Report Is Rejected By The House

Bill For Support Of Judiciary Hits Snag In Lower Chamber

AUSTIN, May 19 (AP).—The conference committee report on the first of the five major appropriation bills, that for support of the judiciary, struck a snag in the house today.

The lower chamber rejected the report because it limited salaries of Dallas county district judges to $6,500 each although permitting Harris county judge to receive $7,400. An effort to kill the motion to reject lost by two votes.

Harry N. Graves of Georgetown, chairman of the house appropriations committee, said the report confers on the eleemosynary proposal was virtually complete, and the lawmakers still hoped to have all the money measures on the governor's desk by Saturday night.

Eliminate Rider

The conference committee on the judiciary bill was instructed to eliminate the rider cutting the pay of Dallas county district judges from $7,500 to $6,500.

In the face of announcement there would be no more meeting of the constitutional amendments committee, the senate re-referred to that group a proposal to return to the 60-day regular session of the legislature instead of the 120-day meeting now in effect.

Fire Razes Whole Block In Texarkana

Spectacular Blaze Does Damage Estimated At $100,000

TEXARKANA, May 19 (AP)—Fire which did an estimated $100,000 damage early today threatened an entire business block and was brought under control by every available piece of fire-fighting equipment.

B. E. Moore, assistant manager of the S. H. Kress store, where the blaze was discovered, estimated the stock loss at $50,000 and believed the building loss would equal or exceed that. Basements of adjoining stores were flooded and smoke damage was considerable throughout the block.

Fire Chief Joe Benjamin said the fire was believed to have originated in the Kress basement. It raged up the elevator shaft, and made a roaring furnace of the rear end of the store when it was discovered by a policeman at 11:30 p. m.

Spectacular bursts of flame from burning candy, paint and insect spray made the fire difficult to fight. It was brought under control at 3 a. m. and firemen were still spraying the embers at 6 a. m.

Mrs. Tiernan, Held In Jail, Sobs Violently

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP)—Sobbing violently, Mrs. Helen Tiernan, 28-year-old widow accused of the "nabes in the wood" torch-axe murder of her daughter Helen, 7, collapsed in the Riverhead jail today.

Dr. Albert E. Payne, prison physician, administered a restorative. He said she showed signs of "deep emotional exhaustion."

Restored to consciousness, the blonde alleged slayer dozed fitfully on her jail cell cot.

Earlier, a prison attendant said Mrs. Tiernan begged for information on the condition of her son Jimmy, 5, whom she also assertedly sought to kill last Saturday during a picnic outing in the woods of Brookhaven, Long Island.

"How is Jimmy?" she cried, according to the attendant. "I hope he's better. I hope he is taken in by some good family."

Police said the woman had confessed that she attempted to "get rid of the children" so she would have more room in her shabby West Side apartment in which to entertain her sweetheart, George Christodulus, 29-year-old Greek restaurant worker.

COOL YOUNG WOMAN IS HELD ON CHARGE OF HACKING MOTHER TO DEATH WITH HATCHET

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 19 (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Gladys MacKnight was portrayed in court today as a cool young woman who asked "where's the old man" after her arrest on a charge of hacking her mother to death with a hatchet.

The girl, on trial for her life with Donald Wightman, 18, her former sweetheart, for the slaying of Mrs. Helen MacKnight, 47, Bayonne club woman, also "wanted to see the newspapers," a witness said.

Gladys stared at Emily C. Hass, Bayonne policeman, as she gave this testimony.

The girl's tennis toes she wore when arrested were stained, the policeman said.

The state then called Dr. William B. Braunstein, pathologist and blood expert, who testified the stains on the hatchet and the dark blue clothes Gladys wore were "human blood of the same type."

A sharp kitchen knife which the defense will try to prove was used by Mrs. MacKnight to threaten her daughter, bore "a minute stain on the handle," Dr. Braunstein said.

There were stains "of a brownish character" on the blade, he said, but they were "too diffuse" to be analyzed.

Mrs. Doris French, of Bayonne, mother of Gladys' high school chum, Doris French, testified the girl and Donald came to their home after the slaying.

She said Gladys rushed in shouting, "Doris, Doris."

Found Girl Crying
A few minutes later, Mrs. French went upstairs, she said, and saw Gladys "sitting on the edge of Mr. French's bed," crying very hard.

"I asked her what was the matter," Mrs. French related.

"I couldn't understand what she was saying except that there was something the matter with her mother. Her hands were over her face."

Gladys called downstairs then and told Mr. French to go and get the car key and not let Donald have the car.

"She said, 'don't let Donald come upstairs. I don't want to see him. I don't ever want to see him again.'"

Gladys did not meet Mrs. French's eyes when the mother of her best friend walked down to the witness stand and identified her.

TYLER, May 19 (AP)—A special committee to pledge "moral support to Tom Mooney in his fight for vindication in California was authorized today by delegates at the state federation of labor convention.

"If there is a delegate here who does not believe in the innocence of Mooney, I want to see what he looks like," Green said.

Robinson Gets Delay In Adjourning Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—President Roosevelt's intimation that he soon would recommend wage and hour legislation caused democratic leaders today to shove back the prospective date for adjournment of congress.

Because of prospects of indefinite senate debate on the court reorganization bill, some of whom had predicted other major items on the administration program would be left until 1938.

In the last few days, however, the president has indicated a determination to pursue AAA, NIRA and TVA objectives this year.

He has prepared a message to go to congress this week—possibly today—reaffirming his belief in national planning of the type being carried out in the Tennessee valley.

Legislators especially interested in agriculture were wondering what the exact administration position would be on the new surplus control and price stabilization bill proposed by farm organizations.

Chairman Jones (D-Tex) of the house agriculture committee said the bill would have to be examined carefully in hearings before congress would undertake to replace the soil conservation act.

Robinson Gets Backing For Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—Senatorial colleagues pushed the name of Senator Robinson (D-Ark) to the forefront of the discussion today of possible successors to Justice Willis Van Devanter.

