Wheat Market Takes Downward Spin Tues.

The gyrating wheat market took another spin Tuesday, but this time it was down, wiping out some of the gain it has made over the past couple of weeks.

In another wild day in commodities, the market took a down turn Tuesday and the local wheat market dropped seven cents from $1.79 to $1.72.

Since last week the market had been coing up. Of Money

Since last week the market had been going up. On Monday of last week it jumped nine cents a bushel, then dropped off a cent or two, but it had climbed up to $1.80 locally on Thursday and stayed there for two days.

Monday the price locally was $1.79 then took the drop Tuesday.

Brokers told local grain men that Tuesday's market on co-mmodities was the wildest they had seen, even wilder than the Monday of last week when the price went up nine cents on wheat.

Buyers credited the price break Tuesday to the larger break Tuesday to the larger than expected spring red wheat crop in the north. This crop, like the local crop, is larger than was predicted, it is also earlier than usual. It was reported earlier this week that custom cutters are tied up in central Kansas waiting on wheat to river while Harvesters have been completing the harvest in the north and west part of the county. Most of the custom crews have left the Spearman area moving on north.

Farmers are now pushing to get wheat stubble turned under and land ready for a dry land maize crop if the moisture situation continues to improve. They have until about July 10 to get the crop planted.

Cherry Submits Resignation To Accept Brownfield Position

A rumor of Sunday and Monday turned into fact Tuesday when Spearman High School Principal Jim Cherry officially resigned his position here.

Cherry submitted his resignation Tuesday afternoon to Dr. Bill Reeves, Superintendent of Spearman Schools.

Cherry said Brownfield is a AAA high school with a staff and student body about twice the size of the Spearman sc-

"I have been well satisfied with my job in Spearman and it is one of the best jobs in the state for a school this size, but I consider the Brownfield pos-ition to be a professional ad-vancement, "Cherry said, Cherry was Junior High Sch-ool Principal in Brownfield be-fore he agree to Speakman her.

cherry said that he and his family had expected to remain in Spearman until he was contacted by the Brownfield school officials asking him to take the position.

The family has just finished building a new home and were planning to move in this week. Dr. Reeves said he was now accepting mail applications for the new vacancy in his staff.

The school board had given Cherry a two-year contract ea rlier this year.

Spearman Finally Offers Senior Little League

A project that has been in the thinking stage for several years finally started moving this summer and is becoming this summer and is becoming a reality.

The lighting of the baseball park and establishing a baseball program for boys over the little league age is partially a reality.

Two teams of boys 13 through 15 years of age are playing baseball and the work is beginning on raising all the money needed to light the park.

In May, with the push of some interested parents and others, the program for the older boys began. Approxima-tely 40 boys tried out for the

Homemaking Notes

By Linda Webb Home Demonstration Agent

Summer officially began last week, so, can Autumn be far behind?

Evidentally not, if you take the word of clothing manufact-urers across the country, Fall fashions and fabrics are already being seen in shops across the country. Anyone looking for a summer wardrobe now, will find the pickings pretty slim. Although I am no more inclined to think of a fall wardrobe right now than most of my readers, I will pass on the fall fashion news to you before it gets much older.

Colors are no longer seasonal.

Colors are no longer seasonal, as many of the sunny brights from spring find equal emphasis this fall. Colors combine and clash, so get set for some combinations even more with than we've seen the past sea-

The "In" colors-reds of all shades; pink to purple, from sharp accents to regal darks; blues covering the entire ra-nge of blue, plus blue tints with other colors; greens, both yellowed and blued as well as yellowed and blued as well as other shades; gold-orange, in quite a variety of shades; and of course the neutrals --brown and greys, plus pastels to lighten the season spirits.

Power packed plaids come on strong for fall and this is the "In " season for the square, cube and checks of all types. Brillant stripes emphasize the brazen use of color in multiple monotone or clash combiple monotone or clash combi-nations.

Petite prints, paisleys, tap-estries, and art gallery prints add to the dashing display of spectrum colors.
Wool fabrics have taken on Wool fabrics have taken on many new looks, too, to enable even the non-expert to tailor a high-fashion seam. You can find variety upon variety of firm tight weaves; heavy coatings and suitings; crisp twills; heathered or solid flannels; meltons and fleeces; deceiving tweeds; weaves that deceiving tweeds; weaves that appear to float or wander ca-refree (these often bonded for stability; and many more.)

