Mrs. Carl Shane Wilbanks

Miss Snelling Is Bride Of Carl Shane Wilbanks

Miss Paula Gwyn Snelling and Carl Shane Wilbanks were married August 21 at the First Presbyterian Church in Denton. The Rev. Martin Thomas officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Snelling of Denton and parents of the groom are Mrs. C.R. Steddum of Spearman and Carl Ed Wilbanks of Oklahoma City.

Tim Barrett, organist, accompanied Nancy Israel who sang "The Lord's Prayer," and Rich Hamilton who sang "Whither Thou Goest." They sang in duet "One Hand, One Heart."

The altar area was centered with a two-tiered arrangement of white gladioli, carnations and snowball and spider chrysanthemums on a white Corinthian column. The arrangement was backed by tall white tapers which formed an arch. Brass three-branched candelabra were decorated with magnolia clusters, and smilax lined the altar rail. Emerald jade trees were at the base of the candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of gardenia white brocade in a floral pattern. The bodice was fashioned with a V neckline and elbow length sleeves. Crystal beading edged the gown. The A-shaped skirt extended into a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was caught to a crown which featured pearl and crystal pendants. She wore a heart-shaped diamond pendant, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade of stephanotis centered with white jayhette orchids.

Mrs. Bob Martin was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Carol Swenson, Marianne Gerding, both of Denton, Joyce Reeves of Dallas and Connie Boeger of Kansas City, Mo.

They wore pale pink gowns of peau de soie fashioned with elbow length sleeves and rounded necklines. The bouffant skirts were street length. They wore pink tulle and velvet hats. They carried bouquets of pink lilies.

Dale Snelling, brother of the bride, and Larry Oliver, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

The bride's mother wore a pale blue crepe dress and the bridegroom's mother wore an olive green silk linen dress. Both wore corsages of white orchids.

Paul Davis was best man. Groomsman were Steve Griffin of Lewisville, Johnny Davis of Big Sandy, Harry Wisdom of Denton, Dwayne Elledge of Mount Vernon. Ushers were Cril Payne of Denton, Larry Harkins of Amarillo, John Tayloe of Edcouch and Bill Wray of Pampa.

A reception followed in fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered with a bouffant floor length cloth of white organdy over taffeta, swagged with white chiffon. The table was centered with an arrangement of white stock and pom-pom chrysanthemums, accented with carnations and spider chrysanthemums. Tall tapers were interspersed in the arrangement. The columned cake was encircled with smilax and gardenias.

The bridegroom's table was covered with a tailored floor-length cloth of beige taffeta, centered with an arrangement of creme stock, bronze chrysanthemums and tangerine carnations, interspersed with beige tapers.

Members of the house party wore corsages of gardenias. They were Mmes. Crillon Payne, Ronald Gochnour, Curtis Oliver, Doyle Chrisman, Bob McSpadden, Bill Warren, Carl Wilkinson, James Gregory, Dean Johnson and Misses Virginia Berry, Susan Jones, Donna Butts, Nancy Vinson and Sandra Gross.

The bride is a graduate of Denton High School and will

Two Bridal Showers Honor Miss Copeland

Miss Joe Lynn Copeland was honored with a bridal shower Friday evening in the Hospitality Room of the First State Bank.

Guests called between the hours of 7:30 and 9:00 p.m.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over orchid and was centered with an arrangement of orchid and white sweet peas. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

The hostesses presented Miss Copeland with a corsage of white rosebuds tied with an orchid ribbon. Her mother, Mrs. E.J. Copeland and her grandmother, Mrs. H.C. Brown from Perryton received white carnation corsages.

Cake, punch, mints and assorted nuts were served to the guests.

Mrs. Perry Coursey registered the guests, Mrs. Jim Orrell and Miss Karen Stockdale presided at the serving table. Mrs. Dan Pearson and Thelma Groves assisted Miss Copeland with her gifts.

Out-of-town guests for the occasion were Mr. Clair Stockdale and Karen from Gruver; Mrs. Buster Brown, Mrs. Oran Kelly and Mrs. Allan Denison from Farnsworth; Mrs. Roger Pearson, Mrs. Ray Osborne, Mrs. L.R. Connor and Mrs. Omar Trux from Perryton; Mrs. George King from Goodwell and Mrs. Dow King from Guymon.