Senator Pittman (D-Neu) publicly voiced the view expressed privately by many other democratic senators, that Robinson, 61-year-old party leader, should be appointed.

"In 30-odd years in congress he has proven he is a man of integrity and courage and splendid legal attainments," said Pittman.

A dispute arose over Robinson's eligibility. Some senators held the view that the recent enactment of the Summers retirement bill barred the appointment of any present member of congress. Others disagreed.

The Summers bill provided full retirement pay of $20,000 a year for supreme court justices. The constitution prohibits the appointment of members of congress to posts created during their terms or the "emoluments" of which have been increased during their terms.

Pittman said he believed "the Summers act did not come within the constitutional prohibition. Senator Adams (D-Colo) expressed the belief that it did.

Nomination of Robinson would create an immediate race for the democratic leadership post in the senate. Among those who might succeed to it are Senators Barkley (D-Ky), Harrison (D-Miss), Byrnes (D-SC), or Fritzman.

Robinson was one of the oldest men mentioned for Van Devanter's post in first discussions. Another was Attorney General Cummings, 67.

Two members of Cummings' staff—Solicitor-General Stanley Reed, 52, and Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson, 45—were suggested in some quarters. Jackson said at his Jamestown, N. Y., home.

"I am not a candidate for that appointment, and I do not wish my name considered."

Among others mentioned were Chairman James M. Landis, 38, of the securities commission; Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan 44; Donald R. Richberg, 53, former NRA chief; Prof. Felix Frankfurter, 51, of Harvard law school; Justin Miller, 55, of the board of tax appeals; and three New York judges, past and present: Ferdinand Pecora, 55; Learned Hand, 65; and Samuel Rosenman.

FLOODS THREATEN TOWNS IN ALASKA

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, May 19 (AP)—Two ice-laden floods overran Nenana in quick succession and left the town paralyzed today.

FIREMAN INJURED BY FALLING WALL

DENTON, May 19 (AP)—Olin Lip-treu, fireman, suffered a fractured vertebra and severe bruises today when a wall fell on him as he fought a fire which damaged three downtown business buildings.

BALDWIN HINTS OF RETIREMENT

LONDON, May 19 (AP)—Despite Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin's remark to an empire youth audience, "I have had my hour, I will pass soon into the shade," political circles today believed he did not intend to advance the date of his retirement.

Fight Taken To Senate By Foes Of Bill

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—Victorious senate foes of the Roosevelt court bill turned away from indications of administration compromise today in pursuit of a triumph on the senate floor as decisive as the adverse vote in the judiciary committee.

Opposition leaders said the measure was dead. They forecast the compromise advance unsuccessfully in the committee by Senator Logan (D-Ky.) would prove the new fighting ground.

Logan, a supporter of the president, suggested that one additional justice be appointed each year if any members of the supreme court served past 75. The number would drop back to nine when the older justices retired.

The Roosevelt bill would permit an increase up to a membership of 15 if justices over 70 1-2 did not withdraw. The court would remain permanently at the number to which it was raised.

No one qualified to speak for the administration had conceded the battle for the president's bill had been dropped, but Logan said his compromise was favored by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic leader.

Congressional interest in the judiciary situation was divided almost equally between speculation over the administration's position and candidates for the vacancy on the supreme court created by the retirement of Justice Van Devanter.

Many senators expressed the view Senator Robinson would be appointed. Senator Pittman (D-Neu.) openly advocated it.

Among other names mentioned was that of Robert H. Jackson, assistant attorney general, who said he did not wish to be considered.

Club Is Told Of Insurance

NATIONAL INSURANCE WEEK OBSERVED BY LIONS IN MEETING

Insurance is creating one of the largest economic families of the nation, R. W. Ogden told the Lions club Wednesday in an address in keeping with National Insurance Week.

Today, he said, 65 million people are making deposits with insurance companies, the major ones of which have reported assets totaling in excess of 110 billions of dollars.

Underwritten, said Ogden, are now engaged in a battle to rid the insurance trade of incompetent and unethical operators to the end that it be given professional recognition.

Ideas on insurance have changed rapidly within the past five years, according to the speaker. People have come to consider it more from the investment point of view and less as a death protection. In the past five years, he said, 16 billions of dollars has been paid out, two-thirds went to living purposes and one-third on death claims.

He regarded the social security program of the government as one "of the most wonderful things which ever happened to the underwritten. Social security could not be confused with taking the place of life insurance." Ogden said he believed the act had made the public more insurance conscious.

Frank Wentz, accompanied by Dan Conley, was heard in a baritone solo.

Guests for the day were Hugh Durcain, president of the American Business club, who invited the Lions to hear Dr. Frank Preston at his club Friday. Dr. Frank Boyle, Frank Wentz, and Ogden.

TO INVESTIGATE NEW HELIUM FIELD

LINCOLN, Neb., May 19 (AP)—The existence of an unsurveyed helium gas field in east central Nebraska six miles north of Columbus was announced today by Dr. G. E. Condra, director of the conservation and survey division of the University of Nebraska.

ago, but that the helium content of the gas purposely was kept secret. Helium, valued for use in lighter-than-air craft because of its non-inflammability, was the subject of much discussion after the destruction of the Zeppelin Hindenburg which used highly inflammable hydrogen gas. Virtually all known deposits of helium are in the United States.

in this bureau of mines, said today he had no report of a helium gas field in Nebraska. Kennedy said the bureau has tested a few helium gas samples from Nebraska, but there was no commercial production of natural gas in Nebraska and helium, a non-inflammable gas useful for dirigibles, was found chiefly in natural gas fields.

CAUTION LIGHTS TO BE RESTORED

Caution lights on the downtown traffic signals are to be restored within the next few weeks, it was indicated by city officials Wednesday. The yellow warning light was eliminated recently to prevent the ringing of signal bells because daytime sleepers in hotels complained of the noise. The lights will be restored minus the bell ring.

