Three Hurt In Accident

Two Holt community women were still in the Hemphill County Hospital in Canadian Tuesday with injuries received in a two-car accident Wednesday afternoon 18 miles south of Canadian.

Still hospitalized were Mrs. C.W. Kirk and Mrs. Ceril Batton of the Holt Community. C.W. Kirk was injured in the wreck, but has been released from the hospital.

Kay Keelin, driver of the other car, was taken to the Shamrock General Hospital for treatment.

Investigating officers of the Highway Patrol and the Hemphill County Sheriff's office said the accident happened when the Kirk car struck the rear of Keelin's car.

Keelin's car was overturned in the collision.

The Kirks and Mrs. Batton were on their way to Oklahoma City.

School To Ask Voters For $250,000 in Bonds

The Spearman Independent School District is preparing to ask the voters of the district to decide upon a $250,000 school improvement bond issue.

After several months of study the board reached a decision late Monday night on the different items needed and the cost.

The entire bond question will be presented to the voters in one question for their approval or disapproval.

The manner of presenting the question to the voters was one of the major points to be decided by the board. The majority of the board felt that all the issues to be presented were needed at present or will be needed in the near future. By making the improvements needed in the foreseeable future, the board felt it will not have to be asking for a bond election every two or three years.

The major improvements in the bond issue include repairs and improvements to the junior high school building, paving additional parking areas at the high school, repairing the parking areas at the junior high school, moving the New Hope School to Spearman, so the building may be used, and a new football and track field along with a larger stadium, field house and lighting system.

The junior high needs repairs on its heating system, repairs to the science laboratories, some floors and some partitions moved to make more usable classrooms.

The areas at each end of the high school building will be paved to reduce the amount of grass to be maintained, provide more parking, and, also, five tennis courts will be put on the new east parking lot.

Fire Destroys Mobile Home

A fire Monday morning heavily damaged the mobile home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hale at 113 N. Hazelwood.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hale were at work when the fire was discovered about 9:30 a.m. and it apparently had been burning sometime before neighbors saw the smoke.

Firemen said the fire apparently started around the heater in the bathroom. It is located toward the rear of the trailer.

The firemen brought the fire under control before it spread over the trailer, but all of the furnishings and the Hales' clothes suffered heavy smoke and water damage.

The Hale's pet dog was asphyxiated by the smoke in the trailer before the firemen arrived.

Fire officials urge everyone living in mobile homes and others to check their insulation around heating equipment. Every year there are homes damaged or destroyed from poorly insulated heating equipment.

Soil Expert Is Speaker For Conservation Banquet

Leon J. "T-Bone" McDonald, widely known as "Oklahoma's Soil Evangelist" will be guest speaker at the Hansford Bankers Award Banquet at the Spearman School Cafeteria Dec. 3 at 7:30 p.m. sponsored by the First State Bank of Spearman and the Gruver State Bank. McDonald will give his famous illustrated talk featuring "Man and the Land."

Oklahoma's "Billy Sunday" of soil conservation has told his dramatic story at hundreds of state-wide meetings of farm, civic, industrial, sportsmen, educational, church and labor groups in 18 states of the nation. Recently T-Bone has spoke at meetings in Arkansas, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, California, and Oklahoma.

After McDonald had spoken at a four-state rally of soil conservationists in Memphis, Tenn. Edward J. Meeman, Editor of the Memphis Press-Scimitar, wrote, "Mr. McDonald's unique personality and delivery in which humor glints through the seriousness make him an educator, evangelist and entertainer all in one delightful package."

In 1956, "T-Bone" was one of ten men in the United States to receive a Nash Conservation Award given by American Motors Corporation for "exceptional service in the cause of conservation."

Experience as a teacher of vocational agriculture, county agent, and chamber of commerce manager enables McDonald to speak with a sympathetic understanding of the problems facing most people. For 26 years he was an employee of the Soil Conservation Service, retiring as Assistant State Conservationist June 30, 1962.

