ez, Mexico, was found unconscious Tuesday morning in the small house where he stayed alone on the Robert Ownbey farm five miles west of Morse.

Pete Vera, Ownbey's foreman, found Gonzales when he went by to get him to go to work. The one-room house was (Con't. on page 2.)

have been placed on the ballot for directors of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce.

J.L. Brock, Insurance agent and farmer.

Jim Evans, Pharmacist and partner in Gordon's Drug.

Three of these men will fill the three vacancies on the board this year. Men who have finished their terms are J.L. Brock and Bill Massie. James Bramlett's position was not filled when he moved to Seminole last summer.

Teachers Going To Workshop

Mr. James Pendergraft, principal of Junior High, announced this week that 26 teachers will be attending a reading workshop concerning new media for reading instruction in Dumas Dec. 11.

It will be an all day meeting.

Horsewoman Plans for Nationals

A young seventh grader has put her horse out to pasture and she is pounding the basketball court, but come next Spring she will be riding again and aiming for national honors.

Red haired Wanda Sue Greene qualified in four events of girls' national rodeo events last summer, but did not compete. She rides in the 14-year-old and under division.

The 13-year-old has been riding for two years, but when she and her four-year old quarterhorse, Senior Ray, teamed up this summer, the ribbons and trophies began collecting.

In her two years of riding she has collected 52 ribbons and trophies in Play Days and Junior Rodeos over the area. She won 16 firsts this year.

Senior Ray has picked up a couple of trophies. He placed in a couple of horse shows this summer.

Wanda competes in six to eight events in Play Days and in junior rodeos she competes in the barrel races and goat tying contests.

This summer she qualified for the national finals in barrel rel racing, flag racing, key-hole racing and the ring race.

After getting started on May 12 this year she compet-go to the national in Oklahoma because she learned she qualified only the day before the contest. She and her horse think they would have been in shape to compete.

In all of the competition this summer, the young horsewoman only took one bad spill. While she was waiting her turn in a flag race, a flag was accidentally thrown under her horse's front feet.

The horse nor the rider were expecting the flag, and he reared-up and dumped Wanda. It just shook her hat loose.

She had one near miss, but the horse avoided a spill by taking matters to himself.

In a barrel race as they were turning on the second barrel, Wanda cut the horse too short and he was going into the barrel. Instead of taking a spill over the barrel, the horse jumped it. Wanda stayed with him and finished the run, even though she was disqualified.

Wanda hopes to follow her sister, Joan, as an outstanding Lynxette basketball player, but between seasons, she and Senior Ray plan to fill up some more trophy boards with ribbons.

WANDA SUE GREENE- 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Greene on her quarterhorse Senior Ray has won 52 medals and trophies in the last two years.

Day by Day

by Dpy McClellan

I hate to complain about pretty weather. In fact, I feel like it's a pretty unpopular thing to do, but now that it's mid-December I wouldn't care at all if the weather turned chill or even snowy. It just seems more like Christmas when the weather is cold.

Next February or March though, I'm sure someone will remind me I wished for ice and snow when we were basking in mid-winter sunshine.

There's so much talk about how everyone is rushing the Christmas season, it just occurred to me, I don't believe I've heard over three or four Christmas carols yet. I know I haven't if you don't count the kind that start out like a familiar carol and end up being a commercial.

This week a friend has brought me an interesting letter concerning how to help inter-denominational missionary society in its efforts to assist the sick and needy. It involves sending old greeting cards and cancelled stamps, especially U.S. commemorative and foreign stamps. They are sold and/or used in hospitals and other institutions for therapy. The stamps should be cut out with at least 1/2 inch margin if possible. Other instructions in the letter include the mention of sending the package third or fourth class marked "donation-cancelled stamps" and being sure you use the correct amount of postage because the persons in charge are not financially able to pay "postage due" charges personally.

