New Features Are Contracted For Hansford Celebration

Skydivers in your barbecue are the newest feature for this year's Hansford County Celebration, according to General Chairman Ed Dear. The Jaycee sponsored celebration will be May 10-11.

Skydivers is the newest entertainment feature added by the Spearman Jaycees for this year's celebration. Dear said an Amarillo skydiving group has 15 jumpers and as many will jump as the Jaycees can secure planes to carry them aloft.

Several other new features, as well as the old crowd pleasers, are being lined up for this year's fun days. Negotiations

Two Arrested In Burglary

A burglary and a series of petty thefts, shoplifting and gasoline thefts were cleared up this week by Sheriff J. B. Cooke and his deputies.

Two youths are being held pending action of the grand jury. They have been charged with burglary of Cates Grocery. The pair also admitted several other smaller thefts implicated several other youths.

Questioning of several high school boys has cleared up a large number of complaints of gasoline theft and petty thefts.

Early this week Sheriff Cooke returned from California with Russell and Ann Gougler. They have been charged with forgery on checks passed here more than a year ago.

Officers also arrested and put in jail two drunks.

are being carried on for the Jodie Drill Team from Amarillo Air Force Base, the Blackie Dalton Gun Show and an air show and fly-in breakfast.

Bill Partridge already has Jaycees and others growing whiskers for the beard contest. This is always the first visible signs of the approaching celebration.

One change is planned for the county-wide celebration. Dear said because the Jaycees wanted everyone to feel like Contest and Queen's ball will be held in Gruver this year.

The contest will be in the Gruver School Auditorium and the Ball in the Memorial building. J. D. Helms is in charge of the contest. He said he was hoping to eclipse last year's record of 29 entries.

All girls interested in entering the contest and businesses who would like to sponsor an entry are asked to get blanks from the Linn and Helms office.

The Lions Club will be in charge of the carnival again this year. Virgil Floyd reports that he has signed the carnival rides that were here two years ago. This is the Amarillo firm that has only rides and the Lions will be the ticket sellers. There will be no sideshows or concessions with the carnival.

Charles Gill is in charge of arranging the "Old Timers Reunion".

Rodeo Chairman Zack Fisher reports that Melvin McGarraugh of Perryton has again been contacted to provide the stock for the rodeo.

Unofficial sources say that the Jaycees and members of the riding club will start a drive within the next few days to get lights for the rodeo area. A local electrician has estimated the cost at $2,100.

If the lights are put up in time, then night performances of the rodeo will be held and other attractions will be added.

Wayne Chapman has already contracted with the Pampa firm for the barbecue. Chapman says there will be a charge for the barbecue this year.

Jaycees Urged To Help Youth

The new officers of the Spearman Junior Chamber of Commerce and their fellow-members were urged to help the youth of their community.

The plea was made by the Rev. J. W. Doke of Guymon, the principal speaker at the annual Jaycee Officer Installation banquet in the school cafeteria Saturday night.

Approximately 100 Jaycees, their wives, and local and out-of-town guests attended the banquet.

The Rev. Doke told the group that our youth are our most important people and a few helping words or actions to a youth may start him on the road to accomplishments in the future.

Edward Dear was named the outstanding Jaycee for the past year. He was presented a plaque by Wayne Chapman who told the audience how Dear had worked for and promoted the Jaycees here during the past

Morse, Gruver Will Vote Saturday on School Merge

Voters in the Gruver and Morse school districts will vote on the red-hot question of consolidating the two school districts Saturday. There will be two polling places in the Gruver district and one in the Morse district.

Gruver school district voters may vote either at the Agriculture Building at the Gruver School, or the Community Building at the Phillips Plant in the north part of the district. In Morse voters will cast their ballots at the Morse school.

The long simmering question of keeping or consolidating the Morse School with the Gruver School was brought to life again recently when petitions from both districts asking consolidation were presented to County Judge Johnnie Lee. Under state law the Judge is required to call the election when petitioned.

Several residents of the Morse School District have advocated combining the high schools for several years. Many of these persons transfer their children to the Gruver school.

Two years ago a group asked the County School Board to transfer the senior class to Gruver. This caused a furor which resulted in Morse keeping its senior class, but several students were transferred to Gruver.

Persons wanting to consolidate the school claim the costs of operating the Morse school are too high and that students get a better education in a larger school.

Persons wanting to keep the school claim consolidation will not lower school taxes and students get more individual attention in a small high school when they need help from teachers.

