HEAVY RAINS pelted the Spearman-Gruver area Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week! A total of 2.50 had fallen in the showers by noon Friday, with more rain falling as we go to press! The rain is a blessing, as farmers were just starting to water their wheat!

ENGINE NO. 6344 leans precariously to the east after she "struck a mudhole" in the Spearman area Thursday. The talented work crews soon had her back on the track, and if it keeps raining, they plan to put mud - chains on the engines!

JOHN P. ARMES

Mr. John P. Armes, of Gruver, has authorized the Spearman Reporter to announce his candidacy for Commissioner of Precinct #3, Hansford County, in the Democratic primary.

Mr. Armes is a farmer and rancher and has lived in Hansford County for the past 24 years. He has lived in Precinct #3 for 20 years.

Mr. Armes is married to the former Jean Crable and has two daughters - Mrs. David Fletcher, of Gruver, and Darla, a student in Gruver High School; two sons - David who is married to the former Kelly Harper, of Spearman and Justin. He also has two step children - Mrs. Connie Clother, and Steve Crable.

Mr. and Mrs. Armes are members of the United Methodist Church of Gruver. He is finishing his sixth year on the Board of Trustees, Gruver School District, but is retiring April 5th. He has been on the Board of the Hansford County Stock Show for approximately 8 years. He is also on the Board of Directors of the Equity Elevator.

Mr. Armes has been particularly interested in the youth of the county and has always participated in and been concerned with their activities. He has always given generously of his time and means to help any worthwhile organization.

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Armes stated that he is aware of the extreme responsibility of the County Governing body. He has been a tax payer for many years and pledges himself to keep local taxes as low as possible, consistent with adequate management. He is aware of the need to pay salaries to attract and hold efficient employees and officials. He further states that he is concerned with the responsibility and operation of the hospital.

Mr. Armes is knowledgeable concerning the new taxing assessment requirements and is aware of the confusion during this transition period. He would expect to cooperate with the new tax assessment board and made every effort to keep the taxes fair and equitable.

It is Mr. Armes' intention to contact as many voters as possible between now and the Democratic Primary. He will sincerely appreciate any effort and influence by the voters on his behalf.

R. L. (Lee) McClellan
(on a birthday occasion)

Hansford County pioneer, businessman, religious leader R. L. (Lee) McClellan, 91, succumbed to the infirmities of his age this week and was buried Friday by sorrowing family and friends.

Services were conducted in First United Methodist Church where Lee McClellan was a member, an officer and spiritual leader most of his life until advanced years encroached on his energy. Even then, the pattern of his life in the church and in the community provided inspiration for maturing young people.

In addition to his spiritual leadership, McClellan contributed three business ventures to the community with their payrolls and prosperity as proof of his faith in Hansford County when he settled here and set about establishing a future.

He established a grain business, a farm implement business and a car dealership in the prime of his business operations.

A significant part of his contribution to his chosen part of the grand plains was the family he formed. There is not a member who failed to contribute something notable to the community and the lives of those about them. A son, Roy Lee McClellan is currently serving as Hansford County judge as well as conducting both his personal business and the continuing family business operations.

The strong, warm personality of Lee McClellan has moved to another segment of being in which he strongly believed. However, evidence he was here will remain in a rich heritage of living he left behind.

Mr. McClellan passed away Wednesday at Senior Village in Perryton where he had been for the past few days.

Rev. Frank Oglesby, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, and the Rev. Wade Griffin of Lubbock, officiated at the 11 a.m. Friday memorial service at the First United Methodist Church here. Burial was in Gruver Cemetery by Boxwell Brothers Funeral Directors.

Mr. McClellan, born in Mount Calm, moved to Hansford County in 1903 and to Spearman in 1920. He was Hansford County Clerk from 1912-20, served as mayor and alderman for the city from 1920-50. He established R.L. McClellan Implement Company in 1923 and R.L. McClellan Grain Company in 1923 and operated the McClellan Chevrolet Company from 1929-53.

He was instrumental in securing the charter for the city of Spearman. He was twice president of Panhandle Grain Dealers Association, Hansford County Red Cross Chairman for 30 years.

