Weaver Told Of Lubbock Cotton Hearing

George Mahon, 13th district representative, informed M. Weaver, local AAA administrator, this week that a Congressional committee would hold a hearing in Lubbock Oct. 24 in regard to future policies and legislation affecting cotton and cotton producers. Purpose of the hearing is to get the views of producers toward legislation that will possibly be reviewed by the next congress. A portion of the AAA law, including that part which enables producers to establish national and local cotton acreage quotas will expire in 1947. The committee is coming to West Texas upon the invitation of Mahon. It will be headed by Cong. Steve Pae of Georgia, author of the Pace Parity bill. Pace is an influential member of the House Committee on Agriculture. Six other members of the group will attend with Pae, among them W. R. Poage of Waco. Mahon said that the committee would hold a meeting at Cameron in addition to the one at Lubbock. Site of the session in Lubbock has not yet been announced. In expressing the hope that each county in the 13th district would have at least one representative at the Oct. 24 conclave, Mahon emphasized the importance of cotton to the future prosperity of West Texas.

Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District News

M. H. Ulmer, district cooperater of the West Vealmoor conservation group and one of the leading farmers of the district, took advantage of September moisture and seeded all of his 600 acres of cultivated land to peas. Ulmer plans to improve the soil fertility of his land by returning to the soil all of the pea crop "white green."

Good stands of abuzzi rye have been observed on the following district cooperators' farms: Melvin Choate, G. W. Felton, E. T. O'Daniel, J. Y. Robb, Dick Simpson, (who has 100 acres sown to rye), and Charlie Ray.

"This variety of rye is important on sandy lands in that it furnishes wind protection and winter grazing," according to C. R. Donaldson, head of the local Soil Conservation Service office.

B. O. Brown, livestock farmer, reported that yellow bluestem grass seeded on 7 acres of retired cultivated land two weeks ago is now coming up. Brown, who is a district cooperater living in the Vincent conservation group, ultimately plans to seed 80 acres of cultivated land to grass. Brown is resting his native pastures this fall and has turned his cattle in on 100 acres field of late sudan which is about knee-high.

J. G. Nichols, who recently worked out a conservation plan on his farm in cooperation with the district, said that his usual practice for spreading barnyard manure on his fields has definitely increased crop yields.

Trail seedings of hairy vetch on the farms of E. T. O'Daniel and J. Y. Robb are now coming up. Vetch is a soil building and grazing crop.

Want a Vacation from Marriage?

Alvin Blake went south on his vacation, for some fishing, and left his blouse to enjoy a vacation from the necktie, pipe, clothes in a heap, and shoes on the harmonica.

First few days, Martin enjoyed it—home rest and quiet, top back on the couch, no morning mess from Alvin's smoking pipe (Al's partial to a bit of cheese and beer at bedtime).

Came the end of the week, she began toidget; couldn't even read the Clifton, it looked so unseasoned; Alvin's have any appetite with nobody to cook for. She was about to give up when she happens home a week ahead of time, and she almost cries for gratitude. ("Felt the same way myself," says Al).

From where I sit, those differences of habit and opinion—whether they have to do with corn-cob pipes, a glass of beer, or playing the harmonica, seem mighty trivial when you're separated. And they are, too!

Peters Gives Talk In First Aid Series

Advice on the handling of bone fractures was given by Otto Peters, in the first of a series of five first aid programs over KBST Tuesday evening.

Peters made the distinction between compound and simple fractures, urging caution in handling of even simple fractures to prevent them from being compounded. If medical aid is immediately available, it is advisable to await arrival of the physician before moving patients with broken bones, he said.

In almost every case, there may be some degree of shock and first aiders should act against this. Sometimes it is necessary to control arterial bleeding, he pointed out, reminding his listeners, however, that they were first aiders, not doctors.

Leslie Gates At Home Here After Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gates are at home in Big Spring following their wedding Sunday in Kankakee, Ill., in a formal ceremony performed in the First Methodist church.

The bride is the former Arlene King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. King of Kankakee, and Gates is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gates Sr. of Kankakee.

The single ring ceremony was read by Rev. Morgan Williams before an altar decorated with palms and cathedral tapers placed in tall candelabra.

The bride wore a formal wedding gown of white satin designed with a dropped shoulder-line effect with a yoke of chiffon, and long sleeves which came to points over the wrists.

Attendants were Gladys Beckman of Chicago and the bride's sister, Wanda Luan King. Both wore identical frocks of white brocade satin and carried bouquets of red roses.

George Gates, Jr., of Big Spring acted as best man, and ushers were Clarence Balthazar and Wilber Ray.

Bonnie Trudeau sang "I Love You Truly," and as the couple knelt on a white satin prie-dieu, she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held honoring the couple in the parlor of the church following the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from Kankakee high school and from the Michael Reese school of nursing in Chicago in August. Gates graduated from Kankakee high school and attended Hardin-Simmons university before entering the Army Signal corps.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gates Jr., of Big Spring attended the wedding.

Mrs. Homer Petty returned recently from St. Louis where she visited in the home of her brother, Arthur Schubert.

Women Express Opinions As Lid Pops Off Frying Pan

Big Spring housewives were varied in their opinions regarding the lifting of price controls on meats, but the majority were approving, despite the fact that the cost of meats will probably rise.

Mrs. Dee Foster, Jr., expressed the sentiments of many local housewives in saying that she seldom went to the grocery store for meat that she didn't get it, even though the choice was limited.

Mrs. Larson Lloyd believes that we will at least have bacon, but she also maintains that local housewives must stick together during the decontrol period.

get to a certain level I think we'll begin to leave them in the meat counter."

Mrs. James T. Brooks is not so confident that the price will go so high and then level off. "It's an unpredictable situation and I hesitate to say just what will happen, but I don't believe that we can take control of meat without it affecting other things."

Mrs. Herk Agee approved the President's action and added that although prices will undoubtedly rise immediately, when the public is supplied again the cost will come down again.

"I only hope," she declared, "that the prices will adjust themselves soon, because present prices work a hardship on the average American family."

Mrs. Dee Davis, one of the many housewives in Big Spring who stores meat supplies in frozen food lockers, stated that although the situation did not affect her to any great extent she thought it was a wonderful thing.

Mrs. M. A. Cook said that the influx of meat was good, but the bad thing was the hazard which may arise making it more difficult for the salaried person to live.

skyrocket, Mrs. Cecil Collings declared that eventually they would reach a lower level.

There was a brief increase, but then the supply improved they went back to normal."