The address for sending such packages is Mrs. Ruth E. Huette, R.R. No. 1, Box 3, Bradford, Ohio 45308. For further information call 659-3181.

The Rule of Three—
Three things to govern: Temper, tongue and conduct.
Three things to cultivate: Courage, affection and gentleness.

Three things to commend: Thrift, industry and promptness.
Three things to despise: Cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.
Three things to wish for: Health, contentment and friends.
Three things to admire: Dignity, intellectual power and gracefulness.

Three things to give: Alms to the needy, comfort to the sad and appreciation to the worthy.

Open House Slated At Windy Acres

Everyone is invited to come to the country and enjoy a cup of coffee, homemade cookies, visiting with old friends and making new ones.

It will be the start of a good old fashioned Christmas season.

Spearman Teams Split Games With Miami In Weird Night of Basketball Fouls, Goals

It was a wild night in Lynx Gym Tuesday with technical fouls, bouncing field goals and another two point loss for the Lynx, 43-31, while the Lynxettes rolled on undefeated 49-26.

Probably the weirdest field goal in many basketball games was scored in the Lynx-Miami Warrior game. In the second quarter Carl Close and a couple of Warriors were battling for a rebound near the goal. They came down and the ball bounced hard against the floor, back up and over the basket rim for a field goal and two points for Spearman.

The basket was credited to Close since he was the last Spearman player to touch the ball. Officials, coaches and others who have followed basketball for a long time could not remember that ever happening before.

Spearman trailed most of the game, but pulled into a 21-21 tie at the half, then held a two or three point lead at times in the third quarter, only to have Miami tie it 29-29 at the end of three quarters.

With less than two minutes to play the Lynx were behind six points, but their drive fell short.

The Lynx outscored Miami 36 to 20 from the floor, but Miami made 23 of 36 free throws while Spearman could hit only five of 17 free throws. There were 38 fouls called in the game. Twenty were called on Spearman and 18 on Miami.

Ken Shufeldt led the Spearman scoring with 19 points on nine field goals and one free shot. David Bowers led Miami with 20 points.

The wild contest between the girls teams saw Spearman take the lead and continue to move away on the strength of strong free shot shooting. The Lynx-ettes scored on 19 of 29 free shots.

The Lynxettes had trouble getting started and were leading only 9-6 at the end of the first quarter. It was the defenders night as Robbie Ownbey, Kathy Pattison and Bethany Donnell, assisted by reserve Nancy McCullough held the Squaws in check while the forwards were having trouble finding the basket.

Wilde, who scored 21 points, got the Lynxettes moving in the second quarter to extend the lead to 23-8. She hit a couple of baskets from the floor and was accurate at the free throw line.

Coach Dean Weese went to his bench often trying to find a scoring combination. McCullough also saw action as a forward along with Marcia Shieldknight and Cecilia Wilson.

After a nine point third quarter, Shieldknight and Hutchison started shooting in the fourth. Shieldknight had nine points, most of them in the last quarter. She was very strong on rebounds, also. Hutchison scored two field goals in the last quarter, also.

Miami drew three technical fouls. One was a two shot foul when a Miami player went to her knees to escape being trapped with the ball, a second one on the same play when the Miami coach complained about the call. The coach got a second one later when he again complained about the officiating. This last technical came when the officials called a foul on Spearman.

Texans Receive More Than Paid in Taxes

Texas receives more federal money than it pays in federal taxes, according to this week's newsletter from Senator Ralph Yarborough of Texas.

Senator Yarborough reports that Texas received $1.06 for every $1 in federal taxes Texans pay. Texans pay approximately $4 billion in federal taxes each year.

Federal expenditures in Texas are over $4 billion each year. This includes federal contracts to industry, civilian and military wages, federal aid payments to state and local governments and individuals and agricultural and conservation payments.

Besides this regular income from the federal government, in 1965-66 the state is getting over $500 million in new funds.

