A record crowd was on hand at the Gruver high school auditorium Thursday to enjoy the 25th Hansford Bankers Awards Banquet. Hosts for the gala affair was the Hansford Soil and Water Conservation District, compliments of the First State Bank, Spearman and Gruver State Bank, Gruver.

The banquet was opened at 7:00 p.m. with a delicious barbeque served by the Hungry Cowboy of Spearman.

Introduction of guests was by Monnie Edwards, Local SCS head. Monnie introduced all of the Soil Conservation people who attended the banquet, including people from Perryton, Stratford and a special pair from Canadian, Royce and Donna Siebman formerly with the local SCS. Royce is now at Canadian. Special credit was given to Dallasene Reynolds, Soil Conservation Clerk, and Karen Haruff, CEA - Home Economics.

Last years Homemaker of the Year, Delinda McLaughlin introduced this years Homemaker of the year, Nelle Evans. Delinda made the award to Nelle which was a plaque.

Keith Lamb, 1983 Conservation Farmer of the year, made the presentation to Mike McLain the 1984 Farmer of the Year.

Mike Schnell of Spearman, introduced the Speaker for the evening, Jeanne Robertson, 6' 2" speaker from North Carolina. Jeanne kept the crowd in "Stitches" talking about the problems a gal over six foot tall has.

Highlight of the evening was the Mr. America Contest, won by Cecil Ralston of Gruver.

The banquet was highlighted by the many statements by farmers and bankers alike, who were so thankful for this wonderful Hansford County, and this truly "Land of Plenty" which is made possible by our farmers and ranchers. We do have so much to be thankful for this 1983 Thanksgiving season.

OUTSTANDING CONSERVATION FARMER Mike McLain

Mike McLain, his wife Diane, their children Mika 8, Molly 5, and Buster 4 reside in the northern portion of Hansford County.

Mike operates over 4000 acres of land for several landowners. He operates both dryland and irrigated cropland as well as rangeland.

In 1981 Mike requested technical assistance through the Hansford Soil and Water Conservation District from the Soil Conservation Service personnel at Spearman to correct some soil erosion problems. A Great Plains Conservation Program contract, which provides cost-share assistance for installation of conservation practices, was then developed.

Under this program, assistance is being provided for shaping and vegetating waterways on one of the farms he operates. To date 7 acres of waterways have been shaped and seeded to western wheatgrass and tall fescue. In the near future an additional 10 acres will be shaped and seeded.

An excellent job of conservation tillage is done utilizing large sweeps to maintain crop residues for moisture conservation and soil protection. Mike usually runs stocker cattle on his wheat and grain sorghum stubble during the winter months.

On his rangeland operation cross-fencing and water storage facilities have been installed to improve rangeland management. This year some erosive cropland was also seeded back to native grass.

Mike also uses contour farming on his dryland grain sorghum. These level rows help to hold rainfall until it can be absorbed by the soil. Unfortunately there was not much rainfall to catch this summer.

Anne Marie Jarvis is honored

CANYON--Thirty-nine outstanding members of 4-H Clubs across the Texas Panhandle were honored here Saturday night, November 12.

In addition to receiving the Gold Star Award, highest honor presented at the county level, the youths were urged by State Senator Bill Sarpalius to dream dreams of achievement and then set about making those dreams reality.

Joining the youths at the awards banquet in the Buffalo Room at West Texas State University were parents, government officials, Extension leaders, fellow 4-H'ers, educators and other community leaders.

Honored from Hansford County was Anne Marie Jarvis, daughter of Britt and Linda Jarvis of Spearman.

"Out of all the people who've lived on this planet, there's never been one just like you. You're unique," Sarpalius told the award winners.

"We live in a great country. We have more to be thankful for than anyone else in the world. Yet we take so much for granted," Sarpalius said.

He said that if America wanted to be like Russia, we'd have to rip up 14 of every 15 miles of paved highway, scrap 19 of every 20 automobiles, cut our standard of living by three-fourths, destroy 7 of every 10 houses, have only one bathroom for every seven families and put 60 million people back on the farm.