"Decontrol of prices will eventually be a good thing," Mrs. A. H. Ryle thought. "I think the President has done the best he knows how and more of us could have done better so we should stand by him."

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcetrats (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. Move alive, youthful appearing and active.

Can't Keep Grandma In Her Chair

Many sufferers discover nagging backache quickly, once they realize that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Kept Down On The Farm, Goes To Town As Writer

AP Newsfeatures
CUSHING, Okla.—George Eino Ladd, Oklahoma farm boy and recent winner of $1,000 first prize in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary's essay contest, has a story of work and study-filled days and nights, tinged with youthful disappointment.
George lives with his parents on a 750-acre farm. In 1944 he was preparing for military service when his father's health failed and Ladd's draft board handed him disappointment No. 1. It told him to stay in the fields, keep the farm going.
Then there was another disappointment. Although he lacked only a handful of credits to finish, George had to give up high school to devote his full attention to the farm.
Eventually the family decided George should complete his school work and prepare to enter Oklahoma A. & M. College, although his father still was unable to work. Out of bed at 4:30 a. m. for chores, George had to be ready for the school bus at 7, then back at 3 p. m. to farm tasks lasting until nightfall.
In the midst of his crowded life, young Ladd was handed the school essay assignment: "What Can I Do For My Country?"
Over his chores he fashioned his thoughts, and at night he set them down.
He wrote: "A country is no better, nor worse than the sum total of all its citizenry. It is only when each individual discovers and does the thing that he can do to contribute to civilization that the sum total will be equal to national harmony and good living."
George also wrote: I must keep myself mentally alert so that I cannot be swayed by an emotional upheaval of the moment... Any fault we find with our country's actions we must find with ourselves.
It won the school contest for George and took first prize in the state contest. Then came the news from the Boston national encampment that the $1,000 prize was his.
Farm boy Ladd hasn't decided how he'll use the money—maybe college, maybe some land of his own.

The group is meeting at the junior college as result of a special invitation extended by E. C. Dodd, president.
Teachers of the city schools have a special invitation to attend. Some 65 members of the organization are expected to be on hand.

What To Do For That Sluggish, Down-and-Out Feeling

Remember the time when you would get like a horse, bubbled-over with energy, felt happy as a lark? Was it not because you liked to eat—didn't know what indigestion was, felt strong as an ox? As age advances the "old stomach" and the ever-changing blood" need help. Now you may experience indigestion, nervousness to every muscle, fibre, cell.
Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.
To get real relief you must get up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.
Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.
Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out, hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Use Fireplace For Preparing Foods Which Require Long, Slow Cooking

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Are you a fireplace cook? If you've never tried it, you ought to. No question about it, America has hundreds more backyard fireplaces every year and much has been added to the simple entertaining department thereby.

As the days get brisk and chilly it's not too comfortable eating out doors, especially in the evening. Besides, it gets dark too early. But that doesn't mean you need give up your fireplace cookery.

Converting your fireplace for hearthside cooking is a simple operation, if you get a basket grate that fits snugly at the back and slides and use nice clean anthracite to make your coals. Common brick will fill in any chinks if your grate doesn't fit exactly. Put the rack from your oven across the grate to support the heavy pot in which you will make your fine fireplace dishes.

On this grate fire of coals you can make the sort of dishes which are really hard to do properly on our various automatic stoves. That long, slow cooking is accomplished to perfection. Here are some suggestions for foods you can cook this way.

Pot-au-Feu
3 to 3½ pounds meat and bone (trump or fresh plate of beef).
4½ quarts of water.
2 tablespoons salt.
2 or 3 carrots.
1 turnip.
1 small parsnip.
5 or 6 leeks.
2 stalks celery.
1 onion.
Pinch of thyme.
½ bay leaf.
1 clove.

Cover meat and bones with water, bring to a boil and parboil 5 minutes. Remove meat and bones, discard water and clean pot. Put back the meat and bones with the 4½ quarts of water and the salt. Place the pot on the oven rack over the fireplace grate. Cook gently for an hour and a half. Add vegetables (which have been cleaned and cut in pieces of any desired size) and cook two and a half hours longer. Serve in individual earthenware casseroles, accompanied by French bread, spread with garlic butter and toasted over the coals.

Chicken In White Wine
5-pound fowl, cut in pieces.
1 clove garlic.
2 carrots, cut up.
1 pound peas.
2 cups white wine.
8 small white onions.
2 peppercorns.
Butter or margarine.
Salt and pepper.

Wipe the pieces of fowl with a damp cloth, season with salt and pepper and dredge lightly with flour. Brown quickly in a heavy iron pot in the butter or margarine with the garlic clove, cut in half. Remove the garlic. Add peppercorns and white wine and enough water to cover the chicken. Cook two hours on the fireplace grate. Add carrots, peas and onions and cook another hour, or until chicken is tender, adding more water if necessary.

A fine accompaniment to the fireplace meal—or just by itself on a cold night—is mulled cider.

Mulled Cider
1 quart cider
¼ cup sugar (white, brown or maple).
2-4 sticks cinnamon.
4 whole cloves.
½ teaspoon whole allspice.

Boil cider and spices 5 minutes. Remove spices, add sugar, and boil 5 minutes longer. Let stand until needed. Pour into hot mugs of earthenware or pewter and mull on the hearth by plunging red hot poker into each mug until the liquid sizzles. Dust grated nutmeg on top of each mug.

Firefighters Called To Oil Well Blaze

ATHENS, Oct. 17. (AP)—Fire fighters from Houston will attempt today to extinguish an oil well fire near here which has been burning since Sunday.

Driller T. B. Hill was killed when the fire started. B. B. Boyter, 39, of Vivian, La., was seriously burned. The $200,000 butane diesel rig was destroyed.

Rutabaga Time

Supplementing good supplies of locally produced turnips right now, the rutabaga is moving in from Canada. The rutabaga is nothing but a big, yellow turnip—less watery in texture than the white turnip, though. It's milder-flavored than the white turnip, too, and has a greater variety of uses.

In case the family likes it better disguised, the rutabaga can be prepared to look like yellow mashed potato!

Spicy Future

Spice supplies are improving. The Department of Agriculture tells us pre-war sources, even for spices that are still under allocation, are gradually opening up, and our imports are on the increase. Allocations have been removed from all spices except pepper, nutmeg and mace — and pepper from some sources is not allocated now. As for other spices — cinnamon, cloves, ginger, allspice, etc. — there are no limitations except those the cook will exercise.