The street will be barricaded a block at a time on separate evenings until the work is complete. At the present time maintenance crews are repairing curbs on the radius at several corners downtown. ALLOWABLE BELOW DEMAND ESTIMATE

AUSTIN, May 19 (AP)—The state railroad commission today fixed the oil allowable production for Texas in June at 1,350,267 barrels daily, 4,138 barrels below the estimate of demand made by the federal bureau of mines and 60,974 barrels less than the basic allowable for May. The commission previously had announced the allowable beginning June 1 would be 1,354,400 barrels but the formal order gave the lower figure which also compared with estimated production on May 15 of 1,448,701 barrels. It was the first time in months that the Texas production had been ordered cut below the bureau of mines estimate of market demand but the action was not unexpected. Members of the commission had been saying that production was exceeding demand and storage of both crude and gasoline was piling up.

Pleasure Spot Just A Dream

Allred Swings His Veto Ax On Proposed Padre Island Project

AUSTIN, May 19 (AP)—Padre Island as a unique pleasure resort with causeways at either end remained but a dream today. Gov. James V. Allred's swinging axe yesterday cut short visions of authors of a bill which would have converted the tenuous sandy strip in the Gulf of Mexico from Corpus Christi to Brownsville into a state park. The governor said much of the 90,000 acres which the proposal permitted the state to buy might already belong to it and that authority to purchase implied private ownership.

Plea Of Knife Murderer Is Rejected By Court

AUSTIN, May 19 (AP)—Pio Quezada, convicted in Wilacy county for the knife murder of Fernando Ramirez, November 27, 1936, must die in the electric chair, the court of criminal appeals ruled today in rejecting his plea that evidence was insufficient to support the conviction. The court affirmed a 20-year sentence assessed Will Reed of Dallas county for the fatal shooting of Vernon Grayson, January 19, 1936, and a 5-year term given M. A. Brogdon of Young county in the knife slaying of Henry Hardin, January 9, 1936. It overruled the state's motion for rehearing in the case of Lonnie Mitchell, Taylor county cafe proprietor, whose death penalty for slaying Chester C. Hutcheson, Merckel city marshal, had been reversed.

None, however, seemed aware that the other two, Ann Lore and Nella Huffman, were planning on accompanying her. The three were stopped here by police on advice from Fort Worth. The girls, having left home without a change of clothes, were clad in beach costumes.

STRIKING MOVIE CRAFTSMEN TO ASK BOYCOTT OF FILMS

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., May 19 (AP)—Striking movie craftsmen asked labor unions today to boycott films starring Robert Montgomery, Frank Morgan, Franchot Tone, Humphrey Bogart and Edward Arnold. The guild recently negotiated a 10-year agreement with producers which outlaws striking during this period.

An Appeal To Learned Ball Fans

Once upon a time there was a fiddlin' genius who took the clothes of a beggar and walked about the street playing the sweetest music...

Another time there was a man who attempted to give silver dollars away but his benefactory attempts were unsuccessful...

It's a funny world. There is probably no feud like the three-way affair between Dizzy Dean, Carl Hubbell and Van Lingle Mungo in the National league...

For today's game (if Hub and Dix tangle) it's Dean who will probably raise his hand in victory...

Olle Cordill was injured again in spring training, according to reports from Houston and participated in only three days of the early practice sessions...

Sam Flowers, who has come out to his own, is slated to make a name for himself before he graduates. He tips the scales at about 205 pounds and has caught the eye of the Rice coaching staff...

Co-Op Rebels, who lost a twin bill last Sunday, will swing back into action today against the Coahoma Bulldogs. Melvin Boatman, who tried the game against the Anderson Devils, will probably do the pitching chores for the locals...

BUGS FORGOTTEN AS HUB AND DEAN LINE UP IN CARDVILLE

CARL GOES AFTER 6TH DECISION

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer. Barring a last-minute change of heart by Manager Bill Terry of the Giants or interference by the weather, baseball's battle of the century is scheduled today when New York's Carl Hubbell faces the Cardinals' Dizzy Dean on the mound...

Dix Scorches Thumb, But Needs No Alibi

PITTSBURGH FORGOTTEN. ST. LOUIS, May 19 (AP)—Some thumb or no thumb, Dizzy Dean will hurl against Carl Hubbell in today's Giant-Cardinal "game of a century." Red Bird Manager Franck Frisch declared...

Dean exhibited a taped right thumb yesterday. "I burned a little hole in it lighting a cigarette in Pitts-burgh," he said. "The sulphur from the match stuck to the flesh, x x x if that thumb feels like it does right now I will not be able to pitch Wednesday's game."

This season and his 22nd in an unbroken string that began last July, Dean was beaten after five great efforts this spring, but he was superb in victory and he's out to make the fans forget that one licking...

World Champion Huskie Crew Rows 4,344 Miles—Races 25

SEATTLE (AP)—Doing a bit of mathematics on the tablecloth between courses at a banquet, Captain Jim McMillin of the University of Washington's world champion 8-oared crew figured he will have rowed 4,344 miles at the end of his college career in June. That is equivalent to one-sixth of the way around the world...

And all this he says—without regret—for 25 miles of competitive racing in four years. The rest of the mileage has been covered in painstaking preparation. McMillin calculated he and the other seniors in the varsity shell which won the 1936 Olympic championship will have taken some 469,152 strokes when they pull their last in the intercollegiate regatta as defending champions on the Hudson at Poughkeepsie, June 22...

