

Tax Relief For Low Income Group Asked

WASHINGTON, March 27. (AP)—The House passed today a Republican-backed bill slashing income taxes this year by almost $4,000,000,000. The legislation now goes to the Senate, where it probably will be revised.

WASHINGTON, March 27. (AP)—Rep. Engel (R-Mich) told the House today that the GOP-backed bill to slash income taxes by almost $4,000,000,000 "gives a man who made the biggest profits during the war the biggest tax relief."

Engel, first Republican member to speak against the measure, repeated a statement that several wealthy men have threatened an attempt to oust him from congress in next year's election, unless he changes his stand.

"All I want is to give the low income group a break," he said, contending that the proposed bill would give a man and wife with $1,200 a year income a tax cut of $8, while giving the $1,000,000 a year man a $110,000 cut. He declared:

"Unless fog is cleared from the brain of some of our Republican leaders, they will find themselves once more a minority party when the next election rolls around."

However, his speech apparently failed to halt the dominant Republicans in their drive to barrel the 20-30 per cent tax-cutting measure through the House.

Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas, supporting President Truman's plea that Congress emphasize debt payments this year rather than tax-cutting, conceded that the Republicans — outnumbering Democrats 245 to 188—would pass the bill.

Government Due For Peace Role In 'Phone Crisis

WASHINGTON, March 27. (AP)—The government, its wartime powers to seize strike-bound industries fast running out, found itself in the role of peacemaker today in the gathering telephone crisis.

A walkout by 287,000 members of the National Federation of Telephone Workers is scheduled for April 7 the day after Easter—and there are prospects that some radio network programs as well as many telephone services may feel the effect of the strike if it materializes.

Direct management-union negotiations are stalled over the principle of industry-wide bargaining.

The independent NFTA wants to negotiate its ten contract demands, including a $12 weekly pay increase, on a nationwide basis.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, nerve center of the sprawling Bell Telephone System, insists that it will bargain only through its various operating companies, with local conditions taken into account.

Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson conferred with A. T. & T. officials in New York yesterday. He was expected to meet here today with President Joseph A. Biernie and other NFTA leaders. Gibson was able to effect a last-minute settlement of a similar dispute a year ago.

Constable Hurt In Bomb Attack

JERUSALEM, March 27. (AP)—A British constable was reported wounded in one leg today in a bomb attack on two police cars in front of Tel Aviv divisional police headquarters.

An official announcement said the cars were just leaving the headquarters in the all-Jewish city on a morning patrol when they were the target of one bomb and a small-arms fusillade. The report added that three persons "believed to be Yeminite Jews" were seen escaping toward the waterfront.

Tel Aviv residents were roused by two explosions last night which seemed to come from the Hatikva quarter. Yeminite Jewish neighborhood.

Police, after ascertaining that no military installations had been under attack, offered the theory that the blasts might have occurred by accident in a mine factory of the Jewish underground.

Pair Pedal, Paddle, But Go Nowhere

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., Mar. 27. (AP)—These men pedaled and paddled and paddled and wound up right where they started from.

A Coast Guard vessel picked up Tony Frombola, 26, former RAF pilot, and Bud Justice, 22, ex-sailor, as they pumped away, seven miles offshore, on a pontoon-equipped tandem bicycle. They had set out for Santa Catalina island, some 25 miles away.

"The wind got us," Tony puffed.

Baseball's Famed Evers 'Very Low'

ALBANY, N.Y., Mar. 27. (AP)—The condition of 65-year-old Johnny Evers was described by his physician today as "very low."

Evers, famed as second baseman in baseball's Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance double play combination of the Chicago Cubs, was admitted to St. Peter's hospital Tuesday after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage.

Swiss To Expell Nazi Industrialist

BERN, Switzerland, Mar. 27. (AP) Wilhelm Vonderbey, a former director of I. G. Farben, will be expelled from Switzerland April 15 as an "undesirable foreigner," the police announced today. Vonderbey, 66, a German citizen, has been in Basel six months as a consultant to a chemical concern.

Baseball Hearing Due To Continue

Hearing on the petition of a group of citizens to restrain the Big Spring Independent School district board of trustees and others from building a baseball park adjacent to the school's football stadium, called in 70th district court this morning, wound up in a scoreless deadlock as Judge Cecil C. Collings called a noon-time intermission.

The case was to be re-opened at 1:30 p. m., at which time counsel for the plaintiffs, of which there were 47 in number, was to call more of the complaining witnesses to the stand.

Giant Airplane Landed Safely

FORT WORTH, Mar. 27. (AP)—The army air forces' $20,000,000 B-36, heralded as able to "carry an atomic bomb to any inhabited region in the world and return," is safe to fly another day.

Although the plane's massive right landing gear was damaged, Test Pilot B. A. Erickson and Co-Pilot Gus Green nursed the air giant to a smooth stop on the Fort Worth army air field last night as hundreds of soldiers and other spectators cheered.

Two hours earlier, the huge plane, world's largest land bomber, had disgorged 12 of the 14 men aboard. A stiff wind caught their parachutes and tossed them over a wide section of the rolling hill country west of Fort Worth. Six of the men were injured in landing.

Legalizing Slot Machines Asked

GALVESTON, March 27. (AP)—A bill legalizing the operation of slot machines in Texas was advocated here last night by the February grand jury which described the present state law as "creating and fomenting racket."

The grand jurors, in a letter to Rep. Donald Markle, urged him to draw a bill immediately to legalize the "playing and operation of slot machines under properly regulated conditions."

This came on the heels of an announcement Monday night by Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the State Department of public safety, that 48 persons were arrested and gambling equipment valued in the thousands were confiscated in Galveston county in week-end raids.

WALKING ISN'T POPULAR—

So Truman Will Be Bowler

WASHINGTON, March 27. (AP)—President Truman is on the spot. This is a sports-loving nation. Sportsmen vote. So every president tries like fury to be a sports-loving guy.

But Mr. Truman's trouble is that his favorite sport isn't popular any more. In a nation where almost everyone rides, Mr. Truman likes to walk.

Worse still, he likes to get up early in the morning to do it. Obviously he can't win votes that way. What to do? What to do?

Mr. Truman always has been an enthusiastic watcher of football and baseball. And since becoming president he has turned to fishing, dutifully. He also has installed a horseshoe pitching court, rarely used, in the yard.

And Tuesday the news came out that bowling alleys are being put in, right in the White House. Will Mr. Truman, who last bowled 44 years ago and liked it fine, be any fonder of bowling than he is of fishing and horseshoeing?

Probably not, say those who know Mr. Truman's devotion to walking.

Yes, says Rod Thomas, who headed a nationwide campaign by which bowlers bought $485,000,000 worth of war bonds.

Like all bowlers, Thomas thinks if Mr. Truman heaves that ball down the alleys a couple of times, he'll be a convert for life.

"There's something about it that gets you," he told a reporter.

Was turning bowler a smart political move? "Well," said Thomas, "there are around 20,000,000 bowlers."

So far as Thomas knows, this will be our first bowler-president. But nearly all have been more or less sports-minded.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, despite his tremendous physical handicap, fished and swam. Herbert Hoover fished and medicine-balled. Calvin Coolidge fished and galloped his mechanical horse. Woodrow Wilson and William Howard Taft golfed. Teddy Roosevelt tennis and tracked big game.

It goes clear back to Washington, who was quite a jumper. Washington also threw a dollar across a river. Of course, a dollar went farther in those days.

Greek Aid Said Step For Preventing War

Congress May Limit Military Missions

WASHINGTON, March 27. (AP)—Secretary of War Patterson asserted today that the administration's $400,000,000 measure to bulwark Greece and Turkey against communism "is not in the direction of war—but away from it."

His opinion was expressed to the House Foreign Affairs Committee which is conducting hearings on the proposal to send "limited" military missions, as well as money, to the two Mediterranean countries.

Rep. Jackson (R-Calif) told Patterson that "a lot of midnight oil is being burned over the question: 'Will this program lead to war?'"

"I believe," said Patterson slowly but firmly, "that it will not result in war. It is the course least likely to result in war."

Patterson was asked by Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) what the term "limited" meant in numbers.

"Anywhere from 10 to 40," Patterson replied. "That is our present estimate. It is based on the assumption that the British military mission will continue (in Greece) for the time being at least."

Vorys: "And Turkey?" Patterson: "Comparable." Rep. Mundt (R-SD) observed: "It would be very comfortable to the American people if we could spell that out because this legislation is sort of blank check."

Mundt added that he "had in mind" offering an amendment limiting the military missions to 100 in each country. He asked: "Would you have any objection?"

Patterson: "No, sir." Mundt's suggestion is one of a growing crop of proposals in Congress to write limitations into the bill. As prepared by the administration, the measure would give President Truman broad general authority to lend or give up to $400,000,000 to the Turks and Greeks and send American military men and civilian government employes to help those countries.