Thieves Arrested, Car Returned Before Owner Had Missed It

EL PASO, Oct. 17. (AP)—Alvin Taylor, 24, and Willie Nickols, 28, both of Dallas, were arrested in a stolen car after a 40-mile chase near Dent, N.M., arraigned and sentenced to one to three years in prison yesterday before the car they were reported.

C. M. Denny of Oro Grande, N.M., said that the pair awakened him to have their gasoline tank filled. While he checked a tire he said he was hit with a railroad spike and the pair fled. Regaining consciousness Denny notified police who caught them.

The two men were taken to Alamogordo, N.M., where court was in session. They were arraigned and sentenced to New Mexico prison before Joseph Presnky of El Paso, the car owner, reported it missing from a parking lot.

Gage Challenges Kiwanis Club To Be Real Men

With a prolonged period of adjustment in which "men did some strange thinking" nearing an end, the Rev. Gage Lloyd, First Presbyterian minister, told Kiwanians Thursday that the challenge today was for "you to prove yourselves real men."

He did not, he said, have reference to a superficial religion, but one that demonstrated that "you are men of faith in all walks of life." Rev. Lloyd said youth is looking to mature men as to no other group for example and inspiration, and that men had an obligation for moral living and positive demonstration of principles of righteousness in business and in the home.

Dr. Howard McClain, Kingsville, president of the Presbyterian school for Mexican boys, spoke briefly, telling of the work that institution had done and was doing.

Robert Stripling, president, and T. B. Atkins, delegates, told of attending the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district convention in Beaumont. Among speakers were Joe Porter, Lawton, Okla., past district governor, John E. Gorsuch, Denver, Colo., international trustee, Robert S. Kerr, Oklahoma governor, and Capt. C. G. Gardner of the state highway patrol, who told the convention that Texas' traffic mishap record was comparable to forcing the people of Beaumont through one exit and clubbing them as they emerged with such effect that 100,000 would be injured and every seventh one would be killed.

Nine Kiwanians made plans to participate in the presentation of a charter to the Sweetwater club Tuesday evening, and to present programs at Sweetwater on Nov. 29 and Midland on Dec. 9.

PIEFACE — Bob Johnson, 12, sharpens his appetite on a golden-brown pie in preparation for his share of 10,000 given away at the annual pumpkin festival at Eureka, Ill.

Army Personnel May Participate In Reserve Plan

Enlisted personnel and rated officers will be given an opportunity to participate in an Air National Guard reserve training program under the Air Defense Command, it has been announced.

The 9th AF and Biggs Field, under the tactical air command, are cooperating with the 10th AF and the ADC in setting up the air reserve program in the Fourth Army area. Currently, planes and equipment at Biggs Field will be made available.

The ADC is charged with the responsibility for the air defense of the continental United States. It is planned to have 34 combat groups in the active air reserve, these being divided into 130 base detachments with one or more located in each state. They will have a complement of 17,500 pilots, 5,000 staff pilots, and 27,500 non-pilot officers and 12,000 enlisted personnel.

In any emergency, the air reserve will supply the units and personnel necessary to supplement the regular establishment in providing overall balanced air force. Training at Biggs Field at the start will be limited to rated officers flying AT-6 type aircraft and using Link trainers, and other ground devices. Enlisted personnel training will start at a later date. More information may be had from Maj. Shelby J. Harris, 10th AF liaison officer, and Capt. D. C. Donaldson, base representative and officer in charge of training, both at Biggs Field, El Paso.

Cotton

NEW YORK, Oct. 17. (AP)—Cotton futures broke the daily allowed limit of $10 a bale today under successive selling waves which wiped out attempts to rally.

The market was shaken, according to brokers, by the prevailing sentiment that the ultimate effect of the decontrol program would have an important bearing on the future of cotton.

Selling was also influenced by the theory of some traders that the market had been overbought and a technical reaction was due. Mills took advantage of the break to cover a large volume of contracts against textile orders.

MOTHERS GET BONUS IN RUSSIA

MOSCOW, Oct. 17. (AP)—Increases in already liberal allowances for Russian mothers—especially those with large families—are expected by some observers to boost the total population of the Soviet Union to more than 200,000,000 within the next few years.

(The 1939 census gave Russia's population as about 170,500,000.) Under a budget proposed by the finance ministry, the government would spend 4,000,000,000 rubles in allowances to mothers next year, as compared with 2,100,000,000 rubles last year. (The ruble's official value is 5.3 to the dollar.)

Use Oatmeal For Get-Up-And-Go Dishes At Breakfast, Lunch, Supper Hours

More and more importance is attached to nutritional breakfasts—for children and adults alike—by doctors, dietitians and educators. In most households, breakfast is the "hurry up," "rush-rush" meal—and little thought given to nutrition.

Oatmeal combines the advantages of a hot breakfast with quick preparation—oatmeal combines abundant nutrition in vitamins, iron, energy and proteins. It certainly is the "get up and go" breakfast—with lasting nourishment.

And, there is no need to limit the enjoyment of oats to just breakfast. Try these new, tested recipes and see how much your family enjoys them—and the family pocketbook, too, will benefit.

Meat Loaf
2 pounds ground beef.
1 1/2 cups Oats.
2 teaspoons salt.
1/4 teaspoon pepper.
1/4 cup green pepper, chopped.
1/4 cup onion, chopped.
1 egg.
1 cup milk or water.
Mix the ingredients well. Turn into loaf pan, well greased. Press down lightly. Bake an hour in moderate oven. Serve hot or cold. Will give eight to twelve servings. (Cut in half for smaller family.)

Honey Drops
1/4 cup-fat.
1/4 cup honey.
1 egg.
1 cup Oats.
1 tablespoon milk.
1 cup sifted flour.
3 teaspoons baking powder.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.
1/2 cup chopped raisins.
Cream fat and honey together.

Add egg and beat until blended. Stir in 3-Minute Oats and milk. Sift dry ingredients, add with raisins and mix well. Drop from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 18 to 20 minutes. Yields 2 1/2 dozen.

Oatmeal Prune Pudding
2 cups hot cooked Oats.
1 cup cooked pitted prunes.
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg.
3/4 cup undiluted evaporated milk.
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.
1/2 cup molasses.

Mix all ingredients; bake in 1 1/2 quart baking dish, in moderate oven, 350 Degrees F. 40 minutes. Serve hot or cold with top milk. Serves 6.

Raisins Relieve Dessert Monotony

If dessert makings seem scarce, be grateful for the raisin. After years of GI service the raisin has gained civilian status once again. It's market-available—and in the nick of time. For since so many foods have vanished from our stores, these naturally sweet pellets are doubly popular and in twice as much demand.