The state senator said he was concerned about the decline in American family life as evidenced by an increasing divorce rate, our lack of support for our churches, an increasing crime rate and other problems. But he said we are fortunate to have organizations such as 4-H Clubs, celebrating their 75th anniversary this year, to give youngsters the opportunity to learn by doing and develop leadership skills.

He told of hearing former President Lyndon B. Johnson tell a group of youths visiting Washington to dream dreams and then make those dreams come true. "I realized that was the purpose of America," Sarpalius said, to provide a place where that can happen. "When things get tough," he told the youngsters, "stick your chin out and dream a little harder."

Master of ceremonies was Michael Bezner of Dallam County, chairman of the Panhandle District 4-H Council. Guests were welcomed by Bob Elliott of the Rita Blanca Electric Cooperative at Dalhart, one of six electric cooperatives which sponsor the banquet. The others were Deaf Smith, North Plains, Swisher, Greenbelt and Lighthouse.

Dinner music was presented by Kalico, a quartet from Moore County. The Gold Star Awards were presented by Mrs. Sue Farris and Paul Gross, district Extension directors for the Panhandle District. 4-H is the youth development program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, an educational arm of the Texas A&M University System.

Also on the program were 4-H'ers Lori Brewer and Donna Peters of Moore County; Jeannie Fowler and Mandi Shipman of Randall County; Shawn Farrar of Armstrong County and Lance Chism of Oldham County.

Police Report

Burglary investigations fill police week

On Wednesday, November 9, 1983, at approximately 9:31 p.m. a Spearman police officer talked with a complainant in reference to harrasing phone calls. The complainant advised the officer that for the last several weeks, someone has been calling her place of employment between the hours of 9:30 and 11:00 p.m. The complainant further stated that they had been calling on the listed phone number and the unlisted phone number. The complainant stated that subject did not say anything but just breathed hard and made wierd noises. The officer advised the complainant to contact the phone company. Case still under investigation.

On Wednesday, November 9, 1983, a Spearman police officer was dispatched to a Spearman business in reference to a burglary. Upon arrival, the officer spoke with the complainant who advised the officer that person(s) had attempted to forcibly enter the shop of the business thru the East and North doors. Upon investigation of the East door, it was found that the damage was approximately 3 feet from the ground and the tool used was probably a regular screwdriver with a 1/4 inch head. The tool was entered between the door and the facing and used to pry on the door before it was entered. Observation of the North door revealed that the person(s) had attempted unsuccessfully to gain entry. There are no suspects at this time. Investigation continuing.

On Sunday, November 13, 1983, a black and brown puppy was missing from the dog pound. Due to the small size of the dog, it appears that the dog was able to get out of the pound by itself. No further information at this time.

On Tuesday, November 15, 1983, while an officer was on patrol, he was dispatched to a Spearman business in reference to a burglary. The officer arrived at the scene and was met by two employees of the business. One employee advised the officer that the cash box was missing. The officer went into the back of the store and observed several packs of cigarettes thrown onto the floor, also a florecent bulb had been broken. At this time, another officer was dispatched to the business. The officer walked around the building on the outside and observed an opening where the metal siding had been pried loose, making an opening 12" wide. A second officer arrived at the scene and proceeded to dust for fingerprints at the opening in the back of the building. Both officers went back into the store and observed from the inside. According to the available evidence found, entry was not made thru the opening at the back of the store. On the concrete floor on the inside of the opening was a black powdery substance that wipes up easily and would have left foot or fingerprints. Upon further examination with the manager, the officer discovered that when the floor on the inside of the opening was disturbed, it left a black mark on this surface as well as what touched it. There were no such marks prior to this discovery. Also discovered was a pry bar hanging above the opening.

This tool did have scrape marks as well as paint chips. The bar was compared with the marks left on the outside of the building where the metal screws were broken and the sizes were considerably close. This tool was taken in for processing as the possible tool used in the opening. The cigarettes were also taken to the Spearman Police Department where they could be dusted for fingerprints. Investigation continuing.

