Curbing Finished Begun Sidewalk

Contractor Reed Has Finished the Cement Curbing and Begun
Work on the Walk Proper

Work was begun on the cement sidewalk proper on the west side of the square Thursday morning. The curb and gutter have been finished for about a week, but the hands have been kept busy tearing out the old galleries and leveling up the ground so the cement could be put down. It will only be a few days now until Tahoka will have a cement sidewalk 12 feet wide and 324 feet long of the very best workmanship and material. We already have two walks finished on Main street 12 feet wide and 149 feet long and two more laid off and the curb and gutter finished, also a walk from Main street to the corner of Sweet and Porterfield 12x137 feet. We now have, counting the walk a long the front and side of the bank, 1,008 lineal feet of cement sidewalk completed and under construction.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Morris moved from the office building at the wagon yard on the southwest corner of the square, where they had been living for several months, to their pretty little on east Lockwood street. Mr. Morris has one of the nicest little homes at this place there is in Tahoka; quarter of a block, a nice three room house, good well and windmill, and quite a number of nice young orchard and shade trees, all of which go to make a home beautiful and comfortable. It is the large number nice homes like this that makes Tahoka noted as the prettiest little town on the Plains.

Commissioner J. M. Noble and family were Tahoka visitors Wednesday.

Antis Have Their Wires Crossed

From the beginning of this campaign all anti candidates have been vehement in their protests that prohibition cannot be an issue in this contest because the constitutional amendment was defeated, and hence the issue is dead. This contention is even yet loudly declaimed by the anti leaders for Governor, U. S. Senate and others, and while this is going on the executive committee of the German State League in Austin brings out an avowed anti State ticket with Colquitt, Wolters, Bob Barker Wiley Imboden and others in the list.

The announcement of this ticket is made in Das Wolkenblatt, a German paper published in Austin, and accompanying the ticket is the plain unvarnished truth acknowledged by the executive committee in this language: "We believe that prohibition is the main issue in the approaching primary election in July."

And while this confession is being scattered all over Texas Colquitt, Wolters, Barker, Imboden and others are yelling that prohibition is not an issue.

This executive committee goes on to appeal to all Germans and all of German descent in Texas to stand by this gang of candidates and go to the polls and vote for them in July. Here is the brazenness of the appeal:

It presupposes that every German in Texas and all of German descent are in favor of the breweries and saloons which Colquitt & Co. have championed all through this campaign. The fact is that scores of thousands of the best German citizenship are pronounced and irrepressible pros, they will administer a rebuke to this insolent assumption that that they are all of a feather and all for breweries and saloons. The German pros in Texas constitute one of the strongest contingencies to the prohibition cause and the cause of good government.—Jefferson Jimplecute.

The News spoke of our fine grazing lands, our well graded cattle and horses, our fine farming land, growing crops and young orchards. They also reprinted a couple of letters written to Prof. H. M. Bainer, the Santa Fe Demonstrator, by Messrs. Hatchett and Anthony, two of our most successful farmers, both of whom we know to have written conservative letters.

They mentioned our First National Bank building as one of the handsomest structures of its class in the Panhandle, they mentioned our concrete sidewalks which are still in the course of construction, and the general showing of thrift and progress that Tahoka is making.

Crop Condition as They Actually Are

The Unvarnished Truth Concerning Crop Conditions in Lynn County learned from farmers

Reports coming in from the west part of the county are to the effect that that many farmers are suffering for rain; the southwest part of the county needs rain as does thenorthwest.

The south part got a good rain June the 16th, the southeast and east had a big rain and were not needing it very badly either, and the northeast and had a terrific rain on that date which extended as far down as two miles south of Tahoka and put out more surface water than the oldest inhabitants ever saw, lakes where there never were lakes before, and all the lakes larger and deeper than ever known.

Crops are just simply immense in at least half the county, and in the balance most of the farmers have good prospects if they can get a rain in time. A few of the farmers have suffered greatly from the dry weather, sand storms and hail, but, take the county as a whole its prospects for a bumper crop were never brighter at this time of the year. If you want to see large lakes of water, green grass and good crops come to Tahoka via the Santa Fe, or any other way.

From every part of the county except the western, reports keep coming in of excellent crops and very fine prospects. A number of the farmers report corn tasseling and feed stuff knee high and better, bunching to head and in a few cases heading out. Cotton for the most part is doing well, much of it however being late. Some of our farmers are complaining about rabbits, prairie dogs and grasshoppers eating the grass.

