

US Aid In Southern Half Of Korea Said Necessary

Acheson Says Russia Blocked Unification Plan

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP) — Undersecretary of State Acheson said today that the United States must invest funds to put Southern Korea on a sound economic basis because Russia has blocked any agreement for a unified government of that country.

Acheson mentioned this prospect when testifying before the Senate foreign relations committee in support of President Truman's plan to bulwark Greece and Turkey against communism.

He did not say how much the Korean project may cost, but said the war, state and navy departments are considering it.

Soviet troops occupy the northern half of the country, which contains most of Korea's natural resources, Acheson said. He added that it would be a "struggle" to put the southern part of the country, now occupied by American troops, on its economic feet.

"We have attempted for more than a year to reach an agreement with Soviet Russia for a unified government of the country but have not been able to do so," Acheson commented. "Failure presents a very serious problem."

He said it was "not at all clear" how much money would be needed but he promised that when the state, war and navy departments completed an estimate of the situation, Congress will be asked to pass on any expenditures to be made.

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) asked if this parallel the same sort of aid the President proposed to extend to Greece and Turkey.

Acheson said the situations are not exactly parallel.

President To Meet With The 'Big Six'

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP) — President Truman will meet with the bi-partisan congressional "Big Six" in an unprecedented night meeting at the White House tonight.

The meeting to be held in the residential part of the executive mansion, is set for 7 p.m. (CST). The White House did not disclose the reasons for the conference.

The "Big Six" is made up of four Republicans and two Democrats, as follows: Senator Vandenberg (Mich.), President pro tempore of the Senate; Senate Majority Leader White (Maine); House Speaker Martin (Mass.); House Majority Leader Halleck (Ind.); Senate Minority Leader Barkley (Ky.), and House Minority Leader Rayburn (Tex.).

London Subways Stopped By Flood

LONDON, Mar. 24. (AP) — Forty miles of London subways went dead today in a chaotic aftermath of flood conditions on the Thames, vastly complicating traffic at the morning rush hour in the world's largest city.

The London passenger board said debris from the Thames clogged filters which clean the river water in cooling the subway's largest power plant, causing its shutdown. Earlier, floodwaters were reported to have seeped into the power station.

AUSTIN, March 24. (AP) — The 50th legislature adjourned today in honor of the late Sen. Lucy Stewart of Houston, who died Saturday.

Shooting, Fires, Crashes Claim 10 Lives During Texas Weekend

At least ten persons died of violence in Texas over the weekend. Four persons were killed in automobile accidents, two died after plane crashes, two of burns and one of shooting. A four-year-old girl fell to her death.

At Dallas yesterday Sheriff's deputies said four bullets from a .38 caliber revolver killed Ira Franklin Siddall, 42, a taxicab driver, on the front porch of a small frame house.

Two Federal Agencies Battling For Existence

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP) — Both the National Labor Relations Board and the Conciliation Service faced battles for their very existence today as the House took up the $1,685,586,780 Labor Department-Federal Security Agency appropriation bill.

With two days of debate on top two amendments were in the offing.

One, Democratic-backed, would restore conciliation service cuts. The other, Republican-proposed, would abolish the NLRB outright. Neither may be voted on until tomorrow, however.

Rep. Gore (D-Tenn.), told newsmen the Democratic amendment will be offered to offset the action of the Republican-controlled appropriations committee abolishing the job of director of the conciliation service and approximately 100 other top spots under the director.

The committee struck at the conciliation service after criticizing Director Edgar L. Warren and asserting that "anyone whose background may be subject to question" should not be employed by the government.

Texas Crude Oil Proration Hiked

AUSTIN, Mar. 24. (AP) — An April proration order designed to fill an "all-time high demand" for Texas crude oil was issued today by the Texas Railroad Commission.

The order would permit production of 2,186,125 barrels of crude oil daily.

A total production of 2,374,500 barrels daily of all petroleum liquids, including distillates and natural gasoline, would be permitted under the April proration order.

"Luckily, by reason of Texas' legislation through the past 15 or 16 years, Texas can easily fill this all time high demand for crude oil," Chairman Ernest O. Thompson of the railroad commission said.

The net allowable for the West Texas district as of March 15, compared with April is 514,274, up 7,205.

Executions For Ritual Murder Are Delayed

LONDON, March 24. (AP) — The British colonial office said today the execution of five Africans for the ritual murder of a tribal chief had been stayed today for the sixth time.

The five men were scheduled to be hanged today at Accra for the "Ju Ju" (ritual) murder three years ago of Akrea Mensah, Okrodi of Apedwi, a native deputy chief.

HUSBANDS OBJECT

BOSTON, March 24. (AP) — Six Roxbury housewives were fined $10 each today in district court for playing poker on the Lord's Day. They were arrested in a police raid yesterday. The complainants — their husbands.

At least ten persons died of violence in Texas over the weekend. Four persons were killed in automobile accidents, two died after plane crashes, two of burns and one of shooting. A four-year-old girl fell to her death.

At Dallas yesterday Sheriff's deputies said four bullets from a .38 caliber revolver killed Ira Franklin Siddall, 42, a taxicab driver, on the front porch of a small frame house.

Orange Nylon Plant Stopped By Picket Line

Boilermakers Strike Idles Over 2,000; Negotiations Start

ORANGE, March 24. (AP) Construction at the huge De-pont nylon plant stopped again today when members of the Boilermakers District Local 50 (AFL) threw up picket lines which were honored by members of other unions.

Approximately 2,000 men were idle and milled in an orderly fashion at the gates of the plant waiting outcome of a meeting this morning between representatives of the Boilermakers Union, two building trades councils, the Sabine Area Council and officials of the International Office of Boilermakers.

Workers not members of the Boilermakers Union began dispersing about 9 a.m. and by 11 a. m. the plant area was virtually deserted except for pickets. No violence was reported.

The conference between management and union officials was continuing late this morning.

Two cars of highway patrolmen were on hand.

A member of the Sabine Area Building Trades Council predicted that the strike may be declared an outlaw strike and members of non-striking unions instructed to disregard pickets.

Boilermakers have been on strike for two weeks, asking an increase in wages from $1.75 to $2 an hour, but today was the first time they had picketed the plant.

Rubber Product Prices May Drop

CLEVELAND, March 24. (AP) — Prices of rubber products may be reduced as a result of the agreement between the CIO-United Rubber Workers and the "Big Four" rubber plants on an 11 1/2 cents hourly wage boost, but there was no indication today that the wage figure would set a pattern for other industries and create industrial peace in 1947.

In fact a leader of one powerful labor group declared flatly that settlement of the wage question in the rubber industry would "in no way affect" his union's demands for an industry-wide 23 1/2 cent boost over 900,000 members.

President Walter P. Reuther of the CIO United Auto Workers declared at Louisville that "a settlement of the rubber workers' issue does not change the economic facts connected with our demands."

Assistant C-C Manager Leaves

Cecil Edwards, who has been assistant manager of the Big Spring chamber of commerce for the past two and a half months, was to terminate his duties with the chamber this afternoon and leave for Dallas where he has accepted another position.

Edwards, who joined the local Chamber's staff on Jan. 6, will be associated with the Southwest regional public relations office of the US Steel Corp. in Dallas.

Mrs. Edwards and their young daughter left for Dallas last week for a visit with her parents there while her husband was completing his work with the chamber of commerce.