These new funds include over $4 million for college scholarships, $7.5 million for work-study funds and $85 million for Texas for the first year to upgrade education in low-income areas.

Medicare will provide $96 million under the basic plan for those over 65 and $57 million in the voluntary plan.

The increase of 7 percent in social security will give an additional $98 million in payments by 1967 and public assistance funds for the blind and disabled will increase by almost $7 million.

Omnibus rivers and harbors bills will mean $104 million for Texas. There is another $48.5 million for military construction in Texas.

The San Antonio Hemisfair scheduled for 1968 gets only a small $125,000.

The war on poverty in Texas will cost $23 million.

In agriculture there is $2.8 million to maintain the screw-worm barrier zone. At College Station a pesticide laboratory will cost $2.9 million and a cotton disease laboratory cost $664,000. Planning funds of $25,000 were set aside for the $350,000 Southwest Great Plains Research Center at Bushland.

The Great Plains Conservation program will spend $16 million in 96 Texas counties. The REA and Farmer Home Administration will have $365 million.

Post Office Urges Public To Mail Early

"Literally billions of pieces of mail will be delivered between now and Christmas. If everyone were to wait until the last week to mail their gifts and greetings, there is a possibility that the postal system would be literally swamped in a sea of mail. More important, special messages of good will would not be delivered on time. Public cooperation is the key to fast and on-time mail delivery at this time of the year," Acting Postmaster Elmon Jacobs said.

"Poor packaging and illegible or incorrect addressing accounts for about half a million undelivered parcels each year. All parcels should be addressed on only one side and should have the address written somewhere on the inside of the package in case the exterior wrapping should be lost. It is a good idea to also enclose a list of the contents. Parcels are generally shipped in bags and often heavier items rest on top of smaller, lighter packages so special care should be taken to see that each package is tightly stuffed in strong boxes," he said.

Lynxettes Win Shamrock Tournament

The tough Briscoe girls made a fatal mistake against the Spearman Lynxettes in the championship game of the Shamrock tournament Saturday. It cost them a 51-38 defeat and the Lynxettes took the title.

Briscoe's defense was set to stop Barbara Wilde under the basket. She had scored 40 points on Friday night. The defense worked, Wilde got only 11 points, but Karen Gibson and Susan Hutchison shot Briscoe out of the game from out front.

Gibson hit 19 points and Hutchison 17 points. Diane Dodd and Lou Meadows of Briscoe had 19 and 17 each for Briscoe, but the rest of the team got only two points. Spearman was leading only 14-11 at the end of the first quarter. Kathi Pattison, Robbie Ownbey and Bethany Donnell put the squeeze on the Briscoe offense. They held the Briscoe team to six points in the second quarter and only three in the third quarter. Nancy McCullough was the back-up girl for the Lynxette defenders.

Colored Recipe Cards

Write your recipes on colored cards instead of white cards, to avoid confusion. Use pink for desserts, green for salads, red for meat dishes, etc. It is then a simple trick to put them back where they belong by matching the colors. Even if your box is indexed, the job goes faster.

Take your problems to Church this week — millions leave them there!

MAN TO MAN

Children are people. This father knows that and treats his son accordingly. He realizes that his child has as much right to individuality as he has. He is chiding his son for "making up" an impossible tale, but he is a wise parent and has not made the mistake of an attempt at near-perfection in bringing his child up right.

The child's story is as real as his sense of imagination, though he knows it never happened. The father is wise in not taking the matter seriously. In their innocence children give their imagination free rein: this is never to be confused with falsifying. And the child whose life is filled with interest, usefulness, education and faith will never resort to untruths that are unwholesome.

Teach your children early the joy of faith in their Church—and as it matures child-imagination will give way to a sound concept of religion and the good life.

Homemaking Notes

by Linda Webb
Home Demonstration Agent

With only 14 shopping days left until Christmas, the rush of the season certainly is being felt now.

