

The Texas and Pacific male chorus, shown above, will present the world premier of "Big Spring" this evening at 8 o'clock in the city auditorium under auspices of the chamber of commerce. The T and P chorus, rapidly becoming one of the finest organizations of its kind in the southwest, is made up of 28 voices. They have accepted the moody cantata by Frank Grandstaff as evidence of their virtuosity in the vocal field. Its unusual harmony and contrasting moods are well voiced by the chorus, quartet and soloists in this group that still is less than a year old.

Preview Of Musical Story Of Big Spring Is Success

The musical story of a spring and a town—"Big Spring"—has its premiere promptly at 8 p.m. today in the city auditorium. Based on widespread interest, a capacity crowd is due for the presentation of the song to a people about their town. The program will be broadcast over KBST. An audience composed largely of high school students heard the first public performance of "Big Spring" composed by Frank M. Grandstaff, life-terminer in the Tennessee penitentiary, at 11 a.m. today. Under the direction of Maurice Peterman, the Texas and Pacific Male chorus of Dallas gave a fine interpretation of the difficult work. Woven into a tapestry of solos, quartet and choral numbers, the cantata lived up to advanced notices that it was music of many moods. At times it was spirited, sparkling, vivacious, and frequently the swelling into an anthem, in other moments it was ponderous, doleful and carrying the mood of the "dead winds." Students applauded it into curtain calls. Introduced to the audience were W. G. Vollmer, president of the PREMIERE IS FREE! Everyone is invited to the premiere of "Big Spring," starting promptly at 8 p.m. today. While old timers are honor guests, attendance is by no means restricted to them, the chamber of commerce announced. Outside of the old timers, there are no reserved seats. Texas and Pacific Railway company, who came here for the premiere. Also introduced to the audience were L. C. Porter, assistant to the president, and J. B. Shores, director of public relations. Shine

Phillips, whose book inspired Grandstaff's composition, was presented. In the audience also were other T&P officials and a large number of adults who came for the morning performance. Among the visiting press were Bill Barnard of the Associated Press and Clay Bailey, Dallas Times Herald. Others were expected for the premiere this evening. Narration for the two parts of the cantata was furnished by J. N. Young, Jr., who furnished the background for the story and the music. Donald Bobb handled the difficult accompaniment with expertise. Indications were that upwards of 300 old timers would be on hand for the premiere at 8 p.m. At the chamber of commerce office Thursday afternoon there was

Arvel Moore, 39, Is Drowned Near Moss Creek Dam

Moss Creek lake claimed its first drowning victim at approximately 3:15 p.m. Thursday when Arvel Moore, 39, a resident of the Midway community, tumbled into the waters near the dam after his boat had capsized. Observers said Moore apparently tried to swim to shore rather than take a chance on hanging onto the overturned boat and fell short of his goal by about 100 feet. He made no outcry. He had lost his balance in the craft after standing up, apparently to run his fishing line. Among those who witnessed the tragedy were John T. Reynolds, C. W. Kesterson, L. R. McLeod and Dewey Colburn. The body was recovered by Frank Covert, care-taker, with the aid of drag hooks a short time later. Covert resorted to the use of the hooks after efforts of swimmers to locate the victim had failed. Moore was born Sept. 3, 1907, in Howard county. He had lived in this section most of his life. Services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Eberley chapel. He will be buried in the Coahoma cemetery beside his wife, who preceded him in death by nine years. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. L. V. Moore; a son Dennis; daughter, Vendetta; brother, Oscar A. Moore; three sisters, Mrs. Omie Parker, Mrs. Rhoda Hurst and Mrs. R. L. Southland, all of Big Spring.

Marshall Asks Ministers To Streamline Job

MOSCOW, Mar. 28. (AP)—US Secretary of State Marshall proposed to the council of foreign ministers tonight a drastic three-point streamlining of its work on current German peace treaty problems with an April 2 deadline for completing the job. The speedup proposal met a generally favorable response from the other three ministers. The council, meanwhile, failed completely to break the deadlock on German assets in Austria, thus dimming the prospects for completing an Austrian treaty here. The Russians have begun a bargaining drive in the conference to get reparations from current German production. It was learned, but the United States and Britain thus far are standing against a proposed compromise. Iran served notice today, through Ambassador Prince Mozaffar Firouz, that she would claim reparations from Germany at the peace conference for war damages listed at $855,000,000. While Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov made clear from the start that continuing reparations is the most important Russian requirement in any German economic settlement, the situation had developed into a demand and counter-demand situation until an all-night session of the Big Four council's coordinating committee last night caused all the powers to begin playing some of their highest cards.

Austin Says Greek Aid Backs Charter

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., March 28. (AP)—Warren R. Austin explained to the United Nations today that President Truman's plans to help Greece and Turkey resist totalitarian pressure envisage a policy of using the power of the United States to back up the principles of the world charter. He made it clear, however, that American respects the right of all members of the UN to follow whatever way of life or system of government they choose, so long as the choice is freely made without intimidation and so long as such nations do not interfere with the rights of other countries or the liberties of other peoples. In a speech prepared for delivery to the Security Council this afternoon, the American representative to UN insisted that the proposed $400,000,000 aid program for Greece and Turkey has a specific and direct bearing upon the central objectives of US Foreign policy. That policy, Austin said, is "to strengthen the United Nations and to advance the building of collective security" under the world organization.