Jack White, of the northwest part of the county, again joins the list of Lynn County News readers and will receive 52 reminder of the fact that Tahoka is his home town and the place to do his trading.

T. F. Doak, who lives in the West Point community, says it is very dry at his place, but he wanted to read about the fine rains in the other parts of the county so he takes The News for a year. While it is dry, his crops are holding up fine and he will make it all right yet if the rain doesn't hold off to loong.

Lawyer C. H. Cain returned Monday evening from a ten days business trip to Amarillo, Clarendon, and Nolan county. He tells us that coming down on the train from Amarillo, that the country on both sides of the road shows up very dry except in a few spots. From Lubbock to Slaton grass begins to look green, but from Slaton to Tahoka is the greenest grass and most largest lakes he has seen on his entire trip. He says he saw some of the hail drifts in the Tahoka Lake draw that fell Sunday night the 16th. The hail drifted so high in the draw that it had not all melted, Monday evening.

Everybody wants a picnic in Tahoka, so let somebody get busy and make a start.

It's funny, but when "there's nothing doing," the merchants have no time to work up trade.

We have had several hot days this week: Must be the reaction from the hail at Tahoka Lake melting.

We notice that the Post City Post swiped a half column of locals from The News last week. However these locals were such good reading matter that they put them on the front page, so we forgave them for not giving us credit.

An exchange says that the biggest trust on earth is the County Newspaper. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for cussing, and if it busts for trusting, gets cussed for busting. There is but one way you can bust this trust.—pay your subscription.

It would be funny if it were not so pathetic, but we suppose it is only natural: The only weekly paper that comes to our exchange table that heads its editorial column with this ticket: "Harmon for president, Colquitt for governor, Wolters for senator," is the only one that carries liquor ads.

Last week Editor Richardson of the Sweetwater Reporter was arrested and taken to Austin to answer a charge of contempt before the state supreme court for publishing a statement about the Orient case that reflected upon the court. He apologized and was fined 85 cents, reprimanded and turned loose. Evidently the court had him searched, and fined him all the cash he had. We hope he had a round trip ticket, for it is a long walk from Austin to Sweetwater.—Ex.

Editor Richardson may not express himself so freely hereafter; but, we doubt if his contempt has lessened any.

The Terry County Herald says that the farmers are loosing thousands of dollars every day in sweet potato vines, fruit trees, corn, maize and vegetables, that are being destroyed by rabbits, and they advocate placing a bounty on the rabbits.

The commissioners at Lubbock have appropriated $500 for the purpose of paying a bounty of 5 cents for each jack rabbit killed in Lubbock county.

Five hundred dollars will pay for 12,500 dead rabbit; 12,500 live rabbits will eat as much as 500 head of horses, and what the rabbits eat and destroy will cost as much as horse feed, or 25 cents a day per head. So you see the 12,500 rabbit dead will save the farmers of Lubbock county $125 a day, or the $500 appropriated for rabbit scalps over and over every four days.

Rabbits are doing great damage right here in Lynn county, and a great many of our farmers think the commissioners should help to give them some relief from these pests.

TAFT AND SHERMAN

The National Republican Convention at Chicago Finishes Its Labors After a Week of Hard Fighting.

ROOSEVELT DELEGATES REFUSED TO VOTE

Fast Time Was Made After Committee on Credentials' Report Was Adopted—Taft and La Follette the Only Candidates Placed in Nomination.

Convention Hall.—William Howard Taft of Ohio at 9:25 o'clock Saturday night was renominated for president of the United States by the Republican national convention on the first ballot. The vote was Taft 561, Roosevelt 107, La Follette 41, Cummins 17, Hughes 2; absent 6; present and not voting 344.

Vice President James S. Sherman was renominated as Taft's running mate on the first ballot.

Following the nomination for the president, the band played "America," while the aisles were cleared.

Nominations for vice president were called at 9:36 o'clock p. m. The roll of states was called.

Alabama yielded to New York. Ol-use of the Panama canal now nearing completion.

Flood prevention and reclamation of arid land is favored and a liberal policy toward improvement of rivers and harbors guaranteed.

The platform also favors a liberal policy toward the development of Alaska and believes the Philippine policy should remain out of politics. Better immigration laws are promised and legislation to make sea voyages safer is favored.

cott came forward amid applause to name Mr. Sherman of New York for re-nomination.

C. T. Kratz of Pennsylvania, evidently in derision, named Boies Penrose. It was not seconded. No other nominations were made. Vermont did not present, as expected, the name of Governor Mead.