Beef Cattle Short Course Scheduled

A beef cattle short course for adult farmers will be held Nov. 30-Dec. 3 under the sponsorship of the Spearman High School Vocational Agriculture Dept. according to James Bramlett, Superintendent and Messrs. Jackson and Felder, teachers of Vocational Agriculture.

Mr. W.W. (Bill) Holtzapfle, Beef Production Specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and the Dept. of Animal Husbandry at Texas A&M University will be the instructor for the course. He is headquartered at Texas A&M University.

Mr. Holtzapfle is a graduate of Texas A&M. He majored in Agricultural Education with much of his work done in livestock production.

Upon graduation he taught Vocational Agriculture at Hearne for one year. For the past nine years he has served as County Agriculture Agent in San Augustine County. Holtzapfle has had much experience in working with beef cattle and operated his own

He has worked with commercial and registered breeders in that area and has carried on a very active education program in beef cattle production.

The shortcourse at Spearman is scheduled to begin Nov. 30 at 7:00 p.m. in the vocational agriculture building. Other meetings in the series of beef cattle will be held nightly. During the dates the shortcourse is in progress, Holtzapfle will be available to assist cattlemen with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to Jackson and Felder.

Cattlemen interested in attending the shortcourse should write or call the instructors. An entry fee of $2.00 will be charged.

HOW TO GO BROKE
The following material comes from Dixon Hubbard, Area Livestock Specialist:

"Nearly all city folks and most of Uncle Sam's tax collectors are thoroughly convinced that most farmers, particularly cattlemen, are constantly wading knee deep in that long green stuff. There is no use trying to deny it. In a democracy the majority is always right, and the majority says cowmen are salting away too much lucre.

"But there is something that can be done to combat this idea. They can go broke. It isn't easy to do in this business, but it can be done. It may be too late for those that haven't already gone broke this year, but I'm sure they can make it next year. Here's how it can be done, step by step.

"One of the best ways is through the feeding program. They can go broke here mighty quick if they're smart enough: Those big-bellied cows can put away more feed than a furnace in the courthouse. One of the quickest ways is to run short of roughage and stretch what is left until the green grass comes up in the spring. Then, turn the cows out when the grass is about knee-deep on a grass-hopper so they can start even with the grass.

"Cutting back on roughage has lots of advantages; (1) She'll have a small calf, so you won't have any calving trouble; and better yet, the calf will be small next winter so you can save some more feed. (2) It saves money on feed you might have to buy (3) It will give her a much needed vacation--since she'll be too poor to come in heat, she will probably have one less calf during her lifetime. Besides if she comes in dry, she'll be fat and bring more money when you sell her. (4) She'll drink less water and the rancher won't have to run the pump so long on his pastures and his lots.

"Another trick is to save money on the concentrates for weaners. Try this one.

"Feed them little or no concentrates. Young cattle gain too much on concentrates. The buyer likes poor cattle because he can make more money on them. He'll probably offer one or two cents a pound more for these cattle than heavier cattle, and that's a lot more important than paying the note at the bank--if the rancher wants to go broke in a hurry.

"Oh yes, there are two ways to use concentrates to speed up the going broke process. Besides feeding less the rancher can always add some of those new, fancy additives that the 'smart fellers' at the cow college haven't heard about yet. Let's see--there are enzymes, vitamins, minerals, expensive proteins or protein substitutes and even some antibiotics. Of course, by the time all of this has been added in the ration there isn't room for cheap local grain that has the energy the calves need. But, as the neighbor down the road said, "it oughta be good; it cost $100 a ton more than the old mix."

"Don't be surprised if some cowmen refuse to go along with this 'go broke' effort. Someone always insists on feeding plenty of good quality roughage and pampering calves with cotton seedcake and grain. Such a mixture, or one similar to it, will cost 5¢ to 7¢ per head a day. Those who feed this way get an extra pound or better of gain a day. Several of them produce over 500 pounds of gain per cow unit, and it's pretty hard to go broke this way unless conditions get a lot worse. (The conclusion of this article will appear in next week's column) be used for storage, possibly shop classes and, if needed, temporary class rooms.