Bandit's Escape Plot Is Nipped

WACO, Mar. 28. (AP)—Walter Glen Ransom, northeast Texas' one-man crime wave of several weeks ago, was lodged in the Clarksville jail today after Sheriff C. G. Alexander yesterday reported an escape plot nipped here. Already under a 60-year sentence on a charge of robbing a grocery store here, the 23-year-old Ransom was moved to Red River county to stand trial on a charge of assault with intent to rob, filed in connection with a holdup in his brief spree in which two brothers were forced to accompany him. Alexander said Ransom had attempted to obtain a pistol and hacksaw blades through another prisoner, who expected to be released from jail shortly.

"They follow the Communist party lines in union activities," Sigler said, in testimony to the House unAmerican Activities Committee, with reference to these men: R. J. Thomas, former president and now vice president of the CIO-UAW; George Addes, secretary-treasurer, and Richard P. Leonard, national director of the Ford department.

The Big Spring Fire department rushed equipment to the Malone and Hogan hospital at 10 a.m. today when fire in a trash receptacle caused considerable smoke. The blaze was confined to a chute leading from the main floor to the boiler room, however, and damage was slight. Firemen theorized that a lighted cigarette got mixed with trash thrown into the chute. The fire caused considerable excitement as dense smoke poured into the waiting room on the first floor.

'Dad' Joiner, 87, Discoverer Of East Texas Oil Field, Succumbs

DALLAS, March 28. (AP)—Columbus M. (Dad) Joiner, 87, famous Texas oil man who struck the world's greatest oil fields in East Texas in 1930, died last night in a Dallas hospital. He died at 10:40 p. m. He had been admitted to the hospital late Sunday afternoon. Joiner was born on a farm, where he spent much of his boyhood. In early life he entered the mercantile business in Lawrenceburg, Tenn. His first venture in the oil business was profitable. He got an oil lease and sold it for $25. The lease later produced more than $6,000,000 and it launched his career as one of the most colorful figures in the country. In 1913 Joiner drilled his first well in Seminole, Okla. In the years that followed, he gained fame and wealth and probably sunk a hundred more wells in search of the fabulous black gold. The one the world remembers best, however, was the Daisy Bradford in Rusk county, the wildcat that roared a salute to a new era in East Texas. It marked the climax of a three-year search for the "big strike" in that area. The first producing well in the East Texas oil

Fund Asked For Bill On Last War

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28. (AP)—Carrying a jolting reminder that the cost of World War II didn't end when the last shot was fired, a $2,471,498,548 deficiency appropriation bill went to the House today with appropriations committee backing. Nearly 75 per cent of the total is accounted for by two items directly connected with the war: $1,451,894,500 for the Veterans Administration and $300,000,000 for relief in occupied areas abroad. Even so, the VA allotment is $551,020,000 below budget estimates. The relief fund is exactly what the President had asked. The total cut in the bill below administration requests is $628,140,156. Since the money is to augment funds previously appropriated for the current fiscal year ending next June 30, the measure has no direct bearing on the President's 1948 budget. That is the one House Republicans have promised to slash by $6,000,000,000. However, the bill does affect the budget for the present fiscal year and may determine whether the treasury winds up this year in the red or the black.

Diplomat Says Only A-Bomb Kept Soviet Within Boundaries

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—George H. Earle, one-time diplomat and governor of Pennsylvania, said today that if the United States "didn't have the A-bomb, Russian armies would have fanned out all over Europe today and over most of Asia." Earle told the House unAmerican activities that in such a Soviet advance, Sweden, Switzerland and Spain would be the "islands of resistance." "Governor," remarked Rep. Mundt (R-S.D.), "that is an important statement." "That's what I believe," Earle said. Preceding Earle in the witness chair, Gov. Kim Sigler of Michigan testified that three high officials in the CIO United Auto Workers Union are "captives of the communist party of the United States." Sigler said the three officials are: "R. J. Thomas, former president and now vice-president of the union; George Addes, union secretary-treasurer; and Richard P. Leonard, national director of the Ford department." Sigler added that "they follow the communist party lines in union activities." For months, the governor said, there has been a "terrific struggle" for control of the CIO-UAW in Detroit between communists and good loyal American citizens. Sigler said communism is a menace in this country, that it has invaded unions and schools in Michigan and that it is operating through at least 22 front organizations. The committee is considering bills to outlaw the communist party.

Commerce Head Said Negligent In Mine Tragedy

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—John L. Lewis said today the "111 coal miners, more or less" who lost their lives in a Centralia, Ill., mine explosion "have been murdered because of the criminal negligence of J. A. Krug." Lewis, president of the AFL-United Mine Workers, testified briefly at a Senate Public Lands Subcommittee considering the nomination of James Boyd, dean of the Colorado School of Mines, to be director of the Bureau of Mines. Lewis said the appointment was made by President Truman through Krug, Secretary of the Interior, and asked the committee and the Congress not to confirm Boyd. Lewis had listened to Boyd tell of his qualifications and when

COLLEGE STATION, March 28. (AP)—The Texas A&M College board of directors, meeting here today at 1 p.m., faced a demand voted last night at a mass meeting of the Veterans Students Association which claims to represent 5,733 student veterans, that President Gibb Gilchrist be removed from office. Gilchrist stepped out of his office briefly this morning to tell newspapermen that "I will make a statement to the board meeting this afternoon." He said he hoped the board would make his statement public. He would not comment further. The veterans also voted a motion expressing "lack of confidence in the entire administration" of the college.