Dirt Storm Damages Farm Land, Buildings

A dirt storm that had the "Dust Bowl" veterans complaining hit Hansford County Monday. Besides wind erosion to farmlands, there was damage to some roofs and major damage at the Gid Nobles place at Nature Park.

The largest amount of reported damage in the county was at the Nobles Farm at Nature Park, eight miles south of Gruver.

At the farm the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wells was damaged when a television antenna made from a large powerline pole broke and knocked a hole in the roof of the house and the ceiling of a bedroom.

The wind also wrecked two windmills on the farm. The wheels on both windmills were demolished by the winds.

Wells said the antenna came crashing down around 2 p. m. when the wind was the highest.

The height of the storm was from 1 until about 3 p. m. The air was so full of dirt that visibility was about a quarter mile and less. At times cars were forced to stop along the road because of not being able to see.

North of Perryton on U. S. 83

four trucks and a car were involved in a smash-up caused by not being able to see. No one was injured but damage was estimated at $71,000.

An insurance man here said that the wind tore shingles from several roofs around town.

The storm set many farmers to chiseling to stop wind erosion. Some chiseling has been done in close-grazed dryland wheat.

Methodists Set Revival

A week of revival services will begin at the Spearman First Methodist Church Sunday. The Rev. Woodrow Adcock of Abilene will be the evangelist.

Jack Riley will lead the revival singing. He is pastor of the St. Paul Methodist Church in Pampa.

There will be two services each day. The morning meeting will begin at 7 a. m. with a light breakfast and a message. This service will be over by 8 a. m. The evening services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

years. A plaque was presented to the Chamber of Commerce in recognition of its community leadership during the past year. Manager Earl Blankenship accepted the plaque.

A plaque was also presented to outgoing President Verlin Behne.

JAYCEE OF THE YEAR--Edward Dear was awarded the honor "Jaycee of the Year" Saturday night at the Jaycee banquet. A past president of the organization, Dear is in charge of the Jaycee sponsored celebration this year.

1300 varieties of potatoes and 650 varieties of corn. Mrs. Lee stated that they undoubtedly use the wrong variety of potatoes for potato chips though, because they are soggy. Some tour members jokingly decided that they could make a fortune in South America, making crisp potato chips.

One of the finest stables in the world was seen at Santiago, Chile. The stables are 95 years old and can stable 3,000 horses. A capacity of 50,000 people can view the horse races at these tracks.

Shrines were seen all over the South American countries Mrs. Lee said and to her surprise the capitols of most countries had populations of from 2 to 7 million people.

Unusual crops were noticed along the way, too. Mrs. Lee said that two unusual sights were fields of sunflowers, used for oil, and fields of cattails, used to make their thatched roofs.

Mrs. Orman Is Shower Honoree

Mrs. Rodney Orman and new baby son, Philip Zan were honored with a baby shower March 16 at the True Leatherman home.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mmes. Matilda Entrekin of Spearman, Lewis Bayless, Jim Eddleman, Weldon McGuffin, Floyd Turner, David Turner, Lester, Gene Cluck, O. V.

Walker, Jr., Oline Bateman, Bernie Sparks, Claude Watkins, Charlene McClellan, A. R. Bort, Paul Gumfory, Fred Chase, and Leatherman.

The table was laid with white net over white cloth.

Karen Clawson, and Mrs. Kenneth Orman of Borger registered guests.

Serving were Phyllis Leatherman, Katha Wells, Florence Entrekin of Spearman, Mrs. Hershel Turner, Jennifer Bateman and Carolyn Turner.

MRS. R.E. LEE

Tour Reveals Rags And Riches

"We saw everything from tropical loveliness to poverty and filth that people here can not even imagine." Thus, Mrs. R. E. Lee described her 37 day tour of South America.

Mrs. Lee left here January 31 for Mexico City where she joined a tour group. Many of her fellow travelers were the same ones with which she had toured Europe and the South Pacific.

While in Mexico City, her sightseeing was highlighted by a visit to the main square. Mrs. Lee stated that the square had sunken four feet since the buildings were constructed and water must be pumped into the ground continually to hold the buildings up.

From Mexico City, the group first visited Guatemala where Mrs. Lee was impressed with beautiful tropical vegetation. She stated that local tour guides who showed them the sights always began by showing them their cathedrals. This has been true in all of Mrs. Lee's travels.