Trapped German Farmers Rescued

BERLIN, March 27. (AP)—Reports from the Soviet occupation zone said today that fleets of motorboats were being pressed into service to rescue between 6,000 and 8,000 Germans trapped in their homes by flood waters of the Oder River, which broke through dikes above Kuestrin.

Thousands of persons already have been driven from their homes by the floods, which were said to have inundated approximately 150,000 acres of farmland.

Thus far, the German Press said, only four deaths have been reported—all of which occurred when a rescue boat overturned yesterday.

Speech Of General De Gaulle Awaited

PARIS, Mar. 27. (AP)—Several Paris papers today predicted that a speech which Gen. Charles de Gaulle is to deliver at Bruneval, Normandy, on March 30, may be the signal for his return to active politics.

The left-wing liberation said de Gaulle had always made it clear that he would come back, should economic, financial, social and diplomatic difficulties threaten France.

"It's quite significant that the leaders of the Republic as well as most of the party leaders do not rule de Gaulle's name from the list of possible chiefs of government," the paper pointed out.

HEATED TALK, HOUSE BURNS

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., March 27. (AP)—Mrs. Dewey Hoover rushed to her telephone to summon the fire department to her blazing home but two women on the party line refused to surrender the line.

"We've heard that one before," Mrs. Hoover said one of the women told her. She finally got the fire department but damage to the house was estimated at $1,000.

Molotov Backs Down On German Fund Idea

MOSCOW, March 27. (AP)—Under the impact of the three western nations' arguments, Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov retreated from his previous position and agreed tonight to consider a definition of German assets in Austria.

Asked the effect on Austria if a treaty should not be completed at the conference here, Dr. Karl Gruber, Austrian foreign minister, replied:

"The effect on Austria would be bad, very bad indeed, but the effect on the whole world would be worse. Such a failure would prove that four powers—the four greatest powers in the world—with all the great problems they have and all their responsibilities, were unable to agree on a matter which actually is not so complicated."

The youngish minister, with heavy blond hair, sharp eyes, a square jaw and broad shoulders, was expected to be given a chance by the Council of Foreign Ministers within the next few days to present the Austrian viewpoint.

He said his primary interest was in two matters, German assets and compensation by Austria to United Nations Nationals.

Gruber said Austria was anxious to have the council deal fairly with the issue of forced transfers, meaning German assets, which the Nazis acquired by force or duress and which, therefore, were not supposed to be taken by the Allies.

No Chance Held For Trapped Men

CENTRALIA, Ill., Mar. 27. (AP) The twisted and broken bodies of 16 miners were brought to the surface from the Centralia Coal Company's No. 5 mine this morning, increasing to 33 the number of known dead in an explosion Tuesday and leaving 78 still trapped in the pit and given "no chance at all" by a mine rescue squad leader.

A heavy snow fell over the grim setting as rescue squads, after working through the early morning hours, brought the second group of dead miners from 540 feet below the ground. There were only a few persons at the pit as the bodies were placed in ambulances and taken to a temporary morgue in a nearby bus garage. Last night 16 bodies were removed to the garage. Earlier one miner removed from the mine on Tuesday died.

Descriptive Lyrics Trace City's History

Descriptive lyrics fit into a pattern of many musical moods for the cantata, "Big Spring," which will have its premiere at 8 p.m. here Friday at the city auditorium. There are six movements in the first part of the work, and five in the latter half.

While the music is the thing, Frank Grandstaff, prisoner-composer, has achieved a literary brilliance in parts of his lyrics which unfold the narration of the historic "big spring," for which this city is named.

On the whole the lyrics have great merit, although the necessities of metre and music often trail off into the commonplace and trite. The lyrics are a stirring story within themselves and are shown in digest, each paragraph roughly corresponding to a major movement in the cantata:

First Part
A crystal spring poured fourth it's stream near limestone ledges towering high, and the water was sweet as a pleasant dream and clear as a summer sky . . . and the eager water that flowed so cool, in the rock, a massive pool . . .

Bison came to the spring at will, and antelope grazed . . . where wild turkeys ran, the coyotes howled, and rattlers buzzed a sibilant warning . . . while the big spring was flowing constantly in its cycle with nature. On the proudest men, in a fearless band, came stumbling and stag-rung 'cross the land . . . and found the cool water . . . They encamp'd near the big spring and their tee-pee poles stretch'd right and left and near each lodge a smoke plume flew. The white men came and made a change . . . cattle soon roamed where the buffalo was king; down the well-worn trails they came to the spring, and there the grim landscape was gruesomely filled with bones of the beasts, and of men who were killed in fights to possess the water hole. Howard county evolved in the Texas state, it was rough, it was woolly, ruthlessly bad, on land that was bare as an empty plate, and the village called Big Spring equally bad. Had vice in its dens, and it's pigs in the street, where men wore six guns to shoot to kill.

The villagers tire with playing the fool. They built a church, then a school and one of the blessings for the poor were the gifts from the Fisher store . . . they who gave from the store were hand in hand with the Man before . . . who gave of His all sustaining bounty, and linked men to God for ever-more. He gave the spring and He made the store, and He gave the church and He promised more . . .

Second Part
In the year eighty-one the T. and P. whose freight trains struggling ponderously, were crossing the plains . . . Then Big Spring flowed but a tiny stream, and the massive cavern was dry in the sun. The spring was in mourning and shrank and old, the veins once full, were sapless and old. The village grew . . . a wild, uncouth, yet oh lovely thing. It was nursed to live by the Big Spring. Little was said when this mother died; the pain was unseen . . . but there for the record the name it bore, the name of mother gone . . .

The casual people think of the spring as a lime-stone legend where the dead winds sing . . . Hard were the tasks of this frontier . . . but here in the rugged beauty flowed the spring. No one knows or can guess, who was first to the brink, and drank the water and straightway he remembered to think the God so wise, who in solid rock posed mystery, in this sparkling pool . . . Later men and beast . . . drank the water from out the brimming pool . . . and 'twas God's wine they drank from the brimming pool . . . To dreamers engaging in fantasy, the Big Spring is never dusty and dry, but . . . Sparkling in sunshine as a jewel . . . The soft wind of fantasy brings forth each age with a scent far much sweeter than cactus and sage, that mingle their odors in years now so calm, in the archives that time so gently embalm, in the soft wind of silence those dead years say . . . Look far ahead . . . Lo, see the spring. This town which grew from the heart of a springlet that lives anew, with pride in its story; born of toil and pain, this tall modern city rose upon the plain . . . a life goes on and on immortally.

Reminiscent Local Novel Furnishes Idea For Song

The known history of Big Spring goes back for nearly 100 years, but not until a genial, bald-headed druggist by the name of Shine Phillips began jotting down the tales of pioneer days did it get beyond the word of mouth stage. Seemingly, there wasn't much to record about those early days, but as a barefoot boy who started peddling papers on the sandy streets and boardwalks of the sprawling village in 1889, Phillips drank in the stories spun by the natives. This insatiable habit, plus an incorrigible sense of humor and a homespun philosophy, grew into something big, years later.

At that, Phillips never had any more idea of writing a book than he had of leaving his drug store. An illness accomplished both. While removed from activity for week upon week, Phillips began jotting down the stories he had heard. He passed them on to friends who reminisced with him, and, remembering how the doleful hours were on in a hospital, he showed the notes to convalescents. In this manner, they fell under the eyes of a publishing agent, and, much to Phillips' surprise, he found himself under contract to write a book. Forthwith, the title was switched from "Forty Years in a Drug Store" to "Big Spring — The Casual Biography of a Prairie Town." Phillips found that it took a lot of words to make a full-sized book, but out of his store of tales, he produced an additional 25,000 words to complete the trick.

SHINE PHILLIPS

It must have been as the publishers said that "it hit you like the smell of bacon curling up from a camp fire on the open plains," for "Big Spring" breezed right through several printings and goes right on selling. From all over the world reams of letters piled in to the author, who answered them all between his pill-rolling chores. There is something homey and nostalgic about the book that, with a little change in locale, would fit any pioneer village. Early day former residents, many of them commercial and professional successes in the metropolitan centers, wrote long letters to ask about this old timer or that, to say how much they missed the old home town, or remembered the days when they passed through Big Spring. Such a letter came from Frank M. Grandstaff, a Tennessee prisoner, who had visited here in piano selling days. A cordial correspondence sprung up between him and Phillips. Like so many Big Spring people, Phillips became a confident to Grandstaff, who sent him copies of his poetry. Then followed a long period of silence, finally broken by Grandstaff who explained that he had been in solitary and was sending a score of a cantata inspired by and based upon Phillips' book. Phillips was puzzled and flattered. He had local musicians play it over, and they substantiated opinion at Nashville, Tenn. that it was definitely a sound work. So he passed it on to J. B. Shores, Texas & Pacific public relations director, because Big Spring had sort of grown up with the T&P. Soon it was being printed and copyrighted in Grandstaff's name and placed in the hands of the T&P male chorus. Phillips and Big Spring will learn Friday evening if the amazing cantata is destined for a happy career like the book.