Tax Cutting Bill Placed In Icebox

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee reserved a cold storage spot today for the House-approved tax cutting bill until members can find out more about government costs next year. Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) told a reporter that hearings on the measure to lop nearly $4,000,000,000 off this year's tax bills of 46,000,000 citizens "probably won't be started for several weeks." These hearings are necessary before the full Senate can act.

FBI Probe Asked Of Atom Appointees

WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) demanded in the Senate today an FBI investigation of atomic energy appointees—an inquiry which he said was refused by President Truman. Lillenthal as Commission chairman, read to the Senate a March 1 letter in which Mr. Truman said there is "no derogatory information" in government files against the nominee.

Tired, 'All-In'— Listless Feeling Brought To Halt

As Vibrant Energy is Released To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Do you get up in the mornings still tired, feel down-and-out all day? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Overwork, undue worry, cold, flu or other illness often wears down the red-blood-cells.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have positively proven that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give of that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, play better, feel better, work better, sleep better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps build sturdy health.

Premiere

A deluge of requests for seats. Only reservations were being made for those who were in Howard county prior to or in 1910.

At noon, the chorus, visiting T&P officials, local department heads of the company, chamber of commerce directors and guests were treated to an old fashioned barbecue at the site of the historic spring, long since barren because of a series of well taps above the escarpment where once issued the water which was the early day magnet of the area. Doug Orme was chairman of this activity.

The chorus and officials arrived early Friday morning by special cars from Dallas and were met by Shing Phillips, whose book "Big Spring" formed the inspiration for Grandstaff's musical composition.

In event of an over-flow crowd, the excess of guests this evening will be provided for at the East Fourth Baptist church, just across the street from the city auditorium. The broadcast will be picked up there so that no part of the program will be lost in returning home.

The old timers reserved section at the cantata "Big Spring" presentation tonight will include more than 300 seats at the municipal auditorium, the chamber of commerce announced this morning.

Several dozen long-time residents made requests for reservations just before the Thursday noon deadline.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE

... and Naturally
Admiration coffee

Though there may be many versions and differences of opinion about the "original" kind of strawberry shortcake—it is still universally conceded to be one of the most delicious desserts. But it is unanimously agreed that the really fine coffee is "Cup-Tested" ADMIRATION—the superb complement to an equally superb dessert.

IT'S "CUP-TESTED"

ADMIRATION'S full, mellow flavor—its abundant richness—and its fragrant aroma are kept in a high tradition by the same experts who originated the famous ADMIRATION blend. Only the finest coffees can give you this superior blend—and only the personally "Cup-Tested" ADMIRATION method can assure you the same quality—package after package.

Fact-Finders To Report Saturday
HARLINGEN, March 28. (AP)—Gov. Beauford Jester's fact-finding commission in the Odessa telephone dispute will meet in Austin on Saturday, Lloyd Steinberg, commission chairman, announced. Steinberg said he had invited attorneys for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company and the Southwestern Telephone Workers Union to attend the meeting and that the commission expected to submit its report to Gov. Jester by March 31.
He said that delay in obtaining a transcript of the testimony taken at the Odessa hearing has prevented an earlier meeting of the commission. Attorneys for both sides in the dispute which grew into a state-wide work stoppage in telephone exchanges have been asked to submit written recommendations for means of preventing similar tie-ups of public utilities in Texas.
The Odessa dispute grew out of a demand of members of the Odessa local of the union for removal or demotion of a woman night supervisor.

Nimitz Assures Revised Defense Plan Is Ready
WASHINGTON, March 28. (AP)—Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz assured senators today that a complete and up-to-date plan of defense for the United States is prepared and ready for immediate action.
Nimitz, top ranking active navy officer, said "comprehensive, integrated and complex" defense plans are constantly being revised. Some changes, he added, were approved by President Truman in recent months.
The matter was raised by Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) at hearings by the Senate armed forces committee on legislation to put all armed forces under a single department of national defense. Bridges said Secretary of War Patterson had told the committee there was no such plan.
Shaking his head, Nimitz said there are integrated plans calling for use of the army, navy and air forces to "keep ravages of war and areas of conflict as far removed" from the continental United States as possible.
He said they include:
A plan for joint defense of the United States and Canada from attack, including standardization of weapons.
A system of military, naval and air bases which had been submitted to the state department.
Special "on site" defense plans for Alaska and the Marianas.
Nimitz supported the so-called merger legislation but said each branch of the armed services should be free to develop and purchase its own specialized equipment.