Hostesses for the courtesy were Mmes. Major Lackey, Merle Washington, Cecil Crawford, George Buzzard, T.D. Sansing, O.C. Holt, E.D. Mundy, Slim Cates, and Mmes. Erlis Pittman and Henry Reid from Morse.

Miss Copeland was also honored with a bridal shower in the home of Miss Joan Moore Tuesday, August 25, in Amarillo.

Mrs. H.C. Brown, Miss Copeland's grandmother from Perryton, and Miss Copeland's mother, Mrs. E.J. Copeland attended.

Hostesses for the courtesy were Mrs. Helen Whitaker, Misses Sally Rivers, Barbara Jo Brothers and Joan Moore.

"Traveling Onward" Is Theme for Club Year

"Traveling Onward" will be the theme for the 1964-65 year of the Kimberly Junior Woman's Study Club. Each month's program will be captioned with a way of travel to carry out the theme for the year.

The first meeting, Friday, Sept. 4, will feature a film, "Gateway to Beauty for Your Home." At this meeting, the yearbooks will be presented. Other programs during the year will be china painting with Mrs. Nolan Holt as guest speaker. October's program will be, "What Federation Means to Me" with Mrs. William B. Davis of Canyon, Junior Director of Top of Texas District, as speaker. The December program will have a luncheon in connection with a program on Christmas Decor in the Home. The Food and Drug Administration will be discussed by Orville Brummett, local pharmacist, in January. February's program will be Conservation in the Woods by Emmitt Drake of Waka. As Texas celebrates her heritage in March, so will the Kimberly Club as they study Symbols of Texas Heritage. In April, the club will host its guest tea with Mrs. J.W. Walker, past president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Guests will be the Twentieth Century and Spearman Study Clubs. To close the year in May, Girls of the Month, a project started this year to honor one Senior girl each month, will be presented and each girl will give a talk on "What Education Means to Me."

Club officers for the coming year are Mrs. Doyle Jackson, president; Mrs. Kenneth Pope, vice-president; Mrs. Claude Pearson, Jr., secretary; Mrs. David Wilson, treasurer; and Mrs. Sandra Ladd, historian. The yearbook committee was comprised of Mrs. Kenneth Pope, chairman, and Mmes. David Wilson and Sandra Ladd.

1-AA Opens Against 1-A Opponents

All seven teams in district 1-AA open play this weekend and only Boys Ranch will be on the road.

Phillips will be the only team on the schedule that is not opening against a class A team. The favored Phillips Blackhawks will host Colorado City. Both teams have moved down from AAA competition.

Boys Ranch will go on the road to play White Deer. The Bucks went from this district back to A football this season.

Dalhart will host a tough Stratford squad. Sanford-Fritch will host Panhandle. Shamrock will open with its traditional rival, McLean and Stinnett will entertain a weak Canadian team.

Greyhounds Meet Old Opening Foe

Gruver and Claude are the only two District 1-A teams not competing with 1-AA teams in the opening games this season.

Gruver will open at home against the Clarendon Broncos. Both teams lost heavily in the Spring and will be opening with lots of untried numbers in starting positions.

Gruver looked strong last week in a scrimmage against a weaker Canadian team. However, they are going with a rookie quarterback in Sam Tipton and there is no Jim Cooksey in the Gruver fold this year to get that big play.

Sammy Arnold will probably be the bread-and-butter man for the Hounds.

Clarendon is expected to be in the also rans in its district.

New Cattle Treatment For Controlling Flies

A new Ruelene "pour-on" formulation, Ruelene 8R, is now available for controlling hornflies, lice and grubs on cattle, report M. A. Price, associate professor, Department of Entomology, Texas A&M University, and P. J. Hamman, assistant Extension entomologist.

The ready-to-use formulation has been approved by the Pesticides Regulation Division, Agricultural Research Service, USDA, and has not been known to cause burning or severe scurfing of the hide, says Price. It employs an oil base that facilitates close adherence of the toxicant to the skin and lessens the run-off problem.