Use raisins to sweeten up a fresh fruit compote... gingerbread gets glamour when you add raisins to the batter... your pet blanc mange will be more beautiful, more piquant if you cook raisins in the pudding... raisins give cobblers and betties chewability and flavor. Try these also:
Baked Raisin Prune Whip
Combine—
1-2 cup coarsely chopped puffed seeded or seeded muscat raisins
1 cup coarsely chopped cooked prunes.
1-4 cup chopped walnuts
1-4 teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons lemon juice.
To—
3 egg whites
add—
1-4 teaspoon salt
Then beat until stiff but not dry.

Gradually add, beating continuously—
1-4 cup sugar.
Fold fruit mixture into egg white mixture, then pour into a greased shallow baking dish. Bake in a moderate slow oven (325 degrees F.) for 40 minutes. Cool in baking dish. The whip will shrink as it cools. Serve with chilled custard sauce (recipe below). Serves 4 to 6.

Custard Sauce
Beat lightly—
3 egg yolks.
Add, mixing well—
3 tablespoons sugar

Melting Chocolate
To save chocolate, when you want to melt it, leave it in its own paper and place it in the double boiler—with the lops up. As soon as the chocolate is soft, remove it from the paper with a scraper and put in into the batter. This method will guarantee little waste.

Pie Saver
If you have trouble cutting pie into equal portions, try cutting a big "Y," then dividing each of the two large sections in half.

Hold That "A"
It is said that a good complexion cocktail can be made with two parts carrot juice with one part pineapple juice. It is excellent for the eyes and contains Vitamin A.

Mend That Sweater
If you feel ambitious, you can repair holes in sweaters or jersey dresses by almost invisible use of chain stitches to duplicate the appearance of the knitted fabric.

More sweet potatoes are available and the supply is increasing from week to week. Look for these to be a leader soon.

A Point About Abandoning Controls

Lifting of controls from meat presages a general relaxation, and perhaps even abandonment of the OPA program, many analysts are agreed. The only exception generally made is that of rent control.

Of course, those who are renting are desirous of maintaining their quarters at an economical figure as possible, it has been the aim of rent control to effect this.

However, if the brake is taken off and the spiral goes up and up, as some think it may, we cannot see the logic of keeping control on only one basic thing while all others are allowed to dive into the competitive swirl.

While recognizing that a competitive economy ultimately is the only answer in our system of things, we have thought that sufficient control might help to bridge the gap.

We do not think that abandoned controls will work the miracle many think. All this is predicated on supply and demand and before the leveling off period comes, there must be a static balance of supply and demand. This can come only through great production or through a buyers strike. As for production, doubtless it can be stepped up, but whether fast enough quickly to close the gap is doubtful.

As the picture unfolds, if it becomes apparent that all controls are to be lifted save those on rent property, in all fairness and logic, they should be abandoned, too. There would be no justice in penalizing a landlord because he was a landlord and not a cattle producer.

Hangings Do Not Mean Nazism Dead

Ignominious death has been the fate of condemned nazis.

Hermann Goering, arch nazi who ranked next to Hitler, whose suicide as a means of cheating the hangman's noose. Thus, he may have robbed himself of some degree of esteem in the German mind by disdaining to march, as lesser ones of his circle, to the gallows. At any rate, he is quite as dead as they.

It would be wonderful if this marked the end of an era. Rather it is but the termination of a chapter.

The death of condemned nazis does not mean the death of nazism. This is a quality, a phobia, a belief. It has been rooted in the German mind and nourished by super-nationalistic and other prejudices for these many years.

In short, nazism, as we in America see it, was a malignant infection. It may fester for years and then break out anew under more favorable circumstances. It may be, if the nations of the world are wise, that the very roots of nazism may in time be overcome, or at least that the whole body may be so strengthened in new and broader concepts that Germany will no longer be such an easy target for such false conceptions. The dead nazis are really of no consequence except for their part. What takes place in the German mind is of great consequence in this and succeeding generations.

Meat Put Government In A Squeeze

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Here's an ABC on the meat shortage, the worst mix-up of 1946.

There's no real meat shortage. There's plenty of cattle, but the cattle were held back from slaughter until price controls, were ended.

This holding back of cattle was made clear by the beef industry's OPA advisory committee, a committee set up to deal with the government.

R. G. Haynie, chairman of the committee, told reporters here last week that plenty of cattle were ready for market if controls were ended.

The committee itself asked the government to lift controls. It said there was no shortage of cattle.

This holding back of cattle put a squeeze on the government. The government gave in.

The squeeze came at a critical time for President Truman and his Democratic administration.

The longer the meat shortage, the more impatient the American people became.

The congressional elections are less than three weeks away. From the looks of things now, it will be a nip-and-tuck race between Democrats and Republicans to see which party controls Congress.

Could President Truman have held off lifting controls on meat until after the November elections? That raises some questions which politicians and voters can decide for themselves:

1. By waiting until after the elections would he have done any more than just make the people go without meat that much longer?

2. Or would such a delay have so angered voters that they'd have turned against the Democrats in the elections?

Some of his own Democratic leaders had urged the President to do something about the shortage quickly. Protests were increasing daily.

But the meat squeeze got Mr. Truman and some of his top lieutenants backed into such a corner that they now reverse what they said less than a month ago. Here are examples:

Sept. 26—Mr. Truman said ending meat controls "would, in the long run; add to rather than solve our difficulties." If the controls do not come off, the meat will come to market.

(He was mistaken about that. The meat did not come to market.)

Oct. 14—Mr. Truman ordered all controls off meat. He said he had considered many remedies for the shortage but only lifting controls would solve the problem.

Sept. 14—Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson said "It is to the interest of the American public to see markets slowed up temporarily and meat hard to find." He said farmers should be "praised" for holding back their meat temporarily to fatten them up.

Oct. 15—Anderson, right after Mr. Truman ordered all controls on meat ended, said "the feeding of cattle for future slaughter should not be carried to such length that current beef supplies will be unduly short."

He said further: "The number of beef cattle on farms and ranges is dangerously high and this condition will become worse unless liberal marketing for slaughter are resumed without delay."

OPA Boss Paul Porter on Oct. 5 said getting steaks was less important than keeping the economy stabilized.

But with controls off meat, steaks can shoot up to any altitude, and Mr. Truman says ending meat controls will force the government to speed up the end of other price controls, and wage controls, too.

Ayres Wants To Direct

NEW YORK — Lew Ayres has told his movie bosses he wants to become a director, emphasizing that it definitely is not a whim.