After hearing a presentation of costs for bringing the present football field up to desired standards, the board decided it would be more economical to build a new field behind the present high school building.

The original plans called for the construction of a field house, practice field and dirt track behind the high school.

Improvements at the present field were to include more seating for the overflow crowds, more lighting and a larger press box.

The present field has inadequate parking, no dressing facilities for the teams, and the lighting system would have to be rebuilt, because the present system will not handle more lights.

Also, the current facilities do not allow enough practice areas for the three high school and two junior high teams. The school currently pays part of the upkeep on the Jaycee baseball park, so the junior high teams may workout there.

If the new facilities are built, the present field will be used by the junior high school for workouts and games when needed.

Smaller items in the bond issue include seeding the lawn at the high school and installing a sprinkler system, carpeting the living room area of the home economic laboratory, a tractor and mowing equipment to maintain the grounds, laundry equipment for the athletic departments and additional lights on the parking lots.

After discussing the bond issue with Howard W. Kenyon of Texas Municipal Bond Company of Lubbock, the board tentatively decided upon a repayment schedule that will pay off the bonds in 1978.

This schedule is based upon the current valuations of $32,000,000 in the district and with a tax rate of 50 cents for bonded indebtedness. The

The program was given by Mrs. Frank Porter. It consisted of reading of memorial poems about the former president, John F. Kennedy, written by Sister M. Stanislaus of Marygrove College, Detroit. Following the program, Father Wolko mentioned that he had felt a personal loss at the death of the former president because of his acquaintance with Jacqueline Kennedy, whom he met while he was attending school in Paris.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 1, at which time the program will be directed by Mrs. N.F. Renner and the Catholic Charities Committee.

Meet The Presidents—

Mrs. DeArmond Is President Of Newly Federated Club

Spearman Study Club is only one year old but it has already taken its place as a leader in the community. Its current project is to help get a speech therapist for the school and plans also call for furnishing needed speech equipment for the school in the future.

Mary Jane DeArmond is serving as president of the newly federated club which was begun as a result of efforts of the Twentieth Century Club of Spearman. She and her husband, Don, have four children ranging in ages from five to 11. They are Bobby, Mary Lou, Dennis and James.

Besides being president, Mary Jane also serves on the yearbook and finance committees of the club whose theme for the year is "Command large fields, but cultivate small ones."

Limiting her study club work to this one organization leaves Mary Jane time for her children and organizations concerning their interests and welfare. She has worked with Cub Scouts several years in the past and is very active in the Methodist Church, helping with Bible School every year. She is currently a Brownie Scout Leader and also teaches a Sunday School Class each week.

As health chairman of the Spearman Parent-Teacher Association, Mary Jane will be responsible for a program in April in this capacity. Last year she served as secretary of the organization.

Mary Jane was born in Tex-homa, Okla. but has lived in Spearman for 19 years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N.W. Cayton who also make their home in Spearman.

"Spearman Study Club originated a tour of homes in Spearman this year; the idea was so successful we decided to make the tour an annual event," Mary Jane said. Another project the club will soon carry out is to send a Christmas box to the Wichita Falls State Hospital.

A family of six makes plenty of demands on the time and energy of a homemaker, but despite this, Mary Jane finds time to enjoy numerous church, scout and club activities and occasionally to enjoy her hobby of playing bridge.

Homemaking Notes

by Linda Webb
Home Demonstration Agent

With the holiday season here, you will be looking for "make-ahead" dishes for rush meals or large gatherings. With a home freezer, this can be easily done.

Today, let's turn our attention to pies. Fresh fruit pies, vegetable pies (squash, pumpkin, and sweet potato), mince pies, and chocolate and lemon chiffon pies all freeze successfully.

Fruit pies may be frozen either before or after baking. The crust is more tender and flaky and flavor fresher when pies are frozen before baking.