After leaving Guatemala, the group saw the Panama Canal while ships were going through the locks. "In being there, you realize how important the Panama Canal is to our country," Mrs. Lee stated. She said the United States soldiers who are stationed there were thrilled to see people from home and wanted very much to talk to them.

From Panama, the tour group traveled on to Bogota, Colombia. They visited the president's ranch where he runs about 10,000 head of cattle and were treated with unusual graciousness and courtesy. They wanted to attend church in Bogota, but were told that it was too dangerous since so many of the churches were being bombed.

One of the sights in Bogota was the Salt Cathedral which Mrs. Lee describes as "most impressive". The cathedral is below ground level and everything in it is made of rock salt. "The lighting is somewhat like black diamonds," Mrs. Lee said.

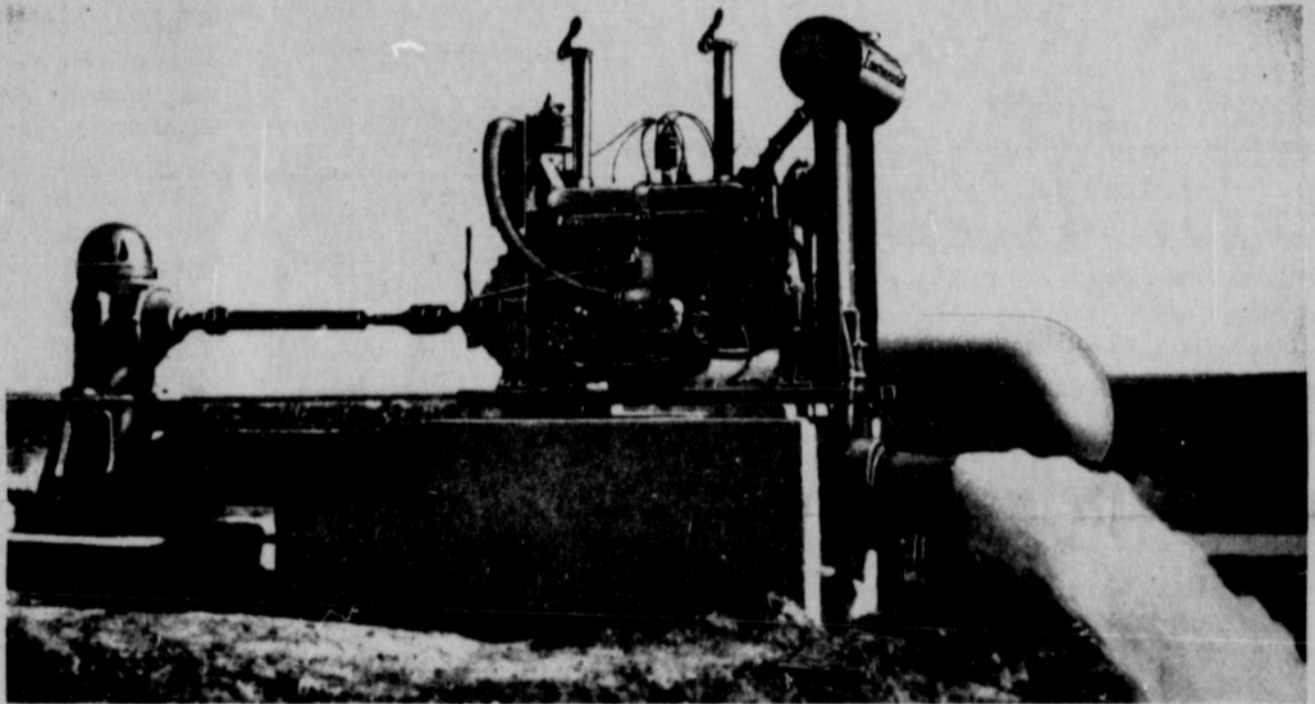

With a tremendous interest in history (her college major), Mrs. Lee was thrilled at seeing the Inca Ruins in Lima, Peru. "If they let the ruins go," Mrs. Lee said, "the jungles would take them within three months." They are still in the process of uncovering ruins, too.

Mrs. Lee saw a great deal of political unrest in Peru. With four military generals in charge, the people never know today what will happen tomorrow.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Orville J. Crain of Waka announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Sue Crain of McPherson, Kans. to Arthur Hock of Dwight, Kans., son of Harry Hoch of Junction City, Kan. The wedding will be April 13 in the Waka Church of the Brethren.

One of the most charming and interesting women in Spearman is Mrs. R. E. Lee who just returned from another tour, this time to South America.

