

Court Reprieve For Bruno Is Held Possible

Youthful Suspects Confess To Three Chicago Holdup Slayings

Reviewing The BIG SPRING WEEK
by Joe P. Kile

If you have not already acted, you now have two days in which to secure your drivers licenses which every automotive vehicle operator must have after April 1. Since issuance of the license is necessarily a slow process, it would be wise to attend to this Monday. Also, there is the detail of securing your 1936 car license plates not later than Wednesday.

The biggest news of last week was the announcement here by Elmer Highway Engineer W. A. French that the highway department had voted a special appropriation for the connecting of two overpass structures in Howard county with highway No. 1. To make the good news better, the department ordered the work completed within 60 days. This means that by June 1 eight miles of surfaced road will have been completed and traffic opened over two new structures built at a cost of $85,000. That it will be good grade crossings in this county.

In this connection another important item appeared in the week's calendar of news. Local civic leaders were reminded that a hearing will be held in Austin Monday to pass upon the state highway department's petition for condemnation of the Ratliff land in Glasscock county. If, as and when this is done (and it likely will be done Monday) the department will immediately start planning for the widening of the road through Glasscock county. By the end of the year it is possible that Big Spring may be connected for the first time with San Angelo by an all-weather highway.

A letter from W. A. Nelson, state college examiner, gave cause for worry here last week. In outlining the requirements for a county junior college district, Nelson pointed out that it was necessary to have a 7,000 scholastic population. Howard county has met every requirement but this, but it falls considerably short of 7,000 scholars.

Encouraging is the statement made by District WPA Director E. H. McNew. He said that it would be the policy of WPA in this district to complete every project it started. Of course this does not mean that the larger projects will be entirely completed, but each separate unit undertaken will be followed to a finish. Such a policy is indeed wise, for incomplete projects, almost without exception, are worthless projects.

Big Spring is still a good town to bear this out, a large department store firm last week contracted for space here and started remodeling in anticipation of its opening within some 15 days. C. A. Bulot, formerly of this city but (Continued On Page 8)

Forsan Wins League Meet

Representatives Take Most Places In Literary Events

Forsan continued its winning streak in last of the literary events of the county interscholastic league meet here Friday evening and Saturday by placing in the extemporaneous speaking and essay contests.

Emma Hood, Forsan, won first place in the extemporaneous speaking contest for girls. Margaret Wheeler, Moore, and Georgia Brown, Highway, finished in order. George Boswell, son of the Coahoma superintendent, broke the Forsan streak by taking first honors in the boys division ahead of Wesley Yarbro, Forsan, and Albert Pettus, Highway.

In the ready-writers contest for class B seniors Nell Manning, Forsan, took first. Margaret Wheeler, Moore, second, and Kathleen Simmons, Knott, third.

Virginia Chambers, Forsan, was first in the class B grammar division of the same contest and was followed in order by May Ruth Field, Coahoma, and Elizabeth Brown, Knott. Rose Lee Rice, Lott, won the rural senior division, and Velma Ray, Center Point, the rural school grammar section.

In the meet which officially got under way Wednesday evening, Forsan won easily in the literary contests and was second in Highway in track and field competition.

Involved In Murder Of Doctor, Boys Tell Of Killing Two Other sin Robberies

CHICAGO, Mar. 28. (AP)—Turning against one another under steady police questioning, members of the 'teen age quartet' named by authorities as the confessed killers of Dr. Silber C. Peacock, added two more recent holdup slayings to their list of crimes tonight, surviving police Captain John Moran said.

Ballot Gives Nazi Voters No Choice

BERLIN, Mar. 28. (AP)—The German nation will approve Reichsfuehrer Hitler's policies tomorrow, unless the German voter wishes of the greatest civic mobilization the world has ever seen and they will vote an unconditional "Ja" of approval concerning the leader's actions of the last three years.

Cosden Plant Improvement Is Completed

Capacity Stepped Up By Installation Of A New Process

Part of a new major expansion and remodeling program at the Cosden Oil Corporation's refining plant east of Big Spring was completed Saturday when units were fired up after installation of the Dubbs process, a renovation that increases the plant's output and provides for higher quality products with gasoline of higher octane rating.

Work is progressing toward opening the old Richardson plant, adjacent to the Cosden refinery, as a topping unit, and this will be ready for operation soon. The Richardson plant has not been in use for four years.

Installation of the Dubbs process, considered the most advanced in refining operations, called for general reworking of equipment, including providing of additional towers. The new process means additional cooling time and increased rate of cracking to develop an improved product. Gasoline extracted will rate at 70 octanes, E. W. Potter, plant superintendent said.

The improvement and opening of the Richardson plant increases the plant's capacity crude run to approximately 400,000 barrels per month.

Approximately 100 men have had employment on the expansion and improvement work, which included addition of barrelling and loading racks.

Stone Wants Return To Aldermanic Form of Government

Says Taxes Too High; Outlines Other Proposals As Candidate

His seven-plank platform, to which he pledged himself to "do my best to carry out," was expounded Friday evening by Sam B. Stone, candidate for the office of city commissioner.

He spoke before a small group of citizens in the district courtroom and his address was carried outside over a public address system.

Woman Faces Charges For Second Death

Denies Guilt When Accused Of Poisoning Her Other Daughter

GREENVILLE, March 28. (AP)—A terse denial of guilt was Mrs. Velma Patterson's only reaction today when authorities formally accused her of poisoning her 12-year-old daughter, Dorothy.

She received notice of the new murder charge with the same stoical calm which characterized her actions when she was charged a week ago with the alleged poison death of her other daughter, Billie, age 11.

A chemist's report that poison was found in the viscera of Dorothy led to the filing of the second murder charge against the 34-year-old widow. Other than to maintain her innocence, Mrs. Patterson has maintained silence in her jail cell.

Fishing Is Good

Presidential Party Makes Some Big Hauls

MIAMI, Fla., March 28. (AP)—Good fishing was hailed by President Roosevelt and his vacation party today for the first time since he started his cruise.

Off Coates Island, the president reported, perhaps modestly, "we caught big game fish—baracuda, kingfish, groupers and mackerel. We did not specify just who made the big haul of the day."

The presidential party aboard the U.S.S. Potomac, today was in the vicinity of Mariquana Island, of the Bahamas, northwest of Coates.

Smith Loses In Suit Over Salary

Second court of civil appeals Friday decided against V. R. Smith, former White Plains city manager in his suit for $700 in back salary.

In an opinion written by Associate Justice Brown, the appellate court held that it was apparent to Smith that the board was divided over the amount of his salary and that there was no implied promise to pay him the amount he drew when he went there from Big Spring in 1931.

At that time he was receiving $7,500 a year. On June 8, 1933, the city commission fixed his salary at $500 a month and later $300 a month.

Di Rivera Is Sentenced To Two-Months In Jail

MADRID, Mar. 28. (AP)—Jose Antonio Primo de Rivera, son of the late Spanish dictator, was sentenced today to two months in jail for "insulting" the chief of police when he was arrested March 14 as a supporter sought to crush the Spanish fascist party.

The county committee will divide the county into two districts and three county committees will be chosen from each district, two to be designated as chairmen. The committee members will then select a third member of the county committee.

In turn the county committee, serving also in their capacities as (Continued On Page 8)

Woman Faces Charges For Second Death

Denies Guilt When Accused Of Poisoning Her Other Daughter

GREENVILLE, March 28. (AP)—A terse denial of guilt was Mrs. Velma Patterson's only reaction today when authorities formally accused her of poisoning her 12-year-old daughter, Dorothy.

She received notice of the new murder charge with the same stoical calm which characterized her actions when she was charged a week ago with the alleged poison death of her other daughter, Billie, age 11.

A chemist's report that poison was found in the viscera of Dorothy led to the filing of the second murder charge against the 34-year-old widow. Other than to maintain her innocence, Mrs. Patterson has maintained silence in her jail cell.

Fishing Is Good

Presidential Party Makes Some Big Hauls

MIAMI, Fla., March 28. (AP)—Good fishing was hailed by President Roosevelt and his vacation party today for the first time since he started his cruise.

Off Coates Island, the president reported, perhaps modestly, "we caught big game fish—baracuda, kingfish, groupers and mackerel. We did not specify just who made the big haul of the day."

The presidential party aboard the U.S.S. Potomac, today was in the vicinity of Mariquana Island, of the Bahamas, northwest of Coates.

Smith Loses In Suit Over Salary

Second court of civil appeals Friday decided against V. R. Smith, former White Plains city manager in his suit for $700 in back salary.

In an opinion written by Associate Justice Brown, the appellate court held that it was apparent to Smith that the board was divided over the amount of his salary and that there was no implied promise to pay him the amount he drew when he went there from Big Spring in 1931.

At that time he was receiving $7,500 a year. On June 8, 1933, the city commission fixed his salary at $500 a month and later $300 a month.

Di Rivera Is Sentenced To Two-Months In Jail

MADRID, Mar. 28. (AP)—Jose Antonio Primo de Rivera, son of the late Spanish dictator, was sentenced today to two months in jail for "insulting" the chief of police when he was arrested March 14 as a supporter sought to crush the Spanish fascist party.

The county committee will divide the county into two districts and three county committees will be chosen from each district, two to be designated as chairmen. The committee members will then select a third member of the county committee.

In turn the county committee, serving also in their capacities as (Continued On Page 8)

ROUND-BY-ROUND SCENES OF BLACKTAIL BATTLE

Two big blacktail deer, locked in mortal combat on the Peecos county ranch of the West Cattle company, 50 miles south of Fort Stockton, were snapped in action by an alert photographer. Nobody knows how long the scrap lasted. It was going good when Henry Scruggs, riding the range, first saw it. He notified F. B. (Buck) Fyle, ranch manager, who with other ranch employes, finally separated them. Both animals were completely exhausted, one dying before the day was over. One had 11, the other 13 point antlers. The photos show three rounds of the battle, the bottom scene picturing the finish. (Photos by E. H. Brezsek, San Angelo).

Two big blacktail deer, locked in mortal combat on the Peecos county ranch of the West Cattle company, 50 miles south of Fort Stockton, were snapped in action by an alert photographer. Nobody knows how long the scrap lasted. It was going good when Henry Scruggs, riding the range, first saw it. He notified F. B. (Buck) Fyle, ranch manager, who with other ranch employes, finally separated them. Both animals were completely exhausted, one dying before the day was over. One had 11, the other 13 point antlers. The photos show three rounds of the battle, the bottom scene picturing the finish. (Photos by E. H. Brezsek, San Angelo).

Await Labor On Road Jobs

Equipment, Teams Ready For Overpass Connections

With equipment and teams ready for action, the highway department only needed more men Saturday to put its rush road job on highway No. 1 into full swing.

Supt. Limmer Resigns Post

Stanton School Leader Will Take Place At Fredericksburg

STANTON, Mar. 28. (Sp1)—A. M. Limmer, under whose administration the Stanton schools have regained their lost accreditation with the state department of education, has resigned his post to accept the superintendency at Fredericksburg.

Dormitory Hotels SMU Will House Centennial Visitors

DALLAS, Mar. 28. (AP)—Southern Methodist university is going into the hotel business.

Anticipating crowds of Centennial visitors which Dallas hotels may be unable to accommodate, the university today decided to convert its dormitories into public hostels this coming summer.

Vocal Groups Win Honors

Local Singers Place In All Events In Abilene Contest

Big Spring high school singers competing in the Hardin-Simmons university invitational vocal contests at Abilene Saturday for the first time, made a creditable showing.

Ex-Congress Member Dies

Sterling P. Strong Former Representative From Texas

DALLAS, March 28. (AP)—Former Congressman-at-large Sterling P. Strong died at his home here today. He was 75 years old.

Warning On Taxes

Big Appropriations Must Be Met, FD Says

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (AP)—Renewed warning that appropriations must follow budget limits if more taxes are to be avoided reportedly reached congress today from President Roosevelt.

One Official Says Tribunal Has Authority

Plea Will Be Heard Monday; Hoffman Says He Won't Grant Stay

TRENTON, N. J., Mar. 28. (AP)—A reprieve for Bruno Richard Hauptmann from a new source—the state court of pardons—which has rejected one mercy plea from him and has another before it—was seen tonight as a possible means of saving him from the electric chair Tuesday night.

The pardons court, whose duties were described by a member of the state's highest tribunal tonight as having "no limitation" has confined its judgment in the past to pardons, commutations of sentence and remittances, and has never granted a reprieve.

But this high judicial officer, who would not permit use of his name, declared:

"There is no limitation on the power of the court of pardons and they could grant a reprieve if they were fit."

"There could be no appeal as the court is absolutely supreme."

This new development in the case came after Gov. Harold G. Hoffman had said today that he had "no intention" of issuing another reprieve.

The governor, who said he would "gladly" stay the execution of the condemned Lindbergh baby killer if he had the legal right, called the court of pardons to meet Monday to consider Hauptmann's second plea for clemency.

Other sources have pointed out that the court of pardons is not a law tribunal, but a mercy court; and a convict appearing before it must admit guilt and beg for mercy. This Hauptmann has refused to do, persistently professing innocence.

Governor Hoffman, in a lengthy interview with the Associated Press, reaffirmed his belief that Hauptmann was not fairly tried, that some evidence against him was open to serious doubt, and that the murder of the infant son of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh March 1, 1932, was the crime of more than one person.

The execution of Hauptmann, the governor said, will not signal the end of the investigation he has been prosecuting independently for several months. Even as the governor talked, Robert V. Hicks, a Washington criminologist, was outside to report on the results of an inquiry that carried him to Cuba and brought him burying week today by plane.

The governor declined to say what he would do in case of some extraordinary development, such as a confession or startling new evidence but the opinion prevailed in many quarters that the execution would not take place.

Attorney General David L. Vinton, prosecutor of Hauptmann and by law the legal adviser to the governor, issued a statement saying that Hauptmann "is as guilty today as he was the day he was convicted."

The attorney general took issue with the governor's charges that the Birmingham trial was "unfair."

In a statement issued from his North Amboy home today, the attorney general said:

"In disputes in light of the governor to place the prestige and weight of his office behind an accusation that the case 'was unfair, passion and prejudice.' He usurps the functions of the courts x x x.

"During the trial not even Hauptmann made any claim of unfairness, and defense counsel in his concluding address to the jury stated: 'I think we have played along so fairly, so nicely in this trial that we can continue to go along this way.'"

Clark Gable, Jean Harlow And Myrna Loy Featured In Film

'Wife Versus Secretary' Opens At Ritz Today

Faith Baldwin's ultra-modern story of a millionaire husband caught between the loves of two women—his wife whom he adores and his secretary whom he respects—comes to the Ritz theater for Sunday and Monday showings. It is "Wife Versus Secretary," and presents three of the big names in moviedom, Clark Gable, Jean Harlow and Myrna Loy.

"Wife Versus Secretary" is the story of Van Sanford (Clark Gable), prosperous young magazine publisher, his wife Linda (Miss Loy) and his lovely and capable secretary, Miss Wilson (Miss Harlow).

The Story
Van and Linda love each other with perfect understanding until Linda's suspicions of her husband's loyalty are aroused by insinuating gossip. Husband and wife patch up their first quarrel and he promises to take her to Havana. A business conference calls him there earlier and he goes on alone. Business also calls the secretary to Havana and she aids the publisher in perfecting a profitable deal, but when the wife telephones her husband late at night, the secretary answers the phone in his room. His explanations go unheeded, and Linda prepares to sail for Europe. Through the efforts of Van's secretary, he and his wife are reunited and the secretary herself is contented with the affections of her own boy friend.

Gable fills a role decidedly different from those he had in "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "China Seas." Miss Harlow also departs from her usual characterization, playing a competent and conscientious business woman. She again appears minus her platinum tresses.

Miss Loy's part as the wife is reminiscent of those she played with William Powell—roles that established her as one of the ranking stars.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer brought together three of its greatest box-office attractions in producing a picture designed to be of wide popular appeal. Clarence Brown directed.

An added attraction on the week end program will be the Metro news reel presentation of pictures of the recent disastrous Eastern floods.

R. A. Eubank Returns From Hot Springs, Ark.

R. A. Eubank returned Tuesday and Mrs. Eubank Saturday from Hot Springs and Hope, Ark., where they went the first of the month. They stayed at Hot Springs for three weeks enjoying the races and especially the Howard county courses entered by Dave Christian. Mrs. Dave Christian was there with them the last week. On their return they stopped at Hope to visit Mrs. Eubank's mother and sister who is very ill.

RITZ SUNDAY MONDAY

The PERFECT TRIANGLE!!

An alluring secretary opposing a charming wife—for the love of an attractive husband!

GABLE HARLOW LOY

WIFE VS SECRETARY

MAY ROBSON AN M-G-M GEORGE BARBIER PICTURE

PLUS: Metro News Showing FLOOD PICTURES of Eastern States Also: "Bottles"

SHE IS HIS SECRETARY

Jean Harlow and Clark Gable who, with Myrna Loy, are featured in "Wife Versus Secretary," at the Ritz theater Sunday and Monday. Gable is the business man, Miss Loy the wife and Miss Harlow the secretary.

'DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE' PRESENTATION AT THE LYRIC

Fredric March Has Featured Role In Play From Robert Louis Stevenson Story

Starring Fredric March in the role which won him the Academy award, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," the poignant story of a man who became slave to the monster he created himself, comes to the Lyric theatre as the featured attraction for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Unleash many of the thriller stories which pile horror on horror merely to create a fantastic story, this work by Robert Louis Stevenson is marked by simplicity and straightforwardness.

It was in 1885 that Stevenson wrote "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," as a fantastic representation of his own meditation upon the dual personality of man. His theory was that if the evil side of man's character could be separated from the good, the good would grow and the evil be submerged.

Evil Dominates
Dr. Jekyll held to this theory, and in attempting to demonstrate this, develops a compound that changes him into Mr. Hyde, who is the concentration of all the evil in the doctor's own character. But instead of the good emerging following, the evil grows until it completely dominates. He ends by committing an appalling series of horrors.

Dr. Jekyll is in love with a patrician girl, played by Rose Hobart. As Mr. Hyde he starts out on a career of excess and dissipation and meets a little Cockney girl, played by Miriam Hopkins, and enslaves her with his brutal jealousy.

Back in the form of Jekyll, he realizes the danger of the thing he has done, but Mr. Hyde has grown too strong for him to conquer. Escaping incidents—how his transformations mark the lives of both the girls involved and how he strives vainly to overcome the evil figure—build the picture toward a powerful climax.

The picture was hailed throughout the country as one of the best of its time, during its first release. It not only established Miss Hopkins as a top performer but won for March the coveted award for premier acting.

CLERKS, DRIVERS AND MECHANICS WILL BE TAKEN AT FT. BLISS

Twenty-two openings for clerks, truck drivers and mechanics are available at Fort Bliss, Sgt. Charles T. Morris, local U. S. army recruit officer, said Saturday.

In addition to these openings, the Eighteenth cavalry can take sixty-six additional men and the 52nd field artillery can take five recruits. There will also be a demand for a few men for service in the hospital corps at William Beaumont general hospital. Vacancies exist for general recruits in the 20th infantry stationed at Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

Five boys were recruited here by Sgt. Morris during March. They were Marvin E. Sutton, Charlie J. Hughes, Alden Smith, Woodrow W. Elmore and Ledford L. Hicks.