Cut In Occupation Forces Is Proposed

Longest Strike In Nation Ends After 328 Days

MILWAUKEE, March 24. (AP) — The longest major strike in the nation, UAW-CIO Local 248's bitter and spasmodically bloody struggle at the home plant of the Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co., ended without a settlement today as lines of production workers filed quietly into the vast works.

West Allis Police Capt. Harvey G. Dieckhoff said "here were no clashes between union men and employees who remained at work or returned to their jobs during the 328-day-old strike."

Members of Local 248 who filed into the 155-acre plant today began receiving an 18 1/2 cent per hour wage increase which non-strikers had been getting since last August. By company estimate the strike cost $85,000,000 in lost production and wages.

The strikers return without a contract. Only 1,500, by union count, voted in yesterday's ballot and union spokesmen said members favored returning by 3 to 1.

When the strike started last April 30 the union claimed 11,000 members. An independent union, formed while strike was in progress, however, mustered more than 4,000 votes at a Jan. 26 bargaining election.

Still unsettled were union demands for a 25 cent hourly wage hike, union shop and union control of grievance procedure.

The vote was followed by warlike statements in which both the company and union declared they would "continue the fight."

Robert Buse, union president, said "our fight must now be carried on inside the plant." He called the company "arrogant and despicable" and said the union would "never surrender."

(AP) — A new flight record from Los Angeles to Miami—seven hours and 14 minutes—was claimed today for a Pan American-Grace Airways Douglas D-C-6 sleeper plane which made the 2,400 mile non-stop trip yesterday. The plane averaged 332 miles an hour on the 2,400-mile flight. The old record was eight hours and five minutes, PAA said.

JUDGE ACQUITTED OF CONSPIRACY CHARGE IN HIS FORMER COURT

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 24. (AP) — Former US District Judge Albert W. Johnson was acquitted today on a conspiracy charge in the same court over which he presided for more than 20 years.

The jury of nine men and three women at the same time acquitted the judge's said, Capt. Albert W. Johnson, Jr., and convicted two other sons, Donald M., and Miller A. Johnson and John Memolo and Jacob Greenes, the latter two of Scranton, Pa.

Sentences of two years imprisonment and $10,000 fines were pronounced immediately upon the four convicted in the month long trial. That is the maximum penalty under the charge.

DISLOYALTY PURGE PLEASES CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP) — Congress took today to President Truman's order for a purge of disloyal federal employees like a duck taken to water.

While there was widespread comment on Capitol Hill that the order should have been issued long ago, congressional leaders lost no time in laying the foundation for whatever new legal backing may be necessary.

Rep. Rees (R-Kas), chairman of the House Civil Service Committee which has jurisdiction over government employees, said he would call the group into session quickly to determine whether legislation is needed to put teeth into the order.

Terming the president's weekend action "good as far as it goes," Rees said in a statement that it falls, however, to place firing responsibility directly on departmental and agency heads.

In directing the dismissal of all federal employes whenever "reasonable ground" exists to doubt their loyalty, Mr. Truman ordered the names of all workers to be checked against FBI records.

He also ordered a "master index" of all persons whose loyalty has been investigated since Sept. 1, 1939, and called for the compilation of a single list of all subversive organizations.

Revival Of German Industry Supported

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP) — Herbert Hoover found strong Republican and Democratic support in Congress today for his proposal to revive German industrial production minus its military potential.

Senators of both parties labeled as "fundamentally sound" the former president's suggestion to (A) free German industry of foreign ownership and operate it at home, subject to a control commission;

(B) halt the removal and destruction of all except arms plants and (C) retain the highly industrialized Ruhr and Rhineland within Germany.

Hoover declared in his third report to President Truman on his economic mission to Germany and Austria that production is "the only path to recovery in Europe." He called this "the first necessity to peace."

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic whip, told a reporter that "the Hoover approach to a very difficult problem seems to me to be fundamentally sound."

"Germany must be given an opportunity to recover economically without permitting her great industries to make war implements," the Illinois senator said "the recovery of Germany is the key to the whole European situation."

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), a World War II veteran, said he thinks Hoover hit the nail on the head.

"The whole handling of Germany has been based too much on vengeance rather than the application of common sense," he said. "If we adopt his plan it may indicate we have learned the inescapable fact that we can't have vengeance and peace. We've got to choose one or the other."

Hoover said his program would ease the relief burden of American taxpayers, adding that "we desperately need recovery in all of Europe."

FBI Jails Movie Mystery Writer

LOS ANGELES, March 24. (AP) — The FBI disclosed the arrest today of Ernest G. Booth, 48, on a robbery charge, identifying him as a mystery story writer who wrote the movie script for "Ladies of the Big House."

Booth was taken in custody last night as he left a Hollywood restaurant with his wife—Special Agent R. B. Hood, in charge of the local office, announced—on an indictment last July charging concealment of securities valued at nearly $250,000, stolen in a burglary in Seattle early in 1943.

Reduction Said Necessary To German Economy

Only Minimum Of Troops For Security Asked

MOSCOW, March 24. (AP) — An authoritative source disclosed tonight that Secretary Marshall had proposed that the council of foreign ministers in effect order a reduction of allied occupation forces in Germany to the minimum necessary to carry out allied policies and protect security.

The proposal was made in a paper circulated among V. M. Molotov, Ernest Bevin and Georges Bidault, the Russian, British and French foreign ministers, it was learned.

Under the proposal, the Allied control council for Germany would be directed to report by next June 1 what forces it considered necessary for each of the four zones on July 1 and give a similar estimate for July 1, 1948.

The paper on occupation forces was one of three passed around by the American delegation to the other foreign ministers.

The other papers covered proposals for German democratization and on compensation for Allied nationals whose property had been removed from Germany for reparations or war booty.

In the occupation paper, Marshall asked the council of foreign ministers — which was in recess today — to declare that a reduction of forces and occupation costs is necessary to make the German economy self-supporting as soon as possible, and to help expedite German production for export.

The Soviet Union on the one hand and the United States and Britain on the other charted maneuvers aimed at achieving the kind of government under peace-treaty provisions that each side seemed to believe would be most favorable to its own political system.

Proposals of all four powers on this issue had laid before the council in varying detail Saturday night when it quit work till tomorrow to give the foreign ministers' deputies time to summarize the results of deliberations now two weeks old.

Gen. Wainwright Pleads For Jews

SAN ANTONIO, March 24. (AP) — Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright yesterday urged that "American humanitarian principles" be applied in leading the destitute Jews of Europe "out of their hopeless surroundings." He spoke at the Southwest Regional conference of the United Jewish appeal drive to raise $170,000,000 for rebuilding shattered Jewish life abroad.

More than 600 delegates from Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas attended the conference, which adopted a minimum goal of $5,000,000 as its share of the drive.

Sen. Owen R. Brewster, of Maine, called on the British to "make an end to a grievous mistake and embark on an enlightened policy of facilitating the establishment of the Jewish state" so that Europe's Jewish survivors could find new lives of hope and freedom.

Suspected Russ Agent Is Cited

WASHINGTON, Mar. 24. (AP) — The House un-American Activities committee today unanimously cited Leon Josephson of New York for contempt. He has refused to testify to a subcommittee.

Josephson was described in testimony to the committee Friday as a member of the Russian secret police and a figure in a passport forging ring in America.

The subcommittee, which held hearing in New York, sought to question him about false passports. The contempt citation will be sent to the entire house. If it approves, the citation then will be turned over to a United States district attorney to present to a grand jury. Conviction of contempt of the house is punishable by up to $1,000 fine and a year in jail.