If you have a chance to talk with Mrs. Lee about any of her trips or to see her films, be sure to do so. The films themselves and her interesting comments and observations are a real treat.

Last year Mrs. Lee presented a program for Rho Rho Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi on the South Sea Islands which she had visited. It is interesting that Mrs. Lee notes the political and historical aspects of the places where she visits as well as the personal habits, unusual foods and dress of the people.

Mrs. Lee started her travels just a few years back after reading and ad in the Dallas paper. She said she couldn't interest her husband in traveling with her as he is a busy rancher and businessman, so she decided to go with a tour group.

Mrs. Lee went from here to Chicago and toured New York and the New England states. Her next trip was to Europe with the KGNC Farm and Ranch Tour. Subsequent trips to the South Seas and Australia and to South America have stemmed from her love of travel which started with that first tour.

Mrs. Lee stated that one of the things she learned while in South America is that our country's foreign aid is simply not getting to the people. She said a tour guide told the group that he wished they would write their representatives and see if they could help the situation any.

Rags AND Riches is the way Mrs. Lee described South America. "While I saw fabuous cities, beautiful landscaping, and unique resorts, there is still a vast amount of poverty and filth so pitiable that it is hard to describe."

"I never thought I'd want to visit Africa" Mrs. Lee told me. "Still just this week I received a card from a friend who felt the same way. Her card, from Africa, said 'Mary, a trip to Africa is a must in your life'. So, now I don't know..."

Mrs. Lee's love for travel is contagious. If you talk with her you'll find yourself trying to figure out a way to travel abroad yourself.

General Telephone towns are on the move!

Port O'Connor Defies a Hurricane's Fury

In September of 1961, the Texas Gulf resort and fishing center of Port O'Connor suffered almost total destruction from Hurricane Carla.

But the proud, determined and energetic community of about a thousand people, refused to admit defeat. Today, homes, business buildings and fishing facilities have been rebuilt larger, more permanently and with a fresh, new look.

Port O'Connor's amazingly complete come-back is another reason why we say that big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

Yes, towns in our service area are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new industries are coming in. Letters

To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The articles concerning the forthcoming election on consolidation of the Gruver and Morse School Districts have been of particular interest to me. I have also read an article in the Amarillo Daily News about the issue.

As the pastor of the Morse Methodist Church for three years I came to know many of the people in the Morse District and several persons in the Gruver School District. In November a change in appointments brought me to Childress to be pastor of the King Memorial Methodist Church.

One of the arguments for the consolidation is that the students of Morse will have benefit of a full athletic program. In my opinion the majority of the students would be only spectators in the full athletic program of a larger school. In the small schools the students have a better chance to be participants.

In the scholastic side I believe that the Morse School is doing a good work. The classes are small and it would help if there were a few more in each class, but this is not necessarily a drawback. My daughter, Leta Ruth, attended the Morse High School during the first two years and for two six-weeks period in her junior year. When we moved to Childress with a high school of approximately 430 students, Leta Ruth was able to transfer with a minimum of trouble. She is taking for the most part the same courses she took in Morse. The only exception I believe is that she was taking Texas History in Morse, but it was not offered in Childress this year, or they did not have enough students to sign up for it. As for grades she is making almost exactly the same grades that she made at Morse.

It is my opinion that a good student will not be seriously handicapped in attending the small high school and the average and poor students will be helped immeasurably by the high teacher-student ratio.

Surprise Party

Honors Mrs. Sloan

Mrs. Troy Sloan was honored with a surprise birthday party Thursday evening, March 14 in the Garland Head home.

Birthday cake and strawberry ice cream were served to Messrs. and Mmes. Don McLain, Joel Lee Lackey, Sid Evans, Bill Ballinger, Troy Sloan, Sue and Pat, Garland Head, Delinda and Ronnie

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Head went to McLean Sunday to attend a funeral and while there also visited friends.

I have nothing against the Gruver High School for I believe they have a good system. I do not believe that a forced consolidation is wise or will be to the best interest of either school. I do know that the Morse School system is providing some things for its students that the Gruver School cannot.

With best regards to you and the people of Hansford County.

Sincerely,
Ivan E. Allen, Pastor

GRASS MEETING--Approximately 90 persons were on hand last week for the meeting on irrigated grasses. Specialist and local farmers discussed advantages and problems of irrigated pastures.