Roger Dannes, Parisian singer in the Jean Sablon style, has been signed by Paramount.

He played here last Spring at La Martinique and didn't cause more than a minor stir, but Para is excited about his chances.

He was Josephine Baker's leading man in Paris music halls.

Harry Carey, Jr., son of the venerable Western star, now is a chip off the old saddle, having begun a screen acting career.

Erlin Holst, erstwhile Stork Club, El Morocco and Copacabana orchestra leader, will be the band attraction at Leon and Eddie's new Palm Beach club, opening in December.

Pat O'Brien and wife Eloise in town for the christening of Toots Shor's daughter.

George Raft is here to hold hands again with Copacabana June Williams.

JILL MEREDITH, of last season's Copa choir, generally accepted as the town's ranking chorus beauty, has divorced her husband, Actor Jean Meredith, on the Coast.

Chicago's Tin Pan Alley will be glorified or something in the 20th Century-Fox film based on the life of Song-smith Gus Kahn, who was virtually unknown though the author of such pretty ditties as "It Had To Be You," "I'll See You In My Dreams," "My Buddy," "Memories," "No, No, Nora" and "Carolina."

Vaughn Monroe, who sings as though he has biceps in his voice instead of vocal cords, has turned author.

Book's title is "Make Mine Music," one chapter of which will be tagged "The Poor Man's John Charles Thomas."

Remember the old saw about chorus girl's mink coats? Not one of the twelve chorines in Leon and Eddie's has a fur coat, even rabbit.

NEW restaurant on 51st Street will be without a corner.

Completely round dining room, with every table good for a view of the celebrities—that is, if they attend.

Judy Garland got a most definite horizontal head shake from Freddy Bartholomew at Leone's when she tried to talk the former kid star into returning to Hollywood.

Meyer Davis, chainstore society bandleader, has his cash in seven Broadway shows this season.

Algonquin Hotel, famed hangout of the bookier side of the celebrity mob, has been sold for a reported flat million.

Frank Case started there as a room clerk, owned it when he died a few months ago.

The usually reticent Eugene O'Neill is telling folks how much he liked the film "Sister Kenny."

Britons Are Eccentric

By ED CREECH (For Hal Boyle)

LONDON. (AP)—The visiting Frenchman who once remarked that England was populated entirely by madmen may have been exaggerating somewhat, but it's true that a day's stroll around London will turn up more nuts than you could find in a prewar fruitcake.

No insult is intended and most Englishmen would agree readily that the percentage of screwballs in the population is high by any standard. Some would go so far as to agree with the Frenchmen—and blame it on the climate. England takes pride in her eccentrics.

They are of all classes: You find them dozing in the House of Lords, ranting from platforms in Hyde Park, wearing out the upholstery of club chairs, reading aloud by the open air bookstalls in Charing Cross Road, feeding the pigeons in Trafalgar Square.

You find them, of course, in every great city—but not so many of them. Maybe it is the damp, foggy climate that turns men's minds inward upon themselves. More likely it is the English tolerance of mild nuttiness. Whatever it is, it has been going on for a long time.

There was Samuel Johnson, who liked to drop in for a cup of tea and leave with 27 under his belt. The two iron posts that he always went out of his way to touch—it spoiled his day if he didn't touch them—are still standing in Red Lion Court.

There was the Earl of Bridgewater, who flourished in the days after Waterloo. He liked dogs. Around his dining room table were 12 armchairs and in each, during dinner, sat a pet pooch with a napkin around its neck. The Earl considered this quite natural.

There was the great Jeremy

Bentham who willed his body, in a mahogany case, to a school of anatomy for exhibition purposes in 1789. It's still sitting there, still on exhibition, dressed in the clothes he usually wore.

On the distaff side there was Hannah Snell who went to war in the guise of a male soldier, distinguished herself in action and retired happily to run a public house for many years.

If it weren't for the libel laws a similar list of the mentally off-beam could be compiled from the pages of Who's Who Today. The eminent eccentrics wouldn't mind in the least, but their relatives might.

Some clue to the prevalence of pottiness may lie in the Englishman's inbred determination to do as he dashed well pleases so long as it doesn't involve violent injury to someone else. This trait is found in many a contemporary whom no one would think of calling peculiar.

King George VI crochets and anybody who doesn't like it can jump it, Earl Winterton crosses the floor of the House of Commons on all fours when it is in session. He says that it's traditional. A well-known peer delivers milk. Another collects matchbook covers.

Then there is the conductor of the No. 13 bus who recites for the customers, and the "Screever"—sidewalk artist—who finds everything he draws turning into a picture of Winston Churchill; and the—but the list is long and few Englishmen are at all surprised by it. Instead they think most visiting Americans are a little touched.

There are 21 federal highways, nine of them transcontinental or with transcontinental connections, passing through Oklahoma.

Billion Dollar Army-Navy Cut Looms

WASHINGTON. — Both the Army and Navy are squawking privately but vigorously to President Truman over his determination to balance the budget at their expense.

Only way he can balance it is by chopping down Army-Navy expenditures. Anyone who looks over the budget sheet of the US government can see that it is where the big expenditures are. Most civilian agencies were cut to the bone during the war and have continued that way. The Army and Navy, however, still are padded.

Truman has already cut 2 billions from the Army and Navy, which brought howls of anguish from both. The Army maintained it needed all the $7,268,542,400 voted by Congress and the Navy said it needed all the $4,119,659,300—if they were to keep peace with Russia.

Despite their howls, however, Truman refused to budge on the two-billion cut. Furthermore, though it hasn't leaked out yet, he plans to cut another billion within the next few days or weeks.

men remaining. Yet no furniture, equipment, iceboxes or buildings have been declared surplus.

All this may sound like chicken feed compared with the Navy's tremendous wartime expenditures, but when you multiply possible economy at Olathe by possible economy at a hundred other stations, it runs into real dough.

Note — Another possible saving: For a long time, Comdr. W. M. Collins, Annapolis '34, and son-in-law of Adm. Charles F. Snyder, Navy inspector general lived in Kansas City and commuted thirty miles daily to Olathe in a Dodge sedan which belonged to the Navy and was serviced daily in a Navy garage.

calling for the creation of such an investigation committee. He did so and was immediately named chairman.

Senator Kilgore as first was not named as a member of the committee since he was a freshman senator. However, due to the fact that he had helped inspire the idea, Truman wanted him to serve. Therefore, he specifically asked the president of the Senate to enlarge the committee and name Kilgore.

Intriguing fact is that Kilgore, who originally inspired the committee, and served on it for six years, is now its chairman.