Chubby Dean, Athletics—His eighth inning homer with two aboard enabled A's to retain lead by noosing out Tigers, 8-7. SPORTS ROUNDUP

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP)—Aldred Newark has been the last of young Tommy Henrich for a spell. That kid is one sweet looking prospect. He can run, throw and larp up the center. Mel Ott's protracted batting slump has everybody baffled. Bob Fastror gave a fine account of himself before the mikes when interviewed by Sid Ziff, sports editor of the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner, a few nights ago. Papers out that way say Al Jolson has guaranteed Lou Ambers $30,000 to go west for a title fight with Al's Henry Armstrong. Jockeys are among the most superstitious. At Belmont Park last week, Mrs. E. D. Jacobs bought a new set of colors for little Jimmy Stout. He flatly refused to put 'em on. Said no jock had ever donned new colors and wed for Mrs. Jacobs. He got away with it, then went out and scored a triple for the day. Sammy Sneed has put in an order for a new No. 7, his favorite iron, which he hopes to break in to good effect in the P. G. A. tourney at Pittsburgh next week. Morris Aronovich, now setting the pace for the Phillies, is a Jewish lad who spends his winters coaching basketball at a Catholic school. Pro golfers are campaigning for a change in the prize distribution at the P. G. A. championship. Under the present system, a player who goes to the tournament and fails to qualify gets his traveling expenses both ways. A man who qualifies and loses in the first round gets a prize of $100. Frequently the man who doesn't make the grade gets more dough than the one who does. Watch out for a red headed sophomore named William (Red) Heater on Ossie Soliman's Syracuse eleven next fall. It says he's really got it and is set to go to town.

Wygant Wins Houston Meet

HOUSTON, May 19 (AP)—Top honors in the sixtieth annual Texas state trapshoot were in the possession today of Charles Wygant, Houston marksman who fired his gun 25 times in a shoot-off and didn't miss a bird. Gilmore Hill, also of Houston lost out in the handicap a out because he missed one of the city fliers in 25 attempts. He and Wygant previously had tied at 25 out of a possible 100 in the regulation shoot. H. C. Rogers, Shreveport, shot 96 out of a 100 but was not eligible for a prize. Muse Newman, Sweetwater, L. D. Moore, Houston, tied for third place with 94. Among the pros J. R. Hinkle, Kansas City, and H. F. Ehler, Dallas, were tops with 92 and 89 respectively. Two Houston women, M. C. G. Pillot and Mrs. Watty Watkins were first and second respectively in the women's shoot. R. W. King, Wichita Falls, was first in the doubles with 94.

Cat Sluggers In Batting Race

DALLAS, May 19 (AP)—Statistician Bill Ruggles of the Texas league jugged his figures today and opined that the early season battle between Manager Homer Peel of Fort Worth and his hired hand, Lee Stebbins, finds the skipper with the odds in his favor. Ruggles reason, after thumbing considerable pages, that the chief reason is that Stebbins, always a consistent hitter and frequently among the high base hit manufacturers of the league, is seldom awarded a base on balls. In his six years in the circuit he has drawn but 126 free passes. Or an average of 21 per season. To date, he's had six against 14 for Peel. Peel has totaled 297 bases on balls in the league. He tied the record held by Jim Gallaway of hitting 300 or better six seasons in the Texas league. He will set a new mark if he continues his heavy ball busting this year. As a Texas leaguer, Peel has averaged 151 base hits per year to 141 for Stebbins.

Nichols Returns To Win After Knockdown

LOS ANGELES, May 19 (AP)—George Nichols, Buffalo, N. Y., veteran who formerly held the N. B. A. light heavyweight championship, spotted Charley (Killer) Coates, Akron negro, two knockdowns in the first round and then came back to win a ten-round decision last night.

Dodgers, Red Birds Win In Jr. League

The Dodgers and the Red Birds marked up one-sided victories in junior baseball play yesterday with the Red Birds winning over the Wasps, 2-0, and the Dodgers triumphing over the Bees, 16-5. Johnny Miller, on the hill for the Wasps in the opener, allowed only six hits but his wildness on the hill gave him little chance for victory. His mates garnered a total of 10 off Barton but the Red Bird pitcher was finding the plate more consistently. The Dodgers got to Charley Reed for 10 hits in the second affair while Miller was holding the Bees to five.

Reading AND Writing

By John Selby

"LET ME SHOW YOU VERMONT," by Charles Edward Crane; (Knopf, $3.00).

It seems to this department that almost all people who go places in summer can be divided two ways. One section can be happy only by the sea, and is seized with claustrophobia when "confined" by the mountains. The other finds the day by day aspect of the sea a little monotonous, and loves best the ceaseless turbulence of the mountains.

But this evidently is not correct, for there also are the people who go to Vermont. For them there is a new and excellent book written by Charles Edward Crane called "Let Me Show You Vermont." This book makes clear that Vermont is a kind of happy mean between the sea and the mountains, for all along one side there lies Champlain, and Champlain is water enough for most. All along the backbone of the state lie the Green mountains.

Probably the thing which distinguishes Mr. Crane's book is its unusual and yet not cold attitude of detachment. The author, himself a former Associated Press man, pays that organization a most complimentary saying that he has "tried in this book to report with integrity, impartiality and popular interest—cardinal principles in which I was drilled by the Associated Press." It is not backscratching to say Mr. Crane has done just that.

Here is all the usual material—about the Long Trail which does its winding through Vermont, the hotels, the capital, the roads, the rivers, flood work, the typical architecture of the state, the temper of the natives.

There is better material, however. Mr. Crane will give you new facts about Mormonism, tell you who influenced Vermont architecture most, send you through "notches" you wouldn't find for yourself, give you Thunderbolt's quaint story, tell you how a college grew out of a chicken house, and finally, and most important, introduce you to a people you will enjoy knowing.

Jiffy Crochet Afghan

By RUTH ORR
Pattern No. 419

A soft, warm afghan can be made up in almost no time if you follow this attractive pattern. Each square can be crocheted in 15 minutes—including time to change colors! The design is one that is easily adaptable to everyone's requirements. It can be made up all in one color, if that is what you want—or you can use up all your odd scraps of yarn and make a varicolored afghan. On the other hand, you can use several shades of one color, as we have here, and create a lovely effect. If you use Germantown yarn, each square is about 4 inches across; with Shetland flows, a square measures about 3 inches.