Particular attention is given to the "sugar 'n spice" department—better known to some as the kitchen. Delicious aromas fill the air as cakes, cookies, yeast breads, pies and candies are made by the dozen.

Some of the joy of baking and candy-making for the holidays can be dulled by the lack of time—especially for the working woman. Fortunately, new products and methods come to our rescue in simplifying techniques and reducing preparation time.

(Now mind you, I am not advocating an over-throw of the conventional "start-from-scratch" method of cooking. But as a career girl myself, I have had to look around for these time-saving devices in the kitchen).

Beautiful cookies—crisp, bar, shaped, rolled or dropped—can be made from packages mixed and refrigerated doughs. Since they are so easy to bake, there is more time to decorate and package them.

To save further time, cake and cookie frostings are available in mixes, in cans, refrigerated, and in pressurized containers. Nuts, cherries, coconut, candy sprinkles and sugar crystals are among the many decorations that make cookies so attractive.

Cake mixes are unlimited in type and flavor, and you can experiment by baking them in layers, squares, sheets or cup cakes.

And no holiday would be complete without candy making. Candies made with sweetened condensed milk are almost failure proof. Simple fudges can be made from frosting mixes.

FRENCH FUDGE
1 1/2 cups (9 oz.) semisweet chocolate pieces
Dash of salt
2/3 cup (1/2 can) sweetened condensed milk
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Put chocolate and salt in top of double boiler; cover and heat over boiling water until chocolate melts. Add sweetened condensed milk and flavoring; heat until well blended and smooth. Pour into a container at least 2 inches deep. Cover exposed surfaces with waxed paper or aluminum foil. Refrigerate or let stand at room temperature several hours until firm. Remove covering and cut into serving pieces. Store in tightly covered metal container.

QUICK FONDANT
2/3 cup (1/2 can or 7 1/2 oz.) sweetened condensed milk
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
4 3/4 cups sifted confectioners' sugar (about)

In medium sized mixing bowl blend together sweetened condensed milk and vanilla extract. Gradually stir in sugar; continue to stir until candy is smooth. Mold into desired shapes.

Kilroy Speaks . . .

Dear Kilroy

I love you will you marry me. Answer.

Lonely Heart

Dear Lonely Heart.

Send measurements, coloring and an un-retouched photo. I will consider it but I am particular.

Dear Kilroy,

There is this boy that works at Niagara Falls that keeps writing me these letters and calling me but he is supposed to be going steady with one of my girl friends. My girl friend found out and she is beginning to hate me and him both. It's not really my fault. Please help me. I think he's going to break up with her and ask me to go with him but since he's 42 years old, I really have no desire to go with him. HELP!

Signed,

Too Young

P.S. You better help her before I scratch her eyes out.

Signed,

Girl Friend

Dear Too Young,

You could always hope that he might try to go over the Falls in a barrel. He sounds like the type.

Dear Kilroy,

I love this boy very much. He wants to go steady and so do I but he goes to college and I just get to see him on weekends. Should we go steady or not?

Signed? ??

Dear ????

Actually I do not approve of long distance romanets, but it is a definite way to test your love. If you really like him a lot, you will want to go with him and him only. But if you want to go with others, do so, and forget the steady business. But, don't cheat on him. Discuss it rationally with him, and work out what you will do.

Dear Kilroy,

I have a friend that went out with my girl. I am going to whip him. Do you think I should.

Troubles,

Dear Troubles,

No. Boy! Some friend you are! To go around beating up your buddies isn't exactly my idea of a pal. Find a new girl instead.

Dear Kilroy,

I have a problem. There is a girl I like very much but she has a boyfriend. What should I do.

Mr. Lonely

Dear Mr. Lonely,

Find another girl. (Preferably one that does not have a boyfriend already.)