Ruelene 8R should be applied in a backline application at the rate of one fluid ounce per 100 pounds of body weight to animals weighing up to 800 pounds. Price warns, however, that no more than eight ounces should be applied to any animal weighing more than 800 pounds.

A single treatment as soon as possible after hee-fly activity ceases will control grubs, hornflies and lice. Price points out. Hornfly reductions may be obtained for as long as three weeks following treatment.

Cattle treated for grub control may be retreated in the fall, winter or spring months when lice become injurious. Price says that Ruelene 8R should not be applied during October, November and December to animals not previously treated for grubs.

Restrictions concerning use of this material include the following:

Do not apply within 28 days of slaughter.

Do not apply to lactating dairy cows or dry dairy cows within 28 days of freshening.

Do not treat sick animals or those under stress from castration, dehorning, disease, over exertion or excitement; nor within 10 days after shipping, weaning or exposure to disease. Such animals may suffer toxic side reactions.

Cattle should have free access to water and feed before and after treatment. If cattle react normally, encourage exercise. Should abnormal conditions persist, consult a veterinarian.

When branding at treatment time, brand first; then treat with Ruelene 8R to avoid the possibility of hair catching fire.

Sorghum Midge Meeting Thursday

A sorghum midge meeting will be held Thursday, Sept. 10 at 8:00 p.m. at the Gruver Ag Building. A movie on the life cycle of this insect will be shown.

The midge destroys between 4 and 7 million dollars worth of sorghum each year. This film will be of interest to all farmers.

The meeting is sponsored by the Gruver Young Farmers.

Early Greeks considered cow's milk unwholesome, preferring ewe's and goat's milk.

Primitive rotary flour mills originated in Syria and were improved greatly in Greece about 300 B.C.

In its southern portion Mexico twists across the map to the east so that the Gulf of Mexico lies due north of the Pacific Ocean.

Shrimp are caught by use of a large Y-shaped net called a trawl, pulled behind power boats.

First postoffice in Mineola, Texas, was housed in a boxcar on the railroad tracks.

Light May Be New Way To Control Insect Pests

What's new in the way of insect controls? The not-too-distant future may provide for the control of some insect pests, a "new" ingredient--light!

Research has found that the normal life cycle of one insect pest, the imported cabbage-worm, can be upset by exposing it to flashes of light lasting less than one one-thousandth of a second.

The Agricultural Research Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, has conducted experiments on this test insect at Beltsville, Md.

Photoflashes given nightly to the cabbage-worm in the larva or destructive caterpillar stage upset the growth sequence later in its life cycle, report ARS scientists. The insect developed from a pupa in its cocoon into an adult butterfly when it normally would have entered a dormant stage called diapause, explain the scientists.

Diapause is similar to hibernation and is a vital phase of the life cycle of many major insect pests.

ARS scientists say this new photoflash technique may have potential value as a biological control method against insects. Forcing insects in their natural environment to bypass diapause and develop into adults "ahead of schedule" would probably cause them to be so out of step with nature that they would perish, explain ARS entomologists.

The ARS emphasizes, however, that its findings do not prove photoflash can be used to control insects under field conditions.

Since light treatments that alter insect development have little or no effect on plants, this new knowledge is expected to heighten research interest in photoflash as a possible means of control.

Organize All Outdoor Area

Outdoor space must be organized and developed to suit the needs of modern living. Trees are not only an integral part of such space organization but are the most important structural elements in solving landscape planting problems. Selection of which tree to use and where to place it is, therefore, a great responsibility.

Trees have distinctive growth habits which always make them accent points. Their proper placement is the most permanent operation performed in any landscape development.

In addition to specific individual and distinctive characteristics, each tree has a definite size, form, texture, color and an ever-changing aesthetic effect from season to season and from youth to maturity in each of these features.

Landscape trees exert a sphere of influence in a certain volume of space beyond the tree limits and the location in which it is placed. They should be located so their sphere of influence does not overlap.

Volume and space requirements of trees limit their use on small properties for modern living since individual residential properties and subdivided areas are smaller and houses are lower. Scale and space must be carefully considered so selected trees will continue to perform their landscape functions satisfactorily, especially when reaching maturity.