The pattern envelope contains complete, easy-to-understand illustrated directions, also what crochets hook and what material and how much you will need.

To obtain this pattern, send for No. 419 and enclose 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to cover service and postage. Address: Big Spring Herald, Needlework Department, P. O. Box 200, Station D, New York, N. Y.

IT RUNS IN THE HEATON FAMILY TO BE ON TIME

STANTON, May 19.—Things like red hair, good looks, and high tempers are often said to "run in families." In the case of the four Heaton children attending the Stanton grammar school, it is perfect attendance records which seem to "run in the family." Each of the four, two boys and two girls, will receive a certificate at the grammar school exercises Friday night for being present and on time every school day this year.

Nor is this year an exception in the school history of the quartet. Here is the record for the four:

R. B. Heaton has attended school seven years and has received a perfect attendance record for six of them.

Thomas Neal Heaton, in school six years, has been absent only one day and has never been tardy.

Mozelle Heaton, also in school six years, has received a perfect attendance certificate for five of them.

ETIQUETTE Questions And Answers For The Benefit Of The Season's Brides

By JOAN DURHAM
AP Feature Service Writer

From June to October there's no holiday for Miss Mary C. Hanlon, office secretary of New York's "Little Church Around the Corner."

In that time Miss Hanlon is deluged with questions by flustered brides and bridegrooms. (In 1929—top year—the church was the scene of 2,356 weddings.) Miss Hanlon has been deluged for 21 years, ever since she went to the church, "to help out for a few days."

What do they ask her? And what are the answers?

Where Party Stands

They want to know where the bridal party members stand. The bride stands at the bridegroom's left-facing the clergyman and the altar. The best man stands at the bridegroom's right. The maid of honor (matron of honor, if she's married) stands at the bride's left. Where the rest of the members of the party are located depends on the way the altar is built and the preferences of the bride and bridegroom. The only thing to remember is that the bride's family should be seated at the left of the church (facing the altar) while the bridegroom's family is on the right.

The bride's father should stand a little to the rear of the bride until he gives his daughter in marriage. Then he should join his wife, who is seated in the first row of the pews in the left section.

The bridesmaids and ushers, if there are any, should be grouped so that they form as handsome a setting as possible for the bridal party.

Order Of Procession

What about a procession? The two shortest ushers ordinarily lead, with the rest following, two by two. The bridesmaids, arranged according to height, come next by twos. Then comes the flower girl, if there is one. All these groups are four paces apart. The bride and her father—who follow—should allow about eight paces between themselves and the preceding party.

The bridegroom follows the clergyman from the vestry. His best man does not walk with him but comes just behind him.

After the ceremony the order of the procession is reversed, with the bride and the bridegroom first, the bridesmaids next and the ushers last.

Bride's Bouquet

What does the bride do with her bouquet? On the way up the aisle—when she is on her father's right arm—she keeps the bouquet on her right arm. At the altar she changes it to her left before the ceremony. During the ceremony she gives it to her maid of honor. (The maid of honor may have to hold two bouquets. Or she may have previously handed her own bouquet to another bridesmaid.) After the ceremony—when she takes her husband's right arm to go down the aisle with him—she puts the bouquet back on her right arm.

What does the bride do with her engagement ring? She either wears it on her right hand or leaves it off until after the ceremony.

If the bride wears a corsage where should it be placed? On the right shoulder, with the ribbons—not the flowers—hanging down.

Christian Endeavor Has Hayride And Picnic

Approximately 25 members of the Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church met at the church Tuesday evening and from there went on a hayride about the city. The evening terminated with a basket picnic at the City park.

Standing beside her second son, George, crowned British king because her first son, Edward, renounced the throne for the love of an American commoner, Briton's Queen Mother Mary accepted the cheering homage of thousands of subjects from the balcony of Buckingham Palace. Standing before the Queen Mother is Princess Margaret Rose. At the left is Queen Elizabeth, George's Scottish wife, and their eldest daughter, Princess Elizabeth, heir apparent to the British throne. This picture was transmitted from London by radio.

Word from London indicates that the British government has won its fight to keep Mrs. Wallis Warfield from being called "your Royal Highness" when she becomes the Duchess of Windsor. She and the Duke of Windsor are shown at Touraine, France, as they posed for photographers on the lawn of the Chateau de Gonde.

This picture of Mrs. Wallis Warfield, made after the famous reunion with the Duke of Windsor, at Monts, France, shows the American woman's pleasure at being near her husband-to-be.

Ellen Bentley was Kentucky Derby queen, but did not see the race, so she went to Baltimore, where the above picture was taken, and saw War Admiral again triumph, this time in the $50,000 Preakness.

J. Turner Watson (left), 26, former Denver University law student, is shown at San Pedro, Calif., as he was taken from the liner Santa Rosa, handcuffed to a G-man after his capture at sea on charges of having stolen $200,000 in cash and bonds from his aunt, Mrs. Martha Blous, eccentric Denver widow. John Hansen, FBI agent, said Watson "had confessed."

McKeever (above), psychologist and one-time college professor, is shown as he addressed the 150 women and six men who attended the opening session of his "Lovers Church," established at Oklahoma City as a project to combine religion and social contact. ECONOMISTS FAIL TO AGREE ON EXTENT OF BUSINESS GAIN

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—The bureau of agricultural economics reported Wednesday the business upswing has leveled off but commerce department officials said the industrial pace has quickened in recent months.

The bureau said in a recent survey: "The marked upswing in business which began late last summer apparently is not continuing."

Whether the development will prove a minor setback or a serious interruption in the business upturn, it said, will depend on the amount of increase in private spending for construction and capital goods.

"Evidence pointing to large increases in business spending for rehabilitation and expansion of productive facilities in the near future is not particularly convincing," the bureau continued.

"Residential building prospects for this year are less promising than before the recent large increases in construction costs."

Part of the present business slack may be due to expansion of consumer goods lines at a faster clip than construction and capital goods, it added.