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Mar. 27. (AP)—William Schorr, New York stage director, was married here yesterday to Nadyne Ellmore, radio actress. Schorr gave his age as 44, Miss Ellmore as 27. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. C. Lovett, Baptist minister.

From Discordant Background

Composer Of "Big Spring"
Has Never Heard His Song

On April 12, 1940, the doors of the Tennessee state penitentiary closed behind Frank Marion Grandstaff for the remainder of his life.

Certainly no one in Big Spring knew about it, and probably no one ever remembered him. And Grandstaff, who in earlier days had stopped in the town on his rounds as a piano salesman, had more than a West Texas city to think about.

Late in 1942, however, a copy of Shine Philips' book, "Big Spring—the Casual Biography of a Prairie Town," came into Grandstaff's hands and he was beguiled anew by the "remembered charm of the place, the beauty and pathos of its story," and he began to turn over in his mind the first faint notes of a choral work about the town.

Nothing came of it, however, until three years later when he was confined to "solitary" as the result of a luminol mess in the prison infirmary. There, in the dinginess and silence of the "dungeon," he began tapping out the score for his composition. Except as it exists in his soul, Grandstaff has never heard his music, for, as he details the background, he had only a pencil to tap out time and build the work.

Because as a lifer he is required to be under constant guard and no one in the prison has time for his musical pleasures, he never has had the chance of playing his cantata on the piano bought by the prisoners.

That "Big Spring," the chorale, is regarded as "exceptional" and "definitely better than good" is no more amazing than the background of the prisoner-composer, who somehow lost out on his chance to become a doctor.

Son of a respected Indiana physician, he found it handy to fill in a blank birth certificate in his father's office and enlist in the army in World War I. Apparently settling down upon his pre-medical training before trouble began to dog his trail.

In 1920 he was expelled from school for fighting professionally while on the college amateur boxing team. Shortly afterwards, he was arrested and sentenced to a year in the Wisconsin reformatory on a charge of robbing a soldier at Wausau, Wis. A stolen pistol put him in the Michigan prison for 30 months, and then he became emmeshed in the toils of the law in New York, Wisconsin and Texas with a total of 10 years in prison. Seven days after he arrived in Memphis, Tenn., from Texas, he was charged with larceny and, being a "four-time loser," was hustled off to prison for life under the little-known and seldom used "habitual criminal" statute.

A sensitive youth, and intelligent, he had studied music since he was seven and had been composing almost as long. In between his brushes with the law, he fought professionally, picked up a livelihood as a nightclub accordionist, and as a piano salesman in various parts of the country. It was in this capacity, traveling out of Houston, that he came to visit Big Spring. Phillips book stirred old memories and set his musical mind to work.

"Big Spring," while his masterpiece, is by no means his only composition, for Grandstaff has written an instrumental, "Prairie Town Lullaby," several ballads including "Let's Just Suppose," and a serious piece, "Seminary Suite," written for Kendrick Seminary at St. Louis. In between he has tossed off some blues numbers and several interludes for the organ and mass.

Grandstaff plays the piano, pipe organ, piano accordion, and guitar, and, until loss of two front teeth intervened, was accomplished on wind instruments. In the Texas prison he announced the prison broadcasts.

"Big Spring" is a difficult, 74-page semi-religious cantata which runs the scale of vocal display from solos, quartets to chorus with piano and a capella. One critic has described it as music of many moods—rhapsodic, narrative, descriptive, dramatic, tender.

"There's some wierd harmony in it," he says. "It's chaotic in places. There are times when I'm lost—I don't know where I am—and I use chromatics or a fraction of

Drive Is Launched Against AWOL GIs

FRANKFURT, Mar. 27. (AP)—The United States Army early today launched a 48-hour drive to round up soldiers and war department civilians absent without leave throughout the European theater. Constabulary troopers, military police and army investigating agents began checking border crossing points, messes, clubs, theaters and railway stations at reveille. No estimate was given of the number of personnel believed AWOL.

TOKYO, Mar. 27. (AP)—A column of smoke is pouring from the volcano Kyunvunkaku in central Hokkaido and four Japanese scientists have been sent to investigate, the US Eighth Army said today.

In 1926, the volcano Mastotokachi, a sister peak, erupted. Within 25 minutes the lava flow had struck a near by town, killing 172 persons.

The eighth army said no American troops were stationed in the vicinity of Kyunvunkaku.

the scale to get back on the track."

Friday evening Grandstaff will have to console himself with the chirpings of prison crickets and the chattering of startlings in the yard trees. Since efforts to have him brought here for the premiere were unsuccessful, he may spend the evening brooding over his side of the story of his messed-up life. But hundreds of others will be on hand to hear what Grandstaff has never heard—his creation about Big Spring.

Apple Tree Versus Wheat Field

If you ever visit Jeb Crowell's farm, he'll take you right out on that back porch of his and show you his apple tree.

"There," says Jeb, "is nature's noblest creation—fifty years, and bearin' still the finest elder apples in the county!"

But last fall, when a group of us was there, Ludy Denny points across the river to his grain fields and says: "There's an even finer sight! Acres and acres of golden grain you can make dozens of appetizing things with—including wholesome, sparkling beer."

Both of them got so eloquent on the subject, that the rest of us worked up quite a thirst; so Jeb goes to the icebox for beer and cider. And when the refreshments come, Ludy chooses cider, and Jeb takes the beer!

From where I sit, that's the answer to most disputes. You can talk all you want, but when it comes to tastes and preferences, there's just no argument.

Rancher Bequeaths Fortune To Church

WACO, March 27. (AP)—J. P. Collier, retired rancher who bequeathed his second fortune to the Baptist denomination of Texas, died here last night after a week's illness. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon. Collier lost one fortune in the depression of the early 30's, then made another when the Panhandle range country and livestock market were revived. Thankful, he bequeathed his net assets of $300,000 to the Baptist denomination. Half of the fund is to go to Southwestern Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth. The remaining $150,000 is to be divided equally between Baylor University at Waco and Wayland College at Plainview, the bequest stipulated.

elsewhere which prevent my giving attention to properties in Big Spring. It was felt that the home-town organization maintained by the Robbs for so many years would be the logical one interested in these showhouses.

"Too, sound business policy establishes that, for operation in normal times, Big Spring has an excess of theatre seats. During the war years, when the Bombardier school was located here, theatre facilities were extended, but it is felt that all these houses represent more than can be operated profitably under ordinary circumstances."

"The operation in Big Spring has been a pleasant one, and the town has been most gracious in the way of support and patronage. I express my appreciation for this, and have only good will for the entire community."

The Robb management announced Thursday that temporarily the Texas theatre will be closed. The Queen also is to run, for the time being, on a Saturday-Sunday schedule only. This policy is being adopted, it was said, until arrangements for film bookings can be adjusted. Ritz, Lyric and State programs will be as usual.

Morning Assembly Sessions Devoted To Reports, Resolutions And Talks

Plainview was selected as the site of the 1948 meeting of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Northwest Texas conference which ended a successful convention here at noon today with closing programs at the First Methodist church.

The conference was invited to Abilene and Pampa, but Plainview was chosen because of its central location.

Thursday morning assembly was devoted to committee reports, resolutions and talks by various conference officers. Mrs. W. W. Rowland was in charge of a short devotional and Mrs. Uel D. Crosby of Seymour gave a talk on children's work. Miss Mattie Sue Howell of Lubbock discussed youth work. Mrs. J. Edmund Kirby of Abilene gave a paper on student work, and Mrs. C. A. Bickley, past president of the conference talked on missionary personnel.

Discussions at the 10 a.m. session were conducted by Mrs. B. S. McClendon, Jr., and Mrs. Walter Purviance, and the closing meeting was devoted to summary discussions by Mrs. Wayne Martin of Lubbock, Mrs. E. E. Traveek of Abilene and Mrs. C. M. Randal, who reviewed the by-laws.

Wednesday afternoon the program which opened with a number by the Frazier Ensemble, included an outstanding talk on "Alcoholism, the Number Four Public Health Problem," by Horace Hort assistant director of the national committee for education on Alcoholism, Dallas. Mrs. Sam L. Seay of Amarillo, who is recording secretary for the conference, discussed the jurisdiction.

The 300 delegates, representing nine districts in Northwest Texas, have been guests in local homes during the three-day annual convention.

National Officer Is Guest Speaker At Evening Meeting

Miss Dorothy Weber, officer in the women's division of the Methodist church, New York City, was main speaker at a program presented at the Methodist church Wednesday evening.

Mrs. H. H. Rutherford, district president, presided over the meeting and introduced the conference speaker. The program opened with an organ and piano duo prelude by Mrs. Champ Rainwater and Mrs. G. H. Wood, and following a short devotional by Mrs. Gordon R. Bennett, the First Methodist choir sang the anthem, "Lift Up Your Heads." Soloist was Mrs. E. H. McElhannon with Mrs. G. H. Wood directing.

In her address on "Christian Stewardship and Human Relations," Miss Weber stated that the Methodist church is opening a great year of spirited stewardship and Christian ideals must be made to rule in human relations. "We must fight for a Christian community through Christian human relations with new families and with the people of other races," she stated.