He was charter member and first president of Spearman Lions Club, past Hansford County Democratic party chairman, a Mason and past master of Hansford Lodge No. 1040 A.F. & A.M., Sunday school superintendent and member of the board of stewards of First United Methodist Church and past president of Spearman Chamber of Commerce.

He married Vera B. Wilson in 1915 in Hansford County. She died in 1971.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Vera Beth Hicks of Spearman, two sons, Roy L. McClellan and Wilson McClellan, both of Spearman; three sisters, Mrs. Ida Wilmeth of Spearman, Miss Orene McClellan and Mrs. Opal Hunt, both of Lubbock; a brother, Dave McClellan of Gruver; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Alarm Will Not Be Used In Stormy Weather

Fire Chief Ronnie Antalek announced this week that in stormy weather the fire siren will not be blown for fire alarms so as not to confuse residents who might think that the alarm sounding was for a storm warning.

The annual Sports Banquet will be at 6:30 p.m., Monday, April 28.

John McGuire, athletic director for the Amarillo school system, will be the featured speaker.

A part of the program of the evening will be the presentation of awards to outstanding athletes in various sporting fields, made by the various coaches involved. Recognition will be given to a number of persons for accomplishments and work done.

Cheerleaders of the school are staging the banquet, assuming responsibility for planning and serving.

Athletes, their parents and friends and sports fans of the Spearman program are eligible to attend.

Tickets will cost $6. They may be purchased from any of the cheerleaders or from the Sports Talley and Gordon's Drug.

MOONLIGHT SALE

For centuries man has speculated, debated, feared or scorned the legendary effect the moon has on his behavior without any absolute conclusions. Thursday night, some 20 Spearman merchants are going to conduct their own experiment offering for two hours only -- 7 to 9 p.m. -- bargains that may not appear again, ever, in the merchandising world.

They have dubbed the promotion a "Moonlight Madness Sale."

Truly, however, man's madness -- or "lunacy" -- is not the issue. The ability of buyers to recognize that merchants have reduced items to be featured for that two hours, Thursday night, is being put to the test. As one local merchant said as he submitted copy for the publicity on the event:

"I sell tons of that stuff each year at an established price far above the special Moonlight Madness promotional price I am listing. No matter how much I sell during that two hours, Thursday night, I feel there are going to be many hating themselves for not making note of the ridiculous figure I am using."

In essence, some of the bargains are offered at up to 100 percent discount -- as in the case of "buy one, get one free!" Other actual discounts range up to 50 percent. Some items will probably go below their cost to the merchant.

Why? Because it is important to every merchant in business in the community to know how well area shoppers recognize value as a key to future buying and merchandising of products.

The "Moonlight Madness" venture is not a promotion of the advertising media of the community. It was planned and conceived by businesses working in concert with the Spearman Chamber of Commerce. This newspaper is just a medium for exposing the public to the specials.

What is the advantage to the buying public?

Obviously, considerable savings over prices normally paid the largest Band, Choral and Orchestra Festivals in the 20-year history of the Six Flags park.

In addition to the competition, members of the chorus will enjoy two days of entertainment at Six Flags Over Texas, including a special Friday night concert by Jose Feliciano.

The students and others attending the Festival will also have the opportunity to ride the park's newest attraction, an authentic wooden roller coaster known as Judge Roy Scream, The Awe West of the Pecos.

LUCILLE HAGERMAN is shown here with the silver tray presented to her by Beta Sigma Phi as "Woman Of The Year 1980". The recognition of Mrs. Hagerman, honored her as being an asset to the community, a good mother, and a hard worker, always with a smile on her face for everyone.

GOP Primary 'open to all' says county party chief

"You don't have to be a life-long Republican to vote in the May 3 Republican Primary," according to Lola Reynolds, Hansford County Republican Party Chairman.

"Voters who have always voted Democratic in the past, and who intend to vote for some Democrats in November, are nevertheless eligible to cast a ballot in the Republican Primary."