TEXAS HISTORY ENRICHED

AUSTIN (UP)—Two years translation of the Boxer archives, records of Texas during Spanish and Mexican days, for the University of Texas, have resulted in 4,000 pages of finished work. Original Spanish documents to be translated total 203,920 pages.

Five boys were recruited here by Sgt. Morris during March. They were Marvin E. Sutton, Charlie J. Hughes, Alden Smith, Woodrow W. Elmore and Ledford L. Hicks.

NOW...I CAN SHOW YOU THE MOST AMAZING PAINT EVER MADE

I WANT to show you a new house paint that is revolutionizing the entire industry. Now you use two different coats of paint (not 3 of the same kind) . . . and this new system lasts twice as long . . . tests prove it.

Besides, I've got a Budget Plan that I know you'll like. It lets you proceed without ready money and monthly payments are as low as $5.75 for the average house.

PEE GEE HOUSE PAINT

The New Two-Coat System

Thorp Paint & Paper Store

123 East Third St. Phone 54

Queen Offers One Of 1935 Honor Films

Victor McLaglen Seen In 'The Informer,' Best Role Of Year

Another picture which received honors in the recent distribution of Hollywood laurels for best attractions of 1935 comes to the city this week. It is "The Informer," with Victor McLaglen in the starring role—the part which won for him the Motion Picture academy award for the best acting among men of the cinema during the past year.

The attraction is presented at the Queen Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Heather Angel, British player, has the featured role opposite McLaglen.

"The Informer," a story of intrigue in the Irish uprising, presents McLaglen in a part far different from any he essayed before. Previously he was known as the blustering marine sergeant who played with Edmund Lowe in a series of comedies. In this picture again is a military man, a bluff but well-meaning officer caught in a maelstrom of incidents occurring in the uprising. The picture largely is one of characterization, and how well McLaglen succeeds in such an effort is demonstrated by his winning of first honor in the movie world last year.

Auto Safety Program Set

Inspection Service Will Be Provided By Olds Dealer Here

A spring "points of safety inspection" period will be promoted by the Shrover Motor company, local Oldsmobile dealer, during the months of April and May. It has been announced by A. H. Shrover.

During the six-point safety campaign all owners of Oldsmobile cars will be invited to have their machines inspected for safe driving condition, with special attention to lights, brakes, tires, windshield wiper, horn and steering.

This new program is the third nationwide safety drive conducted by Oldsmobile dealers. More than 60,000 owners of Oldsmobile and other makes of cars, had their autos inspected and put in safe operating condition during the second safety drive last fall, Shrover said.

"When cars have been put in mechanically safe condition," the dealer said, "owners have the assurance that the possibilities of minor and serious accidents have been greatly minimized. Each of the six points on which inspection will be made has a definite relationship to safety. Brilliant lights make night driving safer. Quick, automatic brakes are necessary in emergencies. Sound tires are a safeguard against blowouts. An efficiently-operated windshield wiper aids the vision of the driver. A properly tuned horn assures a warning note in time of danger. And sure and certain steering gives the driver better control of his car.

"We feel that inspection of these points is important. All owners of Oldsmobiles and other makes of cars are urged to take advantage of our safety inspection service."

TEXAS HISTORY ENRICHED

AUSTIN (UP)—Two years translation of the Boxer archives, records of Texas during Spanish and Mexican days, for the University of Texas, have resulted in 4,000 pages of finished work. Original Spanish documents to be translated total 203,920 pages.

Five boys were recruited here by Sgt. Morris during March. They were Marvin E. Sutton, Charlie J. Hughes, Alden Smith, Woodrow W. Elmore and Ledford L. Hicks.

SEEN IN FILM AT LYRIC

Fredric March and Miriam Hopkins, who won laurels with their work in the famed picture "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." The film, based on Robert Louis Stevenson's story, will play at the Lyric Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Farm Debt Refinancing At 2 Billion

Need For Second Mortgage Financing Now Is Diminishing

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28.—Real estate mortgage loans to farmers by the Farm Credit administration since its organization in May, 1933 passed the $2,000,000,000 mark Saturday, according to a statement by W. I. Myers, farm credit administration governor.

Farmers borrowed $1,135,000,000 in first mortgage security from the federal land banks and $665,000,000 from the land bank commissioner, who makes loans on second as well as first mortgage security.

"Lending operations for emergency refinancing to alleviate depression conditions passed the peak nearly two years ago," Governor Myers said. "Since then, a gradually increasing percentage of land bank and commissioner loans have been made for normal refinancing of farm mortgages, for new loans to purchase farms, and for other purposes. Recently, first mortgage loans have constituted a larger percentage of the total than formerly, indicating that the need for second mortgage financing is diminishing with the passing of the emergency."

Farmers borrowed $1,800,000,000 or about 90 per cent of the total loaned, for the specific purpose of refinancing old debts. The original debt owed was about two billion dollars, but creditors wrote off approximately $100,000,000 which about offsets the $200,000,000 which farmers borrowed from the land banks and commissioner for new financing and other purposes. Nearly half a million farmers have refinanced since the farm credit administration was organized less than three years ago, he explained. The federal land banks made first mortgage loans to 235,000 farmers and the land bank commissioner made 455,000 first and second mortgage loans. Many of the commissioner loans were made to farmers who also obtained first mortgage loans.

The total outstanding amount of federal land bank and commissioner loans aggregated $2,870,000,000. Life insurance companies, the next largest class of farm mortgage lenders, held slightly less than a billion dollars of farm mortgage loans at the end of 1935, and commercial banks about $500,000,000. The total outstanding farm mortgage debt to all classes of creditors is estimated at $7,770,000,000.

BRUSH OWN TEETH

Quints Now Able To Do Task Themselves

CALLANDER, Ont., Mar. 28 (UP)—The Dionne quintuplets today recorded a new achievement when Dr. Walter G. Thompson, director of dental service of Ontario, advised the babies now brush their own teeth—and do a thorough job.

Dr. John Phair, Ontario chief health officer, and director of child welfare, examined the quintets yesterday.

"There is a marked family resemblance in the babies' teeth," Dr. Thompson said. "The teeth are all normal. I was impressed with the perfect cleanliness. A big factor in teeth health is the diet, and Dr. Allan Roy Dufos has been most particular in that respect."

The quintets are "not a bit afraid of dentists," Dr. Thompson said. "Dr. Dufos is their boss and they do just what he says, without the slightest hesitation. You should see them brush their teeth. They certainly are enthusiastic about it."

Vera Stretz Wins Respite In Testimony

Will Be On Stand Again Monday To Tell Of Slaying

NEW YORK, Mar. 28. (UP)—A week-end court recess was a needed respite for Vera Stretz, today from the ordeal of describing the "brutal and unnatural" practice which she has said forced her to kill wealthy Dr. Fritz Gebhardt.

The blonde art student was so unnerved by her recital yesterday of an association with Gebhardt in which she came to love him "very, very dearly," that fatherly Judge Cornelius F. Collins adjourned her trial until Monday in fear that she might collapse if recalled today. Judge Collins several times held low-voiced private conversations with her, while she looked up at him tears dropping from her blue eyes down her cheeks. Once he ordered a 10-minute recess to allow her to regain her composure. He addressed her as Vera.

Deep Love

Her attorney, Samuel Leibowitz, devoted all of her first day on the witness stand to persuading a jury of 12 middle-aged and elderly men that she became Gebhardt's mistress because of a deep love. Miss Stretz, a New York university graduate and widely traveled, was the perfect aide in his strategy. Seated in the strong light of a tall window at her side, she was alternately a beautiful girl wracked by sorrow, a woman flashily proud of a powerful love, and always a woman depending upon the men around her for tolerance of a woman's weaknesses.

Miss Stretz will tell Monday of the quarrel or attack in Gebhardt's apartment early in the morning of Nov. 12 when she shot him to death. Leibowitz attacked convincingly the theory that the killing was premeditated, essential to a first degree murder conviction, and produced a plausible reason why Miss Stretz might have thought Gebhardt intended to marry her.

Miss Stretz testified that the gun with which she killed Gebhardt, while hers, had been in his possession for five months. It had been assumed previously that, since she carried it away from the apartment and had it when arrested, she had taken it there. Gebhardt took it from her one night last summer, she said, because he considered it dangerous for a woman to have a gun.

Gebhardt told her, she said with a suppressed sob, that they would

COME TO

Pig Stand 91

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

510 E. 3rd

he married this spring. Leibowitz attempted to cross testimony that Gebhardt had told her Nazi laws had nullified his marriage to a Jewish wife in Germany. He had two daughters, one 19 and one 17, but Miss Stretz said he planned to bring them to America.

PUBLIC RECORDS

New Cars

James L. Thrall, Dodge coach, J. F. Shalvey, Chevrolet sedan, J. Newcomb, Plymouth coupe, A. B. Bayliss, Chevrolet coupe.

"Relief" Inlet in Dispute

LONDON, Ont. (UP)—Roy McRoberts, a barber, cut the hair of 116 unemployed men here and submitted the bill to the city council. If the council pays it, it will establish a precedent in Canada. Haircuts here have never been authorized as a relief expenditure.

LYRIC STARING SUNDAY WITHIN THIS MAN A BEAST! . . .

Thirsting for the lives of the two women who loved him!

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE

A Robust Mammoth Production with FREDRIC MARCH

MIRIAM HOPKINS

ROSE HOBART

Based on the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson A Paramount Picture

PLUS: Paramount News, "Alpine Yodler", "Street of Memories"

We Will Deliver Your Candy On Easter Sunday

GONE CUT - RATE ON EASTER CANDY

Hershey's Easter Kisses, lb. - 29c

15c Hard Candy In Glass Jars 10c

50c Hard Candy In Glass Jars 39c

75c Hard Candy In Glass Jars 60c

$4 Streamlined Box 2.50

$2 Streamlined Box 1.50

Largest Selection Of Easter Candy In Big Spring, Including Streamline Boxes

Candy SALE

For the Kiddies Easter Candy

39c Box Value Cut To 15c

3 Pound Box Easter Candy

$3 Value Cut To 1.50

1 Pound Box Easter Candy

$1 Value Cut To 59c

ASK INFORMATION ON MISSING YOUTH

The Herald has received a communication from W. E. Carpenter, 3438 St. Louis Ave., Fort Worth, requesting information as to whereabouts of a youth Cardell Carpenter, who had not been heard from since he left Fort Worth on March 7.

Features In The Day's News

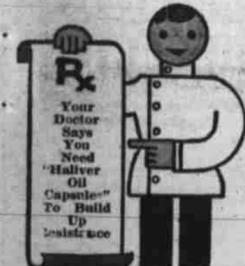

TOPEKA, Kan., Mar. 28. (UP)—Suits to determine whether the city of Hutchinson may rent advertising space on its boulevard "stop" signs was on file in supreme court today.

HASTINGS, Neb., Mar. 28. (UP)—Fred Aufdenkamp received Adams county's first old age assistance check, but returned it saying he wouldn't need the money after all.

FLORENCE, Ala., Mar. 28. (UP)—A woman of Florence has her own way of safeguarding children in traffic. A child dashed into the street in front of her car.

OCALA, Fla., Mar. 28. (UP)—Florida's state treasurer will have a heavy job counting Martin's qualifications.

Planning Board To Hear Reports At Monday Meet

PRICES ARE BETTER at CUNNINGHAM AND PHILIPS

Woodward and Coffee Attorneys-at-Law General Practice in All Courts

World Test Fills 700 Ft. From 2,402

Show Turns Interest To Southwest Tip Of Producing Area

Showing of the World Oil Co. No. 4-C McDowell in section 21, block 34, T-2-S, T&P survey, increased prospects for further development in the extreme southwest tip of production in the Howard-Glasscock county pool.

Reports that Superior Oil Co. of Oklahoma had awarded contract for another deep test in this area could not be confirmed here.

In Glasscock county the Fleetborn Oil Co. wildcat six miles north of Garden City is reported past 2,000 feet.

The Bristow & Cantrell No. 1 Shannon estate, Scurry county wildcat, was drilling at 2,530 feet in lime Saturday.

Planning Board To Hear Reports At Monday Meet

AUSTIN, March 28. (UP)—Reports on projects sponsored by the Texas planning board will be received Monday when the board meets here.

Possibility of developing the East Texas pulp paper industry will be presented by E. L. Kurth; and the proposed state park on Padre Island will be considered.

New members to be present are Tom W. Cotten, Amarello, who succeeded the late Wilbur Hawk, and C. S. Clark, Austin, successor to former State Water Engineer John A. Norris.

Two committee meetings also were announced. The land use committee will hear reports on shipments of Texas vegetables to eastern market by water and possibilities of increasing more consumption of Texas-slaughtered livestock.

The planning board also announced appointment of Albert T. Clifton, Waco, as member of the industrial committee.

Further Probe Of AT&T Activity Is Planned By Group

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (AP)—Charting the future course of the $750,000,000 communications commission inquiry into the American Telephone & Telegraph company, investigators said today they would seek to determine whether the utility attempted to control elections.

whether A. T. & T. has tried to influence or control public opinion or legislative or administrative action.

The study also will include scrutiny of associate companies in the Bell system, investigators declared.

Already, the commission has received information that Bell interests have "a voice in the affairs" of 23 of the nation's 26 telephone associations—described as being active in attempting to promote or oppose legislation.

More than 200 accountants, attorneys and clerks now are busy in the New York A. T. & T. offices gathering information to be developed more fully at public hearings.

The hearings resume next Tuesday.

Good quality, amply cut broadcloth shorts! Cotton patterns. Combed cotton athletic shirts.

Men's Fancy SOCKS 10 Pair For 88c

COVERT IS RUGGED! 2 For 88c

Full-cut, neat-looking cotton covert. Main seams triple-stitched. Dressy lined collar.

3 BIG FEATURES! 88c

Freshrunk, fine workmanship, low price. White, fast color blue, patterns.

Boys' Mannish Shirts 2 For 88c

Easy to launder. Long-wearing. Slits on faced. Collars and cuffs lined. Colors and white.

LOBBY BILL PASSED Measure OK'd In House, Sent To Senate

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (AP)—A bill to keep tabs on lobbyists and their cash outlays was approved by the house yesterday and sent to the senate.

On the senate floor Senator Jett Shouse, head of the American Liberty League, termed the measure of publishers' telegraphic messages an "opening wedge to censorship of the press."

On the senate floor Senator Stetler (R-Ore.) insisted the federal communications commission exceeded its powers in turning telegrams over to the committee.

LAKELAND, Fla., Mar. 28. (UP)—A protest that backfired brought a $100 fine for Dizzy Dean. This penalty was assessed against the St. Louis pitcher yesterday by Commissioner Kenosaw Mountain Landis for Dean's failure to appear in a charity game at Chattanooga, Tenn., last Oct. 27.

AUTO LOANS Notes Refinanced - Payments Reduced, Confidential Service ALL KINDS OF INSURANCE R. B. REEDER, Phone 533 106 W. 3rd St. Big Spring

WARD'S THRIFT WEEK MONDAY 88c DAY

Men's Shirts and Shorts 6 For 88c

Men's Felt Hats 88c

Men's Dress Shirts 88c

Men's Pajamas 88c

Men's Work Pants 88c

Men's Overalls 88c

Large Cannon TOWELS Size 16x36 10 For 88c

Tapered Cuff Anklets 10 Pair For 88c

Knee Free Chiffons Or Full Length 2 Pr. For 88c

Ringless full-fashioned pure silk, 4-thread, fine gauge—Lastex top. New shades. 5 1/2-10 1/2.

Wards Fine DIAPERS Size 27x27 12 For 88c

Soft Midgeva. 21x27. Hemmed. Absorbent, non-chaffing. Size 20x30 diapers, 6 for 88c.

BOYS' WORK SHIRTS 88c

MEN'S FELT HATS 88c

MEN'S DRESS SHIRTS 88c

MEN'S PAJAMAS 88c

MEN'S WORK PANTS 88c

MEN'S OVERALLS 88c

Large Cannon TOWELS Size 16x36 10 For 88c

Tapered Cuff Anklets 10 Pair For 88c

Knee Free Chiffons Or Full Length 2 Pr. For 88c

Ringless full-fashioned pure silk, 4-thread, fine gauge—Lastex top. New shades. 5 1/2-10 1/2.

Wards Fine DIAPERS Size 27x27 12 For 88c

Soft Midgeva. 21x27. Hemmed. Absorbent, non-chaffing. Size 20x30 diapers, 6 for 88c.

USE WARDS BUDGET PLAN

Use Ward's Budget Plan and buy yourself a better living room suite and rug. A living room suite and rug, that's what Ward's offer you Monday, only; if you don't think it's of fine quality, come in and see for yourself.

You'll be impressed by the massive size of this suite—but don't stop there! Sit in it—note the thickness and beauty of the 100% mohair! You'll like it—you'll like the low price even more! Shop tomorrow!

—AND YOU GET THE BIG 9x12 RUG ALSO 8888

KIDDIES OXFORDS 88c

MISSSES' SHOES 88c

WOMEN'S SANDALS 88c

HOUSE DRESSES 88c

HOUSE DRESSES 88c

SPRING PRINTS 88c

NEW SHEERS 88c

FLOUR SACKS 88c

LONG WEAR SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES 88c

ELECTRIC IRON 88c

Guaranteed USED CARS PRICED TO SELL 1935 Dodge Coupe 1935 Plymouth Coupe 1934 Chevrolet Coach 1934 Ford V8 Coupe 3-1933 Plymouth Coupes 1934 Dodge Truck 1933 Chevrolet Truck

WEST TEXAS MOTOR CO. MONTGOMERY WARD

OPPOSITE DEPOT PHONE 280 321 WEST 3RD ST.

WHERE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION WILL BE HELD

Here is an airview of Philadelphia's convention hall, where the Democratic national convention will be held. It is the white building on the right. Adjacent to it, in foreground, are University of Pennsylvania buildings. The stadium is Franklin field, in which it has been suggested that President Roosevelt, if re-nominated, give his formal acceptance the final night of the convention. The river is the Schuylkill, which separates the section from the city's main business district. (Associated Press Photo)

DISCOUNT RATE IS HIKED TO FIVE PCT. BY BANK OF FRANCE

PARIS, Mar. 28. (AP)—The Bank of France, alarmed over continued weakness of the franc due to international and internal uneasiness, raised its discount rate today from 3 1/2 to five per cent.

On the Bourse, the same factors forced down the list of government securities while financial quarters predicted withdrawals of gold from the central bank as the franc weakened on an active foreign exchange market.

Government three per cent bonds, quoted at 85 a year ago and at 68.49 the day before German re-occupation of the Rhineland, drifted down to 65.25 today.

The new financial uneasiness came as the government covered its current expenses with a new issue of 6,000,000,000 francs in treasury bonds authorized during the last day of the French parliament's session.

Hospital Notes

Big Spring Hospital
Wanda James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. James of Stanton has been admitted to the hospital for treatment of pneumonia.

C. H. Rutledge, merchant of Vincent, has been admitted for medical treatment.

Loma Gale Lay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lay, underwent an appendectomy Friday, and was reported doing nicely Saturday.

Willie Miller, farmer of Lamesa, is in the hospital for medical treatment.

D. M. Senter, route 2, Big Spring, underwent operative treatment for his eyes Saturday morning.

Jimmie Warren Mashburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Mashburn of Stanton, had a mastoid operation Saturday.