The audience was told that the WSCS of East China, despite war and famine, sent $1,500,000 to Africa for missionary work, and that Christianity today has the opportunity of the century in missionary work in Japan. She explained how the Methodist church was understaffed and emphasized that the church must interest young people in entering Christian missionary work.

"The Church in America is falling to answer the call for helpers in mission fields and today we need 5,000 recruits to answer the need," she said. In closing the Methodist leader offered a conference challenge in asking, "can we as Methodist women dedicate ourselves to the unfinished task of building a better world of Christian human relations?"

The program closed with the benediction by the Rev. W. L. Porterfield, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Novel Spice Ice Cream, Rich With Raisins, Added To Summer Favorites

Sipping an icy sherbet, cooling the tongue with a frosted custard, has been a longtime favorite table sport of eating man. Since the first epicure spilled fruit juice on snow and savored its subtle pleasures, man has sought new ways to capture his pet flavors in icy crystals.

And yet it still appears that, despite centuries of taste research, new blends remain to be discovered. For across our desk today came a stunning, fresh idea — Raisin Spice Ice Cream. It seems curious that this dish wasn't put on the market long ago. For raisins are as old as time. And spices must have captured man's fancy in the Garden of Eden. But apparently it took those modern lady wizards of the kitchen, our clever home economists, to come up with this bright new one.

The first frozen desserts were simple sherbets. Caesar was said to have teams of relay runners whose sole duty was to rush Alpine snow, flavored by different essences, to his town banquet table. Many a Roman gourmand cooled his hepped-up palate with soothing frosted syrups in those days. After the fall of Rome, fine eating went into an eclipse, though in Italy good cooking never went out of style. While Medieval Europe was tearing bones apart with its fingers and sating its taste buds with high-spiced sauces, the Italians were still bringing sherbets to their sophisticated tables.

In 1533 a Good Neighbor Policy married Catherine de Medici to Henry II of France. And Italian Catherine took along a retinue of cooks. Soon every toney table was serving sherbet, and Europe's caloused palate was being cooled, soothed, and made keen and sensitive again. Not long after, a ducal chef invented ice cream; and when the French Revolution forced these kitchen artists into exile they set up ice cream parlors wherever they went.

With the recent development of the mechanical refrigerator, a simplified type of ice cream was made possible. And it is to this group of frozen custards that our latest find belongs. This dish begins like a plain vanilla custard, but takes on glory when nutmeg, cinnamon, and cloves are added. Just why spices are not used more often in ice cream we've always wondered. For cold gives them a kind of muted pungency, a faint perfume that refreshes, excites, and soothes in one. To this melody of fine flavors are added nut meats for texture interest. But the touch of genius lies in raisins. Those little, sun-dried purple pellets, famed for their wonderfully sweet flavor and flowerlike bouquet, give ice cream a whole new range of flavor values. You'll find this dish a rare treat, sparkling and stimulating to your taste buds, soothing to your tongue, and wonderfully clearing to your palate.

Spicy Raisin Ice Cream

2 1/2 cups milk
2-3 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup coarsely chopped seedless raisins
2 eggs, beaten
2 cups whipping cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup finely chopped nuts

Scald milk. In top of double boiler combine sugar, salt, cornstarch, spices and raisins. Add milk and mix thoroughly. Cook 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Pour slowly over eggs, stirring quickly. Whip cream. Fold into raisin mixture. Fold in remaining ingredients. Pour into refrigerator tray. Place in refrigerator which has been turned to very cold temperature. When frozen almost solid, remove from tray and beat until crystals are broken. Return to refrigerator to complete freezing. Serves 8.

Ancient Greeks and Romans used the abacus for all arithmetic problems but it is believed that computations on fraction problems were only approximations.

TEXAS GOVERNOR IS HIS GOVERNOR

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 27. (AP)—Political affiliation of at least one future voter isn't going to be changed overnight Gov. Phil M. Donnelly learned.

Eighty-nine seventh grade pupils from Kansas City visited the state capital yesterday to see the legislature in session and held an audience with Donnelly.

Remarked Ray Baker, who moved to Kansas City from Fort Worth with his parents six weeks ago: "I don't think he's my governor. My governor is the governor of Texas and he is down there."

Dismissal Of Customs Inspectors Protested

LAREDO, Tex., March 27. (P)—Laredo civic organizations have protested the proposed dismissal of twelve inspectors of the customs patrol of this district. The dismissals were ordered as an economy move.

In letters to Senators Connally and O'Daniel and Rep. Milton West, the groups pointed out that the Laredo office of the customs patrol during the past three years seized narcotics with an estimated domestic value of $1,000,000.

Judge To Sentence Mother For Death Of Infant Son

HAMILTON, Ont., Mar. 27. (AP)—Mrs. Evelyn Dick, 27, was summoned before Justice A. M. LeBel yesterday to be sentenced for manslaughter in connection with the death of her infant son.

Big Spring Steam Laundry
Good Service Dependable Work
121 W. First Phone 17

The maximum sentence for manslaughter is life imprisonment.

She was convicted by a jury last night, one year to the day after the finding of the body of Peter Donald White MacLean in a cement-filled suitcase during an investigation of Mrs. Dick's husband, John, 40.

Mrs. Dick was convicted last Oct. 16 of the murder of John Dick and sentenced to hang, but the Ontario Court of Appeal granted her a new trial, at which she was acquitted earlier this month. Her father, Donald MacLean, 64, and her friend, William Bohozuk, 27, await trial in connection with the death of Dick, whose headless, limbless body was found on Hamilton Mountain on March 16, 1946.

Colonel Defends Price Advance On Gasoline

SAN ANTONIO, March 27. (AP)—Advances in gasoline prices were defended by Col. Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, in an address before the Western Petroleum Refiners convention here yesterday.

"The companies—large and small—have been very reasonable," Thompson declared, "and I think the price hikes are in line, considering increased cost of production and other factors."

More than a year ago, he asserted, the commission warned the refiners and oil operators of Texas that there was then a billion cubic feet of casinghead gas being flared daily into the air, and "we intended to see this fuel is saved and utilized."

He explained that an increased amount of flared gas will be used in making gasoline. He said the commission has ordered many producers to limit flares to the minimum as a conservative measure.

"Proven reserves of liquid hydrocarbons and other natural gas liquids in the United States as of Dec. 31 totaled 3,321,027,000 barrels of which Texas has nearly two thirds," he declared.

"Of the nation's 24,194,587,000 barrels of liquid hydrocarbons reserves, Texas has 11,646,360,000 in crude oil and 635,037,000 in condensate or a total of 11,476,294,000 barrels," the commission chairman asserted.

He declared that "in the Seeligson Field alone, more than 1,000 barrels of liquid hydrocarbons are being wastefully burned in flares daily. Our order effective April 1 will stop that practice."

He declared there is no shortage of oil. Texas he said has 200,000 barrels additional daily oil producing capacity in fields exclusive of West Texas where pipe lines are filled to top capacity.

Orders of the Railroad Commission have been backed by the Texas and US Supreme Court, Thompson asserted, in criticizing as unnecessary some of the proposed bills now before the legislature, which would make every act of the board subject to individual lawsuit, he asserted.

Tomato Blight Getting Worse

NEW YORK. (AP)—Tomato blight, a disease that destroyed nearly one quarter of the nation's tomatoes last year, is reported by a chemical company (Rohm & Haas) investigator to be starting out worse this year than last.

The money loss last year was between forty and fifty million dollars. This blight is a fungus, which appears on the under side of leaves, and blackens the tomatoes.

Tomatoes have had the blight for many years, but in mild form. It apparently is the same blackening that is common on potatoes, and perhaps it passes from potatoes to tomatoes. In tomatoes it appears late in growth and is called late blight.

George D. Ruehle, of the University of Florida agricultural experiment station, reports that the epidemic of last year started in Florida and eventually involved all areas east of the Mississippi.

Famous FORT WORTH food expert Edith Alderman Deen gives her favorite grapefruit juice recipe

Grapefruit Jelly with Sherry

Soak 2 1/2 tablespoons gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Stir over heat until sugar is dissolved; 1/2 cup water 1 cup sugar. Dissolve the gelatin in hot syrup. Cool it. Add the contents of: 2 (9 1/2 oz.) cans grapefruit juice 3 tablespoons lemon juice 1/2 cup sherry 1/2 teaspoon salt. Pour these ingredients into a well-oiled 9-inch ring mold. Chill the jelly until it is firm. Turn it out on a platter. Fill the center with watermelon balls. If watermelon is not available, substitute soft cream cheese balls rolled in chopped nuts. Garnish the outer edge of the platter with alligator pear slices alternating with sliced grapefruit or orange sections on watercress or shredded lettuce. Sprinkle it with pomegranate seeds. Serve the salad with mayonnaise and French dressing.