Landscape functions that trees may perform are many and varied. These include shade, climate control, noise abatement, framing, background, enclosure and many others. Form and growth habits must be carefully considered when selecting a tree to per-

Record Crowd Expected For Boys Ranch Rodeo

A record attendance is expected for the 20th annual Boys Ranch Rodeo at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch over the Labor Day weekend.

Nearly 100 of the top riders of all ages will compete for honors on professional rodeo livestock. All of the 325 boys will take active part in the famed rodeo.

Those boys who do not participate in the actual competition will work on the many other important parts of the rodeo, such as working the stock, acting as ushers, parking lot attendants, and operating the concessions. This year the boys will offer a special treat to the visitors. The concession will feature ranch-style bar-be-que from the Ranch's own beef stock.

Shaded picnic areas will also be available for those who wish to come early and eat before the rodeo.

Seating arrangements will include comfortable box seats and general admission bleachers.

Last year, more than 7000 visitors were thrilled by the rodeo. This year's rodeo is expected to be the largest and most exciting ever.

Performances are scheduled for 2:30 p.m. on the afternoons of Sunday, Sept. 6th, and Monday, Sept. 7th.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Robert Cordes, Pastor Oslo & Spearman Lutheran

We leave our camp and tramp through the canyons and trees of the mountains with our gun on our shoulder. We trudge on and by mid afternoon we are weary. We slump against a rock.

Then in the stillness we hear a noise. Being a good hunter, we remain still and not rise. The noise comes closer. It isn't the crunch of human feet on the leaves. Nor to our trained ear is it the quick, light steps of a deer. Suddenly around a rock appears a bear.

You raise your gun in a hurry and fire. Something flew but the face of the bear pulls behind the rock. You jump up and run. Maybe I hit him. I saw something fly.

But there is no bear--except tracks going away. And looking around, you spy where the bullet had hit a tree a few inches above where the bear had been. Your aim was bad. No matter how good a hunter we are, if our aim is poor we will have no bear skin rug before the fireplace. If our Christian witness is to be of value, we need more than firing Law point blank at people. We need to aim. A bear is a hard animal to kill. It takes heavy ammunition and there are very few vital spots to aim at.

Conviction of our sins is much the same. There are very few spots where the blow of the Word may be fatal and God desires His Spirit to aim well--and we too must aim well as we witness to others.

John 3:16 is one bullet aimed well at your heart: "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God sent not the Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. He who believes in Him is not condemned; he who does not believe is condemned al-

School Personnel Honored by Board

Purpose of the dinner was to give board members and school personnel a chance to get acquainted.

Kim Copeland visited here Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Copeland.

How about that for God aiming directly at your heart--sinner or believer? Are you now dead in sin? Or alive in Christ now--and for eternity in Heaven? It is aimed at you.

History Penalty Taken From Wheat Law

Farmers this year may stay out of the government wheat program and exceed their allotments without losing wheat acreage history for future years. This was the major information in a news release this week from the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

County ASC Office Manager Ellzey Vanderburg said the 1965 wheat program is entirely voluntary. It is designed to provide cooperating farmers an income advantage, but any producer may disregard acreage allotments and all other features of the program. There are no marketing quota penalties in 1965.

Vanderburg reminds farmers that the first requirement for qualifying for the program's benefits is signing up. The deadline has been extended from August 24 to Oct. 2.

After signing up the producer may participate in a number of options which were not available in 1964.

A grower may qualify for a price-support loan and for marketing certificates on his farm's allocation for domestic and export wheat at 75 and 30 cents a bushel by meeting provisions regarding allotments and devoting to approved conserving uses an acreage equal to 11.11 percent of the wheat allotment, in addition to the farm's conserving base. No diversion payment will be for the 11.11 percent diversion.

The grower in high-risk areas may produce up to 50 percent in excess of his wheat allotment while meeting conservation provisions of the program, and still qualify for a loan and the certificates if he declares his intention to do this when he files a program application. He must store the excess wheat under bond.

To get diversion payments a grower must reduce his wheat acreage by at least 10 percent below his allotment and devote the acres to an approved conserving use. Maximum diversion can be 20 percent of the allotment.