Lattice top pies should not be frozen. Do not cut vents in top crusts of frozen unbaked pies until pies are removed from the freezer. Cut vents just before baking. Bake frozen unbaked fruit pies the same as fresh pies, allowing 10 minutes longer.

To thaw frozen baked fruit pies, remove the wrapper and heat the pie at once in a 375 degree oven for 30 minutes.

Pumpkin pies may be frozen baked or unbaked. If freezer space is limited, it is wise to freeze pie mix. The milk, thickening agent, sweetening,

Day by Day

From the comments I heard last week concerning what I said about the library, a lot of us are agreed on one thing: we do need a library building. Now if we can just find a way to turn that into a reality instead of a dream, the community and its adults as well as its children, will benefit greatly.

As the speaker said at the Toastmasters Charter Banquet Saturday evening, one of the prerequisites of being a well-versed, intelligent and self-confident person, is to be well read. If we had an adequate, well-filled library, maybe more of us would find ourselves taking advantage of it. That possibility makes it well worth the effort involved.

With the holiday season fast approaching and the expected financially deflated feeling, come about December 26, the following letter was amusing to me.

"This is a business letter in answer to several I've received from my creditors.

Dear friends:
In reply to your request to send a check, I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to federal laws, state laws, county laws, city laws, corporation laws, brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws and out-laws.

Through these laws, I am compelled to pay business tax, head tax, amusement tax, school tax, gas tax, light tax, water tax, sales tax, carpet tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax and excise tax.

I am required to get a business license, truck license, not to mention a marriage license and dog license. I am also required to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life; to women's relief, un-employment relief, and the gold diggers relief, also to every hospital and charitable institution in the city, including the Red Cross, purple cross and double cross.

For my own safety, I am required to carry life insurance, property insurance, liability insurance, burglar insurance, accident insurance, business insurance, earthquake insurance and fire insurance.

My business is so governed that it is no easy matter for me to find out who owns it. I am inspected, expected, suspected and dis-respected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded and compelled until I provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race.

Simply because I refused to donate to something or other, I am boycotted, talked about, lied about, held up and held down, and robbed until I am almost ruined.

I can tell you honestly that except for a miracle that happened, I could not enclose this check. The wolf that comes to many doors just had pups in my kitchen. I sold them and here is the money.

Signed:
Yours for better business"

V-P Position Open About 20% of Time

Although the United States has never lacked a president since George Washington was inaugurated, 20 per cent of the time it has lacked a vice president, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce reports.

Since John Adams became the first vice president in 1789, the office has been vacant on 16 occasions. Eight vice presidents succeeded to the presidency. Seven vice presidents died in office. One vice president resigned (John C. Calhoun of South Carolina in 1832 to enter the Senate).

As vice presidents are chosen only in the quadrennial national elections, the office has been vacant 38 out of 175 years.

Many persons are convinced that under recent presidents the work of the vice president has become extremely important, whereas before it was not. Several methods have been suggested to fill the office when it becomes vacant between national elections. It has been suggested that a new vice president be picked by the president, be picked by Congress, or by the Electoral College.

A compromise method that seems to have the best chance of acceptance would let the president nominate a vice president subject to confirmation by majority votes of the House and Senate.

The Senate Judiciary Committee this summer approved a proposed Constitutional amendment which among other things would set this compromise method as the one to be used in filling the vice presidency between national elections. The proposal probably will be brought up again in the next Congress.

If both the House and Senate approve it by two thirds votes and three fourths of the states ratify it, it will become part of the Constitution.

Ostriches are the world's largest birds. An adult ostrich is almost eight feet tall, weighs about 300 pounds and can run at speeds up to 30 miles an hour. Most of us keep wishing for things we don't have—but what else is there to wish for? A tall, stately girl is merely a long, lanky gal with money.