Quick-Frozen Fish Good Variety For Lenten Dish

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Everybody wants variety in Lenten dishes—and every cook likes to have her work made easy. One of the best ways to meet these two problems is to use quick-frozen fish. They're to be had even in towns far from the sea—and they're all cleaned and ready to use the minute you get them home from market.

Broiled Quick-Frozen Fish Fillets
Use one package of quick-frozen fish fillets (frozen or thawed). Separate fillets and spread with softened butter or margarine. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and paprika. Place on a well-greased broiler and broil 15 to 25 minutes, turning to brown both sides.

Cod Fillets with Tomatoes and
2 packages (about 1½ pounds)

Carrots
quick-frozen cod fillets, partially thawed
2 tomatoes, cut in wedges
8 cooked carrots, cut in halves
4 tablespoons green pepper, cut in ¼-inch strips
Sprinkle fillets with salt and pepper. Place in greased shallow baking dish. Spread with softened butter or margarine and sprinkle with paprika. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees) about 15 minutes, basting occasionally with melted butter.

Arrange tomato wedges, carrots and green pepper strips around fish. Season with salt, pepper and paprika. Continue baking about 20 minutes longer, or until fish and vegetables are done. Serve with quick-frozen peas.

There are other quick-trick dishes beside the quick-frozen fish which will add fun to the last Lenten meals and make life easy for the cook as well.

Meal-in-One Sandwich
¼ cup seedless raisins
¼ cup finely cut apple
1 teaspoon lemon juice
½ cup finely cut celery
½ cup grated American cheese
2 teaspoons finely cut onion
¼ teaspoon prepared yellow mustard
Salt to taste
Mayonnaise to moisten
Slice raisins. Mix lemon juice with apple. Combine all ingredients and stir to blend. Spread on buttered bread. Makes about 1½ cups of filling.

There will be some warmish days toward the end of Lent and a main-dish salad will be most acceptable for these. A molded gelatin ring or loaf is a treat for the family—or a show-piece for a party. It can be prepared ahead of time and thus save a lot of last-minute fuss.

Fold sieved avocado, beautifully smoothed, into a plain gelatin base made with half the usual liquid, seasoned with lemon juice and finely grated onion. Mold in a ring or loaf pan and serve with crab or shrimp salad for the main dish of almost any meal. Put some celery into the fish salad for texture contrast and season the dressing with lemon juice and a bit of chili sauce.

PINEAPPLE CHEESE SPREAD FOR AFTER-SCHOOL SNACKS

CHILDREN'S SNACK SANDWICH
1 cup finely diced apple (unpeeled)
¼ cup finely chopped celery
4 tablespoons Mayonnaise
Dash of salt

Deviled Pork Chops With Baked Potatoes

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS

Stuffed celery
Deviled pork chops
Baked potato
Spinach au gratin
Beef and egg salad
Caramel custard
(Recipes Serve Four)
Deviled Pork Chops
4 pork chops, cut thick
3 tablespoons chili sauce
1½ tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon grated onion
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
¼ teaspoon curry
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
½ cup water

Marinate the chops for one hour in a combination of all the ingredients except the water. Drain chops, reserving the marinade. Wipe dry. Brown in a hot greased skillet. Heat the marinade and water. Pour around the chops and reduce heat simmering chops, covered, until they are tender.

Spinach au Gratin
Spread cooked spinach in a thin layer in an oven-proof dish. Cover it with grated cheese and season with salt, paprika and a few grains of cayenne. Pour over all three tablespoons of cream and broil until the cheese is melted.

For a peanut sandwich filling that's "different," add fruit such as apple sauce, crushed pineapple, sliced or mashed bananas, or chopped stewed apricots or prunes.

To give a fresh fruit flavor to dried fruit sauce or compote, squeeze lemon, orange, or grapefruit juice over it just before serving.

A bushel of sweet potatoes will produce from 10 to 13 pounds of starch and about five pounds of cattle feed. This feed contains from 85 to 90 per cent of the feeding value of corn.

Let's Meet Our Obligation

We regret that it seems necessary to mention this, but the Howard-Glasscock chapter of the Red Cross is still $500 and $800 shy of its quota.

This after more than a month of effort.

Henry D. Norris, roll call chairman, and others have worked hard—perhaps harder than ever before—to meet this quota. Somehow, workers have not responded as they should and somehow the people have a notion that they must be asked personally before they invest in the humanitarian program.

There are thousands—yes thousands—of people in Howard county who have not given a cent to Red Cross. Perhaps some few (and they are a minute few) do not wish or are not able to have a part. The overwhelming majority is just waiting for someone to ask them.

If you are one of these, please—please don't wait longer. Mail in your check, and make it a generous one, today, or leave contributions with the Red Cross headquarters at Fourth and Scurry, or with Norris at the chamber of commerce office.

Let's get this obligation behind us, and with a decent margin to spare. After all an over-subscription is in order to compensate for all this delay.

An Investment That May Save

The city commission has authorized inclusion of an expenditure in excess of $20,000 for a second fire station in the budget for the fiscal year which begins April 1.

It is, we believe, a wise expenditure and one which will pay for itself indirectly.

In the first place, Big Spring cannot continue its rate of growth indefinitely without suffering penalty in fire rates for insufficient fire fighting strength. That does not altogether mean pieces of equipment. As it is, precious time may be lost in rushing fire fighters from downtown, up steep grades, to the southern part of town. In fact, time could be saved by reversing the picture, and time is a vital factor in combatting blazes.

So, staving off rate penalties together with the possible saving of property in the future by reason of faster service, may mean that residents will save the investment—not in taxes but in premiums and investment.

In addition, it will mean better protection for the Veterans Administration hospital to be constructed at the south end of Gregg street as well as making our entire fire-fighting force more flexible, and, we believe, more effective.

The Nation Today—James Marlow—

Feeling Against Communists Stiffens

WASHINGTON, (AP)—For 18 months since the war ended the feeling in this country against Communism has been building up.

It has grown as Russia's influence in Europe and elsewhere spread.

Now, within the past two weeks the feeling has turned into open action to block Communism at home and abroad.

Take a look:

1. Secretary of Labor Schwelmbach said the Communist party in this country should be outlawed. Congressmen introduced bills to do that.
2. President Truman has asked money for goods and arms for Greece and Turkey to block the spread of Communism in Europe and the Middle-East.

3. Mr. Truman has ordered government employees fired if they are members of the Communist party or organizations sympathetic to the party.

Congress now is up to its neck in the Communist problem.

It's considering bills to outlaw the party here and it's working on the aid to Greece and Turkey.

It is the most intensive government action against Communism since the hysterical "Red Scare" that broke out in 1920, after World War I.

In that year Attorney General Palmer set out on a flaring anti-Communist crusade. In his book on the 1920's "Only Yesterday," Frederick Lewis Allen

Palace In Florida

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—If you think elephants work for peanuts you should see a fine palace here by the bay.

It is a palace built from the labor of parading elephants, roaring lions, snarling tigers, laughing clowns and the pennies of millions of kids sipping pink lemonade.

They furnished the money for John Ringling, the circus man, to erect a million dollar mansion fashioned after a doge's palace in Venice.

It is by far the most pretentious home in Florida.

But the great palace, set off by sapphire waters and exotic trees from many lands, is only the shell. An astute art collector, he culled the world and spent $2,000,000 for treasured antiques to furnish it in a way he thought suitable for the wife of the world's greatest circus master.

Six gondolas were anchored in the bay at all times, available to guests.

The dining room had two priceless Titian paintings and a solid walnut table seating 42 people. The bar in the next room came from the celebrated old Waldorf hotel in New York.

In his library Ringling had 1,000 rare art volumes. In his bathroom he had his own private barber chair and a bathtub made from one chunk of pure Sienna marble. The faucet was of solid gold. It leaked.

Mrs. Ringling's bedroom was furnished with Louis XV rosewood delicacy.

The house was opened just before Christmas, 1926. Her expansive husband had built her a museum as much as a home, but Mabel Ringling made it her own in a woman's way. She sewed her own lampshades and bedcovers. Her handwork helped give it a "lived-in" flavor.

But in 1929—less than three years after the mansion was completed—she died. From then on John Ringling had little pleasure in his palace by the bay. He died in 1936 and willed it to the State of Florida.

It was closed for years. Fifteen thousand sightseers tried to get in to view it when it was opened to the public last Dec. 15. Now 300 to 400 tourists come daily to gawk at the gold faucet and put their feet on the old Waldorf bar rail.

Affairs Of The World—DeWitt MacKenzie

UN Ineffective For Greek Problem

When President Truman made his historic appeal to the country to provide Greece and Turkey with aid to resist communist aggression he explained that "the United Nations and its related organizations are not in a position to extend help of the kind that is required."

The Chief Executive didn't state specifically why the UN couldn't function, and small wonder that he didn't, for the answer is an embarrassing paradox. Our new peace league can't act because the world is so terribly divided against itself ideologically that there is no peace. Greece and Turkey represent a bone of contention between the two camps.