Bureau statistics showed that production of such consumer goods as cotton, wool, shoes, gasoline and tobacco for the first quarter of 1937 climbed over the same period a year ago and equalled or topped 1929 levels.

On the other hand, residential construction, locomotive orders, public works and similar heavy goods lines recorded either declines from a year ago or much smaller gains than consumer goods.

ARGUMENT RESULTS IN DEATH OF MAN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19 (AP)—Frank De Grace, 52, cleaning establishment operator, was jailed today on a murder charge because, police Inspector F. Frank Jackson said, he refused to clean John Gray's hat for nothing.

The inspector said when De Grace refused to clean the hat for a free hat cleaning yesterday, Gray backed up his argument by throwing things, and the cleaner hit him on the jaw. Gray, 38, never regained consciousness and died early today.

Baker Sees Extinction Of The Middle Class

DALLAS, May 18 (AP)—Dr. O. E. Baker, a top-flight American authority on farm economy, foresees the probable extinction in 100 years of the great American middle class, city-nurtured bone and sinew of the nation.

The senior agricultural economist of the United States department of agriculture linked this possibility with a steadily lowering birth rate.

He told the Texas Geographic Society last night that the middle classes in the metropolitan centers were drawing off the best brains and much landed wealth from the farms of the country. Grave social and economic problems, he said, are arising from this maldistribution.

Dr. Baker said rural youths were flocking to the cities in great numbers and soon became a part of the urban middle classes, which in turn were neglecting to maintain their numbers.

Loggers Use Same Technique On New, Short "Sissy" Logs

TRAFFIC JAM
New England still prefers the water route for getting its logs to the mill.

BERLIN, N. H. (AP)—It's log rolling time on the Androscoggin river and although much of the romance is gone, practically the same system is used as 100 years ago. The main change is in the size of the logs—four feet long now compared to the 16 and 20 of the old days which necessitated guidance by nimble log rollers.

With the spring freshets, a crew of 1,000 men starts the logs off from vantage points where they were hauled after cutting last fall and winter. Within a few weeks, 225,000 cords will be piled up in mill yards.

Dams at varying distances hold back the water in the larger brooks until the logs are thrown in. Then they are opened and the rush carries the wood down stream for a considerable distance. The process is repeated until the logs reach the main river, where they continue their trip with little supervision except at the larger dams.

At the mill yard the logs are piled in large groups by a conveyor, to await their turn to be moved into the mill. Some piles contain as many as 100,000 cords and are often worth more than $1,000,000.

The loggers live in camps and receive a minimum of $2 a day and board.

Mrs. E. R. Watts has gone to Kansas City. She will be away for about ten days.

FATHER SEES DOG KILL HIS DAUGHTER

GRENOBLE, France, May 19 (AP)—A great Saint Bernard, noted for its rescue feats, rushed down the snowy slope from the storied monastery of Mount St. Bernard today and killed a 10-year-old girl before her father's eyes.

The little girl, Marianne Bromond, was on a skiing trip from her home at Chestres, Switzerland, with her father and two sisters.

She was so severely bitten she died shortly after monks from the hospice drove off the dog and administered first aid. Her father was unable to save her.

GIRL IS BEATEN TO DEATH WITH TOYS

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP)—Three-month-old Duquesne Galvin was dead today, allegedly beaten to death by her brother Noel, 3, in a moment of childish jealousy or exuberant playfulness.

A toy airplane and a toy truck became lethal weapons in the hands of the three-year old who readily admitted to police that he struck his baby sister with the toys.

"The baby was undoubtedly killed by her brother," said Assistant District Attorney Anthony Di Ioganni after he and Detective Lieut. Harry Blima investigated the circumstances in the grief-stricken Brooklyn home.

PLAN YOUR FUTURE

"The sooner you plan your future... the better your future will be."

Thus National Life Insurance Week is sloganed for 1937. And planning the future, from the insurance standpoint, is taking out policies adequate to needs in keeping with the insured's pocketbook.

Naturally, the designation of a week has as one of its chief objectives the sale of more insurance, but people who consider this as the sole purpose of the campaign are missing the mark.

Insurance, without a doubt, is one of the blessings of security available on some scale to the man of even the humblest means. If the death of the breadwinner of a family in no way affected the future welfare of his family, insurance might lose much of its point. But the cold fact remains that the welfare of many are often centered in the health and welfare of one.

This, in common vernacular, is hearse talk. Yet it is sound talk. Consider that during 1936 80,200 insured just in time. Yes, life insurance companies paid $54,200,000 to beneficiaries of those who died before a year had elapsed after the purchase of their policy. Is this just hearse talk?

+ Man About Manhattan +

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—One of those mishaps of no consequence bobbed up in the theater the other evening and gave the audience a giggle at what ordinarily was supposed to be a serious moment.

The play was the late Sammy Shipman's "Behind Red Lights," a drama based on recent headlines, and as the scene in question began to unfold Bruce MacFarland, playing a gangster, was supposed to whip a revolver out of his pocket and shoot Dorothy Hall, who, having fallen in love with the district attorney, had betrayed the gang.

At the appointed moment Bruce dragged at the gun, but it stuck in his pocket, and for a moment he experienced an agony of exasperation. Had this happened in real life, our tough fellow would have been riddled by a return fire—it took him that long to wrench the gun free—but in make-believe play, of course, Miss Hall faithfully stood by until he extricated his shooting iron and gave her the works.

Another incident which happened some time ago—before Noel Coward left, in fact—gave that sharp-witted author-actor an opportunity to spray the audience with one of his extremely opportune quips. It happened during one of the "Tonight at 8:30" playlets, and Coward was out near the footlights. Gertrude Lawrence, down stage, crossed the "boudoir" and attempted to turn out the lights. She pressed the switch but nothing happened. Then, several heartbeats later, the lights faded out and flashed back on. "Ah," murmured Coward, "this house must be haunted."