Hardee Tract Leases In Scurry Are Sold
Sale of the A, B, C, and D leases on the Hardee tract in Scurry county has been announced here by I. Weiner and partner, John Ostracil, for a reported consideration of $213,000.
The deal covered 800 acres in a potential shallow production area and included two producing wells. Purchasers were D. D. Thomas, et al and Creslenn Oil company of Dallas.
In northwest Mitchell county, the Coleman ranch pool pointed toward its 11th producer in the Norman & Roche No. 1-B Coleman, section 70-97, H&TC, which cleaned out to bottom at 2,916 feet and ran rods and tubing. Doswell & Snowden No. 1 R. L. Solomon market a quarter-mile extension westward of the south end recently by pumping 226.8 barrels from 2,702-2,854 in 24 hours after shooting. It is 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 71-97, H&TC.
Currently, Norman & Roche have four producers. Butram, et al one, Tobe Foster three, R. L. Wheelock one and Doswell & Snowden one.
Butram, et al No. 2-A Coleman, section 70-97, H&TC, was at 2,213 feet in lime; 5-A S. R. Coleman 600 feet in redrock; and No. 3-A S. R. Coleman at 425 feet in red shale. Doswell & Snowden No. 2 R. L. Solomon, in section 71, was at 685 feet in redrock.
F. A. Gillespie & Son No. 1 Coleman, 1,650 feet from the north and 330 from the east lines of section 4-26, H&TC, was at 1,950 feet in lime and C. T. McLaughlin No. 1 Coleman was rigging to spud.
In the northwest corner of Mitchell county, J. B. Tubbs No. 1 Chester L. Jones deep wildcat, continued below 5,222 feet in black lime with no reported shows. It is in section 60-20, Lavaca.
Rumors of a shallow oil strike in Mitchell have been refuted. When Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., doing seismograph work, developed a blow of 25 barrels salt water daily in a shot hole 15 miles south of Colorado City, the drilling unit failed. Upon resumption of activities, oil was present in the hole. Testing indicated that the hole would make about 2 barrels of 16 gravity oil per day and 25 barrels of salt water.
C. W. Guthrie No. 1-B TXL, 3-100-foot cable tool exploration in southeastern Howard county, was below 390 feet in shale. It is in section 43030-1, T&P, a mile north of Chalk production and south of the Snyder pool.

Forsan Telephone Users Getting In Practice With Dial System
FORSAN, Mar. 28. — Telephone users here are getting used to a lot of new rules, now that the dial system is in operation.
Service over the new set-up began Tuesday at 4 p.m. with patrons using a three-digit combination to reach the 50 connections on a community automatic exchange.
Patrons have been given tips about the new service such as: Releasing the dial to return under its own power to normal positions after dialing to "stop," else a wrong number may result; awaiting the dial tone before buzzing; talking in soft voice; giving plenty of time for redialing.
The exchange will, of course, operate on a 24-hour basis, according to Webb Hudson, Sterling City, central office manager. He also will handle maintenance and repair of outside phones, assisted by Henry Gregg. Mrs. Robert Asbury will continue as representative, maintaining the same quarters here. Hudson expressed appreciation for her services with the exchange for the past 10 years.
There are some 35 resident phones and several business numbers. In some cases, numbers are extensions but controlled by code ring. There are three toll lines to Big Spring over No. 0, two to Sterling City over No. 9, the latter number serving also for maintenance calls. A pay station has been installed in the drug store.
Old equipment has been removed from the exchange, homes, office, etc. and will be salvaged or discarded. The new system is said to give much better reception.

Flood Refugees In Britain Aided
LONDON, March 28. (AP)—Flood waters receded slowly throughout England and Wales today but many hundreds remained in refugee centers or marooned in upper floors of their homes.
Relief agencies prepared a nation-wide relief program and the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Bracewell Smith, appealed for donations. The national government had contributed $4,000,000.
Thirty airplanes were due today bringing American Red Cross contributions of 50 tons of soap, 1,000 brushes and 1,000 gallons of disinfectant.
River levels in the Fenlands, a hard-hit farming region in the east, were dropping at a rate of one inch each 24 hours.
Pumping operations were planned, but some officials said it would be "at least two months with the best of circumstances" before all inundated farm land would be cleared.
The Air Ministry forecast generally fair weather.

The evening worship will be given over to a dedication of the organ, the Rev. Jesus Lays Down His Life

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL (The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for March 30 is John 18-19; 21:15, the Memory Verse being John 13:1, "Jesus... having loved His own... loved them unto the end.")

WHEN JESUS had spoken the last words we read in last week's lesson, He went out with His disciples, over the brook Kedron or Cedron, where there was a garden (Gethsemane) with His disciples. Judas also knew this place, for Jesus and His disciples often went there, John tells us.

Judas gathered a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees and went to the garden seeking Jesus. Jesus met them and said, "Whom seek ye?" They answered, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said, "I am He." John tells us that when Jesus said this "they went backward, and fell to the ground." This prostration is considered by B. F. Westcott due "to the effects of fear, awe, veneration, self-humiliation," as they faced Him.

Jesus again asked whom they were seeking and again they said, "Jesus of Nazareth," and again Jesus said He was the one, adding, "if therefore ye seek Me, let these (His disciples) go, their way."

Jesus was first taken before Annas, whose father-in-law was Caiaphas, the high priest. It is thought that perhaps Jesus, having driven the money changers out of the temple, had incensed Caiaphas against Him, for he and his family were growing rich on the temple traffic.

Thrice was Peter asked if he was with Jesus, and three times he denied it. The high priest asked Jesus of His disciples and His doctrine. Jesus' answer was, "I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Why askest thou Me? ask them which heard Me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said."

At this one of the officers struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, "Answerest Thou the high priest so?" Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou Me?" Annas then sent Him bound to Caiaphas. "Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment." These Jews would not go into the hall where Pilate sat, for fear they would defile themselves.

First Baptist In Plans For Revival

The First Baptist church, in conjunction with 87 others in district No. 8, is making plans for a simultaneous revival meeting April 6 through April 20.

Already the tempo of evangelism is manifest, for last Sunday evening 15 persons were baptized into the fellowship of the church - including four entire families. There are several others awaiting baptism.