The UN security council is charged with the responsibility of preserving peace and security in such cases as those of Greece and Turkey. Of the eleven members of the council, six are elected for a short term but the big five—America, Britain, Russia, France and China—are permanent, and each of them possesses a veto power which can nullify any action by the majority.

What earthly chance would there be of agreement over such a controversial issue as the Greco-Turkish affair, with Russia on one side and the rest of the world on the other? We've already had an answer demonstrated innumerable times, for the Soviet delegation has been playing hand-ball with the veto. This powerful weapon has been used so persistently by the Russians that much of the effort of the council has been nullified, as witness yesterday's whitewash of Albania after the council had held it indirectly responsible for blowing up two British warships with sea-mines in the Corfu Channel.

Does all this mean that the magnificent new home which is to be built for the UN in New York will become—as did the marble palace of the League of Nations—a mausoleum of dead

Three Postwar Magazines In Texas

The road is rocky in the Texas magazine field, but the three major postwar periodicals are still in their publishing.

They are, listed according to age, The Texas Spectator, Texas Week and Scene. All have skipped issues for various reasons. But none have folded.

The Spectator is published weekly at Austin. Harold Young, former Houston newspaperman, is editor. C. Badger Reed, Austin businessman, has put up most of the money. It is over one year old.

The Spectator is small in size and originally ran eight pages an issue. Later, when its format was reduced, it increased the number of pages to sixteen. It has rarely carried any advertising, its circulation is under 2,000 but its overhead is low.

The Spectator seeks the support of Texas liberals with its usual frankness that unless they came to its aid, it would have to quit. It had skipped a Christmas holiday issue. In the March 24 issue it reported developments.

It announced that $4,655.50 had been contributed by well-wishers and that it would publish through April 14 at least. Meanwhile, it would plug for more funds. The $4,655.50 in small donations, was short of its goal.

Texas Week is published weekly by Bruce Collier and Raymond Holbrook and a staff of enthusiastic GI's. It is modeled after Time magazine, but it limits its news and feature coverage to Texas. The veterans started The Weekly in August, 1946, making it six months old. They pooled the money they had saved from the war.

The first issues were printed by the offset process in Austin. Each issue ran about 16 pages.

Advertising was solicited, but was slow in developing. Not long ago the veterans moved to Dallas to be closer to a new printer, who was able to print on a better grade of paper, and by the regular printing press method. The going was rough. Circulation steadily climbed and today is over 10,000. But advertising is still lagged. Several issues were skipped, but one is planned for March 29. It will continue, the publishers say, and subscribers who have missed issues will get their full year's total by an extension of expiration dates.

The newest of the Texas magazines is Scene, published in Dallas by Wayland and Clyda Boles. It is a slick paper job that covers the Southwest (Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona) and later hopes to change the title to "Scene, the Magazine of the South and West" instead of "Scene, the Magazine of the Southwest."

Its first issue appeared in February, ran 54 pages, carried plenty of advertising. The publishers ran into mechanical and organizational difficulties and skipped the March issue. The next, or April issue, will be out Friday. They say they won't skip any more.

In Hollywood—Bob Thomas

Peck Says Movies Ducking Issues

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—The time has come, says Gregory Peck, an earnest young man, "for the movie industry to stop ducking the issues which confront us in real life."

On a clear day you could hear almost any serious actor voicing such an opinion, but in Greg's case, it's different. He's actually doing something about it. He has accepted roles in two films dealing with anti-semitism, "Gentlemen's Agreement" and "Earth and High Heaven." In both pictures he'll play a Jew.

"They are fine stories with strong roles," he declared on "The Parade Case" set. "They reflect events that are happening today and there is no reason why the screen should shy away from such subjects."

He emphasized that the films would be made for entertainment, not propaganda value, "for that is the purpose of pictures, I believe."

"My wife will never make another picture for me."

That's the statement of Jack Wrather, Texas oil millionaire turned movie producer and recently the husband of Bonita Granville. The blonde actress recently starred in his "The Guilty," but won't appear in "High Tide," though there are two suitable roles for her.

"Any two people," he explains, "who are sincere in their work can't help having honest differences of opinion. But it can become marital dynamite if carried into the home."

Romanian King May Grow Produce

BUCHAREST, (AP)—King Michael has been asked by his agriculture minister to plant vegetables in the palace gardens instead of flowers to help combat famine.

Traian Savulescu, the minister, announcing a new general agricultural mobilization law was being drafted to help fight Romania's food shortage, said that even members of Parliament will be asked to join in ploughing and tilling, along with other citizens.

Indirectly he admitted negotiations for relief grain in Washington had not progressed and he told the chamber of deputies that Romania must rely on her own efforts rather than on outside help.

German Fishermen Getting New Homes

SYLT, Germany, (AP)—Former German army barracks on this North Sea island are being rebuilt to house the German fishermen and their families who used to live on Helgoland and Schleswig-Holstein.

Sylt offers them virtually the same conditions they were used to on Helgoland and they can again pursue their fishing industry from the "New Helgoland."

The new colony is expected to be ready for occupancy by summer. The Royal Navy intends to blow up the extensive military installations on Helgoland fishermen to live there in the future although two of its harbors will remain to shelter fishermen from storms.

Prep Track And Field Athletes Threaten Several State Marks

Record-approaching performances in the high jump and discus throw feature the Texas Schoolboy Track and Field campaign as the teams point toward district and regional meets to determine participants in the state meet May 2 and 3.

Byron Townsend of Odessa, an All-State football player, has leaped 6 feet 3 inches in the high jump—an inch and a quarter under the state record.

Gene Salmon of Del Rio has flipped the discus 151 feet 10 inches, which is less than four feet below the state standard of 155 feet 7 inches.

Top individual performers of the state appear to be Cleburne Price of North Dallas, who last year was high point man of the state meet, and Arthur Brown, Corpus Christi sprinter. The versatile Dallas boy is a leading hurdler and jumper and runs on a sprint relay team with one of the year's best times—44.9 Brown has done 100 yards in 10.1, 220 yards in 22.0 and 440 yards in 51.0.

Three defending state champions are back: Price in the low hurdles, Lee Miller of Burbank (San Antonio) in the high hurdles and Ken Jackson of Austin in the shot put.

Alan Milheim of Jeff Davis (Houston), who was second in the 100-yard dash in the state meet last year, is one of the leaders in this event this year with 10.1 but the best time for the century thus far was turned in yesterday by Jerome Zabojsnik of Forest (Dallas) in a meet at Dallas when he did 9.9 with a wind in his back. In the same meet Corky Bridgeman of Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) ran 220 yards in 21.5 and Bob Beasley of Forest registered 22.6 in the low hurdles.

Robert Smith of Lamar (Houston), second in the state meet shot put, has hit 50 feet 11 inches this season but Francis Meyer of Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), who finished fifth, has out-thrown them all this season with 52 feet 7 1/2 inches.

Bill Graff of Corpus Christi, second in the half-time, is one of the leaders in that race with 2:06.8. Austin, Corpus Christi and Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) appear to be the leading contenders for the team championship.

Best marks in the state this season:

100-yard dash—Bridgeman 9.9; Milheim, Brown and Floyd Rogers, Austin, 10.1.

220-yard dash—Bridgeman 21.5; Brown 22.0.

440-yard dash—Brown 51.0; Angel Colorado, Bowie (El Paso), 51.8.

120-yard high hurdles—Miller 15.1; Jay, Brady, 15.2.

200-yard low hurdles—Bob Beasley, Forest (Dallas), 22.6; Billy Bless, Jefferson (San Antonio); Price and Gene Wilson, Corpus Christi, 23.1.

880-yard run—Ceser Bernal, San Antonio Tech, 2:06.5; Graff 2:06.8.

1 mile run—Jim McMahon, San Antonio Tech, 4:45.8; Norman Alsbrook, Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) 4:48.2.

440-yard relay—San Antonio Tech 44.5; North Dallas 44.9.

Shot put—Meyer, 52 feet 7 1/2 inches; Johnny Hatley, Uvalde, 51 feet 1 inch.

Discus throw—Salmon 151 feet 10 inches; Bryan, Brackenridge (San Antonio), 138 feet.

Broad jump—Atkinson, Burnet, 21 feet 11 inches; Arthur Ochota, Laredo, 21 feet 6 1/4 inches.

High jump—Townsend 6 feet 3 inches; Elmo Wade, Mercedes, 6 feet 1/2 inch.

Pole vault—Richard Jaqua, Highland Park (Dallas), 12 feet 1 inch; Paul Faulkner, Paschal (Fort Worth), and Charles Pinnel, Andrews, 11 feet 6 inches.

1 mile relay—Paschal (Fort Worth), 3:34.1; Austin 3:36.6.

BS Cycle Club To Stage Meet On August 31

The Big Spring Motorcycle club, an affiliate of the AMA, will stage a racing program Sunday, August 31, but just where the event will be unreported remains to be worked out by local members.

Big Spring was allocated that day at last Sunday's district AMA meeting held in Austin, which was held in the Hotel Driskell in that city.