We received a news release this week that Bedford Forrest, formerly with the KGNC Farm and Ranch Dept., has joined the High Plains Research Station. With this action, Forrest becomes eligible for the "Ex-Cotton John Assistant Association".

This association is an unofficial, unorganized group made up of former assistants to one of the most talked about men in local television.

Working for Smith, Cotton John, is an experience that none soon forget. He is a man who is dedicated to the idea that your work is the most important thing and everything is secondary.

That idea and his dedication to it have raised Smith and all that can stand the pace, from rather menial salaries to a comfortable living.

From the time that KGNC first hired Red Muse to help Smith, to the present, there have been many assistants. All of us worked hard, long hours, seven days a week.

It took a hard argument to get a day off, but we all made more money than before and all moved on to better jobs. Some of his assistants have had to turn down farm editor's jobs with other stations because they did not want to take a pay cut.

Smith has always worked hard. From the time he left a blackland cotton patch near Trenton in northeast Texas to go to East Texas State, he has worked for what he has accumulated.

After the war he went back to ET as a teacher and publicity man. He was tough in class and turned out more news releases than two girls could keep mailed out.

At Northwestern he taught and finished his masters degree in journalism. It was at Northwestern that a professor refused to let him in a radio broadcasting class. The teacher said with Smith's voice, no one would let him on radio or TV.

At the Globe News, as farm editor, he covered so many cotton meetings that David Rasco tagged him with the Cotton John handle. During his off-hours he wrote so many magazine features that he was asked to edit a cattle magazine in Denver.

After only seven months KGNC asked him to become their farm editor when Uncle Jay was called back to service.

Smith was so scared when he first started, he wrote every word of his program. He was not a broadcaster, but he did like people and he knew nothing but work, so in two years there was no place for Uncle Jay in farm broadcasting at the station.

Smith is a living example of getting ahead by hard work and if all of his assistants can ever find a place big enough, we will probably honor him for teaching us what hard work really is.

Mrs. Blount Is Honoree

Mrs. Otis Blount and new baby daughter, Frances Ruth were honored with a pink and blue shower Saturday, March 16 in the home of Mrs. Fred Chase by a large group of friends.

The lace covered table was centered with a blue container with pink roses. A crystal money tree was presented to the honoree.

The honoree was presented with a corsage fashioned of yellow baby sox with a tiny baby doll in the center.

Mrs. Lester Pinion, great aunt of Mrs. Blount, registered guests.

Serving were Meses. O. V. Walker, Geneva Eddleman, Dee Perkins, Tom Jones, Ed Vernon, Bill Etling, Marge Barkley, George Ford, and W. L. Harris.

Assisting at the shower were Meses. Pauline Winger, Vivian Green, B. J. Renner, Howard Cline, Oscar Lee, Joe Evans, Price Miller, Ted McClellan, T. F. Morgan and Fred Chase.

Circle Meets

The Susannah Wesley Circle of WSCS met March 13 in the Methodist Church with Virginia Head as hostess.

The devotional was given by Marva Hohertz using Mark 1:13-16. RaPaula Varney and Judy Martin were the lesson leaders and were assisted by Dorothy Groves, Kay Nollner, Verna Gail Keim and Margaret Adamson. The meeting closed with the benediction.

Deadline Nears For Sign-Up

Friday, March 22 is the deadline for signing up for the 1963 Feed Grain Program.

In general the 1963 program is similar to the one in effect last year. The grower agrees to reduce his feed grain acres, corn, grain sorghum or barley, by at least 20 percent. He must take the diverted acres out of grain production and put it to conservation use. The acres are in addition to the farm's base acreage in conservation use.

A percentage of the minimum diversion payment is available when the diverted acres are planted to certain crops. The crops and the percentage of payment are: sesame, 40; guar, 30; castor beans, 30; and sunflower 20 percent.

The County ASC office can answer most questions about participation in the program.

Farmers who prefer to ignore the program will not be eligible for price support and must sell their grain on the open market.

Final Rites For Blakemore

Funeral services for T. J. Blakemore, 68, founder of the Ideal Food Store chain will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. today (Thursday) in the First Christian Church in Liberal.

Don Stone, manager of the Spearman Ideal store, said his store would be closed from 2:30 p. m. to 3:30 p. m. today for the services.

Mr. Blakemore and his brother, the late Jim Blakemore, founded the Blakemore Brother Grocery Co., that grew into the Ideal chain.

The $5 million company was merged with the ACF-Wrigley Co., in September, 1960.