Once again there are rumblings and threatened torrents of lava from that turbulent Vesuvius of American politics. Tammany Hall, a circumstance which fetched tall, bachelor James J. Dooling back from a two-month quest after health in Florida. The Tammany leader was in a wheelchair when he left his special at Pennsylvania station the other day.

The big question was: Would he resign leadership of the Hall?

Things haven't gone well for Dooling since he succeeded Boss Curry as chief Sachem in 1934. At the time it was thought he would be able to whip Tammany back into its usual high estate. He certainly had all the qualifications, being the third college bred man in history to assume the reins, and having inherited from his father a degree of political affluence wafted into few men's hands.

It's a question that has Tammany stirred and it has the Dooling cohorts in earnest conclave. At the moment, James J. is resting at his home in 43rd street, the house where he was born, waiting and wondering.

NEWS

BEHIND THE NEWS

Copyright, 1937, by Paul Mallon

Balanced budget in 1938 now promised.
 Roosevelt's assurance appeases leaders.
 Message to recommend spread of TVA idea.
 100 per cent market margins held untidily.

WASHINGTON, May 19—Uncertain evidence as to Mr. R.'s seriousness about balancing the budget came out of his recent series of conferences with his congressional leaders. They brought back word to anxious legislators that he would balance it in the old Spanish manner, "Manana," i. e., in 1938.

Although this is unsatisfactory to those who want an immediate balance, they seem to be somewhat appeased by the new assurance. The "manana" balancing of the budget has been going on for three or four years now, but this time they profess to believe it will be done.

What makes them so sure is the fact that if it could have been done this year if the president really had wanted to do it, and they do not see how he can avoid doing it next year.

Burning

That too-healthy tan on Jim Farley's face these days is not premature sunburn. He is just smoking from within because he thought he was talking off the record when he said:

"Well, when Senator O'Mahoney comes down here (the White House) wanting help on his sugar bill, his conscience won't be bothering him, will it? Or when Pat McCarran wants aid for his state. It's all in the viewpoint."

Mr. Farley has always talked freely. His friends think, too freely. They are surprised he has not become involved in something like his present threat to anti-packing supreme court democrats long before this. Friendly newsmen have occasionally kept him out of trouble by giving a talking of how his free talking might sound in print.

Spread

The power message which the president has been promising to congress will contain a recommendation for a flock of new power authorities like TVA. There will probably be one for each of the great river systems of the country.

What his advisers have been saying he has in mind is one for the entire eastern seaboard, one for the Pacific northwest, one for the Colorado river, etc.

The reason he is sending it up soon is to take the congressional mind off the more controversial measures now pending.

Nervousness

Wall Street has been suffering psychosis neuroses over gold and 100 per cent margins, among other things. Or, at any rate, government authorities attribute the recent declines to widespread shivering over these two topics. (They do not mention strikes.)

No authorities here have anything very comforting to say about the gold situation. They know they are in a mess, and if anyone has a satisfactory solution he is keeping it from the others. They comfort themselves with the thought that there is nothing immediately alarming and that current ironies in the international fires (the British working arrangement, for one) may ease their difficulties.

Apparently what they intend to do is this: If the market, some time in the future, gets into a boom stage which they consider to be dangerous, they will use 100 per cent margins as one of the things to hammer it down. That may be a long time off, the way things are going at present.

Blind Spot

Mr. R. has been saying he wants the Wallace ever-normal granary proposal adopted, but all he is sure of getting is a hearing. The house agriculture committee will hold one shortly to ascertain what they want. Unless insiders are very badly informed, the farm politicians are more or less lukewarm, if not actually divided, on the subject. Congressional authorities expect to develop that fact at the hearings.

The granary idea was not discussed during any of the recent congressional conferences at the White House. The president is advised of inner house objections. However, the hearings will help to take the national spotlight off the supreme court issue, and anything which accomplishes this should be a desirable relief, from the White House standpoint.

Balanced budget in 1938 now promised.
 Roosevelt's assurance appeases leaders.
 Message to recommend spread of TVA idea.
 100 per cent market margins held untidily.

WASHINGTON, May 19—Uncertain evidence as to Mr. R.'s seriousness about balancing the budget came out of his recent series of conferences with his congressional leaders. They brought back word to anxious legislators that he would balance it in the old Spanish manner, "Manana," i. e., in 1938.

Although this is unsatisfactory to those who want an immediate balance, they seem to be somewhat appeased by the new assurance. The "manana" balancing of the budget has been going on for three or four years now, but this time they profess to believe it will be done.

What makes them so sure is the fact that if it could have been done this year if the president really had wanted to do it, and they do not see how he can avoid doing it next year.

Burning

That too-healthy tan on Jim Farley's face these days is not premature sunburn. He is just smoking from within because he thought he was talking off the record when he said:

"Well, when Senator O'Mahoney comes down here (the White House) wanting help on his sugar bill, his conscience won't be bothering him, will it? Or when Pat McCarran wants aid for his state. It's all in the viewpoint."

Mr. Farley has always talked freely. His friends think, too freely. They are surprised he has not become involved in something like his present threat to anti-packing supreme court democrats long before this. Friendly newsmen have occasionally kept him out of trouble by giving a talking of how his free talking might sound in print.

Spread

The power message which the president has been promising to congress will contain a recommendation for a flock of new power authorities like TVA. There will probably be one for each of the great river systems of the country.

What his advisers have been saying he has in mind is one for the entire eastern seaboard, one for the Pacific northwest, one for the Colorado river, etc.

The reason he is sending it up soon is to take the congressional mind off the more controversial measures now pending.

Nervousness

Wall Street has been suffering psychosis neuroses over gold and 100 per cent margins, among other things. Or, at any rate, government authorities attribute the recent declines to widespread shivering over these two topics. (They do not mention strikes.)

No authorities here have anything very comforting to say about the gold situation. They know they are in a mess, and if anyone has a satisfactory solution he is keeping it from the others. They comfort themselves with the thought that there is nothing immediately alarming and that current ironies in the international fires (the British working arrangement, for one) may ease their difficulties.