Saving Navy Dollars

Suggestion to Navy admirals: It may seem like chicken feed to some people, but if you want to save a few thousand dollars, take a look at the Naval air school at Olathe, Kans., commanded by one of your own Annapolis grads, Capt. W. M. Drane, Naval Academy '30.

Captain Drane is now tearing down three enlisted men's barracks which cost $47,700 each to construct and which were only completed May 7, 1943, in order to use the lumber for quarters for himself, plus quarters for the base's executive officer. Meanwhile, houses for veterans are stymied for lack of lumber. Meanwhile also, Captain Drane is not too uncomfortable. He is living in the married officers' quarters consisting of 27 rooms, while the executive officer is living in the bachelor officers' quarters which consists of 13 rooms.

Another saving the Navy might make would be to sell the twelve electric refrigerators now idle at the Olathe air base. One has been loaned to Comdr. C. C. Clement for use in his private home. Veterans would be delighted to pay good money for these idle refrigerators.

Another way to save money would be to curtail the interesting flights which Captain Drane makes to Clarksville, Tenn., which happens to be his home. On one trip a twin-engine Beechcraft with Lt. Comdr. L. D. McComber as pilot picked up his daughter and her girl friend and flew them back to Olathe, without entering either of the girls on the flight plan.

Three thousand Naval personnel, have been transferred away from Olathe, with only about 400

Tom Connolly In Paris

Venerable Tom Connolly, the distinguished chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was attending a diplomatic reception at the Paris Peace Conference where he was introduced to the Czechoslovakian foreign minister, Jan Masaryk.

"Oh, of course, I knew your father well," Connolly said, and then stepped back and began imitating a man playing a violin.

Masaryk was somewhat non-plussed.

"My dear sir," said Masaryk. "I am a Czech, not a Pole. And that father of his country whom you were thinking about was a pianist and not a violinist."

Note — Apparently Connolly had confused Masaryk with Paderewski, the late famous Polish pianist and president of Poland.

How Truman Committee Started

Probably only three or four people know how the original Truman Committee happened to be established. And since that committee was responsible for putting Harry Truman in the White House, the inside story of its founding has historic interest.

Senator Truman of Missouri was attending the inauguration of Gov. Arno Neely of West Virginia in 1940. At the inauguration, he met Senator Harley Kilgore of West Virginia, then a freshman senator.

At the governor's mansion at Charleston, they talked of Civil War history in which both always had been interested, including the graft which followed the Civil War.

"It's too bad Congress never got around to investigating the Civil War graft," Truman remarked.

"As a matter of fact, it would be a good idea for Congress to introduce a Senate resolution

In Hollywood—Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Although it has never been adequately explained why, the show must go on, and Charles Laughton is the latest to uphold this mossy, theatrical tradition.

Last week Laughton was in New York preparing a play about Galileo when he received a call to come to Hollywood. He was asked to play Haake in "Arch of Triumph," replacing Michael Chekhov who became ill. The English actor accepted and flew to the Golden State, studying the script en route.

This week Laughton was before the cameras and not complaining.

about the damp and drafty stage, despite a severe cold. Nor did he balk at his role, his first portrayal as a German.

"I am having just a little difficulty with the part," he explained, "but I'll hit it. I usually develop a character by finding the walk first. See—"

He demonstrated his stride as Captain Blight, an act which has been immortalized by night club imitators the country over. "Sailors always walk as though they expect the ground to come up and meet them," Charlie explained.

Then he stopped and tried out a Nazi walk. "Those military—" he said, "always walk as though they were wearing high boots." He strutted around some more. "This is it," he declared.

He went back on the set. Though he wore no makeup or uniform, there was no doubt about it—he WAS a Nazi colonel.

Armed To Take Rest Until Next Season

NEW YORK, Oct. 17. (AP)—Turf fans who have been jockeying forward to the horse race of the year—a meeting between Armed and Lucky Draw at equal weights—seem doomed to disappointment. The reason: Armed, famed gelding from Warren Wright's Calumet Farms, may be rested until next year.

Ben Jones, trainer of the Calumet star, has told New York friends that Armed has lost considerable weight and it is doubtful if the son of Bull Lea will regain his form in time for the $50,000-added Trenton Handicap Oct. 26.

Le Tourneau Slated To Fly To England

NEW YORK, Oct. 17. (AP)—Robert G. Le Tourneau, manufacturer of earth-moving and mass home construction machinery, and Carl Estes, Longview, Tex., publisher, are to depart by airplane today for England. They were scheduled to depart yesterday, but were delayed.

Le Tourneau, who has a plant at Longview, is to dedicate the firm's $5,000,000 plant at Stockton-on-Tees, England. He also plans to make 14 religious lectures in England and Scotland before returning Nov. 5.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

It is generally agreed that Johnny Dibrell has come up with a fair football club at the seat of learning that occupies the knob on upper Runnels street. To many, it seems incredible that the strapping youngsters who are capable of making all opposition hustle this season could be the same rinky-dinks who staggered through a disastrous 1945 campaign.

It is the consensus of local followers of the Autumn pastime that the Big Spring contingent could, by season's end, be the saltiest brigade in District 3AA and possibly West Texas, if there is disheated a climax, breakaway runner.

Many an interested onlooker still believes that Gerald Harris will be that man. Gerald is the lad who was a sensation in the opening game of the season against Cisco but who settled down to be one of the pack after that. In the Steers' game against Lamesa last week, Big Gee—although he contributed tremendously to the Herd's victory—let such operatives as Horace Rankin and Bobo Hardy take the play away from him.

Those who refuse to depart Harris' band wagon still think he will find himself somewhere along the line, and will be generating on eight cylinders down the home stretch. They insist the big boy possesses all the requisites—speed, power and love of the game. (Dibrell himself says that Gerald puts his whole heart into it.) If those fans know of what they speak, then such elevens as Sweetwater and Abilene had best clear the track.

Harris the type of boy who will probably cut a fancier figure in collegiate circles than he ever will in prep school. He developed late, is still growing and has the quickness to go with his size. He's a bit awkward now but will outgrow that.

According to reports, he has designs on enrolling at Texas Christian university next September.

Heads are certain to roll at College Station this year if the Texas A & M footballers don't improve their lot and become a factor in the Southwest Conference wars. That comes as result of a rumble and a roar being emitted by old grads from Marshall to El Paso and from Orange to Amarillo, all of whom insist the Farmers win at all costs.

There are no more fiercely patriotic alumni in the world than those of Texas A & M, nor any with less penchant to compromise if their athletic fortunes turn into misfortunes.

