Christmas at Tahoka

Christmas eve day Tahoka was all aflutter with excitement and anticipation. The Christmas tree was installed at the school house and the decorating committee took charge. Presents came in as fast as they could be handled. The decorations were beautiful and the display of presents lavish. Mesdames Chisum McDaniel and Howell, assisted by a bevy of pretty girls, ably managed the decoration of the tree. They certainly understood the art of pleasing as the tree was one of the handsomest ever.

There were no improper presents allowed and nothing happened to wound feelings or mar the enjoyment of the occasion. About sundown the expectant throng began to gather. At seven o'clock Mr.
Whipp took charge of the exercises which began with Coronation sung by the audience.

Judge Perryman rendered the opening address in his usual faultless style, not a word too much or too little. Mr. Chisum opened the distribution of presents with a prayer of thankfulness and a short talk on the Christmas spirit. "Old Santy", then entered and the business of the evening began. Every one present was liberally remembered and for fear that some one would be disappointed Dr. Windham sent a box of toys for free distribution to any one who might be overlooked. The occasion was in typical plains spirit, ruled by kind feeling and brotherly love.

I would like to say to my customers, who are owing me for blacksmith work, that it is time to come in and settle their accounts.
A blacksmith likes to see the wheels coming his way as well as any man does.

tending school. He will spend the

Mr. Walter White and Miss Laura Nevils were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Thursday Dec. 27 at 2:30 P.M., Rev. Gore officiating. Miss Laura was one of Tahoka's brightest and best, to see her was to love her, and we shall miss her sadly from the circle which she has adorned for so long. We offer hearty congratulations to the groom and wish the bride all the joy and sunshine this world can give.

John Holder of the T— settlement was thrown from his horse last Monday morning and badly hurt. He fell across a plow and cut his side badly. He lay where he fell for several hours but no one came to aid him and night was coming on. A gentle horse came up near where he was and he managed to catch and ride him a mile or two to the home of a neighbor where he was taken in and cared for. Dr. McCoy was summoned and arrived about midnight, dressed the wound and made him comfortable generally. He is doing nicely now.

Another election is to be held in Lynn County the 21st day of January 1907 for the purpose of electing a State Senator for this the Abilene District to fill the vacancy resulting from the resignation of State Senator A. S. Hawkins. There will be but one issue, "Bailey" or "Anti Bailey". Hon. A. S. Hawkins will run again. The Bailey men met in Abilene Dec. 24 and nominated District Attorney W. F. Cunningham as a candidate in opposition.

Standerfer, of Lubbock, wishes to let the people of Lynn County know that he has employed his attorney, bought the best instrument the Gurley Manufacturing Co., make, and that he is ready to fulfill his part of the contract and do the surveying just as soon as the signatures for the 100 sections are secured so it is now up to the people of this county to get busy.

Doak-Stokes

Last Sunday Dec. 23—8:30 A. M. the Tahoka Hotel was the scene of a very pretty wedding. The occasion was the marriage of the proprietor's daughter, Miss Minnie Stokes to Mr. Ira Doak of this place. The bride was arrayed in a lovely creation of pearl gray broadcloth and white velvet trimmed in white silk and white applique. Rev. Gore pronounced the mystic words which joined two bright young lives and happy hearts, for the journey of life. After the ceremony which was witnessed by the relatives and only a few friends; the bride donned her traveling dress, a jacket suit of blue serge, long white gloves and a blue picture hat trimmed with large plumes.

The departure was made through a blinding shower of rice, and the lucky "old shoes", were in evidence, one complacently riding on top of the buggy and one jauntily swinging from the axle. If rice and shoes are omens, joy and plenty will go with them all the days of their life.

Mr. Joe Stokes and Miss Annie Cowen, Mr. Joe Elliott and Miss Linnie Bigham and Mr. D Gilmore and Miss Allie McLoud, formed a gay party to escort the departing couple as far as Moore's Draw where a sumptuous repast was spread picnic fashion, to which all did justice. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Doak took up their journey to Snyder where they went to spend Christmas and participate in a reunion of the Doak family. Miss Minnie's bright face and gay laughter will be missed by both old and young. Mr. Doak is a young man whose qualities and steady ways will make him a valued citizen wherever he goes. The young people will make their home in Big Springs. The editor was invited to view the presents which made a handsome display, and consisted of the following.

Carving set J. B. Young, silver knives and forks Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Penney, silver fruit spoon Mr. and Mrs. Joe Penney, silver butter knife Mr. and Mrs. Bob Penney, handsome reading lamp Mr. and Mrs. Wells, bonbon dish Mrs. Stokes, bronze clock Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Robinson, picture Mr. Joe Elliott, paper rack Mr. Joe Stokes suite of furniture Mr. Stokes pin cushion Mrs. Green, linen towels Mrs. Royalty, linen table cloth and napkins Jink Penney, linen table cloth Mr. and Mrs. Elder Penney, linen table cloth and napkins Mrs. W. A MIRACULOUS CURE

The following statement by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, PA., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Eucalypt Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. LONG TENNESSEE FIGHT

Forty-two years W. L. Rawls, of Bell, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at the Tahoka Drug store. For sale by the Tahoka Drug Store.

THE BEST CROPP TO RAISE

Yesterday we learned from Mr. Reed that County Commissioner J. H. Ketter had been killing hogs. Two eleven month old shoats met their doom and as a result there are 1060 1/2 lbs. of hams, bacon, lard and sausage in the Ketter smoke-house; minus, of course, the spare ribs they sent the neighbors and fried in their own kitchen.

One of the porkers when dressed and ready to salt, weighed 556 1/2 and the other 533 lbs. Too busy this much preserved pig at the local groceries would require about $1.50—something more than the price of three bales of cotton. This is one branch of farming which has only been followed here the last year or so, but everyone who has tried it is more than satisfied.

Andrew McDaniel of Gomez was in Tahoka the last of the week.