ACCIDENT REPORT

On Sunday, November 13, 1983, an accident was reported at 6th and Hazelwood. A vehicle was Southbound on Hazelwood when another vehicle which was Northbound on Hazelwood attempted to make a left turn onto East 6th. The driver of the second vehicle advised that he did not see the vehicle traveling South. There were no injuries reported.

On Tuesday, November 6, 1983, an accident was reported at the 100 block of Highway 207. A vehicle was headed North on Highway 207 and stopped for a stalled vehicle. Driver of another vehicle was traveling North on Highway 207 and failed to see the other vehicle stop, striking the vehicle in the rear. There were no injuries reported.

On Tuesday, November 16, 1983, an accident was reported in the 300 block of West Kenneth. A vehicle attempted to make a left turn onto Townsend off of West Kenneth and was struck by an oncoming vehicle. No injuries reported.

It's American Farm and City Week

"Farm and City: Partners in Progress-You Can't Have One Without the Other" is the theme of this year's Farm-City Week November 18-24.

Purpose of the observance is to focus on the teamwork of farm and city people as partners in the growing, processing, marketing and consumption of food and fiber.

In other words, Farm-City Week is aimed at promoting better understanding between farm and city people and increasing the knowledge and appreciation of each for the American way of life, points out Jim Smith, County Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Farm-City Week is under the direction of the National Farm-City Council, Inc., which is coordinated by Kiwanis International.

Agricultural production, marketing and processing provides jobs and income for about a fourth of the working force in Texas.

One out of every 35 Texans is a farmer or rancher, and 30 percent of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and selling of food and fiber products.

Total cash receipts from Texas agricultural sales were just under $10 billion in 1982. Economic activity generated from these marketings exceeded $35 billion.

Total farm assets in Texas are estimated at $85 billion. With 184,000 farms in Texas, assets average $462,000 per farm. Many commercial size, full-time operators, have in excess of a million dollars invested in their farm or ranch business.

Texas ranks in third place in total cash receipts among the leading agricultural states, behind California and Iowa. Texas, however, is traditionally number one in the sales of cattle and calves, cotton, grain sorghum, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cabbage and spinach.

One farm worker today provides food and fiber for 78 people. He also creates jobs for more than 5 nonfarm people who produce the things farmers need and who process, transport and merchandise the crops farmers harvest.

American agriculture is the world's largest commercial industry with assets exceeding $1 trillion. This industry employs nearly 23 million people, a full 22 percent of America's total labor force. The agricultural industry encompasses manufacturing, farming, transportation, processing and merchandising.

Farm and city people make the best food and fiber team in the world and give this country the capacity to feed its own people and to export for economic gain as well as for humanitarian purposes, points out Smith.

Local men serve on sorghum board

In its regular bi-monthly meeting in Amarillo on Nov. 9, Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board installed four new directors. They will serve six-year terms on the board which administers the programs of the sorghum check off established in the Texas High Plains by a referendum of sorghum producers in 1969.

Directors are elected by the producers who are affected by the sorghum check off. New Directors are: George Reeves of Dalhart, Jack Cobb of Plains, Delbert Watson of Muleshoe and Weldon Shelton of Lamesa.

Following the installation of new directors, the board elected officers. Albert Scheele of Lockney is the board's new chairman. Scheele previously served as vice chairman. The new vice chairman is Jim Dowty of Dumas. Dennis Anthony of Friona was elected secretary-treasurer. These officers were elected to two year terms. Other members of the twelve-man board are: Jack Crowl of Morse, Bob Gillispie of Gruver, Loyall Turner of Spearman, Ralph Mabry of Lubbock and K.B. Parish of Springlake.

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board (TGSPB) conducts and directs grain sorghum promotion through market development, research and education. Its greatest efforts are directed toward establishing and improving markets for Texas sorghum. The work is financed by a refundable assessment of five cents per ton of sorghum deducted at the time of first sale.

Gandy Dancer

Narrow gauge railroads call to mind high mountain passes, rickety wooden trestles spanning deep gorges, and awesome hairpin loops amid spectacular Colorado scenery and fascinating western history.

John Hutchison, County Attorney, is the Hansford County Library's Collector of the Month. John is a railroad and history buff who is particularly interested in the narrow gauge. John is displaying several HO scale model trains that he built while still in college. The tiny railroad cars were built either from kits or from scratch, and each took anywhere from ten to forty hours to construct. The brass locomotives were purchased.