In a recent survey of the city, it was discovered that there are approximately 1,000 persons who belong to the Baptist church. Approximately half the number showed to be unprofessed Christians. During the past week Ernest Hock, minister of music and education, has been busy with Mrs. Inez Lewis, church secretary, and others in compiling results of the census and in making classified lists. Scores of members have accepted names and promised to visit and invite to membership and regular attendance those who indicated preference for the First Baptist church.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, will direct the services and Hock will lead the music. Sunday morning Dr. O'Brien is to bring a second in a series of sermons of the analogy between the days of Noah and current times. At 8 p.m. he speaks on "Begin with God," based on Gen. 1:1.

Church Dedication Set For Easter Sunday

COAHOMA, March 28.—Bishop C. C. Seelman of the Northwest Texas Methodist conference will dedicate the First Methodist church of Coahoma in ceremonies Easter Sunday.

The Rev. A. B. Cockrell, pastor, announced Friday that the building was erected in 1940 when the Rev. John W. Price was pastor, but that formal dedication was not held. Rated as a $15,000 rock veneer building, the church has a seating capacity of approximately 200.

A formal program will be held at the church at 2:30 p.m.

Before the coming of the white man to America, most of the Indians east of the Great Plains of the United States lived in settled villages and cultivated the soil.

YESTERDAY TODAY AND TOMORROW

Palm Sunday is the beginning of Holy Week. The Cross is always pre-eminent in Christianity but this week our focus is upon it as at no other time during the Christian year. Have we got a place for it in our daily lives? The real bearing of the Cross is not to endure something that is thrust upon us from the outside and which we have to bear whether we like it or not. Our crosses are burdens which are voluntarily undertaken because they bring us nearer to the mind of God. Taking up the Cross is a positive action. The events of life are a challenge to us and are the testing of our characters. Our share in the Cross of Christ is to meet life's ills and accidents with a gallant and high-hearted happiness and to mould ourselves to the shape of the Kingdom of God. It is a fact that all true achievement, all true success, has only been won at the cost of suffering and often also at the cost of persecution and unpopularity. The creative people in history have almost always been ahead of their generation and have been misunderstood and frequently hated for the innovations they have introduced. Is your Cross an on-going one or is it one that holds back progress in the community and in your church?

Finding

WHAT WE LOOK FOR

You and I usually find in life what we look for. And what we find is often a reflection of what we are.

A man who looks for trouble can find it in abundance. The person who looks for truth and beauty somehow seems always to come upon it.

One of the remarkable qualities of Jesus was that insight which enabled Him to see men not only as they were, but also as they might become. He saw Matthew, the successful business man. He also saw Matthew, the loyal disciple, writer of a Gospel story that would never die. And, He said, "Matthew, follow me." And Matthew left all and followed Him.

There is much of evil and wrong in the world about us. Much that is discouraging! Much that is cruel! Much that is unkind! God needs men and women through whom He may work to help make right the wrong things of earth. He has given us His Church through which we may work effectively.

Go to Church next Sunday and enlist your services in this great endeavor. The Church needs you even as you need the Church!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

Spectacle With Grave Implications

The spectacle of trucks and trains being stopped near New Orleans and thousands of gallons of milk being dumped is not new—and it is not refreshing. It is a bad practice and one with dangerous implications. The difficulty arises out of a strike for higher prices, and in this case it seems to be a strike against the government to obviate maintenance of more moderate price structures which will lower prices for consumers.

The right to strike is one thing, the destruction of goods or property is another. Stopping trucks and trains, seizing of milk and dumping it is little short of highway robbery. Certainly it amounts to unlawful confiscation. And who suffers? Producers, hoping to enforce higher prices, lose what revenue they would have gained. Supplies are cut and distributors suffer loss. But worst of all, thousands upon thousands of individuals are denied a commodity vital to their health and welfare. The implications of such drastic action are foreboding. If violence and lawlessness can be the instruments of force to bring about a desired aim for any one group, do not other groups have the same moral right to this resort? And if this should be so, what becomes of law and democratic processes?

Better Meat Means Better Price

While much of the meat which reaches counters here is fair to good, there is some of it which does not rate that high by the most liberal standards. No doubt, one big reason for this is that there is virtually no such thing as a finished animal going to market in these parts these days. The uncertain feed situation, fraught with key shortages and high feed costs, prevented the normal amount of cattle from going into feed pens. In addition, those that were on feed long since have gone to market at fancy prices. It will take time for this situation to adjust itself.

Another aggravating factor has been that the heaviest buyers of the top grades which are available are for packers. That means, for most practical purposes, that the meat leaves here.

It would be all too easy to place all the blame on local buyers, but it gets back to the consumer. We have too long been willing to take an inferior grade of meat in return for a lower price. The buyer knows his demands, and he bids accordingly.

Actually, there is a very small difference in the cost on dressed price per pound for a finished animal and what is commonly classed as a fat yearling because of the gulf in dress percentages. If consumers are willing to absorb a modest margin and demand for the better qualities, counters will stock better qualities. But if consumers are satisfied to settle for lower price, they will get lower grade beef. That's the way it works.

Communists Boot Beautiful Chance

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The communists have booted a beautiful chance to present their case to the American people. Eugene Dennis did the booting. He's party secretary and a top communist leader. The way he did it made no sense to me or other newsmen.

He had two tries at presenting his party's case. He did it so badly that, in the end, a roomful of newsmen walked out on him. Dennis came here from New York to testify before the House committee on un-American activities. He asked permission to testify and got it.