Bonding, bonding and more bonding. There is hardly a fabric left untouched. It started with laces and knits and ed with laces and knits and expanded in every direction—flannel, linen, crepe, ging—ham, almost any bondable surface. The purposes of bonding are diversified—to stabilize, to line, to add weight, to add reversibility. It is here to stay, so don't be afraid to use it.

Other fabrics out in front are Other fabrics out in front are the classics (homespuns, denims, synthetics, and blends) with sporty touches; chall is and crepe to add a slowing quality; corduroy with wider and plushier ribs; velour in different versions from plushy pile to slinky luxury; and knits in variety of types and colors.

So, mere comes fall, ready or not!

THE LAST NOTE -- Time is the only thing that doesn't fly when you are trying to kill it.

the Word

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet; and a light unto my path." - Psalm 119:105

If you are a Christian, you are blessed with a great heritage. It is a heritage of truth and has nothing to do with imagination or myths. It is a truth that remains unchanged, no matter how many times someone attempts a rewrite or offers a "studied" translation.

This truth is the word of God! It is found in the Holy Bible. It is found in Ten Commandments, which form a guidepost for Christian living. Accept this truth; it is usess to argue against it. Conscience and common sense will not permit you to be unaware. You fool no one, not even yourself, if you pretend to ignore or disbelieve.

We've had some adjustments to make at our house the past week. Having never had a little dog around before we're finding out how easily our new French poodle monopolizes the whole household and our routines without even trying.

The puppy is now officially "Tre Beau" (Tree-bow to the less sophistocated or continental). He's named after another French poodle, one we never saw but heard a great deal about. The original was named for a Frenchman friend of the family so it's sort of the dog of a friend of a friend of a friend.

Our Tre Beau thinks the name is original and exclusive with him. He took to it right away anyway.

of other states but to Texans themselves.

"Texas Parade" tells the story of our good roads but doesn't limit itself to that subject; on the contrary, the magazine strives by means of the finest available writing and pictures to describe Texans, their activities and their state.

We're a long way off at one end of things but I, for one, like to see all the things Texas has to offer in the way of tourist at-

I noticed in the magazine a mention of the Texas Highway Departments 16 mm film "Texas-Land of Contrasts", which is available to any civic or business group simply by contacting the department, Travel and Information Division, Austin, Texas.

The narrated film runs for 28 minutes showing San Antonio's Battle of Flowers, the Big Bend Country, Palo Duro Canyon, wild deer, beach scenes, the Piney Woods, the wide open spaces and throbbing cities in contrasting sequences. Perhaps during this yearbook—program planning season, this film might fill the bill for a special program.

"Texas Parade", by the way is available at $3.50 per year by writing in care of Drawer G, Capital Station, Austin, Te-xas. It's a honey of a magazine for proud-to-be Texans if you happen to be one.

Another bit of enjoyable reading about Texas is the Texas Highway Department's new "Texas, America's Fun-Tier". It was compiled and published for free distribution and should lure many tourists to our state.

This little booklet (write the Texas Highway Department, Travel and Information Di vision, P.O. Box 50644 Austin, Texas, 78703) has a beautiful section showing from our area Palo Duro Canyon's rugged beauty, Lake Meredith, and Old Tascosa. The whole thing is, of course, in color and the photography is spectacular.

Noticed somewhere the other day that growing old is simply a matter of mind over matter—if you don't mind it doesn't mat-

We're very anxious for this July 4th weekend when we've made plans to attend one of the opening performances of "Texas" at Present for an afternoon of china painting and refreshments were Mmes, Guy Fuller, Bruce Sheets, W.L. Renner, Clay Gibner, Freeman Barkley, Pope Gibner, Ned Turner, and the hostess. From all the advance publicity, not to mention last year's trial run, "Thundering Sounds of the West", I feel sure this Paul Green drama will be something really unique. I'm certain it will put the Texas Panhandle "on the map" as tar as spectacular tourist attractions are concerned.

These cookies will be an easy dessert for your Fourth of July weekend picnic.

Attired in floor-length gowns of mint green whipped cream with empire styling, bridal attendants were Miss Sheila Guynes of Wheeler, maid of honor, and Miss Kay White, sister of the bride, and Miss Nancy Hol', bridesmaids, White lace trim and softly gathered trains accented the gowns. Each carried a cascading arrangement of white gladioli, florets and green salal leaves.