Mildew Spot Removal Discussed by Expert

Mildew spots should be removed as soon as they are discovered, says Mrs. Elsie Short of Texas A&M University. The Extension home management specialist says: "Don't give the mold a chance to weaken or rot the material. Brush off any surface growth outdoors to prevent scattering the mildew spores in the house. Sun and air fabrics thoroughly—and if any mildew spots remain, wash articles that are washable in soap and water at once."

If any stain remains, bleach with lemon juice, salt and sunshine, sodium perborate bleach, or a diluted solution of chlorine bleach. Do not use the chlorine bleaches on wool, silk or some

For upholstered articles, mattresses and rugs, remove loose mold from the articles by brushing with a broom or stiff brush. If possible, do this out-of-doors. Run a vacuum cleaner attachment over the surface of the article to draw out all the mold possible. Then clean out the vacuum cleaner immediately. If the vacuum bag is disposable, destroy it at once.

Sun and air the article to stop the mold growth—and if the mildew still remains, sponge with soap suds and wipe clean with a damp cloth or sponge. Dry again thoroughly.

Rugs and carpets may be sponged with thick suds or a rug shampoo. It's best to apply the shampoo and remove it with rug shampoo equipment. If this equipment isn't available, remove the suds with a cloth dampened in clear water. Dry in the sun if possible.

There's nothing like a good old fashioned home cooked meal—not in most homes anyway.

Today, if a doctor tells you you're sound as a dollar, it means you have one foot in the grave.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Robert Cordes, Pastor
Oslo and Faith Lutheran

"What shall I render to the Lord for all His bounty to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord, I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all His people." (Psalm 116:12-14)

Are we thankful people? It may sound strange but the more we have for which to be thankful, the less grateful we really are. Can we wrap our Thankfulness into one day?

We ought to be thankful. The Psalmist was thankful because he paused and visualized all the goodness of God toward him. Shouldn't we?

As I count my blessings, I find God's redeeming love. Beside us to guide us is our Lord. From the beginning He has been at our side. "He spared not His own Son but delivered Him up for us all" (Rom. 8:32) We may be poor in many areas, but not when we know we are the object of God's love. We are heirs of heaven through Christ. This is something money and our attempts at goodness cannot buy. It is a gift from God.

I count the misery of a burdened soul with sin and guilt, and then remember the pain, anguish, and death that Jesus endured to save me. I surely have something to be thankful for every day of my life. You too.

Also see the material blessings we enjoy in our homes, in our personal lives, in our great land of America. We are physically and materially better off than millions. We can make our dreams come true by work and effort.

Some of our fellow citizens criticize our nation and try to sow seeds of unrest and rebellion, but we don't see them forming lines to get out.

But our thankfulness must not only be prompted by what we have, but also by some of the things we don't have. Such things might be wars, famine, diseases not curbed by modern drugs. We are thankful persecution remains away--although we do have forms of it in our race problems.

We can't remain indifferent to the sight that greets our eyes as God unfolds His goodness. I for one want every day to be a day of Thanksgiving. I owe it to God. You do too. Let this day be an occasion for adding fresh fuel to the fire of our gratitude. You will thank God with me, won't you?

Have you priced a tiger lately?

Take the GTO, for instance. Comes with 335 hp. Or 360 at extra cost. Plus bucket seats. Carpeting. Walnut dash. And like that. Yet it sells for less than a lot of pussycats with imitation stripes. Then there's the Le Mans. Same kind of pizzazz. Same kind of crackle. Same kind of low price. Slightly smaller teeth. So price a tiger.

Screw worm Iradication Strategy Set

Eradication workers are plotting their strategy for combating screwworms this winter which they hope will eliminate the threat of reinfestation of the United States by the livestock pest in 1965.

Their plan is to release all available sterile screwworm flies up to 200 miles or more below the international border along both east and west coasts of Mexico where large numbers of native screwworms live throughout the winter. Sterile males mate with native females and prevent reproduction. This action is expected to weaken Mexican screwworm colonies which form the principal threat to the Southwest and slow the northward migration of the insects next spring.