Producers who sign up in both the wheat and feed grain programs may substitute wheat for feed grains or vice versa. In this case, the diversion payments would be made at the rate applicable to the crop for which acreage is actually diverted.

New 'Candidates' Seek Fashion Vote for Fall

The candidates are named; the votes are coming in. Shortly, the winners will be decided. Re-election polls show some clear trends. Now, as in recent years, the preference of the women who cast the deciding votes is being expressed in favor of not one, not two, but many candidates. This particular election, of course, is for the leading fashions to serve in the fall and winter of 1964. It's distinguished by a diversity of outstanding candidates, so that every woman can readily select the styles she personally prefers, from the coats and suits, dresses and sportswear, hats and accessories on the ballot now.

The promise in the fall fashion campaign is an exciting one. It's based on two looks — the one hand, the softer, easier, more feminine look of the gentlewoman; on the other, the trim and tailored look that reflects the growing influence of sportswear and especially knits in the fashion polls. The over-all trend is to a slim silhouette, styled with the kind of ease and fluidity that emphasizes "it's fun to be a girl."

Though the fall silhouette is slender, it's also lively. Moving up now are suits with active skirts — pleats in great variety, from just a single wide pleat at front or back to all-around pleating. Dresses, especially those for late day, take the same lively approach to fashion, with gently fitted bodices and skirts on the move with pleats, flares, ruffles, flounces. Coats, trim but easy, and furs from elegant to sporty provide fashionable coverage, and hats and accessories add the right touches for the complete look voted in this autumn.

Colors for Fall Showing Wide-Screen View

What milady wants, milady gets this fall in a wide-screen view of color. It's a technicolor world, with the fall fashion lights going up on greens and pinks, reds and pinks, blue and purples.

Focusing into fashion is a vast range of greens. Some are light and bright, bringing a delightfully spring-like touch to the fall scene. Woodsy greens make a colorful contrast. In the array from charcoal to peacock to olive, there's a green to please every woman's wishes.

True blues are strongly in the picture — but then, so are many of blue's kissing cousins, such as cerise, magenta, fuchsia pink, blue spruce and wine bottle.

The winy hues find burrundy and many other "vintage" colors in the limelight. A panorama of royal blues plays up purple, and mauves and lilacs appear alone or, in tweeds, mingling with pinks and greens.

Like true blue, true red sends its fashion message bright and clear. It pales to pink or blends to rust in many fall designs. The russet tones, like the woodsy greens, bring autumn foliage colors into view.

The palest golds light the way to fall, with rich, deep golds to keep them company.

Along with the burst of color, expect to see many important neutrals, led by the most basic colors of all, black and white.

March of Dimes Progress Told To Lions Club

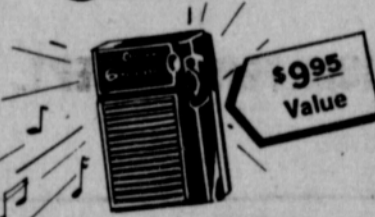

The National Foundation's battle against Birth Defects were explained to a large group of Lions Tuesday.

An official of the National Foundation discussed how the money gathered each January in the March of Dimes is used to treat children born with birth defects and pay for research into the causes of birth defects.

Progress is being made in the research to prevent birth defects and millions are spent each year for treatment of children who are handicapped with a defect.

A though birth defects are the big enemies now, the foundation still pays for treatment of children who have polio or who were stricken before the vaccines put the disease under control.

Lively Skirts Show Variety of Pleats

Suits for fall have taken a motion to get into motion. The new fall array features lively skirts with pleats in every shape, form and type — in front, all around or on the sides.

Speedier travel and other modern activities have inspired a need for fashions on the move, and the new suits are young, clean-cut and mobile, according to Wilbur Daniels, executive secretary of the National Board of the Coat and Suit Industry.

Suit jackets are often narrowed and pared down to balance skirt motion. Collars are cut closer to the neck, and the collarless suit is generally conspicuous by its absence.

When there is jacket shaping, it is in front, and usually high placed. To indicate this shaping, subtle seaming and sometimes patch- or crescent-shaped slit pockets are used.