The committee is considering bills to outlaw the communist party. It had been hearing a stream of witnesses, all opposed to communism. Dennis had the chance of being the only spokesman for it. He came prepared with a 10-page statement, and copies to hand out.

By talking to the committee, in front of a swarm of newsmen, Dennis could have outlined his party's views to millions of newspaper readers.

It's customary at a Congressional committee hearing for a witness to give his name. Dennis said his name is Eugene Dennis. The committee asked him if that is his real name. Dennis tried to duck the question.

Then Robert E. Stripling, committee investigator, said there was evidence that Dennis had used a number of names in connection with "fraudulent" passports. (Stripling later said Dennis' real name is Francis Waldron).

But when Dennis kept on refusing to tell his real name the committee dismissed him. So he never got around to reading his statement. Dennis said later the committee's insistence upon learning his real name was a "plot" to keep him from reading his statement.

Moscow Would Avoid 'Incidents'

If your correspondent had a dollar for every time he has been asked whether a major war seems likely to grow out of the Greek-Turkish crisis, he would be able to retire and quit crystal gazing. However, while these questions have kept pouring in I've been greatly impressed by the absence of any expressions of "fear" in connection with such inquiries. My observation is that the general public is not "afraid" in the accepted sense of the term.

The American people are confident that their country can handle any emergency. Still, that doesn't alter the fact that peace loving folk have a very natural anxiety over any possibility of another world conflict. General Eisenhower assures us that no country at present "would deliberately provoke war." He warned, though, that there always exists the possibility of an incident being precipitated by some "immature nation." While the general didn't pin this specifically to the Balkan imbroglio, we are safe in assuming that it covers this situation.

'Forever Amber' Taking Forever

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Folks around 20th-Fox are beginning to believe that "Forever Amber" is all that the name implies. They thought the long-run film had been finished, but now it is going back for two weeks more of shooting. The film has already run a monumental cost—between four and five million—and it's going to have to be plenty good, or else. The fortnight of re-shooting may be extremely tense. Both stars, Cornel Wilde and Linda Darnell, have told their bosses they will never make another picture with Director Otto Preminger. The legion of decency's rating on "Duel in the Sun" reads objectionable in part (but not condemned) because of "immodestly suggestive sequences; glorification of illicit love." Catholic censure caused revision of another film, the French "Carmen." Its cutting took it off the condemned list. Joan Leslie's contract victory over Warners in appellate court has all studios worried about their pacts with minor players. One company lawyer declared "we are sitting under a sword of damocles" if higher courts agree that a child player can disavow his contract when he reaches 21. The studios feel they need written security of a child star's services after the costly buildup process. That traffic jam on the Sunset strip yesterday was caused by Clark Gable who was doing a location scene for "The Hucksters." Highly recommended: Betty Hutton's "Poppa Don't Preach to Me" which will be coming out of most of the juke boxes soon. Barbara Lawrence, the blonde in "Margarie," she wed John Fontaine June 13 in Beverly Hills. He's being tested at 20th-Fox.

Lives Too Long, Loses Big Income

SINGAPORE (AP)—Mrs. Lee Choon Guan, holder of the British MBE and one of Singapore's most popular Chinese socialites, will lose a monthly income equivalent to $943 because she outlived her millionaire husband by more than 21 years. The highest Singapore court overruled her appeal against a provision in her husband's will providing the part of the estate from which the annuity has been paid should be divided among his grandchildren 21 years after his death.

Mrs. Lee is well known throughout Malaya for her numerous charitable activities. During the war she took part in welfare work among British troops in southern India. She has been decorated by the British for charitable work in Malaya during World War I.

Old Timers Paradise

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—This is the town where they say you have to be 80 years old to get in the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

They have a couple of softball teams on which everybody but the water boy has to be 75 or over.

"And you ought to see those oldtimers play," said one fan. "I never heard of any of those codgers keeling over from heart trouble."

Shuffleboard is a hotter issue here than national politics, and if the local newspapers quit the shuffleboard column readers call up by the dozens to complain.

Elderly tourists flock here by the thousands, and St. Petersburg generally is proud to be known as the nation's winter capital for old people with enough money to follow the robins south when the chills season sets in up north.

But some of the young folks here don't want the idea spread around that St. Pete is just a mecca for Methusels.

"Don't write anything about the five thousand green benches we have here for the old folks," said one. "And don't say any more about the sidewalk ramps we got for wheel chair patients."

Another resident complained: "We don't have an undue number of old people here. You have to remember that you don't see as many young people at resorts for the simple reason that most young people don't have enough money to go to them."

And the old folks have a good time at much less than it would cost them on Florida's east coast. One of their favorite haunts is the city pier, where they can eat picnic lunches, buy live turtles at fifty cents each to send their grandchildren, and listen to some venerable live of the party thump out on the free piano:

"Believe me if all those endeavoring young charms."

"Times were tougher during the depression," a resident said. "The cafeterias had to start throwing out tourists who came in, asked for a bowl of hot water, then poured catsup into it to make free soup."

From a town of 4,000 in 1910, St. Petersburg has grown steadily to a population of between 90,000 and 95,000. But it hasn't quite filled out at the speed dreamed of by city fathers during the boom era.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

GOP's Say Truman Joining Party

WASHINGTON. — Monday's secret caucus of House Republicans was a howling success—largely because the man who was expected to howl the loudest against the Knutson tax bill was not on hand. Michigan's scrappy representative Al Engel did not show up—probably because he did not want to be bound by the vote of the caucus.