Eradicators' ability to carry out this plan hinges on whether the number of screwworm cases in Texas can first be brought to an absolute minimum. If screwworms persist in Texas, it will require diverting sterile flies, airplanes and manpower from the task of strengthening the barrier zone in Mexico to fighting small, but costly, outbreaks in Texas.

Each infestation in Texas costs approximately $750 to treat with sterile flies, field inspection and spray. For the same amount of money, one million sterile flies could be dispersed in Mexico where they would help protect against reinvasion from the south in 1965.

A mild winter, which would allow screwworms to survive and build up in numbers in much of the southern part of the state, would be particularly harmful to the program, authorities said. They fear stockmen may stop looking for screwworms because of the low number of cases experienced this year and the prospects of cold weather ahead.

Success of their strategy, therefore, will depend on farmers and ranchers detecting and reporting screwworm infestations before they can multiply, so that emergency treatment can be provided. Treatment of animal wounds with smears is also called for to ward off screwworm attack.

Spearman, Gruver Cagers Meet Friday in Gruver

It will be no holiday for the Spearman and Gruver basketball teams Friday night when the four teams meet in the Gruver gym. The two girls' teams split their two games last year with each team winning in their home gyms. Lynxette Coach Dean Weese said the Gruver teams will be high this year. They have so much height that it is reported that post girl, Anita States is playing out front this year. Both teams went to the regional play-offs last year. Spearman lost in the first round to state champion Friona and Gruver was upset in the second round. Both teams have the main parts of those teams returning this season. The future for the Lynxettes took a turn for the better this week when tall Kathi Pattison decided to rejoin the squad and try for a guard position. She was a letter winner last year, but decided, earlier, not to play this year. Coach Dean Weese said it would take her a while to catch up with the remainder of the team. Pattison's return to the squad will not cause anyone to be dropped back to the B-team since reserve guard Omega Gannon moved from Spearman Friday.

The Lynx and Greyhounds will be trying their wings since both teams have only been working a couple of weeks. Gruver won both games last year. Spearman has played only one game. Their game with Stratford scheduled for Tuesday night was cancelled because Stratford is still playing football. The Lynx have beaten Sunray.

Monster Reported In Siberia Lake

MOSCOW — A sea-going monster with a long tail has been spotted in remote Siberia, the Soviet government news agency Tass said today. Geologists had seen the "huge animal" twice at Lake Haiyr near Laptevykh sea in a region called Yakutia, the agency said. The animal had a small head, a long, gleaming neck, jet-black skin and a vertical fin on its back, Tass said.

Tass said geologists on a Moscow University expedition to the region had seen the animal on shore and in the water, but because they had no camera, they

California Leads in Agriculture

WASHINGTON — The Agriculture Department has ranked California first in returns for 15 important farm products. California stood first last year in receipts for all commodities combined, followed in order by Texas, Illinois, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana, Missouri and North Carolina. Iowa ranked first in returns for both cattle and hogs. California was first in eggs, greenhouse and nursery products, turkeys, sugar beets, tomatoes and barley. Wisconsin was first in dairy products. Texas led in cotton, cottonseed and sorghum grain. Kansas was first in wheat, Illinois in corn and soybeans, North Carolina in tobacco, Georgia in broilers, peanuts and for-

Misses Garnett, Massad Entertain Music Club

Mmes. Will Douglas and Henry Cornelius were hostesses to the Music Club Monday night in the Farm Bureau Room. A short business session was conducted by Mrs. Tom Sutton. Mrs. Ray Robertson began the program with a talk on "Federation Note."

Jennie ynn Massad presented in French "Seguidilla" from the opera "Carmen". Miss Massad was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Rue Sanders.

Linda Webb gave the story of the hymn of the month "Come Ye Thankful People Come." and Lynn Garnett, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John Berry, sang the hymn.

The history of the Santa Fe Opera was given by Mrs. J. D. Wilbanks.

his car into the alley, although he did reduce his speed.