New Incubator Is Installed By The Logan Hatchery

To meet demands of a steadily increasing baby chick business, the Logan Feed & Hatchery, 817 East Third street, has recently completed installation of a new 30,000-egg capacity incubator.

The addition gives the hatchery a capacity of 135,000 eggs, Vernon Logan, proprietor, said.

Logan said that demand for incubation and baby chicks has been greater this year than at any time since his hatchery was established. The firm is sending out large numbers of baby chicks on mail order, throughout this section as well as to New Mexico and Arizona.

Seek To Defer Court Ruling

Govt. Wants Another Case As Test Of Holding Company Act

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (UP)—The administration has asked the supreme court not to rule on the constitutionality of the utility holding company act in the American States Public Service company case, decided against the new deal in Baltimore, because it does not "clearly" present the issues involved.

If the plea, filed by Solicitor General Stanley Reed, is heeded by the court validity of the violently contested law will not be decided at this term of court but will go over until fall.

The brief, filed as a "friend of the court," asserted the court will have an opportunity to rule on the constitutionality of the law in a more direct case in the Electric Bond and Share company proceedings in New York.

This proceeding against bond and share and 21 holding companies was begun November 25.

In the Baltimore case, the brief asserted, the nature of the proceedings and the "wholly inadequate character of the record" makes the case "inappropriate" for the decision of the law's constitutionality.

The court will announce Monday, whether it will entertain the case.

CHARLEY SEES SERIES PENNANT

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 28. (UP)—Charley Grimm of the Cubs says: "I see no reason why we shouldn't win the next World series."

Retail Sales In Southwest Gain Sharply

February Dollar Volume In 3 States 13 Pct. Over Year Before

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28.—Retail sales in the Gulf southwest as reflected by reports from 934 independent stores in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, reporting to the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, department of commerce, in cooperation with the bureau of business research, University of Texas, according to preliminary estimates, increased about 13 per cent in dollar volume for February, 1936 as compared with February, 1935. When adjusted for the extra day in February of this year, an increase of 13 per cent was shown. Without such an adjustment the greatest increase was shown for New Mexico where reported sales for fifty-eight stores were 23 per cent above February a year ago. Six hundred thirty-nine Texas merchants showed a 19 per cent increase and 237 in Oklahoma showed an increase of about 13 per cent.

When adjusted for the number of working days, February sales for the three states showed an increase about 12 per cent from January, 1936. There were two more working days in January than in February. Without adjustment either for the number of working days or for seasonal influences, February sales were 3.5 per cent greater.

All of the kinds of business represented showed an increase from last year. The greatest increases were in lumber and building materials dealers, and family clothing stores, both with increases of 29 per cent over February a year ago.

Of the 934 firms reporting for February 656 (70.2 per cent) reported an increase over February a year ago; 264 (27.2 per cent) reported declines; and 24 (2.6 per cent) had less than one per cent change in sale volume.

Can Bolster Bond Market

Federal Reserve System Equipped To Spur Security Buying

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (UP)—The federal reserve system, operating through the federal open market committee, is now equipped to give the market for government securities a "shot in the arm" at any time it shows signs of flagging, observers believed today.

They forewarn the possibility of the open market committee stimulating the market for government securities through that committee's domination of the federal reserve banks and their huge reserves in the purchase or sales of federal government securities.

Under the new rules federal reserve banks buy and sell federal government securities only upon the express authorization and direction of the open market committee. Martin S. Eccles is chairman both of the board of governors of the federal reserve system, and of the open market committee.

The new regulations direct that "each federal reserve bank shall make available to the federal reserve bank selected by the committee such funds as may be ne-

Floods Hit Other Areas

Many Families Are Driven From Homes In Lower Ohio Valley

By The Associated Press
Rising rivers drove scores of families from their homes in the lower Ohio valley and the south Saturday.

Approximately 100 persons evacuated their dwellings in Pope county, Illinois, as the overburdened Ohio continued to swell. Thousands of acres along the Tennessee river were flooded. Many residents of the menaced area took to the hills. The highest levels in four years were in prospect. The Cumberland river also expanded to threatening proportions.

The upper Mississippi slowly swelled. A huge ice field swept away a 300-foot pontoon bridge utilized by a railroad at Roads Landing, Minn.

PLAY AT LOMAX Comedy To Be Presented On Friday Evening

Lomax will present another of its free community plays Friday at 8 p. m. from the school auditorium when "Aaron Slick from Pumpkin Creek" will be staged.

As is a custom at Lomax, no admission will be charged for the 3 act comedy-farce.

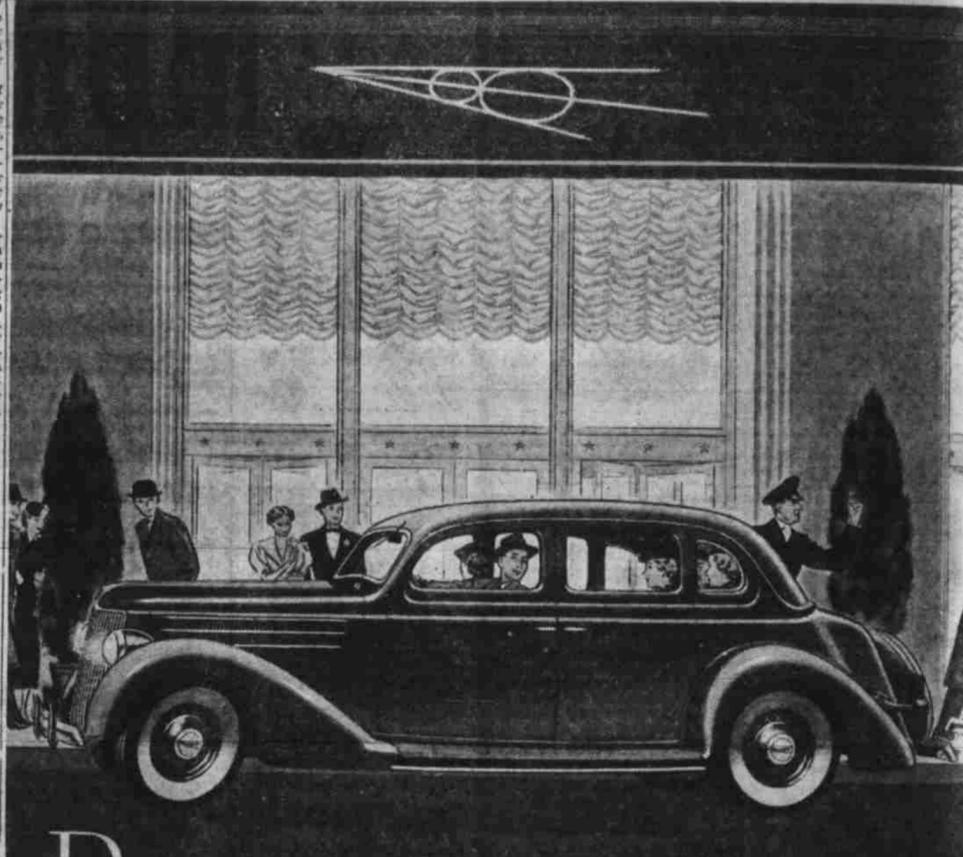

Included in the cast are N. B. Toile, Jack Rice, Tom Newman, Hazel Hill, Rosie Lee Rice, Evelyn Stallings, and Oneta Chapman. Special features have been arranged for between the acts, according to M. G. Hannaford, school superintendent.

ICE CREAM Made Just for Us!

SPECIAL ICE CREAM AT OUR FOUNTAINS... We had it made especially for us. Get a pint or a quart for your Sunday dinner. It's twice as rich and ten times as good.

CUNNINGHAM AND PHILIPS

Built to give you years of good service at low cost

THE ASSURANCE we offer you is not in words only—it is built into the very substance of the Ford V-8 itself. The Ford name is your certificate of quality and the car is its proof. It will serve you faithfully, economically and well for many thousands of miles.

Ford policy builds soundly and substantially, in the interest of the public. There are no experiments. Improvements are made on the firm foundation of experience. Everything new must prove its genuine value and lasting benefit before it is put into production.

A consistent plan controls all Ford manufacturing. There is no confusion in design or contradiction in practice. Certain proved principles are carried out in the Ford, the Lincoln, and the Lincoln-Zephyr. These three cars differ in price and purpose, but they are alike in important fundamentals. All have a full torque-tube drive... safe, sure mechanical brakes actuated by solid-steel brake rods... double-acting shock absorbers... steel wheels... and Safety Glass throughout at no additional cost. All have the V-type engine.

By concentrating on this one type of engine, the Ford Motor Company has brought it to a new peak of efficiency. And created new, higher standards of motor car value.

"V-type" is the distinguishing mark of the world's finest power plants—on land, on water and in the air.

Precision Manufacture
Ford, Lincoln and Lincoln-Zephyr motor cars are made to unusually close precision limits and all to the same standards of mechanical accuracy. Inspection and production gages are checked constantly by Johansson Gage Blocks, recognized as the world's standard of measurement.

FORD V-8 FOR 1936

LOW FIRST COST, CONVENIENT TERMS—SEE THE NEAREST FORD DEALER ABOUT $35-A-MONTH TIME PAYMENTS AND NEW 6% PER MONTH FINANCE PLAN

YOU WILL WANT A NEW FORD TO ATTEND THE CENTENNIAL!
COME IN TODAY — ASK FOR A DEMONSTRATION

BIG SPRING MOTOR CO.
Main and Fourth LINCOLN FORD LINCOLN ZEPHYR Phone 636

The State National Bank

STATEMENT OF CONDITION AS REPORTED TO THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY AT CLOSE OF BUSINESS MARCH 4, 1936

ASSETS	LIABILITIES
Loans and Discounts $ 544,707.36	Capital Stock $ 50,000.00
Overdrafts 903.71	Surplus Earned 100,000.00
* U. S. Bonds 93,370.00	Undivided Profits 31,746.33
* Other Bonds and Warrants 128,861.91	Borrowed Money NONE
Federal Reserve Bank Stock 4,500.00	Rediscounts NONE
Banking House 22,006.00	DEPOSITS 1,396,671.20
Furniture and Fixtures 1.00
Other Stocks 1.00
Federal Deposit Ins. Fund 1.00
Other Real Estate 4,000.00
CASH 780,071.55
$1,578,417.53	$1,578,417.53

* Securities Not Pledged and Carried at Less Than Market Value.

We Have Safely Served Our Customers 27 Years and Present This Statement As Evidence Of Our Security and Progress.

GOLDSMITH POOL IN ECTOR CO. GETS SOUTHWEST EXTENSION

Gaines Wildcat On Fishing Job; Yoakum Test Swabs 20 Barrels; 22 Completions

SAN ANGELO, Mar. 28.—A quarter-mile southwest extension of the Goldsmith pool in southwestern Ector county and the staking of locations for two tests in the Tubb area in west central Crane county, which has three producing horizons, two from the Permian lime, the other from the Simpson, middle Ordovician, were among this week's West Texas oil developments.

Twenty-two wells completed in seven counties rated 12,040 barrels of oil daily, and 38 locations were filed, only two less than the record number for the year the week before.

W. T. Walsh and Harry Adams Corp. No. 1 Averitt, closely watched Gaines county wildcat on a geological high, recovered drilling line and stem and was fishing for the bit when it lost part of the fishing string. It appeared the operators might have to drill by or complete the well as a gasser. Total depth was 4,310 feet, where the nineteenth gas horizon was encountered and caused the twenty-seventh fishing job. The gas gauged 12,368,000 cubic feet daily. No. 1 Averitt is three miles northwest of Seminole, in the northeast corner of section 22-G-WTRR. South central Yoakum county's prospect, Honolulu Oil Co. and Cascade Petroleum Corp. No. 1 L. P. Bennett, obtained no more pay in deepening to 5,156 feet after being treated with 2,000 gallons of acid when 5,112 feet deep. It swabbed around 20 barrels of oil daily, lowering the column to within 1,200 feet of the bottom. The test is in the center of the northwest quarter of section 67B, block D, John H. Gibson survey.

Acid Treatment
Gulf No. 4 Goldsmith, quarter mile southwest extension of the Goldsmith pool in Ector county, flowed 4,420 barrels of oil with 4,653,000 cubic feet of gas in 24 hours after being shot with 120 quarts from 4,095 to 4,145 feet, the total depth. It was to be treated with acid. The well is 440 feet from the north line and 1,350 feet from the east line of section 27-44-1s-T&P, Gulf No. 2 Goldsmith, an inside well, in the northeast quarter of section 15-44-1s-T&P, flowed 1,052 barrels of oil with 4,920,000 cubic feet of gas in 24 hours at 4,170 feet without being shot or treated with acid.

Alma Oil Co. No. 1 T-P Land Trust, in the southwest quarter of section 16-43-1s-T&P, indicated partial closing of the two-mile gap between the north Cowden field and A. R. Eppmann's south extension. It showed oil from 4,923-74 feet with an increase from 4,084 to 4,085, where it stopped to connect with storage.

In Tubb Area
One of three new locations in the Tubb area in west central Crane county was Humble's No. 2 Tubb, in the center of the southeast quarter of the north-west quarter of section 11-B27-pd. It will be a quarter mile south of Humble No. 1 Tubb, completed last week at 1,375 feet for 861 barrels daily. Gulf staked No. 2 W. N. Waddell estate in the center of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 15-B27-pd. It will be one and a half miles northeast of Gulf No. 1 W. N. Waddell, in section 4-B27-pd, first producer in West Texas from the Ordovician outside the Big Lake field in Reagan county. It was reported Gulf and Cranfill would drill No. 2 Tubb, a joint test, in the center of the northeast quarter of section 12-B-27-pd, west of Humble No. 1 Tubb. Permian production will be the immediate objective of the trio, but some may be carried deeper.

The week's largest producer was Roy A. Westbrook No. 6 Daugherty on the west side of the Sayre pool in northern Winkler county, flowing 2,486 barrels of oil in 24 hours, bottomed at 3,000 feet. It is in the southeast quarter of section 11-26-pd. Westbrook No. 3 Daugherty flowed 549 barrels daily for completion at 3,000 feet after a shot. Humble No. 2 Howe, in the northeast quarter of section 12-26-pd, was finished at 2,982 feet, flowing 380 barrels daily.

CONVICED, MAN IS SCHEDULED TO DIE IN LETHAL CHAMBER

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Mar. 28. (AP)—Paul H. Carroll, 36, was convicted of first degree murder for the slaying of C. C. Barnard, railroad official, by a jury in district court here today.

The jury made no recommendation for leniency, which automatically condemned Carroll to death in the state's lethal chamber.

Carroll, a discharged fireman, shot Barnard in the Union Pacific station here last October.

The jury deliberated slightly

TEXAN TO DEMO MEET BY BURRO

Arthur Lee ("Yelping") Yowl, Texas rancher and lifelong Democrat, shown as he started from Dallas on "Old Democracy" to the Democratic national convention in Philadelphia in June. Yowl expected to make 18 miles a day. (Associated Press Photo)

No. 20 Settles Is Completed

Rated At 771 Barrels A Day After Acidizing At 2400 Feet

Continental No. 20 Settles was a completion in Howard county during the past week, the well rating 771 barrels daily after being treated with acid. It was bottomed at 2,400 feet.

Location is in the northwest quarter of section 133-29-W&NW, Sinclair-Prairie No. 3-B Denman, in the northeast quarter of section 10-30-1s-T&P, flowed 713 barrels daily at 2,826 feet.

Baby Paid for Crying
SALT LAKE CITY, (UP)—A University of Utah dramatics group recently was swamped with offers when they appealed to mothers for more than 15 hours, having received the case late yesterday.

The defense was granted a stay of sentence in order to prepare a motion for a new trial.

Carroll is the first man to be condemned to death in Wyoming since the gas chamber was substituted for hanging.

Maytag Dealers Of West Texas Will Gather Here

Dealers in West Texas for Maytag washing machines and ironers will hold a convention in Big Spring on April 1.

Walter Rogers, president of Maytag Southwestern company, will meet the dealers and their salesmen for a luncheon session at the Settles hotel, and in the evening a large rally will be held, which will include dealers, district managers, salesmen and their wives.

Attendance of 150 is expected for the sessions. Dealers and salesmen from Lamesa, Snyder, Colorado, San Angelo, Ballinger, Pecos, Pecos, McCamey, Wink, Midland, Monahans, Stanton, Rankin, Fort Stockton, Alpine, Marfa and Iran will be guests of Frank Spaulding, manager of Maytag Big Spring company.

Law Truly Respected

LINDSAY, Ont. (UP)—John Hancock, sentenced to 15 days for assault, walked eight miles to jail here to begin his sentence. He was tried at Toryhill, eight miles away.

a baby to make off-stage noises for the play "Post Road." They offered 50 cents an hour of crying. A six-weeks-old infant won the role on pure lung power.

Hawley Area Reports New Completions

Production Encountered In Both The Cook And Hope Sands

ABILENE, Mar. 28.—Strike of the second producer in the Hawley field of Jones county from Hope sand, completion of two Cook sand wells on the south end of the field, and showing of the second well in the Laeders field for Hope production were among features of the area for this week.

N. H. Martin & Son of Wichita Falls No. 1-C Henry Dorsey estate, north offset of the I-B, showed for an estimated 400-500 barrels daily from sand at 2,160 feet late this week, but completion was delayed by a fishing job. Liner was set from 2,050 feet, and in cleaning out to test, tools were caught in the pay below the pipe. It had made several flows through open hole and casing. Location is 200 feet from the south and east lines of the east half of section 5, Manuel Bueno survey No. 197. It is west of the two Humphrey producers from the 2,500-foot sand, and approximately one-quarter mile north-east of the Martin No. 2 Dorsey, which is the only other well in the field to produce from the Hope horizon.

958 Barrels
Ungren & Frazier No. 3-C Dorsey scored the largest completion from Cook sand this week flowing 958 barrels on production gauge from sand at 2,058-66 feet. On the south edge of the field, the well is located 1,003 feet from the north and 200 feet from the east lines of section 6, S. W. King subdivision of Manuel Bueno survey No. 197.

The Thomas D. Humphrey No. 6 Dorsey, east of the Ungren & Frazier 3-C, completed gauge this week flowing 116 barrels from Cook sand topped at 2,063 feet. It is located 600 feet from the north and 200 feet from the west lines of section 17, Manuel Bueno survey No. 196.

Rotary Test
Second rotary test for the field is the Humphrey No. 10 Dorsey, drilling at 700 feet, which will test as a twin well for the 2,500-foot sand. It is 73 feet north and 20 feet east of the Humphrey No. 2 Dorsey, a Cook sand producer. Special permit was issued this week.

Location is in section 18, Manuel Bueno survey No. 196.

Ungren & Frazier No. 4 Dorsey, north offset to Mart'n 2-C, was spudded this week, 200 feet from and, having no money, and the court offering no transportation, Hancock was forced to walk.

the south and east lines of the east half of section 6, Manuel Bueno survey No. 196.

Testing for a southeast extension to the field, the Martin No. 1 Mrs. C. B. Triplett, located in the south end of Gabriel Martinez survey No. 195, was drilling ahead at 1,945 feet.

Four-inch pipeline is being run from the Humphrey lease on the east side of the field to Hawley, about three miles southeast, for connection with the Wichita Valley railway.