She pointed out several good reasons for doing so, including the fact that the Republican Primary offers the voter an opportunity to influence the choice of the presidential nominee. "Our presidential preference primary will be binding-the delegates to the Republican National Convention will be chosen based on the votes received by the candidates in the polling places on May 3."

"The Republican Primary will also give the voters of Hansford County an opportunity to express their opinion on two of Governor Clements' proposals, the use of wiretapping to help stop massive distribution of illegal drugs in our state and the question of Texans having the use of Initiative and Referendum, a method by which the voters of the state could make laws in the general elections," Mrs. Reynolds said.

PO Has Change Of Address Kits

If you're one of the estimated 36 million persons who plan to move their residence this year, you should begin notifying everyone you regularly sends you mail at least one full month before you move.

That's the advice from Spearman Postmaster T. Ray Robertson who suggests you file change-of-address forms with your post office and send them to correspondents and publishers.

The Postal Service offers free Change-of-Address Kits to make it easier to notify everyone. Available in post offices and from letter carriers, the kits include convenient postcards to alert the postmaster and for mailing to department stores, friends and relatives, utility companies, banks, newspaper and magazine publishers and others who do business with the family planning a move.

Insurance Corner

AUTO TRANSPORT COVERAGE

There is a form of auto insurance that covers the above situations. It is called automobile transportation insurance. It provides coverage for damage or loss of a vehicle while it is being carried on other than driving. For example, services are offered whereby an auto is put on a train and, while in transit, collision, sinking, or derailment somewhere, etc., upon or in which the auto is contained. This is an excellent and novel way to travel -- the people get to their destination relaxed and ready for an exciting vacation, and still have the use of their car.

Or cars or often transported across water by ferries -- there is quite a bit of this activity in the Great Lakes area. Hundreds of miles of driving are often saved this way.

This information has been brought to you as a public service by John R. Collard, Jr., your one step answer to complete business and personal insurance protection. Life, home, auto, group insurance, and profit-sharing plans. See John R. Collard, Jr., 405 Davis St., Telephone 659-2501.

Faye's Daze

When the siren got stuck at 5:30 a.m. this morning I awoke and thought, well, this surely must be it and that a tornado would descend promptly. I got up and looked out and couldn't see anything very threatening, turned on the radio, nothing, turned on the TV, nothing, so I decided I'd just hop back in my nice comfortable bed for another hour's snooze. As I did this I thought to myself, next week you'll be getting up at this time, because good old Daylight Savings Time will be upon us once again.

Billy and I argue about the benefits of Daylight Savings Time all the time, he loves it, and I don't, but then he is one of those persons that love to get up early and I certainly don't fit into that category.

The rains of last evening and today (Thursday) have really been grand. Surely if the poor beleaguered farmers of this day can smile, these rains will bring smiles to their faces.

Several columnists in area newspapers have commented about the dog locking Billy out of the car, that I reported in this column a few weeks ago. I don't know whether it is because it was an unusual occurrence or because it happened to him.

During the downpour of rain this afternoon, he remembered that the above mentioned dog was outside and went to rescue it. If the dog was as wet as he was when he got back, he will surely get pneumonia or distemper or whatever dog's get.

I was out in the yard last weekend (doing a little work) and I happened to look up at my roof and saw loose shingles on the ridge pole or whatever that is that goes across the top of the roof. If I can see damage from the ground not telling what a carpenter will find when he gets on the roof. I really didn't have a new roof in my budget for this year, or next year either for that matter.

There is a picture in this issue of Lucille Hagerman displaying the silver tray she received from Beta Sigma Phi, as "Woman of the Year, 1980." A spokesman for the sorority said they chose to honor her because of her ready smile, great personality, being a good mother, and a hard worker. She certainly is that, she holds down four jobs. She works at the school cafeteria during the week, at Thriftway on Saturday, she and her children clean the Methodist church and she is also the nursery worker there. Congratulations, Lucille, on an award well deserved.

Dear Hansford County Citizens:

I have appreciated the opportunity to serve as your County Attorney since being appointed in July, 1979, by the Hansford County Commissioners' Court. I am now running for a full four year term.