Otherwise the turnout was large. Speaker Joe Martin of Massachusetts opened the session by reminding the GOPers that the Republicans are pledged to reduce taxes and government expenditures.

"The House can be proud of its record," he said meaningly. Joe was careful not to mention the Senate, since custom dictates that no reference be made to the Senate in House proceedings. Martin's listeners knew, however, that he was referring to senate opposition to budget reduction and tax-cutting.

Ways and means committee chairman Harold Knutson then took the floor to explain the tax bill. Although he usually bangs the table and employs extreme sarcasm, Knutson was sweet and mild as he went through the bill and orated that this was a bill for the wage earner. Republican campaign promises and Republican policy will not be at variance, he said—the American workingman will be the gainer.

Here New Jersey's Fred Hartley took his cue and promised that the labor bill to come from his labor committee will also be the wage earner's bill. A few labor officials might not like it, he said, but they are the people who live off labor rather than those with the interests of labor truly at heart.

Representative Dan Reed of New York also spoke briefly on the Knutson bill, after which Representative Karl Mundt of South Dakota warned his colleagues that "the New Dealers will come in here with false figures to discredit this bill."

"They will attempt to show that the small taxpayer is getting far less of a break from this bill than the big taxpayer," Mundt said. "We know the sort of figures they will use—and I know where they come from. The fact is that the Treasury Department has what amounts to a secret liaison office with the PAC—and between them they'll see to it that the Democrats have all sorts of charts to smear this bill."

"On the surface Secretary Snyder appears friendly and square with the Republicans," continued the South Dakota congressman, "but there are things going on down there which we ought to look into."

Mundt assured his colleagues that the figures the Treasury would show would be false. When someone asked how the public could be informed that they were false, he replied that the authors of the figures "will be exposed."

"Truman himself will get them out," promised Mundt, "now that he has decided to follow the Republican policy of clearing out disloyal government employees."

GOES REPUBLICAN

The man who really brought the House down was the closing speaker, Majority Leader Charles Halleck of Indiana. He spoke first in support of the tax bill as a boon to the lowly wage earner, then warned that the Democrats planned to block the bill so that the President could push similar legislation next year and claim credit for it in the 1948 campaign.

"That's in keeping with administration tactics these days," proclaimed Halleck. "Ever since the election, the President has been following the lead of the Republicans. Over the week end he finally moved to clean the communists and other subversive elements out of government. The Republicans have been after that for years. Truman's popularity is rising because he's a smart Pendergast boy who knows enough about politics to know which way the wind is blowing."

"Why," concluded Halleck, "he's read the signs of the times so well he's done everything except register Republican!"

"SUGAR DADDY" TOBEY

Colleagues hushed it up, but an intra-party Republican spat broke out at the secret GOP caucus on sugar rationing the other day. Veteran Senator Charles Tobey of New Hampshire, who favors continued rationing the other day. Veteran Senator Charles Tobey of New Hampshire, who favors continued rationing, and Freshman Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, who wants to abolish controls, did some toe-to-toe verbal slugging.

Except for acid language and baleful glares, however, no bones were broken. Tobey bluntly accused McCarthy of being the Senate spokesman for Walter Mack, boss of the Pepsi-Cola company, who wants to end sugar controls. The New Hampshire senator brought out that the chief reason for Mack's position is that Pepsi-Cola has extensive sugar plantations in Cuba and could use for itself all the sugar produced on these plantations if rationing were abolished. "It is an interesting coincidence," declared Tobey, fixing his eyes on McCarthy, "that you, a very interesting coincidence that the language of the senator's bill (a decontrol measure McCarthy has introduced) is strikingly similar to the text of Mr. Mack's testimony before the banking and currency committee."

"Maybe the senator can explain that," added Tobey, who also brought out that the Wisconsin senator had circulated a letter among his colleagues supporting the Pepsi-Cola position, without actually naming the company.

COCA-COLA VS. PEPSI

"I'll be glad to, for the gentleman is very much mistaken," shot back McCarthy. "I suggest that he read page 192 of the hearings, where I brought out that the Pepsi-Cola company and the Coca-Cola company both had selfish interests in this sugar controversy. Coca-Cola naturally wants controls continued because it doesn't want to see its chief competitor get all that sugar from its Cuban plantations."

"I might add that it was under my cross-examination of Mr. Mack that these sugar holdings of Pepsi-Cola were unearthed."

"Well, I'm willing to go by the statistics of the Department of Agriculture," countered Tobey in the secret caucus. "These show it is absolutely necessary to continue rationing to protect the American housewife against commercial users. The department also informs me that 95 per cent of the commercial users do not object to continued rationing and that, in fact, the only big commercial user demanding decontrol is our old friend, and the senator's friend, Pepsi-Cola."

McCarthy retorted hotly that Tobey was being "unfair." Colleagues intervened and the two gladiators finally cooled off.

Making a final plea for continued sugar rationing, Tobey told the closed-door GOP caucus: "The American housewife got 50 pounds of sugar per year for every member of her family before the war, and the bill I have written to continue rationing, and which I hope congress will approve, is aimed to bring the housewife as close to the pre-war level as possible."