About eight miles east of Anson, the Sandy Ridge Oil corporation No. 4 Percy Jones, located in section 5, block 15, T. & P. survey, was being completed from Bluff Creek for about a 75-barrel well.

Although four fishing jobs delayed progress in the Laeders field in eastern Jones county, Ungren & Frazier No. 3 J. W. Jennings, north offset to the City of Stamford Hope sand well, had topped Hope pay at 1,920 feet and was showing for another good producer. The test was fishing for underreamer bugs lost in the hole before lowering pipe for completion. It is in the east half of the northeast quarter of section 207, HBB&C survey.

Old Padres' Safe Found

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. (UP)—A secret safe, where only padres hid their valuables from raiding Indians has been found by Father John Harnett in the walls of the old rectory of the mission fathers here. It had been hidden from human eyes for more than a century and a half.

SPECIAL

Spring Tune-up and Clean-up

Wash, Grease Car, Clean Motor and Vacuum Clean Upholstery, all for $2

Special on Battery Recharging 75 cents

Have Your Motor Checked With Our New Motor Laboratory Tester

FREE

The above includes checking the Carburetor, Timing, Ignition Points, Compression, Valves, Spark Plugs, Lights, Fuel Pump and Battery.

We specialize in Motor Overhauls and Mechanical Repairs of all kinds at Reasonable Prices.

Visit our Body Repair Department—for those dented and cracked up fenders and other body repairs of all kinds — PRICES RIGHT.

Very Latest Type of Alemite Lubricating System

Parts and Accessories for all makes of cars

Shroyer Motor Co.

OLDSMOBILE SALES AND SERVICE

BIG SPRING, TEXAS

WATCH

for Announcement of

"HIGH SCHOOL DAY"

at Burr's

DEPARTMENT STORE

Portion of day's receipts will go to High School Pep Squad and Band.

High School STUDENTS WILL COMPRISE PERSONNEL OF OUR STORE

In a few days we will announce the High School Executives and sales personnel for the day. High school students will expect to see you at Burr's on "High School Day."

The World's Most Beautiful Refrigerator

CROSLY OFFERS...

This Much More in a Shelvador

Just think of the many added advantages and conveniences of these shelves in the door. Providing ample storage space for eggs, butter, lemons, lemons and other small articles, food is always at your finger tips.

Shroyer Motor Company

424 E. 3rd St. Phone 37

Statement of Condition, March 4th, 1936

The First National Bank

In Big Spring

Assets	Liabilities
Loans and Discounts	Capital Stock
Overdrafts	Surplus
Banking House, Furniture & Fixtures	Undivided Profits
Stocks, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation	Borrowed Money
U. S. Govt. Bonds	Rediscounts
Stock Federal Reserve Bank	DEPOSITS
County and Municipal Bonds
Industrial Bonds
CASH in Vault and Due from Banks
$1,999,277.97	$1,999,277.97

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

L. S. McDOWELL, Chairman of Board
B. REAGAN, President
ROBT. T. FINER, Active Vice-Pres.
IRA L. THURMAN, Cashier
R. V. MIDDLETON, Asst. Cashier
H. H. HURT, Asst. Cashier

HIWAY WINS SR. DIVISION IN COUNTY TRACK

TCU Line Coach May Take Position At North Carolina University

WOLFE IS AFTER NEW COACH JOB

FORT WORTH, March 28.—Raymond "Bear" Wolfe, veteran TCU line coach and athletic director, confirmed reports here today that he had been approached by officials of North Carolina University in connection with the post at Chapel Hill.

Wolfe said that he had been "sounded out" by officials of the eastern school on the position as head football coach, left open recently when Carl Snavely left the university to become coach at Cornell University, succeeding Gil Dobbs.

The bid from North Carolina, Wolfe said, was a "feeler." In a recent telegram he was asked if he would be interested in the post.

Wolfe wired immediately and asked for full particulars by letter. That was Thursday. He expected to receive an answer by Monday.

HERE'S HOW THEY LOOK AT THE STARTING LINE; TIGERS TOPS

Race Results

ABLINGTON DOWNS (First Race)
Dogaway	3.40	2.50	2.30
Jim Daisy	14.00		8.00
Little Upst.			3.00
(Second Race)
Skippy McGee	5.90	3.50	2.90
Night Bugade	14.00		8.00
Two Tricks			3.00
(Third Race)
Shining Hour	20.20	10.00	7.00
Cottingham	6.50		4.50
Rainy Weather			4.10
(Fourth Race)
Barney Keen	24.00	8.70	5.40
Lan Meg	4.30		2.50
All Eays			8.00
(Fifth Race)
Billy Jones	5.90	3.60	2.70
Prince Albert	14.00		8.00
Bold Lover			4.30
(Sixth Race)
Sungreal	12.40	4.30	2.50
Flay Bubble	3.00		2.25
Tennob			2.30
(Seventh Race)
Parawick	5.00	3.20	2.40
Damasene	3.90		3.30
Kuvito			1.90
(Eighth Race)
Thistle Guy	5.40	3.00	2.90
Wise Advocate	4.20		3.30
Albuquerque			4.50

By PAUL NICKELSON (Associated Press Sports Writer) MIAMI, Fla., Mar. 28. (UP)—It looks like the Tiger for the third straight year in the American league flag race.

American league managers, headed by Tom Yawkey of Boston, have spent a half-million dollars repairing their fences and enlarging their tiger cages, but still they don't seem strong enough to resist the Tiger from Detroit.

The big Tiger man, Mickey Cochrane, apparently has assembled his strongest for the big ride in the baseball jungles. With Al Simmons plugging up the outfield and five rookies apparently ready to lend great strength to the left side of the infield, Mickey has a club without a glaring weakness.

His only worry is big Hank Greenberg, whose recently ended holdout activities caused him to miss most of the spring training in the Lakeland, Fla., camp. Yet, Big Hank, who drove in 170 runs last season, is a man of fine habits and in good physical condition. It's a certainty that he'll be in there strong with his big war club.

Despite their poor start in spring exhibition games, the star-studded Boston Red Sox undoubtedly rate as the logical rivals of the Bengal crew, with the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians also dangerous. The second division seems probable for the other four clubs—St. Louis, Chicago, Washington and Philadelphia.

Here's how they line up at the starting line:

Detroit: Approximately the same team as 1935 except for Simmons and a fine assortment of rookies who give every promise of dazzling the league. Simmons is bound to aid the Tiger attack. Pitching will be strong, if not stronger. Spirit is running higher than ever.

Boston: Harmony is the big question. If Joe Cronin's lineup of stars dig in and harmonize, the Red Sox will prove tough with a batting order like this: Almada, Cramer, Masera, Fox, Cronin, McNair, Werber and Eick Ferrell, each a star capable of breaking up a ball game. Pitching should be good enough with Grove, W. Ferrell, Ostermuller, Marcum and five others.

New York: The Yankees, despite the infusion of new blood, appear to be cracking up. Second base is the big question as Tony Lazzeri isn't expected to last out a full season. Frank Crosetti's knee also is a question mark. Will it hold up? The Yanks should have better pitching and plenty of power, but you can't help but detect cracking signs at too many places.

Cleveland: Here's the club that has a chance of upsetting the apple cart. Potentially, the Indians have everything except a sure catcher. They are riding on the wave of a new spirit under St. Joe O'Neill. If they can overcome their catching problems and their reputation as a poor read club, the Indians will be very troublesome.

St. Louis: Shrewd Rogers Hornsby expects fifth place, and that looks like the limit for the Browns. Pitching is the doubtful quality. The Browns rate as the giant-killers of the circuit.

Chicago: Good pitching but not much else. Fred, the great White Sox fan of Chicago, again will probably write down: "Just another year for the White Sox."

Washington: Bucky Harris has a flock of youngsters who may surprise. They are strictly dark horses of the league.

Philadelphia: It's raining again for Connie Mack. Down here in the grapefruit belt, the Athletics are odds-on "favorites" to stay in the cellar.

Giants Have Cubs, Cards To Beat

So Figures Bill Terry, Mgr. New York Giants

Bears Down Aggies' 13-11

WACO, Mar. 28.—A brilliant six-hit performance by Jelly SoRelle gave the Baylor Bears an even break in the opening Southwest Conference with the Texas Aggies here today as the Bears yesterday, A. & M., 7-3. A. & M. won yesterday, 12-11.

William Mastellan, Bear second baseman, made a clean sweep on home in the fifth inning to feature the attack.

Hensley, Bruin catcher, hit a home run in the second, his second in the series.

A. & M. 000 002 001—3 6 1
Baylor 100 010 028—7 12 2

Utah State Reaches Final

KANSAS CITY, Mar. 28. (UP)—Utah State college won the right to enter the final Olympic basketball playoffs in New York next month by swamping Kansas university here tonight 59 to 21.

It was the "rubber game" of the three game inter-district playoff series.

OILERS, COAHOMA TO PLAY TODAY

Using practically the same lineup that represents them in softball, the Coahoma Oilers will resume their baseball season today in Coahoma when they meet the Mundy nine of that city.

The Coahomas will use practically the same lineup that represented them in the past, with such players as the Red brothers, De-raney, Mahoney, and Watts as the mainstays of the team.

Twelve players will make the trip from here, Spike Henninger, Oiler manager, stated Saturday.

Pap Payne, mound veteran, and "Speed" Wiggins, will divide the throwing duties for the Big Spring-ers.

Payne, who will probably open the game, opposing Bud Mahoney of the Bulldogs, has lost some of his speed during the past few years but has developed an assortment of curves that makes his slants hard to hit.

Wiggins, an experienced slab artist from Forsan, relies on a blinding fast ball to carry him through. "Mileaway" Baker, hard hitting centerfielder, will handle the receiving end.

Herman Weller is scheduled to be at first, "Speedy" Moffatt at second and Jake Morgan at short, while Pepper Martin will complete the infield in the hot corner.

Miller Harris, Dutch Moxley, "Skeets" West, and Rufe Morton still divide time in the gardens.

Charlie Spikes, mainstay of last season's Lorraine nine, will see service in the infield.

The game will start at 3 p. m.

OILERS BLANK TAYLOR'S TEAM

Opening up the heavy artillery after being held for four innings, the Coahoma Oilers blasted out a 6-0 victory over the Taylor Elsie-trians Friday night on the Mundy.

In scoring their third victory of the spring practice games, the Coahoma Oilers, with Martin and Lloyd Forrester leading the way, pounded out nine hits during the evening, but the Taylormen, who took the field with only nine men, made a game of it until Jack Smith binged "ith one away in the fifth.

Roy Standfield, twirling for the Lamo Lighters, had trouble from the first inning when Vernon Whit-tington, clouted out a triple, and West appeared on his way out in "hot water" when Martin and Baker touched him for successive singles and a run in the second, but did a fair job, striking out seven during the seven frames he worked.

After Baker skied out to begin the fifth and Smith had singled, Standfield settled to whiff "Skeets" West in "hot water" when Martin of the hole, but Forrester stepped up to double into left field, scoring Smith, and the Taylormen's pitcher never recovered after that rally. He handed Chub Reed a free ticket to first and sent one down the groove to Moxley who dropped it safely into the outfield, scoring Forrester.

That was all for that stanza, but the Oilers returned in the sixth to score three times on three singles, a walk, and an Electrician miscue. Morgan went down to the initial sack on Standfield's wildness and scored when Spikes and Martin binged. Spikes tallied a run when Smith's grounder was mishandled and Forrester put the last run across with a one-base blow.

Reed, pitching steadily for the Oilers, allowed Standfield to break the ice in the second with a single, but was airtight after J. W. Coats duplicated Standfield's second inning feat with a base blow in the third.

Box score:

Player	AB	R	H
Moxley, ss	3	0	1
Whitt, rf	3	0	1
Morgan, 3b	2	1	0
Spikes, ss	3	1	1
Martin, lf	3	2	2
Baker, c	3	0	1
Smith, 1b	3	1	1
West, 2b	3	0	0
Forrester, m	3	1	2
Reed, p	2	0	0
Totals	25	6	9

Taylor—

Player	AB	R	H
Purch, c	3	0	0
Standfield, p	2	0	0
Corbill, 1b	3	0	0
Malone, 2b	3	0	0
Vick, m	3	0	0
J. Coats, ss	2	0	0
W. Coats, 3b	1	0	0
Madison, rf	3	0	0
Taylor, lf	2	0	0
Totals	21	0	2

Coahoma 000 000 000—6
Taylor 000 000 0—0

SAM PARKS HAS BEEN KNOCKED SINCE WINNING NATIONAL OPEN

By HENRY McLEMOIRE (United Press Staff Correspondent) PINEHURST, N. C., Mar. 28. (UP)—This is a story about Sam Parks, Jr., of Pittsburgh, and of the fine courage, high good nature, and tolerance he has shown since that afternoon at Oakmont last June when he banded him the big cup for winning the National Open golf championship.

The treatment Sam Parks has received from the press and public since winning that title is enough to smother most men. The antagonism against him started even before he won the title. While he was still out on the course, playing the last nine holes, the press tent, club house, locker room, and galleries were thick with people saying what a pity it would be if "that underdog Parks" won the title, from a field which included the greatest golfing names in the country. And during the cup presentation, one could feel the unfriendly feelings if not the actual hostility of the crowd that surrounded him.

The aftermath stories in the newspapers were merciless. His swing was torn to bits. His personality was criticized. He was called a cheese, chump and freak-champion. This bitterness turned to derision when he began the winter circuit with his rival professional and failed to keep pace. His failure in a tournament was played up more than the success of the winner.

His exhibition tours bordered on the dismal. Two days ago, in the second round of the North and South Open, I followed him around, his gallery, even counting his partners and the three caddies, never numbered more than ten during the entire 18 holes.

Yesterday, when the rain fell in torrents, and play was postponed, I went looking for Sam Parks. I wanted to ask him how he felt about the things that had been said of his game; how it felt to be the national champion, and to be along the fairways alone and look across the course and see hundreds of spectators scurrying along in the wake of players without a title.

I found him in the lounge—alone and ready to answer my questions.

"Don't mind what you ask me," he said with a grin. "I won't be embarrassed. In fact, I'll ask the first question for you. Don't you want to know just how I feel about all the things that have happened to me since I won the open at Oakmont last year?"

"That's right," I said, "but I don't want to make you mad."

"You won't. Well, to tell you the truth, it's been pretty tough. I would have liked anything but the national champion and not be able to do any better than I have this winter. People think the champion should be the best, and I'm not. There are ten fellows in this tournament right here who are better golfers than I am. Maybe more than that. I've been hitting the ball better this winter than I did at Oakmont—but I'm not hitting it good enough to win.

"I knew I couldn't hope to lick them when I started the tour, and I knew I was sticking my neck out making it. But I knew I never would learn to beat them unless I did, so I went along. People have been pretty tough on me, but I haven't minded. I've improved myself a lot, and maybe I'll be able to make them forget my failures later on."

"Did he think he had learned enough to make a successful defense of his title this year?"

"I doubt it. But a lot depends on the course. If it's a tough course, which will prevent Picard and Sarazen and Revolta and those fellows from shooting in the states, I'll have a chance. You see, I can't shoot that sort of golf. I don't mind admitting it. Right now I seem to be the kind of a golfer who can shoot 74's and 75's no matter whether the course is tough or easy. I won with that kind of a score at Oakmont, you know."

Parks said that he probably could have done a little better in these winter tournaments had he been willing to go on playing shots the wrong way. But it seems that he decided, after winning the Open, to execute all shots the correct way, even if it cost him strokes, while experimenting.

(Copyright, 1936, by United Press)

FORSAN IS SECOND IN TRACK MEET

Hiway won the senior division of the country track meet here Saturday with a total of thirty-eight points, according to a preliminary check-up. Forsan placed second with thirty-four points and Coahoma third with thirty-three.

Results in the junior division were not announced.

Forsan girls swept through to the volleyball championship by defeating Lamma, rural school winner, in the finals, 15-3, 15-13, and 15-10. In the opener, Forsan beat Coahoma 15-14 and 15-3. Moore lost to Elbow 15-7 and 15-9. Forsan crushed Hiway 15-0 and 15-3, and then beat Elbow, 15-12 and 15-3.

In playground ball, Forsan boys won both the high school, junior and the grammar grade junior divisions.

In tennis, Forsan won junior boys and high school singles and doubles.

Flagg Heads Game Group

Elected First President of Texas Wildlife Federation

AUSTIN, Mar. 28. (UP)—Henry W. Flagg, Galveston, today was elected first president of the Texas Wildlife Federation which was organized at the conclusion of a two-day conference here.

Phil Sanders, Nacogdoches, was made vice-president and Will J. Tucher, Austin, acting secretary.

Selections were by a board of directors named in accordance with a plan of organization which was adopted.

AUSTIN, Mar. 28. (UP)—Game conservationists and sportsmen today organized a Texas Wildlife Federation to unite efforts toward preservation and restoration of natural resources.

The association was limited to a federation of organizations rather than of individuals. Under an approved constitution, counties federations could be established under the state group.

Organization of game conservationists into a state federation was under a coordinated plan advanced by the National Wildlife Federation.

Ten directors at large and one from each of the 21 congressional districts were appointed to choose officers.

All-Time Record Sports Season Faces Britain

LONDON, Mar. 28 (UP)—An all-time record sports season faces Britain and the rest of the world in 1936, with the XIIIth Olympiad in Berlin in August as the high spot of the year.

The presence in Europe for the Olympic games of athletes from over the world has added to the programs in many countries particularly in Britain.

From April to August, sporting events ranging from horse racing to chess, follow each other here so rapidly that many of them overlap. International competitions, principally between Britain and the United States, will be the highlights of the season.

Curtis Cup Matches Sited

For instance there is the Curtis Cup women's golf match between Britain and the United States, the Westchester Cup polo match between Britain and the United States, a track and field meet between the British empire and the United States.

In addition on there are all the annual events, such as the major golf championships, the All-England lawn tennis championships, the Davis Cup inter-continent final and challenge round, Henley royal regatta, Cowes yachting week, cricket test matches against India, the Derby horse race and Royal Ascot week, and a host of others.

In most of these the United States and other countries will be represented. An Argentine polo team is scheduled to compete in the major events this season.

ted with swivel rowlocks, as compared with Oxford's fixed ones and as oarsmen are taught more on blade-work and legwork mechanics, they are a good deal "oilier" in their movements than Oxford, at present.

The Light Blues also are acquiring something of a reputation for tricks. One of them is to "easy" jam the oar handles in the gunboards, and, with beautiful balance, to throw a form of Swedish drill. It looks spectacular, and teaches them to balance their craft.

Oxford Favorite In Cambridge Boat Race

By H. L. PERCY (United Press Staff Correspondent) LONDON, Mar. 28. (UP)—With an American crew for the first time since 1920, Oxford university is an early favorite to win the annual boat race against Cambridge university, April 4.

H. C. Lamb, of Huron College, S. D., has been rowing No. 2 in the Oxford shell almost continuously since the crew started training last December. It seems certain Lamb will be in there when the two eight-oared boats battle over the famous 1.2-mile course on the River Thames from Putney to Mortlake.

Both crews have been training for months. Oxford rowed at Henley, using the royal regatta eight-mile. Cambridge used the so-called "muddy ditch," the Cam river, below the university.