Multiple pockets are present this fall, but they are more flat, more gentle, in keeping with new suit shapes.

While double-breasted closings are frequently seen, the single-breasted styles continue important. Even when styles are "skinny," there is never a feeling of restriction, for clever designers have added ease to narrowed jackets with raglan shoulders, yoked or belted backs.

Show Off Blouses Belts, when they are seen up front, are generally the all-around, slotted types, or built into jackets, in the manner of the new-again Norfolk suit.

When a suit is coordinated with a blouse, the jacket neckline is cut to show off the blouse, which may be cowl-necked, collared, bowed — or collared and bowed.

Fabrics fall into two categories, the very textured and the very flat. Tweeds, shetlands, mohairs are among the textured types. Flattened surfaces include twills, herringbones, checks and novelty worsteds.

KEEPING DRY

The "wet look" gains ground in all-weather coats that keep the wearer dry, with frankly-lake patterns on vinyl.

Party Given On 12th Birthday

Anna Marie Chitwood celebrated her 12th birthday with a party Sunday afternoon. Guests arrived dressed as beatniks and entertained each other with songs, poems and nonsense. Games were played and refreshments of birthday cake and sherbet in 7-Up were served.

Guests were Pam Wysong, Debbie Burke, Judy and Tootsie Craig, Hazel Leslie, Karen Baggerly, DeAnna Sheets, Sandra Shufeldt and Tommie Chitwood.

Captivating candidate for late day is this fluid black crepe dress with back-dipping bertha collar. By Jane Derby in Avisco rayon and acetate.

Wool crepe dress elects the feminine look, with eyelet-embroidered self ruffles. By Ruth Walter in Milliken Astelot wool crepe.

Princess dress with fringed stole casts a vote for elegance, in British wool houndstooth check. By Jacques Tiffeau; John Frederics hat.

One 4-H'er Enters Wool Contest

One girl has already picked up her application blank for entering the District I "Make-It-Yourself With Wool" contest and Home Demonstration Agent Linda Webb is expecting other entries.

Miss Webb said that Janice Trindle has picked up her application blank. Girls have until Nov. 14 to enter the contest.

The district finals will be held at Texas Tech Dec. 12. The State finals in San Marcos Jan. 8-9 and the national finals the next week.

The national winner will receive a 14-day holiday in Europe.

Details on the contest may be secured from the county agent and home economics teachers in the schools.

Rogers To Speak At Dinner in Borger

Congressman Walter Rogers of Pampa will be at home in the Panhandle over the Labor Day weekend.

His visit will be capped by a dinner Tuesday, Sept. 8, in Borger where Congressman Rogers will be honored by the Hutchinson County Democratic Party for his work in advancing the Canadian River project. He will make a major address following the dinner.

The Congressman will leave Washington by air Thursday night for Albuquerque, N.M., where at noon Friday he will address the New Mexico Retail Merchants Association at the Schine Western Skies Motor Hotel.

Congressman Rogers said he would speak to the New Mexico retailers on "the vital issue of maintaining proper representation in State legislatures." Congressman Rogers is among the leaders in the House of Representatives urging the adoption of a Constitutional amendment to permit representation in at least one house of bicameral legislatures to be based on factors other than population. Following his address in Albuquerque, Congressman Rogers will go to the Texas Panhandle to spend the weekend in Pampa, his home city, and in Amarillo.

Stocking Story

In fall's animated fashions, there's every kind of skirt to call attention to feminine legs, and every kind of stocking to make sure they're well dressed.

New stockings may be anything from sheer nylons to sporty knits, but whatever they are, they're newest when textured. The lacy look, the diamond pattern, the thin rib, cables are just some of the textures available, says the National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers.

There's variety in colors, too. Sheer nylons come in every conceivable shade, from pale and pearly to dark.

For after-five, there's the lacy look in black, white, beige, cocoa or salmon — plus shimmering gold with a hint of black or misty green.

'Ski,' 'LBJ' Lead B-Squad Plays Here Tonight

In sportswear for fall the "Ski Look" and the "LBJ Western Look" are strong.

"Stretch" is an accepted comfort component of many slacks, shirts and jackets. The "layered look" in sweaters, shirts and outerwear is big, and new shapely sports coats with a slight English accent are also making news.