If elected, I will continue to try to represent Hansford County in a fair and responsible manner. I would appreciate your vote on May 3, 1980, in the Democratic Primary.

Sincerely,

John Hutchison

BOB HUNNICUTT of Channing is one of the artists of the Panhandle who will have his work on display at the Tasting Tea and Art Show, May 2 and 3 at the Gruver United Methodist Church.

Primary Election Is Saturday

Despite the fact the general election is in November, the political fate of many candidates will be decided Saturday through a device of long standing known as the "primary election."

Texans have settled in to the fact of a Republican primary as a matter of course but the impact of Republican opposition at the state level will not be felt until the general election in November.

An example is the race for state representative for the 64th District. The Republican incumbent is not seeking re-election. Competition for the post is pitting Glen Harris of Hansford County, J.W. "Buck" Buchanan, Moore County and J.T. Webb, Ochiltree County against each other in the Democratic primary. The victor will have to face Hansford County Republican candidate R.C. Porter who is unopposed in the primary on the Republican ballot.

For U.S. Representative, 13th District, Jack Hightower, incumbent, is unopposed on the Democratic ballot as is former Amarillo newsman Ron Slover on the Republican roster.

Despite Hightower's post, Democrats have seven other primary unopposed candidates at the state level. They are Robert M. Campbell, associate justice, supreme court, place three; C. L. Ray, associate justice, supreme court, place four (a four-year unexpired term); W.W. (Bill) Carter, state board of education, 13th District; Charles L. Reynolds, chief justice, civil court of appeals, 7th District; Carlton B. Dodson, associate justice, civil court of appeals, 7th District; Richard N. (Dick) Countiss, associate justice, civil court of appeals, 7th District (unexpired term) and John LaGrone, judge 84th District.

There is a Carter with opposition. He will be found at the top of the Democratic ballot in the presidential referendum along with aspirants Edward M. Kennedy and Jerry Brown.

Democratic primary contests drawing the greatest interest locally are the 64th District representative race and the contest for state senator, 31st District. This pits Gerald McCathern and Bill Sarpaulis with the winner hoping to unseat Republican incumbent Bob Price in the general election.

Closer to home, Jim Ivey is seeking to unseat incumbent Sheriff R.L. McFarlin with no Republican opposition, so the primary should tell the tale.

County Tax Assessor-Collector Helen Dry is unopposed as is Precinct One County Commissioner Garland Head.

Other contests are between John Hutchison and Cecil R. Biggers for county attorney and John P. Armes and B.J. Renner for Precinct Three county commissioner.

None of these have Republican opposition. Other local contests are for Democratic Party organization at the county level.

With Democrats elsewhere in the state, Buddy Temple is trying to unseat incumbent John Poerner from the Railroad Commission; Jim Hightower is battling James F. (Jim) Nugent for an unexpired term on the same commission; Wayne Scott, John C. Phillips and James F. (Jim) Wallace seek the office of associate justice, place one on the supreme court; Lawrence E. Bergman and Sears McGee are after place two on the same court; Marvin O. Teague and Leon Douglas are seeking the office of judge, place one, Court of Criminal Appeals; John Hmpreys, W.T. Phillips and Mike McCormick are seeking place two on the same court while Edith Roberts, Walter Boyd and Tom Davis are after place three.

Republican races pit Ronald Reagan and George Bush for the presidential preference; Henry C. (Hank) Grover, E.W. (Billy) Kidd and John Thomas Henderson for a seat on the Railroad Commission (Grover was once a GOP candidate for Texas governor); H.J. "Doc" Blanchard for that unexpired term on the Railroad Commission; Jim Brady, associate justice, Supreme Court, place one; will Garwood, that unexpired term on the same court, place one; incumbent Bob Price for state senator and J.E. Blackburn contesting Democrat John LaGrone for the 84th District Court bench.

With a Republican primary now an established fact, the order of action is victory for the Democratic aspirants with no GOP opposition. Demo candidates within their own party and a GOP opponent, must win their party primary and face the Republican contender in the general election.