On paper, Cambridge has the better crew, but reports from the training camps indicate that Oxford is settling down into a balanced boat much more rapidly. Oxford has only two "Blues" in its boat compared with Cambridge's six, but this is in Oxford's favor as they are able to bring the crew along to racing form as a whole while Cambridge has to mould three men to the style of five.

As early as January, Oxford rowing over a four-mile course, showed that it could whip the rate up from 28 to 28 a minute in three or four strokes without merely rushing and bucketing, a good sign of rhythm and stroking early in the training.

Cambridge believes in long-distance rowing as the basis of training, a method which has helped considerably toward its record sequence of twelve victories.

The Cambridge boat again is fitted with swivel rowlocks, as compared with Oxford's fixed ones and as oarsmen are taught more on blade-work and legwork mechanics, they are a good deal "oilier" in their movements than Oxford, at present.

The Light Blues also are acquiring something of a reputation for tricks. One of them is to "easy" jam the oar handles in the gunboards, and, with beautiful balance, to throw a form of Swedish drill. It looks spectacular, and teaches them to balance their craft.

Texas Blanks Rice Saturday

Norman Branch Permits Only Six Hits, Strikes Out Fifteen

HOUSTON, Mar. 28.—Behind the airtight pitching of Norman Branch, the University of Texas Longhorns blanked the Rice Owls, 5-0, here today, in the opening Southwest conference game for both teams.

Branch permitted but six hits and struck out 15 batsmen.

The box score:

Texas 000 202 010—5 11 1
Rice 000 000 000—0 0 0

Batteries—Branch and Fitzgimmons; Seale, Lodge and Franke, Parker.

Muny Tourney Is Postponed

Charles Akey, Municipal golf pro, Saturday announced that the Muny invitation golf tournament, scheduled for May 15, 16 and 17 would be postponed until later in the year.

Akey said he decided not to have a tourney this spring because of the great amount of work now being done on the course.

BUFFS WORKOUT SATURDAY MORN

HOUSTON, Mar. 28 (UP)—The Houston Buffs held an early workout today and reated during the afternoon.

M. M. Seymour, president of the Jacksonville West Dixie club, signed the following Buffs: S. V. Parsons, shortstop; Cris Metkovich, Glenn Cooper and Harold Pless of Waco, outfielders, and Frank Phinney, third baseman. The Buffs will play the House of David tomorrow.

FOR SALE!
Ideally Located Furnished CABIN
On Lake Sweetwater
More than $300 invested in cabin. Client must sell at a sacrifice by April 10.

ACT NOW!
See or Write
The Thompson Agency
Sweetwater, Texas

PATTISON NEW COACH AT OLNEY

OLNEY, Mar. 28 (UP)—Athletic directors of the Olney high school said today Charles R. Pattison, for

WHITE SOX HAVE 16 MORE GAMES

EL PASO, Mar. 28. (UP)—The Chicago White Sox turned their attention to their remaining 16 exhibition games with other major league clubs today after winding up their series with semi-pro teams yesterday when they defeated El Paso, 15 to 4. The Sox will play 13 games with Pittsburgh and three with the Cubs. They got 18 hits yesterday, four going to Mauldin.

Three years coach of the Jonesboro, La., high school, would be here Monday to assume new duties as coach.

Pattison replaces Blannard W. Spearman, who went to Paducah, Texas. The new coach graduated from Centenary college, Shreveport, in 1932.

Sand Belt Golfers Start Qualifying

Big Spring will have a team in the Sand Belt golf league. It was decided last week, and qualifying will start today and last through the week. Qualifying rounds will be 18 holes.

The other five clubs in the league are expected to start team organization this week, as the first league match has been tentatively scheduled for April 5. Schedule will be released this week.

TRASH FIRE

Firemen Saturday afternoon were called to East 10th street to extinguish a trash fire.

Why do you insist that Cunningham & Phillips fill all your prescriptions?

Because they have filled a quarter million prescriptions for people in this vicinity so they must be good.

You Can Rely On Prescriptions Filled at—

CUNNINGHAM AND PHILLIPS

HARRISON'S TEXANS
Playing Return Engagement
Tuesday Night, March 31st at the CASINO
Seven Men Playing 25 Instruments
Featuring
—Mickey Rathbone
—Clark Winn
—Curly Cordivan

Special Sunday Dinner
Baked or Fried Chicken or Turkey
50c
C-CLUB C-A-F-E
OPPOSITE SETTLES HOTEL

Bring on Those Eggs Now!
WE ARE ADDING A
New 30,000 Smith Incubator
TO TAKE CARE OF YOUR DEMAND FOR CHICKS AND INCUBATION
TRADE WITH US AND GET HIGH QUALITY MERCHANDISE
SAVE BIG MONEY
LOGAN FEED & HATCHERY
817 EAST THIRD PHONE 310

Player	AB	R	H
Taylor	3	0	0
Purch, c	3	0	0
Standfield, p	2	0	0
Corbill, 1b	3	0	0
Malone, 2b	3	0	0
Vick, m	3	0	0
J. Coats, ss	2	0	0
W. Coats, 3b	1	0	0
Madison, rf	3	0	0
Taylor, lf	2	0	0
Totals	21	0	2

Coahoma 000 000 000—6
Taylor 000 000 0—0

25% Reduction

ON

Printzess

COATS and ENSEMBLES

Including Swagger Suits
Manish Tailors
Tailored and Dress Coats
Tweeds and Plaids

You Can Save Substantially
Shop Here Tomorrow

12.75 Value for	9.57
16.95 Value for	12.82
19.75 Value for	14.82
22.75 Value for	17.07
24.75 Value for	18.57
29.75 Value for	22.77
39.75 Value for	29.82

No Charge For Alteration.

Dobbs
Hats

WOMEN'S WEAR
MAY & JACOB

Queen Quality Shoes

The Week

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

who has been in the East, returned here long enough to observe that this was the best town of its size he had seen.

Interest in city politics is picking up—or is it? Friday evening a handful of people turned out to hear the first, and probably only public speaking before the voters choose three of six candidates on April 7. Whatever else may be said, the real issues, as in any such election, are efficiency, honesty in purpose and action, and open mindedness. Voters should cast their ballots for those candidates they feel will give the city those things which are best for the city.

According to preliminary plans, this district of the West Texas chamber of commerce is to have one of, if not the most attractive exhibit of the entire West Texas as exhibit at the Fort Worth Frontier centennial celebration. Action will be the watchword of the display which will depict the development of the cattle industry for the past 100 years in this section. Small models will be kept constantly moving and motion pictures will be repeatedly shown. Of course, other striking features are planned. The current school census must be completed by April 1. It certainly is to the interest of all concerned to see that every scholastic is enumerated. If parents allow as many as 200 to go unreported, it will cost the school system $3,500. If your child has not been listed on the rolls, call up the high school or county superintendent's office before Wednesday.

Latest proposal is to sell the airport to the city at a bargain price. After a momentous session, airport stock and bondholders agreed on this action. However, the city has not shown any inclination thus far to snatch up the port. Meanwhile, it comes on good authority that Midland is anxiously watching developments, eager to edge Big Spring out of her place as the aerial pivot of West Texas.

City Fire Marshal E. B. Bethel was right when he said last week that much had been said about clean-up campaigns in the past but very little had been done about them. He made a plea for something beside lip service in the campaign which starts today and continues through Saturday. Because this is Centennial year, everyone should take a personal interest in seeing that the city is given a thorough going over. Make Big Spring look as attractive as possible this year.

Await

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
Preparations were made to haul from the north end pit. Second course has been hauled four miles north of town and the road opened that far.

Dry weather is working a handicap on base operations. At the last account, more than 5,000,000 gallons of water had been hauled and placed on the new dirt, S. C. Dougherty, resident engineer, said.

Vocal

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
Cotten and Willa Nell Rogers. Seven clubs were entered in the division in which Big Spring competed. Mrs. Frazier took 40 boys and girls, virtually her entire chorus, to Abilene. The host city drew its chorus from approximately 250 candidates.

Both Abilene and Midland have been competing in the meet since its inception several years ago.

Farm

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
community committee, will select a chairman who will automatically become a member of the district committee. Chairmen of the district committee will be on the state planning board, thus making officials of the program in this state elective from top to bottom.

One other important change was announced in the Colorado meeting. The office of adjustment assistant will be abolished effective April 30. To offset this, assistant county agents will be employed in the larger counties and clerks in the smaller counties.

Stone

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
suggested reduced valuations as an alternative. Stone declared he was running ahead in previous city commission election several years ago when "they" began hauling in voters and "before God they voted a girl with school books under her arm" and refused his offer of $100 for a recount.

It was for this reason, he said, that he was asking extra judges for the election of April 7.

The theory that one man could not accomplish what he had outlined in his platform was hoisted by Stone. "If you elect me by a heavy majority you can get anything you want. Then guys is just servants," he said.

Outer Mongolia Approves Treaty With Soviet State
MOSCOW, March 28. (UP)—The Outer Mongolia republic proclaimed its approval of a mutual assistance agreement with the Soviet Union today, just after Soviet advisers said three Japanese invaders were killed in renewed fighting on the Far Eastern frontiers.

Under the terms of the virtual military alliance, Russia's huge army would go to Mongolia's aid in the event that threats of a Far Eastern invasion, attributed to the Japanese, were fulfilled.

Japanese forces were reported in Soviet press advices to have been concentrating near the Norin Lake sector of the boundary between Outer Mongolia and the Japanese-sponsored state of Manchoukuo, leading to a Soviet belief that further border raids were in prospect.

The Soviet Union's mighty army of more than one million men was expected not to be called upon for protection by the Outer Mongolian republic, however, unless a major invasion were launched.

DIVERS HUNT SHIP MURDER KNIFE

Diver W. B. Townsend, shown as he prepared to explore the 40-foot depths of the Alameda estuary at Alameda, Calif., for the knife used in the murder of George W. Albert, chief engineer of the cargo vessel Point Lobos, an unsolved murder case. Assisting the diver were Walter Haselgrain (left), and G. E. Kimble. (Associated Press Photo)

Speed Is Urged In Townsend Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (UP)—With an eye on a rapidly approaching primary elections, congressional leaders today pushed for further disclosures about the Townsend $200-a-month old age pension plan. Members faced with primary opposition from candidates pledged to the Townsend program were understood to be urging speed in the house investigation of the nationwide movement. The investigating committee will reopen public hearings next Wednesday.

Chairman Bell (D-Mo.), other committee members and their counsel, James R. Sullivan, are checking testimony given by R. E. Clements, who recently resigned as national secretary of the Townsend organization after a split with Dr. F. E. Townsend.

STRANGE TO CONFER ON FRONTIER PLANS

W. T. Strange, Jr., chamber of commerce manager, who has been drawing plans for the all West Texas exhibit in the Frontier Centennial exposition at Fort Worth, will confer with Billy Ross, expedition manager, and D. A. Bandoen, WTCC manager, in Fort Worth Tuesday.

He returned here Saturday after spending three days in Stamford working on plans.

Strange leaves today with B. Reagan and Wm. E. Currie for Austin to attend a hearing on the state highway department's condemnation suit against Mrs. Jennie Ratliff for right-of-way on highway No. 9 in Glasscock county. He will go from Austin to Fort Worth.

US AGENCY MAY BUY PART OF JA RANCH

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (UP)—The resettlement administration said today it was considering purchasing at least a part of the JA ranch in the Texas Panhandle.

Spokesmen said no offer had been made nor had Rexford G. Tugwell, resettlement director, contemplated the purchase seriously but added that investigators had been sent from the Dallas office to survey the property and make a report to Washington headquarters.

The administration said it was not able to say to what use the land would be put if it should be acquired.

PACT TO 'HUMANIZE' WAR BEING TALKED

LONDON, Mar. 28. (UP)—Authoritative sources said today that Japan and Italy will join the United States, Great Britain and France in signing an agreement to humanize warfare.

Experts are drafting the accord which is expected to be signed next week as a separate document in connection with the new naval treaty.

British sources expressed the hope that all maritime powers would eventually join in the agreement which originally was embodied in the 1930 naval treaty.

Trio Indictments In Ector Co. Court

ODESSA, Mar. 28. (SpI)—Three indictments were returned here this week by the 70th district court grand jury.

Those indicted will stand trial the week of April 6, District Attorney Cecil Collins said.

Counts were returned against H. R. Rich for disposing of mortgaged property, James Luke for burglary, and C. F. Everett for rape. The latter was alleged to have attacked a 14-year-old girl here Feb. 2.

The grand jury will reconvene here Thursday to conclude its deliberations for this term of court.

Comes had been issued and 3,000 passenger cars had been registered. Wednesday will be the last day for registering motor vehicles. Persons driving cars after that date without a drivers license will be subject to a fine.

FIRST LADY'S EASTER GOWN

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt (above), had this chiffon gown for her Easter wardrobe from a design with which a Negro school girl in New York won first prize. The designer, Hilda Jones, drew her inspiration for the silk pattern from mustard greens. The background is pale pearl gray, the dashing design a bright green combined with an almost blue purple. Suede belt and a cluster of flowers at the waist are also purplish blue. (Associated Press Photo)

New Calculations In Order As US Prepares To Start Bonus Payment

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (UP)—Payment of the soldiers' bonus, arrangements for which were under full swing today, plunged treasury department officials into a new series of dizzying financial calculations.

Officials believed the bonus payment would have the following effects, among others:

1. Push the U. S. public debt to a new all-time high of more than $33,000,000,000.
2. Compel the treasury to do some additional financing on June 15 or shortly thereafter, probably with a bond issue of $1,000,000,000 or more.
3. Deplete the present huge working cash balance of the treasury, now totaling almost $3,000,000,000.
4. Bring into the treasury department a large amount of long overdue income tax payments.
5. Bring into the treasury a large amount of revenue from miscellaneous sources as a result of increased business, payment of private debts, purchase of automobiles, increased consumption of gasoline and other tax producing activities.

Not estimate was available on the amount of money which the government expects to get back from the bonus payment.

Based upon returns from questionnaires sent to prospective recipients, officials believe tax and debt payments will take a large portion of the total bonus payments. A considerable portion will go toward liquidation of old debts, payments of mortgages on homes, repair of homes, or to the building of new homes.

Vacation resorts also are expected to do a flourishing business. Railroads and steamship lines anticipate an increase in summer traffic.

Actual disbursement of the veterans adjusted service bonds will begin June 15. Shipments of the certificates are being made to federal reserve banks which are to distribute them.

Swindling Suspect Taken In Custody

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 28. (UP)—A man hunt in the rough country around the lower Medina Lake dam, near Redwing, ended today with the capture of a suspect wanted in connection with a recent alleged $15,000 race horse betting swindle in Corpus Christi.

City policemen, detectives, state highway patrolmen, and other officers, with information that the suspect was camping near Redwing, surrounded his supposed camp.

The suspect was there, according to expectation, but he beat a hasty retreat and disappeared in the dense brush around the camp.

After a lengthy search, the officers finally located their man and took him into custody. He surrendered without resistance.

The man was wanted in connection with a horse racing "system" swindle which was recently carried out in Corpus Christi. Two other swindlers are already held in the case.

New Rules Issued To Protect Pilots In Time Of Flight

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (UP)—An aftermath of the "mystery" airplane crash in Goodwin, Ark., in January, the commerce department today issued new rules designed to prevent interference with pilot of an airplane in flight.

Seventeen persons were killed in that crash, the cause of which the commerce department has conceded it could not find. It has suggested, however, that interference with the pilot was a possible explanation.

The new rules require pilots to remain at their posts except when other duties require them to leave, and that no passengers, or unauthorized persons, be permitted to the pilot's compartment.

The practice of permitting passengers in the control room and of pilots visiting with the passengers is ordered stopped. The door to the pilot compartment is to be kept locked at all times.

De Valera Submits To Eye Operation

ZURICH, Mar. 28. (UP)—President Eamon De Valera of the Irish Free State underwent a two-hour eye operation today. Professor Albert Vogt performed the operation which followed a minor surgical treatment yesterday. De Valera's condition following the operation was said to be satisfactory.

Howard Whitehead, who formerly lived here, planned to return today to Hobbs, N. M., where he is employed.

YOUR NEW Spring SPORTSBACK

Is Here At $25.00 and $29.50

Sports back suits have no seasonal boundaries — many men wear them all year round. However, for Spring they are THE style! The selection we've assembled is a real eye-opener. Every smart model in a raft of new patterns, colors and fabrics! That's why we can confidently say that if you're in the market for a sports back, your suit is here!

Of course there's plenty double breasted and plain backs too.

Elmo Wasson
The Men's Store

Special Notice

"Charge" Customers

Our March Books are Closed

Charge Purchases Made Tomorrow and the Remainder of this Month Go On Statements

Payable In May

If YOU haven't a Regular Charge Account at A.M.F. Co., you are missing many advantages and conveniences of this Service. Albert M. Fisher Co. invites you to open a Charge Account. You'll enjoy its Conveniences and Economies.

Albert M. Fisher Co

Snyderknit

DRESSES OF SILK BOUCLE

A smartly styled frock in the semi-tailored mode. Dignity as only Snyderknit fashions. Navy with large mother of pearl buttons and belt buckle.

As Pictured 19.75

Other Snyderknits in one, two and three pieces. High and low tailored lapel collars. V necks and round necks with embroidery on net. White and pastel blue, rose, yellow and grey.

12.95 to 49.50

Albert M. Fisher Co

Petunia Wins Top Vote As City Flower

Lantana Selected For B. S. Favorite Flowering Shrub

The purple petunia and the lantana were voted the most popular flower and flowering shrub by city voters during the past week and were so officially designated by the committee of the Garden club Saturday.

The pink and the purple petunia ran a close race, one getting ahead one day, the other the next. The petunias might as well not have been in the race. It was evident from the city's votes that the City park influence of the vote greatly influenced the selection of the flowers was in reality an endorsement of Parker's work at the City park, because it stated that these flowers were just what Big Spring citizens wanted.

The lantana was unanimously selected over the red and white rose. In spite of the fact that the rose was named the foolproof rose, voters shied clear of it. The lantana got all the votes.

The popularity of these two made the members of the Garden club wonder why Big Spring had not before selected its flower. They were delighted with the response; it was much heavier than anticipated. "It was a shame," one of them said, "that Big Spring has not realized what flower-lovers wanted and has tabulated the popularity of these blossoms years ago."

All seed merchants are asked to display the purple petunia seed prominently for the next week of two. The florists have already stocked themselves with plants. The lantana must be ordered either from florists or through the Garden club. The public is asked to get in touch with the club.

It is the next aim of the Centennial committee and the Garden club to get everybody to plant both flowers in a sufficiently large masses so that their colorful beauty will make Big Spring the garden spot of the West.

Any member of the club or of the Centennial committee will answer questions concerning the culture of either of these two plants.

Garden City Bride Is Shower Honoree

Mrs. Vernon McWhorter was honored for a pretty bridal shower held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Cunningham in Garden City Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. McWhorter was the former Miss Merle Berry daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Berry of Garden City.

Also hostesses for the miscellaneous shower were Mrs. Ralph Heath and Miss Thelma Lee Cunningham.

A dust was rendered by Mrs. Maxine McCorquodale and Miss Maudie Roberts, after which Miss Evelyn Kruger gave a reading, "Leap Year."