Perhaps Homer Norton, who

Rooters To Feast On 49 Contests Over The State

Followers of Texas schoolboy football will find out Friday night if it's true what they've been hearing about Amarillo's Golden Sandies and Odessa's Bucking Broncs.

Before the season started these two teams were ranked with the best; often they have been mentioned as quarter-finals opponents in the state play-off. That would mean they'd have to win their district titles and take bi-district decisions.

Of course, between them and such a game as teams like Wichita Falls and Sweetwater, a couple of elevens that fought to a sensational tie in an interdistrict game not long ago.

But for the moment it's what Amarillo can do with Odessa and vice versa as these undefeated, untied teams battle in the state's No. 1 game for the week.

This interdistrict contest headlines a card of 49 contests of which 32 are conference games involving 14 of the 16 districts.

Down in South Texas Corpus Christi's high-scoring Buccaneers meet a tough district foe, the unbeaten but once-tied Thomas Jefferson Mustangs of San Antonio.

The state's 15 undefeated, untied teams are due to fall to around 10 as all have games except Brackenridge of San Antonio.

The week's schedule by districts:

1—Friday: Odessa at Amarillo, Broger at Pampa (Conference), Sweetwater at Plainview, Big Spring at Brownfield.

2—Friday: Wichita Falls at Electra (Conference), Vernon at Quanah (Conference), Childress at Graham (Conference).

3—Friday: Lamesa at San Angelo (Conference), Lubbock at Abilene.

5—Friday: Paris at Denison (Conference), Gainesville at Sherman (Conference), Greenville at Bonham (Conference).

6—Saturday: Marshall at Highland Park (Dallas).

7—Thursday: Poly (Fort Worth) vs Arlington Heights (Fort Worth); Friday: North Side (Fort Worth) vs Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth) (Conference); Saturday: Paschal (Fort Worth) vs Fort Worth Tech (Conference).

8—Friday: Forest (Dallas) vs Sunset (Dallas) (Conference); Saturday: Adamson (Dallas) vs North Dallas (Conference).

9—Friday: Breckenridge at Stephenville (Conference), Weatherford at Mineral Wells (Conference); Brownwood at Ranger (Conference).

10—Friday: Waco at Waxahachie (Conference), McKinney at Ennis, Hillsboro at Corsicana (Conference), Temple at Bryan (Conference).

11—Friday: Longview at Henderson (Conference), Jacksonville at Gladewater, Tyler at Texarkana (Conference).

West Texas Hunting Party Bags Limit In Colorado Game

Two deer, an elk and a bear were bagged by a West Texas hunting party which returned from Colorado Wednesday.

Included in the safari were Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Gilliland, Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gilliland of Slaton and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gilliland of Tolar.

The group experienced its best luck around Manaca, Colorado, which is near Denver. The A. F. Gillilands felled a black tail deer and the elk while the Dean Gillilands brought back the other deer and the bear. The season opened Oct. 12 and they got their limit in game the first day out.

The party went through all kinds of weather on the hunt.

Shift Of Odds On Cub Battle Suits Dibrell

No one could be more pleased than Johnny Dibrell and his coaching aides that the Big Spring high school football Steers have been installed as under-dogs in Friday's night's outing with the Brownfield Cubs.

The Bruins have yet to win a game this year. In fact, they have yet to score. But their great showing against Amarillo last week, when they held the mighty Sandies to a touchdown victory, caused the betting to shift in Brownfield's favor.

Dibrell figures the lads scrap better when they're on the short end of the odds.

The local club will leave early Friday morning in a chartered bus for Brownfield. Many a local fan will be pulling out around noon and in the early afternoon to catch the two clubs in the nocturnal battle, which will count nothing in the district wars but means a lot in prestige.

All the Longhorns are in tip-top condition for the outing, including Horace Rankin, who was Big Spring's standout back against Lamesa last week.

Dibrell sent his charges through long passing drills Wednesday and had them brushing up on a select set of plays they will use against the Cubs.

Valley Invades Coahoma Field Friday At 3

Interest in the District Ten six-man football campaign this week centers around Coahoma where Friday afternoon the Wildcats of Water Valley high school attempt to oust J. Z. Thompson's Coahoma Bulldogs from title consideration.

The Bulldogs are the defending champions. They swept through the regional championship and they brought a powerful crew back into play.

However, no sextet has showed the improvement that Water Valley has to date. The Cats swept all their early assignments easily while the Bulldogs were tied in their initial outing by Sterling City.

The contest may develop into an individual battle between the Valley's Gene Cope and Wayne DeVaney of Coahoma.

Game time is 3 o'clock. Other district games pit the Merton Hornets against Forsan at Forsan in a night game, Courtney against Sterling City in another nocturnal outing at Sterling and Garden City against Knott at home. The latter one goes on at 3 p. m.

Forsan, Sterling and Garden City, will be favored to win.

Texas-OU Game To Be Shown At The Ritz Friday - Saturday

Fast work on newsreel presentation of grid games is demonstrated at the Ritz theatre screens as an added attraction Friday and Saturday, a camera version of last week's Texas U-Oklahoma U. thriller.

The newsreel camera catches the plays from the 50-yard line, goes into detail with the outstanding plays of the clash in the Cotton Bowl, in which the Longhorns emerged with a 20-13 victory. The game was greeted as one of the standout contests of the season, and the camera catches all the highlights of the Southwestern classic.

LOCALS INVADE ODESSA

Yearling Football Troupe Seeks Third Win Tonight

Gunning for their third victory of the season, the Big Spring Junior high school football Yearlings take on the Odessa Colts at 7:30 o'clock this evening in Odessa.

Jim McWhorter's Big Springers subdued the Colts, 35-0, here last week and figure to add another scalp to their belts even though the Odessans be tougher.

The locals will take the field with one change in the starting lineup. Bill Satterwhite will start in the secondary in place of Eddie Hooper, who has not been working out the past week.

Satterwhite will line up for the kickoff along with Billy Carlisle, Arlis Davis and James Fannin, in the backfield and Howard Jones, James Pettigo, Charles Rainwater, Victor Woods, R. Carter, Earl Rusk and Kenneth Guthrie in the frontal positions.

Clover, Dozier, English, McKislick, Goodpastor, Phillips, Kirklin, Herring, Elgado, Bates and Arnold are due to start for the Odessans.

The Yearlings were slow to start in their last game but once they did get to rolling, they all but swept the Colts from the field. They rang up a single six-pointer in the initial canto and ran the score to 15-0 by half time. They distributed their final 20 points over the last two periods, with Davis, Fannin and Carlisle all clicking for yardage.