Both functional and good looking, the new ski-parkas take their styling from the "pro" with big herringbones and bold glen plaids. The LBJ touch is clearly seen in the many suedes with Western style touches.

Luxury leisurewear for fall includes long, real suede coats, shearlings, smooth leathers and suedes teamed with both knit and corduroy trims.

V-neck pullovers are sparked with narrow waistbands and contrasting knit trims at the neckline. Turtlenecks also feature prominently in this fall's sweater line.

Saddle shoulder crew-necks are here for young men and those shoulders get the nod in many of the new six-button cardigans which continue to ride high among the favorites.

Leather front sweaters make the autumn scene in an exceptionally wide assortment of pullovers and cardigans. The link alpacas, in more colors than the rainbow, meet the approval of golfers and loungers in coat styles and pull-overs, some with modified bell-sleeves.

Sport shirts add color and comfort to the autumn scene with button-down collar models still tops for traditional men, while the contemporary dressers enjoy new designs in panels and stripes as well as fancy front knits.

The Western Look appears again in slacks with pocket, belt loop and slim-legged style features.

Contemporary-type slacks are long on iridescents while Traditionals supplement their gray flannels with Bedford cords and basket weaves in clay tones and putty shades.

In tailored sports jackets the tweed look is very evident. The fitted, more shapely coat sports the English look carrying deeper vents of both the center and side types.

Blazers are still popular, as ever. Ranging from traditional flannels to hopsacks, velours, cashmeres and vicunas, there is apparently no end in sight for either the varieties or popularity of the solid color sportsters.

The female octopus guards her eggs until they hatch five to seven weeks after laying, eats nothing during that time, and dies after they hatch.

Knits and tweed get the fashion vote for fall. Both appear in this black and white knit tweed costume, with contrasting double knit overblouses and knit collar trim. It's by Schrader Knits.

Morse Board Appeals Transfer of Students

The Hansford County School Board has been notified that the Morse Independent School District has appealed the State Commissioner of Education's decision on school transfers.

Morse is appealing to the State Board of Education, a 27-man body, the decision of the County Board to let 10 high school students transfer out of the Morse District. A hearing date is to be set later.

Last month State Commissioner Dr. J.W. Edgar, upheld the county board's decision to let the 10 students transfer from the Morse district to Spearman and Gruver schools. Nine of the students have been transferring in previous years.

In June the county board approved the transfers of the students, along with the transfers of other students. Morse protested the transfers and requested a hearing on the matter before the county board. This hearing was held in July and the board upheld its earlier action.

The Morse district then appealed the decision to the state commissioner. After hearing the matter Commissioner Edgar upheld the county board's decision.

Morse school officials contend they will never be able to increase the size of the Morse High School, if students are allowed to transfer out of the district each year.

County board members feel that parents should be able to send their children to school where they want them to be educated.

In C flight all three of the winners came in with a 40, but first, second and third were settled on the first hole of the play-off. Bud Welch took first, C.L. Greenway was second and Jimmy Hicks was third.

The winners of each flight all received putters, the second place finishers got wood covers and third place winners got caps. All entries got a new golf ball.

Old Hansford Marked With Historic Monument

Another historic site in the old Hansford area was marked this week with the erection of another monument.

The Alva Monument Co., of Alva, Okla., erected the monument just off the highway right-of-way at the edge of Hansford Cemetery.

The Texas granite marker has a drawing of the Old Hansford County Courthouse, the windmill and water storage tank. A brief history of the county is inscribed on the stone.

On the marker it tells that the site of the courthouse is one quarter mile northwest of the marker.

Members of the Hansford County Historical Survey Committee wish to thank E. V. Sams of the Alva Monument Co., for the donation of this monument.

The society members invite everyone to go by and

One man was working in a hayfield recently during a time when the heat was just this side of parboiling.

The baler flushed up a fat rabbit and the man's dog started after it. The dog's owner halted him with a sharp command then started in pursuit of the rabbit himself. He came

"Why didn't you sic that hound on the rabbit?" he was asked.

"What," the farmer screeched, "you think I want to run a good dog in heat like this?"