Josephson said in an interview in Dayton, Ohio, Saturday that he once signed a passport as an identifying witness for Gerhart Eisler. The committee has called Eisler the "supreme" communist authority in the United States.

New Brooder Raises Chicks At Fuel Cost Of Only Half Cent

It costs only about one-half cent for fuel to raise a baby chick to virtual broiler size in the new A. R. Wood radiant type brooders now available at S. M. Smith Butane, Lamesa highway.

The new feature of utilizing the highly efficient radiant principle makes the type of brooder one of the most effective and economical known. This, together with its dependability, makes it one of the most popular brooders available to day.

Under the most rigorous circumstances, a 500-chick A. R. Wood radiant brooder requires only about half a gallon of butane per day for operation. In climate such as prevails here, the demand actually would be somewhat less. In other words, it would cost a maximum of five cents per day for 500 chicks.

Records have shown that it requires only half a gallon per day for 56 days of brooding, which figures out little better than half a cent per chick for the entire period.

The flexibility of this brooder makes it much in demand, for it makes no difference if butane connections are immediately available. Because it operates on such a small amount of fuel, a cylinder of butane may be utilized, eliminating any expensive connections. There is no mess or constant refilling, wicks or rampant and smoking burners, no danger of power failures—none of the possibilities of overheating or chilling delicate chicks.

Every poultryman knows that even, correct temperature is doubly vital to chicks just getting start-

Protect Building Investments With Sound Insurance, Advises Reeder

Roy Reeder, owner and manager of the Reeder Insurance Agency, has extended an invitation to prospective home builders to see his firm when seeking financial assistance.

"There is a great number of people building new homes at the present time," Reeder states, "and our agency not only insures these, but furnishes money for building loans."

GI loans are possible at the agency as well as loans through the Federal Housing Administration.

For the buyers of new automobiles, coming off the assembly line more rapidly now, Reeder was facilities for financing and insuring the new models. The transaction is handled locally, thus keeping the transaction strictly "Texas."

The agency represents the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance company, writing all types of life insurance. In the casualty line they also write bonds, compensation and burglary insurance.

Only recently Reeder clients realized the benefits of a new Aero-Insurance carried by the office, when their planes were destroyed by fire.

Discussing fire insurance with customers, Reeder points out that the value of household furnishings and property is much higher than it was originally, and that home owners should take this into consideration when itemizing their belongings for insurance. "Too often the policy holder makes a rough guess as to what his property is valued at and later learns a bitter lesson when he attempts to replace lost property," Reeder says.

"Insurance with service," is the motto of the office which is conveniently located in the busy downtown section at 304 Scurry, across from the courthouse.

Revolutionary Tube Sold By Phillips

New Air Guard inner tubes now being featured at the Phillips Tire Co., 211 East Third street, offer motorists increased advantages in puncture-type tubes, Ted Phillips, manager of the company, announced today.

The Air Guard provides a complete puncture-proof protection, yet the tube is of light enough construction to curtail wear on tires, Phillips declared. When nails or other foreign objects enter the tube, the rubber crowds around the objects, making it impossible for the air to escape. A motorist may drive for hundreds of miles over a period of several days without losing air pressure in a punctured tire when equipped with the Air Guard. The US Rubber Co., manufacturer of the Air Guard, has developed the new tube as an extremely light-weight unit which retains unsurpassed durability. This has eliminated the wear on tires often associated with puncture proof tubes.

Phillips has a sizeable stock of the new Air Guards ready for delivery, and they already have gained popularity with motorists in this area.

A good supply of virtually all sizes of automobile and truck tires also is available now at the Phillips Tire Co., and the firm is especially prepared to take care of the tire needs of tractor owners. Phillips said automobile, truck and tractor tires can be obtained in quantity on a near regular schedule now.

Seat covers and other automobile accessories continue as popular items at the Phillips Tire Co. The firm is prepared to effect installation of attractive new seat covers for most makes and models of automobiles.

A new spring item that is expected to be in demand is garden hose. Phillips has one of the best stocks of hose in this area, all manufactured of quality material. Also, a complete tire recapping and general tire repair service still is maintained by Phillips.

WITHOUT POT WATCHING.

West Bend DeLuxe ware cooks vegetables and other foods in their own natural juices, with little or no added water, thereby retaining more of the garden freshness, delicious flavor, and natural color so often lost in ordinary cooking methods. Even simple foods become more appetizing and healthful — vegetables retain a greater portion of the original vitamins and minerals.

WILL SERVE 90% OF YOUR COOKING NEEDS
2 Quart Sauce Pan — For preparing soups, vegetables, cereals, baby foods, puddings, frostings, turnovers, and sauces. Because of the triple-thick aluminum, delicate foods can be cooked without washing or stirring.

Dutch Oven Roast with High Cover — Prepares tender, juicy roasts with potatoes and carrots — a delicious combination meal cooked without water over low heat. High cover (which is interchangeable with skillet cover) adds capacity for large roasts, chickens, corn on the cob, ham and other bulky foods.

3 Quart Sauce Pan — For the larger vegetables such as whole carrots, beans, cauliflower, cabbage, spinach and asparagus. Also ideal for rice, spaghetti, and frozen vegetables. Recommended by food and health authorities.

Covered Skillet — This skillet will do less usual cooking tricks — pan fry delicious meats and chops without grease — prepare griddle cakes without fat (no smoke in the kitchen) — butter-cook eggs to a queen's taste "after the heat is turned off" — and fry chickens as they have never been fried before.

FLAYO-SEAL COVER
This very important feature seals in the flavor and natural moisture. Operation is so simple that even a child can use it. Highly resistant to heat, acids, and alkalis. Only low heat is required to maintain proper cooking temperature.

Since flower novelties are constantly gaining in favor, florists are planning things special for Easter. If it's the military touch you want for the Easter costume, have your florist create an epaulet corsage as shown above. This example was designed out of shattered carnations (shattered to release the full beauty of each petal and its delicately pinked edge), adding a simple white satin bow. The arrangement of well loved Easter flowers at left, contains three surprise violet corsages that can be removed individually and worn as desired, with Easter lilies, long stemmed with roses and white tulips.

Missing Plane In Newfoundland Being Sought

NEW YORK, March 24. (AP) — A missing Army transport plane with nine persons aboard was being searched for in Newfoundland today, the Air Transport Command announced.

The Air Forces plane, a C-54 Skymaster, was en route from Westover Field, Massachusetts, to Harmon Field, Stephenville, Nfld.

At 2:30 p.m. yesterday, the pilot reported Harmon Field that he was flying at 2,200 feet and was ready to come in for a landing. Nothing further was heard, and the plane never arrived, although weather conditions were good.

The Royal Canadian Air Force Air Command at Halifax, N. S., said four planes searched the heavily-wooded area about Harmon Field, on the southwest coast of Newfoundland, late yesterday but had not located the missing plane when night fell.

Based at Warner Robins Field, Macon, Ga., the plane was to have continued from Harmon Field to Germany for an inspection trip. It left Westover Field at 10:40 a.m. (CST) yesterday, carrying five crew members, four passengers and cargo. Names of the crew members and passengers were not available immediately.

Consideration Of A Grave Problem

Congress is giving studied consideration to the President's message requesting financial aid for Greece and Turkey. There seems to be no indication of blanket and spontaneous approval of the request, which is entirely proper. However, most observers feel that there will be ultimate sanction of the move.