The roll call on vice president gave: Sherman, 597; Borah, 21; Merriam, 20; Hadley, 14; Beveridge, 2; Gillette, 1; absent 71. Present but not voting, 352.

The revolt of many of the Roosevelt delegates in the convention was open from the moment the permanent roll containing the names of contested delegates was approved. A "valedictory" statement was read in behalf of Colonel Roosevelt asking that his name be not presented and that his delegates sit in mute protest against all further proceedings.

The first test vote after the announcement of the Roosevelt valedictory came on the adoption of the party platform.

The affirmative vote was 666. Roosevelt delegates present and not voting numbered 343. There were 53 noes, 36 of them from the La Follette states of Wisconsin and North Dakota. Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin was placed before the convention, but Colonel Roosevelt's wishes were carried out by his followers and they remained silent during the call of the states for nominations.

Many of the delegates, however, carried out their primary instructions and voted for the Colonel.

The Platform.

The platform was adopted by a vote of 666 to 53; not voting 343; absent 16. After paying a tribute to Abraham Lincoln it points with pride to the party record in the past and guarantees to meet the problems of the future as satisfactorily as it solved those of the past. It upholds the integrity of the courts, but urges laws to bar delays, declares the party is opposed to special privileges and monopoly and favors a trade commission. The belief in a protective tariff is reaffirmed and the doctrine of a tariff for revenue only is condemned. A prompt scientific inquiry in the cause of the present high cost of living is guaranteed. The need of a better currency system is recognized and an authoritative investigation of agricultural credit societies and corporations in other countries and the passage of state and federal laws for the establishment and capable supervision of organizations having for their purpose the loaning of funds to farmers is recommended and urged.

The platform reaffirms the party's adherence to civil service and favors amendment to the federal employe's liability law. Publicity in campaign contributions is indorsed and the party is pledged to a continuance of the policy of conservation of the nation's resources. A parcels post under proper regulations is favored. A revival of the merchant marine is urged to make

The building is made of lime, gravel and sand and it is thought that local sand and gravel can be used. The factory plans to have their machinery ready for some of the brick that are going up in Plainview this summer, local contractors architects now being busy with the plans for nine brick streets.

Robert Alley, of near Hamlet, has one of the best irrigation wells in the county, and with a h. p. engine and 6 inch centrifugal pump he is doing a lot of irrigating. He has this year, for the first time in this section, irrigated wheat, and the yield is expected to be very heavy, showing that irrigating wheat if a success is also irrigating a large field of alfalfa.

In order to make a greater success of irrigation, he is having three million gallon reservoirs to run his water into.

Mr. Alley is an old-timer in Plains, but he is also one of the first settlers of the plains. He recently built a $10,000 residence and has one of the best apple farms and homes in the Plains country.

CALOMEL IS DANGEROUS.

Is a Powerful Chemical Made from Mercury—People Should be Careful.

The only sure way to avoid the danger of calomel is to take no calomel.

Dodson's Liver-Tone, a vegetable liquid of pleasant taste, more than takes its place. Where calomel shakes you up and shocks your liver, Dodson's Liver-Tone, mild but effective, builds up and strengthens. It "liven up the liver."

It may be taken without any restriction of diet or habit. You can give it to your children with fine results.

Get a bottle at McGill's Drug Store and if it doesn't do all that you think it ought—if it doesn't make billious spells mere trifles—if it doesn't "liven up your liver," your money will be waiting for you.

PROGRESSIVE LEADERS MERT AND START THEIR CAMPAIGN.

ROOSEVELT IS THE NOMINEE

Mass Meetings of the People to be Called to Ratify the Choice—Most Remarkable Political Gathering Since 1856.

Chicago, June 24.—The new Progressive party came into existence Saturday night. It had its birth in Orchestra hall, while thousands cheered with an enthusiasm that was not far from religious.

Theodore Roosevelt is its presidential nominee. He accepted the nomination on the condition that it be reaffirmed at a mass convention from all the people, including Democrats as well as Republicans, southerners as well as northerners.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
The First Candidate of the New Party for President.

His appeal for the blotting out of party lines in the cause of "our common American citizenship" brought a tremendous outburst from the crowd. "I ask you," he said, "to go to your several homes to find out the senti-

ARCADIAN

AMERICA'S BEST RANGE

The Arcadian is a perfect baking range, and stays a perfect baker for a lifetime because it is built like a locomotive boiler. Built of malleable iron and charcoal iron riveted together instead of being bolted together. Made airtight without the use of stove putty to crumble and fall out, as happens in cast iron and so-called steel ranges, allowing false drafts to fan the fire or deaden it.