Narrow gauge trains were 1/2 the size of regular trains, which gave them a small, quaint appearance. The track width was 3' between rails as compared to the standard 4' 8 1/2". The smaller size enabled the trains to negotiate the steep, twisting mountain terrain of the mining districts that they served.

The last narrow gauge train used for freight was one running between Alamosa and Durango, Colorado. It made its last run in 1967.

Today there are several narrow gauge trains running scenic passenger routes. Included among these are the ones from Durango to Silverton, Colorado, the Chama Route out of northern New Mexico, and the recently renovated Georgetown Loop between Georgetown and Silver Plume, Colorado, west of Denver.

Although John's railroad hobby has been interrupted for numerous years, he intends to resume it soon, now that his two sons are old enough to appreciate the hobby.

John Hutchison's tiny trains are fascinating. Drop by the Hansford County Library, catch up on some railroad lore, and learn more about one man's unique hobby.

Dear Friend:

We've got a "Friend At The Factory----Marv Hendrickson!!!"

Because so many have expressed the desire to learn how to make items displayed in the store and sold at Markets throughout the United States, Marv will be here every Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from November 21st through December 14th (except November 23rd, the day before Thanksgiving) from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. giving demonstrations on how it is "done at the factory." In addition she will be personalizing and specializing for your gift list.

Also, because of some design changes and "drops" just made for the New Year, many items will be at "close-out prices".

Plan to attend the demonstrations for gift-giving ideas. Come and see Charlene's newest idea which will be introduced at the January Markets.

Sincerely,

Dawn Bridges

Faye's Daze

I have just talked to my son on the phone, and he was telling me granddaughter Lauryn's latest antic. She is always wanting to drive, so the other day, he said he let her sit in his lap and after she had driven awhile, she said 'I want a car', and she won't be two until Feb. 27. They say children are growing up faster all the time, it sure seems like it.

You are all probably planning your Thanksgiving menus and other activities. I ran across this clipping the other day, it probably won't help you much with your Thanksgiving dinner but it may give you a laugh in the midst of all your preparations.

A kindergarten teacher who asked her 5 and 6 year old students their views on cooking favorite foods. They answered and she compiled booklets and presented them to their parents. Here are some of their ideas. Spaghetti: Put the p'sketti in the pan and cook it 4 hours, then take it out and put sauce like you put on french fries on it. Then get it out and eat it. Bird Eggs From Chickens: Just put one in the water, then put in another one, then another one. Let it cook up 2 hours. Get it out and put cold water on it. Eat them up.

Cinnamon Toast: Take plain raw bread and put butter on it. Then first put sugar on it, then cinnamon. Put it in the oven and that's it.

Fried Chicken: Put grease in a pan. Buy a chicken. Open the bag that it's in. Then you put the whole chicken in a pan. When the grease is gone, it's done. It takes about 10 minutes.

Salad: Cut tomatoes all up and throw them in a bowl. Then put in lettuce. Better put tomatoe sauce in there too. That's it.

Wheat Bread: Get some wheat and a piece of white stuff. Cook it hot, hot for 14 minutes. That's it.

My favorite was by Tim Duncan for "Alread Cook Hamburgers". Go to the Dairy Queen and have it with a Coke. I'm with you Tim!

I am planning on a Happy Thanksgiving holiday and hope that all of you have one too.

SEE WHAT YOU'RE IN FOR BEFORE YOU GET IN.

The best way to find out about today's Army is to ask. And the best place to ask is at the new Army Recruiting Station in Borger, Texas.

Recruiters are there to answer questions. About the 300 skills the Army offers, many of them part of the new technology, and most of them with civilian job application. About the salary (which starts at more than $570 per month), with food, housing, medical and dental bills paid for.

About the pride, and how you feel when you're trim and fit and doing an important job.

They're there to answer questions. All you have to say is, "I'm just looking." Special Note to Seniors: Ask about the Delayed Entry Program and Army College Funds.