After all, it is a grave decision with far-reaching implications. Admittedly, it represents the avowal of a policy of assuming leadership for democratic processes throughout the world and the corollary resistance to unrestrained infiltration of communism.

On one side, the issue is raised whether it is right to tax citizens of the United States for such activity, which may well not be confined to Turkey and Greece, but which might easily be extended to other points in the world. It also is argued that it by-passes the United Nations. Moreover, many see in it an open invitation to war with Russia.

Against this, it is argued that as the most powerful nation in the world, we have assumed leadership of Western civilization and the responsibility of preventing encroachment upon it accrues to us. As for by-passing the UN, truth of the allegation has the extenuating circumstance of not one single police officer existing today in the UN, chiefly due to Russia's tactics of objection. As for the possibility of the policy producing war, there is as much to say for the prospect of peace as of war.

Finally, whether it is right to tax Americans for such undertakings may be open to debate. It can be said only in rebuttal that it may be a hard choice. Totalitarianism, left uncombated and unbridled, inevitably leads to war. Investments now might be far less costly in money (not to consider human life) than those necessary for war later on.

Meanwhile, every effort should be made to compose difficulties within the UN and to give it force and power that henceforth most such problems can be handled not as an American but as an UN venture.

Reporting May Be Safety Source

In general, we believe that the people of Big Spring are driving more sanely than in some times past. Of course, there are exceptions—dangerous exceptions.

It is contrary to the thinking of most people, but the average individual can be of great help in extending this safe practice by reporting reckless and dangerous driving to the police. Such action is not merely being "tattle tale"; it is perhaps safety insurance for you and yours.

Perhaps you may consider it no concern of yours if a car speeds and swerves precariously down streets. But suppose that car or some other speeder or wild driver plowed into a car driven by your wife; or suppose they caught your youngsters at a crossing.

Wild drivers aren't endangering the police. They are endangering you and your family. So take it upon yourself to get numbers and report them when you can. That's one practical way to help bring the unthinking into line.

Talk Of Income Tax Cut Is Talk

WASHINGTON. (AP) — Don't get excited yet: So far Congress hasn't cut your 1947 income tax. Maybe you'll wind up without a cut.

This isn't meant to gloom anyone who thinks his taxes are a cinch to go down this year. Just wait and see.

Until now you've heard mostly talk. The real action lies ahead. And there'll be more talk.

Neither house nor Senate has voted any tax cut yet. Before they do, there'll be a sturdy fight between Democrats and Republicans.

The reason for the fight will be explained later. The Democrats and Republicans are standing pretty solidly, one against the other.

In both houses the Republicans have a majority of the votes. But keep in mind a majority, not two-thirds, of the votes.

Because they have a majority, the Republicans should be able to shove through both houses a bill to cut taxes.

Then, in order to become law, that bill will have to go to President Truman for his signature.

Since he's leader of the Democrats, and the Democrats are against a tax cut, Mr. Truman may try to kill such a bill by vetoing it.

A veto would kill it unless the House and Senate, by a two-thirds vote, were able to pass it over the veto.

A bunch of Democrats then would have to join the Republican, who have only a majority, to make up the two-thirds vote.

So, a tax-cut bill passed by Congress may wind up in the ash can.

Friday the House Ways and Means Committee, dominated by Republicans, okayed a bill to cut taxes 30 per cent for small taxpayers, 20 per cent for most others.

The full House is expected to vote on it and the Republicans are confident they can ram it through.

One very good reason for the Republican desire to cut taxes is this:

In the campaign before last fall's elections, which put them in control of Congress, the Republicans said they'd cut taxes if they won.

The Democrats are arguing this way against cutting taxes now:

1. With our international problems up in the air, the government doesn't know how much money it may need this year.

2. After government expenses are paid, any money left over from taxes should be used to pay off some of the national debt.

That public debt of about $280,000,000,000 is the money the government has borrowed to keep running, especially during the war.

Affairs Of The World—DeWitt MacKenzie

Acheson Gives Straight Answers

Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson has given us straight-from-the-shoulder answers to the two most important questions arising from President Truman's policy of giving Greece and Turkey help to resist communist aggression: (1) what business is it of Uncle Sam, and (2) if he does intervene will it precipitate war?

Acheson told the foreign affairs committee of the House of Representatives that a communist-dominated government in Greece would be considered dangerous to this country's security. Asked if a communist-dominated government in China also would be dangerous, he replied that "I think we should not look with favor upon that."

Acheson commented that "communist organizations throughout the world appear to act with a high degree of discipline and unanimity which is beyond the probability of coincidence," and as to war: "I don't think it could lead to war. By strengthening the forces of democracy and freedom you do a great deal to eliminate the friction between great powers."

That leaves it to us to fill in some details. We don't need to dwell on the danger from communist-dominated governments. As pointed out in previous columns the danger can be two-edged — it's political in all cases, and military where strategically located countries are involved. In this latter category, of course, fall Greece, Turkey and China. However, the question of whether intervention could cause war is worth further consideration.

First off, there's small danger of it precipitating war in anything like the near future for the logical reason that there's no country in the world set for immediate action. And so far as concerns the more distant future, Russia is so weakened by the late conflict that it will be years before she is in position to wage a major aggressive war.

However, while the Soviet Union isn't prepared for aggression war, let alone overlook this probability: She could fight a defensive war indefinitely against all comers. Although she has suffered such terrible damage in the last war, potentially she is largely self-contained in all respects.

So nobody is likely to start a major war. As regards Greece and Turkey, while Russia certainly wants control of them, she isn't likely to fight over their matter.

On the other hand, if Russia is permitted to take over Greece and Turkey it will be strengthening a communist empire whose menace to democracy will be in direct ratio to its size and power.

Real Detective Unlike Film Version

HOLLYWOOD. (AP) — Raymond Schindler, the nation's most private detective, took a drink, peered through the cigaret smoke and said that crime movies have a bad effect on the country's youth.

You may have the wrong picture of this, if you are a fan of the current "private eye" films. Mr. Schindler looks more like the magazine illustrations of Scattered Good Baines than Humphrey Bogart or Dick Powell. Unlike his screen counterparts, he was not drinking straight shots, but a well-mixed highball. He was well-groomed and nattily dressed, not grizzled and unkempt. He was not accompanied by a Bacall-ish secretary and we were conversing in the Brown Derby, not a skid row dive.

After recovering from the disillusionment, I asked the sleuth if he thought the Hollywood trend to gangster and murder pictures had a bad effect on youth.

"I think there is no doubt about it," he answered. He didn't advocate abolition of such pictures, but he said they should be made to point a clearer moral.

"When a screen detective apprehends a criminal," he suggested, "he could point out the mistakes of the way of crime. I have often done that and have later even hired men that I have sent to prison."

He mentioned that "Boomer and" was an example of how a crime movie can be built along constructive lines. Also "Lady in the Lake," although he considered four corpses too many for one film.

Schindler expressed amusement at some of the didoes of his cinematic colleagues. "They always seem to encounter some romantic interest, and that is not quite accurate," he said. "Romance is involved in about one out of 20 cases."

"And another thing—they always seem to be getting into fights. I've been in this business many years and I haven't been in a fight yet."

Circus Gets Ready

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — A circus getting ready for its spring opening is about as glamorous as a middle aged chorus girl with her nose peeling from sunburn.

The ordeal of the road is as nothing to the ordeal of getting ready.

In their winter quarters on the edge of Sarasota performers of The Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey circus are rounding into shape for the season debut April 9th in Madison Square Garden.