The gifts were presented by Beverly Ann Harvey and Sixie Joe McGill who were dressed in Easter frocks of pink and green crepe paper. They brought in a big basket decorated in Easter colors and filled with what appeared to be large Easter eggs. The eggs proved to be the gifts, with etchings.

Refreshments were served to about fifty guests.

C.I.A. Visitor Is Honoree At Dance

Complimenting Miss Altus Phillips of C. I. A., who is spending the spring holidays in Big Spring, George Taylor was host for a progressive dinner Friday evening, the party ending at the Country club in a dance.

The guests went to the home of Paul Harper for the first course. The main course was served at R. L. Milloway's. Ice cream and cake was passed at the home of the host.

The dinner ended at David Williams' where punch was served.

Mrs. Toke Taylor accompanied the guests on their rounds.

Among those present were: Elus Phillips, Frances Still, Martha Ellen Case, Frances Jones, Neil Rae McCarty, Hattie Mae Pickle, Thelma Jean Moore, Charlene Williams, Dora Ann Hayward, De Alva McAlister, and Doris Cunningham.

Herbert and David Williams, Charles Ray Settle, John Coddron, John C. Compton, Myron and Don-

Collaborate On Western Novel

MRS. J. L. SULLIVAN

MRS. W. A. STALL

Two Big Spring Women Sell Novel On Which They Have Collaborated

Two Big Spring women have sold a novel on which they collaborated—Mrs. J. L. Sullivan and Mrs. W. A. Stall. The title is "The Big Drift" and the story is located in the west. It has been sold to the International syndicate. Names of the collaborators will appear as L. Labell and Pearl Stone Sullivan.

Both are well known article writers in Big Spring. Mrs. Stall has written many feature stories for Dallas News, Houston, Chronicle and other Texas newspapers in the days when they had strong feature sections. She uses her maiden name of L. Labell as her pen name for all her writings.

She is also well known as a poet and a composer of songs and has had one of her war-time songs set to music.

Mrs. Sullivan is the wife of a well known lawyer and the sister of Charlie Sullivan who is running for county judge. For the past five years she has devoted her time to the writing of fiction and has been Big Spring's most successful writer in that field. She has sold short stories and novelettes to "All Story," "Love Story" and "Sweetheart." She has a story included in the short-story anthology, "Short Shorts of 1933."

Concerning the novel, "The Big Drift," its purchaser wrote that it was one of the best he had ever read about the west and was, in his opinion, more true to western life than Zane Grey's novels. The authors have little information to give out beyond the book's acceptance; it is too early to know when it will appear in print.

This is the second novel on which Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Stall have collaborated. Their other one is still in the hands of their agent and may yet be published.

Local Duplicate Bridge Players Go To Abilene

Mrs. Ashley Williams and five other crack duplicate bridge players went to Abilene Saturday for a social game with six hand-picked Abilene players. The purpose of the visit was twofold: first, to discuss plans for the coming West Texas bridge convention; second, to give Abilene a taste of Big Spring bridge playing.

In the party were: Misses Fern Wells and Elouise Haley, Mrs. Bob Parks; Messrs. Robert Wagener and Jimmy Beale.

The West Texas bridge convention will meet in Big Spring May 16-17. The entire mezzanine floor of the Settles hotel will be turned over to the convention players who will require the space if as many come to Big Spring as went to Abilene last year.

Abilene's host to the Saturday party was Ralph St. John who directed the 1935 convention and will give the local players the benefit of his experience.

Informal Members Go To Mrs. Wilke's For Afternoon At Cards

Employing spring decorations Mrs. George Wilke was hostess Friday afternoon for members and two guests of the Informal bridge club.

Mrs. V. Van Gieson scored highest for club members and Mrs. A. E. Service for visitors. Mrs. Albert M. Fisher was also a guest.

Members attending were: Misses J. D. Biles, C. W. Cunningham, R. Homer McNew, J. B. Young, Van Gieson and W. W. Inkman.

Mrs. Young will be the next hostess.

Junia Johnson Makes Honor Roll At A. C. C.

Junia Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Homer Johnson, 206 N. Johnson street, made the honor roll at Abilene Christian college during the past six weeks.

Junia is enrolled there as a freshman. She was graduated from the local high school in 1935.

Mrs. Lillian Kent and small niece, Lillian Nell Tamsett, are expected home Monday after a week's visit in El Paso with Mrs. Kent's aunt, Mrs. Grace Cardwell and her cousin, Mrs. Bob Mathews.

Members attending were: Misses Maudie Gibson, Paul Harper, E. L. Milloway.

Program Of 6th District Announced

Federated Clubs To Send Delegates To Abilene

Members of the federated clubs in Big Spring are now receiving official calls to the 21st annual convention of the sixth district of Texas Federation of Women's clubs at Abilene—the last they will ever receive from the sixth district. Hereafter all local clubs will be in the eighth district.

The theme of the district entertainment will be "Centennial Trails." The convention sessions will be held at the Baptist church with Mrs. E. E. Traweek, general chairman, and Mrs. Sam Kennedy as her assistant.

On the evening April 6 there will be a courtesy board dinner at the Wooten hotel and at 9 o'clock a reception for visitors at the Hilton hotel.

On the 7th—Tuesday—the sessions will open in earnest with reports of officers. Noon entertainment for that day consists of a luncheon for acting and incoming club presidents and junior sponsors. A courtesy drive to Abilene colleges and women's club will be given visitors in the afternoon. A centennial dinner at the Hilton followed by a complimentary theatre party will conclude that day.

Election of officers for the sixth district and the eighth district, to be created at this convocation, will occupy Wednesday morning's session. A luncheon honoring the newly elected officers will be followed by the awarding of club prizes and a supper at Lytle lake. A pageant titled "Centennial Trails," will end the day and the convention.

Big Spring has three federated clubs. Only the 1930 Hyperion has announced the name of its delegate—Mrs. G. A. Woodward, newly elected president. The others will announce their delegates later.

Personally Speaking

Nancy Blanche Lochridge had had a visitor a C. I. A. classmate, Mary Gene Evelyn of San Angelo. Mary Gene stopped over for a short visit before going home for the spring holidays.

Miss Mildred Louise Rhoton is spending the week-end in Big Spring with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Rhoton. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Glover of Dallas.

The Rev. Ben Johnson of Lubbock has been called as pastor of the Fundamental Baptist church and will speak there this afternoon at 3 and this evening at 7:45.

Dan and Louis Padgett Mayfield have as a week-end guest, Bill Smylie of Foran.

Bishop Seaman returned to his home in Amarillo Thursday after spending several days with the Rev. P. Walter Henckel and visiting local Episcopalians.

Miss Helen Lyles who conducted a teachers' training class for the Episcopalians returned to her home in Lubbock Saturday morning.

Miss Edna Phillips has gone to Dallas for a few days.

Mrs. Fletcher Etheridge and two children are visiting her mother, Mrs. F. F. Gary Mrs. Etheridge spent the winter in Palm Springs, California.

Mrs. N. W. McCleskey is spending the week-end in Lubbock with her daughter, Caroline, who is at Texas Tech.

Mrs. C. K. Rivington, Mrs. P. W. Malone and M. V. Van Gieson spent Saturday in Abilene at the district meeting of the Midwest Texas Medical auxiliary.

Miss Clara Secret has the influenza.

Frances Taylor is visiting in Dallas.

Andy Pruitt, Colorado resident highway engineer, was here on business Saturday. Pruitt was stationed here last year by the highway department.

J. J. Hair, Anderson, is visiting for a few days with his son, Fontaine Hair and family.

J. L. Hudson returned here Saturday from Fort Worth where he went on business.

M. E. Ooley, accompanied by Marvin House, Jr., was in Post Saturday on business.

Members attending were: Misses Maudie Gibson, Paul Harper, E. L. Milloway.

Local Honor-Capturers At Rebekah State Convention

IN THE PICTURES

These three put Big Spring on the map at the state meeting of the Rebekahs held at San Angelo recently. They all brought back honor and prizes. Little Miss Jean Kuykendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Kuykendall, won a prize for giving the best performed number. She is here pictured in the cowboy costume she wore for this number. In the center is Mrs. Powell Martin who was named to the state credential committee. On the left is Mrs. C. D. Herzig in a frontier costume that was judged one of the six most attractive costumes of all those worn to the state luncheon. (All photos by Bradshaw.)

5th Monday Meet To Be Tomorrow

Women To Revive Custom Of Holding Union Sessions

Several years ago the fifth Mondays of the year which occur about every three months were devoted to a union meeting of the women's auxiliaries of Big Spring. The meetings were held in various churches and all of the missionary societies took part.

After discussion on the part of church auxiliary heads this winter, it was decided to revive the custom of holding fifth Monday meetings.

The women's auxiliary of St. Mary's Episcopal church agreed to act as hostesses for the first session which will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parish house.

The meeting will be divided into two parts. The program will be given over to an interpretation of "Ben Hur" by Lew Wallace rendered by the Rev. E. G. Richardson in his inimitable fashion.

The business session will be devoted to matters of reorganization and the election of officers.

All church women are urged to attend.

Senior Play Cast Chosen

Ten Selected For Parts In Annual Production At School

Ten seniors were selected from a group of 35 to play the roles in the annual senior play entitled "Lady Spitzire." According to Miss Dorothy Jordan who will direct the play, the cast has an unusual opportunity to use their dramatic ability since drama, humor and much by-play of conversation is in evidence.

Cast for the three-act comedy includes: Prudence, Mary Louise Inkman; Cindy, Judith Pickle; Ginger, Eloise Kuykendall; Fibbell, Jewel Caudle; Kay Sutton, Mary Alice McNew; Tom Brown, Jimmie Ford; Jed, the constable, Tommy Reeves; Henri, Horace Penn. The roles of Bud, the janitor, and Stephen, the father, were not decided upon, and tryouts for the parts will be held again Monday.

"Lady Spitzire" has to do with an exclusive girls' school that is on the verge of bankruptcy. The only thing that will save the school is the appearance of an extraordinarily wealthy girl, Kay Sutton. A girl whom no one knows appears and in the mad rush of events she takes the place of Kay. Later as the tangles unravel, it is revealed that she is, in reality, the girl whom she imitated.

Members of the faculty serving as critics for the play were Miss Pearl Butler, J. E. Millard and Seth Parsons.

New List Of 'Best-Dressed' Women Is Selected By Fashion Designers

NEW YORK, Mar. 28. (UP)—Fashion designers picked a new list of "best dressed" women today. The list, prepared by a poll conducted by Emil Alvin Hartman, director of the Rockefeller Center Fashion academy, names as leaders in their respective fields:

Kay Francis—the movies—society. Princess Ketto Mikalade—society.

Mrs. Helen Wills Moody—sports. Jane Pickens—the radio. Sheila Barrett—night clubs.

Mrs. James J. Farley—public life. Helen Gleason—the opera. Iika Chase—the stage.

Previous winners of the fashion academy awards among whom were Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gladys Swarthout, Ina Claire, Mrs. Harrison Williams, Betty Morris, Mary I. Brown, were not eligible for the selection this year.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

TUESDAY

Idle Art bridge club—Mrs. Kelly Burns, hostess.

Cactus bridge club—Mrs. Herbert Whitney, hostess.

Happy Go Lucky bridge club—Mrs. J. E. Brigham, hostess.

Petroleum bridge club—Mrs. Roy Combs, hostess.

WEDNESDAY

Eight O'clock bridge club—Mr. George Crosthwait, hostess.

Double Four bridge club—Mrs. Frank Rutherford, hostess.

Bluebonnet bridge club—Mrs. E. D. Merrill, hostess.

Ideal bridge club—Mrs. Hardin Wood, hostess.

Justamere bridge club—Mrs. Tom Helton, hostess.

Firemen Ladies—W. O. W. hall.

Night Triangle bridge club—Mrs. Monroe Johnson, hostess.

THURSDAY

New Idea sewing club—Mrs. G. B. Cunningham, hostess.

South Ward P. T. A.—meeting at the school building.

FRIDAY

Shuffle and Cut bridge club—Mrs. Shellie Barnes, hostess.

Priscilla club—Mrs. Bill Earley, hostess.

Lucky 13 bridge club—Mrs. Shirley Robbins, hostess.

Friday bridge club—Mrs. Leo Hanson, hostess.

Epsilon Sigma Alpha literary sorority—Mrs. T. J. Coffee, hostess.

L. A. to B. of R. T.—W. O. W. hall.

SATURDAY

PASADENA, Cal. (UP)—A couple of black Arizona bears en route by truck to appear in the movies at Hollywood couldn't stand the prospects. They escaped and are now believed to be starting life anew in the San Jacinto mountains.

In announcing he said he believed he was thoroughly qualified and competent to fulfill the duties of the office in an efficient manner. Newton will make an effort to see every voter before the primary, he asserted, but asked those whom he might fail to see to bear in mind he desires and will appreciate their votes and influence.

5 MILLION WILL BE SPENT IN FT. WORTH FRONTIER FIESTA

FT. WORTH, Mar. 28.—With Billy Rose, creator of "Jumbo," New York Hippodrome show world sensation, as director general, this city, "where the west begins," will spend about $5,000,000 for the entertainment of centennial year visitors to Texas.

The "Fort Worth Frontier centennial" will be the name of the amusement attraction which Rose is creating for Fort Worth's part in the state-wide observance of Texas' one hundredth anniversary. It will open July 1.

"Not a pale carbon copy of the Chicago World's fair, but a living, breathing, highly exciting version of the last frontier" is the way Rose describes the Fort Worth Frontier centennial.

"Stars of the stage, screen and radio with hundreds of beautiful girls gathered from over the state and nation will mingle with the big name orchestras and with the outstanding rodeo and circus performers of the world in this original amusement attraction that utilizes the frontier theme in what is now

Joe Pickle To Review Noted Texan's Book

1930 Hyperion Club To Sponsor Review In April

Plans were made for the next book review to be sponsored by the 1930 Hyperion club at the luncheon held at the home of Mrs. E. V. Spence Saturday.

The review will be given by Joe Pickle of the Big Spring Herald staff and will take place at the Settles hotel April 23. Pickle will review "Mrs. Astor's Horse," by Stanley Walker, well known Texas and ex-newspaperman who is one of the day's most popular authors.

The book is a humorous collection of curious and sometimes shocking American features. Pickle promises to make it snappy and short.

The foursome tables were centered with bouquets of nasturtiums in the colors of yellow, green and white.

After the luncheon Mrs. Ralph Houston reviewed for the members Santayana's "The Last Puritan."

Present were: Meses. Horace Reagan, J. C. Loper, Ira Thurman and her mother, Mrs. Will Menger of San Antonio; Ralph Houston, W. C. Blankenship, R. V. Middleton, Gordon Lewis of Corpus Christi, Phillip A. Berry.

The hostesses for the occasion were: Mrs. Spence, Mrs. Hubert C. Slipp, Mrs. Pete Sellers, and Miss Marie Johnson.

NEW RECORD SEEN

Liner Queen Mary Due To Set A New Mark

SOUTHAMPTON, England, Mar. 28. (UP)—Experts agreed today that the Queen Mary, Great Britain's giant transatlantic liner, would break the Atlantic speed record easily on her maiden voyage to New York May 27.

The great ship anchored in Cowes road after an unburied cruise down the coast from Scotland on her way to drydock here where hull will be cleaned for her speed trials early in May.

Sir Edgar Britten, her commander, and commodore of the Cunard White Star line, said: "I never served in a vessel easier to control."

Experts aboard said there was an entire absence of vibration.

POULTRY AND EGG SHIPMENTS GAIN

AUSTIN, Mar. 28.—A substantial increase occurred during February in shipments of poultry and eggs from Texas to interstate points, according to the University of Texas bureau of business research. Forwardings of poultry and eggs combined totaled 137 cars, against 119 cars last year, an increase of 43 per cent.

It is noteworthy that poultry shipments totaled only 37 cars, against 79 cars during February last year, while egg shipments totaled 129 cars to seventeen states, against only 31 cars to seven states a year ago, the bureau's report pointed out.

ALLRED IS 37 TODAY

Governor Planning No Birthday Celebration

AUSTIN, Mar. 28. (UP)—The birthday of the nation's youngest governor, James V. Allred of Texas, will go without observance tomorrow. Recent death of the governor's sister in an automobile accident has resulted in cancelling all birthday celebration plans. Allred will be 37 tomorrow. He was elected when he was 35, taking office shortly before he became 36. Gov. Philip La Follette of Wisconsin is next governor in youth. He is 38.

being described by the critics as the show of tomorrow." Rose said.

Admiration

COSTUME HOSIERY

5 MILLION WILL BE SPENT IN FT. WORTH FRONTIER FIESTA

FT. WORTH, Mar. 28.—With Billy Rose, creator of "Jumbo," New York Hippodrome show world sensation, as director general, this city, "where the west begins," will spend about $5,000,000 for the entertainment of centennial year visitors to Texas.

The "Fort Worth Frontier centennial" will be the name of the amusement attraction which Rose is creating for Fort Worth's part in the state-wide observance of Texas' one hundredth anniversary. It will open July 1.

"Not a pale carbon copy of the Chicago World's fair, but a living, breathing, highly exciting version of the last frontier" is the way Rose describes the Fort Worth Frontier centennial.

"Stars of the stage, screen and radio with hundreds of beautiful girls gathered from over the state and nation will mingle with the big name orchestras and with the outstanding rodeo and circus performers of the world in this original amusement attraction that utilizes the frontier theme in what is now

They have no equal for fit, sheer good looks and service.

69c to 1.15

KIMBERLIN'S Brownbilt Shoe Store

Year Doctor Says You Need "Haliver Oil Capsules" To Build Up Resistance

PRICES ARE BETTER AT

CUNIFF AND PHILLIPS

Big Spring Daily Herald

Published Sunday morning and each weekday afternoon except Saturday, by BIG SPRING HERALD, INC.
 JOE W. GALBRAITH, Publisher
 ROBERT W. WHITNEY, Managing Editor
 MARVIN K. HOUBE, Business Manager

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS
 Subscribers desiring their addresses changed will please state in their communication both the old and new addresses.
 Office 210 East Third St.
 Telephone 728 and 729

Subscription Rates
 Daily Herald
 One Year $5.00
 Six Months $2.75
 Three Months $1.50
 One Month $.50

National Representatives
 Texas Daily Press League, Mercantile Bank Bldg., Dallas, Texas.
 Lathrop Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., 180 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, 270 Lexington Ave., New York.

This paper's first duty is to print all the news that is fit to print honestly and fairly to all, unbiased by any consideration, even including its own editorial opinion.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in any issue of this paper will be cheerfully corrected upon being brought to the attention of the management.

The publishers are not responsible for copy corrections typographical errors that may occur further than to correct the next issue after it is brought to their attention and in no case do the publishers hold themselves liable for damages further than the amount received by them for actual space covering the error. The right is reserved to reject or edit all advertising copy. All advertising orders are accepted on this basis only.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All right for republication of special dispatches are also reserved.

WHAT AN OHIOAN THINKS

Ray C. Crosby is an Ohioan and lives a long way from Big Spring, but he is interested in our city. Interested to the extent that he sat down and wrote The Herald a letter reciting his impressions as a passer-by of Big Spring.

Mr. Crosby gives us something to think about. He lauded the city for some of its attractions, but pointed a shaming finger at the unsightly highway entrances to the city.

Mr. Crosby's comments are well taken, and this is the time of all times for Big Spring residents to do something about beautifying the highways on the outlying sections of town.

