Spearman Entries Receive Awards At Science Fair

Spearman entries in the Panhandle A&M College Science Fair collected a number of high honors in the competition.

Marty Jones in the Junior Division scored the highest when he received an excellent rating.

Three students won superior ratings with their entries. They were Susan and Larry Holt in the High School Division and D'Ann Sheets in the Junior High Division.

Debbie Standerfer, Kenneth Noel and Gladly Hopper received Good ratings in the High School Division as did Robert Barker in the Junior High Division.

Marty Jones received a special award in the fair for placing first in the Junior Division and tied for second place for the division's over-all award.

He received a set of 22 books in the fields of science and math.

Strong competition in the fair came from Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Firemen Saye Home

County firemen, assisted by part of the Spearman Fire Department, saved the Glen Mackie home four miles southwest of Spearman Saturday morning.

The small county fire truck arrived at the Mackie home quickly enough to get the fire under control before it could start spreading.

Temperatures were below freezing, but the firemen and neighbors of the Mackie family pulled a window frame from the wall and chopped a small hole in the roof to allow the firemen to get to the blaze.

Another fireman wearing an airpac entered the attic to check for fire and extinguished some rafters which were smoldering.

Firemen said the fire started when Mrs. Mackie attempted to thaw some water pipes in the kitchen.

Tracksters Place Fourth In Tough Odessa Relays

Spearman High School's track entries had fourth place in the Odessa Relays in their division

Friday night with 7 1/2 points. Phillips was fifth with 7 points. Odessa Blackshear, Jal, N.M. and Alpine were the leaders.

Spearman gathered the points when Ronald McDonald placed second in the broad jump finals with a leap of 20 feet, 4 inches. He was only two inches behind the winner.

Jim Ownbey added more points when he tied for second place in the high jump finals with a leap of five feet four inches.

Spearman had a chance to add more points Saturday with the mile relay team. The team of Ownbey, McDonald, Mike Morris and Ken Shufeldt qualified for the finals.

This was the only running event in which the Lynx qualified.

Two Men Arrested In County Thefts

A series of thefts of batteries and oil from irrigation wells in the county was cleared this week with the arrest of two men on charges involving liquor.

Merrelyn Beck Rites Today

Funeral services for Miss Merrelyn Carol Beck, 20, of the Blodgett community will be held today at 3 p.m. in the First Methodist Church of Spearman.

Services will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Charles Gates. Burial will be in Hansford Cemetery under the direction of Boxwell's.

Miss Beck died in her home Friday night.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Beck, Jr., she was born April 21, 1944 in Perryton. She was a graduate of Spearman High School and was a member of the Methodist Church in Spearman.

Survivors include her parents, sisters, Mrs. Don Beggs of El Paso and Barbara and Becky, of the home; brothers, Robert and Ronnie of the home, and Gerald of Topeka, Kan.; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sid Beck, Sr., of Spearman and her maternal grandfather, Bill Deck of Balko, Okla.

Pallbearers will be Jim Neely, James Sparks, Herbert Butts, Kenneth Pope, Claude Jackson and W. E. Sparks.

Charles Barrett and Manuel Cochran, both of Guymon, were arrested Wednesday. Barrett was charged with driving while intoxicated and Cochran with being drunk in a motor vehicle.

After the two were arrested officers found a large number of batteries and cans of oil in their car.

Some of the items have been identified as batteries and oil taken from wells in the north part of the county.

The two men have now been charged with theft under $50. Friday they were in jail in lieu of bond.

Sheriff J.F. Cooke said some of the items in the car have not been identified and anyone losing such items should check with his office for possible identification.

Cooke reminded farmers that batteries and other things are being stolen from irrigation wells in increasing volume and the owners should be more careful about leaving tools and other things of value around the wells.

Officers also jailed three drunks and two other DWI offenders this week.

By Robert Arlison

Hobby is a lot of hard work you wouldn't do for a living. 1965 STOCK SHOW

The 1965 Hansford County Stock Show and Sale was one of the most successful shows and sales we have had in the county. We are very grateful to the buyers who supported our auction sale. I know the livestock exhibitors who sold their animals extend their appreciation.

There are many people who helped make this a successful show and sale. I feel all the people in Hansford County should know that they gave their time and experience at this event. The ones who deserve recognition are listed as follows: Auctioneers-Frank Coekrell, Archa Morse and Preston Smith Ringmen-Bob Cluck, J.C. Harris, Ed Dear and Troy Sloan; Clerks-Freeman Barkley, Paul Hazelwood and Clyde Barber.