Apparently what they intend to do is this: If the market, some time in the future, gets into a boom stage which they consider to be dangerous, they will use 100 per cent margins as one of the things to hammer it down. That may be a long time off, the way things are going at present.

Blind Spot

Mr. R. has been saying he wants the Wallace ever-normal granary proposal adopted, but all he is sure of getting is a hearing. The house agriculture committee will hold one shortly to ascertain what they want. Unless insiders are very badly informed, the farm politicians are more or less lukewarm, if not actually divided, on the subject. Congressional authorities expect to develop that fact at the hearings.

The granary idea was not discussed during any of the recent congressional conferences at the White House. The president is advised of inner house objections. However, the hearings will help to take the national spotlight off the supreme court issue, and anything which accomplishes this should be a desirable relief, from the White House standpoint.

Hollywood

Sights and Sounds
 By Robin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—The kiss, long the big punch in movie love scenes but lately under wraps, is returning in its glory.

It is coming back even in that hackneyed fade-out climax which for a while went under white sophistication, cynicism, and comedy rind the ending.

And next year's kisses—currently in process of manufacture on the sound stages of Hollywood—are going to be something else again.

Next year's kisses, if what goes on here is an indicator, are going to be gentle and a little more loving than they have been in the past few years.

That fade-out kiss between Jean Harlow and Robert Taylor in "Personal Property" was a fair sample of what to expect. It was the most prolonged occlusion these eyes have seen since the movies went pure back in 1933.

But it was a comedy kiss, and that makes a difference. The Garbo-Gilbert kissing marathons of old weren't supposed to be funny.

See Economic Reason
 Rotund Archie Mayo, who has to direct some romantic passages between Olivia de Havilland and Leslie Howard in "Centeman After Midnight," sees an economic significance in the kissing trend.

"The depression seems to ooze over," he says, "and that most certainly will be reflected in screened love as in real romance."

"With financial security around the corner, the world can find time to make love convincingly and unhurriedly. The four-foot kiss of the past three years can be lengthened now to occupy at least six feet of film."

And you can hear Lloyd Bacon talking his players, about to embark on a kiss, to "keep it sweet and gentle—take your time." Bacon's directions to kissers generally used to be "Make it short and snappy." And Mervyn LeRoy says, "There, that's right. Put some feeling in it, a little passion!"

The love scene between Ian Hunter and Kay Francis in "Confession" is one of the longest filmed in recent months—longest in point of endurance kissing. It is the kiss that is supposed to seal their betrothal and it will occupy all the time and space on the screen permitted by the Heys office.

Love scenes between Bette Davis and Henry Fonda in "That Certain Woman" are also unusually prolonged and tender, photographically speaking. Even Martha Raye and Bob Burns, if this keeps up, may go in for serious, constructive cinema kissing.

The tender passion expressed by a gesture more tender than the passionate peck—that's the outlook for next year's kisses.

Rubens's victim, insured for $100,000, is protected also by a chain, lock and handcuffs—the latter connected to the player's wrist.

Frogs Defeat Steers, 11 - 7 AUSTIN, May 19 (UP)—The Texas Longhorns put away their balls and bats today, signalling the end of their vain quest of the Southwest conference baseball championship. The Steers and Texas Christian lowered the curtain yesterday on the conference season, the Frogs completing the Longhorns' late-season collapse 11 to 7. Billy Dachs' men, who let the Texas Aggies take the championship from them, seemed an uninspired lot against the right-hand pitching of Aubrey Linne. C. C. Hughson, Steer mound ace, failed to halt a frog victory march in the fifth and yielded to Hu, nes, who let in six more runs.

in Houston's auto mechanics resumption of work in more of the city's garages, prepared to re-

April 15.

Special officers patrolled several auto service shops, but union head-been instructed "to maintain peace."

"The dealers closed their places

they have been at liberty to open

EIGHT STUDEBAKER DEPARTMENTS CLOSE

SOUTH BEND, Ind., May 19 (AP)—
Most departments of the Studebaker Corporation, automobile manufacturers, were closed today workers refused to work. Presence of non-union employees was reported at the close.

Officials of Studebaker local No.
5, United Automobile Workers of America and company officers conferred this afternoon. It was reported the union sought a "closed shop."

Eight departments, including the foundry, were at work, but most of the 7,000 employees were idle.

BILBAO ATTACKED BY FRANCO'S PLANES

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish
Frontier, May 19 (AP)—Insurgent General Franco's big black bombers flew back to the attack on land-pressed Bilbao today, with only a hill separating the insurgent armies at devastated Amorebieta and Eiburo's iron ring of final fortifications.

The rain-soaked ground was drying to permit a new infantry advance.

In Bilbao, Basque capital, the defenders ordered two captured
German airmen, Capt. Walter
Kienzel and Lieut. Gunther
Schulze, to appear for trial before a popular tribunal tomorrow on charges of rebellion and murder.
Harrassed defending armies bucked down the main highway from Amorebieta today, fighting constantly to keep General Emilio Mola from splitting the De Callo line on which the Basque capital lives its last hope for survival.
Advices from the beleaguered capital of the semi-autonomous Basque republic said its militiamen set up a new front immediately behind the smoking ruins of Amorebieta.

Separate Bill May Provide For Old Age Assistance
WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—Representative Clifton A. Woodrum (D-Va.), chairman of house conferees on the independent offices supply bill, said today a separate bill may be introduced to appropriate funds for May old age assistance payments, including those for 126,000 Texans.
Unless the conference committee seeking an adjustment of house and senate differences on the independent offices bill reaches an agreement "in a day or two," he said, special legislation will be offered for the federal old age payments.
The social security board completed April old age assistance payments, but had no money for May allotments. The pending independent offices bill is primarily an appropriations measure for the fiscal year starting July 1, but contains provision for federal participation in state old age assistance programs for the remainder of the current fiscal year.