The Arcadian Range will never have false drafts—it will always do perfect baking, using a third less fuel than common ranges.

Never need to use blackening—a rub with an oiled cloth makes it appear like new. It pays for itself over and over in the fuel it saves, to say nothing of the way it makes a woman's work easier and allows her to do perfect baking.

THE ARCADIAN IS SOLD BY US.

We invite you to call as we wish to demonstrate the value of this range to you.

ment of the people at home and then again come together, I suggest by mass convention, to nominate for the presidency a progressive candidate on a progressive platform that will enable us to plead to northerners and southerners, easterners and westerners, Republicans and Democrats, alike."

It was a wonderful convention, a convention that suggested in its solemnity, as well as its enthusiasm, what must have been the spirit of the men, who met under the Jackson oaks fifty-six years ago to found the Republican party in defense of the rights of man.

It was made up of the Roosevelt delegates, and as many of the people here as could get into the hall, which seats about three thousand. The men who made up the audience were in dead earnest. They were there for a purpose.

When a boy got up to the great pipe organ in the hall and played "America," and "Star Spangled Banner," and then "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory of the Coming of the Lord," the audience joined in the singing with the fervor of a religious meeting.

Men from Tennessee and from Massachusetts, and from California and from Maine stood with tears in their eyes as they sang.

Within twenty-four hours a call is to be made for an Illinois convention of Roosevelt supporters, at which a state organization will be formed.

Medill McCormick of Chicago said calls in other states would be issued in rapid succession and that within a few weeks the Progressive party would be organized in every section of the country.

The method of operation in the various states is still to be decided upon. In some cases the Republican candidates for state and national offices, with the exception of President and Vice-President, will be endorsed, with the idea of preserving the state Republican organizations which are in sympathy with the Roosevelt movement.

An incident in the breaking up of the regular party organization is the resignation of members of the national committee who are favorable to Roosevelt.

Little Use for Hospital.
All the preparations made by the hospital corps for taking care of people who might be overcome by the heat were taken advantage of very little because of the cool weather. Nevertheless, the nurses and physicians were early on duty.

A "first aid" emergency hospital had been provided in the south end of the Coliseum, about 200 feet to the rear of the platform in the auditorium. All the aisles leading from the hospital to the main hall were kept open so that any patient might quickly be relieved.

Mr. Alva Samford and Miss Gertie Blankenship were married Thursday evening June 27th at nine o'clock, Rev. Prof. Carroll Phillips officiating. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parent, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Blankenship. Only relatives and close friends were present at the short but impressive ceremony. The News joins with their many friends in wishing the young couple much joy.

Second Day.
When the convention met on Wednesday Governor Hadley renewed his motion to unseat the contested delegates. Another test of strength came when Watson of Indiana moved to refer the motion to the credentials committee.

so as to provide that no contested delegate should vote on the membership of the committee on credentials or on its report.

Mr. Watson moved to table the motion of Governor Deneen.

Motion carried by a vote of 564 to 510. This was a defeat for the Roosevelt forces.

Third Day.
On Thursday the convention merely marked time while awaiting the report of the committee on credentials.

The Republican platform committee voted down by a bare majority of one a proposition by Governor Hadley to incorporate a plank favoring the direct primary. Governor Hadley announced that no minority report would be presented by the Roosevelt members of the platform committee.

Fourth Day.
Friday was devoted to adopting the various reports from the committee on credentials on the contested seats, in which the Taft forces were victorious in nearly every instance. Several hours were given to bitter debate between the factions, the convention adjourning for the day at 7:38 p. m.

The California delegates voted unanimously to follow the leadership of Governor Johnson, who was one of the earliest and most ardent advocates of the third party plan.

SOME SCENES AND INCIDENTS

LITTLE TOUCHES OF HUMAN INTEREST AT CONVENTION.

HAD RESPECT FOR GOV. HADLEY

Demonstration for the Missouri Executive Lasted Three Quarters of an Hour—Other Items of Interest.

Rosewater Prompt, But—Victor Rosewater, who as chairman of the national committee called the convention to order, was only three minutes late in pounding out with his gavel the announcement that the show was about to begin. The Omaha man looked pitifully small and weak, and could not make himself heard ten feet away from the platform. For fifteen minutes confusion reigned, and the chairman was unable to quell it. A little later, when the Roosevelt adherents were making their first fight by seeking to substitute their own temporary roll for that prepared by the national committee, Mr. Rosewater piped feebly until some one shouted, “Speak up, little boy.” Then he succumbed to the roar of laughter and let a clerk read his rulings.