At the time of his death, Mr. Blakemore was involved in banking, ranching, and building.

Families Asked To Move Here

A delegation of approximately 25 members of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce went to the Panhandle Eastern Camp in New Hope Tuesday. The group invited the families living there to move to Spearman.

The families living in the camp have been notified to be moved out of the camp by Aug. 1. There are approximately 30 families that will be seeking new homes.

Some of the families have secured acreage near the plants and others are going to move to towns in the area.

The delegation learned that 17 families are interested in moving to Spearman if housing can be secured.

--our children would receive a more rounded education in a school where a choice of subjects is actually available to them, as opposed to a variety of subjects offered on paper only.

--that it is essential to a balanced education to have a choice of student activities, such as participation in band work, speech, clubs and athletics.

--that competition and association afforded by a larger school are healthy for our youngsters.

--that we can, so long as we desire, maintain our elementary school, which has already been assured by a motion passed by the Gruver School Board.

--that we can have a decrease in our taxes now, while offering our children a chance for a better education.

--that a school district composed of approximately 720 square miles with an approximate valuation of 27.5 million, will now and for future generations, be able to offer the best education possible at a cost that will not be prohibitive.

Bergin Named Share-the-Fun Vice-Chairman

T. J. Bergin has been elected Vice-Chairman of the North Plains Agricultural Field Research Committee. The group will serve in an advisory and consultant capacity for the North Plains Agricultural Field Station at Cactus.

The committee is composed of one representative from each of the eight North Plains counties that will be served by the new experiment station.

The committee was formed to establish a research station to obtain information on economic use of water, fertilizer, crop varieties and grasses.

County Agent Adamson said to get the station the committee promised to furnish the cultivated land, irrigation well, place for an operator to live, implement shed, main underground irrigation pipe and fence. The cost is $20,000.

The station is the northwest quarter of section 38, block 2T, T&NO survey. It is on FM Road 281 from Etter to Sunray. The soil is pullman clay, which is fairly representative of the North Plains area.

The committee will start a fund drive among farmers in the eight counties in the near future to raise the needed money. Adamson said the committee set a goal of $15 per irrigation well for the fund drive.

After the station is established it will become state supported and be part of the Texas A&M College Experiment Stations.

C. C. Burnett of Dumas is chairman of the Committee and J. W. Buchanan was named executive secretary-treasurer of the group.

Share-the-Fun Held by 4-H

Forty three members of the Gruver 4-H Community Club were in attendance Monday night for the Method Demonstration and Share-the-Fun program. Lynn Stedje, president, conducted the business meeting at the Memorial Building with Ginger Hart leading the group in the 4-H motto and pledge. Davy Barkley and Shari Henderson led in singing "America, the Beautiful", Beverly Heath and Jerry Bayless led the Pledge to the American Flag and Ricky Barkley gave the devotional.

It was reported that $32.17 had been earned by the group recently in a trash-clean-up day. This money will go to the fund for redecorating the basement of the Memorial Building.

Demonstrations which will be presented at the County Elimination Program in Spearman in April included one on fire prevention by Jim Beck and J. W. Ward; "Left Over Danger"-a demonstration on safety in the home by Lael and Leah Cordes; and one on crop fertilization by Harley Murrell and Sammy Arnold. A skit "The Women's Club" was presented by Maelynn Cator, Merilee Maupin, Angie Cator, Sadie Thomas, and Jackie Hudson; "Too Careless to Look" with Mike Ralston, Melinda Nobles, Shari Henderson and Mindy Murrell was also presented.

Cokes and cookies were served by John Cooksey and Linda Dodge. Cleanup committee was Ruel Holt, Lynn Stedje, Sammy Arnold, John Cooksey, and Wesley Maupin.

MORSE SCHOOL BOARD ANSWERS CHARGES

After reading the advertisement which appeared in last week's SPEARMAN REPORTER purporting to set forth the "FACTS" concerning the Morse Independent School District, the Morse Board feels obligated to answer in part. Any interested person is invited to come by the school office and check these "FACTS" most of which are distorted if not altogether false.

To illustrate, the census in Morse School District cannot support the so-called "FACT". For the past six years this census has increased as follows: 1957-66 scholastics; 1958-79; 1959-80; 1960-82; 1961-85; and for 1962 there were 100 scholastics in the district. This can hardly be called "steadily declining enrollment".

Again, we would like to extend the invitation to interested persons to check these facts before the election of March 23rd and then vote your convictions.