Johnny Holland of Spearman attended the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Larry Loveand Andy Rhodes of Spearman.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. White chose a two-piece frock of yellow linen with matching hat and white access-ories. A yellow glamelia cor-sage completed her costume. Mrs. Abston selected a pink lace dress with matching ac-cessories and a pink glamelia

Guests were greeted in the church parlor at the reception held following the wedding ceremony. The bride's table, covered with a white net cloth covered with a white net cloth over mint green, was centered with an arrangement of mums a and pom poms. The three-tiered cake, topped by a miniature bridal couple standing under an archway bearing a wedding bell, was served by Miss Judie Riley, Miss Carletta Johnson presided at the punch bowl while Miss Kerrick Warner attended the guest register. Other members of the houseparty included Mrs. Gordon Bayless and Mrs. Norman Sublett.

McWhirters Express Gratitude To Individuals, Organizations

ans to express our appreciation to the individuals and organizations that made our experience of the past year possible. Our special thanks to the Student Council and their sponsors and to the American Field Service Charter for their diligent work. Chapter for their diligent work in promoting the Exchange St-udent Program for Spearman High School. Also to the Twe-ntieth Century Club for spon-soring Geir and giving finan-cial assistance in purchasing clothes and other items needed. To Cates Mens and Boys Wear for giving a more than generous discount on clothing pur-chased for him.

We are grateful for the way each and every one received Geir and for the favors extended to make his year a very memorable one. He was very appreciative of every kindness appreciative of every kindness extended and was greatly impressed by the hospitality of our town. He will, I am sure, carry many happy memories of his year in Spearman for the rest of his life.

We would like to encourage each individual and organization to continue their interest in the Evenage Student Pro-in the Exchange Student Program in the future. We also encourage other families to apply for students and share the happiest experience of their lives.

Now that Geir has gone there is a decided emptiness and re-gret but there are still many happy memories to look back on. We know others shall miss him also. Any one wishing to write to Geir may do so by writing to: Mr. Geir Berge Overland, Aasmund Vinjes veg

A New Era...

A million or more dollar tourist attraction will open this week in the Amarillo-Canyon area. The Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, Inc. is opening Paul Green's "Texas" in the fabulous Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon. The opening of this show and the exposure of Palo Duro Canyon to the outside world should signal the beginning of a new era in the Panhandle. The beginning of the tourist and traveler.

This production should be the bait to lure people from all over the nation and the world to the Panhandle, then if the rest of the country will pitch in, this can become a mecca rest of the country will pitch in, this can become a mecca for the vacationers.

Other places he done it and they had less to start with than what we have in Texas.

It would be no trouble to develop a tourist attraction that could keep people in the Panhandle for at least a week.

With the two biggest attractions being "Texas" and Palo Duro Canyon, there is Lake Meredith, Old Tascosa and Boys Ranch, Adobe Walls, Old Mobeetie, JA ranch country, Tule Canyon and the other sites of the MacKenzie led Army and Indian Battles. The Santa Fe trail and other trail locations, and the celebrations and rodeos held throughout the area in the summer, are still other attractions.

Many of these places and events may not be much to those of us who live with them year after year, but to the visitor they could be made into attractive events. It would be nice to get back some of those tourist dollars this area spends in other places every year.

Holiday Traffic I has Expected

What will this July Fourth bring traffic wise? If it is si-milar to the ones in the past it will be deadly, injurious, our forefathers thought back in 1776 after declaring Independence that future generations would be free from wan-ton deaths and destructions. However, they were greatly mistaken to what the future would bring.

During the last 190 years since our nation declared its Independence there have been eight major wars claiming 1,130, 393 American lives. The auto-mobile has been in existence for about 65 years claiming 1,559,950 lives. Thus, the battlefield has been a safer place than the "homefront."

The 1965 July Fourth holidays in which there were 19 persons Thereby through FTD's guaranteed service, flowers may be wired to any place in North and South America and to practically every country abroad. The FTD International Headquarters notes that a flowers-by-wire or-der is sent every other second of every day.

Chamber of Commerce Newsletter

A big Thank You to Brad Be-edy. He is doing a marvelous job as Chairman of the Retail ont on the Wordrobe Cleaners? It is a real pretty and an asset to the City of Spearman.

The Fourth of July is a Chamber of Commerce observed Holiday and most businesses are planning to close. If you do not plan on being closed, please call the Chamber of Commerce Office.

With Harvest nearly over things are getting back to normal again. Seems real quite though.

We are still looking for three bedroom houses. If you have one please let us know.