It was no easy job keeping the great crowd in order, for while the delegates themselves were mostly grim and tense, apparently imbued with the idea that they were “making history,” there were numerous skillfully placed claqueurs in the galleries which interrupted the speakers at frequent intervals.

Hadley Commands Respect.

One man there was who was not subject to ribald interruptions and jeers. That was Governor Hadley of Missouri, the Roosevelt field captain. Whenever he arose he was accorded respectful attention and often hearty applause, for even his political enemies couldn't think up weak spots in his record with which to taunt him.

“Bill” Flinn, another Roosevelt fighter, was not so fortunate, but he seemed to like the storm that raged about him and did not give an inch until squelched by the gavel. Senator Bradley of Kentucky, too, came in for a share of “boos” and hisses and was stirred to rage by many allusions to the fact that he had voted in favor of Lorimer.

Police Intermittently Active. Chicago supplied a small army of policemen to assist in keeping order and handling the crowd, and they did their duty nobly, by fits and starts. Despite all precautions, the doorkeepers let in hordes of their friends, who blocked up the aisles. At intervals some commanding officer would open his eyes, and there would be a sudden clearing out of the passage ways, accompanied by violent pushings and indignant protests. Some of these intruders wore fake badges, which served until a suddenly efficient policeman discovered the trick and rushed the offenders to the door with a mighty roar.

How the News Went Out.

Never have the arrangements for getting the news of a national convention to the country been excelled. The correspondents were placed on both sides of the speaker's stand at convenient long tables, and in the basement were the extensive quarters of the several telegraph companies and news associations. Messenger boys in a continuous stream gathered up the “copy” and in a minute it was on the wires.

Besides the ordinary working newspaper men on the job, the press section was graced by the presence of a number of famous writers. Among these were Finley P. Dunne (“Doolley”), William Allen White, Elbert Hubbard, George Ade, Percy Hammond, George Fitch, Sam Blythe, Edward J. Clark, John Callan O’Laughlin and, last, but not least, William J. Bryan.

Many Women in Galleries.

It looked as though about half of the spectators in the Coliseum were women, and they added much to the liveliness of the scene by their pretty costumes and their enthusiasm.

Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, who sat beside her husband in rear seats on the aisle, could not contain herself. She was not recognized by more than a dozen persons when she entered the hall.

Women Delegates Cheered.

California's two woman delegates—Mrs. Florence C. Porter of Los Angeles and Mrs. Isabella W. Blaney of Saratoga—cast the first national convention votes ever given to members of their sex by any great political party. They went with the progressives, voting for McGovern, and as each rose to her feet to announce her choice she was cheered by the delegates and the audience.

Wild Demonstration for Hadley.

Hadley was the man of the second day's session—Hadley of Missouri. He had stepped forward to speak in support of Governor Deneen's motion which was designed to prevent the 73 contested delegates voting on their own cases, but before he could utter a word pandemonium broke loose. In a moment every Roosevelt delegate was on his feet shouting “Hadley, Hadley,” and even the Taft cohorts could not keep their seats. Then the enthusiasts began to pull up their state standards and march with them, while the galleries leaped to their feet, waving hats and handkerchiefs and papers and howling at the top of their voices. California's golden Teddy Bear led the way, and New Jersey, Missouri and North Carolina followed close behind. West Virginia, Ohio and Oklahoma fell into line, and there was a mighty roar as “Bill” Flinn grabbed Pennsylvania's standard and led his followers past the front of the speaker's stand. Minnesota and Maine now joined the shouting procession, and people all over the hall began to say that if nominations were in order, it would be no trick at all to put the governor of Missouri at the head of the ticket.

Cheers for Bryan.

One of the biggest demonstrations of the convention before the body was called to order was that given to William J. Bryan. As soon as he was recognized there was a rush of delegates and spectators toward him. “Bill Bryan, Bryan, Bryan,” was the call that went up. Shaking hands as he walked, Mr. Bryan hurried to an usher and showed him his seat check. Smiling broadly on those who were following him, he hastened to a seat, got out a pencil and paper and began his day's work as a reporter.

SILHOUETTES.

Don't tell your troubles—sing or whistle them.

If every one told the truth all the time there would still be some doubters.

There's no use for a man to try to have the last word with Dame Rumor; she wins.

Just because a man doesn't happen to have a corkscrew in his pocket it is not reason he hasn't any use for it.

The young wife, thinking sadly of the days when her lover brought her candy, should take comfort in the thought that her husband is bringing her corned beef and bacon, which is more filling.—Judge.