Dear Kilroy,

I'm a freshman boy with a terrible problem. I'm a lover boy and simply cannot help or control myself. I don't even have to be on a date, I can just be walking down the street, minding my own business, see a girl (good-looking, of course) and I just go crazy! She usually doesn't like it too well unfortunately, and I never get any other chances with her.

What can I do with myself? I need help and so do the girls when I get around!

L.B.J.

Dear L.B.J.,

On Kilroy's staff, there is a very efficient handwriting analyst who assures me that this letter is a phony. It can't possibly be an aggressive freshman boy. This handwriting appears to be that of a very self-conscious, super-sensitive, straight forward Senior girl with a delightful sense of humor. Anyone who has this girl for a friend is very fortunate as she is extremely loyal, close-mouthed, and would even lie for a pal, if necessary.

Please don't try to fool Kilroy.

Spearman Drama Class Seeking Old Costumes

Martha, here is an old double-breasted coat. Reckon the drama department of Spearman High could use it? Well, I'll put it in the box. Remember any old clothes will be most useful to the kids when they put on the "Miracle Worker". We've got to call all our friends and remind them to look for any old fashioned clothes they've got. All of you readers don't forget to look through your trunks and see if there are any remainders of the olden days. If so, call Mrs. Frank Porter at the high school and let her know. She will see that someone picks them up.

Junior Class Discuss The Merit Test

The Junior class had a meeting Dec. 2. Mr. Laws, counselor, talked to the class about the National Merit Testing program. This testing covers all subjects and a scholarship will be awarded to the top ranking students in the United States. Any junior that is interested may take this test. This test will be given Feb. 26 and will last three hours. It will cost $1.

WTSU Chorale Preform For SHS Students

Wednesday, December 1, the West Texas State University Chorale and Brass and Percussion Company gave a concert in the Spearman High School auditorium. The purpose of this tour, which will also visit nine other towns, is to promote WTSU and its music department, and to celebrate the anniversary of Dr. Houston Bright, who has been with WT for twenty five years.

The University Chorale, consisting of forty-four members, and the Brass and Percussion Company, consisting of ten members, sang and played selections which are all compositions by Dr. Bright.

Gene Webb of Amarillo, Glynn Webb of Lubbock and Herbert Kirk are vacationing and hunting in Colorado.

Senior Class Holds Meeting

The Senior class met Dec. 1 and 2 to vote for a girl who will compete for the Daughters of America Award. This person has to be outstanding in leadership, school citizenship and active in the community.

They then discussed selling various items to make money. These ideas were sent to a committee consisting of Susan Hutchison, Lloyd McWhirter, Tom Gibner, Phyllis Davis and Gwen Hanners. The Committee will select the items to be sold.

What's New With Sue

by Sue Stubblefield

With the fashions continually getting shorter, extra attention is called to good posture. Study high fashion models in ads. As surprising as it seems, it is possible to sit pretty in a short dress and still be comfortable.

According to a French fashion editor, American women go to extremes in fashion... either of being overdressed or by being too casual. She said that Americans either overdress in furs, hair styles and makeup or sloppy in slacks, blouses and hair curlers; so girls, watch the extremes!

Suede trim is still tops in fashion for boys. Mohair sweaters with matching suede is high on the fashion list.

Brillhart Works On Fuel Cell

Mart Brillhart has been in science for 3 years and enjoys it very much. This year he is working on ion exchange in the fuel cell. He is trying to convert H₂+O₂ into electricity by electrolysis. He receives his information from numerous science magazines.

At the present time the fuel cell is a highly efficient, compact, power unit that produces no toxic exhaust fumes, high temperature, high pressures or noise. These attributes are those things being sought in power plants for long distance submarines and space ships by today's scientists and engineers.

The fuel cell is not a new concept; the first one was built in 1839, but attempts are being made now to build fuel cells which will produce enough power per unit volume to make them practical.

Working Wives Are Important In All Areas

COLLEGE STATION — More women are either returning to or joining the labor force than ever before and for many reasons, says Mrs. Elsie P. Short, home management specialist at Texas A&M University.