Under the flapping canvas of the big tent, thick-caived young dancers in sloppy slacks rehearse.

Broad-backed horses trot in everlasting circles, lions shake their cages with coughing roars and thirty elephants dream of free peanuts.

Chorus lassies who never had their feet more than a high kick off the floor five weeks ago soar nimbly up the ropes to practice an aerial can-can which will give the fathers something to admire while the children are laughing at the clowns.

"It's a circus with its coat off now," said Jim Haley, its cigar-puffing president. John Ringling North, said that the 40 acts he had hired during his first post-war raid of European talent were all new to American audiences.

The circus will go north this year in a hundred gay red railroad cars carrying 1,400 workers, performers and people who pass out free tickets.

Gargantua, the Gorilla who looks like a gorilla, will have a little "tiny tot" competition from two baby jaguars and two newborn leopards. The jaguars are being nursed by a friendly housecat, the leopards by a dazed lady dog.

Vice President North is annoyed with the US Department of Agriculture which declined to let him bring in a Belgian pig act under Belgium's immigration quota.

"They have some kind of rule against admitting cloven-hoofed animals," he said, "but one of these pigs was wonderful. He could push bells with his snout and play 'Whose Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf.'"

"I'm still trying to get that pig in. We shouldn't ban educated animals like that from America."

GOP Trumping Democratic Bills

WASHINGTON.—Quite by accident Democratic Congressman Eddie Hebert, former news editor of the New Orleans States, stumbled on a new Republican policy the other day.

Hebert, who can't get out of the habit of being a newspaperman, got the first faint whiff of the new GOP policy when he introduced a bill making it a felony to bribe or attempt to bribe an athlete. His move, coming just after the bribery scandal involving New York football players, brought wide national acclaim, and while that acclaim was at its peak, Republican Congressman Leo Allen of Illinois strangely introduced an almost identical measure.

The Louisiana Democrat said nothing. But last week another peculiar incident happened.

Hebert, who has done a great job cleaning up jails and crime in the District of Columbia, introduced an alcoholics bill. The never-ending stream of drunks that crowd Washington, D. C., jails has been one of the capital's worst problems, and Hebert's bill set up machinery whereby alcoholism was to be treated not as a crime but as a disease. He proposed alcohol clinics to be paid for by the liquor interests.

The Hebert bill attracted immediate national attention. Psychiatrists, crime experts, even prohibitionists, hailed it as a solution to one of the country's great problems.

MacARTHUR'S OLD FRIEND Whereupon, Republican Congressman Arthur Miller of Kimball, Neb., suddenly introduced an identical alcoholics bill of his own. Merely lifting the language of Congressman Hebert, he put his own name at the top. Miller is the Nebraska Congressman who made headlines during the war when he published General MacArthur's own letter about his political ambitions.

"Since then Miller lapsed back into obscurity until he turned up in the new Congress as chairman of a sub-committee on the District of Columbia.

And as sub-committee chairman, he announced that from now on the Hebert Alcoholics Bill would be known as the "Miller Bill."

Immediately a storm broke loose in the secret commission session which followed.

"I am rather embarrassed to bring this matter up," said Congressman Hebert. "I have no pride in the authorship. But I do have pride in sponsorship. I didn't know the chairman of the committee had reintroduced my bill until I read about it in the papers; which has caused me to wonder if he is fully acquainted with the procedure in committee in which an individual sponsors legislation."

"It is the right of the chairman of the majority party to introduce all good legislation," replied Rep. Miller.

"Not where an individual member sponsors legislation and where his own proposal is being carried out," insisted the gentleman from Louisiana.

NEW GOP POLICY "The leadership told me to introduce this bill in my name," finally admitted Miller. "I personally hesitated about doing it but I was told by the leadership to do it. We are the majority party and we are going to be responsible for all good legislation."

"Then am I to understand that a Democrat or a member of the present minority party has no right to introduce and sponsor progressive and constructive legislation in his own name?" asked Hebert.

"If it is a good bill we will reintroduce it in our name," replied Miller. "We are going to take the cream. You fellows have had your way long enough. You can take hold of stuff that is not good or inconsequential but when good legislation like this comes along, the leadership has decided that the majority party is going to sponsor it."

"In other words when a Democrat introduces a good bill, then it is going to be reintroduced by a Republican and the Republicans are going to take credit for it?" asked Hebert.

"That's right," replied Miller. "Then the present majority party is of the opinion that the minority party has no rights at all?" asked the Louisiana Congressman.

"I said I was instructed to introduce this bill in my own name," evaded Miller.

"That's all I want to know," retorted Hebert. "I guess I'm in the position of a fullback in a football game who has bucked the ball down the field for 99 years only to find the quarterback calling his own signal to take the ball over for the touchdown."

And thus was started the new policy of the 80th Congress.

TAKING HOLLYWOOD It hasn't been officially announced but the Treasury Department is all set to collect several million dollars from Hollywood stars and film executives who cleaned up huge sums by paying capital gains taxes rather than income taxes on picture profits.

What happened was that when income taxes roamed, the film people hit on the idea of organizing separate corporations for single pictures. Then after each film was produced they liquidated the corporations and paid a capital gains tax of 25 per cent instead of a personal income tax of 80 to 90 per cent.

One of the single-picture men was Producer Sam Goldwyn, who last fall learned that the Treasury intended to collect the difference between the income and the capital gains rates. Goldwyn announced that he would go into court to uphold his right to pay at the lower rate. Following this it looked like the Treasury had backed down.

However, the Treasury has now ironed out all the legal kinks and bills for back taxes are now going out from the Los Angeles office of the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

UNDER THE DOME Admiral Ernie King, retired commander of the fleet, is writing his memoirs under the title "From Argentina to Potsdam." Argentina was where the Atlantic Charter was written, off Newfoundland. Economy-minded Republicans might check into how much naval personnel the Admiral is using to help him author it. . . . President Truman chatting with Broadway Columnist Earl Wilson the other day, said, "When you get back to New York, be sure to give my regards to Toots Shor." New York's restauranteur Shor is Hannegan's close pal, and twice has been invited to the White House. . . . "Soldiers' Album," a great picture-record of the war, has just been published by Col. Ernest Dupuy, a European public relations officer. Co-author is Lt. Col. Herbert Breighton. . . . congratulations to General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and other motor companies for their gentlemen's agreement not to export cars even though the Office of Export Control is abolished. The motor companies will keep exports down to five per cent. However, this does not prevent private traders from buying up cars and shipping them to higher-priced overseas markets. . . . Assistant Secretary of State Benton, now beaming important propaganda broadcasts to Russia, might well use Irving Caesar's "Songs of Friendship" to woo the Russians. Broadway—Jack O'Brian

Play Losses Turned Into Scents

NEW YORK — Two years ago Herbert H. Harris, a millionaire perfume tycoon, had so much faith in a play by Arthur Miller that he backed it entirely on his own. It was called "The Man Who Had All the Luck," and had a run of four performances, and lost for Harris exactly $60,000.

That 60 G's dropping so swiftly down the Broadway drain did not deter Mr. H. from subsequent stage investments. In fact, it did not even discourage his faith in Playwright Arthur Miller.

This year when Miller had a play called "All My Sons" ready for production, H. H. H. took a gander and again opened his wallet wide, pouring $37,000 into the project, which hasn't yet been established as an out-and-out hit, but as usual time will have the last say.