Four members represented the local club. They were Olen Baldo, president; Elliott Yell, club referee; Bill Henley and Cecil Thixton, members.

The Big Springs left Saturday afternoon and returned Monday, making the trip both ways by motorcycle. All but six clubs in the state were represented at the party.

Several local riders are planning on attending a field day at Wichita Falls next Sunday.

ABC LAUNCHES SHOW TONIGHT

LOS ANGELES, March 27. (AP)—The American Bowling Congress, annual big show of the nation's keggers, gets underway tonight for the first time west of the Rockies, with a host of dignitaries invited to participate in the launching ceremony of the 47-day tournament.

The National Guard Army in Exposition Park, next door neighbor of Los Angeles' huge Olympic Games Stadium, the Coliseum, was redecorated for the event in a Spanish motif, and, according to ABC custom, 36 new alleys were installed.

Gov. Earl Warren of California and Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Los Angeles were named to send the first balls rolling down the lanes to open the tournament.

Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce officials, sponsoring the tournament, toned down previous entry and prize money figures. It appeared that entries would be nearer 17,000 than 18,000, and prize money will amount to $214,732 instead of the previous quarter-million dollar estimate.

Once the ceremonies are disposed of, official tournament competition begins.

A total of 491 cities are represented in the entries. California as the host state naturally sent in the largest number of five-man teams, 2,259, but the mid-west, the nation's stronghold of bowlers, otherwise dominated the field. Ohio will send 135 teams, Illinois 106 and Michigan 100 and New York 90. Total teams entered were 3,356. The 1940 tournament at Detroit brought a record 6,973 teams.

The tournament ends May 12.

HOUSTON, March 27. (AP)—The Beaumont Exporters defeated the Houston Buffs 10-8 in a Texas League baseball game yesterday.

Russell Burns hit a home run with two men on base in the seventh inning and a triple in the ninth that scored two more runs to lead the Beaumont attack.

TRIBE NUGDES PEBB

JACKSONVILLE, March 27. (AP)—A ninth-inning single with a man on gave the Oklahoma Indians a 3-2 victory over the Little Rock Travelers in an exhibition baseball game here yesterday.

Looking 'Em Over

With TOMMY HART
Milton (Speedy) Moffett, the Stanton product who applied for the head football coaching job here after Johnny Dibrell checked out, has signed on as aide to Red Ramsey at San Angelo high. Speedy told us at Clarence Fox's coaching school the deal was on the fire.

All who know him agree that it's good to have Obie Bristow's one-time lieutenant back in the coaching game. Moffett knows his football. He preaches blocking, blocking and more blocking to his troops. For that reason, the Bobcats can be expected to mow down the opposition from now on.

Moffett got out of the coaching game at Greenville some years ago. At that time, his employers used the rather lame excuse that he was too young to be a head coach! The truth of the matter was, one faction was fighting another in that city and the side which hired him lost its support on the school board shortly after he took the job.

They've never stopped wrangling in Greenville, have never come up with a winner there since Henry Frnka and Moffett departed. The coaching fraternity calls the village 'a coach's graveyard.'

Speed is on his way up again, is bound to go places. It's hard to keep a good man down.

John Norris, the former Piedmont league operative, stopped off here earlier in the week on his way back to his home at LaJolla, Calif., and informed the local baseball chieftains, Joe Langston and Pat Stasey, he would be back next week to start working out with the Broncs.

Norris may solve Stasey's second base problems. He hit Class B pitching creditably and can field up to par.

Johnny is the boy who wrote Langston a couple of months ago that he wanted to move to West Texas because of his wife's health.

Bobby Decker, the one-time Big Spring, is given a good chance of sticking with the Little Rock Travelers of the Southern Association, where Bill Dick-ey has the managerial reins.

Robin went from Borger of the WT-NM league to Little Rock, is one of four candidates trying out for the third base post.

Carl Kott, newly named skipper of the Vernon Longhorn league entry, was lined up to go to Odessa before he signed on with the Dusters but something went amiss.

At the present time, the Odessa job is the only one in the six-club league that is open. Other skippers in the circuit are Our Town's Stasey, Roland Murphy, Sweetwater; Stu Williams at Ballinger and Harold Webb at Midland.

Uniforms and other equipment for the American Legion Junior baseball team are already here and will be distributed within the near future.

Those youngsters who don't make Conn Isaacs' High school team will get a chance to play with the Legionnaires.

Reports from sportsmen who have fished at Twelve Mile lake west of town say the cat fish are so prolific there they're bumping into one another.

Denison's Yellow Jackets, who play the Big Spring football Steers next Oct. 31, will go into spring drills about the same time the Bovines start their work.

Les Cranfill, coach of the Denison eleven, has lined up non-conference bouts with Wichita Falls, San Angelo and Amarillo in addition to Big Spring. Jacket followers are calling it the toughest program their hopefuls have ever undertaken.

The Big Spring-Denison contract is for but one year, incidentally. There is no indication the Jackets will return the game here in 1948.

Gallagher Diamond Coach At SF Austin

NACOGDOCHES, March 27. (AP) Joe Gallagher, 33, of Buffalo, N. Y., former major leaguer, has been named baseball coach of Stephen F. Austin State College. He will begin his duties immediately.

Gallagher, who played with Montreal in the International League last season, was with the Brooklyn Dodgers for two years prior to entering the armed service in 1941. Previously he played with the St. Louis Browns and the New York Yankees.

Pasquel's Folly Tries It Again

MEXICO CITY, March 27. (AP)—A sadly deflated Mexican baseball league opens its 1947 season today in sharp contrast to the fanfare of a year ago, when the wealthy brothers Pasquel were attempting to lure US major leaguers across the border with fancy salaries.

In the past month three teams have dropped from the eightclub loop and one has re-entered. Team rosters issued last week did not include the names of nine costly former major league players who were in the Cactus Circuit last year.

To top the Pasquels' troubles, Cuban Agapito Mayor and Isidoro Leon, listed to play this season with league President Jorge Pasquel's Veracruz Blues, took the plane to Havana yesterday. Mayor was scheduled to pitch today's opener against the Mexico City Reds here.

Former US major leaguers listed as having signed 1947 contracts with the Mexican league follow, with their former major and present club: Alejandro Carrasquel, White Sox, Mexico City; Tumas de la Cruz, Cincinnati Reds, Mexico City; Robert Estalella, Athletics, San Luis Potosi; Rolando Gladu, Dodgers; San Luis Potosi; Myron Dayworth, St. Louis Browns, San Luis Potosi; Adolfo Luque, Giants, Puebla; Salvatore Maglie, Giants, Puebla; Rene Montague, Philadelphia Phillies, San Luis Potosi; Jorge Comellas, Chicago Cubs, San Luis Potosi; Luis Olmo, Dodgers, Veracruz; Robert Ortiz, Senators, Mexico City; James Steiner, Indians, Veracruz; Adrian Zabalza, Giants, Puebla.

Big Leaguers not on the rosters, but who are reported here "talking things over" with league and club officials are Lou Klein, Cardinals, Veracruz; George Hausman, Giants, Torreón; Fred Martin, Cardinals, Mexico City; Murray Franklin, Tigers, Tampico.

Big League Nines Hit Texas Soon

Fifteen exhibition games with major league clubs will be played by Texas League members in Texas starting next week.

Dallas has the heaviest schedule, the League champions meeting the Boston Red Sox, Chicago Cubs, Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Cardinals in six games. Houston also meets the Red Sox and Cardinals and Fort Worth plays the Red Sox, White Sox and Cubs.

Beaumont and San Antonio, other Texas League members within the state, do not have exhibition games, the latter because its park won't be ready until after the regular season opens.

Here is the big league exhibition schedule:
Fort Worth—April 1, Red Sox; April 5, White Sox; April 7, Cubs; April 8, Cubs.

Dallas—April 2, Red Sox; April 5, Cubs; April 6, White Sox; April 7, Cubs; April 8, Cardinals; April 9, Cardinals.

Houston—March 31, Red Sox; April 5, 6 and 7, Cardinals (with double-header April 6).

Sheppard Accepting Applications For Local Gun Club

Resident adults or high school students who desire to hold membership in local gun clubs being formed here can make application through Capt. Olvy Sheppard of the Salvation Army.

Sheppard announced Wednesday that he had obtained permission from the city to use the ranges west of town.

Nominal membership fees will be charged. All affiliated with the clubs will be eligible to participate in any "meet sanctioned by the American Rifle association.

Small bore rifles and pistols will be used in club shooting.

Softball League Begins Play Monday, April 14

6 Teams Seek Membership

Representatives of six softball clubs met in organizational parley at the Settles hotel last night and definitely committed their contingents for summer play and indications are that two other brigades will be ready for competition by the time the campaign gets underway on Monday, April 14.

Teams represented included American Legion, Municipal Airport, Howard County Junior college, Big Spring Hardware, Forsan Cosden Pipeliners and Big Spring Motor company.

Others which had made application for entry but did not have delegates at the session were the ABCUB and Big Spring Herald.