Prior to the Odessa outing, McWhorter's gang had thrashed Midland, 19-0.

Party Hits Road

A party composed of Rufe Morton, Albert Mason and Frank Johnson gather up their rods and reels this afternoon and head for an exclusive fishing spot between Del Rio and El Paso.

Roden Fires 32 At Country Club

Bill "Red" Roden proved the hottest of a hot 'seven-some' that toured the country club Wednesday, negotiated one nine in 32 strokes. He coupled that stretch with a 37 on the other side for a three-under-par 69.

Those who made the rounds with the carrot-top were J. T. Hammett, Colorado City professional, Shirley Robbins of the home course, Obie Bristol, Foy Fanning, James Pritchett, also of Colorado City, and W. E. "Rat" Ramsey.

Red Devils Defeat White Shirts, Waddies Win In Junior Grid Play

The Red Devils of Central Ward, led by Donald Mack Richardson and Randall Garner, again stamped themselves as the team to beat in the grade school football war by thumping College Heights, 20-0, at Steer stadium Wednesday afternoon.

A touchdown scored by Richardson on an end sweep in the second period had to stand up un-

The Devils, coached by D. A. Miller, were always in command of the situation, however, and never permitted the White Shirts from College Heights to threaten.

In the afternoon's other contest, West Ward's Cowboys rolled over South Ward, 27-0, without trouble.

Gene Gross falled the initial six-pointer for the Waddies and Bobby Hayworth added the extra point on a plunging Fettle came along to cross the double strip the second time the Cowhands started knocking at the gates. Charles "Spec" Franklin was the big gun in the final two drives and accounted for the touchdowns.

Franklin, Gross and Hayworth combine their talents with Dewey Byers to give the Waddies a promising backfield that may be able to give the Centrals trouble later on in the season.

Johnny Hooper's East Ward troupe received a forfeit from North Ward in what was to have been the league's other outing. The Green Wave will play West Ward next week. According to reports, North Ward will be ready to open play next week.

Mary Robertson Top Kegler In Loop Play

Mary Robertson of Modern Cleaners dominated the scoring ledgers of the Women's Bowling league in Wednesday evening competition at the West Texas Recreational Center, gaining both individual and aggregate high honors.

Mary posted 179 for single tops and went on to run up a 504 for three-game stand-out.

The Cleaners protected their league lead by edging Hester's Sporting Goods, 2-1, while Settles Beauty Shop was thumping Youth Beauty Shop by the same score. Modern's 2147 proved to be team high.

Concho County Sets Vote On Liquor Sale

PAINT ROCK, Oct. 17. (AP)—Concho County commissioners have ordered a countywide election for Nov. 9 on the sale of beer after receiving petitions signed by more than 250 names. The county legalized the sale of beer by 87 votes in a special election in 1944. In subsequent precinct elections two precincts voted wet and two dry.

More than 30,000,000 acres of U. S. forest land are burned annually.

Star Mail Route Service Talked

San Angelo is hopeful that star route mail service between that city and Big Spring will be inaugurated soon.

T. E. Shoemaker, chief clerk of the railway mail service with headquarters in Fort Worth, told members of the San Angelo board of city development transportation committee that he was engaged in an investigation and that conditions appeared favorable.

He pointed out that first and second class mail arriving in Big Spring shortly before 6 a.m. might be dispatched by star route to San Angelo. Other classes of mail, however, are carried on the second section which runs two hours behind. He thought there was a possibility to get San Angelo mail dispatched on the first, which is the fast schedule, section of the T&P train into Big Spring. This would permit mail to be delivered into San Angelo little more than two hours later.

San Angelenos have pointed out that in some instances, this would improve mail service to that city by as much as 24 hours from some points. Shoemaker said the postal authorities were interested in providing service where there was a definite need.

New WAA Disposal Policies Announced

A new program to be followed by disposal agencies in the disposition of surplus structures suitable for housing has been announced by the War Assets Administration and the National Housing Expediter.

Under new regulation, after the 10 day period to agencies and other priority holders has expired, a 15-day priority period will be set aside for holders of HH certificates on remaining structures. Holders of these certificates should attach an amount equal to 10 per cent of the total bid. These certificates are available at the FFA offices and are limited to veterans who desire structures for relief of their personal housing situation, or to builders who attest the structures are for veteran occupancy.

The WAA also has announced the availability of several thousand watch-type compasses. They range from 86 cents for wholesalers in 1,000 lots to small retailer price of $1.15 on per 100 lots.

Jury Finally Named In Thomas Trial

SWEETWATER, Oct. 17. (AP)—The state begins the presentation of its case today against Jim Thomas when his third trial on charges of murder in the slaying of Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield is reconvened before Judge A. S. Mauzey.

The selection of the jury was completed late yesterday when the last two jurors were selected from a special panel of 31 persons subpoenaed by Sheriff Bill Sample because the original venire of 144 was exhausted.

The jury for the trial is composed of Turner May, Roscoe filling station operator; Clarence Mathews, Sweetwater refinery employee; W. H. Cooper, Champion community farmer; J. T. Jolley, Sweetwater department store employee; O. R. Cook, Sweetwater refinery employee; J. L. Kerby, Roscoe farmer; Tolton Head, Sweetwater garage employee; Raymond Lambert, gypsum product employee; Leland Glass, Sweetwater groceryman; Eldon Ely, Sweetwater refinery employee; R. A. Durham, Sweetwater planing mill operator and Bud Brown, Sweetwater groceryman.

Probe Continues Of Mineral Oil Foods

AUSTIN, Oct. 17. (AP) — Investigation of foods containing mineral oil will continue and legal action will be taken against manufacturers of such products by the State Health Department, declared State Health Officer George W. Cox.

His statement follows dissolution of the Health Department's court action against the Ragsdale Food Products Company, which had manufactured Slenderise, a mineral oil dressing for salads.

The attorney for the San Antonio company successfully asked dismissal of the case on the ground that manufacture of the product had been discontinued.

$2,500 Added To Vet Loan Fund At College

AUSTIN, Oct. 17. (AP) — A $2,500 check was deposited yesterday in a loan fund for veterans of the University of Texas that provides loans, without interest charges and without red tape.

The fund was established last year under the sponsorship of the University American Legion Post and has operated successfully as "deadbeats" have been few in number, according to Bill Sadler, post commander.

Yesterday's $2,500 deposit was from W. S. Gatewood, a bookstore owner on the university drag. He loaned the money for one year without interest.