HARRIS comes by his interest in the theater by his in-law relationship. He is the brother-in-law of the late Lew Fields, of Weber and Fields, and his first investments were in Lew's productions.

Years ago when Harris founded Chabert Perfumes, he carried into this sweet-smelling venture his love for the theater, and recently has been naming perfumes and cosmetic packages for various shows. Now on the market are items labeled "Call Me Mister," "Let's Face It," "Junior Miss," and "The French Touch." The latter incidentally was a comedy, so-called, written by Harris' nephew, Joseph Fields, and Jerome Chodorov, whose title meant a good deal more as a perfume promotion than it did as a play. Harris, who produced it, dropped a bundle on the project.

ANYWAY, Herbert feels he owes Joe Fields more than the simple debt of in-law relationship. Years ago Joe and Herbert were partners in the perfume distributing business.

They went to Paris, found a few odors they liked and set up the Chabert company. Once it was prancing along solvently, Joe Fields discovered the latent urge to write which is natural in his family — his brother and sister are Herbert and Dorothy Fields, who have written scores of successful musical comedies such as the incumbent "Annie Get Your Gun," "Up In Central Park," "Mexican Hayride."

So Joe started wandering about the Left Bank, looking longingly at typewriters, seeing heady vision of successful plays which brother-in-law Harris described but couldn't discourage. Finally Joe quit the perfume business, better judgment, and went at his literary preference with the sort of swift success Alger stories are made of. He wrote in quick succession "My Sister Eileen," "Junior Miss," "The Doughgirls" and other stage and screen hits which quickly put him back on a financial par with his in-law.

Abbott Contests Salt Lake Flash

Floyd Hansen, the Idaho hot potato who bellows like a bull when he gets his knuckles rapped by the arbiter or his feelings hurt by a hostile crowd, and Indiana Buck Lipscomb, the silent sam of the squared circle, have it in one of the main goes at Pat O'Dowdy's grapple club tonight.

The tag end of the double header pits Ace Abbott of Abilene against Ken Mayne, Salt Lake smoothie, in a bout that may seem sort of anti-climatic after the Hansen-Lipscomb rhubarb.

It's no secret that Hansen has never voted the Lipscomb ticket. He seemed to go out of his way to be unpleasant to Bucko while working the Indianan's bout with Abbott last week. Perhaps Lipscomb's attitude in the preceding debate, when the Hoosier officiated the Hansen-Lipscomb duel, had something to do with it.

To make extra certain that the house is kept in order, O'Dowdy is bringing in popular Dory Detton to serve as the contest's third man. Detton is perhaps the most popular grappler ever to appear here. He has built almost as solid a reputation as an arbiter. Tonight's struggle may tap all his tact and diplomacy, since the principals ordinarily respect no one, once they get engrossed in business.

Detton will also act as shoulder-tapper in the Mayne-Abbott debate, which is expected to be tame though interesting alongside the preliminary.

The stars in the final imbroglio rely more on science and ring craft than the rough stuff. Abbott was awarded the decision over Lipscomb last week after Bucko had all but put him on ice with a series of head blows. Mayne had earlier gained the nod over Hansen in much the same way. Kenny has had trouble in getting started here but undoubtedly owns the equipment and moxie to win.

O'Dowdy spins the crank to start the whole business around 8 o'clock.

HAUPERT LOST TO LAMESANS

LAMESA, Mar. 24. — Lamesa's hopes for a contender in the W-T-NM baseball league took a tumble here Saturday when it was learned that Jack Hauptert, ace right-handed hurler, cut off his right fore-finger at the second joint.

Hauptert racked up nine victories for the Lobos last year and was due to be top-drawer this year. The hurler's finger was severed by a buzz-saw. The Iowa had been working for a local contractor since January.

Jack Wilcox, veteran infielder, arrived in Lamesa to begin spring drills last weekend. Wilcox played both third base and short stop for the Lobos last year.

Manager George Sturdivant will begin spring training here Tuesday, April 1.

Steel Plant Set To Start In Month

WASHINGTON, March 24. (AP)—George H. Anderson, vice president of the Lone Star Steel Co., Dallas, said today work will start in about 30 days in the Daininger field steel plant.

Anderson, here to complete financial details for transfer of the property from the government, told a reporter operations will begin in about 30 days at the 78 coke ovens and in about 60 days at the blast furnace.

He said about 600 workers will be employed in the Oklahoma coal mines, which supply fuel for the plant, and about 600 at the blast furnace.

Theatre Planning Fiddlers' Contest

The Ritz theatre management has announced an added attraction in connection with the stage appearance Tuesday and Wednesday of Uncle Bob Helton and his Blue Ridge Mountain boys.

This will be a local old fiddlers' contest. Helton in his theatre tours has conducted many such contests, and wants to hear the old-timers around Big Spring do their stuff with the fiddle and the bow.

"Hoe-down" fiddlers in this section are requested to call the Ritz management, and sign up for participation in the contest. First and second prizes will be awarded.

The fiddlers' contest will be in connection with the 9 o'clock show on Wednesday night. Uncle Bob and his Blue Ridge boys will appear at all programs both Tuesday and Wednesday, in addition to the screen program which features "Beat the Band" with Frances Langford.

Looking 'Em Over

Leon Lepard, Big Spring's new track star, lost out in the 880-yard run at the Southwestern Recreation meet in Fort Worth last Saturday by just a stride! It was Leonard's second race against competition.

Lepard's conquerer was the long legged Bill Graf of Corpus Christi high school, who finished second in the state meet last year. Leonard climbed out of a sick bed here to make the trip to Fort Worth, then covered the 880 yards in something like 2:07.

If he trains properly, the good-looking junior may be able to beat anyone in the state of Texas. He's that good.

Lepard's team-mates, Ernie Ache and Donald Webb, might have made a better showing in the games had they not been sick all last week. Both were still weak when they took the field in Fort Worth.

Ernie can run the century in something like 10.1 or 10.2 seconds, will no doubt prove it later on when he hits the peak of condition.

Webb hasn't been able to approach the form he exhibited last year in the mile but is bound to improve. He's over-weight now, must work like a Trojan to get down to fighting trim by the time the area meet rolls around.

Best track prospect this reporter has looked at in a long while is R. C. Higgins, Jr., the Stanton junior speed merchant. Higgins won four firsts on a six-event program at the District 20B track meet here last Saturday, also was a part of the winning sprint relay team.

He'll be 14 years of age next Sept. 14, will no doubt be among the section's very best sprinters before he gets out of high school. The youngster's father is a farmer in the Flower Grove vicinity. The family moved to Martin county from El Paso about a year ago.

Friends of Faye Anderson say she deserves a lot of credit for making Betty Blissard the state's best high school girls basketball player.

Faye, a teacher at Lomax, worked with the Stanton whiz from the time she was a tiny tot, had her out on the court shooting basket every day. Incidentally, Betty first went to school at South Ward here.

Wayne DeVaney, Coahoma's sterling athlete, likely as not will wind up in Texas Tech next September. He's counting on coming out for athletics, despite the fact that he weighs but 125 pounds. The mighty mite, even though he is short of height, will surprise the railbirds. He has too much natural ability to be overlooked.

Johnny Hooper, who would rather complete his high school eligibility before trying pro baseball, picked up a few pointers recently at the Carisbad baseball school, run by Andy Cohen and others.

Johnny, a former Golden Gloves scrapper, says he found what was amiss with his hitting—he was dropping one hit lower than the other and, for that reason, one shoulder. He always could field with the best of them.