The joy of owning your very own 'Touch Tone' phone could turn into tragedy if your phone line is designated for a dial or pulse phone. A pushbutton 'pulse' phone will work on most lines, since it also duplicates the signal of a regular dial phone. However, a

With Christmas less than two months away, many consumers are poring over catalogs and advertisements deciding what to order. Mail-order shopping has taken on a whole new look in the last several years, with scores of "special interest" catalogs, and ads for products by mail in almost every magazine.

People who enjoy the convenience of mail-order shopping, however, can be unpleasantly surprised by some of the hassles involved.

Before ordering products by mail, consumers should be aware of the Federal Trade Commission's mail order rule, and how it affects this type of transaction.

The mail order rule requires companies to ship your order within the time promised in their advertisement. If no time period is promised, the company must ship your order within 30 days after they receive it, unless you are contacted and agree to a specific delay.

When there is a shipment delay, the company must send you an "option notice," giving you the choice of either consenting to the delay or canceling the order and receiving a refund.

Many mail order marketers now offer toll-free numbers for easy ordering. Shopping by telephone may be even more convenient than shopping by mail.

But consumers should know that orders placed by phone are not covered by the FTC's mail order rule.

If you want to order by mail, but only have the company's 800 telephone number, call and ask for its mailing address. Calling is also useful to determine the company's refund policy, the availability of the product, and the total cost of your order.

If you do decide to order by phone, however, you assume the responsibility for merchandise that is not delivered or is delivered late. So before ordering by phone, buyers should consider past experience with the company or its general reputation.

To protect yourself when ordering by phone, keep good records. Write down the company's name, address and phone number; the price, description and item numbers of the merchandise ordered; the total cost of the order; the method of payment used (check, credit card, C.O.D.); the method of shipment and anticipated delivery date; and the date you placed the order.

When you order by mail, make a copy of the order which contains this information.

With either method of ordering, it's also useful to keep a copy of the ad or catalog that led you to place the order.

Thousands of consumers find shopping by mail or phone-order to be convenient and trouble free. Others have complaints about the failure to deliver merchandise, to deliver merchandise on time, to make prompt refunds, and to answer inquiries about delayed or lost orders.

Since Christmas is the busiest shopping season of the year, the likelihood of problems occurring with the mail-and phone-orders are increased, but consumers do have some recourse.

If you have a problem with mail or phone order, first try to resolve your dispute with the company. If this doesn't work, some of these organizations may be able to help:

--Postal inspectors. Call your local postmaster and ask for the "inspector in charge."
--State and local consumer protection offices. Contact the consumer protection division of the state or district attorney General's office.

--Action line and consumer reporters. Check with your local newspaper, TV, radio stations and ask who to contact.

--The Better Business Bureau (BBB). Contact the BBB in Hansford County or the one near the company.

--The Direct Marketing Association (DMA). The DMA can be reached at 6 East 43rd St., New York, N.Y. 10017.

The Fair Credit Billing Act provides protection if you paid by credit card and your purchase costs more than $50. This law may allow you to withhold payment on your credit card bill until the dispute is resolved. But because this law applies only to limited circumstances, get advice before you withhold payment to make sure you are covered by the law.

You can also notify the Federal Trade Commission about your complaint. Although the FTC cannot act directly to help you resolve your dispute, the staff may be able to provide some useful information. Write to the FTC at 6th and Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

NOT MUCH CHANGE

No precipitous shift in energy policy is needed to cope with the possible climate changes in the next century caused by atmospheric buildup of carbon dioxide, the National Academy of Sciences said recently.

"A Centerpiece"

By: Alma Remy

Friday, November 11th was known as Armistice Day and now Veterans Day, a holiday for all government employees, honoring our servicemen who so bravely defended our country in time of war. For those who were bombed in Beirut without a chance to fight back or to do the job they were sent there to do. This is a tragic thing to happen to our young American servicemen which amounted to 218 Marines, 18 Navy and 3 Army personnel killed by the truck bombing in Beirut. It all seems such a waste of life and such a ruthless way to kill innocent people with no chance to retaliate.