The usual one given by working wives is to add to the family's income. Others include the desire to resume an interrupted career, the wish to expand daily activities, or the desire to fill a day with new activities.

Mrs. Short advises the housewife who wants to work to talk it over with her husband and children first. She should try to get her family's cooperation, because a new job means extra responsibilities for the whole family. Each member will have to assume the responsibilities for the care of the house, clothes, and each other.

Before deciding definitely on accepting a job, the housewife should study the plus and minus side of the family's finances, and how the new job will affect them. She should ask herself questions like: What salary will I earn? What kind of deductions will be taken from my paycheck? What will my take-home pay be? How much will it cost me to work? How will my earnings affect the income tax situation

All of these questions should be carefully studied. Working wives often find that the extra amount their husbands have to pay an income taxes nullifies the benefits she had hoped to bring in.

The working wife should also consider the effect on her family. If there are small children in the family, a babysitter will have to be hired. Older children will have to take on added responsibilities of helping tend the younger children and taking care of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy King spent Thursday night of last week with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Shield-knight. They were enroute to Phoenix from Waterford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Sparks and A.D. Sparks visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Talley of Amarillo and in Lockney with Mr. and Mrs. Frances Carthel.

A/IC Roy Lee Devers has recently graduated from non-commissioned officers school at Castle Air Force Base in California. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Devers of Spearman.

Students with the West Texas State University Chorale spending the night with the Ray Devers were John Tyler and Franklin Huff of Amarillo, Gregg Jackson from Phillips and Jimmy Newton and Bill Devers from Canyon.

Our gifts are not limited to just gifts for women and children. We have gifts for men. These include everything from a very good set of hand tools to a card shuffler.

You puzzle buffs had better hurry. We are running short of those good round jigsaw puzzles. We will not be able to get any more until after Christmas.

Another gift for men would be a set of the wooden clothes hangers with the clips for slacks and the broad wood hangers for coats.

Holiday Thoughts Turn to Tables Student Council Officers

Though good friends may meet every day of the year, the spirit of the season adds special pleasure to holiday get-togethers. Whether it's "just pop in" or an "R.S.V.P." party, entertaining at home is a part of Christmas.

Since such entertaining usually includes something good to eat, holiday thoughts and plans often turn to the kitchen and table. Hostess and host prepare to welcome friends, and find that kitchen and serving gear need some replacing and refurbishing.

Guests, planning to bring or send hostess gifts, may well hit on the idea that something to help with the entertaining now and in the future is particularly appropriate.

Since one day's guest may be tomorrow's hostess — or vice versa — shopping trips offer the opportunity to accomplish two things at once. When entertaining aids from candlesticks and ashtrays to new china and silverware are purchased, the shopper at the same time may discover a variety of gifts large and small to say "Merry Christmas" and "Thank you."

Housewares departments provide a particularly good source of gifts items that are both practical and decorative. Price tags are equally varied.

GIFTED IDEAS for the Christmas table might range from salt and peppers to coffeepots to candlesticks and even a dinner bell. Group shown is by Castleton.

HOMEMAKER'S DELIGHT are gifts of dessert dishes. If Santa delivers them himself, he might bring along dessert, too.

COOKIE CONFECTIONS for giving can be decorative, too, in festive Christmas shapes. "Pack" cookie gifts in pretty dishes.

ONE RECIPE for making the hostess happy might be gifts of cookware. Shown, Fiesta porcelain-enameled utensils.

"MERRY CHRISTMAS" is clearly the message, when tableware gifts are holly-patterned. Shown, party platter and bowl by Lenox.

COFFEE-MAKING GIFTS go right to work for entertaining. Here, distinctive drip pots with bonus gift of coffee with chicory.

To Attend Area Meeting

Officers of the Spearman High School Student Council will attend an area meeting in Pampa Saturday.