Phillips Clouts Oakland, 62-41

DENVER, March 24. (AP)—The Bartlesville, Okla., Oilers had possession of the National AAU basketball crown today, but for the Oklahomaans it was routine.

Bartlesville (Phillips 66) toppled the Oakland, Calif., (Bittners) 62-41, in the Saturday night finals of the AAU basketball tournament to win the championship for the fifth consecutive year.

MIAMI, Fla., March 24. (AP)—The Boston Red Sox make their last bus trip today, journeying to St. Petersburg for an exhibition tilt with the St. Louis Cardinals in a world series "reunion."

The game will test the condition of Dave "Boo" Ferriss, big righthander slated to start against the Cards.

The Sox camp was relieved to hear an X-ray of Second Baseman Bobby Doerr's left elbow revealed no serious injury. Doerr was hit by Cincinnati Pitcher Eddie Erhardt two days ago.

LAKELAND, Fla., March 24. (AP)—The Detroit Tigers unhappily counted up their eighth defeat in 12 spring exhibition games—four in a row—after a 7-6 loss to the Washington Senators yesterday.

MIAMI, Fla., March 24. (AP)—The Boston Braves go to West Palm Beach today to meet the Philadelphia Athletics. Mort Cooper and Lefty Warren Spahn are nominated for Beantown hill duty.

Ghezzi Sacks $2,000 Prize

GREENSBORO, N.C., Mar. 24. (AP)—Vic Ghezzi, more or less in the background since his losing part in the three-way national open playoff last year in which he and Bryon Nelson eventually were beaten by Lloyd Mangrum, was again a big winner as golf's winter tour neared the last lap today.

With the caravan moving to Charlotte for the $10,000 open starting Thursday, Ghezzi pocketed $2,000 top money for his winning 286 in the $10,000 Greensboro open here yesterday.

The score, highest since Ben Hogan's 289 at Richmond, Va., in the fall of 1945, was two over par for the 6,700-yard Starmount country club course.

Walker Cupper Stranahan, who soared to 75 and 73, finished second with 288 and had the distinction of shooting the tournament's lowest round — a second day 67.

Cincy's Hopes Improve With Miller's Return

Infielder May Change Toggery

TAMPA, Fla., March 24. (AP)—The search by the Chicago Cubs or the Philadelphia Phillies for a shortstop may be over now that Eddie Miller has rejoined the Cincinnati Reds.

An outstanding shortstop since 1939 Miller previously had announced his retirement from the game after an arm injury hampered his playing last season.

Yesterday, however, the 30-year-old veteran advised the Red management that he had changed his mind and would like to rejoin the club.

President Warren Giles of the Reds has hinted that Miller would be traded to the highest bidder and both the Cubs and the Phillies had previously been reported to be interested in acquiring the brilliant infielder.

The Reds have two rookies and two holdovers battling for their shortstop berth and probably would ask for a hard-hitting left fielder as part of a deal that would send Miller to another club. Left field has been the Rhinelanders' sore spot for a long time.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 24. (AP)—The Big Three of the St. Louis Cardinal mound staff, each taking a three-inning turn in their first competitive pitching since the 1946 World Series, reassured their teammates yesterday by shutting out the New York Yankees, 3-0 on a total of only four hits.

Harry Brecheen yielded two hits and two walks and had two strikeouts. Murry Dickson permitted one hit, no passes and had two strikeouts. Howie Pollet gave up one hit, one walk and struck out three.

MIAMI, Fla., March 24. (AP)—General Manager Bill DeWitt says crowds attending the exhibitions at the St. Louis Browns' training base have not been up to expectations while costs have been high and that the club will have to pay out about $30,000 more than it takes in.

He described as premature, however, a story in a local newspaper saying the Browns probably will not return to Miami next year.

OAKLAND, Calif., March 24. (AP)—Bill Nicholson, the Chicago Cubs revived outfielder, nursed a pulled leg muscle today but he wasn't expected to be sidelined long. He retired for a pinch runner in the seventh inning of the Cubs' game with Oakland yesterday after pulling a leg muscle while on the baseline.

Nicholson's return to form is the most discussed event among the Cubs. He cracked out his fourth homer of the exhibition season yesterday and his second in two days. He also added a double and drove in four runs in all as the Cubs beat the Oaks, 11-2.

MIAMI, Fla., March 24. (AP)—The Boston Red Sox make their last bus trip today, journeying to St. Petersburg for an exhibition tilt with the St. Louis Cardinals in a world series "reunion."

The game will test the condition of Dave "Boo" Ferriss, big righthander slated to start against the Cards.

Texas To Play SMU Thursday

By The Associated Press
The Southwest Conference baseball race opens this week with six games, Champion Texas and Southern Methodist appearing in the first in a class hat Dallas Thursday.

The best-balanced diamond campaign in years is indicated from the practice grind which saw every member defeated.

Texas lost its first game to Brooke Army Medical Center at San Antonio Saturday, the Army men winning 5-3. The Longhorns had trimmed Brooke 10-3 the day before.

Ohio State came to Texas and played series with Southern Methodist and Texas Christian, winning two out of three from the Methodists and likewise with TCU.

Texas A&M and Baylor both beat Brooke Medical Center during the week, the Aggies by 6-3 and Baylor by 4-2. This gave A&M two out of three from Brooke and Baylor the same. The Aggies also split a series with Hardin-Simmons during the week while Baylor trounced the East End Merchants of Waco 9-0. Rice swung into action Friday and Saturday, trimming Hughes Tool of Houston 7-2 but losing to the Baytown Oilers 6-4 while Southern Methodist beat Bianchi Service Station of Dallas 10-2.

The standings:

Texas A&M 2 1 41 17 .877

TEXAS WINS 440 YARD RELAY—Charlie Parker, University of Texas sprint star (center), is shown anchoring his school's 440 yard relay team to a win in the Southwestern Recreation Track and Field Meet in Fort Worth, Tex., in the time of 42.8. Bill Marlin of Texas A&M (left) comes in third. The Texas team was composed of Parker, Byron Gillory, Perry Samuels and Pyle. (AP Photo).

Sooners Tangle With Crusaders Tuesday Night

KANSAS CITY, March 24. (AP)—The University of Oklahoma Sooners will be after the West's sixth straight NCAA basketball crown when they tangle with Holy Cross, the Eastern champion, in New York's Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

The Sooners came up with one of their greatest games of the year in beating a fine University of Texas Longhorn team, 55 to 54, in a frenzied finish Saturday night in the Western NCAA playoff finals.

A long jump shot by Kenneth Pryor, who played less than two minutes, gave Oklahoma the title with ten seconds remaining.

A Sooner victory in New York would mean three successive national titles for teams from the state of Oklahoma. The Oklahoma A&M Aggies have won the last two championships.

Oregon State's Beavers, who lost in the opening round to Oklahoma, trounced the University of Wyoming Cowboys 63 to 46 in a consolation contest.

Oklahoma caught up with the Texans three minutes after the start of the second half and at one point in the period had the favorites down by 9 points. A late Texas rally closed the gap and it appeared that the Southwest Conference champions would make good on their third attempt for a Western Regional championship. Then Pryor made his winning shot after a pass from Gerald Tucker, Oklahoma's 6-foot 4-inch center.

Legion Mainstays Report For Drills

Seven of the nine regulars who were a part of the American Legion lineup last year will probably bid for positions on Big Spring girls' softball team this season.

Several of the fens parleyed Sunday afternoon at the city park and will meet again in the near future to weld final plans for the aggregation, which will be sponsored by several local merchants.