Special thanks go to Dean Cluck and T.C. Harvey who furnished the barn for the show; T.C. Harvey who set the floor price on all the animals; Taylor Evans Farm Store in Gruver who added a bonus price to each animal in the show; Buddy Messer of Southwestern Public Service who helped with the electrical wiring; Dean & Mason who furnished trucks to get the sawdust; Upshaw Investment Corporation who furnished all the ribbons for the show; Gruver FFA Department for cleaning out the barns prior to the show; Gruver Young Farmer members who assisted in weighing and tagging the animals; Hansford County 4-H members and leaders who ran the concession stand; Radio Station KBMF-FM for carrying the show and sale.

There were many more that did a small part which also contributed to its success.

We have a wide variety of new spring party merchandise by Hallmark. Plainsman Office Supply, 209 Main.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—If you want to sit in on the committee hearing for the bill which would legalize the sale of miniature bottles of liquor in restaurants, you better come early.

That's what Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg, sponsor of the bill in the upper house, is saying. He expects as many as 3,000 persons will be at the Capitol to testify or to listen when the bill comes up before the Senate Committee on Jurisprudence at 2 p.m., Tuesday, March 16.

Bill would allow establishments where at least half of the monthly business is for meals to get a state license for the sale of 2-oz. bottles of liquor, enough for a single cocktail.

There's organized support on both sides. The line-up: —In favor, the Texas Restaurant Association, which hopes the bill will permit its members to meet the competition of private clubs, which increasingly are getting the restaurant business from people who like a drink before dinner.

—Opposed, church groups which generally are against any liberalization of liquor regulations and a strange bedfellow, the Texas Package Stores Association which contends the bill as written would prevent liquor stores from continuing to sell beer.

The Texas Package Stores Association also believes the same section it opposes would prohibit restaurants from selling beer and wine if they sold miniatures.

A hearing is yet to be scheduled on the House version of the bill by Rep. Willis Whatley of Houston.

Congressional Redistricting
Texas Republicans, whose lawsuit resulted in present congressional districts being invalidated, have offered their version of how the lines should be redrawn. Plan is embodied in a bill sponsored by Rep. Frank Cahoon of Midland, only Republican in the 59th Legislature.

The GOP product satisfies many objections raised to others introduced so far, since it disturbs fewer incumbents than any plan to date.

Only U. S. Reps. Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls and Omar Burleson of Anson would be facing each other as opponents in a newly-created Congressional District 13, and U. S. Reps. John Dowdy of Athens and Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater, in a newly-defined District 3.

Three new districts would be developed: A District 23, loan companies appeared to giving Harris County a third oppose the bill. A citizens committee from Dallas and Bexar County and a group of South Texas counties and other representative; and District 7, giving Dallas County a second congressman. U. S. Rep. Joe Pool, who lives in District 7, but now is elected statewide, could thus retain a seat.

Land Program Renewal Proposed

Voters will get another chance to say whether they want to continue the veterans land program under which thousands of Texas veterans have purchased farm property at low interest.

A proposed constitutional amendment to extend the program — first amendment cleared this session — was approved by the Senate and sent to the governor. Amendment will be voted on in November. Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham and Sen. Criss Cole of Houston are the sponsors.

Small Loan Hearing

A housewife from Dallas told members of the House Committee on Banks and Banking that a $50 loan, which she later decided she did not need in the first place, cost her $1,500 over a three-year period by the time she went through renewals and additional loans to meet high interest rates.

She testified in a hearing on a bill by Rep. D. Reed Quilliam jr. of Lubbock, which would reduce interest rates on loans $100 or less by one-half to two-thirds.

An association of small

Interest Bill Up Again

Rep. James Nugent of Kerrville has re-introduced the amendment to the state conflict of interest statute which failed to pass during the last session.

Among the changes is addition of a section which would prohibit any member of the Legislature from introducing or causing to be introduced legislation which would directly affect any client or employer from whom the legislator received a retainer fee or any other financial consideration during his term in the Legislature.

Horses Stalled

Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio was left at the post again in his latest try to legalize race track betting on the horses.

Berry couldn't win for losing when he argued for a constitutional amendment to permit parimutuel wagering in Bexar, Dallas, Tarrant, Harris, Galveston, Hidalgo, Cameron, Midland and Webb counties on a local option basis.

The House Constitutional Amendments Committee tucked Berry's proposal away in sub-committee.

Frank Newsom, executive secretary of Texas Racing Association, said his group preferred a bill by Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville (sched-

License Plate Deadline Near

With the deadline for buying license plates for motor vehicles just 10 days away, there are still many vehicles to be registered.

Tax Collector J. B. Cooke says the rush is picking up and will get worse as the deadline draws nearer.

When the tax office closed March 13, license had been sold for only 1660 vehicles. There were 4,422 vehicles registered here last year by April 1.

Hansford County tax officials collected $146,900 from vehicle registration during 1964, Cooke said. Of this amount, $98,069 stayed in the county and $48,831 went to the state.

used for House State Affairs Committee hearing on March 29). That bill would permit parimutuel betting at licensed tracks in all counties, subject to local option elections.