Some good work has been started in this direction, but one group cannot do the job. It will take the combined effort of property owners, city, county and possibly highway department facilities to put the highway entrances in the shape they should be.

This is the time of all times because, with the Centennial year at hand, the state highway department is extending its program more than ever before to dress up Texas' roads for the benefit of millions of visitors expected in the state this year. Although nothing definite is held out, it seems reasonable that some assistance could be secured from the state if local interests inaugurated an intensive highway beautification move.

Curbs, sidewalks and paving extensions would help tremendously. Building of fences and planting of shrubbery and running vines would further erase the unsightliness.

A visitor's impression of a city is gained by what he sees when he passes through. And there will be vast numbers of passers-by and sojourners in Big Spring, intersection of two major highways, during this Centennial year.

It wouldn't help our standing with these folk if they all react as did Mr. Crosby, but with appearance of the highway entrances as it is, there will be a lot of people who think like Mr. Crosby does.

We can't afford that. Let's beautify the highways.

★ Man About Manhattan ★

By George Tucker

NEW YORK—An orchestra impresario tells of the effect of wholesome nudity, as exhibited by the shows, on the imagination of a vacuum-minded lass.

Ray Sinatra is the name. Chancing to encounter the dumb but dainty belle, whom he knew but hadn't seen for months, Sinatra inquired:

"And what are you doing now, honey?"
 "Singing in a nightclub."
 "With a band?"
 "Oh, no," she giggled, blushing like a sunset. "I wear much more than that."

Ray also tells of the long-standing feud between two chorines in a Broadway cabaret. One, apparently, had been poaching on the affections of the other's boy-friend. Although they shared the same dressing room, the offended one, a platinum haired circle, wrote her rival a stinging rebuke, calling her 20 different kinds of Judas and admonishing her to turn her blandishments elsewhere.

Finally, as a postscript, she added this classic shred of whimsy: "Please excuse pencil."

Despite its reputation for double dealing, Broadway occasionally offers an unlooked-for note of sincerity. An artist, late as usual, rushed into the Astor hotel looking for a notary public. It was the zero hour for filing personal income tax returns, and he was anxious to get his safely in the mail.

"This will be 25 cents," the girl told him, returning the properly signed form.

Ransacking his pockets, he was just able to scrape the desired amount together.

"Is that all the money you have?" the girl inquired.
 "I'm afraid so," the artist responded. He meant he had no more change.

"Then it will be just 20 cents for you. You keep the nickel for the subway."

Still another of the old Ziegfeld names that bob up in reminiscent moments is that of Dolores, a startling beauty and one of the first of the really famous show girls to adopt the single name.

Dolores was so beautiful and possessed such pantherish coordination that even such an untoward accident as a head-long fall, which she probably never had, would have seemed the perfection of grace. To see her walk across the stage—nothing more—was to behold one of the true wonders of a truly wonderful period.

One critic, fascinated by her grace and loveliness, wrote: "To see Dolores stroll across the stage is to realize how awkward and ungainly your own wife is."

Miss Reed was another whose divine chassis and lovely features sent the reviewers into raptures. One madly enchanted fellow described her teeth as "perfect as grains of rice." Thereafter as long as she remained on the stage she was famous for her teeth.

Then there was Rubye de Remer who left the stage to follow the tradition of so many other glorified girls. She married a millionaire.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—Privately the chiefs of the Townsend plan are furious with Father Coughlin. They accuse the radio priest of plagiarizing their methods for his Union for Social Justice.

The Townsdenites ruefully admit that Coughlin's knowledge of their secrets is their own fault—or rather, that of Dr. Francis E. Townsend. It happened this way:

Following the Townsdenites' national convention in Chicago last fall, the elderly founder of the movement thought it would be a good idea if he did some personal proselyting among outstanding political leaders. R. E. Clements, "co-founder," together with other Townsend officers, didn't think much of the plan.

Particularly, they were opposed to Townsend's visiting Coughlin, strictly enjoined him not to do so. The gentle old doctor, however, serenely disregarded their advice. One day saying no word to his associates, he jumped into a plane and flew to Detroit.

Coughlin welcomed him most cordially. When Townsend explained that he wanted to discuss his old-age pension program, Coughlin graciously asked permission to invite his assistants in to hear the exposition.

Dr. Townsend was delighted, for if there is anything he loves, it is to talk to a crowd. Coughlin called in his staff—and a stenographer.

Townsend talked at great length and, according to his associates, most interestingly. In detail he disclosed how the Townsend organization was built up and how it functions. With skillful questioning, it is charged, Coughlin pumped his garrulous visitor of all the Townsend organization's plans.

These plans, the Townsdenites assert, Coughlin has turned to his own use, introducing them into his own organization.

Reasonably Sure
 The senate lobby investigating committee was interrogating J. G. Arnold, head of the American Taxpayers league, regarding a $1,000 contribution he had obtained from Andrew W. Mellon.

"Who introduced you to Mr. Mellon?" asked Senator Hugo Black.
 "Oh, I met him. He was once secretary of the treasury, I believe."
 "Aren't you sure?"
 "Well, reasonably sure."
 Mr. Mellon served continuously as secretary of the treasury longer than any other in history.

Pure Rye
 The first of the government's records are now being received at the new $12,000,000 archives building. They are the vast files of the extinct NRA, packed in cartons of boxes coming from all parts of the country.

A batch of ten cases arrived from the former Texas NRA headquarters. In examining them Archivist R. D. W. Connor noticed that one of them had been broken into and apparently rifled.

Connor was much mystified by the burglary until the cases were opened. Printed on it in large letters were these words: Pure Rye Whiskey.

"I would have given $10," Connor laughed, "to have seen the thief's face after he broke open the case and discovered it contained only papers."
 Dr. Einstein

Dr. Albert Einstein, world-renowned physicist, has just received one of the new deal's most widely ballyhooed resettlement projects from a tangle of red tape.

The background of the rescue is a tragic story of administrative ineptitude.

Early in 1934 a group of prominent New Yorkers, including Einstein, submitted to the subsistence homestead division of the public works administration a plan for the establishment of a model co-operative community for several hundred stum-dwelling garment workers.

The workers were to raise a fund of $100,000 to build a garment factory, while the government would erect homes for them. These, the workers would pay for during a period of years. A farm was also included in the plan.

After extended investigation the PWA approved the project and work began. A site was purchased at Hightstown, N. Y., settlers signed up and plans were drawn for the factory and homes. In March 1935, PWA issued a seven-page release announcing it was ready to let construction contracts "for the most significant project yet undertaken" by the homestead division.

The PWA was over-optimistic. The ink was hardly dry on its statement when the homestead division was transferred bodily to Rex Tugwell's new resettlement administration. There the master minds promptly proceeded to scrap all the PWA's carefully worked out plans.

Instead, the RA brain-trusters decided to use the project in order to experiment with the construction of pre-fabricated cement houses. A fund of $250,000 was allocated for this purpose and a giant concrete mixer erected.

But, even though the inventor of the process was employed to direct operations, the experiment proved a flop. The whole project then came to a standstill.

New Complication
 The garment workers, who had been dazedly watching developments, now began to protest. They threw in a new complication.

Garment unionists led by David Dubinsky, militant head of the International Ladies' Garment Workers, filed a sharp protest against the whole scheme. He voiced the fear that the project would be harmful to union interests. Ironically this problem resulted in still further delay.

Negotiations were originally in the hands of Max Blitzer, an able young New Yorker, in charge of the project from the start. But for some mysterious reason Blitzer and several of his assistants were dismissed during the parleys with

DAILY CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS

- Refer continually to one subject
- Light coating
- Total
- State with conviction
- American Indian
- Owing to
- Cutting with a toothed tool
- Cowardly
- Fame
- Significance of number or quantity
- Heat
- Entirely
- Ourselves
- Age
- United
- Rear end of a boat
- At home
- Profitable
- Pronoun
- Art of grace or good will
- Alter
- Deference
- Altruistic
- Whitened use
- Concealed
- Haul

DOWN

- Possesses
- Topaz bumble-bird
- Recompense
- That of which one is proud
- Dense mist
- Player at children's games
- Not general
- Faded mountain at the center
- Competition for two
- Kind of Japanese drama
- Keen habitant
- Gratified
- Bus of the arm
- Some
- Rowing implement
- Crafty
- Ostrich
- Not far
- Studied intensely
- Porrid
- Build
- Agricultural machine
- Keen from progress
- The earth and its inhabitants
- Platform
- Look after
- Thus
- Marry
- Green liquid
- Canine animal
- New England state's abbr.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12				13					14
15		16				17		18
		19				20
21	22			23				24
25				26			27		28	29
30			31						33
34	35					36				37
		38						40
41	42			43				44
45							46		47	48
49				50		51			52
53				54					55

West Holding GOP's Hopes For Support

Most of Nominee Prospects Hail From Territory of Chief Concern

By BYRON PRICE
 (Chief of Bureau, Washington)
 Fundamentally, the issue now agitating republican strategists has reduced themselves to two questions: What candidate would be stropped in the west and mid-west, and how far should the party go in condemning the policies of the Roosevelt administration?

So far as the nominee is concerned, few of the dominant G.O.P. leaders consider the east at all. Publicly, they dismiss the subject, by saying the east is safe anyway; privately they take the view that if the party names someone who can't carry the east there is no hope. It is the territory further west for which they want to gamble.

To a certain degree this feeling overlaps into the dispute over party policy. One school of thought wants to make concessions to the west on both nominee and platform, going far enough toward "liberalism" to woo back the western elements who seceded from Mr. Hoover. The other group thinks no such concessions is necessary.

Westerners in Limelight
 The definite character of the western swing of republican thought about the nomination is proved by a mere glance at the list of those prominently mentioned.

Mr. Landon is from Kansas, Mr. Knox from Illinois, Mr. Borah from Idaho, Mr. Vandenberg from Michigan, Mr. Dickinson from Iowa, Mr. Hoover from California.

Such outstanding eastern figures as Ogden Mills, James W. Wadsworth, and David A. Reed, all of them mentioned widely for the nomination but a few months ago, now are bystanders. Indeed, there is no sign that any state in the entire eastern section will put forward any of its favorite sons as a candidate.

The theory of some of the eastern leaders at least, is that since the west will be the battleground, it would be better to wait and see which of these western aspirants develops the greatest strength in his own section, and then endorse him. The argument is being used vigorously to secure the selection of untried delegations from the east.

There may be an exception. If Senator Borah should turn out, on the basis of primary tests, to be the best western vote-getter, the easterners say they might prefer to take someone else anyway. But in the main, that is the set-up.

Divided On Platform
 When it comes to the question of platform policy, the division is not so definitely a geographical one.

There are mid-westerners who believe, as many of the easterners do, that the party should go completely anti-new deal; should reject the Roosevelt policies, lock and barrel, and let the western insurgents go bang. One who recently has spoken out against compromise is former National Chairman Fess, of Ohio.

Yet it is interesting to note that of all the aspirants who have visible delegate strength, the two who recently have been most in the public eye are the two who have been the least sweeping in their condemnation of the Roosevelt

Four Bodies Taken From Wreckage Of Plane In Arizona

PHOENIX, Ariz., Mar. 28 (AP)—A weary band of officials and friends of the victims brought the bodies of four Phoenix business men here today after taking them from the rugged Galluro mountains, 26 miles east of Oracle, where their little cabin plane splintered itself against a canyon wall.

The dead are Paul Opdel, 30, president of Copperclad Airways; and pilot of the plane; Harold A. Marks, 31, attorney; John Powles, 35, secretary of the Phoenix junior chamber of commerce, and Paul Swasey, 34, drug store manager.

A cowboy riding the range found the wrecked plane strewn for a hundred yards along the side of a box canyon yesterday on the second day of a widespread search for the missing plane, which took off from Douglas for Phoenix late Wednesday night.

Its pilot lost in a snowstorm, the Phoenix-bound plane scraped its wing on a jutting pinnacle of rock while flying down the narrow canyon. The nose plowed into the side of the gulch and the ship splintered to the bottom, breaking up as it plunged.

GAS PRICES HIKED

Majors Post Advances On All Grades At Dallas

DALLAS, Mar. 28. (UP)—Three major oil companies advanced the price of gasoline on all three grades here today. The Texas, Sinclair and Magnolia companies posted a schedule of 20 cents for treated gasoline, 15 for standard grade and 15 for third grade.

Other companies were still retailing for 15, 17 and 13 cents a gallon but were expected to meet the advances immediately.

program as a whole—Mr. Borah and Mr. Landon.

Similarly among the "dark horses"—those possibilities conducting no organized campaign for delegates—the most-mentioned is again the one who has supported some of the Roosevelt projects—Mr. Vandenberg.

Of course the question of a whole hog or middle-of-the-road policy can only be discussed speculatively at this stage. It may be expected to assume larger and larger proportions as convention time approaches, crisis-crossing the lines of the nomination battle and possibly even deciding in the end who the nominee is to be.

HERALD WANT-ADS PAY

One insertion: 8c line, 5 line minimum. Each successive insertion: 4c line. Weekly rate: $1 for 5 line minimum; 3c per line per issue, over 5 lines. Monthly rate: $1 per line, no change in copy. Readers: 10c per line, per issue. Card of thanks, 5c per line. Ten point light face type as double rate. Capital letter lines double regular rate.

CLOSING HOURS
 Week Days 11 A.M.
 Saturday 4 P.M.

No advertisement accepted on an "until forbid" order. A specific number of insertions must be given. All want-ads payable in advance or after first insertion.

Telephone 728 or 729

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1 Lost and Found
 STRAYED—Dark brindle police dog; answers to "RIN"; about 2 1/2 years old. Call 1186.

4 Professions
 MRS. Carrie M. Bussey, practical nurse, 1101 E. 13th St. Phone 1047.

6 Public Notices
 ALL grvanized sheet iron tanks up to 50 barrels, made to specifications at cost price for next 30 days. McGinnis Tin Shop, 406 W. 4th. Phone 827.

9 Woman's Column
 HEMSTITCHING
 Machine-made button holes. Singer Sewing Machine Agency, 115 Rusk. Phone 902.

EMPLOYMENT
12 Help Wanted—Female
 WANTED—A middle-aged white woman to take care of baby and stay on the place. Call 583-J.

FOR SALE
26 Miscellaneous
 CAR, good as new, air compressor for sale. Call at New Deal station, 2nd and Johnson Sts.

WANTED TO BUY
31 Miscellaneous
 WILL buy your baby calves. Inquire at 411 Johnson St.

FOR RENT
32 Apartments
 FURNISHED three-room apartment; built-in fixtures; city conveniences; 302 Willow & 2nd St., Settles Heights addition.

FOR RENT
33 LL Housekeeping
 LIGHT housekeeping rooms; clean and modern; or nice sleeping rooms for men. 901 Lancaster St.

FOR RENT
34 Bedrooms
 QUIET, comfortable bedroom for one person; private entrance; close in. 408 Lancaster.

FOR RENT
35 Rooms & Board
 NICE, clean rooms, good home cooking. Mrs. Peters, 800 Main.

FOR RENT
36 Houses
 UNFURNISHED four-room house; modern; all conveniences; opposite high school. Phone 104.

FOR RENT
40 Houses
 THREE- or four-room unfurnished house by April 1st. Write Box 1172, Big Spring.

FOR RENT
48 Farms & Ranches
 FOR sale or trade—might rent, 325-acre farm; possession now; $22.50. Phone 1134.

FOR RENT
49 Business Property
 BARGAIN for quick sale; three business buildings on 56 by 140 corner lot on highway with established business; good investment. Phone 9536 or write box 1442.

FOR RENT
40 Houses
 THREE- or four-room unfurnished house by April 1st. Write Box 1172, Big Spring.

FOR RENT
48 Farms & Ranches
 FOR sale or trade—might rent, 325-acre farm; possession now; $22.50. Phone 1134.

FOR RENT
49 Business Property
 BARGAIN for quick sale; three business buildings on 56 by 140 corner lot on highway with established business; good investment. Phone 9536 or write box 1442.

FIRST TICKETS FOR CENTENNIAL SOLD

DALLAS, Mar. 28. (UP)—The first 500 advance tickets to the Texas Centennial exposition, which opens here June 6, will go to residents of Mexico, Harry P. Harrison, director of admissions, announced.

A check for $225, in payment for the tickets, was received at Centennial headquarters from J. K. Hughes, Mexico official.

CLASS DISPLAY

5 MINUTE SERVICE
 CASH ON AUTOS
 MORE MONEY ADVANCED
 OLD LOANS REFINANCED
 TAYLOR EMERSON
 1115 Theatre Building

AUTOMOBILE LOANS
 Notes Re-Financed—Cash Advanced—Payments Made Smaller.
PERSONAL LOANS to Salaried Men and Women
Collins & Garrett
 FINANCE CO.
 Big Spring, Texas
 120 East 2nd Phone 902

THE BOOMERANG CLUE

Chapter 42
EVANS!

"I went down to Gladys," the cook continued, "all of a tremble and said I'd never seen a gentleman look so like death, and Gladys said he'd looked all right the night before, and that it must have been something in London that upset him."

"He'd gone up to London very early before anyone was up, and then I said about not liking to write my name to anything, and Gladys said it was all right because Mr. Elford was there."

Bobby.

"And Mr. Savage—the gentleman—died when?"

"Next morning as ever was, ma'am. He shut himself up in his room that night and wouldn't let anyone go near him, and when Gladys called him in the morning he was all stiff and dead, and a letter the Coroner," it said. Oh, it gave Gladys a regular turn! And two months later Mrs. Templeton told me she was going abroad to live. But she got me a very good place up north with big wages, and she gave me a nice present and everything. A very nice lady, Mrs. Templeton."

Frankie rose.

Luster's Selective Beauty Service For the Individual For Skin Analysis Call MRS. HOWARD THOMAS Room 305 - Hotel Settles

P-R-I-N-T-I-N-G T. E. JORDAN & CO. 118 W. First St. Just Phone 456

Quality Shoe Repairing at Reasonable Prices MODERN SHOE SHOP North Opposite Courthouse

CRAWFORD CLEANERS Phone 238 Refining a Specialty Frank Rutherford Crawford Hotel

knowing that will—because Evans would have known that it wasn't Mr. Savage who was making it."

"Good Lord, Frankie, what do you mean? Who was it then?"

"Bassington-French, of course! Don't you see, he impersonated Savage? I bet it was Bassington-French who went to that doctor and made all that fuss about having cancer. Then the lawyer is sent for—a stranger who doesn't know Mr. Savage but who will be able to swear that he saw 'Mr. Savage' sign that will, and it's witnessed by two people, one of whom hadn't seen him before and the other an old man who was probably pretty blind and who probably had never seen Savage either. Now do you see?"

"But where was the real Savage all that time?"

"Oh, he arrived all right, and then, I suspect they drugged him and put him in the attic, perhaps, and kept him there for twelve hours while Bassington-French did his impersonation stunt. Then he was put back in his bed and given chloral, and Evans finds him dead in the morning."

"My God, I believe you've hit it, Frankie!" said Bobby. "But one thing we must do. Find Evans."

Frankie groaned. "That's going to make it even more difficult."

"How about the post office?" suggested Bobby.