The officers will be accompanied by the school counselor, L.L. Laws, and Geir Overland, the exchange student here.

BIG BUSINESS

Americans spend $4 on remodeling for every $5 spent for the purchase of new homes, according to trade associations' statistics.

Stitch Toward Pile

When making a holiday velvet dress or skirt, be sure to use a long, fine needle, baste and stitch with silk thread in the same direction of the pile.

Set fudge to cool in an ice cube tray. When the fudge is nearly ready to cut, use the tray divider to mark off even squares.

Soldier Now Appreciates Home After One Quick Look at Korea

One short look at Korea and a Spearman soldier is mighty proud of what we have in the United States.

Terry Pittman, son of Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Pittman, arrived in Korea just after Thanksgiving for duty as a cook with an Infantry Company.

In his first letter home Terry wrote:

"The people over here are something. They live in places you can't believe, but they seem to be happy. I cannot describe the conditions, but this makes you proud of what you've got at home."

Terry flew from San Francisco to Tokyo, via Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Washington. He left on Nov. 24 at 6:30 p.m. and 12 hours later was in Tokyo at 11:15 p.m. Thursday.

"We flew right through Thanksgiving. We just didn't have Thanksgiving Day this year," he commented.

By crossing the International Dateline Pittman got ahead of the U.S. time by 15 hours.

"I thought it was funny that last Monday morning when I got up at 8 a.m., Daddy was just getting home from Hollis."

T.J. Pittman is pastor of a church in Hollis, besides being custodian of the courthouse.

"It is 8:30 p.m. Wednesday here and it is 5:30 a.m. Wednesday in Spearman, so get up Daddy, the courthouse is dirty."

Terry told his parents to send him plenty of stamps, because the Post Office was out the other day. He added, "Can you believe that."

Terry asked that his address be put in the paper and that any and all mail would be greatly appreciated.

His address is Pvt. Terry J. Pittman, US543252324, Co. C. (Charlie), 1/23 Inf. Regt., 2nd Div., APO #96224, C/O P.M., San Francisco, Calif.

Rosy Mum Glow

Red roses, white mums and a frosted candle in a low container, plus red and gold ornaments, add brilliance at the holiday season.

Use Clarified Butter For Greasing Pans

If you like to grease baking pans with butter, clarify the butter and keep it tightly covered in the refrigerator to have on hand for this use.

Through clarification, you gain a salt-free "oil" that tends to prevent baked products from sticking — and of course the clarified butter gives good flavor to the crusts of cookies.

"Your Christmas Headquarters"

ALLEYTON, C.S.A.

When the clouds gathered, Alleyton was a key point in the defense of the Confederate States of America during the Civil War. It was both beginning and end of the road leading to the Confederacy's victory on the Rio Grande River.

The Buffalo Bayou, Brazos and Colorado Rivers, which flow from Harrisburg near Houston to the Gulf of Mexico, were the only major gap in the Union's blockade of the Confederacy. Neutral territory was the place of exchange for outgoing goods and imported munitions, clothing and medicine.

When Federal forces took Vicksburg in 1863, the Mississippi River was closed off and the Confederacy divided. The only major trade routes then became the South's major supply lines in the Trans-Mississippi West.

Alleyton was a main destination of the wagon trains from the Rio Grande. Mills, swords, shirts, pants, powder, and other items needed by soldier and sailor in the war-torn Confederacy were unloaded here for their destinations.

In the past two years, the State Building Commission, upon recommendation of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee put six Tourist Information Markers. Three others were given through the Texas Historical Foundation.

The sea floor has been called the world's biggest junkyard. empty cans, bottles and waste of all kind litter the floors of the Atlantic Ocean, the Red Sea and the Indian Ocean. Capt. Jacques-Yves Cousteau, whose expeditions are supported by National Geographic, said recently that he would never forget his first deep dive in a bathyscaphe: "I landed in front of a spread-out newspaper."