During the 1660s, Valentines were accepted as serious matrimonial proposals. The verses they contained were sentimental and the cards were handmade, handwritten and delivered by hand.

Visitors to the great mosque in Washington, are puzzled by the fact that its mihrab or prayer niche seems to point northeast and not towards Mecca. In scientifically orienting the mihrab toward the Moslem holy city, however, builders used the shortest distance between Washington and Mecca — The Great Circle Route.

Food Takes Smaller Share Of Budget

COLLEGE STATION — Food is taking a smaller proportion of the family budget than ever, reminds Mrs. Wanda Barkley, Texas A&M Extension home management specialist.

A new U. S. Department of Agriculture report shows that food and beverages accounted for 31 per cent of family living expenses in 1941—but only 26 per cent in 1961.

"This is a 5 per cent decrease in the past two decades," Mrs. Meyer says.

Family economists attribute it to many things—the increase of incomes in the United States, smaller increases in food prices compared with other living expenses, and to somewhat smaller-sized average families.

The reduction in the amount spent for food has put housing at the top of the budget for the first time. Housing accounted for 29 per cent of all living expenses in 1961. This is up 1 per cent from 1941.

Other shifts in the family budget during the 20-year period include a decrease in spending for clothing, from 12 to 10 per cent; an increase in transportation, from 12 up to 15 per cent; and an increase in medical care, from 5 to 7 percent. These figures, including the Imports have long been a source of bitter controversy in our country. Throughout our history we have generally found goods, wares, and products available from foreign sources at a price cheaper than prevailed in this country. This is so primarily because of the high standard of living that we in this country have built up under our philosophy of government. This standard of living is not confined to one group or one segment of our economy. It is available to all, regardless of the economic strata in which they find themselves, as compared to counterparts in all other countries of the world. Our particular 18th Congressional District of Texas is directly affected by this import problem in oil, in cattle, and in sugar. All of these are national problems of great consequence, but are of particular interest to our Panhandle because any adverse action relating to any of these products is immediately felt in our local economy.

The oil import problem is presently under study by the Department of the Interior. A sweeping review of U. S. policies under the "Mandatory Oil Import Control Program", now in its sixth year, is underway at the present time. Hearings last week in the Department of Interior auditorium brought more than 130 witnesses, including State governors (Governor Connally appeared not only as Texas' governor but also as Chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission). Our own Panhandle was represented by R. P. Herrmann and Don Watson, who appeared on behalf of the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners Association. The appearance of government officials, organization officials, spokesmen for oil industry associations, executives of oil companies, leaders in associated segments of the oil industry such as labor organizations, business groups, etc., helps measurably.

The inquiry seeks to determine whether the program is meeting its objectives. It was originally designed to maintain strength in the domestic oil industry by keeping imports in satisfactory proportion to domestic petroleum production. Everyone recognizes that the national security requirements of our nation demand a strong and vigorous domestic oil industry. Such an industry cannot be maintained unless incentive is present for our own citizens to be willing to risk their money in further exploration and development of oil and gas deposits in our nation. The number of exploratory wells has been falling far below prior years. Domestic production has not been increasing at a pace equal to demand. Adequate reserves are not being located. Operation of drilling rigs dropped sharply. When these things happen, all associated businesses in and around oil development areas suffer, whether they be the corner hamburger stand, the doctor's office, or the department store. Many U. S. oil experts feel that the Mandatory Oil Import Control Program has not gone far enough to bring imports into proper balance with domestic production. Many of the independents in our area have most impressive statistics to prove their position in support of curtailment of imports. Unless this problem can be worked out within the Department of the Interior, it can be expected that import control legislation will be sought.

The oil import problem is only one facet of the larger problem of imports generally. In the past it has been the practice of those affected by imports to remain separate and apart from other segments of the economy and to try to press for action on their own separable problem. This meant that there was no coordination between the domestic producers of cattle with the domestic manufacturers of pottery or bicycles or clothespins or steel, or the farmers trying to produce sugar, to name only a few of the groups that find imports a constant threat. The percentage of imports varies with the different products, even as regards those products in which this country could be wholly self-sufficient. For instance, it would not be necessary for this country to import cattle, yet between 10 per cent and 15 per cent of the beef consumed in this country is imported. This country could produce all of its sugar and enough to export, yet it is importing from foreign countries approximately 43 per cent or almost half of our domestic consumption. One person admonished me for supporting a reduction in sugar imports. He told me that the foreign sugar could be acquired much cheaper than domestic sugar. My reply to him was that the same rule would apply to everything from oil to automobiles and from hairpins to cattle, which happened to be this fellow's business. I told him about a former Member of Congress who made a speech almost every day advocating "Buy American." Every afternoon this same Member would pass me on the way home, driving his Mercedes-Benz.