Under his bill, Tobey explained, home consumers would get a 35-pound average in the next 12 months and any increase in production would go to manufacturers, instead of soft-drink manufacturers, until the 50-pound pre-war average is reached.

Gainesville Circus To Rehearse

Come Sunday, the bankers and doctors and lawyers and editors and delivery boys and housewives will dress up in circus clothes in Gainesville for a dress rehearsal of the 1947 version of the famed community circus.

The opening date for this year's circus isn't until April 23, but the home town stars are rehearsing daily now, and the Sunday event is for the purpose of letting news photographers and others to take pictures. Also, the performers can hardly wait to try out new costumes and new routines.

The Gainesville community circus is internationally known now. It started eighteen years ago as a temporary expedient — The local little theater needed money, and A. Morton Smith, editor of the Gainesville Register, thought a burlesque circus would raise enough to foot the theater's bills.

But the circus outgrew the theater. No one remembers the theater very well, but the circus — it's in everybody's blood. It started in 1930. They had few props or costumes, and they spent about $30 to put the thing on. They made enough to tide the theater through its doldrums — then abandoned it for the circus.

Today, the circus has equipment valued at $35,000, and during its lifetime has brought home about $150,000. Last year it took in over $25,000. The money, however, is plowed back into the circus, and none of the 138 performers are paid. About 15 workers who handle tents, etc. get salaries.

There are a lot of funny and interesting stories about the circus, and you'll read them later. This is just to brief you on how the 1947 circus is coming along. It's coming along fine. Lots of new acts. Lots of enthusiasm. Lots of new gags for the clowns.

Soon Gainesville will have a new building to house the show at home. Also, the Hollywood company that signed up to make a movie of the show's history will give them a $15,000 flameproof tent, to go with the tents now on hand.

The itinerary for this year's show (third largest in the US in number of performers, trailing only the Ringling Show and Cole Bros.) is:

Opening date, April 23-24 at home, in Gainesville; Greenville, May 1-2; Denison, May 8-9; a May date in Oklahoma, still un-set; a summer vacation, then a resumption in Phillips Aug. 15-16; Ardmore, Okla., Aug. 21-22; Olney, Texas, Aug. 29; Fort Worth Sept. 4-5-6; and a final date at Ranger, Sept. 12.

It could have scores more, but performers can't leave their jobs too often, can't travel far because it would keep them away too long. After all, the clowns and the aerialists and tight rope walkers are housewives, bankers, lawyers, doctors, plumbers, electricians and delivery boys.

WHAT'S UP, DOC? A DOUBLE TAKE

CHICAGO, March 28. (AP)—After a North Side physician got a telephone call from a Mrs. Moss to hurry over and examine her husband he checked his card index for the Moss' address.

Mrs. Richard Moss expressed surprise when the physician arrived. But he found her husband with the chest pains Mrs. Moss had described and ordered Moss to bed. He evaded Mrs. Moss' question as to whether Mrs. Moss had called him.

Back at his office Mrs. Edward Moss called and asked the doctor what had delayed his visit. Then he realized he had gone to the wrong Moss home. After treating Edward Moss, also suffering with chest pains, and ordering him to bed, the physician telephoned Richard Moss and explained.

Opening Guns Fired In Georgia Governors Race

ATLANTA, Mar. 28. (AP)—Prospective opponents agreed today the opening shot in a Georgia gubernatorial campaign almost 18 months away had been fired with Gov. M. E. Thompson's veto of white primary legislation enacted by the recent general assembly.

Thompson nullified the act yesterday without comment, but his supporters and Herman Talmadge, who sponsored the bill and whose claim to the governorship was voided in Thompson's favor, immediately declared it was "the" issue in the 1948 general election.

There have been frequent predictions Thompson and Talmadge would meet in 1948 in the contest for the two-year unexpired term of the late Gov.-elect Eugene Talmadge. Herman's father who campaigned to victory on a white supremacy platform last summer. The state supreme court ruled last week that Thompson, as lieutenant governor, was the elder Talmadge's successor to the governorship rather than Herman Talmadge, elected to the post by the legislature.

"The issue next summer will be the same as last summer," commented Talmadge yesterday after Thompson's action. "The overwhelming majority of the people want a white primary. They will get it."

On the other side, state Rep. Bill Morris, publisher of the Augusta Chronicle, said Thompson supporters realized the veto would give Talmadge forces their "first plank in their 1948 platform, but the right thinking people of Georgia are not afraid of this issue."

Report Favor Aguja For Camp

William R. Hall, assistant director of engineering for Boy Scouts of America, has filed a favorable report on the Aguja Canyon camp site which is to be acquired by the Buffalo Trail Council, P. V. Thorson, scout executive, has announced.

Hall's report did not list a single disadvantage. Thorson said, and the engineer expressed confidence that the tract of land would provide an ideal camping area for scouts.

The camp site offers a 60-acre "bow" that is adequately covered with juniper, pine, ash oak and willow trees and is well provided with both surface water and springs for drinking water. Hall described the bowl as a "good place for erecting a dam to provide water storage for aquatic activities." He also pointed out the simplicity with which waste water could be disposed during the occupation of the camp in summer months.

In his official report, Hall predicted a summer temperature of no more than 100 degrees, 10 degrees cooler than the normal high mark for Pecos, 62 miles away.

In one area a Moslem coolie was pulling a cart load of hay when a flaming torch was thrown from a building, setting fire to the load. Police reported a number of similar incidents had taken place.