Our school children gave a nice program on Veteran's Day at the Varsity Gym which was sponsored by the Extension Homemakers Council and if you missed this or failed to listen on the radio you missed a very good program.

Senator Bill Sarpalus gave the address and participating were Spearman High School choir, Jr. High choir, 6th grade choir and Boy Scout Troop #551. Benediction was given by Rev. Martin Foster. This was another project of teamwork on the part of the Lions Clubs, sororities, clubs and a special "Thank You" to James Cunningham, Billie Haden, Allen Alford, Spearman Reporter, KRDF and 4-H Club members. It was a great display of patriotism and honor to American service men living and dead.

On Thursday volunteer ladies met to work on quilting and crafts with a luncheon at noon. Not such a large group, but a group of willing workers and some progress was made. If you know of someone who likes to quilt or has a talent for crafts, invite them down to the center. The center needs them and they will enjoy the fellowship and the chance to learn some new ones.

Next week--will tell you about our Thanksgiving dinner, the 15th. Hope you were among the good people to attend--see you later.

200 turn out for 'Chemical' meeting

Part I of a two part series—More panel comments, questions, answers in Reporter Thursday.

About 200 persons turned out Thursday night for the first of two town meetings on drug and alcohol abuse, in what sponsors hope will be an all-out community effort "War on Drugs."

The Hansford County residents attending the town meeting, held in Spearman High School auditorium, first viewed "The Chemical People," a professional quality film narrated by Nancy Reagan. The film, which has been aired on public television stations nationwide, was a launching device for town meetings such as the one here. It featured startling facts and statistics on the widespread abuse of drugs—including alcohol—presented by a number of movie and television stars including Michael Landon, Rita Moreno and Bill Bixby.

Some of those attending the meeting were surprised the film classified alcohol as not only a drug, but the most widely abused drug in America, calling it "The drug of choice."

Statistics used in the film were based on a study made by the University of Michigan and updated every year. The survey was conducted in cities and towns of all sizes across America, according to the film.

Some of the statistics presented included:

--93 per cent of all high school seniors have at one time or another drunk alcohol;

--16 percent of all high school seniors drink some form of alcohol daily;

--Of this 16 percent, one half were drunk within the last two weeks (at the time of the survey);

--The second most widely abused drug is marijuana, that a large part of dealing for marijuana is done "right out in the open" and that "kids know its there;"

--60 percent of the seniors surveyed have tried marijuana;

--21 percent of the seniors are classified as marijuana users;

--And of this 21 percent, one half use it every day;

--About 139,000 eighth and ninth graders smoke marijuana regularly;

--15 percent of the seniors have tried stimulants--uppers, downers, speed and the like; 17 percent have sniffed cocaine; and 15 percent have tried hallucination drugs such as LSD;

The film featured interviews with young drug users or former drug users, symptoms, effects of drugs--"one girl said she drank a lot and there were "whole months I can't remember;" the effects of marijuana on the lungs and on the brain were detailed.

Also described was how parents, kinfolk and communities as a whole built a wall of denial around their children refusing to believe there was a drug problem.

After the film, members of a local panel each spoke briefly on "The Local Drug Scene," then the meeting was turned over for written and verbal questions from the audience.

Rich Melton, of Spearman Lions Club served as master of ceremonies. The Spearman Lions co-sponsored the "Chemical People" town meeting as part of its recently launched "War on Drugs." The other half of the sponsorship was split between the other civic clubs and organizations in town, including the Ministerial Alliance.

Members of the panel were Moderator Betty Womble, Sheriff R.L. McFarlin, Spearman Police Chief D.J. Alberts, Dr. David McClellan, M.D.; the Rev. Bill Shardin, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church; Loretta Cook, parent, community leader; Eddy Clemmons, Spearman High School Principal; and Kim Nelson and Cinda Novak, Spearman High School students.

Sheriff McFarlin said there is an alcohol and drug problem in Spearman, but not a big one. He said he wanted to congratulate the young people of the community because we have "very few drug problems here."

He said the community cannot deny there is no problem at all here—that about six months ago a subject was arrested with what was believed to be 10,000 amphetamines. These pills later proved to be no more than caffeine pills, but that people often are fooled into buying these thinking they are buying drugs.