As Al entered the alley Pete was standing next to the curb, completely engulfed by the smoke. Al's car struck Pete.

Pete sued Al claiming that he was negligent in driving into the smoke when he could not see. Al, on the other hand, said that Pete was negligent in standing in the alley in such a dense cloud of smoke when he knew that cars were driven in the alley.

Was Al negligent? Can Pete collect from him for his damages? Pete would not win his case, unless the jury found him not negligent in standing in the alley in a cloud of dense smoke. However, the courts have held that a driver must exercise care commensurate with the situation. It has been recognized in a number of cases that more care than normal is required of a driver traveling through smoke which limits his visibility.

It is the duty of the operator of a car to drive it at such a rate of speed that he can bring his car to a standstill within the distance that he can plainly see objects or obstructions ahead of him. If he continues to proceed when he is unable to see because his vision is obscured, he is negligent. When the situation on a highway is such that one's vision is completely obscured, it is his duty to slow down or even stop until

Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Held by Club

Members of the Gladiola Flower Club and their husbands enjoyed their annual Thanksgiving dinner Saturday night. Turkey with all the trimmings was served buffet style from a table centered with a large pumpkin which held an arrangement of rust baby mums and bronze mums.

The Thanksgiving motif was carried throughout the room as each table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with "Mr. Turkey" himself.

Following dinner bridge and pitch were played.

Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Max Baggerly, F. H. Banks, Orvil Brummett, Lloyd Buzzard, Irvin Davis, Ed Haner, Craig Hutchison, Bill Jackson, Don Knox, Bill Partridge, Ray Robertson, Louis Schnell and Don E. Smith.

The only way to outshine your neighbor is to build a good reputation and keep it polished.

SMOKE IN YOUR EYES

It was a clear, crisp fall afternoon, and Pete decided to rake his lawn. He carried the leaves to his back yard and burned them just at the entrance of the alley which ran along the rear of his lot.

The leaves were wet, and Pete found that he had to stir them occasionally in order for proper burning, resulting in a dense cloud of smoke.

Al intended to drive his car into the alley in which Pete was burning the leaves. As he approached the alley, he entered a dense cloud of smoke, so dense in fact that his vision was completely obscured. He nevertheless continued to drive

THE TALL TEXAN

The magazine subscription saleswomen who call long distance are back in action in Spearman and take it from us you can get the magazines they are offering at a much cheaper cost. We are speaking from personal experience and have checked the costs. Our boss went for the bait and it is expensive.

By subscribing for the magazines direct from the publishers, you can save many dollars.

The long discussed school bond question has been settled and it will soon be presented to the voters for their decision.

Already some people are taking positions on the questions before the issues are put forth. The board has spent several months compiling figures, cutting out items, taking the fat out of others and trying to meet the needs of the entire program.

There is not a man on the school board who does not pay a large chunk of school taxes in proportion to his income and there is not a man on the board who does not expect to be here throughout the life of the bonds.

Therefore, we believe their decision on the matter is based on sound judgement and a knowledge of what it is going to mean to the taxpayers.

Some people are not going to like the paving projects, some are not going to like the improvements in the junior high school building, some are not going to like the new athletic plant. However, whether we like it or not, we are going to need all of the improvements now or in the very near future.

The paving will cut maintenance costs, the repairs to the junior high school are needed and the longer they are delayed the more they will cost, and just because some people do not like athletics it is not going to be dropped from the program. Spending money patching up a sub-standard facility that will not meet future needs is wasting money.

This newspaper is going to support the bond issue. However, we are going to try and present as much factual information, pro or con, as we can between now and the bond election.

Bank Stood Chance Of Second Cleaning

PARIS — Police surrounded the Credit du Nord bank when they found its front door open two hours after the bank had closed.

However, no burglars were found inside, and nothing had been stolen. Amelia, the Spanish cleaning woman, confessed that she had got angry at her boss so had walked out of the bank without locking the door after cleaning the place.