Of the lineup which played regularly last year for the Legion, only Mary Fields and Dean Baldock will not be available. The former has moved to Breckenridge while Dean says she has wound up her career.

Inner-Aid Medicine Real Relief For Gas, Constipation

One man recently took INNER-AID three days and said afterward that he never would have believed his body contained so much waste substance. He says his stomach, intestines, bowels and whole system were so thoroughly cleansed that his constant headaches came to an end, several pimply skin eruptions on his face dried up overnight, and even the rheumatic pains in his knee disappeared. At present he is an altogether different man, feeling fine in every way.

Effort To Combat Houseflies Urged

Early efforts toward combatting houseflies in Big Spring were urged today by Lawrence J. Wells, city sanitarian.

Recent rains have insured a full crop of flies for the spring and early summer, Wells declared, and the public should take steps to eliminate breeding places as soon as possible.

Good general sanitation practices can solve the fly problem before it becomes serious, Wells asserted. Specifically he urged full compliance with city garbage disposal ordinances. The ordinance provides for use of metal, galvanized containers that will prevent leakage, equipped with close fitting covers. Five-gallon to 30-gallon capacity cans are recommended.

Wells also asked full cooperation of the public in maintaining full compliance with the livestock and fowl ordinance.

"A serious aspect is neglect in removing animal or fowl droppings from the pens," Wells said. "The adult female fly lays eggs in manure and the young flies, with an almost fantastic sense of smell, immediately seek food sources."

These practices of the fly prompted passage of the livestock and fowl control ordinance, Wells pointed out.

Teachers' Group Hear President Of Unit Speak

In a surprise visit, Mary Titus, president of the Classroom Room Teachers association of the National Education association, told the newly organized CRT unit here Sunday evening that they must first make sure they have "something to sell" and then "sell the public on classroom teachers."

Miss Titus, persuaded by Jo Hestand, local president, to make a stop here, spoke to approximately 75 teachers on a few hours notice. Miss Hestand had been in Mineral Wells for a regional meeting and succeeded in getting Miss Titus to stop here before going to Lubbock for a meeting today.

Every great professional group, said the CRT president, has an organization, and teachers have been the slowest to take this step, she said. By recognized standards, she said, teaching qualifies as a profession.

Responsibility devolves to the professional organization for high professional standards, she said; for acquainting the public with the importance of the work; for seeking best possible working conditions and commensurate pay to maintain and attract qualified personnel into the profession.

The local association, which recently took the first steps toward organization, is due to meet again this week and to complete its organization as soon as possible. Representatives from the San Angelo CRT association are due there to assist in final steps.

Western States Theatres Sold

Announcement was made Monday of the sale of Western States Theatres, Inc. to John E. Hayes of Houston and Mission.

Hayes, who had been interested in the operation, purchased the interests of Gene Hendon, Richard Bull and Jeanette Bull, and assumed control Saturday.

Western States operates two theatres, the State and Texan, in Big Spring. Originally, Hendon and Bull came to Big Spring in 1941 and began construction of the State theatre, which opened in 1942. The new State was launched in 1944 and opened in April of 1945 in a new and specially designed building and with new equipment throughout. The original theatre, which became the Texan, was destroyed by fire, but recently was rebuilt with fireproof construction and new equipment.

Plans of Hendon and Bull are not definite, but Hendon said Monday that they likely would be here for two or three weeks. They expressed appreciation for support of the community in the theatre ventures.

Lions District Split In Two

Division of district 2-T, reputedly largest in the 18 countries where Lions International is operative, was accomplished at a meeting here Sunday of the cabinet under Dist. Gov. Frank Jordan, Brownfield.

Adopting a recommendation of a three-man committee, the cabinet divided the district on the south line of Yoakum, Terry, Lynn and Garza counties, creating a district 2-T-1 and 2-T-2.

Predicament for the partition was established here last June at the district convention when delegates instructed the cabinet to devise a means of creating two districts. Reason was because of the tremendous geographical spread, plus the marked increase in the number of clubs which made it most difficult for a governor to service the district.

Two district governors will be elected at El Paso at the last 2-T convention May 4-6. The plan, however, will not become operative until August, following the international convention in San Francisco.

Cabinet members discussed plans for the district parley, which looms as the largest on record for the territory. Russ Harding, El Paso, convention chairman, outlined developments to date. The cabinet also threw its weight behind the candidacy of Herbert C. Petry, Carrizo Springs, for third vice-president of international, a post which eventually leads to the presidency. Jordan called the cabinet meeting for Big Spring because the division decision was reached here.

Services Pending For E. J. Uhl

Funeral services are pending for Edward J. Uhl of Big Spring, who died in the Veterans hospital at Amarillo Sunday after an extended illness.

Uhl, who was born in Pennsylvania April 25, 1876, formerly was co-owner of the Burnett-Uhl Machine shop here. A Big Spring resident since 1935, Uhl spent 20 years of his life in Alaska. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

The deceased was a member of the IOOF and Masonic lodges, the Elks and the local chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Survivors include his wife and stepson, Fred Bishop, both of Big Spring, and a sister-in-law, Julia Estes of Fort Worth.

The body was returned to Big Spring by an Eberley Funeral home carrier. Burial will take place in the local cemetery.

A typical army division in 1918 used motor vehicles totalling 4,000 rated horsepower while a mechanized division in 1945 has more than 187,000 horsepower.

'100 Club' Formed To Aid Red Cross

Beginning of a "100 Club" by the Howard-Glasscock chapter of the Red Cross, was announced today by H. D. Norris, chairman of the organization's annual fund drive.

The club was planned as an effort to put the 1947 drive over the top within the shortest possible time. Norris said workers will concentrate on seeking contributions of $10 each from 100 men. If this objective is attained, the campaign quota will be accounted for, he pointed out.

First "100-Club" member is H. W. Smith, who submitted his $10 contribution this morning. The weekend tabulation disclosed that the Red Cross chapter was approximately $1,000 short of its $9,950 quota.

COMMON SENSE

We learn in grade school physiology that the body is made up of a bony framework, enclosing organs, and controlled by the energy from the brain through the nervous system.

Peculiarly, many forget this fundamental fact, and as time goes on, and when sickness is present in our own bodies, we may think of the affected area as a lone structure in the body, rather than connected with the nervous system.

For example: in a case of heart trouble, the heart fails to function normally; consequently, symptoms of pain, shortness of breath, dizziness, et cetera, result.

It is only common sense to locate the Cause rather than to try to care for the heart as a separate part of the body.

When one stops to think that the heart has a hookup or nerve connection in two ways—one set of nerves act as an accelerator to speed up function, and the other as an inhibitor to slow down function, it becomes clear why the "machinery" must all be in order, to receive perfect results. How much better it is to restore the mental impulse supply for normal function.

It should be remembered that when any organ fails to receive its normal mental-impulse supply from the brain through the nervous system, it will cease to function normally.

This, then, is the basis for sickness or disease.

Troy Fort Beats Out Toots Mansfield

With an overall time of 225.8 seconds, Troy Fort, Lovington, N. M., won the main event of the Levelland rodeo show yesterday from Toots Mansfield, Big Spring.

Fort avenged a previous defeat at the hands of Mansfield by a margin of 8.8 seconds. Last August Mansfield had copped the matched calf roping event at Levelland by 29 seconds from Fort. His total elapsed time on 12 calves Sunday was 234.6 seconds.