McFarlin said the sheriff's department has no problem at all working with the school system or the teachers in Spearman, Gruver and Morse, and he thanked the educational community for its cooperation.

Chief Alberts said that he took feels that there is a drug-alcohol problem here, but not one of major proportions. He took and praised the community's youth as a whole. The sheriff and police chief also released statistics compiled showing arrests made over the last 10 years on charges of drunkenness, DWI, illegal sale, making available, minors in possession, and drugs.

Dr. McClellan said he definitely did not feel he was an expert on drugs, but that he has in his medical practice seen evidence of drug abuse and alcohol abuse in the community.

He told of a girl who had been brought into the hospital in virtually a coma after having four to maybe six beers. He said this is evidence alcohol is a drug.

The Rev. Shardin, said that while drugs and alcohol are evidence of problems in society, they are just the tip of the iceberg, proof of angers, fears, frustrations, hopelessness and such feelings as "Who is God?" "Nobody cares about me..."

Mrs. Cook said she is concerned because there is some drugs and alcohol problem here, adding she has two children.

She said it is the job of parents to take the first step in trying to find the solution to drug problems.

Clemmons said he has talked to seniors about drug and alcohol use, and that they'll tell you anywhere from 30.7 percent to 60 percent. He said a composite figure would probably be somewhere in the vicinity of 70 percent of the High School students will try alcohol sometime and five percent will use other "chemicals."

He said young people love to party and peer pressure increases the chances of young people taking drugs or alcohol.

Miss Nelson said there is pressure on young people to try drugs all right, but a very real other kind of pressure had not been mentioned—the need of young people to satisfy others, their parents, teachers, friends, that they partake in many activities and events to do this and thus find little time to satisfy themselves. This leads to tremendous pressure, she said, and the need to find ways of relieving this pressure.

Miss Novak said young people turn to drugs at times out of boredom, just not enough activity. She said kids around here really love dances, more dances "would be great" and that church groups could sponsor hayrides and socials.

Rock 'n Roll fans of the present generation wait in vain at bus station welcome Conrad Birdie, the 'king of early day rock, in this scene from

'Bring Back Birdie' presented Saturday and Monday by the Spearman High School dramatists and chorale group.

The cast of 'Bring Back Birdie' bows to a curtain call for the musical comedy, presented Saturday and Monday in Spearman High School auditorium.

WBY-DURDAY?

Here's some news of the 1984 Olympic Torch Relay that may warm your heart:

• The Olympic Torch Relay, the longest ever, will cover 20,000 kilometers—nearly 13,000 miles—and pass through all 50 states and the District of Columbia. It will begin May 8, 1984 in New York City and end 81 days later at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

• Grandchildren of two legendary Olympic athletes—Jim Thorpe and Jesse Owens—will carry the Olympic Torch the first kilometer in New York City. A series of torchbearers will carry the Olympic Flame across the United States day and night.

A modern 'rock group' upstages the return of 1950's rock 'n roll idol Conrad Birdie.

Legion teams up with Shriners

It's one of the best combinations since Hope and Crosby, love and marriage, and, coffee and doughnuts. It's the American Legions of Texas and the Shriners.

For the first time, the 80,000 members of Texas American Legions are putting their fundraising efforts behind the efforts of the Shriners and the purpose is to raise $1 million for the Shriners Crippled Children's Hospital in Houston and the Burn Institute in Galveston.

For everyone who has had their doubts about those people collecting money on street corners, there's no need to wonder any more. Since Legion Commander C. "Red" Sonntag and Arabia Shrine Temple Potentate Maurice Elsberry kicked off the campaign in mid-October, fundraisers all over the state have been easily recognizable by their Legion caps and Shiner fez.

And, there's no need to wonder where the money goes. The Houston hospital has helped treat, free of charge, 250,000 children with orthopedic problems and the Burn Institute has helped save victims of fires from around the world.

The people are easy to recognize, and so is the need. Donations for the fund can be sent to Department Headquarters, P.O. Box 789, Austin, Texas 78767. Checks should be made payable to "American Legion-Shriner Fund Drive."