All contingents applying for entry on or before April 5 will be considered for membership but those who act first will, of course, be given the most consideration. Membership will be limited to eight teams.

Managers voted to confine play to the nights when the local professional baseball team is out of town, electing to give the Bronco management unlimited co-operation in that respect.

Ordinarily, teams will play Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week. The championship will be decided after a Shaughnessy playoff with the first four teams in final standings playing for the title. Regular season's play will end August 15 while the whole thing will be wound up by Sept. 1. First round of the Shaughnessy arrangement will be decided in the best two of three games, the second in a three-for-five series.

Teams will be permitted to carry 18 men on their rosters. After the season gets underway, players who depart one team for another will be ineligible for two weeks.

Tommy Hart was named chairman of the arbitration committee. Pete Farquhar and Leon Glenn Bredemeyer were selected to draw up a schedule while Doyle Tourney and Bill Horne will scout for umpires.

The arbiters will be paid $2 apiece for each game they work. Team managers will supply the funds to pay them.

At least one game a week will be played on the Forsan diamond, the remainder at the city park.

Team rosters must be in the hands of the arbitration committee by April 12. The first game will get underway nightly at 7:30 p.m., the second not later than 9:20 o'clock.

Managers will convene again Monday, April 7, at which time final plans will be cemented and the stage set for the opening of the season.

Those who attended last night's meeting included Pete Farquhar, American Legion; E. L. Hill, Airport; Bill Horne, HCJC; Doyle Tourney, Big Spring Hardware; Lewis Heusel, Forsan Pipeliners; Glenn Bredemeyer, Big Spring Motor; and Robert H. Mullins and Ocle Hensen, unattached.

The average yield of corn on US land is 33 bushels per acre but yields of 140 bushels to the acre are not uncommon and there is one report of a yield of 225 bushels an acre.

Malaise Names Part Of Team

John Malaise, local high school tennis coach, may take only a boys' team to the Sweetwater invitational net meet, which takes place in that city Saturday.

Malaise said this morning that several of his leading girl racketeers had been ill and were not in shape and others were engaged in school activities that would demand their time.

The coach has selected his doubles team and was to pick the singles player after a match between Kelly Lawrence and Bill Montgomery this afternoon on the Steer stadium courts.

The doubles team will consist of B. B. Lees and Culin Grigsby. Sweetwater's show will attract teams from all District 3AA schools and other communities within a radius of 50 miles of the Nolan county capital.

Motorists Play Again Friday

Big Spring Hardware's Spartans and Big Spring Motor company play a softball game at the city park Friday night, starting the fireworks at 7:30 o'clock.

Doyle Tourney, who will skipper the Spartans again this season, announced Wednesday that Johnny "Hawk" Daylong would probably toe the slab for his club. Daylong played with the Motorists against American Legion Tuesday and hit a grand-slam home run.

BAYLOR THRASHED
DALLAS, March 27. (AP)—The Dallas Rebels started slowly and ended with an explosion of base hits yesterday to defeat Baylor University's baseball team 14-4 in an exhibition game.

Cubans Arrive Here Tonight

Five members of the Big Spring Longhorn baseball league club, farmed out here by the Washington Senators, are scheduled to arrive here at 11:30 o'clock tonight to begin spring training.

They are Jose Traspuerto, Humberto Baez and Jose Cedan, all pitchers; and Andres Uramonte and Orlando Moreno, infielders. All are from Havana, Cuba, have been playing winter ball in that country.

Joe Langston, general manager of the team, said he was expecting at least two other players to be sent here by Joe Cambria, Washington scout.

George Moriarity Heads Ump Clinic

DALLAS, March 27. (AP)—George Moriarity, the former major league baseball player, manager and umpire, opens a four-day clinic for umpires here today with young arbiters from ten leagues in the Dallas zone attending.

The school is one of seven to be held in the minor league zones set up by George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Minor Baseball Leagues, in an effort to improve officiating in the smaller circuits.

Attendance is voluntary. Many of the leagues sending umpires to the Dallas school paid the expenses of the trip.

Moriarity said he planned to hold lectures at first but planned to move outdoors for actual work later in the session.

Charlotte Field Off

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 27. (AP)—A field of 150 professional and amateur golfers teed off here today for glory and $10,000 in prize money in the fourth annual Charlotte Open Golf tournament.

Male Chorus Will Sing Of Big Spring

Less than a year old the Texas & Pacific male chorus will be tackling a tough assignment when it sings "Big Spring" here Friday evening.

The chorus will not observe its first birthday as an organization until April 24, but in that space of time it has become a closely knit musical organization. Evidence of its ambition and fidelity is manifested in the decision to tackle the 74-page cantata, written by Frank Grandstaff. In lighter music this would have been quite a chore, but on music as difficult and embodying as many moods as that of Grandstaff, it was a monumental task.

There are 28 members of the unit which had its beginning with talk of a quartet. But the more the vocal-minded men got together, the more it became obvious that nothing short of a chorus would do.

For three months attendance fluctuated between 20 and 40. Some decided their knowledge of music was inadequate. Some found rehearsal too great a drain on leisure. Ultimately, it boiled down to 28 voices from auditions held by Director Maurice Peterman.

During the first six months Mrs. Lillian Wenzler served ungrudgingly as accompanist, contributing to the success of the chorus. When she was obliged to retire, Donald Bobb took over and has been a key figure in the organization.

Several months after organization of the chorus, Shine Phillips, author of the book, "Big Spring," sent a copy of the 74-page cantata of the same name to the public relations department of the T&P. Curiously, it was for male voices.

Unquestionably it was a heavy assignment for a volunteer group of employees from the T&P general offices in Dallas. Despite limited spare time, they devoted from five to 10 hours a week for the past two months for practice, for 70-odd pages of music can't be learned overnight. But the chorus seemed to gain inspiration from the undertaking and steadily polished off the interpretation of the unique work.

Among other engagements filled by the chorus, which steadily is becoming one of the finest organizations of its kind in the Southwest, are concerts at Dallas, Marshall and Fort Worth.

Commission Of Educators Warns Freedom Of Press Is Endangered

CHICAGO, March 27. (AP) — A warning that American freedom of the press is in danger was given today by a commission of educators and others who have just finished a three-year study of the question.

The commission, headed by Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago, made its statement in a book, "A Free and Responsible Press," published by the University of Chicago press.

Including newspapers, radio, motion pictures, magazines and books in its definition of "press," it said the "crisis" today is "simply a stage in the long struggle for free expression" and that freedom will not be "swept away overnight."

The danger, it said, "is in part the consequence of the economic structure of the press, in part the consequence of the industrial organization of modern society, and in part the result of the failure of the directors of the press to recognize the press needs of a modern nation and accept the responsibilities which those needs impose upon them."

The commission said that while the importance of the press to the people has greatly increased with its development "as an instrument of mass communication," the proportion of people who can express their opinions through the press has "greatly decreased."

"The few who are able to use the machinery of the press . . . have not provided a service adequate to the needs of the society," the commission asserted. It said they "have engaged from time to time in practices which the society condemns and which, if continued, it will inevitably undertake to regulate or control."

Insurance Agents To Meet Friday

A delegation composed of several local insurance agents will attend a West Texas Sales Congress of the Texas Association of Life Underwriters in Lubbock Friday.

The program is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a. m. in the Hilton hotel.

Speakers will include Harry R. Schultz of Chicago, Pearl Easley, Oklahoma City, Harry Gately, Jr., Fort Worth, C. L. McPherson, Fort Worth and Theo H. Spindle, San Antonio.

The congress was to be preceded today by a tri-district meeting of Amicable Insurance company representatives.

A typical Army division in 1918 used motor vehicles totalling 4,000 rated horsepower while a mechanized division in 1945 has more than 187,000 horsepower.

Civic And Safety Talks Heard By Lions Members

A man who came to Big Spring by pure calculation told members of the Lions club Wednesday why he made the choice.

He was William E. Greenlees, city judge and private attorney. Greenlees told Lions he chose Big Spring as a home because it seemed to be "the soundest city in West Texas."

Then he recalled how he deliberately set about weighing the various factors in favor of West Texas cities and decided that Big Spring had an unusually stable economy, and an above the average cultural and moral fibre, and a strong bar organization. If there was one suggestion that Greenlees had for improvement of the city, it was in further support of the churches with the view of "strengthening our moral fibre, without which any nation or city cannot continue to thrive."

In an illustrated talk, S. L. (Buck) Wright, Dallas, general agent for the Texas & Pacific Railway company, told the club about the problems of grade crossing accidents. He depicted such cartoon characters as Freddy Floorboard, George Gatecrasher, Atomic Tom, etc., all showing impatient characters who race trains to the crossings, ignore gate, flag signals, or light signals, who drive on tracks without looking, or speed over crossings the instant the track seemingly is clear. Half of the mishaps at crossings occur where some type of visible or audible warning is given, he said.

Lions were urged by K. H. McGibbon, chamber of commerce president, and Bill Dawes, presiding, to attend the "Big Spring" cantata Friday evening.