"They were just passing it. Frankie darted inside and bought a book of stamps, commented on the weather and then said:

"But I expect you always have better weather here than we do. I live in Wales—Marchbolt. You wouldn't believe the rain we have!"

The young woman behind the counter said that last Bank Holiday it had rained something cruel."

Frankie said, "There's someone in Marchbolt who comes from this part of the world. I wonder if you know her. Her name was Evans—Gladys Evans."

The young woman was quite un-suspicious.

"Why, of course," she said. "She was in service here. At Tudor Cottage. But she didn't come from these parts. She came from Wales, and she went back there and married—Roberts her name is now."

"That's right," said Frankie. "You can't give me her address, I suppose?"

"Well, now," the other replied, "I believe I can. Wait a minute now."

"No, I don't think so—or at least only one thing. Why did Mrs. Templeton send out for the gardener to come and witness the will, when the house-parlormaid was in the house?"

"Why didn't they ask the parlormaid?"

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

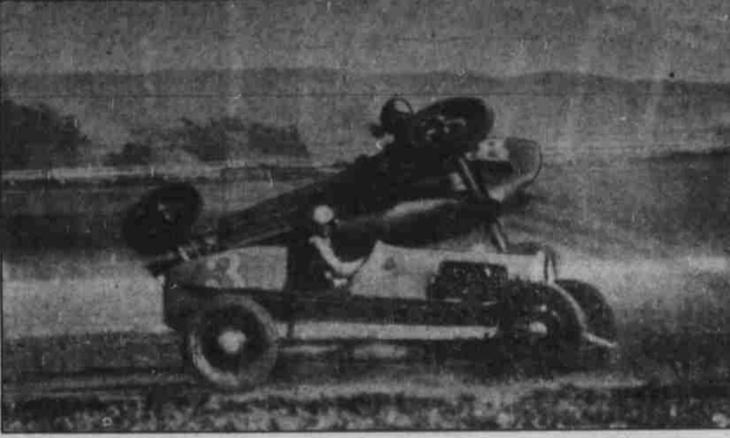

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

DARING RACE DRIVERS ESCAPE DEATH MIRACULOUSLY

Both drivers of these two racing cars escaped serious injury while racing on an Oakland, Calif., track. Mario Vancho's racer (in the air) was forced off the track by the skidding machine piloted by Gene Figone. The latter's machine had spun around and is shown headed the wrong way on the track. A fraction of a second after this picture was made, Vancho escaped with minor injuries. Figone was uninjured. (Associated Press Photo)

Bridge Record Claimed
BERKELEY, Calif., (UP)—John Druquer claims the distinction of having participated in the first bridge game ever played in England. The game was played in London 82 years ago when Druquer was 12 years old. His brother-in-law, he states, introduced the game from Holland where it was known as "Dutch Whist."

She went away and rummaged in a corner. Presently she returned with a piece of paper in her hand.

"Here you are," she said, pushing it across the counter.

Bobby and Frankie read it together.

Mrs. Roberts, The Vicarage, Marchbolt, Wales. (Copyright 1933-35-36, Agatha Christie)

Death from an odd quarter haunts Bobby and Frankie tomorrow.

Services Churches Topics

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
Services 11 a. m. Sunday, room 1, Settles hotel.

"Reality" is the subject of the lesson-lesson which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientists on Sunday, March 21.

The golden text is: "The word of the Lord endureth forever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you" (I Peter 1:25).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-lesson is the following from the Bible: "Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the Lord: for he commanded, and they were created. He hath also established them for ever and ever" (Psalms 148:4,5,6).

The lesson-lesson includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made" (page 472).

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN
501 N. Gregg
T. H. Graalmann, Pastor
10, Sunday school and Bible class.
11, Morning service. The topic of the sermon will be: "Why Is It That So Many Cannot Believe In the Lord Jesus Christ?" All are cordially invited.

On Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., mid-week Lenten services will be held. The sermon will be based on the fifth word which Christ spoke from the Cross, the word, "I Thirst." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

FIRST CHRISTIAN
Fifth and Scurry
G. C. Schurman, Pastor
9:45—Bible School, Geo. L. Wilko, Supt.

10:45—Morning worship. Sermon by pastor. Topic: "What Does the Gospel Mean to You?"

6:45—Christian Endeavor.

7:45—Evening worship. Sermon topic: "The Destruction of Eden." The Bible school superintendent is inaugurating a visitation campaign for the purpose of increasing attendance in Bible School and looking toward Easter Sunday. It is earnestly hoped that every member of the church will be cooperating and be on hand Sunday morning at 9:45.

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL
Rev. P. Walter Henckell, Rector
Church school at 9:45. Bible class at 10 a. m. and morning prayer and sermon at 11. Mr. Henckell will speak on "The Cross" in commemoration of Passion Sunday.

PRESBYTERIAN
D. F. McConnell, D.D., pastor
Sunday school at 9:45; services at 11 and 8 o'clock. The morning theme will be "As a Man Thinketh." At 7 o'clock the young people will meet for a review of the book "The Faith of Our Fathers."

This Sunday marks the end of the church year and the full membership is invited to church.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
Fourteenth & Main Sts.
Forrest R. Waldrop, Minister
Lord's day services: Bible school, 9:45 a. m. Sermon and communion, 10:45 a. m. Young People meeting, 6:15 p. m. Sermon and communion, 7:30 p. m.
Monday: Ladies Bible class, 4 p. m.
Wednesday: Mid-week service, 7:30 p. m. (What Kind of a Church Does Jesus Want This Church to Be?)
Friday: Cottage singing, 7:30 p. m.
You are always welcome.

FIRST BAPTIST
Rev. R. E. Day, Pastor
9:30, Sunday school, George H. Gentry, superintendent.

10:30, Morning worship. Anthem, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," choir. Baritone solo, J. C. Douglas, Jr.; Baritone and Tenor, J. C. Douglas and Ira M. Powell. Sermon: "The Light of Light," Rev. Willis J. Ray.
6:45, Baptist Training Union, Ira M. Powell, director.
7:45, Evening worship. Solo by Mrs. W. D. Cornelson. Sermon: "The Love of Christ," Rev. Willis J. Ray.

Rev. Willis J. Ray, missionary of district eight of the Baptist General convention of Texas, will preach at both morning and evening worship services at the First Baptist church in the absence of Pastor R. E. Day who is in New Mexico at this time, speaking in a series of Sunday school conferences at various points over the state.

FIRST METHODIST
Alonso Bickley, Pastor
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Pascal Buckner, general superintendent. Preaching, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning subject: "The Value of a Friend."
Special music by the choir. You will greatly enjoy the music. Evening subject: "The Conversion of an Infidel."
Young people will meet at 7 p. m. A welcome awaits you at this church.

Mrs. D. C. Sadler and daughter, Jane, have gone to Willis Point for a visit.

HOOVER PRINTING CO.
Settles Building Commercial Printing

ACME CLEANERS
New, Modern Equipment
Phone 401
Call For and Deliver 204 Runnels

FRANKIE'S SON-IN-LAW

"DASH IT ALL! THIS NOISE MUST CEASE! I CAN'T POSSIBLY WRITE IN THIS BEDLAM!"

CRASH!

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

Practice Makes Perfect!

"DASH IT ALL! THIS NOISE MUST CEASE! I CAN'T POSSIBLY WRITE IN THIS BEDLAM!"

CRASH!

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

Compensation

"DASH IT ALL! THIS NOISE MUST CEASE! I CAN'T POSSIBLY WRITE IN THIS BEDLAM!"

CRASH!

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

Mysterious

"DASH IT ALL! THIS NOISE MUST CEASE! I CAN'T POSSIBLY WRITE IN THIS BEDLAM!"

CRASH!

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

He Can't Win

"DASH IT ALL! THIS NOISE MUST CEASE! I CAN'T POSSIBLY WRITE IN THIS BEDLAM!"

CRASH!

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

TEXAS TOADY SAYS

By Mill

HOWDY, TEXAS, DO YOU KNOW THAT OUR STATE HAS THE WORLD'S LARGEST SALT DOME, LARGEST INLAND COTTON MARKET, LARGEST SULPHUR FIELD, LARGEST AIR PORT AND THE LARGEST CRUDE OIL SHIPPING POINT? WE ALSO HAVE THE LARGEST OIL AND REFINING INDUSTRY, LARGEST AIR MILITARY TRAINING CENTER, LARGEST NATURAL GAS FIELD, AND THE LARGEST AND FINEST PRIVATELY OWNED RACE TRACK IN THE WORLD. PARDON ME FOLKS, I'LL SEE YOU NEXT WEEK.

BY THE WAY, FRIENDS, DON'T FORGET US WHEN YOU NEED CUTS OR DRAWINGS. IF YOU LIKE ME OR HAVE ANY INFORMATION FOR MY ARTICLE, DROP ME A LINE.

News Engraving COMPANY
FOR BETTER CENTENNIAL ENGRAVINGS
P.O. BOX 1421 ABILENE, TEXAS

SCORCHY SMITH

"I DON'T GET IT, MICKEY! I THOUGHT—SAY, WHY DO YOU WANT TO LEAVE ALGERIA SO SUDDENLY—HAS—?"

"SKIP TH' QUESTIONS, SCORCHY! WE'LL JUST SAY THAT A LITTLE BIRD TOLD ME—HUH?"

"OKAY—WE'LL SAY A LITTLE BIRD—AND LET IT GO AT THAT—"

"THAT'S BETTER—THERE'LL BE SHEIKS IN BAGHDAD, TOO, WON'T THERE?"

"ACH, FRANKIE!—DOT 155 GO!—DEER REAL—ARABIAN SHEIKS!"

"SURE!—AND THE FELLOW WE'RE GOING TO SEE HERE—WILL, PROBABLY, KNOW SOME OF THE DESERT CHIEFS PERSONALLY—"

"THAT'S WHUT I WANTA DO!—WE'LL SCARE UP THIS HERE FELLA—THAT—NOW—HOW—AN—GIT HIM T'TAKE US OUT T'MEET THEM SHEIKS! WE KIN CAMP OUT IN TH' DESERT WITH 'EM AN' FIND OUT WHUT ALL THIS SHEIKS BUSINESS IS ABOUT—!"

"MICKEY—SOMETIMES I SURE DO WONDER ABOUT YOU—"

HOMER HOOPEE

"I'M GETTIN' ABOUT ALL THE MYSTERY I CAN HANDLE! FIRST THAT GUY WHO'S BEEN FOLLOWING ME—AND NOW HELEN PECKING AROUND CORNERS AT ME, AND I CAN'T GET A WORD OUT OF HER!"

"THERE'S THAT MYSTERIOUS GUY NOW!"

"IF I GET MY HOOKS ON THAT GUY HELL TELL ME WHAT HE'S UP TO OR WELL RASSLE ALL OVER THIS END OF TOWN!"

"SO! SNEAKING OUT THE WINDOW IS HE? THAT PROVES HE'S UP TO SOMETHING, AND THIS IS MY CHANCE TO FIND OUT WHAT IT IS!"

DIANA DANE

"WELL—I'M GLAD YOU'VE FINALLY CONVINCED THAT I'M NOT GOING TO ELOPE, DOOLEY."

"I SURE AM WORRE TO A FRAZZLE FROM FOLLEIN' YA DAY AN' NIGHT."

"POOR DOOLEY— I'M SORRY."

"IF I HAD TH' TRAIN FARE I'D HEAD STRAIGHT FER HOME."

"I AIN'T HAD NO SLEEP FER A WEEK! BUT THEYS' ONE GOOD THING COME OF IT ALL—"

"REALLY? WHAT'S THAT?"

"I GOT FIRED OFF'N THAT BELL-HOP JOB."

Practice Makes Perfect!

"DASH IT ALL! THIS NOISE MUST CEASE! I CAN'T POSSIBLY WRITE IN THIS BEDLAM!"

CRASH!

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

Practice Makes Perfect!

"DASH IT ALL! THIS NOISE MUST CEASE! I CAN'T POSSIBLY WRITE IN THIS BEDLAM!"

CRASH!

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

Practice Makes Perfect!

"DASH IT ALL! THIS NOISE MUST CEASE! I CAN'T POSSIBLY WRITE IN THIS BEDLAM!"

CRASH!

"It's odd your saying that, Frankie," said Bobby.

His voice sounded so queer that Frankie looked at him in surprise.

"Why?"

"Because I stayed behind to ask Mrs. Pratt for Gladys name and address."

"Well?"

"The parlormaid's name was Evans."

Frankie gasped.

"Oh, Bobby, we're getting there at last!"

"The same thing must have struck Carstairs. And moreover I believe he came to Wales for that reason. Gladys Evans is a Welsh girl. He might have been following her to Marchbolt. And someone was following him—and so he never got to her."

"Why didn't they ask Evans?" said Frankie. "There must be a reason. With a couple of maids in the house, why send out for a gardener?"

"Perhaps because both Chudleigh and Albert More were chumps, whereas Evans was rather a sharp girl."

"It can't be only that. Mr. Elford was there and he's quite shrewd."

Suddenly she stopped.

"Bobby," she said, "if you're staying in a house with two servants which do you tip?"

"The house parlormaid, of course," said Bobby, surprised. "One never tips a cook. One never sees her, for one thing."

"No, and she never sees you. At most she might catch a glimpse of you if you were there for some time. But a house-parlormaid waits on you at dinner and calls you and hands you coffee."

"What are you getting at, Frankie?"

"They couldn't have Evans wit-

LOUNGE CHAIRS

Genuine hardwood construction. Various assorted coverings. Built for durability and comfort. Some with ottomans. A nice selection for your choosing.

To 39.50 Actual Values

CLOSE OUT PRICES 24⁹⁵

FURNITURE SALE

Regardless Of Price!

SWEEPING CLOSE-OUT OF DISCONTINUED LINES! THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF FURNITURE MUST BE SOLD!

This is not a fire nor a bankrupt sale but you may judge from the prices that this is our greatest stock moving sale. Listed here are but a few of the items that we will close out. These goods must be sold at once to make room for new lines of goods that will soon be coming in. If it isn't possible for you to come otherwise, simply call us on the phone and we will come out after you. Don't miss any of this close-out merchandise.

SELLING NOW ON IN FULL SWING

CHEST OF DRAWERS

Large, walnut finished chest, sturdy hardwood throughout, 12 deep drawers. These will solve your problem for added closet space.

13.50 Actual Values

CLOSE OUT PRICE 11⁹⁵

Save At Barrow's

Walnut Finish-Hardwood Poster Beds

Colonial design, walnut or maple finish. Built for long service.

12.75 Actual Values

CLOSE OUT PRICE 9⁹⁵

Other Beds Priced Low

MAKE YOUR SELECTION and GET THE PRICES YOU WANT

Living Room Suites Tapestry Upholstering

Genuine Hardwood Frame, Upholstered in Tapestry. We made a saving when we purchased these suites from the factory. We make you a saving now when we offer them to you at these prices.

CLOSE-OUT PRICE

34⁹⁵

44.50 ACTUAL VALUE

Many other of these famous Karpen and Kroebler Suites will be closed out at the greatly reduced prices of 49.50 to 198.50.

FREE BEAUTIFUL OCCASIONAL TABLE WITH EACH LIVING ROOM SUITE SOLD

OCCASIONAL CHAIRS

Beautiful frames covered with heavy tapestry. You will want one of these fine chairs. They are built for service and appearance.

9.50 Actual Values

CLOSE OUT PRICES 7.95

BRIDGE, TABLE, FLOOR LAMPS

Fabric-like shades, decorated. Glass bases. A beautiful selection to choose from. These will brighten up your home.

2.25 Actual Values

CLOSE OUT PRICE 1⁶⁹ UP

8 Pieces

Dining Room Suites

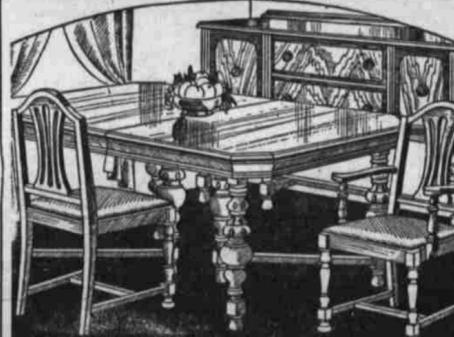

This suite consists of large Buffet, Extension Table, large Arm Chair and 5 Side Chairs upholstered in Tapestry. A suite that looks like and is constructed like one that would sell for twice the price.

69.50 Actual Value

CLOSE OUT PRICE 49⁹⁵

FREE LARGE BUFFET MIRROR

A large Buffet Mirror given FREE with each Dining Room Suite sold.

END TABLES

24 of this design. Built of selected hardwood and finished in walnut. (Others in beautiful veneers at bargain prices).

1.95 Actual Value

CLOSE OUT PRICES 1.69

Save At Barrow's

MIRRORS Large Selection, All Shapes and Sizes

1.75 Actual Value, Close Out 98c

PICTURES More Than 100 to Choose from. Interesting Subjects.

REDUCED PRICES

Washable Window Shades

50c Value

Close Out Price 39c

ODDS and ENDS of BREN-LIN WINDOW SHADES,

Values to $2

Close Out Price 49c

Elegant, 4 Piece

BED ROOM SUITES

Modernistic style. Oval mirror Vanity, Upholstered Bench, Beautiful chest of drawers and lovely Bed. Genuine walnut veneer.

69.50 Actual Value

CLOSE-OUT PRICE 49⁹⁵

Other Bed Room Suites will be closed out at 29.50 and up.

FREE BOUDOIR LAMP WITH EACH BED ROOM SUITE SOLD.

DRESSERS Walnut Finish

Three roomy drawers. Adjustable mirrors. Sturdily built for long service. Genuine hardwood. A real bargain.

17.50 Actual Value

CLOSE OUT PRICE 13⁹⁵

CONGOLEUM REMNANTS

Beautiful Patterns, Very Low Prices

UNFINISHED HIGH CHAIRS

Genuine Hardwood, while they last $1.98

CHILD'S RED ROCKER Double Cane Seat 1.39

CHILD'S CRIB, Enamel Finish 8.95

1.95 THROW RUGS, Close Out 1.45 up

1.65 METAL SMOKING STANDS 98c

2.00 PILLOWS, Good Ticking, Pr. 1.79

1.50 CLOTHES HAMPERS DECORATED ENAMEL

Close Out Price 98c

AXMINSTER RUGS

Size 9 x 12 feet, all wool faced. One of the largest selections of Rugs we have ever carried. You will find just the one you want.

39.50 Value

CLOSE-OUT PRICE 29.95

Fiber Tex Rugs, size 9 x 12. A long wearing, good looking rug. 13.95

OTHER RUGS, SALE PRICES TO 69.50

Hundreds of Items Too Numerous to Mention At Prices That Will Force Them to Move!

STUDIO COUCHES

The famous lines of Rome and Simmons couches. Complete with 3 inner-spring pillows. Open to full bed size or twin beds. Several coverings.

39.50 Actual Value

CLOSE OUT PRICE 29⁹⁵

SUPRISE GIFT WILL BE GIVEN WITH EACH CASH PURCHASE OF $25.00 OR MORE

BARROW FURNITURE CO.

BIG SPRING, TEXAS

205 Runnels Phone 850

CHAISE LOUNGES

Extra large...Kapak filled cushion with beautiful covers in rose or green. Luxurious in appearance. Note the very low close out price.

Close-Out Price 24⁹⁵

Actual Value 42.50